Farhan Zaidi >>> President of Baseball Operations

Farhan Zaidi enters his fourth season as the President of Baseball Operations for the Giants, joining the organization on November 6, 2018. In his third season at the helm, the team clinched the NL West and the top record in Major League Baseball, finishing the year with a 107-55 record, the best regular season in franchise history - spanning 139 regular seasons of play - surpassing the 1904 New York Giants (106-47-5).

Among the moves that Zaidi and the front office made in 2021 were signing free agent starting pitchers Kevin Gausman (2021 All-Star), Anthony DeSclafani (13 wins) and Alex Wood (3.83 ERA); making key additions to the bullpen in Jake McGee (31 saves), Dominic Leone (1.51 ERA), Jose Alvarez (2.37 ERA) and Zack Littell (2.92 ERA); trading for four-time All-Star Kris Bryant at the trade deadline; and welcoming 2021 Willie Mac Award winner LaMonte Wade Jr. (18 homers, 56 RBI) to the organization in a trade with the Twins last February. Following the season, Zaidi was named MLB's 2021 Executive of the Year along with being named the MLB Executive of the Year by Baseball America. The organization also enjoyed success at the minor league level, with the Low-A San Jose Giants and the High-A Eugene Emeralds each winning their league championships.

In his second year with the Giants in 2020, the team finished one win away from their first playoff berth since 2016. The Giants posted the sixth-best winning percentage among all big-league teams from mid-August on and enjoyed strong campaigns from Zaidi acquisitions Alex Dickerson, Mauricio Dubón, Wilmer Flores, Darin Ruf, Donovan Solano, and Mike Yastrzemski on the offensive side and Jarlín García, Kevin Gausman, and Drew Smyly on the pitching staff.

In Zaidi's first season with the organization in 2019, the Giants won 77 games, a 4-game improvement over 2018, and the farm system had an overall win-loss record of 415-401 (.509), the 11th-best winning percentage of all organizations, a 15-place improvement from the 2018 ranking. Five of seven Giants' stateside affiliates reached the playoffs in 2019, with Sacramento winning the Triple-A National Championship.

Prior to joining the Giants, Zaidi spent four years as the Los Angeles Dodgers' General Manager, joining the club in November 2014. Working alongside President of Baseball Operations Andrew Friedman, Zaidi helped pilot the Dodgers to four consecutive division titles while advancing to the National League Championship Series from 2016-18, and the World Series from 2017-18. The Dodgers posted one of the best seasons in club history in 2017, when the team established a Los Angeles record with a MLB-best 104 wins and won the National League pennant, earning recognition from Baseball America as its Organization of the Year. Los Angeles posted the second-best winning percentage in all of baseball (.584, 379-270) during Zaidi's four-year stint.

Zaidi began his career with the Oakland A's, where he spent 10 seasons from 2005-2014. He began as a baseball operations analyst before being promoted to Director of Baseball Operations in 2009 and Assistant General Manager/Director of Baseball Operations in 2014. During Zaidi's tenure with the A's, the team reached the postseason four times, including three straight seasons from 2012-14.

Before entering baseball, Zaidi served as business development associate for Small World Media, the fantasy sports division of The Sporting News, and worked as a management consultant for the Boston Consulting Group. Zaidi earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Economics from Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1998. While at MIT, he was named a Burchard Scholar and elected to Phi Beta Kappa. He completed his Ph.D in Economics from the University of California, Berkeley in 2011.

In his first two seasons as the GM, the Giants have posted the third-best winning percentage in MLB at .613 (136-86). Only the Dodgers (149-73, .671) and Rays (140-82, .631) have a higher mark in that span.

Harris is the ninth person to hold the title of General Manager for the Giants since the team moved to San Francisco in 1958, joining Chub Feeney (1947-1969), Horace Stoneham (1970-1975), Spec Richardson (1976-1981), Tom Haller (1981-1985), Al Rosen (1986-1992), Bob Quinn (1993-1996), Brian Sabean (1996-2015) and Bobby Evans (2015-2018).

Prior to joining the Giants, Harris spent seven years working in the Chicago Cubs' Baseball Operations department, most recently serving as Assistant General Manager. Under Cubs President Theo Epstein and GM Jed Hoyer, he assisted in all potential player acquisitions, contract and trade negotiations, and player evaluations while overseeing several departments including research and development and high performance.

During his stint in Chicago, the Cubs reached the postseason in four consecutive seasons from 2015-2018 and ended a 108-year World Series drought by beating the Cleveland Indians in 2016.

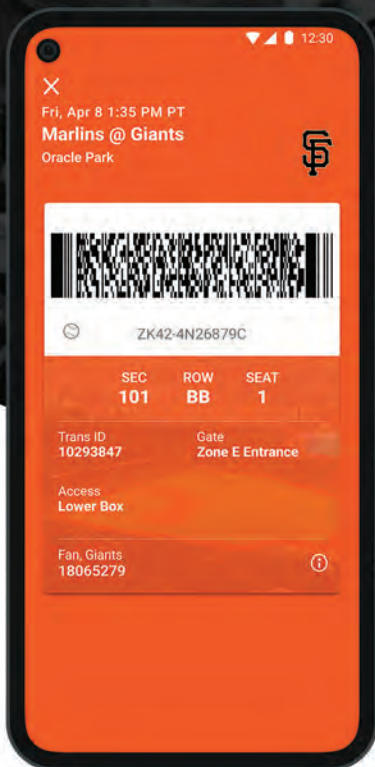

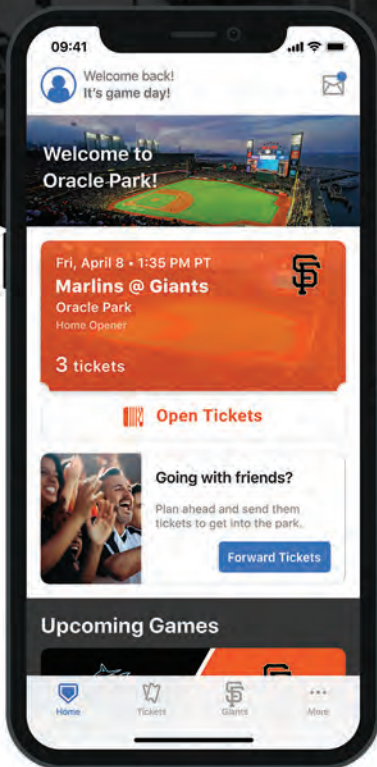

Harris started with the Cubs in 2012 as Director of Baseball Operations after serving two years at Major League Baseball as the league's Coordinator of Major League Operations. With Major League Baseball, he provided transaction support and analysis to all 30 clubs and worked on the First-Year Player Draft, the Rule 5 Draft, the World Baseball Classic and various industry studies within the league office. Harris also worked for the Washington Nationals in 2008 and the Cincinnati Reds in 2010.

A native of Redwood City, California, Harris attended Columbia Business School while working at Major League Baseball and later transferred to Northwestern's Kellogg School of Management to complete his MBA in 2015. He also graduated from UCLA in 2009 with a Bachelor's Degree in Economics and studied at the London School of Economics in 2007.

