MANAGER

Robert Peter Geren

Named as A's bullpen coach, November 13, 2002

Named as A's manager, November 17, 2006

Birthdate: September 22, 1961

Birthplace/Resides: San Diego, California / Danville, California

Contract Status: Signed through the 2010 season with a club option for 2011

Bob Geren completed his third season as the A's manager in 2009. He was named the 28th manager in franchise history and the 17th in Oakland history on November 17, 2006.

Geren guided the A's to a 75-87 record in 2009 after compiling a 75-86 mark the previous year and a 76-86 record in his first season as manager in 2007. After employing an Oakland-record 54 players and tying the club record by using the disabled list 22 times in 2007, the A's utilized 51 players in 2008 and set a new Oakland record by using the DL 25 times. The A's utilized 51 players again in 2009 and used the DL 17 times. Geren's three-year major league managerial record now stands at 226-259 and the A's have used the DL 64 times while employing 107 different players over that span.

Geren has been a member of the A's coaching staff for the last seven seasons, serving as the club's bench coach in 2006 after spending the previous three seasons as bullpen coach. He joined the A's organization in 1999 as manager of Single-A Modesto and spent the next three seasons (2000-02) at the helm of the Triple-A Sacramento River Cats. He also managed in the Boston Red Sox farm system for three seasons, guiding Utica of the New York-Penn League in 1995, the Red Sox Gulf Coast League team in 1996 and Sarasota of the Florida State League in 1998. His seven-year managerial record on the minor league level is 452-390, including a 319-253 record in the A's system.

He gained further managerial experience in the 2005 off-season, leading Escogido in the Dominican Winter League.

Geren was named the California League's Manager of the Year in 1999 after his Modesto club finished 88-52 and won both halves in the Northern Division of the California League. He then led Triple-A Sacramento to consecutive first place finishes in the Southern Division of the Pacific Coast League, as the River Cats posted a 90-54 record in 2000 and 75-69 in 2001.

A former catcher, Geren's professional playing career spanned 15 seasons, including five years in the major leagues with the New York Yankees and San Diego Padres. Originally a first round pick of the Padres in 1979, Geren was traded to the St. Louis organization prior to making his major league debut with the Yankees in 1988. He played four seasons with New York from 1988-91 and enjoyed his best season in 1989 when he batted .288 and hit a career high nine home runs. After spending the 1992 season in Boston's minor league system, Geren finished his playing career with San Diego in 1993. He owns a .233 career batting average in 307 Major League games.

A native of San Diego, Geren attended Clairemont High School. Bob and his wife, Pam, reside in Danville with their sons, Brett and Bobby.

MIKE GALLEGO

12

THIRD BASE COACH

Michael Anthony Gallego

Named A's third base coach, October 22, 2008

Birthdate: October 31, 1960

Birthplace/Resides: Whittier, California / Yorba Linda, California

Mike Gallego completed his first season as the A's third base coach in 2009, but it was his 13th season in the Oakland organization, which includes 12 years as a player.

Gallego joined the A's from the Colorado Rockies organization, where he spent nine seasons on Clint Hurdle's major league staff, including the 2007 National League Pennant winners. He spent the final four seasons as third base and infield coach. Under his tutelage, the Rockies set a major league record for fielding percentage with a mark of .98925 in 2007. Shortstop Troy Tulowitzki led major league shortstops with a .987 fielding percentage that year and Todd Helton topped all National League first basemen with a .999 fielding percentage. Gallego joined the Rockies organization as a roving infield coordinator in 2000, a position he held until joining the major league coaching staff on May 1, 2002. He returned to his minor league duties in 2003-04, before rejoining the major league staff in 2005. Gallego began his coaching career as Boston's minor league infield instructor in 1999.

Gallego's professional career began when the A's drafted him in the second round of the 1981 June draft out of UCLA. He made his major league debut with Oakland in 1985 and spent 13 seasons in the majors with Oakland (1985-91, 95), the New York Yankees (1992-94) and St. Louis Cardinals (1996-97). He is a .239 career hitter with 42 home runs and 282 RBI in 1111 games, including .232 in 772 games with the A's. A valuable utility infielder, he played in three straight postseasons with Oakland from 1988-90 and was a member of the 1989 World Champion A's. In 1993, he won the Good Guy Award from the New York Press Photographer's Association and New York Baseball Writers after enjoying his best season, batting .283 with 10 home runs and 54 RBI.

A native of Whittier, Calif., Gallego graduated from St. Paul High School (Santa Fe Springs, Calif.) and attended UCLA for three years before being drafted by the A's. He and his wife, Caryn, have twin sons, Nicholas and Joseph (12/29/88) and a daughter, Allison (12/12/90), and reside in Yorba Linda, Calif.

BULLPEN COACH

Ronald James Romanick

Named A's bullpen coach, October 16, 2007

Birthdate: November 6, 1960

Birthplace/Resides: Burley, Idaho / Fountain Hills, Arizona

Ron Romanick completed his second season on the A's major league staff as bullpen coach after spending the previous nine seasons as the A's minor league roving pitching instructor. He served as a pitching coordinator in the Seattle Mariners organization for seven seasons (1992-98) before joining the A's.

Romanick's major league career spanned three seasons (1984-86) with the California Angels, compiling a career record of 31-29 and a 4.24 ERA in 82 appearances, all starts. He made 33 starts for the Angels as a rookie in 1984 and posted a 12-12 record and a 3.76 ERA. Romanick followed up his rookie season with a 14-9 showing in 1985. After going 5-8 in 1986, he was traded to the New York Yankees organization and spent the 1987 season with Triple-A Columbus. He retired in 1988 after spending one year in the Milwaukee farm system.

Romanick pitched at Arizona State before being drafted by the Angels in the first round of the Secondary Phase of the 1981 January Draft.

A native of Bellevue, Wash., Ron makes his off-season home in Fountain Hills, Ariz.

JIM SKAALEN

20

HITTING COACH

James Arnold Skaalen

Named A's hitting coach, December 22, 2008

Birthdate: July 6, 1954

Birthplace/Resides: Holland, Michigan / Carlsbad, California

Jim Skaalen finished his first season as the A's hitting coach after spending the previous two seasons in the same capacity with the Milwaukee Brewers. In his first year with Milwaukee, the Brewers hit a franchise record and Major League-leading 231 home runs. In 2009 with the A's, the club went from a .246 batting average at the All-Star Break to an Oakland record .280 mark after the break.

Skaalen began his coaching career in 1981 at Single-A Daytona Beach of the Houston Astros organization and then spent eight seasons as a minor league manager, compiling a 509-543 record. His managerial career began in the San Diego organization with stints at Single-A Walla Walla (1982), Single-A Reno (1983-84, 86) and Single-A Charleston (1985). Skaalen moved to the Texas organization and Single-A Port Charlotte in 1987 before earning Texas League Manager of the Year honors in 1988 after guiding Double-A Tulsa to the league championship. His final season as manager came at Triple-A Oklahoma City in 1989. He has also served as minor league hitting instructor for the Rangers (1990), coordinator of minor league instruction for Seattle (1991-96), director of player development for the Padres (1997-99) and minor league hitting coordinator for the Brewers (2000-06).

A former first baseman and third baseman, Skaalen played professionally for three seasons in the Baltimore Orioles farm system and batted .246 with 15 home runs and 123 RBI in 251 games. He was originally drafted by the Orioles in the 1976 June Draft.

Skaalen graduated from Coronado (CA) High School and attended San Diego State University. His father, Morris, pitched in the minor leagues with the Pirates organization prior to serving in World War II and his mother, Lyda, was a national water skiing champion in 1941. Skaalen and his wife, Cheryl, have a daughter, Erin, and three sons, Bevan, Jay and Christopher.

TODD STEVERSON

39

FIRST BASE COACH

Todd Anthony Steverson

Named A's first base coach, December 22, 2008

Birthdate: November 15, 1971

Birthplace/Resides: Los Angeles, California / Phoenix, Arizona

Todd Steverson completed his first season on the major league coaching staff after being named the A's first base coach following the 2008 season. He has spent the previous four seasons managing in the A's farm system and compiled a 297-264 (.529) record.

Steverson joined the A's organization in 2004 as hitting coach for their short-season Single-A affiliate at Vancouver. He was named manager at Single-A Stockton in 2005 and guided the Ports to a 78-62 record and a playoff appearance. Steverson returned to Stockton in 2006 and spent one year at Double-A Midland in 2007 before moving to Triple-A Sacramento last year. His River Cats compiled an 83-61 record and won their second consecutive Triple-A and Pacific Coast League championships in 2008. Steverson began his coaching career in the St. Louis Cardinals farm system and spent five seasons with Potomac (1999; 2001-02), Peoria (2000) and Palm Beach (2003), all Single-A affiliates.

Steverson played professionally for seven seasons, including two seasons in the majors with Detroit (1995) and San Diego (1996). He compiled a .256 batting average, two home runs and six RBI in 31 games, including 30 with the Tigers and one with the Padres. Steverson was drafted by St. Louis in the sixth round out of Culver City (CA) High School in 1989, but did not sign and attended Arizona State University. Three years later, he was a first round pick (25th overall) of Toronto and spent three seasons in the Blue Jays farm system before he was selected by Detroit in the Rule 5 draft. He concluded his playing career at Triple-A Memphis in 1998.

Steverson makes his offseason home in Phoenix, Ariz., with his wife, Theresa, daughter Joya and son Jaryn.

TYE WALLER

46

BENCH COACH

Elliott Tyrone Waller

Named A's first base coach, December 21, 2006

Named A's bench coach, December 22, 2008

Birthdate: March 14, 1957

Birthplace/Resides: Fresno, California / San Diego, California

Tye Waller finished his third season on the A's coaching staff, his first as the bench coach. He was the A's first base coach in 2007 and split his duties between first base and third base in 2008. The 2009 season was Waller's fifth on a major league coaching staff as he was San Diego's bullpen coach in 1995 and first base coach in 2006.

Waller spent 19 years in the Padres organization, beginning in 1988 as a coach with the Padres rookie-level club in Spokane, Wash. He then served as the club's minor league outfield and base running instructor from 1989-93 before taking over the managerial duties at Spokane for the 1994 season. Following his one-year stint on the major league staff in 1995, Waller served as San Diego's coordinator of minor league instruction from 1997-99 and as director of player development from 2000-05.

Selected by the St. Louis Cardinals in the fourth round of the 1977 First-Year Player Draft, Waller played 11 seasons professionally, including parts of four seasons in the majors. In his first season of professional ball, he batted .320 for Calgary and led the Pioneer League in hits, runs and RBI on his way to league MVP honors. He made his major league debut with the Cardinals in 1980 and appeared in five games for the Redbirds. He was traded to the Chicago Cubs in the off-season to complete a deal that sent Leon Durham and Ken Reitz to the Cubs for Bruce Sutter. He appeared in 30 games for the Cubs in 1981 and finished the season batting .268 with three home runs and 13 RBI. Waller was traded to the White Sox in December of 1982 and signed a free agent contract with the Astros in 1983. He appeared in 11 games for the Astros in 1987, his last season of professional ball.

A native of Fresno, Calif., Waller graduated from Hoover High School and attended San Diego City College for two years. Tye makes his off-season home in San Diego with his wife, Cynthia. The couple has four children—Elliott and triplets Todd, Terrence and Tiffany.

CURT YOUNG41*PITCHING COACH

Curtis Allen Young

Named A's pitching coach, December 2, 2003

Birthdate: April 16, 1960Birthplace/Resides: Saginaw, Michigan / Scottsdale, Arizona

Curt Young completed his sixth season as A's pitching coach, a position he was appointed on December 2, 2003. The 2009 season marked Young's 22nd year in the Oakland organization, which includes 12 years as a player and four years as a minor league coach.

Over the past six seasons, the A's pitching staff has allowed the fewest home runs in the American League (909), has the lowest opponent batting average (.259) and ranks second in ERA (4.10). During Young's tenure as pitching coach, six A's pitchers—Mark Mulder (2004), Tim Hudson (2004), Justin Duchscherer (2005, 2008), Barry Zito (2006), Dan Haren (2007) and Andrew Bailey (2009)—have been selected to the American League All-Star team, with Mulder and Haren earning starts in the Midsummer Classic. Closer Huston Street earned 2005 American League Rookie of the Year honors and Zito (July, 2005), Esteban Loaiza (August, '06) and Haren (May, 2007) earned AL Pitcher of the Month Awards.

Young began his coaching career in 2000 as the pitching coach at Double-A Midland. His first Midland staff compiled a 4.64 ERA which was the lowest figure posted by the club in 15 years. His 2001 staff bettered the previous year's figure by 24 points, finishing with a 4.40 ERA, and in 2002 the RockHounds finished with a 3.88 ERA. Young was promoted to Triple-A Sacramento for the 2003 season and the River Cats posted the fourth best ERA in the Pacific Coast League (3.90) en route to the PCL Championship.

Young compiled a 69-53 record and a 4.31 ERA in 251 games, 162 starts, in an 11-year Major League pitching career that included stints with Oakland (1983-91, 93), Kansas City (1992) and the New York Yankees (1992). He was originally drafted by the A's in the fourth round of the 1981 June draft and made his major league debut in 1983. The left-hander went 13-9 with a 3.45 ERA in 1986 and led the team in victories, earning him an Opening Day start in 1987. He matched his career best in wins in 1987, posting a 13-7 record and a 4.08 ERA in a career high 31 starts. Young was also a member of the A's starting rotation when they won three consecutive American League pennants from 1988-90. He tossed two one-hitters during his career: October 5, 1986 against Kansas City and June 9, 1987 against Chicago.

Young graduated from Arthur Hill High School in Saginaw, Mich., where he also starred as a quarterback, and attended Central Michigan University. In 1980, he pitched for the United States team in the World Amateur Baseball Tournament in Japan. Curt makes his offseason home in Scottsdale, Ariz. with his wife, Kathy, and their two sons.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

After pitching exclusively out of the bullpen from 2004-07, the two-time American League All-Star (2005, 08) was converted to a starting pitcher in 2008 and went 10-8 with a 2.54 ERA in 22 starts...did not pitch with Oakland in 2009 as his rehab from elbow surgery was halted after being diagnosed with clinical depression...has a 2.82 ERA in 214 career appearances with Oakland, which is third lowest in Oakland history...has made 219 career appearances in seven Major League seasons, including six with the A's...missed the final month and a half of 2008 and the final four months of 2007 with hip problems that led to surgeries both times...saved nine games in 2006 during a stint as the closer while Huston Street was on the disabled list...was named Pacific Coast League Pitcher of the Year in 2003 after leading the league with 14 wins...made his A's debut on September 9 of that year, the same day his first child was born...was originally drafted by Boston in the 8th round in 1996 and was traded to Texas in 2001 where he made his ML debut...was traded to the A's during the spring of 2002.

2009 HIGHLIGHTS

Missed the entire 2009 season...arrived at Spring Training recovering from 2008 hip surgery, but did not pitch in a Major League spring game because of elbow problems...Dr. Lewis Yocum performed arthroscopic surgery on his right elbow March 31 and he was placed on the 15-day disabled list retroactive to March 27 to start the season...it was his fifth stint on the DL over the last four years...was transferred to the 60-day DL April 29 but his comeback from the elbow surgery was delayed by back issues...began a rehab assignment with Single-A Stockton July 26 at San Jose and retired all six batter he faced (2.0 ip, 2 so)...made his second rehab start at Triple-A Sacramento Aug. 9 against New Orleans and tossed 4.0 scoreless innings (2 h, 1 bb, 3 so)...his final start came Aug. 13 in the Arizona Rookie League against San Francisco and he tossed 5.0 shutout innings (4 h, 3 so)...did not yield a run in 11.0 innings in three rehab starts and allowed a .162 (6 for 37) opponents batting average...issued just one walk and struck out eight...on Aug. 21, it was announced that he would not pitch the rest of the season after being diagnosed with clinical depression.

Signed a minor league contract with the A's prior to the 2009 season after spending his first seven professional seasons in the Arizona organization...spent parts of six seasons with the Diamondbacks from 2003 to 2008 and was 14-21 with a 5.97 ERA in 80 games, including 35 starts...went 0-4 with a 5.51 ERA in 26 games, six starts, with Oakland last year...missed the final 82 games of 2008 after going on the 15-day disabled list June 28 with a strained right elbow...spent the entire season at the Major League level for the first time in his career in 2007 and won a career high eight games...made his ML debut in 2003 at the age of 20...in 2002, he was named a top prospect in the California League by SportsTicker...on April 14, 2002, he tossed the Diamondback organizations second 9-inning complete game no-hitter, striking out a league best eight straight batters.

2009 HIGHLIGHTS

Joined the A's in mid-May and was 0-4 with a 5.51 ERA in 26 games, including six starts...his first two appearances with Oakland were starts, but he spent most of the season in the bullpen as a long reliever before returning to rotation in September when the A's went to a six-man rotation...was 0-3 with a 5.93 ERA in his six starting assignments and 0-1 with a 5.21 ERA in 20 relief appearances...his career numbers are 8-22 with a 5.84 ERA (134 er in 206.1 ip) in 41 starts and 6-3 with a 5.94 ERA (77 er in 116.2 ip) in 65 relief appearances...matched his career-high with 28 walks and hit a career-high six batters...allowed just four home runs in 65.1 innings, an average of 0.55 per nine innings...three of the home runs came as a starter and three led off an inning...allowed a .292 opponents batting average, which broke down to .230 (29 for 126) against right-handed hitters and .351 (47 for 134) against left-handers...allowed three of his four home runs to lefties for a .545 slugging percentage...had a .341 slugging percentage against righties...his career slugging splits are .588 (370 for 629) against left-handed hitters and .450 (299 for 665) against right-handers...had nine walks and 24 strikeouts against right-handers and 19 walks and 15 strikeouts against lefties...opponents hit .265 the first time through the lineup, .320 the second time through and .421 after that...yielded a .368 average to the opponents two through five hitters...allowed a .268 batting average with two strikes, which was third highest in the American League...was 0-1 with a 4.36 ERA and .258 opponents batting average in 15 games in Oakland and 0-3 with a 6.68 ERA and .324 opponents batting average in 11 outings on the road...the A's were 1-5 in his six starting assignments and he tossed 5.0 innings or less in all six starts...allowed one run in three of those starts and five or more in the other three...tossed at least 1.0 inning in all 20 of his relief appearances and had 11 outings of 2.0 innings or more...yielded at least one run in 11 of his 20 outings in relief...allowed 2 of 11 (18.2%) inherited runners to score and first batters faced hit .211 (4 for 19) with a hit by pitch...entered the game with a lead just twice, and that was with margins of eight and 15.

OAKLAND: Was recalled from Triple-A Sacramento May 19 and went 0-1 with a 5.40 ERA in two starts before moving to the bullpen...allowed just two runs over his first four relief appearances for a 2.57 ERA but then allowed nine runs over his next five outings from June 19-30 (8.38 ERA)...singled in two at bats June 19 at San Diego to become the first AL relief pitcher to produce a multi-hit game since the Angels' Eddie Fisher May 10, 1972 against Boston...the last A's reliever to do it was Rollie Fingers on May 10, 1970, also against the Red Sox...posted a 3.00 ERA over an eight-game stretch from July 3 to Aug. 2...then allowed at least one run in each of his final seven outings, including four starts, and was 0-3 with a 6.85 ERA...made the 100th appearance of his career Aug. 8 in Kansas City and allowed four runs in 3.2 innings, his longest outing as a reliever in 2009...allowed both of his inherited runners to score after stranding each of his first seven...allowed a first batter RBI single after retiring 15 of his first 17 first batters...would pitch just once over the next 23 days and that was Aug. 15 against Chicago when he allowed a home run to the first batter he faced (Thome) to snap a season-opening 20-game, 45.1-inning, 202-batter homerless streak...his next outing was a start Sept. 1 against Kansas City and he allowed just one run in 5.0 innings...ended up with a no decision and would go on to lose three of his final four outings, giving him a six-game losing streak dating back to his last win April 24, 2008 at Los Angeles (NL)...is 0-6 with a 5.94 ERA (62 er in 94.0 ip) in 39 games, including eight starts, over that span.

