OAKLAND A's POSTSEASON MEDIA GUIDE

MO

2018 OAKLAND A'S HIGHLIGHTS

- The A's finished the season with a 97-65 (.599) record, which was fourth best in the American League and the majors...it was the ninth best record in Oakland history and was the best since the 2002 club was 103-59...the 97 wins were a 22-win improvement from the A's 75-87 record in 2017...that was the third biggest turnaround in Oakland history and the sixth biggest in Athletics history.
- The A's returned to the postseason for the fourth time in the last seven years and the ninth time in the last 19 seasons...over the last seven years, only the Dodgers (6) have more than four postseason appearances and over the last 19 seasons only the Yankees (15), Cardinals (12), Dodgers (10), Red Sox (10) and Braves (10) have more...it was the A's 27th postseason appearance in franchise history, which includes 19 with Oakland and eight with Philadelphia... that is fourth most all-time.
- The A's were 34-36 (.486) at the conclusion of play on June 15 and were 11 games out in the Wild Card race...then went 63-29 (.685) from June 16 through the end of the season and ended up seven games ahead of the third place team in the Wild Card...the A's record after June 15 was the best mark in the majors by 2½ games (Boston 60-31, .659).
- The A's ranked second in the majors in doubles (322) and extra base hits (569), third in home runs (227), fourth in runs (813) and slugging (.439) and fifth in OPS (.764)...the 569 extra base hits set an Athletics record, breaking the previous mark of 555 in 2001...had the fourth most doubles in Athletics history, ranked fifth in home runs and had the eighth best slugging percentage.
- The A's bullpen compiled a 3.35 ERA, which was second lowest in the American League and third lowest in the majors...won 45 games, which were second most in Major League history by a bullpen to the Tampa Bay Rays 55 victories this year...had 641.1 innings pitched, which was second most in the majors (TB, 824.1) and third most in Major League history.
- After leading the majors in errors in two of the previous three seasons, the A's committed just 89 errors in 2018, which were the fewest by an A's team since 2006.
- The A's were 70-2 when leading after seven innings, which was the best record in the majors.
- The A's were 31-14 (.689) in one-run games, which was the best record in the majors, second best in Oakland history (.696 in 2002) and third highest in Athletics history (.698 in 1928).
- The A's tied the AL record for home runs on the road (Baltimore, 1996) and fell two short of San Francisco's Major League record of 138 set in 2001.
- Matt Chapman was one of the top hitters in the game after the All-Star Break as he hit .309 with 14 home runs, 39 RBI and a .961 OPS in 64 games after the break...led the majors in doubles after the break (25) and led the American League in runs (52) and extra base hits (42)...led Major League third basemen in total chances (484) and assists (331), ranked second in putouts (133) and third in double plays (37) and games (145)...the total chances were second most in Oakland history to the record of 523 set by Sal Bando in 1969.
- Khris Davis hit a Major League leading and career-high 48 home runs and ranked second with a career-high 123 RBI...it was his third straight 40-homer season and his third straight 100-RBI season...is the 22nd player in ML history with at least three straight seasons of 40 home runs and 100 RBI...became the seventh player (12th time) in Athletics history to lead the majors in home runs, the first since Mark McGwire in 1996 (52)...his 48 home runs ranked third in Oakland history and tied for fourth in Athletics history and were the most since McGwire had 52 in 1996...the 123 RBI tied for fourth in Oakland history, his 77 extra base hits tied for fifth and his 316 total bases ranked ninth...has 133 home runs and 335 RBI over the last three years...the home runs are the most in the majors over that span and the RBI rank third.
- Mike Fiers was acquired by the A's from Detroit Aug. 6 and went 5-2 with a 3.74 ERA in 10 games, including nine starts, with Oakland...combined for a 12-8 record and a 3.56 ERA in 31 games, 30 starts...the A's went 8-1 (.889) in his starting assignments and his teams were 21-9 (.700)...ranked fifth in the American League in fewest walks per nine innings (1.94) and 10th in ERA...had a .172 opponents batting average with runners in scoring position, which was second lowest in the AL among qualifiers for the ERA title.
- Edwin Jackson signed a minor league deal with the A's June 6, was selected by Oakland June 25, and went 6-3 with a 3.33 ERA and .221 opponents batting average in 17 starts with the A's...the ERA was sixth lowest in the American League from June 25 through the end of the season...also ranked third in opponents batting average and seventh in slugging percentage (.386) and OPS (.687) over that stretch.

- Jed Lowrie put together his best all around season as he posted career highs with 23 home runs and 99 RBI and led American League second basemen with a .993 fielding percentage... was named to his first AL All-Star Team...also had career highs in games (157) and walks (78)... ranked eighth in the AL in RBI and walks and ninth in batting with runners in scoring position (.324)...82 of his RBI came as a second baseman, which set an Oakland record (previous: 76 by Mark Ellis in 2007).
- Sean Manaea was 12-9 with a 3.59 ERA and .232 opponents batting average in 27 starts before going on the disabled list Aug. 26 with a shoulder injury...underwent surgery Sept. 19 and missed the remainder of the season...his ERA, opponents batting average, on-base percentage (.278), slugging percentage (.385) and OPS (.663) where the lowest of his three seasons...had a career high 160.2 innings pitched and matched his best in wins...based on a minimum of 150 innings, he had the fifth fewest walks per nine innings in the American League, the seventh lowest on-base percentage and the 10th lowest OPS...tossed the seventh no-hitter in Oakland history and the 12th in Athletics history April 21 vs. Boston.
- Bob Melvin has led the A's to four postseason appearances and a 634-599 (.514) record in seven-plus seasons as manager...among active managers, only the Giants' Bruce Bochy, the Royals' Ned Yost and the Pirates' Clint Hurdle have longer uninterrupted tenures with their current teams...Melvin's 634 wins are third most in franchise history behind Connie Mack (3582) and Tony La Russa (798).
- Matt Olson played in all 162 games and batted .247 with 29 home runs and 84 RBI in his first full season in the majors...it was the 11th time in Oakland history a player appeared in every game in a season, the first since Miguel Tejada in 2003...was the only American Leaguer to play in every game and one of five Major Leaguers...hit all 29 of his home runs as a first baseman, which led AL first basemen, ranked third in the majors and was the most by an A's first baseman since Jason Giambi had 32 in 2001...led AL first basemen and ranked fourth in the majors in RBI (83).
- Chad Pinder became the first player in Oakland history to start at least one game at seven different positions (49 in left field, 13 at second base, five in right field, four at third base, three at shortstop, two in center field and one at first base).
- Stephen Piscotty batted .267 with 41 doubles, 27 home runs and 88 RBI in 151 games in his first season with Oakland...had career highs in doubles, home runs, RBI and extra base hits (68)...his 41 doubles tied for ninth in the American League and tied for seventh in Oakland history...batted .286 with 27 doubles, 24 home runs, 64 RBI and a .574 slugging percentage over his final 93 games beginning June 13...ranked second in the AL in extra base hits from June 13 through the end of the season, tied for seventh in RBI.
- Marcus Semien batted .255 with 15 home runs and 70 RBI in 159 games...stole a career-high 14 bases for his fourth consecutive season with 10 or more home runs and 10 or more stolen bases...is one of nine Major Leaguers with at least 10 home runs and 10 stolen bases in each of the last four seasons...now has 67 career home runs with Oakland, which is fourth most in Athletics history by a shortstop.
- Blake Treinen went 9-2 with a career-high 38 saves, a career-low 0.78 ERA and a career-high 100 strikeouts to become the first pitcher in Major League history to save 30 games, compile an ERA under 1.00 and strikeout 100 batters...the ERA was the lowest in Major League history among pitchers with 80 or more innings since the earned run became an official stat (1912 in NL, 1913 in AL)...his 38 saves ranked third in the American League, tied for fourth in the majors and tied for seventh in Oakland history...ranked fifth among AL relievers in strikeouts and is the seventh reliever in Oakland history to strike out 100 batters, the first since Michael Wuertz had 102 in 2009...had the lowest opponents on-base percentage (.217) and OPS (.417) among AL relievers, ranked second in slugging (.199) and fourth in batting (.158)...was named to his first All-Star Game.
- Lou Trivino pitched in 69 games in his Major League debut and went 8-3 with four saves, a 2.92 ERA and .201 opponents batting average over two stints with the A's...fell two short of the Oakland rookie record of 71 games pitched set by Aaron Small in 1997 and matched by Ryan Cook in 2012...tied for the lead among American League rookies in saves, ranked second in games pitched, fifth in wins and seventh in strikeouts (82).