Gabe Kapler was named the 39th manager in Giants history on November 12, 2019. On November 12, 2021, the Giants extended his contract through the 2024 season after posting a 136-86 (.613) record during his first two seasons at the helm.

In 2021, Kapler was named the National League Manager of the Year after guiding the Giants to a franchise-record 107 wins and their first NL West title since 2012. Kapler joined Dusty Baker (1993, 1997 and 2000) as the only other Giants manager to win the award. He was also named the 2021 Sporting News National League Manager of the Year. Kapler led the Giants to the best overall record in Major League Baseball (107-55) for the first time since 2000.

In his first year as the Giants manager in 2020, Kapler guided the club to a 29-31 (.483) record over the 60-game season that was shortened due to COVID-19. San Francisco finished in third place in the NL West and fell one win shy of making the expanded postseason. It was the team's best winning percentage since finishing 87-75 (.537) in 2016.

Kapler spent the 2018 and 2019 seasons as the manager of the Philadelphia Phillies where he guided them to a 161-163 (.497) combined record. In his first season, 2018, Kapler's Phillies finished 80-82, a 14-win improvement from 2017. The 2019 Phillies finished 81-81, reaching the .500 mark for the first time since 2012.

Prior to joining Philadelphia, Kapler was the Director of Player Development for the Los Angeles Dodgers from November 2014 until he was named the Phillies manager in October 2017. During those three seasons overseeing the Dodgers minor league system (2015-2017), their minor league clubs went a combined 1,299-1,128 (.535) that included eight first-place finishes. The .535 winning percentage over that span was the fourth-best among all Major League teams and the second-best among National League clubs, trailing the Phillies .548 mark. In that span, the Dodgers system produced future Major Leaguers Cody Bellinger, Walker Buehler and Max Muncy along with one of the game's top up and coming players in Gavin Lux.

In 2013, Kapler served as a Coach for Team Israel during the World Baseball Classic qualifiers. From 2011-2013, he served as a Special Assignment Scout for the Tampa Bay Rays. He began his coaching career in 2007, taking a season out of his playing career to serve as the Manager of Class-A Greenville of the South Atlantic League in Boston's minor league system.

As a player, Kapler played in parts of 12 seasons in the Majors from 1998-2010 with Detroit (1998-1999), Texas (2000-2002), Colorado (2002-2003), Boston (2003-2006), Milwaukee (2008) and Tampa Bay (2009-2010). A former 57th-round pick by Detroit in 1995, Kapler batted .268 over 1,104 career games with 176 doubles, 82 home runs and 386 RBI.

He made his Major League debut on September 20, 1998 for Detroit vs. Minnesota, going 1-for-4 with a stolen base. In the minors that season, Kapler was named the Southern League MVP after leading the league in runs (113), hits (176), doubles (47), home runs (28), RBI (146), extra-base hits (81) and total bases (319). USA Today Baseball Weekly and The Sporting News tabbed him as the Minor League Player of the Year for 1998.

In 1999, Kapler established his career high in homers (18), playing in 130 games for the Tigers. Following the 1999 season he was traded to Texas along with LHP Alan Webb, IF Frank Catalanotto, RHP Francisco Cordero, C Bill Haselman and LHP Justin Thompson in exchange for OF Juan Gonzalez, RHP Danny Patterson and C Gregg Zaun.

In 322 career games with Texas from 2000-2002, Kapler batted .280 with 73 doubles, 31 homers and 155 RBI. In his first game with Texas, Opening Day (April 3, 2000), Kapler homered in each of his first two at-bats, becoming the first Ranger in franchise history to homer in each of his first two at-bats with the team. Later that season, he established a Rangers franchise record that still stands today with a 28-game hitting streak from July 17-August 15.

On July 31, 2002, Kapler was traded to Colorado along with OF Jason Romano and cash considerations in exchange for OF Todd Hollandsworth and RHP Dennys Reyes.

In 2004, Kapler played in a career-best 136 games while hitting .272 for the eventual World Champion Boston Red Sox. His playing career also included a 38-game stint for the Yomiuri Giants of the Nippon Professional League in 2005 before returning to Boston later that season.

Outside of coaching and playing, Kapler spent the 2013 season working as an analyst for FS1.

Collegiately, Kapler attended Cal State Fullerton before attending Moorpark College in Moorpark, CA. In 1995, Kapler led Moorpark in home runs and RBI while batting .337 in his one season there. He was later inducted into the Moorpark College Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008.

Kapler makes his offseason home in San Francisco and has two sons, Chase and Dane.

Craig Albernaz embarks on his third season with San Francisco as the club's Bullpen and Catching Coach on Gabe Kapler's staff. In 2021, the Giants' bullpen posted a Major League-leading 2.99 ERA, the lowest ERA posted by a Giants bullpen since 2010 (also 2.99). SF relievers also posted the lowest WHIP (1.13) and allowed the fewest walks (189) of any team in the Majors. The Giants became the second team in MLB history to feature six relievers with at least 50 appearances and an ERA under 3.00 (Jose Alvarez, Jarlín García, Dominic Leone, Zack Littell, Jake McGee and Tyler Rogers).

Albernaz guided the bullpen to a 4.24 ERA in 2020, the fifth-best figure in the National League, including a Major League-best 2.60 ERA and a .206 opponents average over SF's final 36 games of the season.

In 2019, Albernaz served as one of the Minor League Field Coordinators for the Tampa Bay Rays, a club he's spent a majority of his professional career with in both a playing and coaching capacity.

His coaching career began with the Rays in 2015 when he was a Hitting Coach at Rookie-level Princeton before holding the same role with Hudson Valley in 2016. In 2017, he began the season with Triple-A Durham as their Third Base and Catching Coach before managing Short-Season Hudson Valley when their season began. He guided the Renegades to a New York-Penn League championship after finishing the regular season 44-32 and defeating Staten Island in the semifinals two games to one in the best-of-three series. They swept a best-of-three Championship Series with Vermont to claim the crown. The Durham team that he began the 2017 season coaching with also won its championship that season.

In 2018, Albernaz was promoted to Class-A Bowling Green and repeated the feat, guiding the Hot Rods to a Midwest League championship. Bowling Green won a minor-league best 90 games in a campaign that earned him Midwest League Manager of the Year honors. Overall, his club went 90-49 during the regular season before nearly sweeping their way through the playoffs. They went a combined 5-1 in the playoffs, only dropping Game 2 of the Midwest League finals.

As a player, Albernaz spent eight of his nine minor league seasons in the Rays organization as a catcher, reaching as high as Triple-A Durham. He spent one season in the Tigers organization (2014) before moving to the coaching ranks. Over his nine minor league seasons he played in 371 career games and threw out 44 percent of would-be basestealers (145-of-329).

The Giants pitching staff finished the 2021 season with a 3.24 ERA, the second-best figure in the Majors behind the Dodgers (3.01) and issued the fewest amount of walks of any team in the Majors (416). For just the fourth time in franchise history and the first time since 2000, the Giants had five pitchers who made at least 20 starts and each had a win percentage of .500 or better (Cueto, DeSclafani, Gausman, Wood and Webb).

