TIGERS AT A GLANCE: The Tigers finished the regular season with an 88-74 record to capture the American League Central Division championship. It marks the 14th time in franchise history the Tigers have secured a spot in the playoffs.

LOOKING BACK AT SUNDAY'S GAME: The Tigers edged the Athletics 5-4 on Sunday at Comerica Park to take a 2-0 lead in the best-of-five game series. Al Alburquerque earned the win in relief for Detroit. Don Kelly plated the game-winning run in the ninth inning with a sacrifice fly, while Miguel Cabrera finished with three hits, including two doubles.

WALKING OFF A WINNER: Don Kelly's sacrifice fly in the bottom of the ninth inning on Sunday versus Oakland led the Tigers to a 5-4 win in walk-off fashion at Comerica Park. It marked the fifth time Detroit has posted a walk-off win during the post-season, and the first time the club has done so since Game Four of the American League Championship Series versus Oakland on October 14, 2006.

FROM PINCH-RUNNER TO WALK-OFF RBI: Don Kelly entered Sunday's game as pinch-runner in the eighth inning, before he plated the game-winning run with a walk-off sacrifice fly in the ninth inning. He is the third player in major league history to deliver a walk-off RBI in a post-season game after entering the game as a pinch-runner. Kelly joined New York's Aaron Boone (Game Seven of the 2003 American League Championship Series versus Boston) and Houston's Chris Burke (Game Four of the 2005 National League Division Series versus Atlanta) in accomplishing the feat. (Source: Elias Sports Bureau)

CABRERA REACHES SAFELY: Miguel Cabrera collected three hits on Sunday versus Oakland and he has now reached base safely in all 13 of his post-season games with the Tigers. His 13-game streak is the third-longest such streak in club history, trailing an 18-game streak by Hank Greenberg and a 16-game streak by Charlie Gehringer.

GARCIA RECORDS AN OUTFIELD ASSIST: Avisail Garcia threw out Oakland's Coco Crisp in the third inning on Sunday, marking Detroit's first post-season outfield assist since the 2006 World Series. Craig Monroe recorded an outfield assist in Game Four of the World Series on October 26, 2006, throwing out Albert Pujols at third base in the seventh inning.

A SECOND STRAIGHT AMERICAN LEAGUE CENTRAL DIVISION TITLE: The Tigers clinched the American League Central Division for the second straight season on October 1 at Kansas City and advanced to the playoffs for the 14th time in franchise history. It marks the fifth time the Tigers have captured a division title since divisional play began during the 1969 season. Detroit has advanced to the playoffs in consecutive seasons for the first time since the club did so in both 1934 and 1935.

FAMILIAR TERRITORY FOR THE SKIPPER: Tigers Manager Jim Leyland has guided a club to the post-season for the seventh time in his 21 seasons as a major league manager, including the third time during his seven-year tenure with the Tigers. He has compiled a 34-28 record (.548) during post-season action. Leyland led the Pittsburgh Pirates to three straight National League East Division titles (1990-92), and he captured the National League Wild Card with the Florida Marlins in 1997. His 1997 Marlins defeated the Cleveland Indians to win the World Series. Leyland's 2006 Tigers club won the American League Wild Card, advancing to the World Series after defeating the Yankees in the American League Division Series and Athletics in the American League Championship Series. The 2011 Tigers captured the American League Central Division title and advanced to the American League Championship Series after defeating the Yankees in the American League Division Series.

TAKING ON OAKLAND DURING THE PLAYOFFS: The Tigers are taking on Oakland in post-season play for the third time in franchise history. Detroit swept Oakland 4-0 during the American League Championship Series to advance to the World Series in 2006. The Tigers fell 3-2 to the Athletics during the 1972 American League Championship Series.

MIGGY BRINGS HOME THE TRIPLE CROWN: Miguel Cabrera led the American League with a .330 batting average, 44 home runs and 139 RBI during the 2012 season to become the first player to win the Triple Crown since Boston's Carl Yastrzemski did so in 1967. It marked the 14th time since 1900 a player captured the Triple Crown and Cabrera is the 12th player to accomplish the feat during that time. He became the second Tigers player to do so, joining Ty Cobb (1909).

CABRERA'S SECOND STRAIGHT BATTING CROWN: Miguel Cabrera led the American League with a .330 batting average to capture his second straight batting crown. He is the first Tigers player to lead the American League in hitting in consecutive seasons since Ty Cobb did so in three straight seasons (1917-19). Cabrera led the American League with a .344 batting average during the 2011 season.

THIRD IN THE AMERICAN LEAGUE IN ERA: The Tigers finished third in the American League with a 3.75 ERA during the 2012 season. The club's 3.75 ERA marked the lowest ERA by a Detroit team since the club in 1988 posted a 3.71 ERA.

PILING UP THE PUNCHOUTS: The Tigers finished second in the American League with 8.29 strikeouts per nine innings during the 2012 season, while the club tied for second with 1,318 strikeouts. The 8.29 strikeouts per nine innings marked the highest rate at which Tigers pitchers have struck out batters in club history. Detroit established a club record with 1,318 strikeouts during the 2012 season. The previous franchise record of 1,115 strikeouts was held by both the 1968 and 2011 teams.

VERLANDER, SCHERZER SURPASS 200 STRIKEOUTS: Justin Verlander topped the American League with 239 strikeouts during the 2012 season, while Max Scherzer finished second with 231 strikeouts. Verlander and Scherzer became only the second duo in Tigers history to fan 200-or-more batters in a season. Mickey Lolich and Joe Coleman accomplished the feat three times for Detroit, doing so in 1971, 1972 and 1973.

INJURY UPDATE: C Victor Martinez (left knee surgery, 60-day DL on March 12), OF Ryan Raburn (right quadriceps strain, 15-day DL on September 11), LHP Daniel Schlereth (left shoulder tendinitis, 60-day DL on April 21).