BOB MELVIN

MANAGER

Robert Paul Melvin

Named as A's interim manager, June 9, 2011

Birthdate: October 28, 1961

Birthplace/Resides: Palo Alto, California / Berkeley, California

Contract Status: Signed through 2019

Bob Melvin has led the A's to four postseason appearances and a 634-599 (.514) record in seven-plus seasons as manager of the Oakland A's after being named interim manager, June 9, 2011. Among active managers, only the Giants' Bruce Bochy, the Royals' Ned Yost and the Pirates' Clint Hurdle have longer uninterrupted tenures with their current teams. Melvin's 634 wins are third most in franchise history behind Connie Mack (3582) and Tony La Russa (798) and he now has a mark of 1127-1107 (.504) in 15 seasons as a Major League manager, including stints with the Seattle Mariners (2003-04) and Arizona Diamondbacks (2005-09).

In 2018, Melvin guided the A's to a 97-55 record after the club went 75-87 in 2017. It was the third time a Bob Melvin managed team increased it's win total by 20 or more games from the previous season. In his first season with Arizona in 2004, the Diamondbacks posted 77-85 record after going 51-111 in 2003. He then took the A's from a 74-win season in 2011 to a 94-68 record and an American League West title in 2012.

Melvin guided the A's to a 47-52 (.475) record in 2011 after Oakland started the season 27-36 (.429). He then led the A's to back-to-back AL West titles in 2012 and 2013 with records of 94-68 and 96-66. Melvin became the first manager to lead the A's to consecutive division titles since Tony La Russa won three straight from 1988-90.

Melvin was named AL Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America in 2012 after the A's became the fifth team in Major League history to win a Pennant or Division after trailing by 13 or more games and the first to come back when trailing by five or more games with fewer than 10 games remaining. That club employed 19 rookies, including 12 pitchers. Melvin became only the second manager in Oakland history (Tony La Russa, 1988 and 1992) to win the award. He also became only the 14th manager in MLB history to win the award at least twice in a career, and just the sixth manager to win the award in both leagues.

The A's finished 88-74 in 2014 but reached the postseason for the third consecutive year as a Wild Card. Oakland logged three straight seasons with 87 or more losses from 2015-17 but returned to the postseason in 2018 as the Wild Card team with a 97-65 record. On July 29, 2017, Melvin became the 64th manager in ML history to win 1,000 games.

Melvin signed a three-year contract through the 2014 season, Sept. 21, 2011, a twoyear extension through 2016, Jan. 14, 2013, another two-year extension through 2018, Sept. 9, 2015 and a one-year extension through 2019, Sept. 28, 2017. The Bay Area native is the 30th manager in franchise history and the 18th in Oakland history.

In his previous managerial stint, he guided Arizona to a 337-340 (.498) record in fourplus seasons. He was named manager of the D-backs Nov. 5, 2004 and led the club to a 77-85 mark in his first season, a 26-game turnaround from a franchise-worst 51-111 mark in 2004. After a 76-86 finish in 2006, Melvin was named National League Manager of the Year by the BBWAA in 2007 after guiding Arizona to a league-best 90-72 record. He also earned NL Manager of the Year honors from The Sporting News and the Negro League Baseball Museum's C.I. Taylor Legacy Award. The Diamondbacks followed up their NL West title with a second-place finish in 2008, finishing 82-80. Melvin became the winningest manager in Arizona history that season when he earned his 304th win Aug. 14, surpassing Bob Brenly. Melvin was relieved of his duties as D-backs manager May 8, 2009 after a 12-17 start.

Prior to being named A's manager, Melvin had rejoined the Diamondbacks as a special baseball advisor to President & CEO Derrick Hall in May of 2011, assisting the baseball operations department and other business divisions of the organization. He was a professional scout for the New York Mets in 2010.

Melvin began his managerial career in 2003, guiding the Mariners to a 93-69 record in shattering the team record for wins by a first-year Mariners manager set by Lou Piniella in 1993 (82-80). His 93 wins also tied for the 15th-most by any rookie manager in Major League history at the time. The Mariners then fell to 63-99 in 2004 and he left Seattle with a 156-168 (.481) record in two seasons.

