A's Reinstate RHP Petit from FMEL; Option RHP Lucas to Triple-A Nashville Athletics Also Reinstate C Josh Phegley from the DL and Option him to Nashville

OAKLAND, Calif. – The Oakland A's reinstated right-handed pitcher Yusmeiro Petit from the family medical emergency list and optioned right-handed pitcher Josh Lucas to Triple-A Nashville, the club announced today. The Athletics also reinstated catcher Josh Phegley from the 10-day disabled list and optioned him Nashville.

Petit had a 3.00 ERA and .265 opponents batting average in 10 games with the A's before he was placed on the FMEL on Tuesday. He has not walked a batter in 12.0 innings and his innings pitched are the most in the majors among pitchers with no walks.

Lucas was recalled from Nashville yesterday and pitched 3.0 scoreless innings last night against Boston, allowing two hits and walking one. He was acquired from St. Louis on March 31 for minor league right-handed pitcher Casey Meisner and had one save and did not allow a run or a hit in four games and 4.2 innings with the Sounds.

Phegley began the season on the disabled list after fracturing the fourth and fifth fingers on his right hand during spring training. He started a rehab assignment with Single-A Stockton April 10 and went 1-for-7 (.143) with a RBI in two games at designated hitter before he was moved up to Nashville April 13. He hit .167 with a double and a RBI in six games with the Sounds.