SACRAMENTO: Began the season at Sacramento and was 3-2 with a 5.22 ERA in seven starts...allowed a .300 opponents batting average, including .323 (21 for 65) against left-handed hitters and .284 (27 for 95) against right-handers...had 10 walks and 7 strikeouts against lefties and 6 walks and 20 strikeouts against righties...opponents hit .308 with runners in scoring position but that mark dropped to .211 with RISP and two outs...allowed four home runs, but just one over his last five starts and 27.2 innings...was 2-1 with a 3.47 ERA in four starts at home and 1-1 with a 7.71 ERA in three starts on the road...tossed six or more innings in two of his starts, allowed two runs or fewer three times and walked two batters or fewer four times...the River Cats were 4-3 (.571) in his starting assignments.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Was originally drafted by the A's in the 29th round of the 2005 First-Year Player Draft out of San Jose State University...made his Major League debut in 2009 and posted a 0.53 ERA in 11 appearances... compiled a 21-8 record with 30 saves and a 2.53 ERA in 222 career minor league appearances over five seasons...struck out 339, an average of 10.3 per nine innings...named to the Northwest League Postseason All-Star team in 2005.

2009 HIGHLIGHTS

Spent nearly the entire regular season at Triple-A Sacramento and went 4-2 with two saves and a 2.13 ERA in 45 relief appearances to earn a Sept. 1 call-up to Oakland... was 1-0 with a 0.53 ERA in 11 games, one start, with the A's... allowed a .164 batting average, which included a .132 (5 for 38) mark against right-handed hitters and .217 (5 for 23) against left-handers... did not walk a left-handed hitter and allowed just one extra base hit, a double, in 38 at bats against righties for a .158 slugging percentage... struck out 20 in 17.0 innings, an average of 10.59 per nine innings... fanned two or more in seven of his 11 outings... walked just four and yielded one home run... did not allow a run in six outings and 9.2 innings in Oakland and four outings and 6.2 innings during the day... opponents were 0 for 15 with no walks when leading off an inning and 1 for 33 (.030) with two strikes... first batters faced were 2 for 10 (.200) and he allowed 2 of 7 (28.6%) inherited runners to score... his first 10 outings came in relief (0.60 ERA) before he made a start in the final game of the season, Oct. 4 against Los Angeles... tossed 2.0 scoreless innings (1 bb, 1 so) in the A's 5-3 loss.

OAKLAND: Was selected from Sacramento Sept. 1 and made his Major League debut the next day against Kansas City with 2.0 scoreless innings (1 h, 2 so)... fanned David DeJesus for his first strikeout... began his career with an 11.0-inning scoreless streak, which equaled the sixth longest streak to start a career in Oakland history... that included 1.2 scoreless innings Sept. 19 against Cleveland for his first big league win... capped the streak by retiring 19 of the 20 batters he faced over a four-game stretch from Sept. 13 to 21... allowed his first run Sept. 23 against Texas, but it was unearned... then allowed his only earned run in his next outing, Sept. 26 at Los Angeles... struck out a career-high four in 2.0 innings Sept. 30 at Seattle.

SACRAMENTO: Began the season on the disabled list at Sacramento with a strained right hamstring... was reinstated May 4 and would tie for second on the River Cats pitching staff in appearances (45) while ranking fourth in strikeouts (77)...tossed 63.1 innings for an average of 10.94 strikeouts per nine innings...allowed a .179 opponents batting average, including .150 (22 for 147) against right-handed hitters and .234 (18 for 77) against left-handers...opponents were 7 for 60 (.117) with two walks when leading off an inning...allowed a .179 average with runners in scoring position...had a 2.87 ERA in 28 games before the Triple-A All-Star Break but then posted a 1.05 ERA in 17 appearances after the break...had a 1.23 ERA in 21 outings at home and a 2.91 ERA in 24 games on the road...allowed four of his five home runs on the road...all five home runs were solo shots...allowed just 4 of 32 (12.5%) inherited runners to score and converted 2 of 3 (66.7%) save opportunities...did not allow a run in nine of his first 11 outings for a 1.17 ERA and .063 opponents batting average, including May 18 against Round Rock when he struck out a season-high five in a season-high 3.1 scoreless innings...then allowed at least one run in four consecutive games from May 30 to June 5 (5.1 ip, 6 h, 5 r, 5 er, 3 bb, 8 so, 8.44 ERA)...allowed all five of his home runs over that stretch and finished the Triple-A portion of his campaign with a 30-game, 42.2-inning, 173-batter homerless streak...did not allow a run in his next eight outings and 10.0 innings from June 9 to 28 and opponents were 1 for 30 (.033) over that span...then allowed five runs over next three games and 3.1 innings...struck out at least one batter in each of his final 21 outings (42 so in 32.0 ip) and did not allow a run in 16 of his final 19 outings (0.92 ERA), including a 17.0-inning scoreless streak from July 23 to Aug. 23.

Contract Status: First year of a one-year contract through 2009.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Was originally selected by the A's from the Chicago White Sox organization in the 2006 Rule 5 draft and posted a 6.43 ERA in 51 relief appearances with Oakland in 2007...was claimed off waivers by Boston following the season but was re-claimed by the A's two months later and spent the 2008 season in the Oakland farm system...made 10 more appearances with the A's in 2009 and has a 7.66 ERA in 61 career relief appearances...posted a 1.02 ERA in 58 relief appearances with Single-A Winston-Salem in the White Sox organization in 2006.

2009 HIGHLIGHTS

Was 5-3 with a 3.20 ERA and seven saves in 50 games at Triple-A Sacramento when he was selected by Oakland Aug. 9...had two losses and a 14.73 ERA in 10 relief appearances with the A's before he was shut down in September with rotator cuff tendinitis...now has a 7.66 ERA in 61 career outings...did not walk a batter in 7.1 innings but struck out just one...allowed a .406 opponents batting average, which included a .333 (4 for 12) mark against left-handed hitters and .450 (9 for 20) against right-handers...opponents were 3 for 6 (.500) with runners in scoring position and he has allowed a .366 (26 for 71) average with RISP in his career...stranded all seven of his inherited runners and has allowed just 6 of 43 (14.0%) to score in his career...first batters faced were 2 for 8 (.250) with two sacrifice hits...tossed 1.0 innings or less in eight of his 10 outings.

OAKLAND: Did not allow a run in six of his first seven outings, but he allowed four runs on three hits in one-third of an inning in the one game he did allow a run, Aug. 18 against New York (AL)...was the losing pitcher in that game and had a 6.75 ERA over his first seven games...then allowed eight runs on eight hits in 2.0 innings (36.00 ERA) over his last three outings...allowed a career-high tying five runs Aug. 30 at Los Angeles...allowed five consecutive hits to end that outing and then yielded two hits to the only two batters he faced in his last outing Sept. 1 against Kansas City...finished the season by allowing a hit to seven consecutive batters, which is one short of the Oakland record of eight set by Russ Springer earlier in 2009 from May 20-27.

SACRAMENTO: Began the season with Sacramento and was leading the River Cats and the Pacific Coast League in appearances (50) at the time of his promotion to Oakland Aug. 9...also ranked second at Sacramento in saves (7)...the saves were his most as a professional and he equaled his best in wins (5)...yielded just two home runs in 50.2 innings...allowed a .280 opponents batting average, which included a .179 (15 for 84) mark against left-handed hitters and .362 (38 for 105) against right-handers...yielded both of his home runs to righties...had 2 walks and 19 strikeouts against lefties and 13 walks and 11 strikeouts against righties...had a 1.69 ERA and .234 opponents batting average in 40 outings before the Triple-A All-Star Break and was named to the PCL midseason All-Star Team...pitched a scoreless eighth inning (1 bb, 1 so) in the game against the International League All-Stars, July 15 at Portland...then compiled an 11.25 ERA and .486 opponents average in 10 outings after the break...yielded a .237 batting average with the bases empty and .326 with runners on...including .300 with runners in scoring position...allowed just 6 of 41 (14.6%) inherited runners to score and converted 7 of 9 (77.8%) save opportunities...had a 0.71 ERA in 12 outings during the day and a 4.03 ERA in 38 night games...did not allow a run in seven of his first eight outings (1.29 ERA) and then allowed three runs on six hits in 0.2 innings for a blown save April 25 against Las Vegas...that would be the last run he would allow until June 8...did not allow a run in 13 outings in May (17.0 ip, 8 h, 1 bb, 11 so) as part of a 21.0-inning scoreless streak from April 27 to June 6...opponents were 10 for 70 (.143) over that span with three walks...allowed three runs in his next two outings but then did not allow a run over his next nine games and 7.0 innings (2 h, 1 bb), lowering his ERA to 1.69 through July 5...then allowed 16 runs on 24 hits over his final 13 games and 13.1 innings (7.43 ERA, .436 opponents batting average) before his promotion to Oakland...including July 24 at Colorado Springs when he allowed seven runs on six hits and two walks in 1.0 inning.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Was drafted by the A's in the third round of the 2005 draft and made his Major League debut in 2009 at the age of 22...started 17 games for Oakland before a shoulder injury ended his season early...won each of his first two starts before enduring an eight-game losing streak over his next 10 starts...tied for fifth in all of minor league baseball with 15 wins in 2008...was named Texas League Pitcher of the Year at Double-A Midland in 2008 after going 12-3 with a 1.90 ERA in 22 starts...was 18-21 with a 5.21 ERA in 52 starts over his first two minor league seasons and 17-8 with a 2.65 ERA in 38 games, 36 starts, over his last two.

2009 HIGHLIGHTS

The 22-year old rookie began the season at Triple-A Sacramento but made 17 starts for the A's before a shoulder injury ended his season early...was 2-2 with a 2.38 ERA in 10 games, nine starts, with the River Cats before he was promoted to Oakland June 2...went 4-9 with a 5.32 ERA with the A's and made his final start Aug. 29...was eventually placed on the 60-day disabled list Sept. 18 retroactive to Sept. 8 with right shoulder tendinitis...allowed a .319 batting average, including .316 (50 for 158) against right-handed hitters and .321 (70 for 218) against left-handers...yielded eight of his 12 home runs and issued 27 of his 39 walks to lefties...also had 40 of his 59 strikeouts against lefties...his opponents average dropped to .250 with runners in scoring position, including .133 with RISP and two outs...allowed a .265 average over his first 30 pitches in a game and .338 after that...received run support of three runs or less in 14 of his 17 starts and his season run support of 3.55 was second lowest among American League pitchers with 90 or more innings pitched (Jakubauskas, SEA 3.19 in 93.0 ip)...went 0-8 in 11 starts with run support of two runs or less and 4-1 with support of three runs or more...was 2-5 with a 3.59 ERA and .265 opponents batting average in eight starts before the All-Star Break and 2-4 with a 7.21 ERA and .369 opponents batting average in nine starts after the break...was 1-4 with a 4.21 ERA in seven starts on five days rest or more and 3-5 with a 6.05 ERA in 10 starts on four days rest...had a .245 opponents batting average and allowed one home run with two outs, compared to .350 with 11 home runs with less than two outs...opponents batted .337 with a .412 on-base percentage when leading off an inning...yielded a .457 batting average to the opponents number nine hitter...the A's were 6-11 (.353) in his starting assignments...tossed more than six innings in just two of his 17 starts and those were the first two starts of his career...has tossed 6.0 innings or less in each of his last 15 starts, which is the longest streak by a starting pitcher in Oakland history, topping the previous mark of 14 held by five pitchers...allowed two runs or fewer just four times and walked two batters or fewer 10 times.

OAKLAND: Was selected from Triple-A Sacramento June 2 and made his Major League debut that night at Chicago...combined with Breslow and Ziegler on a five-hit shutout in the A's 5-0 win...allowed three hits and walked four in 6.1 innings to become the 12th pitcher in Oakland history to start and win his ML debut...is the fifth starting pitcher in Oakland history to not allow a run in his debut...then combined for a five-hit shutout in his second start, a 3-0 win over Baltimore June 7 in Oakland...of the 12 pitchers in Oakland history to start and win their ML debut, he is just the third to also win his second start...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the only other pitcher in the last 31 seasons (since 1979) to accumulate more than 13 innings without being charged with a run over his first two games in the majors was Cleveland's Scott Lewis in 2008 (14 innings)...extended his career-opening scoreless streak to 17.2 innings June 12 at San Francisco, which was the longest in Oakland history by a starter and second longest to Brad Ziegler's 39.0 inning streak in 2008...however, took the loss against the Giants...was 2-0 with a 0.00 ERA and .170 opponents batting average over his first two starts but then went 0-8 with a 7.22 ERA and .347 opponents average over his next 10 starts from June 12 to Aug. 2...the losing streak was the longest by an Athletic since Dallas Braden also had an eight-game losing streak from April 29 to Sept. 23, 2007 and it was the second longest losing streak in the AL in 2009 (Berken, BAL 9)...according to Elias, over the last 56 seasons (since 1954), the only other pitcher to lose his next eight decisions after being credited with a win in each of his first two (or more) appearances in the big leagues was the Mets' Mike Pelfrey (2006-07)...had two sacrifice hits in two plate appearances against the Giants and duplicated the feat in his next start June 18 at Los Angeles...was the first Oakland pitcher with two sacrifice hits in a game since Ken Holtzman Aug. 27, 1972...his four sacrifice hits were the most by an AL pitcher in a season in the designated hitter era (since 1973)...allowed 27 runs over a four-start stretch from July 18 to Aug. 2 (11.29 ERA, .420 opponents batting average)...allowed at least six runs in each start to become just the third pitcher to Oakland history to allow at least six runs in four consecutive games (Dave Stewart, 1991; Bill Krueger, 1985)...snapped his eight-game losing streak by winning consecutive starts Aug. 7 at Kansas City and Aug. 12 at Baltimore...had two of his four wins in 2009 against the Orioles...went 2-1 with a 4.26 ERA and .327 opponents average of his final five starts.

SACRAMENTO: Went 2-2 with a 2.38 ERA in 10 games, nine starts, with Triple-A Sacramento...ranked fourth in the Pacific Coast League in ERA at the time of his June 2 promotion to Oakland...allowed just two home runs in 56.2 innings...yielded a .205 opponents batting average, including .189 (18 for 95) by right-handed hitters and .218 (24 for 110) against left-handers...his opponents average dropped to .189 with runners in scoring position, including .120 with RISP and two outs...had no decisions, a 1.35 ERA and .188 opponents batting average over his first four starts...then lost each of his next two starts on April 30 and May 6, compiling an 11.00 ERA and .455 opponents batting average...finished the Triple-A portion of his campaign by going 2-0 with a 0.33 ERA and .099 opponents batting average over his final four games, three starts...received Pacific Coast League Pitcher of the Week honors in consecutive weeks from May 11-18 and May 18-25...recorded his first win of the season May 12 against Albuquerque in relief of a rehabbing Santiago Casilla, combining on a three-hit, 3-0 shutout...Casilla retired the side in order in the first and Mazzaro pitched the final eight innings...allowed just two baserunners on an error in the fourth and a Jamie Hoffmann leadoff double in the seventh...also tossed 8.0 shutout innings and allowed just one hit May 22 at Omaha, a 3-1 River Cats win in 12 innings...took a no-hitter into the seventh inning before Cory Aldridge doubled with two outs...left the game with the scored tied at 0-0.

Made his Major League debut with Oakland in 2009 and spent the entire season with the A's, batting .229 with seven home runs and 30 RBI in 46 games...was a first round draft pick of the A's in 2004 and appeared in just 292 games in his four seasons in the Oakland farm system...missed the entire 2005 season after tearing his left ACL in January and had his 2007 season end on July 3 with a left knee strain...has 48 home runs and 165 RBI in 292 games as a professional...tossed out 96 of 200 (48.0%) attempted base stealers from 2006-08...had a 20-game hitting streak in 2007, which was the longest in the Texas League...was named to the California League Postseason All-Star Team in 2006.

2009 HIGHLIGHTS

The rookie catcher spent the entire season on the A's roster but appeared in just 46 games as the back-up to Kurt Suzuki...hit .229 with seven home runs and 30 RBI...the RBI were second most in Oakland history by a player with 50 or fewer games played...Rico Carty had 31 RBI in 41 games in 1978...added seven doubles and 14 of his 32 hits were for extra bases, fueling a .429 slugging percentage...appeared in 36 games at catcher, including 30 starts, and tossed out 9 of 20 (45.0%) attempted base stealers...among catchers with 20 or more games, that was the second-best percentage in the majors in 2009 and it was the best by an Oakland catcher since Jamie Quirk tossed out 10 of 20 (50.0%) in 37 games in 1990...the switch-hitter batted .267 (27 for 101) with six of his seven home runs and 26 of his 30 RBI against right-handed pitchers, compared to .128 (5 for 39) against left-handers...had a .505 slugging percentage against righties and .231 against lefties...hit .190 with the bases empty and .279 with runners on, including .316 with runners in scoring position...was 1 for 33 (.030) with two walks when leading off an inning...saw most of his playing time in day games and batted .250 with five of his seven home runs in 29 day games compared to .175 in 17 night games...four of his seven home runs came on the first pitch and he batted .478 (11 for 23) with eight RBI when putting the first pitch in play...five of his seven home runs came after the All-Star Break and the A's won all seven games in which he homered...in addition to 36 games behind the plate, he also appeared in six games (four starts) at first base, his only professional appearances at a position other than catcher...was 2 for 14 (.143) in four games at designated hitter and 0 for 2 as a pinch hitter.

OAKLAND: Made his Major League debut April 11 against Seattle and had a two-run double off Felix Hernandez in the second inning in his first at bat for his first big league hit...with two RBI, he is the third player in Oakland history to have a multiple-RBI game in his debut...Ben Grieve had five on Sept. 3, 1997 against San Francisco and Aaron Cunningham had two on Aug. 31, 2008 against Minnesota...then made his professional debut at first base with a start in his second game April 15 against Boston, going 1 for 3...went 0 for 11 over his next four games before collecting a career-high three hits May 3 at Seattle...also had a pair of doubles that day...hit his first major league home run May 24 against Arizona, a two-run shot in the sixth inning off Jon Garland...started back-to-back games four times, but the only time both starts came at catcher was June 11-12...was batting .182 with two home runs and 13 RBI over his first 18 games through June 21...then put together a career-high nine-game hitting streak from June 22 to July 30...hit .429 (12 for 28) with no home runs and five RBI during the streak to lift his average to a season-high .265...hit .474 in July but then went 10 for 57 (.175) with five home runs and 12 RBI over his final 18 games...had two home runs over his first 30 games, but then belted five home runs over a 10-game stretch from Aug. 12 to Sept. 16...added 11 RBI over that span...drove in a career-high four runs Sept. 2 against Kansas City and hit his first career grand slam off Yasuhiko Yabuta in the second inning...had at least one RBI in 16 of his 46 games and 10 of those were multiple RBI contests...drove in his 30th and final run of the season Sept. 27 at Los Angeles (AL) in his 44th game...the only player in Oakland history to reach 30 career RBI in fewer games is Ben Grieve, who did it in his 36th career game April 15, 1998...played in 10 games in September, his most in a month in 2009, but hit just .167.