Melvin began his coaching career as Manager Phil Garner's bench coach from 1999-2000, first with the Brewers in 1999 and then in 2000 with the Tigers. While with the Brewers, he also managed the Maryvale team in the Arizona Fall League in 1999. He was inducted into the AFL Hall of Fame in 2013. Melvin then served as Bob Brenly's bench coach with the D-backs from 2001-02 when the club won back-to-back NL West titles and the World Series in 2001. Prior to those bench coach roles, he spent three seasons with Milwaukee in various capacities, serving as a scout in 1996, roving instructor in 1997 and as assistant to General Manager Sal Bando in 1998.

A 10-year Major League veteran, Melvin's playing career included stops in Detroit (1985), San Francisco (1986-88), Baltimore (1989-91), Kansas City (1992), Boston (1993), the New York Yankees (1994) and the Chicago White Sox (1994). He posted a .233 batting average with 35 home runs and 212 RBI while playing in 692 games. The former catcher was drafted by Detroit as its first choice in the secondary phase of the 1981 January draft and hit .220 in 41 games in his rookie season of 1985. Melvin spent the next three seasons sharing the catching duties with Bob Brenly for the Giants, hitting a career-high 11 home runs in 1987. After three seasons in Baltimore, he batted a career-high .314 in 32 games with Kansas City in 1992.

Melvin graduated from Menlo-Atherton High School in Menlo Park, Calif. in 1979 and later attended and played baseball at the University of California in Berkeley. He and his

ASSISTANT HITTING COACH Michael Peter Aldrete Named A's bench coach, October 27, 2014 Named A's first base coach, November 12, 2015 Named A's assistant hitting coach, December 4, 2017 Birthdate: January 29, 1961 Birthplace/Resides: Carmel, California / Salinas, California

Mike Aldrete returned for his fourth season on the A's coaching staff, his first as assistant hitting coach. He rejoined Manager Bob Melvin for a third time in his coaching career as bench coach in 2015 and spent the next two seasons as the A's third base and outfield coach. Aldrete, who has served as bench coach for the St. Louis Cardinals from 2012-14, previously worked under Melvin as first base coach for the Seattle Mariners in 2004 and as hitting coach for the Arizona Diamondbacks from 2005-06. The 2018 season will mark his 14th on a Major League coaching staff.

He began his coaching career in 2001 as hitting coach for Yakima in the Diamondbacks' minor league system. He was promoted to manager of Yakima the following season and then managed Arizona's High Class A club in Lancaster in 2003. His first coaching opportunity in the majors came in 2004 when he was named first base coach on Melvin's staff in Seattle. He moved to Arizona the following year when Melvin was named manager of the Diamondbacks, serving as hitting coach there for two seasons.

Tony La Russa, whom Aldrete had played for in Oakland, hired him as assistant hitting coach with St. Louis in 2008. After four seasons in that position, including the 2011 Cardinals team that was crowned World Series champions, he was promoted to bench coach in 2012 when Mike Matheny replaced the retiring La Russa as manager. During his three-year stint as bench coach, the Cardinals advanced to the World Series in 2013 and to the National League Championship Series in both 2012 and 2014.

Born in Carmel, Calif. and a graduate of Monterey High School and Stanford University, the former first baseman/outfielder played for seven different teams during his 10-year Major League career, including both the San Francisco Giants (1986-88) and the Oakland A's (1993-95). A .263 lifetime hitter in 930 games, Aldrete also played for Montreal (1989-90), San Diego (1991), Cleveland (1991), the California Angels (1995-96) and the New York Yankees (1996).

Aldrete's finest season as a player was with the Giants in 1987, when he batted a careerhigh .325 on a team that lost to St. Louis in the National League Championship Series. He split his final season between California and New York in 1996, ending his career as a member of the World Series Champion Yankees.

A third team All-American his senior season at Stanford, Aldrete was chosen by San Francisco in the seventh round of the June Draft in 1983. He enjoyed a pair of trips to the College World Series with the Cardinal and was a member of the U.S. Collegiate All-Star Team that toured Japan in 1982. Aldrete graduated from Monterey (Ca.) High School, lettering in baseball, basketball and football.

