Oakland A's to Broadcast 162 Games this Season on Bloomberg 960 AM Spanish-language broadcasts will be available for 60 regular season home games

OAKLAND, Calif. – The Oakland A's today announced that all 162 regular season games will be broadcast on Bloomberg 960 AM during the 2021 season, which is set to begin on Thursday, April 1. Every A's game this season will also be broadcast on A's Cast on iHeartRadio, the Club's 24/7 audio streaming station and official home of A's audio content. The A's Cast station is free for fans in the Bay Area and can be accessed in one click at athletics.com/AsCast. Fans outside of the Bay Area can access on-demand content, including the pre and postgame shows, for free at athletics.com/AsCast.

Ken Korach will return for his 26th season with the A's and his 16th as the team's lead radio announcer, pairing with Vince Cotroneo, who will begin his 16th season with the Club. Ray Fosse will also make special appearances throughout the season.

The A's daily live sports talk show, A's Cast Live, hosted by Chris Townsend, will air prior to the start of every weekday evening game this season. Fans can also listen to the A's Total Access Pregame Show with Chris Townsend one hour before first pitch, plus the A's Clubhouse Postgame Show immediately following every game.

A's games can be heard on 960 AM and KOSF-HD2 FM 103.7. A's fans outside the Bay Area can continue to catch games on the A's Radio Network, which includes KHTK–AM 1140 in Sacramento and 12 additional radio affiliates throughout Northern California.

Spanish-language broadcasts will be available for 60 of the A's home games this season on KIQI (1010 AM, San Francisco) and KATD (990 AM, Pittsburg). Amaury Pi-González returns for his 28th season with the A's and 44th season overall in MLB; he will be joined by Manolo Hernández-Douen, who will begin his 13th season as an A's analyst.

During Spring Training, weekend home games (March 14, March 27) will be available to fans on Bloomberg 960 AM; all remaining Spring Training games, including home and road games, will be available on A's Cast.
