A's Reinstate Bailey from DL; Option Cramer to Sacramento

OAKLAND, Calif. – The Oakland A's reinstated right-handed pitcher Andrew Bailey from the 15-day disabled list and optioned left-handed pitcher Bobby Cramer to Triple-A Sacramento, the club announced today.

Bailey was placed on the disabled list March 30 retroactive to March 22 with a strained right forearm. He began a rehab assignment with Sacramento May 20 and did not allow an earned run in four outings. Bailey yielded three hits, walked a batter and hit two in 4.0 innings. He appeared in just two games this spring, tossing a scoreless inning March 10 against Kansas City and allowing two unearned runs in 0.1 innings March 14 at Cleveland before leaving the game early with his injury.

Cramer was recalled from Sacramento Friday for his second stint with the A's this year but did not appear in a game. He was on the A's Opening Day roster, posting a loss and a 2.45 ERA in three relief appearances before he was optioned to Sacramento April 25. Cramer was placed into the River Cats starting rotation, compiling no decisions and a 4.60 ERA in four starts before he was going on the disabled list May 15 with a strained oblique muscle.
