OAKLAND NOTES

- Oakland lost the first game of today's doubleheader...Oakland is playing their fourth doubleheader in the last 19 days today, their second against Seattle...it is their fifth of the season, which are their most doubleheaders since 1986 when they had five.
- Oakland has been limited to three runs or less in five of the last six games, and two runs or less in four of those six games.
- Mike Minor tossed 5.0 scoreless innings before allowing a run in the sixth inning...prior to the run scoring, had not allowed a run against Seattle in his previous 13.0 innings since the 6th inning on Aug. 23 at Seattle.
- Mark Canha scored the go-ahead run after doubling in the fourth inning...he has reached base safely at least twice in four of his last five games...over his last six games, he's hitting .412 (7-for-17) with four runs, two doubles, one home run, three RBI and five walks.
- Liam Hendriks allowed three runs in the eighth inning after tossing a scoreless seventh inning...prior to the eighth inning, had allowed only three runs all season in his first 25.0 innings.
- Oakland has lost two of their last three home games, but haven't lost back-to-back games since July 28-29 vs. Colorado.
