Akron RubberDucks win 4th straight with 3-1 victory over New Britain Rock Cats

New Britain Rock Cats – 8/7/14

The RubberDucks managed only four hits but New Britain only had six as Akron won its fourth straight with a 3-1 victory Tuesday over the visiting Rock Cats in a Class AA Eastern League game.

The Rock Cats got all six hits off RubberDucks starter Will Roberts but could only manage one run on a groundout to shortstop Erik Gonzalez in the seventh inning, bringing in a runner from third.

Meanwhile, Rock Cats starter Tyler Duffey was perfect through four innings before designated hitter Bryan LaHair led off the fifth with a single. Outfielder Anthony Gallas followed with another single, and catcher Alex Lavisky loaded the bases with a bunt single.

LaHair scored on a sacrifice fly from first baseman Jake Lowery, and LaHair scored moments later on a soft groundout by infielder Ronny Rodriguez.

After the Rock Cats cut the RubberDucks' lead to 2-1 in the seventh, Akron added an insurance run in the eighth after Rodriguez doubled, moved to third on a sacrifice bunt by infielder Jaime Pedroza, then scored on another sacrifice bunt by outfielder Ollie Linton.

Roberts (11-11, 3.99 ERA) pitched seven innings, allowing one run on six hits and striking out four. Shawn Armstrong earned his 14th save with a hitless ninth inning.

The RubberDucks (64-55) now trail the Richmond Flying Squirrels by only 2 1/2 games in the Western Division. The Squirrels have lost eight straight.

Kernels Win In Extra Innings

Cedar Rapids Kernels – 8/7/14

CEDAR RAPIDS — Bunt? Not Bryan Haar, not in that situation. “No, I wasn’t going to bunt,” the Cedar Rapids Kernels third baseman said with a smile after his walk-off double gave his team a 4-3, 11-inning win over Kane County last night at Veterans Memorial Stadium. Mitch Garver roped a leadoff double to the gap in left-center field and was replaced on the basepaths by pinch-runner Jon Murphy. Haar got into a two-strike hole against reliever Francisco Carrillo, fouled off an outside fastball, then drilled a pitch off the fence in left-center. Murphy went back to tag on the bullet and just slid home safely head first. In a cruel twist, the outfielder was released after the game by the parent Minnesota Twins. “If Garver doesn’t hit a double, we probably do at least consider a bunt there,” Kernels Manager Jake Mauer said. “But I’m glad it was a decision I didn’t have to make. Boy, he tattooed that one. He hit it so hard on a line, had it been more up in the air, it might have ended up in the street. He didn’t miss it, that’s for sure.” “He gave me the ‘knock them in’ sign,” Haar said. “I’d been pulling off (the ball) all day. I was trying to go to right-center, right field. They were kind of forcing the issue by pitching me away, away, away. Just trying to battle ... got the same pitch as Garver."The Kernels scored twice in the eighth inning to make it a 3-3 game. Garver's two-out RBI to right-center tied it. The win moved Cedar Rapids (58-58, 27-19) into a tie with Kane County for second place in the Midwest League's Western Division. Wisconsin won two games Thursday night and leapfrogged both teams by a half-game. This was just the first of a four-game series that could prove pivotal in the race for the second-half championship. Mauer said his brother, Twins star Joe Mauer, is expected to play Friday, Saturday and Sunday here as he continues his rehab from a strained oblique muscle.

Newest Elizabethton Twins following his fastball

Elizabethton Twins – 8/8/14

ELIZABETHTON, Tenn. -

From working at his father's excavation company, to a stint at an arts school, Brandon Poulson is now just following his fastball.

Poulson is a throwback to the days when pro scouts searched for top talent in obscure places.

He didn't play much high school baseball and then gave up the game after playing for a short time at the San Francisco Academy of Art.

"Decided I wanted to start life and work my way up in my dad's excavation company," Poulson told News 5 WCYB.

