A's Spanish Web Site to Again Feature Pi-González Blog

Fans Encouraged to Post Questions to Oakland's Veteran Radio Play-by-Play Man

OAKLAND, Calif. – For the second consecutive season, the Oakland A's Spanish language web site, www.losatleticos.com, will feature the insightful and entertaining blog entitled "En El Aire," which is written by the club's veteran Spanish radio play-by-play broadcaster Amaury Pi-González.

A's fans are encouraged to post questions about the 2010 A's on the blog, which Pi-González will personally answer. Entering his 32nd season of broadcasting Major League Baseball, Pi-González will again serve as the "Spanish Voice of the A's" for all Oakland games aired over the Spanish Beisbol Network on radio stations KDIA (1640 AM) and KDYA (1190 AM) this season. The Cuban native was inducted into the Cuban Sports Hall of Fame and into the Hispanic Heritage Baseball Museum in 2004.

Pi-González is again joined in the broadcast booth by Manolo Hernández-Douen, one of the leading sportswriters among Spanish media in the United States.