Bailey, 36, served as the Bullpen Coach for the Los Angeles Angels in 2019, his first and only year in the role. In 2019, the Angels bullpen had the second-most wins of any bullpen in the American League (44) while also pitching the second-most innings of any AL bullpen. The bullpen group finished the year with a 4.64 ERA.

In 2018, his first year as a coach after retiring from playing in February, he joined the Angels coaching staff as a Coaching Assistant and Video Replay Coordinator.

As a player, Bailey was a two-time American League All-Star as well as the 2009 American League Rookie of the Year. In his first Major League season, Bailey went 6-3 with a 1.84 ERA for the Oakland A's while posting 26 saves en route to being named the AL Rookie of the Year as well as the first of his two All-Star selections. He struck out 91 batters over 83.1 innings for the A's in 2009.

His second All-Star selection came in 2010, when the right-hander posted a 1.47 ERA and 25 saves in 42 games for the Athletics. In 2011, his final season in Oakland, he saved 24 games to become one of three players in Major League history to record 24 or more saves in each of his first three Major League seasons. The other two to accomplish the feat were Kazuhiro Sasaki from 2000-2002 and Billy Koch from 1999-2001.

From 2012-2017, Bailey played with the Red Sox (2012-2013), Yankees (2015), Phillies (2016) and Angels (2016-2017) before retiring in 2018. In 265 career Major League games, Bailey was 16-14 with a 3.12 ERA and 95 saves. He missed the entire 2014 season after recovering from right shoulder surgery.

He graduated from Wagner College (NY) in 2006 and set a school record with his 237 career strikeouts. In his time there, he led the team to three consecutive NEC tournament appearances. He had his number (17) retired by the school on January 28, 2010.

Bailey was selected by Oakland in the sixth round of the 2006 First-Year Player Draft when current Giants President of Baseball Operations Farhan Zaidi was in Oakland.

Hitting Coordinator▶ 2020-*San Francisco Giants Hitting Coach

Justin Viele begins his third season in the Giants organization as a Hitting Coach. Viele helped guide Giants hitters to 241 home runs in 2021, the most in franchise history for a single-season and the second-most in the Majors, behind only the Blue Jays (262). With the help of Viele, San Francisco had a franchise record 10 different players reach the 10 homer threshold last season.

Prior to joining the Giants, Viele spent three seasons working in the Dodgers minor league system as the hitting coach at three different levels. Last season, Viele was the Hitting Coach at Class-A Great Lakes in the Midwest League where the Loons led the 16-team Midwest League in home runs (113), RBI (638), walks (597), runs scored (712), on-base percentage (.339) and OPS (.729) while finishing second in doubles and slugging percentage. The Loons' 712 runs scored were 71 runs more than the club with the second-most runs in the circuit.

In addition to his role in Great Lakes, Viele was also the Dodgers' Assistant Minor League Hitting Coordinator throughout the entire 2019 campaign. Following the end of last season, he was elevated to be the club's overall minor league Hitting Coordinator before joining the Giants Major League staff.

In 2018, Viele was the Hitting Coach at Class-A Advanced Rancho Cucamonga where that club led the eight-team league in runs scored, doubles, home runs, RBI, on-base percentage, slugging percentage and OPS while finishing second in walks and hits. The Quakes hit a total of 202 homers in 2018, 52 more than the next-best club in the league that year. The club also scored 50 more runs than the next closest club after scoring 841 runs that season. The 202 homers and 841 runs were both the most by any minor league team at any level in 2018.

Following the 2018 season, Viele went to Arizona and served as the Hitting Coach for Glendale during the Arizona Fall League.

In his first year in the Dodgers system (2017), Viele coached at Advanced Rookie Ogden of the Pioneer league. That club led the eight-team league in average (.319), total bases, slugging percentage and OPS while finishing second in runs scored, hits, home runs, RBI, stolen bases and on-base percentage.

Viele's coaching career began in the late summer of 2015 when he was hired by his alma mater, Santa Clara University, to be the team's Assistant Hitting Coach for the 2015-2016 season.

He also served as a Coach with Class-A Frederick of the Carolina League in 2015.

As a player, Viele was drafted out of Santa Clara in 2013 by the Baltimore Orioles in the 37th round of the 2013 First-Year Player Draft. A starting shortstop all four years at Santa Clara, Viele finished his career with the Broncos having started 161 consecutive games dating back to his freshman year. Viele graduated in 2013 with a Bachelor's Degree in Sociology.

In the minors, Viele played a total of three seasons in the Orioles organization from 2013-2014, reaching as high as Class A Delmarva of the South Atlantic League in 2014. In his minor league career, Viele hit .211 in 126 career games.

DOWN ON THE FARM

Taken in the 38th round of the 2011 draft by the A's but chose to attend Stanford.

Played there for three years from 2012-2014 before being selected by Cincinnati in the first round (29th overall) of the 2014 draft.

HEY, BUDDY

Was teammates at Stanford with current Giants outfielder Austin Slater, with both of them entering as freshman in 2012 and being drafted in 2014 with Blandino going in the first round and Slater in the eighth round. The two were teammates with current Giants bullpen catcher Brant Whiting while at Stanford with Whiting being a year older than the incoming freshmen in 2012.

KNUCKLES

Blandino and Slater were catch partners as freshman in 2012 but Slater switched the following year because Blandino threw a nasty knuckleball frequently.

Suited up for Nicaragua in the March 2016 World Baseball Classic qualifiers in Mexicali, Mexico. He went 2-for-5 with two doubles and three RBI in one game. His father was born in Nicaragua.

Alex is the son of Thomas Blandino and Suzanne Field. He has three siblings: Matteo, Katya and Jordan.

Suffered a torn ACL and MCL on July 20, 2018 vs. Pittsburgh while trying to turn a double play. Had season-ending surgery to reconstruct his ACL and repair his MCL. Began 2019 rehabbing from the same injury and didn't appear in games until early June with Triple-A Louisville.

IN THE COMMUNITY

In September of 2018, Matthew and his wife, Ashley, launched Kingdom Home, a nonprofit organization that exists to end child sex slavery through prevention, with a donation of $100,000. Located in Uganda, Kingdom Home provides a place of refuge, restoration and hope for children at risk. Nearly 200 children, both girls and boys, have been rescued from sex trafficking, gender-based violence, forced child marriages and abandonment. The home not only helps to restore children, but also protects them, and reduces the likelihood that they would re-enter the sex trade or exploitative labor.

Boyd was a very active member in the Detroit and Lakeland communities. During the 2020 season he played a significant role in the club's efforts in the area of COVID-19 prevention and relief, while continuing to help in other important spaces such as honoring veterans, first responders and those in need.

Boyd contributed and served as a spokesman for the Detroit Tigers participation in MLB's league wide Home Plate Project which, in 2020, resulted in a gift of $30,000 to Detroit Public Schools Community District to help feed students as a result of the unanticipated school closures due to COVID-19.

