RECENT RESULTS: Detroit completed the sweep in Houston last night, hanging on for a victory in the finale by a 6-4 margin. Michael Fulmer earned his first win since June 14, 2018, making the start and tossing 5.0 innings, while allowing two earned runs on three hits and a walk, with two strikeouts. Buck Farmer, Alex Lange, Gregory Soto and Bryan Garcia each came out of the bullpen and didn't allow an earned run, helping the Tigers hang on with what ended up being a two-run win. In the batters box, Robbie Grossman and Jeimer Candelario each had multiple hits and combined for three RBI, while Wilson Ramos, Akil Baddoo and Niko Goodrum also drove in runs.

ROSTER MOVES: Prior to tonight's game in Oakland, Detroit placed OF Nomar Mazara on the 10-day injured list with a left abdominal strain. As a corresponding move, RHP Joe Jiménez has been recalled from the club's taxi squad.

THE LONG ROAD BACK: Michael Fulmer had a solid start last night in the series finale against the Astros, tossing 5.0 innings and allowing two earned runs on three hits and a walk. Allowed a two-run homer with two outs in the fifth inning, otherwise shutting down the Houston offensive attack. It marked Fulmer's first start of more than 3.0 innings since September 9, 2018, after starting this season working from the bullpen and making short appearances in 2020, working his way back to full strength following elbow surgery. Not only was the result good last night, but the stuff he was throwing stood out as well. Fulmer's sinker averaged 95.4 MPH and topped out at 97.3 MPH, both of which were the highest he's seen since that start on September 9, 2018.

STARTING TO SEE A TREND: Fulmer's outing was the latest in a line of positive results from Tigers starting pitchers. Over the last four games played, Detroit starting pitchers have allowed two-or-fewer earned runs, including José Ureña (two ER on April 11 at CLE), Casey Mize (zero ER on April 12 at HOU) and Matthew Boyd (one ER on April 13 at HOU). Those starts combine for a 1.93 ERA (23.1IP/5ER), on 16 hits and nine walks, while striking out 15 batters.

FIRING ON ALL CYLINDERS: Scoring six-plus runs in three consecutive road games for the first time since September 18-22, 2016, the Tigers are pounding the ball in rare form. Most of the offensive power in the first two games of the Houston series came via the longball, with 12-of-14 runs being plated via home run. Last night, Detroit was able to win in a different style, plating six runs on eight hits and three doubles, with five walks and no home runs. The Tigers have 19 home runs through the first 12 games this season, which ranks tied for second in the Major Leagues (first, Cincinnati with 20) and tied for first in the American League with the Astros. On average since 2010, Detroit has hit 12.8 home runs in the team's first 12 games of the season, with this year's total being the second highest single-season total outside of last year's impressive count of 21.

WE'RE ON TO OAKLAND: Following this week's clean sweep of the Astros, Detroit heads west to take on Oakland for a four-game set. Off to a 3-0 start against American League West opponents so far this year, Detroit has a chance to record an above-.500 record vs. the division for the first time since 2014 (18-16).

Detroit didn't face AL West teams last year due to the shortened and regionalized schedule. The Athletics took six-of-seven games against the Tigers when the two clubs last faced each other in 2019, including all four games in Detroit and two out of three in Oakland.

NOTES ON A.J. HINCH: A.J. Hinch was named the 39th manager in Detroit Tigers history on October 30, 2020. *Enters tonight's game with a 6-6 (.500) record as the Tigers manager and 576-458 (.557) career record... he leads active Major League managers (min. seven seasons) in career win percentage.

*Has a history with Detroit's opponent this series, as he was drafted out of Stanford University by Oakland in the third round of the 1996 MLB Draft. Hinch went on to play 202 games for the Athletics in three seasons, posting a combined .225/.284/.342 slashline, with 16 home runs and 59 RBI.

TAXI SQUAD MEMBERS: The Tigers currently have four players on the taxi squad for this road trip.

