Oakland A's to Host Open House for Community Members & Fans

Thursday, Nov. 29 from 4 to 6 pm at 55 Harrison St. in Oakland

OAKLAND, Calif. — The A's will host an Open House tomorrow, Thursday, Nov. 29, from 4 to 6 p.m. for community members and fans to learn about the Club's intent to build a ballpark at Howard Terminal and redevelop the Oakland Coliseum site.

The Open House will feature informational stations about the two projects where Club representatives will discuss the vision and proposed plans with the community and answer questions. The Open House programming will repeat at 4:30, 5, and 5:30 p.m., with A's President Dave Kaval speaking about the two projects to those in attendance during each session.

The event is open to both media and the public, and will take place on the first floor of Oakland A's Headquarters at 55 Harrison St. in Oakland. The entrance to the building is located on Water Street.