2009 HIGHLIGHTS

Was signed to a minor league contract by the A's organization Aug. 5 after he was released by New York (AL) July 29 and went 4-1 with a 2.95 ERA in six starts with Oakland...was 1-2 with a 5.23 ERA in 15 relief appearances with the Yankees and combined for a 5-3 record and a 3.77 ERA in 21 games, six starts, in his 13th season...had more home runs allowed (7) than walks (6) with the A's and he yielded 12 home runs while walking 13 in 57.1 innings overall...opponents batted .236, including .218 (22 for 101) by left-handed hitters and .252 (28 for 111) by right-handers...yielded nine of his 12 home runs to righties...his opponents batting average dropped to .214 with runners in scoring position...allowed a .275 batting average and nine of his 12 home runs over his first 30 pitches in a game, but a .194 average after that...was 0-2 with a 10.50 ERA in five interleague appearances and 5-1 with a 2.84 ERA in 16 games against American League competition...the A's were 4-2 (.667) in his starting assignments...

tossed six or more innings in two of his six starts, allowed two runs or fewer four times and walked two batters or fewer all six starts...stranded all six of his inherited runners in relief and first batters faced were 3 for 15 (.200)...yielded a run in seven of his 15 relief appearances and tossed two or more innings five times.

NEW YORK: Was signed to a minor league contract by the Yankees Feb. 20 and began the season at Triple-A Scranton-Wilkes Barre...went 1-0 with four saves and a 0.64 ERA in 10 relief appearances before he was selected by New York on May 9...yielded just two runs over his first seven outings for a 2.16 ERA...then allowed eight runs over his next four outings (6.0 ip, 12.00 ERA), including four in 0.2 innings June 12 at New York (NL) and three in 2.0 innings on June 21 at Florida...allowed two runs over his final four outings (6.1 ip, 2.84 ERA)...was designated for assignment July 21 and released July 29.

OAKLAND: Signed by the A's to a minor league contract Aug. 5 and was assigned to Triple-A Sacramento...had no decisions on a 7.94 ERA in three games, two starts, when he was selected by Oakland Aug. 17...started that night against his former team, the Yankees, and combined with Breslow, Ziegler and Bailey on a seven-hit shutout in the A's 3-0 win in Oakland...tossed five of the innings and allowed five of the hits...it was his first win as a starter since May 16, 2008 at Florida...at the age of 36 years, 132 days, he was the oldest pitcher to start a game for the A's since Tom Candiotti faced Tampa Bay June 2, 1999 at 41 years, 275 days...also won his second start Aug. 23 against Detroit and left with a 6-1 lead in his third start Aug. 28 at Los Angeles, only to end up with a no decision in the A's 11-7 loss...allowed just three runs over his first three starts with the A's (1.62 ERA) but then was tagged for six runs in 5.2 innings for the loss Sept. 3 against Seattle...earned his 100th career win in style, as he tossed a five-hit shutout in the A's 9-0 win at Texas Sept. 14...did not walk a batter, allowed just one runner into scoring position and was aided by three double plays...at the age of 36 years, 160 days, he became the third oldest pitcher in Oakland history to toss a shutout...Don Sutton (40 years, 85 days) had a four-hitter June 26, 1985 against Chicago and Jim Perry (39 years, 223 days) had a one-hitter June 10, 1975 at Baltimore...it was his second career shutout, his first since Aug. 26, 2004 at Florida, a span of 86 starts...it was his 13th career complete game, his first since Oct. 2, 2005 against Arizona, a span of 49 starts...it was the first shutout by an A's pitcher at Rangers Ballpark...it would also be his final start of the season, as he woke up the next day with an irritated nerve in his right arm.

MINORS: Combined for a 1-0 record and a 2.75 ERA in 13 games, including two starts, with Scranton-Wilkes Barre and Sacramento...converted all four of his save opportunities...allowed just one home run in 19.2 innings and walked just six while striking out 25...yielded a .227 opponents batting average, including .261 (12 for 46) against right-handed hitters and .172 (5 for 29) against left-handers...opponents were 4 for 20 (.200) with runners in scoring position...did not allow a run in nine of his 10 outings with the S-WB Yankees, including each of his first five (7.1 ip)...allowed one run in the 10th inning of a 17-14, 13-inning win at Rochester April 25...did not allow a run over his final four outings and 4.2 innings before the Yankees called May 9...tossed a scoreless inning of relief in his first outing with Sacramento Aug. 5 but his final two outings were starts...had no decisions and a 9.64 ERA in his two starts, tossing 1.2 innings on Aug. 8 against Oklahoma City and 3.0 innings Aug. 12 against New Orleans as he built up his pitch count.

TEAM NOTES

2009 RECAP: The A's finished the 2009 season with a 75-87 record, their third consecutive season with a losing record...are one of three American League teams (Baltimore and Kansas City) without a winning record over the last three years...this is the first time the A's have finished with a losing record in three straight seasons since 1993-98 when they had six straight...the A's .463 winning percentage was 10th lowest in Oakland history and it was the worst mark since the 1998 club went 74-88 (.457)...this marks the third consecutive season the A's winning percentage has decreased...the only other times that happened in Oakland history was from 1972-74 and 2003-05...finished in last place in the American League West for the seventh time in Oakland history and the first time since 1998 (also 1977, 1979, 1993, 1995 and 1997)...spent an Athletics record 161 days in last place, including every day beginning May 3...the previous mark was 159 days by the 1921 and 1946 Philadelphia A's...finished 22 games behind Los Angeles in the AL West and tied for seventh in the AL Wild Card, 20 games behind Boston...it marked the first time the A's finished 20 or more games out of the playoffs since 1997 when they were 25 games out in the West...went 31-43 (.419) over the first 74 games, which was the second worst record in the AL and fourth worst in the majors...then played .500 ball (44-44) over the final 88 games beginning June 29...began the season by taking two of three at Los Angeles, but the A's 2-1 record on April 8 would mark Oakland's only day over .500 for the season...were swept by Seattle in the next series to start the home schedule and lost 10 of the first 15 games...a 3-2 win at Seattle May 2 gave the A's a 9-12 record and put them in a tie for third place, just 3½ games out of first place...lost the next day to the Mariners in 15 innings by a score of 8-7 to fall into sole possession of last place and remained there for the rest of the season...that began a stretch where the A's lost 13 of their next 19 games to fall to 15-25 on May 23, which was the third worst record after 40 games in Oakland history...had a season best seven-game winning streak from June 2 to 8 to improve to 26-30 and were just 6½ games behind Texas in the AL West...then lost 19 of the next 28 games from June 9 to July 10 and nearly doubled their deficit, falling 12½ games behind the Rangers...won the next two games to go into the All-Star Break with a 37-49 record...began the second half of the season by playing 28 consecutive days without a day off from July 16 to Aug. 12...that was the longest stretch of consecutive days with a game in the history of the Athletics franchise...the previous high was 27 from May 30-June 25, 1961 and June 15-July 11, 1976...were originally scheduled to have July 23 off, but made up the April 20 rainout at New York that day...went 14-14 over the 28-day stretch...were a season-high 17 games under .500 on Sept. 4 (59-76) but then went 16-4 over the next 20 games, including a season high tying seven-game winning streak from Sept. 14 to 20...were officially eliminated from the AL West September 13 in game 142 and were eliminated from the playoffs Sept. 15 in game 144...in 2008, the A's were officially eliminated from the playoffs in game 143...pulled to within five games of .500 Sept. 26 at 75-80...then lost each of the final seven games, which was the A's longest losing streak of the season...it was also the second longest season-ending losing streak in Oakland history to a nine-game streak that concluded the 1995 season.

OFFENSE: The A's batted .262, which ranked ninth in the American League but was the 10th best batting average in Oakland history...hit 135 home runs, which was the fewest in the AL and fourth fewest in the majors...it marked the first time in Oakland history the A's ranked last in the AL in home runs...the last Athletics team to finish last was the 1967 Kansas City A's...over the last 20 years, the only A's team to hit fewer home runs in a non-strike season is the 2008 club, which finished with 125...finished last in the AL in slugging for the second consecutive season (.397)...also tied for third in the AL in fewest extra base hits (463) and had the fourth lowest on-base percentage (.328)...walked just 527 times, which were the A's fewest walks in a non-strike season since 1985 when they had 508...were walked just 16 times intentionally...since the intentional walk became an official statistic in 1955, the only Major League team with fewer intentional walks in a season is the 1961 Kansas City A's (10)...ranked second in the AL in sacrifice flies (54)...had 307 doubles, the fifth time in Oakland history the A's topped the 300 plateau...had 31 sacrifice hits, which were the most by an A's team since 1999 (39)...the A's number three hitters batted .237, which was the lowest mark in the majors...also ranked last in the majors with a mark of .228 in 2008.

PITCHING: The A's pitching staff set an Athletics franchise record with 1124 strikeouts, breaking the mark of 1117 set in 2001...compiled a 4.26 ERA, which was third lowest in the American League behind Seattle (3.87) and Chicago (4.14)...now have a 3.95 ERA since 2001, which is the lowest mark in the AL over that span...only Los Angeles (3.89) and Atlanta (3.95) have a lower mark in the majors...allowed the fewest home runs in the AL (156) and hit the fewest batters (36)...the hit batters were the A's fewest in a non-strike season since 1990 (27)...had the third lowest opponents slugging percentage in the AL (.413), tied for the third fewest wild pitches (43) and tied for the fourth fewest walks (523)...ranked fifth in opponents on-base percentage (.329) and seventh in opponents batting (.265)...had a strikeout to walk ratio of 2.15, which was third best in Oakland history...had just two balks, which tied for the fewest in the AL...the only times in Oakland history the A's balked fewer than two times was in 1974 and 2000 when they had one.

STARTING PITCHING: A's starting pitchers were 51-64 with a 4.76 ERA and .279 opponents batting average...the ERA and opponents average were fourth highest in the American League and they also had the fourth fewest wins and fourth most losses...the ERA was the highest by an A's team since 1999 (4.96)...had just two complete games, which tied with Baltimore for the fewest in the AL, and 888.0 innings pitched, which was second lowest ahead of the Orioles (877.2)...the complete games matched the fewest in Athletics history (1997) and the innings pitched were second fewest in a non-strike season (858.2 in 1997)...also had the fewest hit batters in the AL (23), the third fewest wild pitches (20) and the third highest on-base percentage (.342).

ROOKIE STARTERS: The A's started a rookie pitcher in an Oakland record 116 games, breaking the previous mark of 93 set in 1983...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the last team to have more starts by rookie pitchers is the 1998 Florida Marlins (124)...eight different rookies started a game, matching the Oakland record from 1983...started a rookie in 90 of the final 115 games and had at least four rookies in the rotation from June 2, when Vin Mazzaro was recalled, through the end of the season...had a streak of 15 consecutive games started by a rookie pitcher from Aug. 1 to 16, which is an Oakland record, breaking the previous mark of five...it was the longest streak by any team since the 1997 St. Louis Cardinals started a rookie in each of their last 19 games...Brett Anderson had a team-leading 11 wins and Trevor Cahill added 10 as the A's became just the 13th team since 1900 with at least two 10-game winners under the age of 22...Cahill led the A's with 32 starts and Anderson had 30, making the A's the fourth team since 1900 with two pitchers under the age of 22 with 30 or more starts...the A's had just three pitchers over the age of 27 start a game and those three pitchers combined for just eight starts (Tomko 6, Giese 1, Reineke 1)...the A's are one of just four teams since 1900 to have nine pitchers under the age of 27 make at least five starts (2009 Nationals, 1966 A's, 1909 Red Sox)...used a total of 12 rookie pitchers, which is the most in Oakland history, topping the previous mark of 10 set in 1983 and matched in 2008...rookie pitchers combined for 232 appearances, topping the previous Oakland high of 203 from 2008.

August 16	Chicago	3-2	Ellis home run
August 22	Detroit	3-2	Suzuki single

IN THE PINCH: A's pinch hitters were 11 for 72 (.153) with three doubles, a triple, 11 RBI, two walks and 21 strikeouts...the batting average was the lowest in the American League and second lowest in Oakland history to the record of .141 in 1994...the A's were one of four AL teams without a home run...had just two pinch-hit walks for a .184 on-base percentage and both figures were the lowest in the majors and in Oakland history...the previous lows were four walks in 1979 and a .218 on-base percentage in 1994...the walks were the fewest by any team since the 1999 Detroit Tigers also had two...the pinch-hit triple by Rajai Davis Aug. 3 against Texas was the first by an Athletic since Aug. 22, 1996 at Boston when Matt Stairs tripled off Roger Clemens...the A's have hit .203 or less in the pinch in each of the last six seasons and are batting .173 (76 for 440) with 15 doubles, one triple, six home runs and 68 RBI over that span...the batting average is the lowest in the majors since 2004 and the 22 extra base hits are also the fewest...only Boston (5) has hit fewer pinch home runs.

DESIGNATED HITTERS: A's designated hitters batted .251 with 24 home runs and 81 RBI...ranked seventh in the American League in batting, tied for eighth in home runs and 11th in RBI...led the AL in strikeouts (170), ranked second in walks (85) and were fourth in on-base percentage (.351)...had the fourth lowest slugging percentage (.419)...the strikeouts set an Oakland record for designated hitters, topping the previous mark of 163 set in 1987 and matched in 2008...grounded into just seven double plays, which was the fewest in the AL and tied for the fewest in Oakland history (1976)...tied for second in the AL with seven stolen bases...when Jack Cust stole second base May 2 at Seattle, it was the first stolen base by an A's starting DH since Erubiel Durazo on May 4, 2005 against Texas.

INTERLEAGUE PLAY: The A's went 5-13 (.278) in interleague play, which tied Cleveland for the worst record in the majors...it was the A's worst record ever in interleague play and just the third time in 13 seasons they finished with a losing record against the National League...went 7-9 (.438) in 1997 and 8-10 (.444) in 2006...had the sixth lowest interleague batting average (.244) and the 17th best ERA (4.06)...walked just 46 times, which was the fewest by an Oakland team in interleague games...the A's are now 62-64 (.492) in interleague play since 2003 but are 128-102 (.557) all-time, which is tied for the fourth best record in the majors.

CHRONOLOGY

April 6

A's 0 @ Los Angeles 3
(0-1, 4th, -1.0)

Dallas Braden makes his first Opening Day start as the A's begin the season on the road in Anaheim. Braden allows three runs on nine hits, one walk and a home run against three strikeouts over six innings but finds himself with his first loss of the season after the A's offense is shutout by Joe Saunders and the Angels bullpen. Oakland hitters manage to put up just three hits and two walks with only one extra-base hit by A's new shortstop Orlando Cabrera. Michael Wuertz also makes his A's debut and retires the Angels in order for a scoreless inning of work. Andrew Bailey follows suit in the eighth inning retiring Los Angeles in order in his Major League debut.

April 7

A's 6 @ Los Angeles 4
(1-1, t-2nd, -0.5)

Oakland's offense erupts for 16 hits and six runs to back righty Trevor Cahill in his Major League debut. Cahill, at the age of 21 years, 37 days, becomes the seventh youngest pitcher to start a game in Oakland history and works a solid five innings allowing three runs, two earned, against five hits and five walks while striking out one for the no decision. Oakland puts up three runs in the fourth inning on RBI singles from Jack Cust and Mark Ellis and a RBI groundout from Travis Buck to give the A's a one-run lead. The A's then break open a tie game with two runs in the seventh on a RBI groundout from Eric Chavez with the bases loaded that plates Ryan Sweeney, followed by a RBI single from Jack Cust to bring home Jason Giambi who adds an insurance run in the next inning with a RBI double to give the A's a three-run lead. Michael Wuertz gets the win for working a scoreless sixth inning, Santiago Casilla works a scoreless seventh and eighth, before Brad Ziegler allows one run in the ninth to close out the game and earn his first save of the season.

April 8

A's 6 @ Los Angeles 4
(2-1, 2nd, -0.5)

The A's offense carries over from yesterday with 15 more hits and a pair of two-out rallies in the eighth and ninth to come from behind and beat the Angels. Dana Eveland works six innings and allows three runs on eight hits and two walks while striking out four for the no-decision. Russ Springer makes his A's debut and allows one unearned run over an inning of work in the seventh before the A's put up three runs in the eighth on a fielder's choice by Mark Ellis and a two-out, two-run single from Ryan Sweeney. Andrew Bailey works a scoreless bottom of the eighth to earn his first Major League win. The A's mount another two-out rally in the ninth on a two-out, pinch-hit single from Nomar Garciaparra that scores Bobby Crosby and ties the game at 4-4. Mark Ellis and Matt Holliday each follow with RBI singles, giving the A's a 6-4 lead which would be all that Brad Ziegler needed as he works a scoreless bottom of the ninth for his second save of the year.

April 10

A's 4 vs. Seattle 5
(2-2, t-3rd, -1.0)

Brett Anderson makes his Major League debut in the A's season home-opener. The lefty is tagged with his first loss after working six innings and allowing five runs on seven hits and two walks while striking out two. The Mariners did all of their damage with five runs in the second inning. The A's got on the board first, however, with a run in the first inning on a throwing error. Orlando Cabrera drove in another run in the second on a sacrifice fly. The A's put together a rally in the sixth with a RBI double from Matt Holliday and a sacrifice fly from Nomar Garciaparra but Kurt Suzuki would ground out with the bases loaded to end the frame. Michael Wuertz worked a scoreless 1.2 innings in relief before giving way to Jerry Blevins, who walked the only batter he faced and was replaced by Andrew Bailey who worked 1.1 scoreless innings to end the game for the A's bullpen.

April 11

A's 5 vs. Seattle 8
(2-3, t-3rd, -1.5)

A's rookie Josh Outman makes the start and works 4.1 innings, allowing three runs on six hits, a home run and two walks while striking out three. Landon Powell, making his Major League debut, got the A's offense started in the second inning with a two-run double and Orlando Cabrera drove in Powell later in the inning on a sacrifice fly. Jack Cust launched a two-run home run in the fifth inning to break a 3-3 tie but the A's bullpen couldn't hold onto the lead. Michael Wuertz gets the final two outs of the fifth in relief of Outman and Russ Springer worked a scoreless sixth inning and Santiago Casilla a scoreless seventh. However, Casilla would load the bases to start the eighth before giving the ball to Brad Ziegler, who allowed four runs to score on a double and a single to the first two batters he faced before retiring the side. Sean Gallagher allowed another run in the ninth before finishing up for the bullpen.

April 12

A's 0 vs. Seattle 1
(2-4, 4th, -2.5)

A's rookie Trevor Cahill makes his second big league start and does not allow a hit to the Mariners until the seventh inning. Seattle scores the lone run of the game as the A's are shutout 1-0. Cahill is tagged with his first career loss after working seven innings and allowing the one run on two hits and three walks while striking out three. Oakland collects three singles from Rajai Davis, Matt Holliday and Ryan Sweeney for their only hits in the game. Russ Springer and Andrew Bailey work a scoreless eighth and ninth innings, respectively.

April 13

A's 8 vs. Boston 2

(3-4, t-3rd, -2.0)

Oakland breaks it open early with five runs in the second inning to back starter Dallas Braden, who works six innings and allows two runs on six hits and one walk while striking out three for his first win of the season. Jack Cust opens the second inning with a solo home run, his second of the year, and Orlando Cabrera, Jason Giambi and Matt Holliday each follow later in the inning with RBI hits. Nomar Garciaparra, in his first game against his former team, connects for a solo home run in the fifth, his first of the year. Matt Holliday comes up with a RBI triple in the seventh and Bobby Crosby brings in another run in the eighth on a sacrifice fly to cap off the scoring for the A's. Michael Wuertz, Santiago Casilla and Brad Ziegler each work a scoreless inning in relief to shut down the Red Sox the rest of the way.