MINOR LEAGUE ACCOLADES

▶ SAL PITCHER OF THE WEEK (5/13/13 W/LEXINGTON)

▶ 2018 CAROLINA LEAGUE MID-SEASON ALL-STAR (WILMINGTON)

Born in The Woodlands, Texas, which is part of the Houston-The Woodlands-Sugar Land metropolitan area. Was teammates with current Yankees pitcher Jameson Taillon in high school.

Originally selected by Kansas City in the third round of the 2011 First-Year Player Draft. Reached as high as Triple-A Omaha in 2019.

Graduated from The Woodlands High School where he went 7-2 with a 1.08 ERA and 129 strikeouts in 72.0 innings as a senior after being named a second-team Rawlings Preseason All-American. Signed with Kansas City after being selected, bypassing an opportunity to pitch at the University of North Carolina.

A LONG AND WINDING ROAD...

Made 11 starts with Low-A Lexington in 2013, with his last coming on June 7, before ending his season with a right elbow sprain that required Tommy John surgery.

2014

During his rehab process he sustained an olecranon stress fracture in 2014, a tiny crack in the bone affecting the tip of the elbow and only appeared in nine games for Idaho Falls from June 17-August 4.

2015

Did not see the mound again until August of 2015 with the AZL Royals. He made seven starts between the AZL and Idaho Falls before preparing to go to the Arizona Fall League. After one appearance in the Fall League, his elbow gave out and required a screw to be placed into it on November of 2015.

2016

The next time he stepped on the mound, he once again had issues with the elbow, had to have the old screw removed and two more put in. Missed all of the 2016 season.

2017

Even though he was told by doctors his elbow was 100 percent healed, he still felt pain when throwing bullpens during Spring Training 2017 and decided to voluntarily retire.

After retiring, he went home to The Woodlands to secure his real estate license and was taking a night training course at Keller Williams Realty.

Tried Yoga, thinking it would help calm the stress and pain. Found a beginner's yoga course on YouTube called Yoga with Adriene and got into it. He started doing three to four sessions per week.

He also began doing an upper body weight lifting program, now without the worry of having to throw bullpens. Between the yoga, lifting and healthier eating habits he lost 30 pounds and was feeling healthy and pain free for the first time in awhile.

In June 2017 he started thinking about a comeback with a goal of throwing 100 mph. In September, he called his old pitching coach David Evans, whom he worked with from when he was 11 to getting drafted.

Evans, now a proponent of weighted-ball exercises and the practices used at Driveline, worked with Brickhouse and he was throwing 90-94 mph in his early sessions.

100

Made his return to the Royals organization for Spring Training in 2018 where he was regularly hitting 96-98 mph. On a backfield one day later in Spring Training, he hit 100 mph. Returned to affiliated ball with Advanced A Wilmington April 2018 and was named a Mid-Season Carolina League All-Star.

- ▶ 2016 EAS POST-SEASON ALL-STAR (HARTFORD)

- ▶ 2016 MILB.COM ORGANIZATION ALL-STAR (COLORADO)
- ▶ 2017 PCL MID-SEASON ALL-STAR (IOWA)

Was born in New Britain, CT. The city is the headquarters of Stanley Black & Decker. Its official nickname is the "Hardware City" due to the history as a manufacturing center.

Originally drafted by the Rockies in the sixth round off the 2012 draft out of St. John's. Made his Major League debut for them in 2016.

Was a non-roster invite to Spring Training with the Giants in 2020 and made five appearances out of the bullpen before undergoing Tommy John surgery on March 9, 2020 after injuring the ligament in a relief outing. The surgery was performed by Giants orthopedist Dr. Ken Akizuki.

Rehabbed the injury in his hometown of Berlin, CT with former pitcher and coach Dave Swanson, who runs Swanson Baseball. Swanson suggested new throwing mechanics to go with his repaired ligament.

Held a showcase at Swanson Baseball in January 2021 where a Red Sox scout saw him and they offered him a minor league contract with an invite to 2021 Major League Camp.

2019

Returned to the States in 2019 after signing with the Cubs on a minor league deal. Pitched for Triple-A Iowa before being released in early June when he was signed by Seattle. Made 11 appearances for the Mariners, including five as an opener, and spent a good amount of time at Triple-A Tacoma.

Hit a home run, his first professional homer, while playing for Yakult in 2018.

Began throwing his forkball when he was eight years old, telling the Hartford Courant that back then you were told not to throw a curveball until you were older. He'd practice with his cousin and uncle and one day they suggested that he try the forkball because he has big hands. It clicked and he's been throwing it ever since.

He and his wife, Katrina, live in Southington, CT with their German shepherd.

Graduated from Berlin High School in Berlin, CT and was named the Gatorade Connecticut Player of the Year as a high school senior.

Born in Maracay, VZ, the capital of the Aragua state. In Venezuela, the city is known as the Ciudad Jardín or "Garden City". Other notable baseball players born in Maracay include Jose Altuve, Elvis Andrus and Miguel Cabrera.

A converted catcher, Castro overcame elbow surgery that cost him nearly all of the 2017 and 2018 seasons to emerge as a top prospect for the Giants. He fashioned a 2.66 ERA in 67.2 innings over 14 starts for short-season Salem-Keizer in 2019.

After an overflow of the El Limón River in La Candelaria, a community in Venezuela, in September of 2020, Castro helped organize some monetary relief to aid families who had been impacted. With the funds, Castro's wife, mom and brothers were able to distribute simple items like salt, sugar, flour, feminine products, soap and other toiletries to those in need.

Married his wife, Aileen Simosa, on September 27, 2019.

Castro signed with the Giants on July 2, 2015 as a pitcher and was given $100,000 signing bonus, just six months after his 16th birthday.

Enters the 2022 season as the Giants 20th-best prospect according to MLB.com and the 18th-best according to Baseball America.

Enjoys dancing but will only dance around family members. He enjoys salsa and merengue.

His cousin, Carlos Reyna, plays with the Angels and has reached Low-A.

HANG TEN

Is one of five players on the Giants roster to enter this season with at least 10 years of service time. The others are Belt, Crawford, Longoria and McGee.

Was born in Boston, MA but the family moved to Vero Beach, FL when he was two. Vero Beach used to be the Spring Training home of the Dodgers before they moved to Arizona in 2009.

CATCHIN' UP

After being drafted in 2006, Cobb made his professional debut for Princeton in the Appalachian League on August 6. His catcher that day was current Giants Bullpen & Catching Coach Craig Albernaz.

DRIVEN

Went to Driveline following the 2020 season. He'd heard good things about it but after talking with Alex Wood, who was with LA, while training during the shutdown in 2020, he made up his mind to go.

Made three Spring Training starts in 2015 before leaving his outing on March 17 with elbow tightness. Cobb ended up missing the entire 2015 season and part of 2016 after undergoing Tommy John surgery. The surgery was performed by Dr. James Andrews. Prior to the injury, Cobb had been named Tampa Bay's Opening Day starter.

NEW LEAGUE, WHO 'DIS

Has spent his entire professional career in the American League. In 24 career Interleague starts vs. the NL, Cobb owns a 2.97 ERA.

