- games (838 including today)—more than 5 years ago. TB Elias says: The Rays are more than a year away from a chance to break the pre-1900 record, set by the Detroit Wolverines of the NL from 1881-88...the Wolverines streak was 879 games and it spanned the team's entire 8-year history as a major league club...Hall of Famers Dan Brouthers (1886-88) and Sam Thompson (1885-88) were on the team, which posted the best record in the NL in 1887.
  - Elias also says: The Senators streak snapped on Opening Тß Day 1918, Walter Johnson's first appearance as a 30-yearold...that day was also noteworthy because President Woodrow Wilson declined the traditional invitation to throw out the first pitch of the season, due to World War I.

WHERE THE WILD THINGS ARE—Over the last 11 games— beginning with the 16-inning game July 17 vs. BOS—the Rays bullpen has allowed 33 walks in 35.2 IP...they are 0-4 with a 5.55 ERA (35.2-IP, 22-ER) and are 2-for-6 in save opps.