April 14

A's 6 vs. Boston 5 (12)

(4-4, 2nd, -2.0)

The A's start off the scoring with five runs in the first inning on RBI hits from Matt Holliday, Jack Cust, Travis Buck and Mark Ellis, but starter Dana Eveland allows five runs on eight hits and two walks over four and two-thirds innings pitched. The next run wouldn't score until the bottom of the 12th on a game-ending RBI single by Buck to plate Rajai Davis. Andrew Bailey relieves Eveland in the fifth inning and works a scoreless two innings. Santiago Casilla (1.1 ip), Russ Springer (1.0 ip), Brad Ziegler (2.0 ip) and Sean Gallagher (1.0 ip) shut down the Red Sox the rest of the way while Gallagher picks up his first win of the season.

April 15

A's 2 vs. Boston 8

(4-5, t-2nd, -3.0)

The A's are held hitless by opposing starter Tim Wakefield for seven and a third innings until Kurt Suzuki singles in the eighth. Landon Powell follows later in the inning with the second hit of the game, a RBI single to score the A's first run of the game (Mark Ellis who had walked to open the frame). Oakland gets their only other run in the ninth on a RBI double from Matt Holliday. Rookie Brett Anderson makes the start and allows two runs on five hits and two walks while striking out five, but is tagged with his second loss. Jerry Blevins relieves Anderson and allows four runs on two hits over two-thirds of an inning pitched before Sean Gallagher gets the ball and allows two runs of his own over the final one and a third innings for the A's bullpen.

April 16

OFF DAY

(4-5, t-2nd, -2.5)April 17

A's 8 @ Toronto 5

(5-5, 2nd, -2.5)

Lefty Josh Outman makes the start and allows five runs, three earned, on five hits, two home runs, and four walks while striking out five for the no-decision. Oakland starts the scoring off in the first inning with an RBI groundout from Matt Holliday. Bobby Crosby brings in the next A's runs on a bases-clearing triple in the fourth and would score later in the inning on a wild pitch to tie the game at 5-5. Holliday delivers an RBI double in the seventh before Ellis hits an RBI double in the eighth and Ryan Sweeney brings home the A's eighth and final a couple batters later. Andrew Bailey relieves Outman and works two scoreless innings to pick up his second win. Michael Wuertz, Santiago Casilla and Brad Ziegler each toss a scoreless inning in relief to shut down the Blue Jays the rest of the way. Ziegler picks up his third save of the year.

April 18

A's 2 @ Toronto 4 (12)

(5-6, 2nd, -2.5)

Starter Trevor Cahill works five and a third innings and allows two runs on five hits and five walks but doesn't factor into the decision. The A's start the scoring off in the first inning with a RBI groundout from Jason Giambi. Giambi would drive in the A's only other run in the sixth on a RBI double. Michael Wuertz relieves Cahill in the sixth and works a scoreless two-thirds of an inning. Russ Springer works a scoreless seventh before Santiago Casilla works a scoreless eighth and ninth. Dan Giese gets the ball to start the 10th inning and works a scoreless 11th before allowing a walk off two-run home run to Lyle Overbay with two outs in the 12th to get tagged with his first loss of the year.

April 19

A's 0 @ Toronto 1

(5-7, t-2nd, -2.5)

Lefty Dallas Braden has a solid outing, working seven and a third innings and allowing just one run on five hits and three walks while striking out four. However, he is tagged with his second loss of the year as the A's are shutout by the Blue Jays pitching staff. Matt Holliday goes 2 for 4 and is the only Athletic with multiple hits as Oakland leaves six men on base in the game. Ryan Sweeney comes up with a double in the third inning with a runner on base but Mark Ellis is thrown out at the plate in the A's only scoring chance in the game. Russ Springer relieves Braden in the eighth inning and retires the only two batters he faces to retire the side.

April 20

Postponed @ New York-AL

(5-7, t-2nd, -2.5)April 21

A's 3 @ New York-AL 5

(5-8, t-3rd, -3.5)

Starter Dana Eveland is tagged with his first loss of the year after allowing four runs on nine hits and four walks over four innings pitched. Mark Ellis drives in the A's first run in the fourth inning with a RBI groundout and Kurt Suzuki follows suit later in the inning with a RBI single. Suzuki finishes the game with a career-high tying four hits. Ellis drives in the A's only other run in the eighth on a RBI double. Andrew Bailey relieves Eveland and allows one run over two innings of work. Santiago Casilla and Josh Outman each toss a scoreless inning to finish the game for the A's bullpen.

April 22

A's 7 @ New York-AL 9 (14)

(5-9, t-3rd, -3.5)

Rookie Brett Anderson makes the start and works five and a third innings, allowing five runs on nine hits, three home runs and one walk while striking out two for the no decision. Kurt Suzuki gets the A's on the board first with a three-run home run in the second inning, his first of the year. Jack Cust brings in the next run on a RBI groundout in the third, Mark Ellis has a RBI single in the sixth and Jason Giambi and Matt Holliday each drive in a run in the seventh to cap off the scoring for the A's. Michael Wuerzt relieves Anderson and allows two runs on four hits over two-thirds of an inning pitched. Russ Springer (1.0 ip), Andrew Bailey (1.0 ip), Brad Ziegler (2.0 ip) and Josh Outman (1.0 ip) hold the Yankees scoreless through the next nine innings. Dan Giese relieves Outman and tosses a scoreless 12th and 13th before allowing a walk-off two-run home run to Melky Cabrera in the 14th to absorb his second loss of the year.

April 23

OFF DAY

(5-9, 4th, -4.0)

April 24

A's 2 vs. Tampa Bay 8

(5-10, 4th, -5.0)

Starter Trevor Cahill lasts only two and two-thirds innings, allowing seven runs on eight hits, two home runs and two walks while striking out two for his second loss of the year. The A's score their only runs in the eighth inning on a solo home run by Jack Hannahan, his first of the year, and a RBI single from Ryan Sweeney. Dan Giese relieves Cahill and works four and a third innings in long relief, allowing one run on five hits and four walks. Michael Wuerzt and Russ Springer each toss a scoreless inning to finish the game for the A's bullpen.

April 25

A's 5 vs. Tampa Bay 2

(6-10, 3rd, -5.0)

Lefty Dallas Braden makes the start and works five and two-thirds innings, allowing one run on four hits and three walks while striking out two for his second win of the year. Travis Buck hits his first home run of the year in the third inning, a solo shot. Nomar Garciaparra comes up with a bases-clearing double in the fourth and Jason Giambi caps off the scoring in the seventh with his first home run of the year, also a solo shot. Andrew Bailey relieves Braden, works a scoreless inning and a third, before Russ Springer (0.2 ip) and Brad Ziegler (1.1 ip) shut down the Rays the rest of the way. Ziegler picks up his fourth save of the year.

April 26

A's 7 vs. Tampa Bay 1

(7-10, 3rd, -4.0)

Dana Eveland makes the start and works five innings, allowing one run on four hits and three walks while striking out three for his first win of the year. Nomar Garciaparra starts the scoring off for the A's in the second inning with a RBI single, followed by a two-run double from Kurt Suzuki and a RBI single by Mark Ellis. Oakland tallies three more runs in the fifth on RBI singles from Orlando Cabrera and Matt Holliday and a bases-loaded walk from Kurt Suzuki. Michael Wuerzt relieves Eveland and works two scoreless innings before Santiago Casilla and Russ Springer each toss a scoreless frame in the eighth and ninth to close out the game and secure the win.

April 27

OFF DAY

(7-10, 3rd, -4.0)

April 28

A's 4 @ Texas 5

(7-11, 4th, -4.5)

Lefty Brett Anderson makes the start and works five innings, allowing three runs, one earned, on three hits and three walks while striking out five before leaving in the sixth with a blister on the tip of his left index finger. Also departing the game early are Nomar Garciaparra, who leaves in the second inning with a strained right calf, and Mark Ellis, who leaves in the third with a strained left calf. Oakland gets their first run in the third on a throwing error. Orlando Cabrera and Jason Giambi lash out back-to-back RBI singles in the fifth and Ryan Sweeney hits his first home run of the year in the seventh, a solo shot, to cap off the scoring for the A's. Andrew Bailey relieves Anderson and allows one run over an inning of work that leaves him with the first blown save of his career. Santiago Casilla works a scoreless seventh before Michael Wuerzt allows a run over his inning of work in the eighth for his first loss of the season.

April 30

A's 4 @ Texas 2

(8-11, 4th, -3.5)

Lefty Dallas Braden makes a solid start, working a scoreless five innings and allowing five hits and four walks while striking out six for his third win of the year. The A's open the scoring in the sixth with a sacrifice fly from Landon Powell to plate Kurt Suzuki. They add two more in the seventh on a bases loaded walk from Jack Cust and a sacrifice fly from Suzuki. Matt Holliday adds some insurance in the ninth with his first home run of the year, a solo shot. Andrew Bailey relieves Braden and works two scoreless innings before Russ Springer and Michael Wuerzt each allow a run over their inning of work to close out the game. Wuerzt picks up his first save of the year.

May 1

A's 7 @ Seattle 8

(8-12, 4th, -4.5)

Lefty Dana Eveland makes the start and gets a no-decision after allowing seven runs, all earned, on 10 hits, three walks and two home runs. The A's erupt for a six-run third inning on a RBI single from Matt Holliday, a two-run double from Kurt Suzuki and a bases clearing triple from Bobby Crosby. After Seattle came back to take a 7-6 lead, Oakland ties it in the seventh on a solo home run from Holliday, his second of the year. Dan Giese relieves Eveland in the fifth and works a scoreless three and one-third innings before Russ Springer comes in to work the ninth and allows two hits and two walks, including the game-ending RBI single to Jose Lopez, which tages him with his first loss of the season.

May 2

A's 3 @ Seattle 2
(9-12, 4th, -3.5)

After losing the game in the ninth inning the previous day, the A's orchestrated their own rally in the ninth to beat the Mariners 3-2. Rookie Trevor Cahill makes the start and works six solid innings, allowing just one run on a solo home run along with seven hits and three walks but gets a no-decision. Oakland scores their first run in the sixth on a RBI double from Jason Giambi that ties the game. Giambi comes up again in the eighth inning with a RBI single to tie the game again, this time at 2-2 before Gregorio Petit produces a run-scoring single in the ninth that gives the A's a 3-2 lead, enough for the win. Andrew Bailey relieves Cahill and works three innings, allowing one run, for his third win of the year. Michael Wuertz retires the Mariners in order in the ninth for his second save of the year.

May 3

A's 7 @ Seattle 8 (15)
(9-13, 4th, -4.5)

Oakland is three outs away from Victory twice in the game but the bullpen can't hold on as the A's fall to Seattle, 7-8, in 15 innings and drop the series one game to two. Josh Outman makes the start and works six innings, allowing two runs on four hits, two walks and a home run while striking out five. Oakland starts the scoring off early with three runs in the first on a RBI-ground out from Matt Holliday and a two-run home run from Jack Cust, his third of the year. The A's get another run in the fifth on a sacrifice fly by Ryan Sweeney but don't score again until the 13th inning when they put up three runs on a two-run double from Landon Powell and a RBI single from Orlando Cabrera. But the bullpen couldn't hold onto the three run lead, allowing three runs in the bottom half of the frame and another in the 15th. Kevin Cameron relieves Outman and allows a run over two innings before Russ Springer works an inning and also allows a run in the ninth to send the game to extra innings. Gio Gonzalez then works five innings and allows the three runs in the 13th before Dana Eveland replaces him to start the 15th and allows the game-winning run on a RBI single from Jose Lopez for his second loss of the year.

May 4

A's 2 vs. Los Angeles 5
(9-14, 4th, -4.5)

Lefty Brett Anderson makes the start and is tagged with his third loss of the year after allowing five runs on nine hits and one walk over four and two-thirds innings of work. The A's get their first run in the sixth inning on a balk that plates Travis Buck. Oakland sores their only other run in the next inning on a solo shot from Kurt Suzuki, his second of the year. Sean Gallagher relieves Anderson and works a scoreless three and two-thirds innings before Jerry Blevins finishes the game for the A's bullpen, recording the last two outs of the ninth inning.

May 5

A's 3 vs. Los Angeles 5
(9-15, 4th, -4.5)

Dallas Braden makes the start and works six innings, allowing a season-high five runs, three earned, on eight hits and one walk while striking out six for his third loss of the year. The A's score one run in the second inning on a RBI double from Travis Buck but do not score again until the ninth inning when they get two runs on a two-run home run from Matt Holliday, his third of the year. Kevin Cameron works a scoreless two innings in relief of Braden and Brad Ziegler works a scoreless ninth to close out the game for the A's bullpen.

May 6

A's 2 vs. Texas 3
(9-16, 4th, -5.0)

Dan Giese makes a spot start, his first start of the year, and works five and two-thirds innings, allowing three runs on eight hits while striking out three. The A's offense tacks on two runs in the fourth inning for Giese on a two-run double by Kurt Suzuki, but the run support isn't enough and Giese is tagged with his third loss of the year and the A's drop their fourth straight game. Michael Wuertz relieves Giese in the sixth and retires his first batter faced before tossing a scoreless seventh. Russ Springer and Andrew Bailey finished with scoreless eighth and ninth innings for the A's bullpen. Jack Cust goes 3 for 4 in the game for half of the A's six total hits.

May 7

A's 9 vs. Texas 4
(10-16, 4th, -4.0)

The A's snap their four-game losing streak, fueled by home runs from Jack Cust and Matt Holliday and a sharp performance from rookie Trevor Cahill, who earns his first career win after working seven innings of one-run ball. Cust initiates the scoring with a grand slam in the fourth inning, his fourth home run of the year and his second career grand slam. Texas scores their lone run on a Chris Davis solo shot in the fifth but Holliday answers with his own three-run home run, fourth of the year, in the bottom half of the inning to pad the A's lead. Kevin Cameron works a scoreless eighth before Brad Ziegler starts the ninth for the A's before being replaced after recording just one out and allowing three runs on four hits. Andrew Bailey relieves Ziegler and gets his only two batters faced to secure the win for Oakland.

May 8

A's 5 vs. Toronto 3
(11-16, 4th, -4.0)

Josh Outman makes the start and works just four and one-third innings pitched, allowing three runs on six hits and three walks while striking out five. Oakland's bats pick up Outman with a five-run second inning to tag Toronto starter Scott Richmond with the complete-game loss. Ryan Sweeney starts it off in the second with a two-run home run, his second of the year, and Jack Hannahan, Orlando Cabrera and Kurt Suzuki each follow suit with RBI hits of their own later in the inning. The A's bullpen works four and two-thirds scoreless innings to hold on for the win. Michael Wuertz relieves Outman in the fifth and earns his second win of the year after working an inning and two-thirds. Russ Springer follows with a scoreless seventh and rookie Andrew Bailey retires the Blue Jays in order in the eighth and ninth innings for his first career save.

May 9

A's 4 vs. Toronto 6
(11-17, 4th, -4.0)

Jason Giambi goes deep twice to come within one home run of becoming the 44th member of the 400 home run club. Giambi moves into a three-way tie with Andres Galarrraga and Al Kaline for 44th on the all-time home run list. Giambi's first homer comes in the seventh inning, a solo shot and his second of the year, before he hits a two-run shot in the ninth. Oakland plates three runs total in the ninth but the rally falls short as the A's lose 4-6. Sean Gallagher makes the start and works five innings, allowing four runs, three earned, on 10 hits while striking out three for his first loss of the year. Kevin Cameron works two scoreless innings before Jerry Blevins allows two runs over his two innings of work to finish the game for the A's bullpen.

May 10

A's 0 vs. Toronto 5
(11-18, 4th, -5.0)

Dallas Braden makes a quality start, working six innings and allowing three runs on nine hits while striking out three. However, the A's are shutout by Brett Cecil and the Blue Jays as they drop the three-game series. Kurt Suzuki is the only Athletic with multiple hits, going 2 for 4 with a double. Oakland collects five hits total and leaves six men on base. Braden is drilled with a line drive from Vernon Wells in the first inning but remains in the game through six. Michael Wuertz works a scoreless inning of relief before Brad Ziegler allows two runs on four hits over his inning and two-thirds of work. Jeff Gray finishes the game for the A's bullpen by retiring his only batter faced.

(11-18, 4th, -5.0)

May 12

A's 12 vs. Kansas City 3
(12-18, 4th, -5.0)

Trevor Cahill makes a solid start to earn his second big league win after working six innings and allowing two runs on two solo home runs. Oakland explodes early in the game with a seven-run second inning, highlighted by a three-run home run from Jack Cust, his fifth "jack" of the year. Orlando Cabrera finishes the game 3 for 5 with four RBI while Jason Giambi and Matt Holliday both drive in a pair. Dan Giese works the seventh inning in relief of Cahill and allows the Royals third and final run of the game before Kevin Cameron and Jerry Blevins shut down Kansas City in the eighth and ninth to close out the game.

May 13

A's 7 vs. Kansas City 2
(13-18, 4th, -5.0)

The A's win their second in a row to sweep the two-game set against Kansas City. Josh Outman makes the start and holds the Royals to just one run through six solid innings, allowing three hits and two walks while striking out four, but does not receive a run of support until the bottom of the sixth when Oakland puts up two to give the lefty his first win of the year. The A's then add some insurance with a five-run seventh highlighted by a bases-clearing double from Jack Cust who finishes the game with four RBI. Michael Wuertz works a scoreless seventh inning and Russ Springer a scoreless eighth for the bullpen before Andrew Bailey gets the ball in the ninth and allows a solo home run over his inning of work.

May 15

A's 1 @ Detroit 14
(13-19, 4th, -6.5)

With two rain delays totaling over two hours, the A's dropped their series opener against the Tigers in grand fashion. The game starts out roughly for the A's and lefty Brett Anderson, who after two errors by his defense, allows one of two grand slams to the Tigers in the first inning as Oakland quickly falls behind 0-5. Anderson lasts only three and a third innings as his record falls to 0-4 after allowing nine runs, three earned, on six hits and two walks. The A's get their lone run in the fourth inning on a RBI single by Adam Kennedy. Dan Giese relieves Anderson and works two and two thirds innings, allowing the Tigers' second grand slam of the game in the sixth inning. Santiago Casilla works a scoreless seventh and Brad Ziegler allows one more run over his inning of work in the eighth to finish the game for the A's pen.

May 16

A's 1 @ Detroit 9
(13-20, 4th, -7.5)

Oakland scores just one run for the second game in a row as they fall 1-9 to the Tigers. Dallas Braden makes the start and works five innings, allowing just one run until the fifth when he gives up five runs and is tagged with his fifth loss of the season. The A's score their lone run on a Travis Buck RBI single in the third inning. Ryan Sweeney collects half of the A's four hits on the day, going 2 for 4 with the lone run scored. Michael Wuertz relieves Braden and allows a run to score over his inning of work before Russ Springer tosses a scoreless seventh and Kevin Cameron gives up two over his inning of work in the eighth. A's pitching allows 14 hits total on the day.

May 17

A's 7 @ Detroit 11
(13-21, 4th, -8.5)

Oakland seizes an early lead with a five-run first inning but it ends up not being enough as the Tigers complete the three-game sweep. The A's start rookie pitcher Trevor Cahill who lasts just two and two-thirds innings, allowing seven earned runs on seven hits and two walks for his third loss. Adam Kennedy starts the scoring off with a solo home run in the first inning, his first of the year. Rookie Landon Powell follows suit later in the inning with a bases-clearing double. Orlando Cabrera caps off the A's scoring with a solo home run in the fifth inning, also his first of the year. Matt Holliday finishes 4 for 4 in the game and Kennedy 3 for 4. Oakland leaves a total of 11 men on base. Santiago Casilla relieves Cahill in the third inning and allows three runs over two and two-thirds innings. Russ Springer (0.1 ip), Brad Ziegler (2.0 ip) and Andrew Bailey (1.0 ip) finish the game for the A's bullpen.