THROUGH MY RAY-BANS...

- Made his Major League debut with Tampa on May 1, 2011 vs. the Angels and earned his first win just over a month later at the Angels on June 7, 2011.
- In 2013, his third season in Tampa Bay, Cobb finished with a 2.76 ERA in 143.1 innings pitched...his ERA would have been fourth-best in the American League but he fell short of qualifying by 19.2 innings.
- He fell 19.2 inning short of qualifying because he was on the injured list with a concussion from June 16-August 14 after taking a line drive off the bat of Eric Hosmer on June 15.
- In 2014, his 2.87 ERA was sixth-best in the American League and was the fourth-best in Rays history.
- Set a Rays franchise record of 82.1 consecutive homerless innings from July 18-September 28, 2014.
- Set a club record by making 12 straight starts allowing two runs or fewer from July 9-September 11, 2014.
- Worked 7.1 no-hit innings to start the game on September 11, 2014 at the Yankees before allowing a double to Chris Young.
- In 2017, his final season in Tampa, he set career bests in wins (12), innings pitched (179.1) and starts (29).
- Was a finalist for the AL Gold Glove at pitcher in 2017... the award went to Toronto's Marcus Stroman.

BIRD WATCHING...

Signed a four-year contract with Baltimore on March 21, 2018 and ended up spending three years there before being traded to the Angels in February of 2021.

Made 28 starts (the second-most of his career) in his first season with the O's in 2018 and posted a 2.56 ERA in 11 starts after the All-Star Break.

Slated to be Baltimore's Opening Day starter in 2019 but missed the start after landing on the IL with a right groin strain. Made just three starts total in 2019, dealing with a lumbar strain and eventually undergoing lumbar surgery.

Made 10 starts for the O's in the shortened 2020 campaign and led the team in innings pitched (52.1).

When Alex was a child he served as a Dodgers bat boy during Spring Training for three years while they were in Vero Beach.

Grew up a Red Sox fan and his family would make a nearly annual summer trip back to Boston, where Cobb was born, and take in a game at Fenway Park.

In addition to playing baseball at Vero Beach High School, Cobb was also a star quarterback. He returned in 2013 to have his high school baseball number (12) retired during a halftime ceremony.

Was also the Homecoming King during high school. Cobb is the school's first alumni to play in the Major Leagues.

Alex and his wife, Kelly, have two daughters, Chloe and Everly.

His older brother, R.J., is a U.S. Army commander (4th Brigade, 101st Airborne) and was awarded a Purple Heart for his time in Iraq.

The couple has a Schnauzer mixed breed named Oscar, who won a poll on MLB.com as MLB's Best Baseball Dog. Cobb found Oscar as a stray in Port Charlotte during Spring Training 2015 and eventually adopted him.

Alex's mom, Lindsay Miller-Cobb, was a nurse practitioner who passed away from a stroke at age 49 while Alex was in high school.

Alex's father, Rick, is an accountant.

2021 SEASON

Cheered on Giants teams led by Barry Bonds and Jeff Kent. His parents, Mike and Lynn, had season tickets and regularly took Brandon and his three younger sisters to games. Each spring the family headed to the Cactus League in Scottsdale, AZ to soak in the sun and collect autographs. Come summer, the Crawfords spent nights at Candlestick Park. In the now famous picture taken by the San Francisco Chronicle, Crawford (age five) and his family at a game at Candlestick Park in 1992 in what was considered possibly the last series at Candlestick Park as the Giants were rumored to possibly be moving to Florida. When the team moved here to Oracle Park, his family purchased a brick outside on Willie Mays Plaza.

His Player's Weekend nickname is DJ BC Raw. Comes up with the BP music mixes that are played during Giants' batting practice at Oracle Park.

GRAND DEBUT

Made his MLB debut on May 27, 2011 at Milwaukee. Hit a grand slam in the 7th inning to become only the sixth player in MLB history to hit a grand slam in his first big league game.

HEADS UP, 7-UP

On August 8, 2016 at Miami, Crawford became the first player in 41 years to record seven hits in a game, going 7-for-8 (five singles, double, triple, 10 total bases). He tied the NL record for hits in one game, set by Baltimore's Wilbert Robinson in 1892 and tied by Pittsburgh's Rennie Stennett in 1975.

1st Giant to win a Gold Glove and Silver Slugger in the same season (2015) since Barry Bonds in 1997.

His sister Amy, a former softball player at UCLA, is married to another former Bruin, Gerrit Cole, who now pitches for the Yankees.

Enters the 2022 campaign with 10 years, 94 days of service time, the second-longest of any active player on the Giants roster behind Brandon Belt (10 years, 128 days). Crawford is one of five players on the roster overall that have at least 10 years of Major League service time entering 2022.

Attended UCLA, where he was a physiological sciences major. Played baseball for the Bruins from 2006 to 2008, and started 179 straight games where he helped lead the team to the NCAA Regionals in three consecutive seasons. Was named the team's MVP in 2006 and 2007.

Married to Jalyenne Dantzcher on November 26, 2011. They have two daughters named Bralyn Ann (December 18, 2012) and Jaydyn April (March 8, 2014), and two sons named Braxton Michael (January 15, 2016) and Bryson Ryder (June 18, 2018).

Brandon and Jalyenne celebrated their 10 year wedding anniversary on November 27, 2021 by renewing their vows in Hawaii with friends and family.

Was born in San Pedro Sula, Honduras. It is the capital of the Cortés Department and is the primary industrial center and second largest city in the country. Is the only city in the country to hold two football stadiums, the Estadio Olímpico Metropolitano & the Estadio Francisco Morazán.

Grew up in Honduras, where he attended a bilingual school. His older brother, Danilo, happened to love baseball and turned him on to the game. Danilo now plays for the Honduran National team.

Dubón's first love was soccer. He spent much of his childhood playing it with his friends in the streets. His speed and athletic ability made him a nightmare to defend, and he quickly emerged as one of the best players among his peers.

Dubón will never forget this day when he arrived at a baseball clinic in San Pedro Sula. There he met Andy Ritchey, who was running IMPACT, a Christian mission group from California that supplied baseball equipment to underprivileged children. Dubón expressed his desire to play in the U.S. and three days later he moved to Sacramento, CA to attend Capital Christian as a foreign exchange student and live with Ritchey, his wife Sandy and their three kids.

Quickly became a Giants fan and would wear a Brandon Crawford jersey to Giants games. Was in attendance for Game 5 of the 2014 NLCS vs. St. Louis, watching Travis Ishikawa's walk-off homer from the upper deck down the third base line.

On July 7, 2019 while playing for Milwaukee, he became the second Honduran-born player to reach the Majors, joining Gerald Young, but the first to be born and raised in Honduras.

Married Nancy Herrera in November 2020. Nancy is Honduran; they met when Mauricio was a minor leaguer. His brother trained her brother in baseball, which is how they met. She's runs her own export training company. They currently live in Miami.

Owns a pug named Chorizo.

Enjoys playing golf and video games.

