A's Shortstop Marcus Semien to Visit "Opening Day" Babies at Alta Bates Summit Medical Center on Tuesday, April 4

WHAT:

A's shortstop Marcus Semien and A's mascot Stomper will visit "Opening Day" babies at the Alta Bates Summit Medical Center, tomorrow, April 4, from noon to 1 p.m.

Semien and Stomper will welcome the newborns to the Oakland A's family. All babies born on Opening Day, April 3, will receive an A's-themed newborn gift set (onesie, pacifier and bib) and tickets to the A's 2018 Opening Day.

Sutter Health's Alta Bates Summit Medical Center delivers a kindergarten class of babies each day – the pioneers of tomorrow are likely in their care today. Sutter Health is a proud partner of the Oakland A's and together will offer in-stadium nursing suites for moms for the first time this season. The Sutter Health nursing suites offer a clean, comfortable and private place for mothers to breast feed or pump.

WHEN:

Tuesday, April 4
12 – 1 p.m.

WHERE:

Alta Bates Summit Medical Center
2450 Ashby Avenue
Berkeley, 94705

Please park in the main parking garage at Alta Bates as they will provide parking validation.
