Oakland A's to Host FanFest in Jack London Square

Fans can meet players, coaches at the free event on Jan. 27

OAKLAND, Calif. – The Oakland A's will host their annual FanFest on Saturday, Jan. 27 in Jack London Square. The free event gives fans the opportunity to meet players and coaches ahead of the 50th Anniversary season.

FanFest will include autograph, photo, and question-and-answer sessions with current and alumni A's players, coaches, and broadcasters. The event will also feature the A's four World Series trophies, free food trucks, a kids zone, and A's merchandise. The family-friendly event is from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

"After last year's successful FanFest in Jack London Square, we are excited to make this event even bigger for our fans and the community," said A's President Dave Kaval. "FanFest is a wonderful way for us to engage the best fans in baseball and build more excitement ahead of the 2018 season."

Twenty-one players, including Matt Chapman, Matt Olson, and Stephen Piscotty are all scheduled to join. Fans will also have the opportunity to meet members of the 50th Anniversary team, including Rickey Henderson, Vida Blue, and John "Blue Moon" Odom.
