ACQUIRED: In a 5-player trade with Milwaukee on August 1, 2016

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2016 (club option for 2017)

CAREER: The 30-year-old catcher was acquired in an Aug. 1 trade with Milwaukee, where he had spent his entire career since being selected by the Brewers in the third round of the 2007 June draft...a two-time All-Star (2014, 2016), Lucroy (pronounced luke-roy) produced a .788 OPS figure over his first five full seasons in the major leagues from 2011-15, second-highest among players appearing primarily at catcher in that span (.862-Buster Posey)...his swing-and-miss percentage of 14.4% over those five seasons was the eighth-lowest among all National League qualifiers in that span, as he has averaged 50 walks against 93 strikeouts per 162 games in his career...a Louisiana resident, he led the majors with 53 doubles in 2014, the first time a player appearing primarily at catcher had led his league in doubles in modern MLB history (since 1900)...has been active with community work away from the field, and was the recipient of the Brewers Good Guy Award for three straight seasons (2013-14-15) as voted on by members of the Milwaukee Chapter of the BBWAA...in 2015, also won the Bob Feller Act of Valor Award, which goes to a player who possesses the values, integrity and dedication to serving our country which Bob Feller himself displayed...on March 27, 2012, signed a 5-year contract with Milwaukee through the 2016 season with a club option for 2017.

BEHIND THE PLATE: Over his 1st 5 full seasons from 2011-15, caught 106 runners attempting to steal, the 2nd-highest total in MLB to only Russell Martin (133)...with Milwaukee in 2016, Lucroy had thrown out 29 of 77 (37.7%) runners attempting to steal, the 4th-best percentage in the major leagues at the time of the trade...his 29 runners caught stealing at that point were also the most in MLB.

POSTSEASON: Only career postseason action came with 2011 Brewers, who beat Arizona in NLDS before losing to Cardinals in NLCS...batted .250 (8-32) with a HR and 5 RBI in that postseason, starting 9 of 11 games and appearing in 10 contests...homered off Edwin Jackson in Brewers' Game 6 loss to St. Louis that ended the NLCS.

ALL-STAR: Caught final 2 innings for National League in the 2016 All-Star Game in San Diego (manager's selection), hitting a single to left field off Andrew Miller in his only plate appearance...is now 3-for-3 in 3 career plate appearances at the ASG, joining 4 others to hit safely in each of 3+ career AB's (all 3-for-3): Vince DiMaggio, Willie Davis, Tim Lincecum, Jimmy Rollins...started the 2014 ASG (selected in player vote) at Minnesota's Target Field due to an injury to the Cardinals' Yadier Molina...went 2-for-2 in the game with RBI doubles off Jon Lester and Chris Sale, accounting for 2 of the N.L.'s 3 runs in the 5-3 loss...his double in the 4th inning of that contest tied the game at 3-3...was just 2nd Brewers catcher to start an ASG (Ted Simmons-1983).

2015: Limited to 103 games due to a pair of injuries, his 2nd-fewest games in any full season (96 in 2012)...had a stint on the disabled list from 4/21-5/28 with a fractured left great toe (missed 38 games)...suffered the injury on 4/20 vs. CIN from a Zack Cozart foul tip in the 6th inning...also missed 14 consecutive games from 9/9-23 due to a concussion suffered on 9/8 at MIA...the concussion came after being struck in the facemask by a foul tip in the 7th inning...his only start after 9/8 came on 9/26 at STL at 1st base (appeared in 8 G off the bench)...had 92 total starts at catcher (86), 1st base (5), and DH (1)...threw out 24 of 94 runners attempting to steal (25.5%)...produced career-high 11-game hit streak from 8/21-9/3 (.442, 19-43, 3 HR, 14 RBI) and had a .384 (28-73) average over his final 24 games of the season...had 4-G rehab assignment with Brevard County from 5/28-31...was the Brewers' nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award.
