RAY MATTER—The Rays are 4-2 on this 9-game, 3-city road trip (2-1 at BAL and 2-1 at LAA) despite scoring 3 runs or less in 5 of the 6 games... Tampa Bay has pitched to a 1.90 ERA (52-IP, 11-ER) in the 6 games... yesterday's 2-0 win at Los Angeles gave the Rays back-to-back series wins for the first time since May 21-27 when they took 2 of 3 from Toronto and Boston...tonight, the Rays are seeking their first 3-game win streak since June 7-10 when they won 4 straight...Rays are 6-4 in their last 10 games while pitching to a 1.74 ERA (93-IP, 18-ER) and allowing only 55 hits, striking out 108 and walking only 20.

- + The Rays are 8-8 since the All-Star break while pitching to a 2.69 ERA (147-IP, 44-ER) with a major-league-high 158 strikeouts...Rays pitchers have fanned 10 or more batters in 10 of the last 15 games.
- + The Rays are 12-12 in July, 18-24 since they were last in first place on June 11 and 34-41 since they were a season-high 11 games over .500 (19-8) on May 4.
- + The Rays have won 5 of the last 7 road games and since May 13, are 18-13 in their last 31 road games...they are 15-22 at home during that same span.

RAYS ONE SNY OF CLUB SCORELESS INNINGS STREAK—In taking 2 of 3 games from the Angels over the weekend the Rays beat C.J. Wilson 3-0 on Saturday and Zack Greinke 2-0 on Sunday...23-year-old Matt Moore beat Wilson and 25-year-old Jeremy Hellickson bested Greinke... it is the 5th time in club history the Rays have thrown back-to-back team shutouts, first time since May 9-10, 2008 (also vs. the Angels) and first time on the road since May 19-21, 2002 (at Baltimore, Seattle)...in the Angels series, the Rays held the Angels scoreless in 25 of 26 innings and allowed 3 runs, 17 hits and 2 walks while striking out 24...the Rays have gone 23 innings since they last allowed a run, one shy of the club record for consecutive scoreless innings...the mark of 24 consecutive scoreless innings was established May 8-11, 2008.

RAYS HAND GREINKE RARE HOME DEFEAT—In yesterday's 2-0 win at Los Angeles, the Rays handed Zack Greinke his first regular-season home loss in a little more than 2 years...Grienke had won his previous 19 home decisions since losing to the Twins, 19-1—yes, 19-1—on July 26, 2010... courtesy of Elias Sports Bureau.

RAYS BULLPEN MAJORS' 2ND BEST SINCE THE BREAK—In their last 29.2 innings the bullpen has allowed only one run and struck out 44...Rays relievers have worked 51.0 innings since the All-Star break and have been scored upon in only 4 of those innings...their 1.59 ERA (51-IP, 9-ER) since the break is tops in the AL and is 2nd in the majors behind the Reds (1.39).

PITCHING, PITCHING AND MORE PITCHING—In the last 8 games, the Rays and their opponents have combined to hit .200 (101-for-504)...the Rays have batted .208 (53-for-255) and their opponents .193 (48-for-249)... overall, Rays opponents are batting just .239, lowest in the AL...Rays also led the AL in lowest opp avg. in 2010 and 2011...the last team to lead the AL in that category for three consecutive seasons was the 1983-85 Tigers.

THE PRICE IS RIGHT—Tonight's starter David Price (14-4, 2.57) was the majors' first 14-game winner and will be going for his major-league-high 15th...he became the first Ray to lead the majors outright in wins after the first month of the season...if he was to get No. 15 tonight it would come in the Rays 103rd game...only 3 AL pitchers in the 2000s have reached 15 wins faster: TOR David Wells in 2000 (88 games); CWS Jon Garland in 2008 (95 games) and NYY CC Sabathia in 2011 (101 games).

RAYS vs. A's—Oakland Coliseum is historically the Rays toughest AL port...the Rays are 19-46 (292) all-time here...they were 6-30 here prior to Manager Joe Maddon's arrival, but are 13-16 since...their overall mark vs. the A's of 49-83 (.371) is also the lowest winning pct. vs. an AL foe, but the two teams are 24-24 since the start of the 2007 season...A's took 2 of 3 from the Rays at Tropicana Field, May 4-6.

THREE RUNS OR LESS—Tonight's starter David Price has allowed 3 runs or less in 17 starts this season, tied with C.J. Wilson for most in the AL...the only other AL pitcher with 16 is Jeremy Hellickson.