- RHP Kyle Funkhouser
- RHP Erasmo Ramírez
- INF Zack Short
- C Dustin Garneau

TIGERS ON THE IL: INF/DH Miguel Cabrera (left biceps strain, 10-day IL on April 11); RHP Rony García (abdominal strain, 10-day IL on April 1, retroactive to March 29); OF Nomar Mazara (left abdominal strain, 10-day IL on April 15); RHP Julio Teheran (right shoulder strain, 60-day IL on April 10, retroactive to April 7); RHP Spencer Turnbull (IL on March 29)

COMING SOON - MAY TICKETS ON SALE: Starting Friday at 10:00 a.m., fans can purchase tickets to enjoy Tigers baseball at Comerica Park during May games. Next month's home opponents include the Cubs and Yankees, in addition to divisional foes in the Twins, Royals and Indians. Tickets start as low as $10, and are available in limited quantities with the ballpark's capacity running at approximately 20% due to health and safety protocols. # TONIGHT'S TIGERS STARTER

Tarik Skubal - LHP

Height: 6-3 • Weight: 215 lbs. • Age: 24
 Draft: 2018 9th round (Detroit)
 College: Seattle University
 Birthplace: Hayward, CA
 Residence: Chandler, AZ

Tonight's Start at Oakland

- The Bay Area native will make his third start of the season in tonight's series opener at Oakland...the start will also mark his first career appearance against the Athletics and against any team from the American League West.
- Took the loss in his last start on Saturday at Cleveland, allowing six runs on five hits with three walks and three strikeouts...surrendered a career-high three homers, while he equaled his career high in runs allowed.
- Through his first two starts, has thrown his slider on 29 percent of his pitches, almost double his rate of 15.7 percent from 2020... has also utilized the splitter for the first time in the regular season, accounting for 9.3 percent of his pitches thrown.

2021 Regular Season

- Made the team out of Spring Training, marking the first time he was on an Opening Day roster at the big league level.
- Turned in a solid outing in his season debut on April 4 against the Indians, throwing 5.1 innings and allowing two runs on four hits with two walks and four strikeouts.

Career Notes

- Recently graduated from prospect status...prior to his graduation, he ranked as the club's No. 4 prospect and the 24th-best in all of baseball, per MLB Pipeline...the service also ranks Detroit's farm system as a whole as the second-strongest in baseball.
- Made the first eight appearances of his career in 2020, including seven starts...posted a 1-4 record and 5.63 ERA (32.0IP/20ER), allowing 28 hits and 11 walks, while striking out 37...allowed more than two earned runs in just two of his appearances this season, and struck out six-or-more batters in four of his last five outings to close out his rookie campaign.
- Turned in one of his best starts of the season on September 5 at Minnesota, throwing a career-best 6.0 innings and allowing one run on two hits with two walks and six strikeouts...became the ninth starting pitcher in franchise history to throw 6.0-or-more innings while allowing one run-or-fewer on two-or-fewer hits in one of his first four career starts, and the first to do so since Drew Smyly on April 28, 2012 at New York (AL).
- Posted his second quality start of his rookie season on September 16 vs. Kansas City, allowing three runs, two earned, on four hits with eight strikeouts in 6.0 innings, while taking the loss...became the second pitcher in Tigers history to strike out eight-or-more batters while not issuing a walk in one of his first six career appearances, joining Schoolboy Rowe, who had nine strikeouts without giving up a walk on April 21, 1933 at Cleveland.
- Combined to make 24 starts between Single A Lakeland and Double A Erie in 2019...was named to the Florida State League midseason All-Star Team and was selected an organization All-Star by MiLB.com...ranked third among all full-season Minor League pitchers with 179 strikeouts...had nine double-digit strikeout games during the season.

- Drove in a run with a RBI double in the second inning of last night's game at Houston...with the RBI, has driven in at least one RBI in seven of the first nine games of his career, the second player in franchise history to do so, joining Dale Alexander (1929)...is also the ninth Major League player to begin their career with RBI in seven of their first nine games and the first to do so since Jorge Soler, who had at least one RBI in seven of his first nine games in 2014.
- Belted his fourth home run of the season in Tuesday's game at Houston...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he is the first player in Tigers history to have four home runs in his first eight Major League games and the first big leaguer to have four-or-more homers and 10-or more RBI in his first eight games since Kyle Lewis in 2019.
- Enters tonight's game leading all Major League rookies (min. 25 plate appearances) with four home runs and a .963 slugging percentage, while he is second with a .370 batting average, tied for second with 11 RBI and fifth with a .379 on-base percentage.
- Continued his storybook start to Major League life on April 6, entering the game as a pinch runner in the eighth inning and later coming through with a clutch walk-off single in the 10th...his heroics made him the first Tiger rookie to have a walk-off hit since Dixon Machado on September 18, 2015 vs. Kansas City...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the effort also made him the first player in the Modern Era (since 1900) to have multiple HRs, including a grand slam, and also record a walk-off hit within the first three games of his career.
- Made his second straight start on April 5 vs. Minnesota, going 2x4 with a grand slam in the ninth inning...also hit a homer on April 4 in his Major League debut, becoming the first Tiger in franchise history to hit a home run in each of his first two career games, and fifth to drive in four-or-more runs in either of his first two career games (last, Alex Avila on August 7, 2009).
- Got the start in left field on April 4 against Cleveland, and made his Major League debut with a bang, launching a homer on the first pitch of his first career at-bat...became the ninth Tigers player in franchise history to hit a homer in his first plate appearance, joining Sergio Alcántara (2020) and Daniel Norris (2015) as recent occurrences...prior to Daniel Norris in 2015, the last Tiger to do so was Reggie Sanders in 1974...the last Major Leaguer to hit a homer on the first pitch he's seen was Willson Contreras, who did so with the Cubs in 2016.