May 18

A's 4 @ Tampa Bay 13
(13-22, 4th, -9.0)

The A's losing streak runs to four games as they drop the opener of a four-game series against the Rays. Sean Gallagher makes the start but allows nine runs, seven earned, on three hits and five walks over two and a third innings pitched for his second loss of the year. Gio Gonzalez relieves Gallagher and works three and two-thirds innings, allowing four runs of his own on six hits and three walks while striking out six. Kevin Cameron shuts down the Rays for two innings to finish the game for the A's bullpen. Oakland scores first with a sacrifice fly from Jason Giambi in the first inning and tack on another run with a solo shot from Orlando Cabrera, his second of the year, in the third. Jack Cust provides the A's only other runs with a two-run shot in the eighth, his sixth of the year.

May 19

A's 4 @ Tampa Bay 1 (11)
(14-22, 4th, -8.0)

The A's and Rays hold each other scoreless through 10 innings before Matt Holliday crushes a 3-2 changeup for a game-winning three-run homer in the top of the 11th inning, his fifth of the year. Adam Kennedy tacks on an insurance run with a RBI double to give the A's a 4-0 lead. Rookie Josh Outman makes the start and works six scoreless innings, allowing three hits and one walk while striking out six. Michael Wuerzt relieves Outman and tosses a scoreless frame before Andrew Bailey shuts down Tampa Bay through two. Santiago Casilla picks up the win, his first of the year, after working a scoreless 10th inning and Russ Springer finishes the game for the A's allowing one run on a solo home run in the bottom of the 11th inning.

May 20

A's 7 @ Tampa Bay 6
(15-22, 4th, -7.0)

Brett Anderson notches his first big-league win as Ryan Sweeney makes a diving catch to save the game for the A's in the bottom of the ninth inning. Anderson works six innings, allowing four runs, two earned, on four hits, two home runs, while striking out five. Michael Wuerzt relieves Anderson and allows a run over his inning of work. Russ Springer relives Wuerzt and is charged with an earned run after not recording an out. Santiago Casilla (1.0 ip) and Brad Ziegler (1.0 ip) shut down the Rays the rest of the way, with Ziegler picking up his fifth save of the year. Oakland starts the scoring with runs in the first, second and third innings to jump out to an early 4-0 lead. The A's register three runs in the fifth on a RBI double by Aaron Cunningham and a two-run single by Orlando Cabrera.

May 21

A's 5 @ Tampa Bay 6
(15-23, 4th, -7.0)

Lefty Dallas Braden makes the start but receives a no-decision after working seven innings and allowing three runs on six hits, one home run and two walks while striking out four. The A's get their first runs in the fourth inning on a RBI single from Adam Kennedy and a sacfly from Ryan Sweeney to tie the game at 2-2. Orlando Cabrera provides the next run with a RBI single in the eighth to tie the game at 3-3 before Adam Kennedy hits a bases-loaded single and Ryan Sweeney gets a bases-loaded walk in the ninth to take a two-run lead. Andrew Bailey relieves Braden and works a scoreless eighth inning before allowing a two-run homer to Ben Zobrist in the ninth while recording just one out. Bailey then hands the ball to Brad Ziegler who allows a double, a walk and a RBI single to drop the game for the A's and get tagged with his first loss of the year.

May 22

A's 1 vs. Arizona 2
(15-24, 4th, -8.0)

Rookie Trevor Cahill makes a solid start, working seven and a third innings, allowing two runs on six hits, one home run and one walk while striking out five. He is tagged with the tough-luck loss, his fourth loss of the year, as the A's manage to muster just one run. The lone run comes on Matt Holliday's sixth home run of the year in the second inning that, at the time, gave the A's a 1-0 lead. Craig Breslow relieves Cahill in the eighth inning and induces a ground ball double play from his first and only batter faced to end the frame. Santiago Casilla works a scoreless ninth inning to finish the game for the A's pen. Oakland gets a runner in scoring position with men on first and second and two outs in the bottom of the ninth but Ryan Sweeney grounds out to end the game.

May 23

A's 7 vs. Arizona 8 (11)
(15-25, 4th, -9.0)

The A's tally four home runs in the game, including Jason Giambi's 400th of his career, but fall short in extra innings to the Diamondbacks. Edgar Gonzalez makes the start and works five innings, allowing just one run on four hits and two walks while striking out four. Jack Cust starts the scoring for the A's in the first inning with a two-run homer, his seventh of the year. Giambi and Adam Kennedy follow suit with solo shots in the fourth, Giambi's fourth of the year and Kennedy's second. Nomar Garciaparra then tacks on another with a solo shot in the sixth, his second of the year, to give the A's a 5-1 lead. Michael Wuerzt relieves Gonzalez with no outs in the sixth and works a scoreless inning before Brad Ziegler works a scoreless seventh. Russ Springer gets the ball to start the eighth and allows three straight singles to load the bases before handing the ball to Andrew Bailey who allows all of Springer's runners to score plus one of his own before retiring the side. Bailey then works a scoreless ninth but is still charged with his second blown save. Arizona puts up three runs in the 11th inning and the A's rally to score two in the bottom half but Jack Hannahan grounds into a double play to end the game.

May 24

A's 6 vs. Arizona 2
(16-25, 4th, -9.0)

Josh Outman makes the start and earns his second win of the year after allowing two runs, one earned, on four hits and five walks over seven and two-thirds innings of work. The A's get their first run in the sixth on a wild pitch that scores Ryan Sweeney from third base. In the same at bat, Landon Powell hits the first home run of his career, a two-run shot, to give the A's a 3-1 lead. Oakland tallies another in the seventh on a Jason Giambi solo shot, his fifth of the year, and two more in the eighth on a two-run single by Adam Kennedy. Michael Wuerzt relieves Outman in the eighth inning and strikes out his only batter faced before Brad Ziegler finishes the game with a scoreless ninth inning.

May 25

A's 6 vs. Seattle 1
(17-25, 4th, -8.0)

The A's take game one of a three-game set against their Western rivals, backed by a strong outing from rookie left-hander Brett Anderson who earns his second win after working six innings and allowing one run on six hits, a home run and two walks while striking out four. The A's score a run in the first and add three more in the second on a RBI double from Jack Hannahan and a two-run double by Adam Kennedy. Oakland gets another in the fifth on a solo shot from Travis Buck, his second of the year, and one more in the sixth on a wild pitch that plates Buck. Kennedy finishes the game a perfect four for four with two stolen bases. Kevin Cameron relieves Anderson and works three scoreless innings to close out the game and earn his first career save.

May 26

A's 4 vs. Seattle 3
(18-25, 4th, -8.0)

The A's trail Seattle the entire game until the seventh inning when they score four runs to take a one-run lead and give Dallas Braden his fourth win of the year. Braden works seven innings, allowing the three runs on nine hits and one walk while striking out one. Orlando Cabrera starts the scoring for Oakland in the seventh with a RBI single and Matt Holliday follows later in the frame with a bases-loaded walk before Jason Giambi hits a two-run single to give the A's the lead. Craig Breslow (0.2 ip) and Santiago Casilla (0.1 ip) combine for a scoreless eighth inning out of the pen before Andrew Bailey shuts down the Mariners in order in the ninth to earn the second save of his career.

May 27

A's 1 vs. Seattle 6
(18-26, 4th, 8.0)

Oakland falls short of the sweep as they drop the finale of the series 1-6 against the Mariners. Trevor Cahill makes the start and works six innings, allowing three runs, two earned, on six hits, one home run and one walk while striking out five but is left with his fifth loss. The A's get their only run from Bobby Crosby on a solo shot in the second inning, his first of the year. Brad Ziegler allows a run to score over his inning of work in the seventh before Craig Breslow tosses a scoreless eighth. Russ Springer finishes the game for the A's pen by allowing two runs over his inning of work in the ninth.

May 28

OFF DAY
(18-26, 4th, -8.0)

May 29 – Game One

A's 3 @ Texas 6
(18-27, 4th, -9.5)

The A's take a one-run lead into the seventh inning but it's not enough as the pen gives it up in game one of the doubleheader. Josh Outman makes the start and works six and two thirds innings, allowing three runs on three hits, one home run and three walks while striking out a career-high nine for the no decision. Travis Buck starts the scoring for Oakland with a two-run homer in the second, his third of the year, which ties the game. Ryan Sweeney tacks on the go-ahead run in the sixth with a run-scoring single. Outman works into the seventh recording two outs but allowing a solo home run to tie the game. Michael Wurtz relieves Outman and records the final out of the inning. Santiago Casilla gets the ball to start the eighth and allows back-to-back home runs that leave him with his second loss of the year. Jeff Gray finishes the inning for Casilla by getting his only batter faced.

May 29 – Game Two (Makeup of 4/29 PPD)

A's 2 @ Texas 5
(18-28, 4th, -10.0)

The A's drop game two of the doubleheader for their third straight loss. Edgar Gonzalez makes the start and is tagged with his first loss of the year after allowing five runs on eight hits and three walks while striking out four over five innings of work. The worst comes in the first inning when Texas jumps out to an early 4-1 lead. Ryan Sweeney started the scoring with a RBI double in the first and the A's get their only other run in the third inning on a ground ball double play by Jason Giambi that plates Orlando Cabrera. Kevin Cameron (1.2 ip), Craig Breslow (1.0 ip) and Brad Ziegler (0.1 ip) shut down the Rangers the rest of the way for the A's pen.

May 30

A's 1 @ Texas 14
(18-29, 4th, -11.0)

Oakland gets a run early in the first on a RBI double from Kurt Suzuki but that would be all the A's offense for the rest of the game as they drop their fourth straight contest. Brett Anderson makes the start and is charged with his fifth loss after allowing six runs on eight hits, two homers and two walks while striking out three over four innings of work. Kevin Cameron relieves Anderson and works two innings, allowing four runs before Russ Springer works the seventh and allows three runs of his own. Andrew Bailey gets the ball in the eighth and allows the least amount of damage by an A's pitcher on the day with just one earned run over his inning of work.

May 31

A's 5 @ Texas 4
(19-29, 4th, -10.0)

The A's avoid the sweep by ending their four-game skid in a tight one in Arlington. Adam Kennedy starts the scoring off in the first with a solo shot, his third of the year and his first of two on the day. Jason Giambi drives in the next A's run with a solo shot of his own in the sixth, his sixth of the year. Oakland gets two more in seventh on a balk that plates Orlando Cabrera and a RBI single from Jack Cust. Kennedy gives the A's their final run on a solo homer in the ninth that serves as the game-winning run giving Oakland a 5-4 lead. Dallas Braden makes the start and works six innings, allowing two runs on five hits and two walks while striking out six for the no decision. Craig Breslow relieves Braden in the seventh and allows one of his inherited runners to score while recording just one out before handing the ball to Michael Wurtz who strikes out his first two batters faced to end the frame. Wurtz then hands the ball to Andrew Bailey in the eighth with two on and one out and Bailey allows both to score that gives him his third blown save but tosses a scoreless ninth for his fourth win.

June 1

A's 2 @ Chicago 6
(19-30, 4th, -10.5)

Matt Holliday did all the scoring for the A's with one swing of the bat in the first inning for a two-run homer, his seventh of the year, giving Oakland a quick 2-0 lead. Trevor Cahill makes the start and gives one run back to the White Sox in the first and another in the fifth. Cahill allows just the two earned runs on three hits, one homer and two walks while striking out three over five and two-thirds innings for the no decision. Craig Breslow relieves Cahill in the sixth and strikes out his first batter faced to end the frame. Breslow goes on to toss a scoreless seventh before being lifted in the eighth inning after he walks his first batter faced in the frame. Santiago Casilla relieves Breslow and allows his inherited runner to score while giving up three of his own while only recording one out. Kevin Cameron relieves Casilla in the same inning and records the final two outs of the frame, allowing one of Casilla's three earned runs to score. Breslow is left with his fourth loss of the season.

June 2

A's 5 @ Chicago 0
(20-30, 4th, -9.5)

Vin Mazzaro makes his Major League debut and notches his first win after working a scoreless six and one-third innings, allowing three hits and four walks while striking out one. Jack Cust hits a sac-fly in the first to give Mazzaro a quick 1-0 lead. Cust helps the rookie out some more in the fourth with a solo shot, his eighth homer of the year. Matt Holliday also helps out with a bases-clearing double in the fifth to cap off the scoring for the A's. Craig Breslow (0.2 ip) and Brad Ziegler (2.0 ip) shut down the White Sox the rest of the way in relief of Mazzaro to secure the victory.

June 3

A's 5 @ Chicago 3
(21-30, 4th, -9.5)

Rookie Josh Outman makes a solid start, working six and two-thirds innings and allowing three runs, two earned, on seven hits, a home run and a walk while striking out two for his third win of the year. Landon Powell hits a RBI single and Aaron Cunningham a RBI single to tie the game at 2-2. Bobby Crosby and Powell then go back-to-back with solo homers to lead off the fourth, the second home runs of the year for both. Jason Giambi then caps it off with a solo shot of his own in the fifth, his seventh of the year, to make it a 5-3 game. Michael Wuertz relieves Outman in the seventh and works a scoreless two-thirds of an inning before handing the ball to Andrew Bailey, who shuts down the White Sox over an inning and two-thirds to notch his third save.

June 4

A's 7 @ Chicago 0
(22-30, 4th, -8.5)

Oakland wins their third in a row to take the four-game series against the White Sox. Brett Anderson makes the start and shuts out Chicago through seven for his third win and the third straight win recorded by a rookie for the A's. Anderson allows six hits while striking out four over his seven scoreless frames. Michael Wuertz (1.0) and Santiago Casilla (1.0) combine to complete the shutout for Oakland. Kurt Suzuki gets the A's on the board in the fourth with a sac-fly and Jason Giambi tacks on three more with a three-run shot in the sixth. The A's then added three more in the ninth.

June 5

A's 9 vs. Baltimore 1
(23-30, 4th, -8.5)

The A's forged an early lead with a six-run first inning highlighted by a Jack Cust three-run homer, his ninth of the year. The six runs would be all Dallas Braden would need to earn his fifth win of the season. He worked seven innings and allowed one run on five hits while striking out seven. The lone run was a solo shot by Luke Scott. Matt Holliday added three more runs in the fifth, a three-run shot of his own, his eighth of the year, to top off the offense at nine runs. Edgar Gonzalez and Russ Springer both worked a scoreless inning of relief to secure the win.

June 6

A's 9 vs. Baltimore 4
(24-30, 4th, -7.5)

Oakland bats come alive again, tying a club record with eight doubles and giving rookie starter Trevor Cahill nine runs of support for his third win. Cahill allowed two runs over six innings on six hits while striking out five. Jason Giambi highlights a four-run third inning with a three-run double and Orlando Cabrera highlights a four-run fourth with a two-run double. Cabrera finishes 3 for 4 on the day with a pair of doubles. Brad Ziegler relieves Cahill with two on and no outs in the seventh inning and allows both of his inherited runners to score while also allowing two more runs as the Orioles get all four runs in the seventh. Craig Breslow (0.2 ip) and Andrew Bailey (1.1 ip) shutdown the O's the rest of the way.

June 7

A's 3 vs. Baltimore 0
(25-30, 4th, -7.5)

Vin Mazzaro makes his second big league start and remains unscored upon as the A's complete the weekend sweep of Baltimore. Mazzaro works seven and a third innings, allowing five hits while striking out four for his second win. Oakland scores all three of their runs in the first inning on three straight walks followed by a hit-by-pitch and a RBI groundout from Bobby Crosby as the A's chase Baltimore starter Rich Hill after two-thirds of an inning. The A's manage only two hits in the game but the three runs and four walks were all the pitching staff would need. Michael Wuertz and Craig Breslow record the second and third outs of the eighth inning for Mazzaro before rookie Andrew Bailey works a scoreless ninth for his fourth big league save.

June 8

A's 4 vs. Minnesota 3
(26-30, 4th, -6.5)

The A's notch their seventh straight win, a season-high, after a solid performance from Josh Outman who goes six innings and allows three runs on four hits and two walks while striking out seven for his fourth win of the year. The Twins post all three of their runs in the fourth inning but Oakland answers with a three-run rally of their own on a three-run double from Jack Hannahan to tie the game in the bottom of the frame. Jack Cust adds on the game-winning run with a solo shot to lead off the fifth for the A's, his 10th homer of the year. Michael Wuertz (1.0 ip), Craig Breslow (0.1 ip), Brad Ziegler (0.2 ip) and Andrew Bailey (1.0 ip) silence the Twins the rest of the way, with Bailey picking up his fifth save. Aaron Cunningham leaves the game with what is later diagnosed a concussion after being hit in the head by a pitch from Twins starter Anthony Swarzak in the fourth inning.

June 9

A's 5 vs. Minnesota 10
(26-31, 4th, -6.5)

Brett Anderson was stingy through five innings, allowing just one run to the Twins, but it all came unraveled in the sixth as the A's season-high seven-game winning streak came to an end. Anderson works five and two-thirds innings, allowing five runs on 10 hits, a home run and a walk while striking out five for his sixth loss of the season. Twins starter Scott Baker keeps the A's scoreless through eight but loads the bases to start the ninth before he is lifted. Adam Kennedy then follows with a two-run single and Oakland gets three more on an error and two bases-loaded walks but the rally falls short as Twins closer Joe Nathan enters the game and strikes out his only two batters faced in Jack Hannahan and Rajai Davis to end the game.

June 10

A's 3 vs. Minnesota 6
(26-32, 4th, -7.0)

Dallas Braden makes the start and works seven solid innings, allowing two earned runs on six hits and two walks while striking out four but ends up with a no decision. The A's get their first run in the third inning on a ground ball double play that plates Rajai Davis then adds two more in the next inning on a RBI double by Kurt Suzuki and a RBI single from Davis. Michael Wuerz relieves Braden and allows a solo home run to the first batter he faces to tie the game in the eighth inning before handing the ball to Craig Breslow with one out. The blown save for Wuerz is his first of the year. Breslow finishes the inning before Andrew Bailey gets the ball for the ninth with the game tied at 3-3 and allows three runs to score that would leave him with the first loss of his career.

June 11

A's 4 vs. Minnesota 3
(27-32, 4th, -7.0)

Trevor Cahill makes a quality start, allowing three runs on seven hits and two walks but receives a no decision. The A's come up with four runs in the eighth and ninth innings to beat the Twins 4-3. Orlando Cabrera singles home Jack Hannahan who had just tripled in the eighth inning for the A's first run and is followed by a two-run shot from Adam Kennedy to tie the game, his fifth homer of the year. The A's then manage to get runners at second and third in the bottom of the ninth with one out which would be all Rajai Davis needed to end the game as he brings home Chris Denorfia with a walk-off base hit. Brad Ziegler worked the final two innings of the game, keeping the Twins scoreless and picking up his first win of the season.

June 12

A's 0 @ San Francisco 3
(27-33, 4th, -8.0)

Vin Mazzaro makes his third big league start and runs his career-opening scoreless streak to 17.2 innings before the Giants come alive with three runs in the fifth to take game one of the Bay Bridge Series. The A's couldn't muster up any offense against reigning Cy Young winner Tim Lincecum who throws a complete game shutout. Mazzaro works six innings on the day, allowing the three runs on six hits and one walk while striking out four for his first big league loss. Santiago Casilla and Edgar Gonzalez each toss a scoreless inning in relief to finish the game for the A's bullpen. Matt Holliday finishes 2 for 3 as the A's leave a total of seven men on base in the shutout.

