BATTLE BY THE (EAST) BAY: The Dodgers, who had their three-game winning streak snapped last night, look for a series split with the Athletics following last night's 5-4 loss in 10 innings. Los Angeles will spend the evening in the Bay Area before flying to Houston tomorrow to continue their eight-game, 11-day road trip (0-1) with a three-game series this weekend at Minute Maid Park. The road trip concludes with three games in Cincinnati next week.

- LA Los Angeles opens the road trip with five consecutive Interleague games (0-1) and has gone 8-5 against the American League this year, including sweeps of the Mariners and Angels at Dodger Stadium.
- LA The Dodgers have dropped two of three against the A's this year and have a 2-13 all-time record at the O.co Coliseum, including seven consecutive losses. It's their longest-ever losing streak at an American League ballpark, with their last win at Oakland coming on July 14, 2001.
- LA Los Angeles has gone 19-12 (.613) in day games this season.
- LA The Oakland connections in the Dodger traveling party extend from the players - Oakland native Jimmy Rollins and former Athletics players Alberto Callaspo, Brandon McCarthy, Jim Johnson and Brett Anderson - to former A's on the coaching staff (Mark McGwire, Rick Honeycutt and Davey Lopes) to the executive suite and General Manager Farhan Zaidi, who spent 10 seasons in the Oakland front office. Dodger broadcaster Rick Monday also played six years for the Athletics, including two seasons in Kansas City and the club's inaugural four years in Oakland.

KNOCK ON WOOD: Alex Wood will make his fourth start as a Dodger after picking up his first victory with Los Angeles last Friday against the Reds. Wood was victorious in the only start of his career against the A's, allowing two runs on four hits in 6.0 innings in the Braves' 7-2 win on Aug. 15, 2014 at Turner Field, and has a 1.99 ERA (13 ER/58.1 IP) in 13 career Interleague games (eight starts).

LOS ANGELES LEGEND: Andre Ethier, who was originally selected by the A's in the second round of the 2003 First-Year Player Draft out of Arizona State University before being acquired by the Dodgers on Dec. 13, 2005 in the Milton Bradley trade, has hit safely in his last seven games and has posted a .395/.435/.698 slashline in his last 14 games since July 29, going 17-for-43 with five doubles, a triple, two homers and six RBI in that span.

- LA Ethier has continued his ascent up on the all-time Los Angeles lists, ranking in the Top 10 in games (1,380, 8th - next: Scioscia, 1,441), runs (626, 10th - next: Gilliam, 630), hits (1,327, 7th - next: Cey, 1,378), doubles (295, 4th, next: Karros, 302), home runs (157, 9th, next: Green, 162) and RBI (668, 5th, next: Cey, 842).

HAPPY HAPPY: The Dodgers would like to wish a very happy 59th birthday to third base coach Ron Roenicke! Roenicke, who joined the coaching staff on Monday, will coach third base for the remainder of the season after managing the Brewers to a 342-331 record from 2011-15, before being replaced in May. The Southern California native was an outfielder in the Majors from 1981-88, including parts of three seasons with the Dodgers (1981-83). Before being named the Brewers' skipper prior to the 2011 campaign, Roenicke was a longtime coach for the Angels, serving as their third base (2000-05) and bench coach (2006-10).
