A's Reinstate Tyson Ross from the DL and Option him to Sacramento

OAKLAND, Calif. – The Oakland A's reinstated right-handed pitcher Tyson Ross from the 15-day disabled list and optioned him to Triple-A Sacramento, the club announced today.

Ross began the season at Sacramento but did not appear in a game before he was called up by the A's April 6. He posted a 3.60 ERA in three relief appearances before moving into the starting rotation April 22. Ross then went 2-2 with a 2.61 ERA in six starts before he was placed on the DL May 20 with a strained left oblique. He made a total of four rehab starts, including three with Sacramento and one with Single-A Stockton, and was a combined 0-1 with a 13.50 ERA (14 er in 9.1 ip) and .413 (19 for 46) opponents batting average. Ross was 3-3 with a 2.75 ERA in nine games, six starts, with Oakland.

The A's now have just two players on the disabled list, marking the first time since the end of the 2006 season that Oakland has fewer than three players on the DL.