June 13

A's 2 @ San Francisco 5
(27-34, 4th, -8.0)

The A's have a tough time getting to Giants starter Randy Johnson as they drop their second straight to their Bay Area rivals with their fourth loss in the last five games. Josh Outman makes the start and works six innings, allowing four runs on five hits and a homer while striking out four for his first loss of the year. Outman was solid through six innings, allowing just two runs, but ran into trouble in the seventh by allowing a double and a single to the first two batters he faces in the frame, handing the ball to Michael Wuerz with runners at second and third and no outs. Wuerz would allow both inherited runners to score before relinquishing to Breslow with two outs, who also allows his inherited runner to score before ending the inning. Russ Springer tosses a scoreless eighth. Oakland gets their first run in the third on an Adam Kennedy RBI single and their next run in the fourth on a solo shot from Kurt Suzuki, his third of the year.

June 14

A's 1 @ San Francisco 7
(27-35, 4th, -8.0)

The A's get to Matt Cain and the Giants early with a solo shot from Jack Cust in the first, his 11th of the year, but that would be all the offense for Oakland as Cain tosses the second complete game for San Francisco in the three-game set. Lefty Brett Anderson makes the start for Oakland and allows six runs on eight hits, two homers and a walk while striking out six for his seventh loss of the season. Edgar Gonzalez works three innings in long relief of Anderson, allowing an earned run of his own. Andrew Bailey works a scoreless eighth inning for the A's pen. Cust finishes with half of the A's four hits, going 2 for 4 on the day.

June 15

OFF DAY
(27-35, 4th, -8.0)

June 16

A's 4 @ Los Angeles-NL 5 (10)
(27-36, 4th, -9.0)

Dallas Braden makes an impressive start, retiring the first 14 batters he faces in the game. But he allows two runs to the Dodgers in his final inning of work in the sixth and receives no run support for a no decision. The A's don't score until the eighth inning when they unleash all their offense for four runs to take a 4-2 lead. Jason Giambi initiates the scoring off with a three-run homer in the inning, his ninth of the year, and Bobby Crosby follows later with a solo shot of his own, his third of the season. The A's pen can't hold the lead as Michael Wuerz, who works a scoreless seventh, allows one run to the Dodgers in the eighth before handing the ball to Breslow, who walks his only batter faced. Andrew Bailey comes in for Breslow and loads the bases with the first batter he faces, then allows Los Angeles to tie game and send it to extra innings. Brad Ziegler allows a walk-off base hit to Matt Kemp in the 10th for his second loss of the year.

June 17

A's 5 @ Los Angeles-NL 4
(28-36, 4th, -9.0)

The A's snap their four-game losing streak, backed by a solid effort from rookie Trevor Cahill, who goes five and a third innings allowing two runs, both unearned, on four hits and four walks while striking out three for his fourth win. Matt Holliday's RBI groundout and homers by Rajai Davis and Jack Cust give the A's a 4-0 lead. Orlando Cabrera tops it off with a RBI single in the sixth which would be all the A's would need for the win. Russ Springer (0.2 ip), Craig Breslow (0.1 ip), Brad Ziegler (1.2 ip) and Andrew Bailey (1.0 ip) secure the win for the A's, with Bailey picking up his sixth save.

June 18

A's 2 @ Los Angeles-NL 3
(28-37, 4th, -9.0)

Vin Mazzaro settles for a no decision, working six innings and allowing two runs on five hits and one walk while striking out five. Kurt Suzuki gets the A's on the board with a RBI double in the third inning and Rajai Davis goes from first base to home on a single from Nomar Garciaparra in the seventh for the only other Oakland run. Brad Ziegler relieves Mazzaro and allows a run over his 0.2 innings of work for his third loss of the year. Craig Breslow (1.0 ip) and Russ Springer (0.1 ip) shut down the Dodgers the rest of the way.

June 19

A's 7 @ San Diego 5
(29-37, 4th, -8.0)

Josh Outman makes the start but leaves the game in the second inning with an arm injury after allowing one run on a solo homer over an inning and two-thirds of work. Edgar Gonzalez replaces Outman and works long relief, allowing four runs on six hits and four walks over three and a third innings pitched. The A's get enjoy a three-run fourth starting with a bases-loaded hit by pitch by Jason Giambi and followed by a pair of sac flies. Oakland gets their next runs in the eighth with another three-run frame on a Giambi RBI single and a two-run double from Orlando Cabrera. Kurt Suzuki adds an insurance run in the ninth with a RBI single. Russ Springer (1.0 ip), Michael Wuertz (1.0 ip), Craig Breslow (0.2 ip) and Andrew Bailey (1.1 ip) shut down the Padres the rest of the way, with Wuertz picking up his third win of the year and Bailey his seventh save.

June 20

A's 6 @ San Diego 3
(30-37, 4th, -7.0)

Adam Kennedy matches a career-high with four hits as the A's are victors over the Padres in the second straight game of the three-game set. Brett Anderson makes the start and allows three runs on five hits and a walk while striking out three for the no-decision. Michael Wuertz works two solid innings in relief, striking out four for his fourth win of the year. Brad Ziegler (1.0 ip) and Andrew Bailey (1.0 ip) shut down the Padres the rest of the way with Bailey earning his eighth save. Oakland gets runs in the first, second, sixth and seventh before Kennedy and Cust go back-to-back with solo homers in the eighth to top off the scoring for the A's, Kennedy's sixth of the year and Cust's 13th.

June 21

A's 1 @ San Diego 4
(30-38, 4th, -7.0)

Dallas Braden makes a good start but is left with his sixth loss of the year after getting only one run of support. Braden works seven innings, allowing two runs on six this, a homer and a walk while striking out six. The A's lone run comes in the seventh inning on a RBI double from Ryan Sweeney. Oakland manages just two hits in the game. Craig Breslow works two-thirds of an inning, allowing a run of his own and Russ Springer also allows a run over his third of an inning.

June 22

A's 5 vs. San Francisco 1
(31-38, 4th, -6.5)

Rookie Trevor Cahill makes another impressive start, working seven innings and allowing one run on a solo shot while striking out four for his fifth win. The A's open their scoring with a RBI double from Orlando Cabrera in the fourth followed later in the frame by a RBI groundout from Ryan Sweeney to give Oakland a 2-1 lead. Bobby Crosby lines a two-run double in the sixth and tops it off later in the eighth inning with a RBI-ground out to plate Rajai Davis. Brad Ziegler relieves Cahill and works two scoreless innings for his sixth save.

June 23

A's 1 vs. San Francisco 4
(31-39, 4th, -6.5)

Oakland has multiple chances to score but couldn't overcome Giants starter Tim Lincecum, who throws his second straight complete game against the A's. Vin Mazzaro makes the start for the A's and works six innings, allowing four runs early on seven hits and two walks while striking out six for his second loss. The A's lone run comes in the second inning on a solo shot from Jason Giambi, his 10th of the year. Edgar Gonzalez (2.0 ip) and Santiago Casilla (1.0 ip) work scoreless innings in relief of Mazzaro. The A's tally a total of seven hits but leave six men on base in the game.

June 24

A's 3 vs. San Francisco 6
(31-40, 4th, -7.5)

Lefty Gio Gonzalez is called up to make the start and works just three and two-thirds innings, allowing six runs, four earned, on 10 hits and two walks while striking out six as he's tagged with his first loss of the year. Oakland gets on the board early with a RBI single from Kurt Suzuki in the first but don't score again until the eighth when Suzuki hits his fourth homer of the year, a solo shot. Nomar Garciaparra adds the A's final run in the ninth with a RBI double. Edgar Gonzalez (1.1 ip), Russ Springer (1.0 ip), Michael Wuertz (1.0 ip) and Santiago Casilla (2.0 ip) work scoreless relief for the A's bullpen. Oakland musters eight hits in the game but leaves a total of seven men on base, as they drop the rubber match of the three-game set against their Bay Bridge rivals.

June 25
OFF DAY
(31-40, 4th, -8.0)

June 26
A's 2 vs. Colorado 4
(31-41, 4th, -9.0)

The A's make two costly errors that lead to two unearned runs for starter Dallas Braden, who works five and a third innings, allowing four runs, two earned, on five hits and two walks while striking out two for his seventh loss of the season. Oakland gives Braden zero run support as they don't score until the seventh when Kurt Suzuki hits his fifth homer of the year, a solo shot. Jason Giambi walks with the bases loaded in the next inning for the only other A's run as Suzuki pops out with the bases loaded to end the threat in the eighth. Brad Ziegler (0.2 ip), Craig Breslow (1.0 ip), Santiago Casilla (1.0 ip) and Andrew Bailey (1.0 ip) shutdown the Rockies the rest of the way.

June 27
A's 9 vs. Colorado 11
(31-42, 4th, -9.5)

Trevor Cahill makes the start but lasts only three and two-thirds innings, allowing seven runs on eight hits and four home runs for his sixth loss of the year. Edgar Gonzalez relieves Cahill and does no better, allowing four runs of his own on five hits and two walks over two innings of work. The A's score in the second with a two-run single from Kurt Suzuki but don't score again until the seventh when Adam Kennedy hits a RBI single. Jack Cust and Bobby Crosby deliver back-to-back RBI hits in the eighth to gain on the Rockies 11-5 lead. Oakland mounts a rally in the ninth, scoring four runs and bringing the tying run to the plate in Rajai Davis with two outs but Davis strikes out swinging to end the game. Craig Breslow (1.1 ip), Russ Springer (1.0 ip) and Michael Wuerztz (1.0 ip) work scoreless relief for the A's pen.

June 28
A's 1 vs. Colorado 3
(31-43, 4th, -10.5)

The A's collect 11 hits but manage just one run as they are swept in the three-game series by Colorado. Rookie Vin Mazzaro makes the start and works five innings, allowing three runs on five hits and four walks while striking out eight for his third loss. The A's lone run comes in the ninth inning on a RBI single by Ryan Sweeney that plates Kurt Suzuki. Sweeney finishes 3 for 4 in the game as the A's leave a total of nine men on base. Mark Ellis doubles in his first game back from the 60-day DL. Craig Breslow, Santiago Casilla, Brad Ziegler and Andrew Bailey each work a scoreless inning of relief for the A's pen.

June 29
A's 7 vs. Detroit 1
(32-43, 4th, -10.5)

Oakland snaps their five-game losing streak backed by a strong effort from the offense and rookie Brett Anderson, who works five and a third innings allowing one run on four hits and four walks while striking out seven for his fourth win of the year. The A's tally their first two runs in the fourth on a RBI double from Kurt Suzuki and a RBI single from Ryan Sweeney. Mark Ellis follows suit with a two-run homer in the next inning, his first of the year. Sweeney hits a homer of his own in the sixth, a solo shot, and his third of the year, and the A's get one more in the seventh on an error that plates Matt Holliday. Sweeney finishes 3 for 4 in the game. Michael Wuerztz (1.2 ip), Brad Ziegler (1.0 ip) and Russ Springer (1.0 ip) work scoreless relief for the A's bullpen.

June 30
A's 3 vs. Detroit 5
(32-44, 4th, -10.5)

Gio Gonzalez makes the start and struggles early in the game but settles down to allow three runs on seven hits and two walks while striking out five over five innings of work en route his second loss. Oakland gets on the scoreboard in the fourth on a RBI single from Jack Cust but doesn't score again until the ninth when Mark Ellis hits a two-run homer, his second of the year and his second in the last two days, that caps off the scoring for the A's. Santiago Casilla works two innings in relief of Gonzalez and allows a run to score. Russ Springer works a scoreless eighth inning before Edgar Gonzalez gets the ball in the ninth and allows a run in his inning of work.

July 1
A's 5 vs. Detroit 1
(33-44, 4th, -9.5)

Dallas Braden makes the start and leads the A's to a victory in the rubber match of the three-game set. Braden logs seven innings and allows one run on five hits and a walk while striking out three for his sixth win of the year. Jack Cust opens Oakland's scoring with a two-run shot in the fourth, his 14th of the year. Jason Giambi follows later in the sixth with a two-run shot of his own, his 11th of the year. Kurt Suzuki belts a RBI double in the eighth to cap off the scoring for Oakland at five runs. Brad Ziegler and Andrew Bailey each toss a scoreless inning in relief to stymie the Tigers the rest of the way.

July 2
OFF DAY
(33-44, 4th, -10.0)

July 3
A's 3 @ Cleveland 15
(33-45, 4th, -10.0)

Trevor Cahill makes the start and lasts only three and two-thirds frames, allowing eight runs, five earned, on six hits, a homer and four walks while striking out two for his seventh loss. The A's score first on a RBI groundout by Matt Holliday and Nomar Garciaparra follows with a RBI double in the second that, at the time, gives the A's a 2-1 lead. Jack Cust singles in the final A's run of the day in the fourth. Bobby Crosby makes two errors in the game. Oakland manages 11 total hits but leaves nine men on base. Santiago Casilla allows three runs over a third of an inning before Craig Breslow allows two over an inning of work. Russ Springer and Michael Wuerztz each allow a run in an inning each before Edgar Gonzalez works the only scoreless inning for the A's pen to finish the game.

July 4
A's 2 @ Cleveland 5
(33-46, 4th, -11.0)

Vin Mazzaro makes the start and allows five runs on 10 hits, two home runs and a walk for his fourth loss. Matt Holliday gets the A's on the board early with a sac fly in the first and Orlando Cabrera caps off the scoring for Oakland in the seventh with a RBI single. Craig Breslow (1.2 ip) and Brad Ziegler (0.1 ip) shutdown the Indians the rest of the way for the A's bullpen. Oakland leaves nine men on base as they collect eight hits total, three of which that come from Cabrera.

July 5

A's 5 @ Cleveland 2
(34-46, 4th, -11.0)

Gio Gonzalez went six strong innings, allowing two runs on six hits, a home run and a walk while striking out eight for his first win of the year. Michael Wuertz (1.2 ip) and Andrew Bailey (1.1 ip) each do their part for the A's pen to secure the win for Gio, with Bailey securing his ninth save of the year. Kurt Suzuki gives Oakland a run with a RBI single in the first. Matt Holliday follows with a RBI single of his own in the fifth and Adam Kennedy brings in the game winning run on a sacrifice fly in the sixth. The A's add two more in the eighth and ninth to cap off the scoring as they take game three to avoid the three-game sweep.

July 6

A's 6 @ Boston 0
(35-46, 4th, -11.0)

Rookie Brett Anderson tosses the A's first complete game in 363 days as he shuts out the Red Sox at Boston on a two-hitter. Nomar Garciaparra makes a memorable return to Fenway Park with a warm standing ovation. Garciaparra drives in the first run of the game on a RBI single in the fourth inning before Mark Ellis drives in two on a double and Adam Kennedy one on a RBI single in the inning. Oakland puts up two more runs to cap off the scoring at six as they tally 15 hits total. Anderson allows just the two hits and two walks while striking out nine in the longest outing of his short career.

July 7

A's 2 @ Boston 5
(35-47, 4th, -11.0)

The day after Brett Anderson tosses a complete game, A's starter Dana Eveland lasts just two and two thirds inning, allowing four runs on six hits and three walks while striking out two in absorbing his third loss of the year. Edgar Gonzalez relieves Eveland and allows a run of his own over his two and two-thirds innings before Russ Springer (0.1 ip), Craig Breslow (1.0 ip) and Brad Ziegler (1.0) blank the Red Sox the rest of the way for the A's pen. Newly acquired Scott Hairston tallies the first run of the game with a solo shot for the A's in the first inning, his 11th of the year. Adam Kennedy drives in the only other A's run in the fifth on a RBI double. Oakland collects seven hits total and leaves six men on base in the game.

July 8

A's 4 @ Boston 5
(35-48, 4th, -12.0)

Trevor Cahill takes a one-hitter into the sixth inning but ends up allowing four runs in the sixth on two home runs for his eighth loss. Jack Cust has a RBI single in the second for the first run of the game. Kurt Suzuki drives in the next two for the A's on a two-run single to bring the A's within one. Scott Hairston drives in the final run for Oakland in the ninth on a sac fly, as the A's get a runner in scoring position in the inning but Cust strikes out swinging to end the game. Craig Breslow relieves Cahill in the sixth and allows two hits to his only two batters faced before handing the ball to Michael Wuertz without recording an out. Wuertz ends up allowing a run of his own over his inning and a third of work before Brad Ziegler (1.1 ip) shuts down Boston the rest of the way.

July 9

OFF DAY
(35-48, 4th, -11.5)

July 10

A's 0 @ Tampa Bay 5
(35-49, 4th, -12.5)

Oakland collects seven hits but leaves nine men on base. They can't manage a run again Tampa Bay starter Jeff Niemann who tosses a complete game shutout. Vin Mazzaro makes the start for the A's and works five innings, allowing two runs on seven hits and two walks while striking out two as he's tagged with his fifth loss. Craig Breslow relieves Mazzaro to start the sixth and records two outs before handing the ball to Santiago Casilla who finishes the inning, with both allowing a run. Gio Gonzalez also allows a run over his inning of work before Jeff Gray works a scoreless inning in the eighth to finish the game for the A's pen.

July 11

A's 7 @ Tampa Bay 2
(36-49, 4th, -12.0)

Dallas Braden, thanks to a late A's rally, earns his seventh win of the season. Braden works six innings and allows two runs on five hits and two walks while striking out six. The A's are held scoreless until the seventh inning when they muster up four runs in the frame on two-run homers by Rajai Davis (2) and Adam Kennedy (7). Oakland gets three more in the eighth to pad their lead. Michael Wuertz (1.0 ip), Brad Ziegler (1.0 ip) and Andrew Bailey (1.0 ip) each work scoreless relief to secure the win.

July 12

A's 7 @ Tampa Bay 3
(37-49, 4th, -12.0)

Brett Anderson makes the start but is limited to just four innings, leaving the game early with lower back stiffness. The A's rally late again to take the rubber match of the three-game set at Tampa Bay. Anderson does not allow a run on three hits and a walk while striking out three. Brad Ziegler relieves Anderson and works an inning and two-thirds allowing two earned runs. Michael Wuertz then enters and works an inning and a third, allowing an earned run en route to his fifth win of the year. The A's score four runs in the seventh to take a 4-3 lead. Oakland then puts up three more over the eighth and ninth innings to pad their lead. Craig Breslow relieves Wuertz but doesn't record an out before handing the ball to Andrew Bailey, who works two scoreless innings for his 10th save. Kurt Suzuki finishes the game 3 for 4 with two RBI and two runs scored.

July 13-15

ALL-STAR BREAK
(37-49, 4th, -12.0)

July 16

A's 2 vs. Los Angeles 6
(37-50, 4th, -13.0)

Dallas Braden makes the start and works five innings, allowing six runs on 10 hits and a walk while striking out two for his eighth loss of the year. Oakland gets their first run in the seventh on a solo shot by Matt Holliday, his ninth homer of the year. Holliday then adds the only other A's run in the ninth on a sac fly that plates Adam Kennedy. Edgar Gonzalez (2.0 ip), Russ Springer (1.0 ip) and Santiago Casilla (1.0 ip) each provide scoreless relief for the A's bullpen. The A's ground into two double plays as they leave four men on base in the game.

July 17

A's 7 vs. Los Angeles 3
(38-50, 4th, -12.0)

Trevor Cahill makes the start and works four and two-thirds innings, allowing three runs on six hits and four walks for the no-decision. Bobby Crosby gets Oakland on the board in the fourth with a three-run home run, his fourth of the year. The A's get a run in the sixth and seventh before capping it off with two in the eighth inning. Brad Ziegler (1.0 ip), Craig Breslow (0.2 ip), Michael Wuertz (1.2 ip) and Andrew Bailey (1.0 ip) each work scoreless relief out of the pen with Breslow picking up his second win of the year. Orlando Cabrera finishes the game 3 for 4 with two RBI, a stolen base and a run scored.

