OAKLAND ATHLETICS HOMESTAND HIGHLIGHTS HOUSTON ASTROS (APRIL 1-4) & LOS ANGELES DODGERS (APRIL 5-7)

OPENING NIGHT: The A's will welcome fans back to the Oakland Coliseum for the first time since the 2019 season. Dr. Matthew Zavod will perform the national anthem.

FANS RETURN: The A's are planning for limited capacity that will follow guidelines set forth by the State and local health officials. Current capacity is set at 12,188 fans seated in physically distanced pods of two or four seats at six feet apart, and suite capacity of six people. Gates open one hour before first pitch.

HEALTH & SAFETY PROTOCOLS: A number of policies and protocols will be in place to ensure the health and safety of fans, employees, and vendors, including: physically distanced seating; required face coverings; mobile-only ticketing via the MLB Ballpark app; cashless transactions; contactless ordering for concessions; all social spaces, including The Treehouse, A's Stomping Ground, Shibe Park Tavern, and Championship Plaza, will be closed; hand sanitizing stations throughout the ballpark; and health screenings for full-time employees and event staff. To learn more about the A's protocols, visit athletics.com/safety.

CASH-FREE BALLPARK: The Coliseum will be a cash-free ballpark in 2021. Fans can use major credit cards and debit cards for food and drink purchases via the MLB Ballpark app, and merchandise purchases in the two Team Stores. Debit cards will be available for purchase using cash at a limited number of locations inside the stadium.

CONCESSION ORDERING: Fans can order and pay for food and beverages via the MLB Ballpark app on their mobile devices. QR codes will be visible around the Coliseum for quick on-site download and use. In-seat delivery is available for beer, water and snacks. Fans can order from more than 30 concession stands from their mobile device in their seats. Once your order is ready, proceed to the concession location for contactless pickup. For more information, visit athletics.com/mobileorder.

BAG AND FOOD POLICY: Bags are allowed for games and must be smaller than 16"x16"x8", with the exception of diaper bags. Fans are also permitted to bring in their own food and beverages (with the exception of cans, glass bottles, and alcohol) into the Coliseum for games.

PARKING: On-site parking will be available in the South Parking lots only due to the Vaccination Center in the North lots. Parking will be $30 and cashless payments are required for all purchases. Parking gates will open 90 minutes before first pitch. Tailgating will not be allowed. Visit athletics.com/transportation for more information.

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION: BART will provide additional trains after regular BART service ends for fans departing A's night games at the Coliseum. The additional trains will be long trains to ensure physical distancing. Masks are required while riding. Please visit athletics.com/transportation for the train schedule.

VACCINATION CENTER: The Oakland Community Vaccination Center (CVC) at the Coliseum has dispensed 249,954 doses of the COVID vaccine as of Wednesday, March 24. The Oakland CVC will continue to operate during home game days.

A's TV COVERAGE: The A's will broadcast all 162 regular season games during the 2021 season, including 159 games on NBC Sports California, beginning with the A's Opening Day game on April 1 at 7:07 p.m. PT against the Houston Astros. The remaining games will be broadcast on FS1 (April 10, May 15, July 17) and FOX (July 3).

A's AUDIO COVERAGE: Every regular season game will be broadcast on Bloomberg 960 AM and KOSF-HD2 FM 103.7. A's fans outside the Bay Area can continue to catch games on the A's Radio Network, which includes KHTK-AM 1140 in Sacramento and 12 additional radio affiliates throughout Northern California. All A's games can also be heard on A's Cast on iHeartRadio, the Club's 24/7 audio streaming station and official home of A's audio content. The A's Cast station is free for fans in the Bay Area and can be accessed in one click at athletics.com/AsCast.

SPANISH-LANGUAGE BROADCASTS: Spanish-language radio broadcasts will be available for 60 of the A's home games this season on KIQI (1010 AM, San Francisco) and KATD (990 AM, Pittsburg).
