HIGH FIVE: The Chicago Cubs last night collected their fifth-straight win with a 7-2 victory in Oakland, the start of a quick three-game weekend road trip to the Bay Area ... the win improved Chicago's major league best record to 67-41 and moved the club 26 games above .500, one game shy of their high water mark for the year.

- © With 108 games in the books, the Cubs have completed two-thirds of their season with a 67-41 record, which puts the club on pace for a 100-win campaign the Cubs have started a season 67-41 through 108 games for the first time since also starting 67-41 in 1969.
- © Following this weekend's jaunt, the Cubs return home to an off day before starting a 10-game homestand against the Los Angeles Angels, St. Louis Cardinals and Milwaukee Brewers, capping a run following the All Star Break that sees the Cubs play 24 of 32 games at Wrigley Field.

21-GAME SALUTE: The Cubs are 15-6 in their last 21 contests dating to July 10 following a stretch in which the team was 6-15 in 21 games from June 19 to July 9  $\dots$ the Cubs have the best record in all of baseball starting July 10.

© Chicago pitching has recorded a 2.61 ERA (55 ER/189.1 IP) in its last 21 games, including a 2.94 ERA (43 ER/131.2 IP) from the starters and a 1.87 ERA (12 ER/57.2 IP) from the bullpen ... in the previous 21 games, the team had a  $5.60\,$ ERA (117 ER/188.0 IP), including a 5.72 ERA (71 ER/111.2 IP) from the starters and a 5.42 mark (46 ER/76.1 IP) from the bullpen.

ONE HECK OF A CALENDAR YEAR: Cubs starting pitcher Jake Arrieta has gone 23-5 with a 1.82 ERA (45 ER/222.2 IP) in 33 starts since the beginning of last August ... he leads the majors in wins, is second in ERA (Clayton Kershaw, 1.68) and by far has allowed the lowest slugging percentage against of any pitcher in this span at .241 (Kershaw is next closest with a .257 slugging percentage against).

© In the last calendar year, Arrieta has won three N.L. Pitcher of the Month Awards (August 2015, September 2015, April 2016), thrown two no-hitters and won one Cy Young Award.

YOU GO, WE GO: Dexter Fowler's leadoff home run last night was the 19th of his career and his fifth this season ... Fowler has now hit 10 home runs to lead off a game in his two seasons with the Cubs after hitting a total of nine home runs to lead off a game in his first seven big league campaigns prior to Chicago.

- $\ensuremath{\mathbb{C}}$  The Cubs are 21-4 when Fowler reaches base safely at least twice in a game ... the team is 34-8 when Fowler scores at least one run.
- Fowler has scored a run in seven-straight games (10 runs total), his longest such streak since an eight-game run in 2012.

HEAD WEST, YOUNG MEN: Remarkably, this trip to play the A's marks the first time the Cubs have been west of Chicago in over two full months since series in San Francisco and St. Louis, May 20-25 ... including this series against the A's, Chicago's next two road trips are against teams out West ... Chicago's following trip is a nine-gamer at Colorado, San Diego and Los Angeles, August 19-28.

 $\ensuremath{\mathbb{C}}$  The flight to Oakland following Wednesday's game was Chicago's first team flight since finishing the "first half" of the season, July 10 in Pittsburgh ...

Chicago emerged from the All-Star break with 14 of its first 19 games at home, with the five road contests needing just short bus rides to Milwaukee against the Brewers and to the south side of Chicago against the White Sox.

INTERLEAGUE INTERLUDE: Chicago is 14-7 in its last 21 interleague games dating to July 12, 2015, including a 9-4 record this season ... the Cubs have played 308 interleague games and have posted a 149-159 (.484) record ... that includes 66-85 record on the road.

© Cubs designated hitters have batted .143 (3-for-21) with a homer and five RBI in four games this season ... all told, Cubs DHs have recorded a .272 average (163-for-600) with 26 homers and 105 RBI in 151 interleague road games.

DISCERNING EYES: The Cubs have averaged nearly four walks per game since the All-Star break, collecting 78 free passes in 20 games .. their 78 free passes in the season's "second half" rank second in the majors, three behind Milwaukee ... Chicago has drawn at least five walks in eight games since the break, going 8-0 in those contests.

- © On the season, Chicago leads the majors with 453 walks, well ahead of Toronto, who is second with 418 walks ... the next-closest N.L. team is Milwaukee, who has drawn 400 free passes.
- © Ben Zobrist ranks fifth in the N.L. with 62 walks and Anthony Rizzo is tied for sixth with 58 free passes.

QUITE THE DIFFERENCE: Chicago's +176 run differential is its season high and by far the highest in the majors ... Washington is second at +140 ... the Cubs have allowed the fewest runs in the majors (373) while plating the third-most in the majors (549) behind only the Red Sox (593) and Rockies (560).

© Chicago last had a run differential greater than +176 following their final game of the 2008 campaign (+184) ... thanks to Ed Hartig.

HAVING HIMSELF A SEASON: Kyle Hendricks on Monday tossed his second career shutout and lowered his season ERA to 2.22, secondbest in the majors behind only the Dodgers Clayton Kershaw (1.79) ... he's allowed three or fewer earned runs in each of his last 13 starts dating to May 22, posting a 1.63 ERA (15 ER/82.2 IP) in those outings.

IN THE BULLPEN: Via Fangraphs, the Cubs have five pitchers in the bullpen with an average fastball velocity of at least 94 miles per hour this season: Aroldis Chapman (100.1), Hector Rondon (95.9), Carl Edwards Jr. (95.1), Pedro Strop (94.8) and Justin Grimm (94.3).

© Travis Wood has stranded 27 of 30 inherited runners, good for a 90.0 percent success rate, third-best in the N.L. San Francisco's Josh Osich leads with a 95.0 percent success rate (38/40) ... Wood is tied for fifth in the majors with 53 appearances this season, three behind the major league leaders.

THAT'S A DYNAMIC DUO: Kris Bryant is tied for third in the N.L. with 26 home runs while teammate Anthony Rizzo is seventh with 24 ... Bryant's 26 homers equal the amount he hit during his 2015 N.L. Rookie of the Year campaign ... the two have combined for 108 of Chicago's 347 extra-base hits ... Rizzo's 57 extra-base hits are second in the N.L. while Bryant's 51 extra-base hits rank 10th.

IT WOULD BE ACCURATE TO SAY HE'S RAKING: Anthony Rizzo has hit safely in 48 of his last 58 contests since May 29 ... he's batted .332 (71-for-214) with 21 doubles, two triples, 13 homers and 44 RBI in those last 58 games, and his 36 extra-base hits are tied for second most in the majors, one behind Minnesota's Brian Dozier.

© Rizzo has 79 RBI this season, fourth in the N.L. and seventh in the majors ... his 79 RBI prior to August 1 are the most by a Cub through the end of July since Derrek Lee had 83 RBI through July of 2005.

ON THE RECORD: At 67-41, the Cubs have the best record in the majors yet are just two games over .500 in their last 54 games starting June 5 (28-26) ... however, the Cubs have lost no ground in the division in that time, entering today with a 9.5-game lead just as they did when this stretch began ... going back a bit further, the Cubs have actually seen their division lead grow from 5.0 games on May 24 to 9.5 games today.