July 18

A's 6 vs. Los Angeles 11
(38-51, 4th, -13.0)

Vin Mazzaro makes the start and works just three innings, allowing eight runs, four earned, on 10 hits and two walks while striking out three to get tagged with his sixth loss. The four unearned runs come as the result of four errors in the game by the Athletics. Edgar Gonzalez works long relief, tossing three and a third innings and allowing two runs on a hit and three walks before Russ Springer gets the ball and allows an earned run himself over two-thirds of an inning pitched. Craig Breslow and Santiago Casilla each toss a scoreless inning of relief for the A's pen. Oakland does most of their scoring in the fourth with four runs but finishes the game with six on 11 hits, leaving a total of 10 men on base. Matt Holliday and Jack Cust each finish with two hits and two RBI to power the A's offense. Holliday also swipes two bases, bringing his season total to 12.

July 19

A's 0 vs. Los Angeles 1 (10)
(38-52, 4th, -14.0)

Brett Anderson registers a tremendous start, tossing eight shutout innings and allowing just two hits while striking out six. But he ends up with a no-decision as the A's eventually lose in extra innings to the Angels. Andrew Bailey relieves Anderson and works a scoreless ninth inning before allowing the only run of the game to score in the top of the 10th inning that would leave him with his second loss. The A's collect a total of four hits but leave five men on base as they're blanked to complete a four-game series sweep by their Western rivals.

July 20

A's 14 vs. Minnesota 13
(39-52, 4th, -13.5)

The A's rally from a 12-2 deficit to mount the largest comeback in Oakland history. Gio Gonzalez makes the start and is roughed up for 11 runs on 10 hits, four homers and three walks over two and two-thirds innings. Santiago Casilla relieves Gio and allows two runs himself, one earned, over an inning and two-thirds before Russ Springer (1.2 ip), Craig Breslow (1.0 ip), Brad Ziegler (1.0 ip) and Michael Wuertz (1.0 ip) silence the Twins the rest of the way to secure the historic comeback. Breslow picks up his third win and Wuertz his third save. Oakland gets on the board in the first with two runs but fall behind 12-2 early. The comeback starts in the third when the A's score three on a Jack Cust RBI single and a two-run homer from Daric Barton, his first of the year. Matt Holliday then adds two more in the fourth with a two-run shot, his 10th of the year. Holliday launches a grand slam in the seventh inning to tie the game and Jack Cust immediately follows with a solo shot, his 16th of the year, to give the A's the lead. Oakland collects 22 hits in the game as Holliday finishes 4 for 5 with six RBI and four runs scored.

July 21

A's 2 vs. Minnesota 3
(39-53, 4th, -15.0)

Dallas Braden labors seven innings for a no-decision, allowing two runs on five hits and four walks while striking out three. Michael Wuertz works a scoreless inning in relief of Braden and Andrew Bailey works a scoreless ninth before allowing a run to score in the 10th that leaves him with his third loss of the year. The A's score both of their runs in the third inning on a RBI groundout from Adam Kennedy and a RBI single by Orlando Cabrera. Ryan Sweeney collects half of the A's four hits on the day, going 2 for 4 with a run scored.

July 22

A's 16 vs. Minnesota 1
(40-53, 4th, -15.0 ip)

The A's explode for 16 runs on 18 hits to back rookie Trevor Cahill, who earns his sixth win after working seven innings and allowing one run on six hits and two walks while striking out four. (47-61, 4th, -18.0)

Trevor Cahill suffers his 11th loss, working six innings, allowing five runs on eight hits, two homer runs and two walks while striking out six. Oakland scores two runs in the first inning on a RBI double by Nomar Garciaparra who later scores on a throwing error. Rajai Davis laces a RBI double of his own in the sixth and Scott Hairston tops off the scoring for Oakland with a RBI double in the ninth inning. Russ Springer works a scoreless inning in relief of Cahill and allows a run to score. Santiago Casilla and Jeff Gray each work scoreless innings of relief to muzzle the Rangers the rest of the way as the A's fail to complete the four-game sweep.

August 7

A's 9 @ Kansas City 4
(48-61, 4th, -17.0)

Vin Mazzaro makes a solid start and earns his third win of the year after working five innings and allowing three runs on eight hits and four walks while striking out one. Santiago Casilla works an inning in relief of Mazzaro allowing a run of his own over that span. Craig Breslow (1.0 ip), Michael Wuertz (1.0 ip) and Jeff Gray (1.0 ip) shut down the Royals the rest of the way. Oakland gets a run in the second and third innings before exploding in the fourth with a five-run bonanza highlighted by a two-run double from Cliff Pennington and a two-run single from Scott Hairston. The A's get another run in the eighth and ninth to pad their lead. Pennington finishes the game 3 for 4 with two RBI and two runs scored.

August 8

A's 6 @ Kansas City 12
(48-62, 4th, -18.0)

Clayton Mortensen, acquired in the Matt Holliday trade, is called up to make the start and allows eight runs on four hits and three walks while striking out five for his first loss. Edgar Gonzalez works long relief and allows four runs over three and two-thirds innings. Brad Ziegler records the final out of the eighth inning. Oakland scores in the second on Mark Ellis' two-run single before Adam Kennedy drives in another on a groundout in the same inning. Tommy Everidge leads off the ninth with a solo home run, the first homer of his career. Ellis follows with a solo shot of his own, his fifth of the year. The A's finish with three runs in the inning but Aaron Cunningham strikes out to end the game.

August 9

A's 6 @ Kansas City 3
(49-62, 4th, -17.0)

Brett Anderson is credited with his sixth win, working six innings, allowing three runs on six hits and a walk while striking out five. Ryan Sweeney drills a three-run homer in the second, his fifth of the year, and is followed immediately after by a solo shot from Bobby Crosby, also his fifth. The four runs would be all Anderson and the bullpen would need. Kurt Suzuki tacks on another run in the eighth with a solo shot of his own, his ninth of the season, before Crosby hits his second homer of the day in the ninth, a solo shot to lead off the frame. Michael Wuerzt, Brad Ziegler and Andrew Bailey each toss a scoreless inning in relief to secure the win with Bailey earning the 16th save of his rookie season.

August 10

A's 9 @ Baltimore 1
(50-62, 4th, -17.0)

Mark Ellis has a career day going 5 for 5 with four RBI as the A's total 16 hits for a 9-1 win over the Orioles to open a three-game series. Gio Gonzalez makes the start and holds Baltimore scoreless through six innings, allowing seven hits and one walk while striking out five for his fourth win. The A's get their first runs in the second inning on RBI singles by Ellis and Cliff Pennington. Oakland gets three more in the fifth on a RBI-hit from Kurt Suzuki and a two-run single from Ellis. Oakland caps off the scoring in the ninth inning with a four-run frame highlighted by back-to-back RBI doubles by Ryan Sweeney and Ellis. Craig Breslow (2.0 ip) and Jeff Gray (1.0 ip) shut down the Orioles the rest of the way to secure the victory.

August 11

A's 2 @ Baltimore 3
(50-63, 4th, -18.0)

Righty Trevor Cahill makes the start and works seven innings, allowing three runs on eight hits and four strikeouts. However, he ends up on the short end of the stick as the A's give him only two runs of support, pinning the rookie with his 12th loss. Jay Marshall works a scoreless eighth inning in relief of Cahill for the A's bullpen. Oakland gets a run in the fourth on a solo shot from Scott Hairston, his 14th of the year, but manage their only other run in the next inning on a solo shot from Adam Kennedy, his 10th of the year. The A's tally seven hits but also leave a total of seven men on base as they fall in the second game of the series at Baltimore.

August 12

A's 6 @ Baltimore 3
(51-63, 4th, -18.0)

Vin Mazzaro makes the start and allows three runs, two earned, over five and a third innings of work on eight hits and a walk that earns him his fourth win. Oakland scores first on a sac fly by Mark Ellis in the fourth inning. Landon Powell also hits a two-run homer, his third of the year, and Adam Kennedy hits another sac fly in the frame. The four runs would be all the A's bullpen would need to secure Mazzaro's win. Craig Breslow (1.2 ip), Michael Wuerzt (1.0 ip) and Andrew Bailey (1.0 ip) stifle the Orioles the rest of the way with Bailey earning his 17th save. The A's tally 13 hits total as Scott Hairston and Cliff Pennington each record three hits on the day to help Oakland beat Baltimore in the rubber match of the three-game series.

August 13

OFF DAY
(51-63, 4th, -18.0)

August 14

A's 7 vs. Chicago 8 (10)
(51-64, 4th, -18.0)

The A's fall behind quickly but rebound to take the lead by the fifth inning. However, the White Sox come out on top in the 10th inning. Brett Anderson makes the start and is roughed for seven runs on nine hits and three walks while striking out five. Jay Marshall relieves Anderson in the sixth and records the first out of the inning before handing the ball to Brad Ziegler, who allows his inherited runner to score which ties the game at 7-7. Michael Wuerzt and Andrew Bailey each work a scoreless inning of relief before Craig Breslow gets the ball for the 10th and allows a run to score on a home run to the first batter he faces – Alexei Ramirez – that leaves him with his sixth loss. Oakland plates five runs in the fourth on a Scott Hairston solo shot, his 15th of the year, and a bases-clearing double from Mark Ellis. The A's get two more in the fifth to take the lead on a Hairston RBI single that ties the game and a RBI double from Ryan Sweeney that gives Oakland a 7-6 edge.

August 15

A's 1 vs. Chicago 8
(51-65, 4th, -19.0)

Adam Kennedy collects five hits for the second time this year, finishing 5 for 5, as the A's tally 11 hits. But Oakland leaves 10 men on base and fall to the White Sox 1-8. Gio Gonzalez makes the start and works five innings allowing six runs, five earned, on six hits and six walks while striking out two en route to his third loss of the year. Santiago Casilla relieves Gio and allows a run of his own over his inning of work. Jay Marshall and Jeff Gray each toss a scoreless frame before Edgar Gonzalez gets the ball in the ninth and also allows a run over his inning of work. The A's lone run comes in the fourth inning when Mark Ellis doubles home Ryan Sweeney. Oakland grounds into two double plays in the game.

August 16

A's 3 vs. Chicago 2
(52-65, 4th, -19.0)

The A's come from behind to win in walk-off fashion, courtesy of a Mark Ellis game-deciding home run in the ninth inning, his sixth homer of the year. Trevor Cahill earns a no decision, logging six innings and allowing two runs on six hits and two walks while striking out two. The A's don't start their scoring until the seventh when Ellis hits a sac fly to put Oakland on the board. Scott Hairston doubles in another run in the eighth that ties the game before Ellis sends a 0-1 fastball flying to end the game. Jay Marshall, Michael Wuerzt and Andrew Bailey each toss a scoreless inning of relief to handle the White Sox the rest of the way with Bailey earning his fifth win of the year.

August 17

A's 3 vs. New York 0

(53-65, 4th, -19.0)

Brett Tomko is called up to make his first start for Oakland and is solid through five innings, holding the Yankees scoreless as he and the A's pen combine for the shutout against New York. Tomko allows fives and a walk over his five innings to earn his second win of the year. Craig Breslow (2.0 ip), Brad Ziegler (1.0 ip) and Andrew Bailey (1.0 ip) each assist in completing the shutout with Bailey notching his 18th save. The A's do all their scoring in the fourth inning with a three-run uprising on a RBI single by Kurt Suzuki, who later would score on a balk himself, and a RBI double from Mark Ellis to cap it off.

August 18

A's 2 vs. New York 7

(53-66, 4th, -20.0)

The A's make three costly errors that lead to a loss against the Yankees. Vin Mazzaro makes the start, posting five innings and allowing two runs, one earned, on seven hits and three walks while striking out two for a no-decision. Jay Marshall relieves Mazzaro to start the sixth but allows two runs to score while only recording one out to give New York a 4-2 lead. In relief of Marshall, Santiago Casilla allows both of his inherited runners – along with one of his own – as the Yankees take a five-run lead. Marshall is tagged with his first loss of the season. Jeff Gray works the final two innings for the A's pen, holding New York scoreless. The A's get on the board first with a solo homer from Kurt Suzuki, his 10th of the year, and tack on their next and final run of the game in the second on a solo shot from rookie Tommy Everidge, his second of the year. The A's tally five hits total in the game but leave six men on base.

August 19

A's 2 vs. New York 3

(53-67, 4th, -21.0)

Brett Anderson makes another good start through seven innings allowing three runs on six hits and a walk while striking out six. But the rookie suffers his ninth loss when the A's offense is limited to two runs. Jack Cust gets Oakland on the board in the sixth with a solo home run, his 17th of the year, and Mark Ellis singles in another in the seventh. Michael Wuerzt and Craig Breslow each toss a scoreless inning of relief, but the A's drop the rubber match of their three-game set against the Yankees.

August 20

OFF DAY

(53-67, 4th, -20.5)

August 21

A's 2 vs. Detroit 3

(53-68, 4th, -20.5)

Gio Gonzalez is charged with his fourth loss despite working five and two-thirds innings and allowing three runs on four hits, two homers, and four walks while striking out nine. Oakland scores its first run in the second on a RBI single by Jack Cust and get their next and final run in the seventh on a RBI double from Rajai Davis that plates Cust. Cust finishes 3 for 4 in the game, as Oakland collects eight hits but strands eight men on base. Brad Ziegler (2.0 ip), Jay Marshall (0.1 ip) and Michael Wuerzt (1.0 ip) throw zeroes against the Tigers the rest of the way.

August 22

A's 3 vs. Detroit 2

(54-68, 4th, -20.5)

The A's win in walk-off fashion as Kurt Suzuki delivers his sixth career game-ending hit in the bottom of the ninth, a single that drives home Adam Kennedy to propel Oakland to a 3-2 win over the Tigers. Trevor Cahill makes a solid start, working seven innings and allowing two runs on five hits and three walks while striking out four for the no-decision. Craig Breslow tosses a scoreless eighth before Andrew Bailey works a scoreless ninth that earns him his sixth win of the year, thanks to the heroics of Suzuki in the bottom half of the frame. The A's get their first two runs in the second inning on a sac fly from Daric Barton and a RBI single from Cliff Pennington. Adam Kennedy finishes the game 3 for 5 with the game-winning run scored, as Oakland collects 11 hits against Tigers pitching on the day to even the series at a game apiece.

August 23

A's 9 vs. Detroit 4

(55-68, 4th, -19.5)

Brett Tomko twirls six masterful innings allowing one run on three hits and two walks while striking out eight for his third win of the year. In winning the series, the erupt for a four-run third inning highlighted by a three-run homer by Jack Cust, his 18th of the year, and a RBI single courtesy of Rajai Davis. Oakland adds another run in the sixth on Cust's second homer of the game, a solo shot this time, that would serve as the game-winning run. Just for insurance, Landon Powell hits a three-run homer in the eighth inning, his fourth of the year, and Cliff Pennington tacks on one more with a solo shot, his second of the season. Brad Ziegler relieves Cahill and allows a run in the seventh while only recording two outs in the inning. Craig Breslow gets the ball but records no outs before handing it over to Michael Wuerzt, who escapes the frame. Wuerzt then allows two runs over his inning of work in the eighth. Jeff Gray shuts down the Tigers in the ninth to secure the win.

August 24

A's 1 @ Seattle 3

(55-69, 4th, -19.5)

The A's fail to give rookie Vin Mazzaro any runs of support as they score just one run in the sixth inning on a RBI single by Kurt Suzuki. Oakland does not come through with a hit until Daric Barton singles in the fifth inning. Mazzaro works five innings, allowing three runs on five hits, two homers, and four walks while striking out four to leave him with his ninth loss. Jeff Gray (1.2 ip) and Jay Marshall (1.1 ip) work scoreless relief for the A's pen. Oakland tallies five hits but leaves six men on base.

August 25

A's 2 @ Seattle 4 (10)

(55-70, 4th, -19.5)

Brett Anderson makes the start and tosses seven sharp innings, allowing just one run on six hits and a walk while striking out eight but earns a no decision. The one run Anderson allows is on a solo homer. The A's get on the board early on a RBI single from Scott Hairston in the first inning but wouldn't get another until the seventh, when Adam Kennedy singles in the go-ahead run. Michael Wuertz gets the ball for the eighth and allows one unearned run to score due to a costly error by Kennedy that ties the game and sends it to extra innings. Craig Breslow works a scoreless ninth inning before allowing a walk-off two-run homer to Ryan Langerhans that sends the A's to their second straight loss. Oakland tallies 10 hits total in the game but leaves eight men on base.

August 26

A's 3 @ Seattle 5
(55-71, 4th, -20.5)

Oakland couldn't muster enough runs for the third straight game as the Mariners sweep the A's in the three-game set. Gio Gonzalez makes the start and allows four runs over five innings on seven hits and three walks while also striking out seven. Gio is tagged with his fifth loss of the year. Jeff Gray works two innings in relief, allowing a run of his own before Andrew Bailey tosses a scoreless frame to finish the game for the A's bullpen. The A's score their first run in the fourth on a solo homer from Jack Cust, his 20th of the year, and get their only other two runs in the sixth on a two-run shot from Kurt Suzuki, his 11th of the year. The A's collect nine hits but leave seven men on base.

A's 8 vs. Kansas City 5
(58-73, 4th, -20.5)

Gio Gonzalez makes the start and is roughed up for five runs on six hits and four walks while striking out eight over five and a third innings pitched. The A's survive, however, and come away with an 8-5 victory over the Royals. Oakland tallies five runs in the third inning, highlighted by a two-run triple by Ryan Sweeney. The A's then get three runs in the sixth to give them the 8-5 lead backed by a RBI single from Rajai Davis, who drives in the eighth and final run for the A's. Kansas City makes two errors, including one in the sixth that allows two runs to score. Craig Breslow (0.1 ip), Michael Wuertz (1.0 ip), Brad Ziegler (1.0 ip) and Andrew Bailey (1.0 ip) each do their part to hold the Royals scoreless the rest of the way with Breslow picking up his sixth win and Bailey his 21st save.

September 1

A's 3 vs. Kansas City 4
(58-74, 4th, -20.5)

Edgar Gonzalez makes a respectable start, allowing one run on three hits and a walk while striking out five over five innings of work but is slapped with the no decision as the A's give him only one run of support. Jay Marshall gets the ball to start the sixth and cannot record an out as he's charged with two runs and his second loss. Jeff Gray relieves Marshall and allows a run of his own in the inning before tossing a scoreless seventh. Jerry Blevins works a scoreless eighth and ninth for the A's pen. Oakland gets on the board first with a solo homer from Rajai Davis, his third of the year. The A's then score a run in the seventh and eighth to cut the deficit but it's not enough as the Royals hold on to even the three-game series at a game apiece.

September 2

A's 10 vs. Kansas City 4
(59-74, 4th, -19.5)

Landon Powell hits his first career grand slam to highlight an awakened A's offense that piles up 10 runs to take the rubber match of the three-game set against Kansas City. Trevor Cahill makes the start and allows three runs on six hits and two walks while striking out three over five innings of work, picking up his eighth win of the year. Brad Kilby tosses two scoreless inning in relief of Cahill before Jerry Blevins tosses a scoreless inning himself. Dana Eveland works the final inning for the A's pen, allowing a run to score. The A's get all their scoring done before the fourth inning, with a three-run first highlighted by a two-run single by Ryan Sweeney, a five-run second highlighted by Powell's grand slam and a two-run third that caps the day off for Oakland with 10 runs. The A's number one through four hitters each finish with multiple hits.