One day he got the itch and signed up for the California summer league. When he hit 100 miles per hour on the radar gun, scouts started showing up.

"I was just doing it for fun. By the third outing there were so many teams talking to me."

He eventually signed with the Minnesota Twins and landed in Elizabethton. Now he has television networks wanting to tell the story of the 6-foot-6 fastball pitcher who was discovered in an amateur league.

"I didn't realize how unique of a pathway I took until people started kind of bringing it up to me and putting it in perspective."

Poulson will be available to pitch for the first time Friday when Elizabethton hosts Danville.

"He's big and he's athletic and he absorbs instruction and he seems to be able to apply things," Elizabethton Twins manager Ray Smith told News 5 WCYB.

"He asks questions, so with that combination I'm anxious to see him out there on the mound."

In Elizabethton, Poulson will be working on harnessing his raw talent and chasing his dream.

"Worst case scenario I'll be back at work, but hopefully I can make the most of this."

Elizabethton obliterates Danville

Elizabethton Twins – 8/7/14

The Elizabethton Twins obliterated the Danville Braves 12-0 on 20 hits Thursday at Joe O'Brien Field.

The Twins (27-20) struck first in the third inning when Jorge Fernandez tripled home Trey Vavra and Tanner English, and Alex Real lined an RBI single to center to score Fernandez. Tyler Mautner singled Real to second, but Austin Diemer grounded into an inning-ending double play. English hit a one-out double, and Vavra doubled both into scoring position for Fernandez.

Elizabethton picked up another run in the fourth when English singled home Jonaton Hinojosa with two outs. Hinojosa started the inning with a single to center and moved to second on Jeremias Pineda's sacrifice bunt. Nick Gordon grounded out to short, on which Hinojosa moved to third.

The Twins put up five more runs to push their lead to 9-0 in the fifth. Diemer doubled home Fernandez and Real, Gordon tripled home Mautner and Diemer with two outs, and English followed with a double to score Gordon. Elizabethton stranded English in scoring position when Vavra grounded out to short. Fernandez singled to start the inning and moved to second when Real got hit by a pitch, and Mautner walked to load the bases, chasing starter Andrew Waszak. Waszak left having given up seven runs, all earned, 12 hits and a walk and striking out five in four innings for the loss.

Gordon singled home Hinojosa, and Vavra singled in Pineda in the seventh. Gordon, who moved to third on Vavra's single, scored when Fernandez singled to left. Hinojosa and Pineda singled back-to-back with two outs and moved up into scoring position on a Ryan Gunther wild pitch to Gordon.

Mautner got hit by a pitch to open the eighth, and Diemer singled to move him to second, but Hinojosa flew out, Pineda struck out swinging, and Gordon grounded out to first.

The Twins left bases loaded in the second inning. Fernandez, Real and Mautner started the inning with consecutive singles, but Diemer struck out looking, Hinojosa grounded into a fielder's choice that got Fernandez, and Pineda struck out swinging.

Danville (26-19) stranded Ozhaino Albies at third in the first inning. Albies drew a one-out walk, stole second with Piloto at the plate with one out and went to third on a two-out wild pitch to Matt Tellor, who struck out swinging to end the inning.

The Braves left Omar Obregon in scoring position in the fifth. He bunted a one-out single to third and moved to second on Fernelys Sanchez' single to left. Joe Daris struck out swinging, and Albies grounded into a fielder's choice that got Sanchez.

Elizabethton stranded Gordon at third in the bottom of the inning. Gordon singled with one out, moved to second on a Waszak balk and took third on a two-out wild pitch to Vavra, who struck out looking to end the inning.

McElroy, Murphy and Sanchez each went 1-for-3, while Nevarez went 1-for-1, and Obregon 1-for-4.

There were only three walks in the game, with Daris, Albies and Mautner drawing them.

Elizabethton hosts Danville Friday at 7 p.m. at Joe O'Brien Field.
