A's Place LHP Anderson on Paternity List; Recall OF Martini from Las Vegas

OAKLAND, Calif. – The Oakland A's placed left-handed pitcher Brett Anderson on the paternity list and recalled outfielder Nick Martini from Triple-A Las Vegas, the club announced today.

Anderson is 9-5 with a 3.82 ERA and .253 opponents batting average in 20 starts with Oakland. His nine wins are tied for 10th in the American League and are two more than his combined total from the previous three seasons. Anderson has his most wins, starts and innings pitched (115.0) since 2015 with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Martini is batting .343 with four home runs and 33 RBI in 54 games with the Aviators. He has also walked 37 times for a .443 on-base percentage. The 29-year-old left-handed hitter began the season on the Oakland injured list with a sprained right knee but was reinstated from the IL and optioned to Las Vegas on May 28. Martini began his rehab assignment May 8 and he ranks second in the Pacific Coast League in on-base percentage, seventh in batting average and tied for eighth in walks over that span. He has made 39 starts on defense, all in left field. Martini is batting .457 with runners in scoring position, including .632 with RISP and two outs.

The complete 2019 statistics for Martini follow:
