POSTSEASON APPEARANCES: The Astros are making their 14th appearance in the postseason in club history in what is the 59th year of the franchise that began in 1962...this season marks the fourth in club history for the Astros to enter the postseason as a non-division winner, previously doing so as a Wild Card winner in 2004, 2005 and in 2015.

FOUR STRAIGHT: The Astros secured their post-season spot by finishing second in the AL West...this appearance gives Houston four straight years in the playoffs, the first time they've done so in franchise history...only the Yankees and Dodgers have also played in the last four postseasons...Houston has also made the postseason in five of the last six years.

HOME COOKIN': The Astros did most of their damage this season at Minute Maid Park, evidenced by their 20-8 (.714) home record, the second-best in the Majors...this will also go down as the second-best home winning percentage in a single season in club history, trailing only the 2019 Astros and their 60-21 (.741) home record...the Astros only played 28 home games in 2020 due to a pair of postponements.

AT THE HELM: Astros Manager Dusty Baker, named to his position on Jan. 29, has become the first manager in MLB history to take five different teams to the postseason...Baker also managed the Giants (1997, 2000, 2002), Cubs (2003), Reds (2010, 2012-13) and Nationals (2016-17) into the playoffs...in his career, Baker has amassed 1,892 managerial victories in the regular season, which ranks 15th all time, immediately trailing Hall of Famer Bill McKechnie (1,896).

LOCKED UP: On July 28, the Astros exercised the 2021 contract options for Manager Dusty Baker, third base coach Gary Pettis and pitching coach Brent Strom...Baker will return for his second season in Houston, while Pettis will be entering his seventh consecutive (2015-21) and Strom his eighth (2014-21).

GET WELL GARY: On Sept. 26, the Astros announced that third base coach Gary Pettis had been diagnosed with multiple myeloma...he will be sidelined through the 2020 season, but is expected to make a full recovery...Pettis last coached third base in a game for the Astros on Sept. 15 before being sidelined with hip discomfort...tests conducted to find out the cause of the discomfort led to the diagnosis of multiple myeloma.

IN THE BOX: This is the first postseason appearance for the Astros under General Manager James Click, who was named the 13th GM in club history on Feb. 3...Click joined the Astros from Tampa, where he served as the Rays VP of Baseball Operations.

ROOKIE HURLERS: The Astros matched the Marlins by using an MLB-high 15 rookie pitchers in 2020, including five rookie starters...of those 15 rookies, 10 made their Major League debuts...prior to this season, the most rookies to pitch for the Astros in a single season in club history was 13 back in 2011.

LIMITING K'S: Astros hitters combined for the fewest strikeouts in the Majors with 440 on the season...this is a commonplace for this group of Astros, as the club had the fewest strikeouts in the AL in 2017 and 2019, while finishing with the second fewest in 2018.

QUICK STARTS: The Astros led the AL in 1st-inning runs, posting a healthy 47 runs in their 1st innings, besting the Yankees (42) and Mariners (42) in that category...CF George Springer was the catalyst for this, posting a 1.008 OPS in his 50 1st-inning plate appearances this season, which included three leadoff homers.

MARCH TO 2,000: The Astros finished the 2020 regular season having hit exactly 2,000 home runs in Minute Maid Park history, including 1,938 in regular season action and 62 in the postseason...Houston got there by virtue of OF George Springer, who hit No. 1999 and No. 2000 in the club's final home game of 2020...unsurprisingly, Springer also hit home run No. 1500 at the stadium in the 2016 season...the final two homers for Springer gave him 79 in his career at MMP, which ranks tied for third all-time in stadium history.
