Oakland A's to Welcome More Than 3,000 North Bay Residents for North Bay Day on June 10

Fans affected by the 2017 Northern California fires received complimentary tickets

OAKLAND, Calif. – The Oakland A's will welcome more than 3,000 North Bay residents to the Oakland Coliseum on Sunday, June 10, as part of North Bay Day. The team offered fans who were affected by the 2017 Northern California fires complimentary tickets for the 1:05 p.m. game versus the Kansas City Royals.

The Oakland Fire Department will serve as the color guard during the pregame ceremony. Jerry Walters, the father of late Oakland firefighter Jake Walters, and Reece Wisler, a fan affected by the 2017 Northern California fires, will each throw out a ceremonial first pitch.

The day also serves as Firefighter Appreciation Day, and the team will recognize firefighters and first responders prior to the game. Fans with a Firefighter Appreciation Day special ticket – available at athletics.com/firefighters – will receive an A's Firefighter Day T-shirt when they enter the ballpark through A Gate.

Fans who registered for tickets for North Bay Day can pick up their tickets on the BART Plaza beginning at 11:05 a.m. on Sunday, June 10. They should arrive with their guests and have a photo ID ready. After picking up tickets, fans can enter the ballpark through the LL or MM gates. Fans who arrive after the 1:05 p.m. begins can claim their tickets at Will Call.