- Made eight Grapefruit League outings during Spring Training...after allowing runs in each of his first two appearances, finished spring by not allowing a run in five of his last six outings.
- Was on an Opening Day roster at the Major League level for the second consecutive year.
- Has stood out at limiting free passes since making his Major League debut on July 3, 2019...among hurlers with at least 90.0 innings pitched during that span, he ranked tied for second in the Major Leagues in fewest walks allowed (17) and seventh in walk rate (4.2%).
- Had a historic outing in the first game of the doubleheader on August 2 vs. Cincinnati, tossing 3.2 hitless innings of relief, striking out nine consecutive batters and 10 total...that mark of nine-straight punchouts was the longest such stretch in an outing for a reliever in Major League history, tied an American League record (last, Doug Fister, September 27, 2012 vs. Kansas City) and fell one shy of the Major League record of 10 (Tom Seaver, April 22, 1970 vs. San Diego)...the outing marked the first double-digit punchout performance of his career, topping his previous career high of nine (July 27, 2019 at Seattle).

- Took the mound for his 100th career appearance in the series finale vs. Minnesota on April 7...handled the final six outs of the contest, striking out the side in order in the eighth inning and retiring three straight in the ninth...was a fitting appearance for his 100th, as his length has been an asset since making his Major League debut in 2013 with Houston...that outing last Wednesday was the 29th of his career in which he's thrown multiple innings, over which he's posted a standout 1.69 ERA (58.2IP/11ER) on 47 hits and 15 walks, while striking out 60.
- Made his season debut on Opening Day, working a scoreless inning with a pair of strikeouts...entered with two outs and a runner on first in the sixth inning and successfully stranded the runner...in 2020, he allowed just one of 17 inherited runners to score, giving him the lowest inherited runner score percentage (5.9) in all of baseball among pitchers with at least 17 inherited runners.
- Put together an impressive Spring Training campaign, not allowing a run in seven of his eight appearances.
- Earned a spot on Detroit's Opening Day roster for the second straight season.
- Established himself as a mainstay in the back-end of the Tigers bullpen last season, with all 29 of his appearances coming in the seventh inning-or-later...ranked tied for third among Major League relievers with 29 outings and seventh with 29.2 innings pitched.
- Set career highs in wins (3), holds (6), strikeouts per nine innings (10.31) and career lows in ERA (3.03), WHIP (1.11), FIP (2.63) and walks per nine innings (3.03) in 2020.

- Tossed an inning of work in last night's win at Houston, the first high-leverage appearance in his young career...allowed a leadoff hit, but didn't allow him to score, striking out a pair over the course of the outing...earned his first career hold as a result, becoming the 12th player in franchise history to earn a hold in at least one of his first two big league games (last, Bryan Garcia on September 5, 2019 at Kansas City).
- Was promoted from the taxi squad prior to Saturday's game at Cleveland...was called in to pitch the fifth inning for Detroit, tossing a clean frame of relief for his Major League debut...struck out Franmil Reyes to close out the inning, marking his first big league punchout...was the first Tigers pitcher, and second player overall, to make his big league debut this season (other, Akil Baddoo)...the last Detroit pitcher to throw a scoreless inning of relief in his first Major League game was Bryan Garcia, on September 2, 2019 vs. Minnesota.
- Ranked as the club's 29th-best prospect by MLB Pipeline, he made five outings for Detroit in Spring Training, allowing three earned runs in 4.0 innings pitched...his first three outings (3.1 IP) were scoreless, over which he allowed two combined hits and three walks, while striking out three batters...averaged 95.4 MPH on his fastball this spring, and maxed out at 97.7 MPH.
- Was acquired along with RHP Paul Richan via trade with Chicago (NL), in exchange for Nicholas Castellanos...drafted in the first round (30th overall) of the 2017 MLB Draft, out of Louisiana State University, and has posted a career 11-22 record in the Minor Leagues, with a 4.54 ERA (232.0IP/117ER).