Aldrete makes his off-season home in Salinas, Calif., with his wife, Gina, and their three children; Michael, Blake and Nicolette. Michael (RHP) was selected by the Cardinals in the 2012 First Year Player Draft out of San Jose State (39th round).

Darren Bush completed his fourth season as the A's hitting coach in 2018 after serving as the bullpen coach the previous two seasons. Under his guidance, the A's offense ranked second in the majors in doubles (322) and extra base hits (569), third in home runs (227), fourth in runs (813) and slugging (.439) and fifth in OPS (.764) in 2018 while setting an Athletics franchise record for extra base hits. The 2018 season marked Bush's 14th in the A's organization, which includes two seasons as a minor league hitting coach, six seasons as a manager and six seasons on the Major League coaching staff.

Bush compiled a 462-386 (.545) record in six seasons as a manager with Single-A Stockton (2007-08), Double-A Midland (2009-10) and Triple-A Sacramento (2011-12). He guided the River Cats to back-to-back division titles with a mark of 88-56 in 2011 and 86-58 in 2012. Bush also led the RockHounds to playoff appearances in 2009 and 2010, including a Texas League Championship in 2009. He also skippered Single-A Stockton to the California League Championship in his second year as a manager in 2008. Bush joined the Athletics in 2005 as hitting coach at Stockton and spent two seasons in that capacity before taking over as manager for the Ports in 2007.

Prior to joining the A's organization, Bush coached in independent leagues. He was the hitting coach and Director of Player Personnel with Yuba-Sutter of the Western League in 2002 and then spent two seasons as a manager in the Northeast League with Berkshire (41-51 in 2003) and Quebec (58-34 in 2004).

A former outfielder, Bush began his playing career with three seasons in the independent Frontier League. He played for Zanesville in 1996 and Springfield in 1997-98, hitting .302 with 26 home runs and 133 RBI in 224 games. Bush signed with the San Diego Padres organization Dec. 24, 1998 and hit .259 with 16 home runs and 114 RBI in 231 games in two seasons at Single-A Rancho Cucamonga (1999-2000) and one year at Single-A Clearwater (2001) in the Phillies farm system. He also played one game for Triple-A Las Vegas in 2000 and went 2-for-4. He concluded his playing career by hitting .417 in seven games for Yuba-Sutter of the Western League in 2002. Bush had a .284 average in 456 games overall.

Bush attended Dunedin High School and Valdosta State University. He resides in Englewood, Fla. during the offseason. Bush is married, Rebecca, and has two children, Wyatt and Maggie.

SCOTT EMERSON

Scott Emerson returned for his fourth season on the A's Major League coaching staff in 2018 and his 16th in the A's organization. He joined the coaching staff in Oakland for the 2015 season as bullpen coach and took over the reigns as pitching coach on June 15, 2017.

Emerson spent two seasons as minor league roving pitching instructor from 2013-14 after 10 years as a pitching coach at various levels. He joined the A's organization in 2003 as pitching coach at Single-A Modesto and served two seasons there before the A's moved their affiliate to Stockton. After two seasons with the Ports, Emerson had a five-year stint at Double-A Midland from 2007-11. He was promoted to Triple-A Sacramento in 2012 and spent one season with the River Cats.

Emerson's coaching career began in the Pittsburgh Pirates organization in 2000 when he was named the pitching coach for the Pirates Gulf Coast Rookie League club at Bradenton. He spent two years in the GCL and one at Single-A Williamsport in 2002 before joining the A's organization.

Emerson pitched professionally for six seasons in the Baltimore (1992-95), Boston (1995-96) and Arizona (1997) organizations. He was a 10-game winner at Single-A Albany in 1993 and was traded to the Red Sox organization early during the 1995 season. The left-hander signed with Arizona after being released by Boston in the spring of 1997. He pitched in three games for Single-A High Desert before concluding his professional career with Rio Grande Valley of the independent Texas-Louisiana League in 1997. Emerson was 27-29 with a 4.16 ERA in 135 games, 79 starts in his career.

Emerson was drafted by San Diego in the 21st round of the 1990 June draft out of Shadow Mountain HS (Phoenix, Ariz.) but did not sign. He attended Scottsdale Community College and signed with the Baltimore organization after the Orioles selected him in the 40th round of the 1991 June draft.

Emerson and his wife, Jill, make their offseason home in Rockingham, N.C.