RAYS AND THE 1914 YANKEES—For the first time this season, the Rays are last in the majors in hitting after batting .208 (53-for-255) in their last 8 games...the Rays continue to lead the majors in walks... only once in major league history has a team led the majors in walks while finishing last in batting...that team was the 1914 Yankees...the Yanks batted .229 and drew 577 walks...the 1960 Tigers were close, finishing just .0002 ahead of the Phillies in team batting average (.239) while drawing a league-high 636 walks...Rays rank just below Oakland and Seattle (both at .232)... in the DH era (since 1973), there has never been a season when the AL had the three lowest-hitting teams in the majors, and the 1981 Blue Jays (.226) are the only AL team to finish with a lower average...the Rays are batting .188 (26-for-138) with runners in scoring position since the All-Star break.

TIGHTEST AL WILD CARD RACE SINCE 2005—Presently, eight teams are within 5.5 games of the AL's first Wild Card slot... since the Wild Card format began in 1994, there has only been one season in which the AL Wild Card race has been this tight this late...in 1995 there were 8 teams within 5.0 games as late as Aug 3.

AL EAST IS A BEST—All 5 teams in the AL East enter play today .500 or better...that's the latest into the season that has ever happened...in fact, since the current divisional format began in 1994, only one other time has a division had 5 teams .500 or better this deep into the season: 2005 NL East (all 5 teams finished the season .500 or better).

FIELDING: SECOND HALF TURNAROUND—After making 71 errors in 86 games before the All-Star break (2nd most in the majors), they have made only 6 in the first 16 games since the break...Rays have been errorless in 10 of their last 12 games, but their 77 errors are already 4 more than they made all of last season...Rays have allowed only 3 unearned runs in the last 32 games after allowing a ML-high 40 in their first 76 games.

LIFE WITHOUT LONGO—In the 3rd game of his current rehab assignment, 3B Evan Longoria (partially torn left hamstring) was 1-for-3 with a walk in Triple-A Durham's 8-7 loss to Norfolk (Orioles) yesterday...in 3 games with Durham he is 1-for-9 with 3 walks and an RBI...the Rays are 38-41 since Longoria has been out...they were 15-8 at the time he went on the DL...last Wed at BAL, Ryan Roberts became the 8th different third Ray to play 3B in Longoria's absence and the 9th overall, most by an AL team since the 2007 Blue Jays.

RODNEY QUICKEST TO 30—Rays closer Fernando Rodney earned his 30th save yesterday at LAA in the Rays 103rd game...he is the quickest to 30 saves in club history surpassing the mark of Rafael Soriano in 2010 (104th game)...he is just the 4th pitcher since saves became an official statistic in 1969 to earn 30 saves and have a sub-1.00 ERA on this date... he joins OAK Dennis Eckertsey in 1990 (32 saves and a 0.81 ERA), ATL John Smoltz in 2003 (39 saves, 0.83 ERA) and SEA J.J. Putz in 2007 (31 saves, 0.89 ERA)...the Rays 30-save pitchers:

2010	Rafael Soriano	45 saves	Game 104
1999	Roberto Hernandez	43 saves	Game 111

- + Is aiming to become the first in club history with two seasons of 15 or more wins...won 19 games in 2010... James Shields and Matt Garza each recorded one season of 15-plus victories.
- + Has won his last 6 decisions, a new career high and 1 shy of the Rays record for most consecutive wins (in decisions)...a 7-game winning streak has been achieved four times by a starter in Rays history, most recently by Jeff Niemann from June 20–Aug 16, 2011...Price's 6-win streak is currently the 2nd-longest active winning streak in the AL behind only LAA Jered Weaver at 8.
- + During the 7-start span where he has gone 6-0 (since June 19 at WAS), has posted a 1.82 ERA (49.1-IP, 10-ER) with 52 SO and only 34 hits and 13 BB allowed while averaging 14.9 pitches per inning...the streak came after his worst start of the season, when he allowed 7 runs on 9 hits in a loss to R.A. - + Has stranded 82.1 pct. of his baserunners this year (2nd in AL behind Jeremy Hellickson-82.2 pct.) compared to 73.3 pct. last year.
- + According to FanGraphs, has the 2nd-highest avg. fastball velocity in the majors (95.5 mph) after WAS Stephen Strasburg (95.8)...is throwing his fastball less frequently than last season (61.6 pct. of pitches this year, 70.5 in 2011) but with more velocity (94.8 in 2011)...is throwing a cutter for the first time in his career (13.9 pct. of his total pitches).