DOB | NOVEMBER 4, 1993

2022 OPENING DAY AGE | 28

BIRTHPLACE | SPARTANBURG, SC, USA

M.L. SERVICE | 2 YEARS, 110 DAYS OPTIONS USED | 3/3

HOW OBTAINED | GIANTS 6TH ROUND PICK IN THE 2015 DRAFT

Was raised in Moore, SC, just south of Spartanburg. At one point, Moore was home to the studio of the Marshall Tucker band.

STEVEN'S SUCCESS

Turned in the best overall year of his career in 2021, setting career highs in games played (107), runs (45), 2B (14), 3B (5), HR (8), BB (27), RBI (35) and stolen bases (7). Duggar was 7-for-7 in stolen base attempts.

Tried soccer when he was young but once he was introduced to baseball, he was hooked. His first position was first base. "Then a coach saw me run and said, 'This guy doesn't need to be playing first base,' Duggar said. He went to the outfield and never left. "I like to run", he says, "and take hits away. I really enjoy playing defense. It's always felt natural to me."

Attended James F. Byrnes High School in Duncan, SC and played college baseball at Clemson University. Was a starting outfielder in all three years of his collegiate career.

Because his middle school didn't have a baseball team, students were allowed to try out for the local high school team, James Byrnes High, in nearby Duncan, SC. Duggar made the junior varsity team as a seventh-grader. During practice one day, he was shagging flies and made a spectacular diving catch that drew a bunch of whoas and wows. Several weeks into the season, he was promoted to varsity. His coach, Chris Carter, was a big influence in his life by giving him a chance to play at the varsity level as a seventh grader.

His 2018 season ended on August 29 when he was placed on the 10-day injured list with a torn labrum in his left shoulder, suffered while diving back into second base the night prior. His 2019 season ended when he dove and sprained the same shoulder in early August.

Is best friends with Tyler Krieger, who is currently an infielder in the Indians organization. The two played together when they were in college at Clemson and they were both drafted in 2015.

Born in Bejuma, which is a small town in the Carabobo state of Venezuela.

The city is a 45 minute drive to the capital of the Carabobo state, Valencia, where current Giants infielder Wilmer Flores was born.

ON THE RISE

Posted career numbers in 2021 after joining the Giants on April 11. He set career highs across the board after appearing in 52 games while hitting .273 with 11 extra-base hits and an .813 OPS.

2 Grew up idolizing Yankees shortstop Derek Jeter. Estrada was originally signed by the Yankees as a shortstop and would hear Jeter speak while he was in their minor league system.

PUT ME IN COACH

In parts of three Major League seasons, Estrada has played all over the diamond. He's logged games at second base (53), shortstop (31), third base (10), left field (six games) and right field (three games).

HI, MY NAME IS...

His first name, Thairo, pronounced TYE-row, is family derived. As Estrada tells it, his dad and uncle are named Jairo and so they just added a 'T' there to make it sound different, to make it sound more American. "I guess my mom knew I would come to the States and that would make it easier on people," Estrada said.

His 106.0 mph grand slam off Arizona's J.B. Bukauskas on July 2, 2021 is the hardest hit home run of his career.

2018 OFFSEASON

In January of 2018, Estrada was shot during a robbery attempt while at a café with his wife in his hometown of Bejuma. He missed Spring Training plus the first part of the 2018 season. Doctors were unable to remove the small-caliber bullet but he was cleared to play early in the season. The bullet was removed in July at a hospital in Tampa after a lower back injury in June ended his season.

"It was hard in Venezuela in 2017-18," Estrada told reporters in 2021. "There were rarely people who had any cash, for safety, everything was done through cards and through cell phones. So somebody came up to me and asked for money, and I said the only things I had were my cell phone and credit card. The guy didn't believe me and decided to take a shot at that point."

Suited up for Scottsdale during the Arizona Fall League in 2017 where he played with current Giants teammates Tyler Beede and Steven Duggar.

Thairo and his wife, Lorena, have one daughter, Arantza.

- Welcomed to SF from the Yankees on April 11 in exchange for cash.

HOW OBTAINED | SIGNED AS A MINOR LEAGUE FREE AGENT ON DECEMBER 9, 2020

PITCH REPERTOIRE | SLIDER, CUTTER, 4-SEAM FB, SINKER

Was born in Norwich, CT. Norwich is a city in New London County, Connecticut and is referred to as "The Rose of New England." Norwich served as a Giants Double-A affiliate from 2003-2009.

.091

Leone limited hitters to a .091 (5-for-55) clip in at-bats that ended with his slider in 2021. That figure was sixth-lowest in the Majors (min. 50 PA).

1.51

Leone's ERA last season, the lowest of his big league career. He didn't appear in a MLB game until June 1 and his 1.51 ERA was the third-lowest in the NL from June 1 to the end of the year (min. 40 games).

IRONIC, DON'T YA THINK?

Was one of six SF relievers with at least 50 appearances and a sub-3.00 ERA last year. The only other team in MLB history to have as many relievers in the same season was the 2014 Mariners where Leone was also part of that group of six.

Graduated from Norwich Free Academy (Conn.) where he played high school baseball and was an All-State selection his junior and senior seasons. Was rated as the No. 1 prospect in Connecticut during his senior season by Perfect Game.

Grew up a Boston Red Sox fan and his favorite player was Pedro Martinez.

His nickname for Player Weekend in the past has been "Dominator".

He and his wife, Lauren, were married in 2016 and have a son, Joseph.

JUMPMAN

Had a pair of Air Jordans cleated and wore them as his game cleats in 2021. Has many pairs of Jordans and also has some matching pairs with his son, Joseph.

ONE OF MY FAVORITE BASEBALL MEMORIES IS...

Got his first professional at-bat on May 15, 2021 at Pittsburgh. Gabe Kapler instructed Littell not to swing and he took three fastballs and struck out looking.

In his second at-bat on September 10 at Chicago-NL he got out of the dugout before Kapler could tell him not to swing. After getting advice from Donnie Ecker that his best shot for a hit was to slap it through the hole at 2nd base, Littell told Buster Posey on his way to the on-deck circle "Hey, watch this, I'm going to get a hit". He smoked a single to right-center off Kyle Hendricks. He was given the ball and the lineup card and said it was his favorite baseball moment to date.

Graduated from Eastern Alliance High School in Haw River, NC where he also was a tight end on the football team. He was committed to attending Appalachian State University before signing after being drafted in 2013.

Has been traded twice in his career, first on November 18, 2016 from Seattle to New York-AL in exchange for LHP James Pazos. Was traded again on July 30, 2017, this time going to Minnesota along with LHP Dietrich Enns in exchange for LHP Jaime García.

Born in Fair Oaks, CA, which is part of the Sacramento metropolitan area in Northern California, about 100 miles from Oracle Park. California governor Gavin Newsom maintains his private residence in Fair Oaks, foregoing living in the Governor's Mansion.

CALL IT A COMEBACK (STORY)...

Released by Tampa on the last day of Spring Training in 2018. Long made the decision to stop playing baseball and went back to school to take summer classes and get his EMT certification. Had an end goal of being a firefighter.