September 3

A's 4 vs. Seattle 7
(59-75, 4th, -20.0)

Brett Tomko is tagged for his first loss with Oakland and his third of the year, as the righty allows six runs on eight hits, three homers, and a walk over five and two-thirds innings of work. Kurt Suzuki hits a two-run single in the first but the A's head into the second trailing 4-2. Oakland cuts that lead with a run in the second but doesn't score again until the eighth inning when Daric Barton hits a solo home run, his second of the year, to bring the A's within two of the Mariners' 6-4 lead. Jeff Gray works the ninth inning and allows a run. Suzuki strikes out to end the game as the A's collect nine hits total and leave 10 men on base.

September 4

A's 3 vs. Seattle 6
(59-76, 4th, -21.0)

Clayton Kershaw is called up to make the start and works seven innings, allowing four runs on six hits and three walks while striking out one. He is left with his second loss as the A's fall in the second straight game to the Mariners. Michael Wuertz and Jeff Gray each allow a run to score over their inning of work in the eighth and ninth innings. The A's get their first run in the third inning on a RBI double by Adam Kennedy and add their next and final two in the seventh on a two-run homer from Nomar Garciaparra, his third of the year. Nomar finishes the game 2 for 4 but is the only Athletic with multiple hits, as Oakland is held to just five total against Seattle starter Ryan Rowland-Smith.

September 5

A's 9 vs. Seattle 5
(60-76, 4th, -21.0)

Brett Anderson makes a rocky start, allowing three runs on seven hits and two walks while striking out six over five innings of work, yet earns his eighth win. The A's bats come alive for five runs of support for their rookie pitcher. Cliff Pennington highlights a four-run third inning with a two-run homer, his third of the year. The A's add another four in the eighth inning on two-run doubles by Mark Ellis and Daric Barton that cap off the scoring for Oakland. Brad Ziegler tosses a scoreless sixth and Michael Wuertz works a scoreless inning and two-thirds before handing the ball to Andrew Bailey who allows two runs to score over his inning and a third but notches his 22nd save.

September 6

A's 5 vs. Seattle 2
(61-76, 4th, -21.0)

Gio Gonzalez makes a strong start, working seven innings and allowing two runs on six hits and two walks while striking out three in earning his fifth win of the year. Landon Powell launches a fourth-inning solo home run, his sixth of the year, and the A's come alive for four runs in the seventh on a grand slam by Scott Hairston, his 17th homer of the season, to give their starter all the run support he would need. Brad Ziegler and Andrew Bailey each toss a scoreless inning of relief to secure the win with Bailey notches the 23rd save of his rookie year.

September 7

OFF DAY
(61-76, 4th, -20.5)

September 8

A's 11 @ Chicago 3
(62-76, 4th, -20.5)

Erupting for a five-run first inning and staking Brett Tomko to an early 8-0 lead, the A's waltzed to an easy win at U.S. Cellular Field. Jack Cust's three-run homer and Mark Ellis' solo shot keyed Oakland's first inning fireworks, and Tomko allowed three runs and six hits in 5.1 innings of work in notching his fourth victory of the season and extending the team's winning streak to three games. The lineup's top four hitters—Adam Kennedy (2-5), Rajai Davis (3-6, RBI, SB), Ryan Sweeney (4-6, 2 RBI) and Scott Hairston (2-6, 2 RBI) combine for 11 of the Athletics' 20 hits on the evening. Craig Breslow (1.2 ip, 1 h), Jerry Blevins (1.0) and Brad Kilby (1.0) assumed the reins from Tomko and allow only one hit over 3.2 scoreless innings of relief.

September 9

A's 3 @ Chicago 4 (13)
(62-77, 4th, -21.5)

After rallying from a 3-1 deficit that sent the game into overtime, the A's lose a heartbreaker in the bottom of the 13th inning on A.J. Pierzynski's one-out RBI double off Edgar Gonzalez, Oakland's seventh reliever in the game. The A's seize a short-lived 1-0 lead in the first inning when Rajai Davis doubles, steals third and scores on Scott Hairston's RBI double. However, Oakland rookie starter Trevor Cahill struggles, allowing three runs and four hits in the first two frames. He exits the game after three innings and 74 pitches, but the bullpen keeps the A's in it by reeling off 8.1 scoreless innings before Pierzynski's run-scoring double. The A's lash out 12 hits and steal five bases in defeat, with Davis leading the charge with three hits and two steals.

September 10

OFF DAY
(62-77, 4th, -22.0)

September 11

A's 12 @ Minnesota 5
(63-77, 4th, -22.0)

It was another rare laughter for Oakland, which rode 10 extra-base hits—including five home runs—to a 12-1 lead after six innings. The Twins punished reliever Santiago Casilla for four runs in the ninth, but it would not deprive rookie Clayton Mortensen of his first major league win. Mortensen scattered five hits over 6.0 innings, allowing only one run (a Denard Span solo HR in the first) while walking two and striking out none. Mark Ellis' two-run homer and Cliff Pennington's solo shot ignited a five-run third inning for Oakland, which hammered out 17 hits on the evening. Other Athletics who homered were Jack Cust, Daric Barton and Kurt Suzuki. Suzuki hit a two-run bomb in the sixth and led the A's with three hits and three RBI. Cust had two hits and scored four runs.

September 12

A's 4 @ Minnesota 2
(64-77, 4th, -21.0)

Rookie Brett Anderson fashioned a five-hit masterpiece, as he fanned four and yielded only two runs over 7.0 innings at the Metrodome. After slugging their way to victory the previous night, the A's parlay three sacrifice flies and five stolen bases to a hard-fought win this time. Twins' reliever Jesse Crain walked the bases loaded to start the fifth inning, and the A's proceed to break a 2-2 tie with sacrifice flies by Rajai Davis and Kurt Suzuki. Cliff Pennington stars for Oakland, going for 3-for-3 at the plate with a RBI and stolen base, while also participating in two double plays at shortstop. Wuertz and Bailey pitch scoreless eighth and ninth innings, respectively, to nail down the win, with Bailey striking out two in notching his 24th save of the season.

September 13

A's 0 @ Minnesota 8
(64-78, 4th, -22.0)

All-Star catcher Joe Mauer proved too much for the A's, as the Twins' MVP candidate hit a solo homer in the third inning and blasted a RBI single in Minnesota's fourth-run uprising in the fourth. Oakland rookie starter Gio Gonzalez made an early exit after allowing seven runs on eight hits and three walks in laboring 3.0 innings. Oakland leadoff man Rajai Davis collected three singles in defeat.

September 14

A's 9 @ Texas 0
(65-78, 4th, -21.0)

Locked in a scoreless pitching duel between Oakland's Brett Tomko and Texas ace Scott Feldman through five innings, the A's salted away its 65th victory of the season by tallying three runs in the sixth and four more in the seventh inning. Ryan Sweeney (3-5, 3 doubles, 4 RBI) and Adam Kennedy (2 for 4, 3 RBI) led the onslaught, with Sweeney's bases-loaded double in the seventh plating three runs. Tomko was brilliant in twirling a five-hitter, his first complete game and shutout since 2005. He was aided by three double plays by the A's infield.

September 15

A's 6 @ Texas 1
(66-78, 4th, -20.0)

It was all Rajai Davis, as the A's center fielder figured in the scoring in every inning Oakland posted runs. He went 3 for 4 with three singles, a walk, stolen base and 4 RBI in pacing the team's 10-hit attack. A's starter Edgar Gonzalez allowed one run and four hits through four innings before turning it over to the bullpen. Relievers Craig Breslow, Brad Ziegler, Jerry Blevins, Michael Wuertz and Andrew Bailey were near perfect, limiting the Rangers' potent lineup to one hit and no runs over the final five frames.

September 16

A's 4 @ Texas 0
(67-78, 4th, -19.0)

The A's complete their three-game road sweep of Texas, as Trevor Cahill, Michael Wuertz and Andrew Bailey combined for a one-hit shutout. In one of his finest hours as a rookie, Cahill dissected the Rangers in striking out seven, walking two and allowing only one hit through 7.0 innings. Wuertz fanned two in a perfect eighth inning, while Bailey slammed the lid on Oakland's fifth win in the last six games with a 1-2-3 ninth. Rajai Davis was hit by a pitch in the first inning and scored on Scott Hairston's subsequent double, which was all the runs the A's would need. Oakland added three insurance runs in the sixth, including Landon Powell's solo home run, Ryan Sweeney's sacrifice fly and Davis' RBI double.

September 17

Cleveland 2 vs. A's 5
(68-78, 4th, -19.0)

Kurt Suzuki's three-run home run in the fourth inning keyed the A's fourth straight win. Suzuki's blast gave starter Clayton Mortensen a 5-0 lead and the A's midseason acquisition pitched five innings (2 r, 4 h, 4 so, 3 bb) to notch his second victory of 2009. Brad Kilby, Craig Breslow, Michael Wuertz and Andrew Bailey combined for four scoreless innings out of the bullpen to preserve the win, with Bailey allowing one hit and striking out the side in securing his 25th save of the campaign.

September 18

Cleveland 1 vs. A's 2
(69-78, 4th, -19.0)

A's pitching continued to dominate, as Brett Anderson struck out a career-high 10 batters in six scoreless innings to propel Oakland to victory. Jeff Gray and Craig Breslow followed with shutdown frames, while Brad Ziegler was touched for one run and two hits in the ninth before pocketing his seventh save of the season. At the plate, Rajai Davis, Nomar Garciaparra and Mark Ellis accounted for six of the A's seven hits on the evening, with all three players collecting two knocks each.

September 19

Cleveland 4 vs. A's 8
(70-78, 4th, -18.0)

Indians starter Jeremy Sowers was buffeted for six runs and nine hits before being chased with none out in the second inning. Oakland sent 10 batters to the plate in the opening inning, unleashing a four-run, seven-hit blitzkrieg that included a Mark Ellis solo home run and RBI singles by Scott Hairston and Bobby Crosby and Cliff Pennington. Kurt Suzuki paced a 16-hit onslaught with three hits and four runs scored, while hitters No. 6 through 9—Crosby, Daric Barton, Matt Carson and Pennington—all chipped in with two hits apiece. Gio Gonzalez failed to pick up the win with an early departure in the fourth inning, but the A's bullpen stymied Cleveland for one run and seven hits over the final 5.1 innings, with Michael Wuertz going the final 1.1 frames to nail down his fourth save of the season.

September 20

Cleveland 4 vs. A's 11
(71-78, 4th, -18.0)

The A's extend their winning streak to a season-high tying seven games, riding a five-run second inning to a blowout win and four-game sweep of Cleveland. Adam Kennedy was the hitting hero, going 3 for 5 with a double, home run and three RBI. The A's third baseman had a run-scoring single in the second inning and added a two-run homer in Oakland's four-run sixth inning which increased their lead to 9-2. Dana Eveland made his first start for Oakland in more than two months, and he yielded only one run on five hits over 5.0 innings to earn the win. Jerry Blevins and Jon Meloan turned in creditable efforts in relief of Eveland.

September 21

Texas 10 vs. A's 3
(71-79, 4th, -19.0)

Oakland's seven-game winning streak was halted in a big way, as Texas feasted on A's pitching throughout the night en route to a 10-run, 15-hit performance. A's starter Edgar Gonzalez was victimized for six runs (five earned) and nine hits in only 3.1 innings, and the Rangers held a commanding 6-0 lead by the fourth inning. Meanwhile, Kevin Millwood silenced the Athletics on three hits and one unearned run in 7.0 innings of work. Rajai Davis' sacrifice fly in the sixth inning and Matt Carson's first major league home run—a two-run poke in the ninth—produced the only offensive highlights for Oakland.

September 22

Texas 1 vs. A's 9
(72-79, 4th, -18.0)

A five-run seventh inning bonanza, ignited by Kurt Suzuki's two-run double and RBI hits by Rajai Davis, Jack Cust and Mark Ellis, broke open a close game. Daric Barton also shined with a single, triple and two RBI as the A's pound out 12 hits. Trevor Cahill is credited with his 10th win of his rookie season, allowing one run and six hits in 5.2 innings pitched. Craig Breslow, Jerry Blevins and Brad Ziegler all post zeroes in relief, as the A's win their eighth game in the last nine tries.

September 23

Texas 9 vs. A's 8
(72-80, 4th, -18.0)

Oakland roars back from a 4-0 deficit to take a short-lived 5-4 lead with a five-run uprising in the fourth inning. However, Hank Blalock's single, double, home run and four RBI prove too much, as the Rangers prevail. Cliff Pennington's two-run single is the key blow in Oakland's five-run fourth, while Eric Patterson also contributes with a 2-for-3 night that includes a leadoff homer in the fifth inning. Clayton Mortensen is tagged with the loss after seven runs (three earned) and six hits in 4.2 innings.

September 24

Texas 3 vs. A's 12
(73-80, 4th, -17.5)

The A's clobber Scott Feldman for four runs in the third inning and another three runs in the fourth, staking Brett Anderson to a 7-2 advantage. Oakland, which rode Adam Kennedy's two doubles, Jack Cust's solo home run and Eric Patterson's two hits and three RBI to a lopsided win, earns a series split with Texas in the four-game series. Anderson, who struck out six batters and allowed only one earned run and six hits in 5.2 innings, chalked up his fourth consecutive victory down the stretch. Brad Ziegler and Jerry Blevins combined for 3.1 scoreless innings in relief, with Blevins fanning four batters in the final two frames.

September 25

A's 3 @ Los Angeles 0
(74-80, 4th, -16.5)

Oakland started its final road trip of the season on a winning note, as Gio Gonzalez, Michael Wuerzt and Andrew Bailey combined on a five-hit shutout over the AL West-leading Angels in Anaheim. Gonzalez and Angels' starter Jered Weaver matched zeroes through four innings, but the A's forged a 1-0 lead in the fifth when Daric Barton walked, advanced to second on Eric Patterson's single and then scored on Adam Kennedy's two-out, RBI single. Ryan Sweeney led the A's with three hits, including a double. Gonzalez evened his record at 6-6 by blanking Los Angeles on four hits through 6.1 innings, striking out four and walking one. Wuerzt allowed one hit in 1.2 innings while fanning a career-high five batters in relief and raising his season total to 100 strikeouts. Bailey hurled a perfect ninth in gaining what would be his 26th and final save of the season.

September 26

A's 15 @ Los Angeles 10
(75-80, 4th, -15.5)

In one of the more memorable games of 2009, the A's overcame a seven-run deficit to beat the Angels. Los Angeles knocked Dana Eveland out the game during a six-run fourth inning which gave perennial A's beater John Lackey a 9-2 lead. But the Athletics would not be denied, pouncing on Lackey for four runs of their own in the fifth and another two runs in the sixth to chase the Angels' pitcher and shave the deficit to 9-8. Kurt Suzuki (3-4, HR, 4 RBI) and Daric Barton (4-5, 2 RBI), who combined for seven hits and six RBI, teamed together to tie the game in the seventh when Suzuki doubled and Barton delivered a one-out RBI single. After the Angels pulled ahead, 10-9, with a run in the bottom of the inning, the A's exploded for five hits and six runs in the eighth to clinch the win. Mark Ellis clubbed a two-run homer in that fateful eighth, while Jack Cust—who homered and singled earlier in the game—added a RBI double.

September 27

A's 4 @ Los Angeles 7
(75-81, 4th, -16.5)

The Angels, back by a solid pitching performance by Joe Saunders (6.0 ip, 7 h, 3 r), salvaged the final game of the series. After trailing 5-0, the A's did make it interesting by whittling the lead to 5-4 by scoring three in the seventh and one in the eighth. Matt Carson and Landon Powell both delivered run-scoring singles in the seventh inning, while Adam Kennedy accounted for the eighth-inning run on a pinch-hit sacrifice fly. Edgar Gonzalez was tagged with the loss, allowing five runs and seven hits in 5.0 innings of work.

September 28

OFF DAY
(75-81, 4th, -17.0)

September 29

A's 4 @ Seattle 6
(75-82, 4th, -18.0)

A late Oakland rally fell short, as the Mariners continued their dominance over their AL West rival with a series-opening win. Buoyed by a three-run homer by future Hall-of-Famer Ken Griffey, Jr. in a five-run fifth inning, Seattle was coasting to victory with a 6-1 advantage. But the A's mounted a late comeback, tallying one run in the eighth on Daric Barton's sac-fly and another two in the ninth on Kurt Suzuki's two-run single, before Mariner closer David Ardsma doused the rally. In his last start as a rookie, Trevor Cahill absorbed the loss after surrendering six runs and eight hits in 4.2 innings.

September 30

A's 0 @ Seattle 7
(75-83, 4th, -19.0)

Seattle's Brandon Morrow proved nearly unhittable, as the Mariners coasted to a shutout win. Morrow, who struck out nine and walked two, allowed his only hit of the game in the fourth inning when Rajai Davis beat out a slow roller to shortstop. Shawn Kelley relieved Morrow to start the ninth, and allowed the Oakland's second hit of the game when Landon Powell singled with two outs. In his worst outing of the year, Clayton Mortensen was raked for six runs and eight hits—including another Ken Griffey Jr. three-run homer—before being removed with no outs in the second inning.

October 1

A's 2 @ Seattle 4
(75-84, 4th, -19.0)

A costly Adam Kennedy error led to three unearned runs in the fifth inning and the A's never recovered. A Kurt Suzuki triple and Daric Barton double had tied the score, 1-1, in the top of the fourth, but Kennedy's two-out miscue on a fielder's choice play in the fifth opened the flood gates. With David Ardsma in to close the ninth, Jack Cust gave A's fans hope with a towering, opposite-field leadoff homer. But Ardsma mowed down the next three batters, and A's starter Brett Anderson (5.0 ip, 8 h, 4 r, 1 er, 1 bb, 5 so) suffered a hard-luck loss.

October 2

Los Angeles 5 vs. A's 2
(75-85, 4th, -20.0)

Oakland's losing streak extended to five games, despite a career-high 10 strikeout performance by rookie starter Gio Gonzalez. Gonzalez, who did not walk a batter, allowed four runs and eight hits over 6.0 innings, but could not match Jered Weaver who notched his 16th win of the season by throwing a three-hit shutout over 5.0 innings. The A's entered the bottom of the ninth behind 5-0 before Kurt Suzuki and Daric Barton lined RBI singles. With two runners on and only one out, Angels' closer Brian Fuentes retired Mark Ellis and pinch-hitter Nomar Garciaparra to end the threat.

October 3

Los Angeles 4 vs. A's 2
(75-86, 4th, -21.0)

Scott Kazmir and four Angels' relievers harnessed Oakland's lineup to only five hits, as Los Angeles clinch the season's final series. Kazmir allowed only three hits in five scoreless innings, while A's starter Dana Eveland exited in the fifth after yielding four runs and eight hits in 4.2 innings. Rajai Davis laced two singles and a RBI for Oakland, which rallied for a pair of runs in the eighth inning.

October 4

Los Angeles 5 vs. A's 3
(75-87, 4th, -22.0)

The A's forged a 2-0 lead in the second inning on Matt Carson's sacrifice fly and Eric Patterson's two-out, RBI single. Manager Bob Geren opted to utilize his bullpen by committee in the season finale, starting Brad Kilby for an initial two-inning stint. Kilby threw two perfect innings, however fellow relievers Jerry Blevins (1.1 ip, 1 r), Jeff Gray (1.1 ip, 3 r) and Craig Breslow (1.1 ip, 1 r) were all scored upon, as the Angels assumed a 5-2 lead by the sixth inning. Normar Garciaparra, Daric Barton, Eric Patterson and Cliff Pennington all registered two hits, and when Pennington lined a two-out RBI single in the ninth to narrow the margin to 5-3, there were hopes of a final comeback win. Those hopes vanished, however, when Rajai Davis, representing the potential tying run, ended the game—and the season—by striking out.
