Thursday's Arizona Fall League roundup

Clemens, Linares, Lawson homer in sixth inning for Javelinas

By MLB.com

Javelinas 6, Solar Sox 4

Astros prospect Koby Clemens hit one of three longballs to highlight a four-run rally in the sixth inning en route to the victory. Juan Carlos Linares (Red Sox) smacked a two-run shot and after a popup, Clemens and Matt Lawson (Mariners) followed with back-to-back homers. Starter Marc Rzepczynski (Blue Jays) held Mesa to a run on six hits and three walks over six frames.

Scorpions 9, Rafters 5

Slugging Nationals catching prospect Derek Norris homered and plated a career-high five runs for Scottsdale. Norris' third longball in nine AFL games ties him for the league lead with three and he is two off leader Marc Krauss' RBI pace with 12. Conor Gillaspie (Giants) homered twice and Charles Blackmon (Rockies) also went yard for Scottsdale.

Saguaros 15, Desert Dogs 1 (8 innings)

Kris Negron (Reds) tripled, singled and drove in four runs as Peoria pounded Phoenix. Ben Revere (Twins) collected three hits and his league-leading eighth stolen base. The Saguaros broke the game wide open in the seventh, scoring nine runs on eight hits and four walks. They sent 16 men to the plate, with the first seven scoring before the Desert Dogs recorded an out.