Oakland native Marcus Jensen returned for his fourth season on the A's Major League coaching staff and his 12th in the A's organization. He took over as bullpen coach in 2018 after serving as the A's assistant hitting/catching coach from 2015-17.

Jensen spent the 2014 season as the A's minor league roving hitting instructor. He joined the A's organization in 2007 as hitting coach for the A's affiliate in the Arizona Rookie League and served two years in that capacity. Jensen took over the managerial duties for that club in 2009 and guided the A's to a 141-136 (.509) record and one playoff appearance in five seasons. In 2013, he also served as the A's minor league roving catching instructor.

A former catcher, Jensen was drafted by San Francisco out of Skyline HS in Oakland following the first round of the 1990 June draft as a compensation pick for the loss of free agent Craig Lefferts. He batted .184 with six home runs and 29 RBI in 145 games in seven seasons with seven different teams.

Jensen made his Major League debut with San Francisco in 1996 and appeared in 39 games over two seasons with the Giants before he was dealt to Detroit in July, 1997. After spending parts of the 1998 and 1999 seasons with Milwaukee and St. Louis respectively, Jensen saw his most big league action with Minnesota in 2000 when he batted .209 with three home runs and 14 RBI in 52 games. He split the 2001 season between Boston and Texas and returned to Milwaukee in 2002, appearing in 40 games in his final big league campaign. Jensen spent the 2003 season at Triple-A Columbus in the New York (AL) farm system and played for Cancun in the Mexican League in 2004. He spent his final two seasons as a professional with Mesa (2005) and Reno (2006) of the independent Golden Baseball League. Jensen was also a member of the 2000 U.S. Olympic team that defeated Cuba for the gold medal.

Jensen makes his offseason home in Scottsdale, Ariz., with his son, Marcus.

Mark Kotsay returned for his third season on the A's coaching staff in 2018, his first as the major league quality control coach. He will assist Bob Melvin and the ML coaching staff in all areas and will also consult with the front office in other facets of the organization. Kotsay joined the A's as the bench coach in 2016 after making his professional coaching debut as the San Diego Padres hitting coach in 2015. He took a leave of absence June 19, 2017 and missed the rest of the season.

Kotsay spent 17 seasons in the Major Leagues from 1997-2013, including a four-year stint with Oakland from 2004-07. He was acquired from San Diego following the 2003 season for Ramon Hernandez and Terrence Long and went on to hit .282 in 472 games with the A's. Kotsay batted a career high .313 in 2004 and tallied a career high 82 RBI in 2005 while belting 15 home runs in each season. He was a member of the A's American League West champions in 2006 and sparked Oakland to its first ALCS appearance in 14 years with an inside-the-park home run in Game 2 of the ALDS at Minnesota.

A former outfielder, Kotsay batted .276 with 127 home runs and 720 RBI in 1914 games during his career, which also included stops in Florida (1997-2000), San Diego (2001-03, 12-13), Atlanta (2008), Boston (2008-09), Chicago-AL (2009-10) and Milwaukee (2011). He made his ML debut with Florida in his second professional season in 1997 and appeared in a career-high 154 games in his rookie season of 1998. After batting .298 in 2000, he was traded to San Diego five days prior to Opening Day in 2001. He hit .292 with a career-high 17 home runs in 2002. Following his stay with Oakland, Kotsay returned to the LCS in 2008 with Boston and 2011 with Milwaukee. He concluded his playing career with San Diego in 2012 and 2013.

Kotsay retired following the 2013 season and spent 2014 in the Padres front office as a special assistant to the general manager and baseball operations. In that role, he was involved in all aspects of the club's baseball operations.

A graduate of Sante Fe (CA) High School, Kotsay attended Cal State Fullerton where he led the Titans to the College World Series Championship in 1995. He was the winner of the Golden Spikes Award and was named Collegiate Player of the Year that year and hit .404 in his collegiate career. Kotsay was the Marlins first round pick and the ninth selection overall in the 1996 draft and also played for the United States in the 1996 Olympics.

Kotsay is married, Jamie, and has three children, Grace, Sienna and Trey. He resides in Rancho Santa Fe, Calif., during the offseason.

Al Pedrique completed his first season as A's first base coach and his fifth season on a Major League coaching staff. He was third base coach and interim manager for Arizona in 2004, third base coach for Houston in 2009 and bench coach for the Astros from 2010-11.

