1991 - The Astros tie a franchise record by coming back from a 7-run deficit to defeat the Padres at Candlestick by a score of 12-9...Houston trailed 9-2 after 4.0 frames but would score 10 unanswered runs to complete the comeback...LF Luis Gonzalez led the offense with a 2x5 game, including a homer and 4 RBI.

RADIO DIAL: KTRH, 740 AM, will simulcast eight Astros games this season with their sister station KBME, 790 AM, beginning with tonight's game at OAK...tomorrow's game and Friday night's game will also be broadcasted by both stations...KTRH will air only the pregame show and the game, while KBME will pick up pregame, game coverage and the postgame show.

TONIGHT'S GAME: The Astros will open up their nine-game road trip with the first of three in Oakland tonight at 9:05 p.m. CT...RHP Jordan Lyles (4-6) is looking to snap the club's six-game losing streak, but will have to do so against RHP Bartolo Colon, who currently ranks fifth in the AL in ERA.

VS. THE A'S: This marks the Astros' third franchise series in Oakland, after having visited for three game series in 2002 (0-3) and in April of this season (0-3)...Houston's lone victory over Oakland this season came in dramatic fashion as Houston walked off with a victory by posting three runs in the 9th off All-Star closer RHP Grant Balfour...Balfour had entered that game by converting 44 straight save opportunities.

YESTERDAY'S RECAP: The Astros dropped the final game of a four-game weekend series to the Rangers yesterday by a score of 2-1 in Houston...LHP Brett Oberholtzer (2ER/6.2IP) was the tough-luck loser for the Astros as he was outduled by RHP Yu Darvish (1ER/8IP)...Houston picked up just one hit on the day, an 8th inning solo homer by C Carlos Corporan.