The time off also allowed his back to fully heal (he'd suffered two herniated discs during his junior year at Sac State but pitched through it). In October 2018, he decided to give baseball another shot.

Trained at Optimum Athletics in Sacramento and had one of his posted bullpen videos picked up by @PitchingNinja (run by Rob Friedman) on Twitter. The White Sox saw the video and a few days later he signed there.

.164

Held left-handed batters to a .164 (10-for-61) average in 2021 with the Giants.

SHOWTIME

Impressed with SF in Spring Training in 2021 and then made his MLB debut on June 9 at Texas in relief. He picked up his first Major League win on June 20, 2021 vs. Philadelphia.

THE COUNT

Struck out seven batters in his Major League debut as a reliever. The last Giant to strike out at least seven in a Major League debut as a reliever was John Montefusco on September 3, 1974 vs. the Dodgers.

Attended Sacramento State University and is a 2013 graduate of Del Campo High School in Fair Oaks, CA.

His parents are Trent Long and Liza Mineni. He has one sister, Ali, who played volleyball at St. Francis College. Sammy was a Communications major at Sac State. He also graduated high school early in December, 2013.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS ◀

Selected by Tampa Bay in the 18th round of the 2016 First-Year Player Draft.

Signed by Chicago-AL as a minor league free agent on March 5, 2019.

Signed by San Francisco as a minor league free agent on November 17, 2020.

Placed on the 10-day injured list from July 4-July 27, 2021 (low back strain).

His first MLB win was on Father's Day with his dad in the crowd on June 20, 2021 vs. Philadelphia at Oracle Park. He retired 10 of the final 11 batters he faced.

THE BIG AIRBENDER

Grew up a Giants fan in the Sacramento-area but went to more A's games. Barry Zito, a left-handed starter with both clubs who also had a big curveball, was his favorite pitcher. Long says that his curveball isn't modeled after Zito's but it's turned into one like his, which is pretty cool.

In four minor league seasons, he's posted a 2.82 ERA, 1.13 WHIP and a 10.50 strikeouts per 9.0 innings ratio in 77 games, 52 of which have come in a relief role.

MAMA I'M COMING HOME

When the lefty got the call-up from Richmond to Triple-A Sacramento in 2021, he called his mother and told her he is "coming home," and tears were shed. And plans were made. For his Triple-A debut that Saturday, he said there were about 150-200 friends and family filling Sutter Health Park. Which brings this back to his homecoming, in which a boisterous Sacramento crowd watched him strike out the first eight batters he faced.

CALL ON ME

River Cats manager Dave Brundage had fun with Long when telling him he was going to the Majors for the first time, telling him he was going from the bullpen back to the rotation in five days. It dawned on Long that would be Wednesday – Sacramento's day off. "So wheels started turning," Long said. "He said, 'Sorry, so the only team you'd be able to pitch for on Wednesday would be against the Rangers,' and it was hugs, handshakes."

2021 SEASON

- Appeared in 12 games (five starts) for SF...went 0-0 with a 6.87 ERA (14er, 18.1ip) in seven relief outings at the Major League level and was 2-1 with a 4.43 ERA as a starter.
- Made his MLB debut in relief on June 9 at Texas and struck out seven over 4.0 innings...his seven strikeouts as a reliever were the most by a Giant in their MLB debut since John Montefusco had seven in a 9-inning relief stint against the Dodgers on September 3, 1974.
- Went 1-1 with a 2.34 ERA and 55 strikeouts in 42.1 innings in 16 minor league outings (seven starts) between Low-A San Jose, Double-A Richmond and Triple-A Sacramento.
- In his first Triple-A start on May 29, Long struck out the first eight batters he faced to start the game and nine of his first 10.
- Struck out 44 percent (37-of-84) of the hitters he faced in the minors before his first call-up on June 9.

MEMBER SINCE: AUGUST 21, 2020

Clubbed his 300th career homer on August 21, 2020 vs. Arizona. He is one of only 152 players in MLB history to reach the 300 homer plateau.

HOT CORNER

301 of Longoria's 317 career homers have come as a third baseman, most in the Majors since 2008 ahead of Nolan Arenado (267), Kyle Seager (235), Josh Donaldson (232) and Adrián Beltré (225).

Is one of five Giants that enters the season with at least 10 years of service time and has the most service time of anyone on the team entering 2022. The other four with 10+ are Belt, Crawford, Cobb and McGee.

462' LONGEST HR DISTANCE

Longoria's 462' blast on July 19, 2016 off Tyler Chatwood at Colorado is his longest home run in the Statcast era (since 2015).

113.2 MPH HARDEST BATTED BALL

Longoria's 113.2 mph double off the Rockies' Austin Gomber on April 26, 2021 at Oracle Park is the hardest-hit ball in the Statcast era (since 2015).

110.4 MPH HARDEST HIT HOME RUN

His 110.4 mph two-run homer off Clayton Richard on April 14, 2018 at San Diego is his hardest-hit homer in the Statcast era (since 2015).

Graduated from Saint John Bosco High School in Bellflower, CA. Did not receive any scholarship offers to play college baseball. Attended Rio Hondo Community College during his freshman season before Long Beach State offered him a scholarship. Because Long Beach already had an established shortstop, Troy Tulowitzki, Longoria played third base.

Played one season of water polo at St. John Bosco High in Bellflower, CA. The water polo coach happened to see him swimming in P.E. class and was impressed so he asked him to join the team. Played one year of varsity his sophomore year.

Was the third overall pick by the Tampa Bay Devil Rays in the 2006 draft out of Long Beach State. He was the highest draft selection in school history.

Longoria shared Big West Player of the Year honors in 2006 with another infielder from Cal State Fullerton, infielder Justin Turner.

READY, BREAK!

Has broken up four no-hitters in the 7th inning or later in his career, most recently on July 7, 2019 vs. St. Louis off RHP Jack Flaherty.

IRON MAN

Played in 160 games in four-straight seasons from 2013-2016. Is only the third player in baseball history to play 160-plus games in four consecutive seasons while playing a majority of games at third base each year, joining Hall of Famers CHC Ron Santo (1962-65) and BAL Brooks Robinson (1961-64).

Married to Jaime Edmondson. They have three children named Elle Leona, Nash Harrison and Lou James.

During the early stages of the COVID-19 pandemic, Longoria worked with SFG Productions in creating Chef Longori-Yum, where he provided cooking videos and recipes starring himself and his son, Nash. You can check out Chef Longori-Yum's recipes and videos on youtube.com/giants.

LONGORIA IN THE COMMUNITY

Is a cook and a foodie. Fell in love with cooking when he was single and playing for the Rays in his mid-twenties. Enjoyed spending off-seasons having people over for dinner. His passion for food and cooking led him in 2013 to partner with friends in opening a restaurant in Tampa. They decided it had to have duckpin bowling, a game with shorter lanes and smaller balls and pins than regular bowling. They called it Ducky's.

Donated more than $1 million during the life of his contract with the Rays Baseball Foundation, which supports youth and education programs in the region.