Prior to joining the Athletics, Pedrique spent five seasons managing in the New York Yankees farm system. He started at Single-A Charleston in 2013, moved to Single-A Tampa in 2014, was promoted to Double-A Trenton in 2015 and has spent the last two seasons at Triple-A Scranton/ Wilkes-Barre. He was named International League Manager of the Year in 2016 after guiding the RailRiders to the best record in all full season minor leagues (91-52, .636) and the Triple-A championship. Pedrique is 857-742 (.536) in 14 seasons as a minor league manager.

Pedrique managed for nine seasons in the minors in the Kansas City, Houston and Arizona organizations from 1995-2003 before earning his first Major League assignment in 2004. He began the season as Arizona's third base coach but was interim manager the second half of the season when the Diamondbacks went 22-61 (.265). Pedrique also managed the 2002 Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League and served as a coach for the World Team in the 2003 MLB All-Star Futures Game.

Pedrique returned to the Houston organization in 2005 as a special assistant to the general manager, a position he held for three seasons (2005-07). In October of 2006, his duties were expanded to include responsibility for all of the club's Latin American operations, including the overseeing of the franchise's academies as well as the player development and scouting efforts. He began the 2009 season as minor league field coordinator before joining the Astros as third base coach in September. He spent the 2010 and 2011 seasons as bench coach.

Pedrique spent parts of three seasons in the majors with the Mets (1987), Pirates (1987-88) and Tigers (1989) and hit .247 with a home run and 36 RBI in 174 games.

Pedrique and his wife, Marla, have four children: Andreyna, Mariana, Lilian and Carlos. He resides in Tucson, Ariz.

MATT WILLIAMS

THIRD BASE COACH

Matthew Derrick Williams

Named A's third base coach, November 17, 2017

Birthdate: November 28, 1965

Birthplace/Resides: Bishop, California / Scottsdale, Arizona

Matt Williams joined the A's as third base coach for the 2018 season. It marked his eighth season on a Major League coaching staff, which includes two seasons as manager of the Washington Nationals.

Williams made his coaching debut with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2010 as first base coach. He spent the next three seasons as third base coach before being named manager of the Nationals for the 2014. Williams was named BBWAA and The Sporting News Manager of the Year in his first season after leading Washington to a 96-66 record and a National League East title. Washington finished 83-79 the following season and he compiled a 179-145 (.552) in his two seasons as manager. Williams returned to Arizona as third base coach in 2016.

Williams played 17 seasons in the majors with San Francisco (1987-96), Cleveland (1997) and Arizona (1998-2003). He was a .268 career hitter with 378 home runs and 1218 RBI in 1866 games. A five-time All-Star (1990, 94-96, 99), Williams also won four Gold Gloves (1991, 93-94, 97) and four Louisville Silver Slugger Awards (1990, 93-94, 97) at third base. He played in three World Series with three different teams (Giants, 1989; Indians, 1997; D-backs, 2001) and became the first player to hit at least one World Series homer with three different clubs.

Williams was selected by the Giants with the third overall pick in the 1986 June Draft out of the University of Nevada Las Vegas. He made his Major League debut the following season at the age of 21 and led the NL with 122 RBI in his first full season in 1990. Williams finished second in NL Most Valuable Player voting in the strike-shortened 1994 season after batting .267 with a league-leading 43 home runs along with 96 RBI in 112 games. He was traded to Cleveland following the 1996 season and was dealt to Arizona following the 1997 season. His best season with the Diamondbacks came in 1999 when he hit .303 with 35 home runs and a career-high 142 RBI in 154 games.

Following his playing career, Williams was a member of the Diamondbacks broadcast team from 2005-09, serving as a color analyst on select broadcasts on FOX Sports Arizona and Arizona Sports 620. He also had a 33-game stint as interim manager with Mobile of the Southern League in 2007 and guided Salt River to the Arizona Fall League Eastern Division titles in 2012. Williams returned to television in 2017 as a pregame and postgame analyst for NBC Sports Bay Area on Giants broadcasts.

Williams and his wife, Erika, reside in Scottsdale and have four children: Alysha, Jacob, Madison and Rachael. His son Jacob was selected by Arizona in the 49th round of the 2011 First-Year Player Draft.
