ABOUT THE A'S: Have won three straight, five of the last six and eight of the last 10 games...the three-game winning streak equals the A's second longest of the season...the only time the A's won more than three in a row was from June 2-8 when they had a seven-game winning streak...the A's went 31-43 over the first 74 games this year but are 36-35 since then (June 29)...were officially eliminated from the playoffs Tuesday night in game 144 and were eliminated from the American League West Sunday in game 142...last year, the A's were officially eliminated from the playoffs in game 143...have spent each of the last 137 days (since May 3) and 143 days this year in sole possession of last place in the AL West...the only seasons in Oakland history in which the A's spent more days all alone in last are 1997 (153) and 1979 (147)...have finished the season last in the AL West six times in Oakland history (1977, 1979, 1993, 1995, 1997, 1998)...the A's are 24-38 (.387) against Western division teams and 43-40 (.518) against teams from the Central and East.

A SWEEPING SUCCESS: The A's swept the three-game series at Texas, their third series sweep of the season and their first since June 5-7 against Baltimore in Oakland...that snapped a streak of 27 consecutive series without a sweep, which equaled the fourth longest such streak in Oakland history...it was the A's first sweep of a series of three or more games on the road since June 13-15 of last year at San Francisco...allowed just one run in the three-game series against the Rangers, equaling the fewest in a three-game series in Oakland history...it was the fifth time and the first time since August 5-7, 1991 against Seattle...prior to this last series, the A's had never allowed fewer than nine runs in a three-game series at Rangers Ballpark...the pitching staff held Texas to a .125 (11 for 88) batting average and the 11 hits also equal the fewest allowed in a three-game series in Oakland history...it was the fifth time and the first time since June 27-29, 1994 against California...the one-hitter last night marked just the second time Texas has been held to one hit in Rangers Ballpark and the other time was also this year on June 28 against San Diego...it was just the fourth game of one hit or less by the Rangers or their opponents in Rangers Ballpark.

HOME AND AWAY: The A's went 6-2 on the eight-game road trip to Chicago (1-1), Minnesota (2-1) and Texas (3-0), marking just their second winning road trip of more than one series this year...went 4-2 against Kansas City and Baltimore, August 7-12...are now 14-10 (.583) over the last 24 road games but are 33-42 (.440) for the season...will finish with a losing record on the road for the third consecutive season...begin an eight-game homestand tonight against Cleveland (four games) and Texas (four games)...went 4-3 on the last homestand against Kansas City (2-1) and Seattle (2-2) and are 34-36 (.486) at home for the season...are one of four American League teams with a losing record at home.

SINCE THE ALL-STAR BREAK: The A's are 30-29 since the All-Star Break...are batting .278 (577 for 2073), which is third best in the American League...hit .246 before the break...have a Major League leading 68 stolen bases since the break, which are the most post-break steals by an A's team since 1992 (68)...the last time the A's had more steals after the break was 1991 (71)...lead the AL in doubles after the break (131), rank third in runs (305) and in extra base hits (192).

DEFENSIVE DOINGS: The A's have gone five consecutive games without an error and have 85 errors for the season with 17 games remaining...have made fewer than 100 errors in each of the previous five seasons, which equals the longest such streak in Major League history (Philadelphia, 2001-05).

OFFENSE: The A's have 15 stolen bases in the last eight games and rank fourth in the American League and the majors with 122 steals for the season...over the last 16 years, the only time the A's have stolen more bases was in 1998 when they had 131...rank last in the AL in home runs (124) and slugging percentage (.394), second to last in extra base hits (412), are tied for the second fewest triples (15) and are fourth in lowest batting average (.259), lowest on-base percentage (.326) and fewest runs scored (666)...have 473 walks and are on pace for 528 walks for the season...the last time the A's walked fewer than 537 times in a non-strike season was 1985 when they had 508...are on pace to hit 139 home runs...over the last 20 years, the only A's team to hit fewer than 142 home runs is last years club, which finished with 125.

THE THREE SPOT: Ryan Sweeney went 12 for 27 (.444) in six starts in the three spot on the road trip but the A's number three hitters are hitting a combined .223 (128 for 575) for the season, which is the lowest mark in the majors...since 1974, the lowest batting average by a team's number three hitters is .217 by the 1976 Montreal Expos.

MONTH BY MONTH: The A's are 9-5 in the month of September...have finished with a losing record in each of the first five months of the season, the first time they have done that since 1993...the only time in Oakland history the A's had a losing record in all six months was in 1979...have not had a winning record in a month since last June (16-10) and the eight consecutive months without a winning record equals the second longest streak in Oakland history...also had eight straight at .500 or less from August, 1978 to September, 1979...the longest streak is 10 in a row from August, 1996 to May, 1998.

THE DISABLED LIST: The A's have used the disabled list 16 times this year and 63 times since the start of the 2007 season...the 16 players have combined to miss 869 games, an average of 54.3 games per stint...currently have six players on the DL and for the third consecutive season will have at least three players on the DL for the entire season...have not had fewer than three players on the DL since the end of the 2006 season when they had just one.