Raised over $60,000 for the Pet Pal Animal Shelter in St. Pete, a result of pledged donations from Longoria, the Rays, Ducky's and Bright House Sports Network.

Involved with the following organizations: Muttville Senior Dog Rescue and Giants Community Fund.

2021 SEASON

- Appeared in 81 games for the Giants after missing a total of 69 games throughout the season with a right hand contusion (11 games) and a left shoulder sprain (58 games).
- It marked the second time in his career he didn't play in at least 122 games during a full season...he played in 74 in 2012 with Tampa Bay.
- One of 10 different Giants to hit at least 10 homers.
- Was hitting .280 with 11 doubles, nine homers, 30 RBI and an .892 OPS in his first 50 games before going on the IL in June after a collision with IF Brandon Crawford going for a ground ball on June 5...did not return to MLB action until August 14 recovering from the left shoulder strain.

- Appeared in five games August 14-18 before landing back on the IL with the right hand contusion after being hit by a pitch...returned on September 3.
- Hit .200 (16x80) with six doubles, three homers and 15 RBI in 25 games after returning in early September.
- Batted .318 (21x66) with six HRs and 13 RBI off lefties.

POSTSEASON

- Started all five NLDS games at 3B, going 2-for-17.
- Hit his first postseason HR since 2013 on October 11, giving the Giants a 1-0 victory.

Evan Longoria returned to the postseason in 2021 with the Giants winning the NL West title. It was Longoria's first post-season appearance since 2013 with the Tampa Bay Rays. Longoria homered for Game 3's only run in the Giants 1-0 win at Dodger Stadium to take a 2-1 series lead.

Had one of the biggest hits in Rays history when he hit a walk off home run in extra innings of the last game of the 2011 season, snapping a tie with the Red Sox in the race for the American League Wild Card spot and sending his team into the postseason. According to Elias, Longoria was only the second player in MLB history to hit a walk-off home run in his team's final game of the regular season to clinch a postseason berth (the other was the Giants' Bobby Thomson with his "Shot Heard Round the Word" against the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1951).

Twice was named the Rays nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award (2014 & 2018), given to the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team.

Honored by the Tampa Bay Chapter of the BBWAA with the Don Zimmer Award (as the team's most valuable player) in 2013 & 2016.

WORLD SERIES
CHAMPION

Was born in San Jose, CA but went to high school and grew up in Sparks, NV, which is located right next to Reno. It was founded in 1904 and is the fifth-most populous city in Nevada.

THE ROUTINE

Before he takes the mound he looks at the inside his hat where he has written inside: "Feel the ball. Take a Breath. Pound the zone." Plus the names of his wife, Morgan, and daughter, Rowen. Also has Morgan and Rowen's name sewn into his glove as you can see in the photo here.

31

The number of saves that McGee registered last season, a career high. In doing so, McGee became just the second Giants left-handed pitcher to record 30 or more saves since 1969 when saves became a stat (also Will Smith in 2019 with 34 saves).

582

Since his first full season in 2011, McGee's 582 strikeouts are third-most in the Majors among left-handed relievers behind Aroldis Chapman (983) and Andrew Miller (703). His 600 appearances in that time are also the third-most among lefty relievers.

Underwent Tommy John surgery in 2008 after making 15 starts for Double-A Montgomery that year. Returned to game action in June of 2009 as a starter but made his move to the bullpen the following year with Triple-A Durham.

Threw his four-seamer 791 times in 2021. It accounted for 90.1% of his pitches thrown. In all of MLB, only Matt Wisler relied on a single pitch more than McGee in 2021.

Selected by the Rangers with the 30th overall pick in the 2014 draft. He previously was committed to play at Fresno State.

Became the first high school pitcher selected by the Rangers in the first round to appear in a full season league the same year he was drafted since 1973.

Named 2013 IBAF "AAA" World Cup MVP after serving as closer for the gold medal-winning USA Baseball 18U National Team, earning a win and three saves in five appearances for that squad. The US defeated Japan to win the gold medal in the tournament that took place in Taiwan. Ortiz was teammates with Cardinals RHP Jack Flaherty and Pirates IF Cole Tucker on that team.

Entered the 2016 season as the Rangers fourth-best prospect according to Baseball America. He was the Brewers' third-best prospect entering the 2017 season and their fourth-best entering 2018 according to the same publication.

He and his wife, Ayleen, have a son, Santiago, and daughter, Katalaya

Was close with his great-grandfather, Santiago, who passed away three years before he was drafted. The day of his funeral, Ortiz signed a baseball, the first he'd ever signed, and placed it in his coffin with the promise that one day he'd make it as a professional baseball player.

He used to take the mound and write his great-grandfather's nickname, "SANTI," in the dirt with his finger, make the sign of the cross, look up at the sky, rub his necklace and, according to his mother, says: "Let's play catch, Abuelito." Now, he carries his grandfather's handkerchief in his back pocket during his appearances.

Born in San Diego, CA, which has the moniker of America's Finest City. San Diego produces more avocados than any other place in the United States.

Originally drafted by the Mets in the seventh round of the 2012 draft out of Madison (CA) High School. He was committed to UC Santa Barbara before signing.

PITCHING IN

Did not start pitching until he was a senior at Madison High School in San Diego. He was originally committed to UC Santa Barbara as a hitter (third base and shortstop) and threw only 20.0 innings as a senior.

Played three years of basketball during high school.

Grew up a Padres fan and was a Tony Gwynn fan. Gwynn tried to recruit Oswalt in high school when he was at San Diego State.

His brother, Todd, was a wide receiver at California Lutheran while his cousin, Chris Bonner, was a quarterback at Colorado State-Pueblo and led them to a Division II Championship in 2014.

Played one of Santa's elves at the annual Kids Holiday Party as part of MetsGiving on December 4, 2018. Oswalt helped hand out gifts to local school children with fellow elves Robinson Canó, Edwin Díaz and Santa Brandon Nimmo.

Made his Major League debut out of the bullpen on April 25, 2018 at St. Louis, pitching 4.2 innings and allowing two runs, earned, with four strikeouts. Marked the longest outing by a Mets reliever making his MLB debut in team history (Kevin Tapani held the previous mark with 4.1 innings on July 4, 1989 at Houston.)

BINGO

Enjoyed a breakout 2017 campaign that saw him named the Sterling Pitcher of the Year (best minor league pitcher in the Mets system) by the organization. He went 12-5 with a 2.28 ERA in 24 starts for Binghamton and was also named the Eastern League's Pitcher of the Year and an EL Post-Season All-Star. He was tabbed as the Mets' 16th-best prospect according to Baseball America entering the 2018 campaign.

FOOUR!

Was one of two Mets hurlers in franchise history to record four or more strikeouts in a relief outing for his major league debut (also, Buzz Capra in game one of a doubleheader on September 15, 1971).

2021 SEASON

- Spent most of the season on the injured list with right knee inflammation.
- Appeared in three rehab games with Low-A St. Lucie in September and tossed 4.0-scoreless innings.
- Went 1-1 with a 4.15 ERA (6er, 13.0ip) in six games (two starts) for Triple-A Syracuse.
- Appeared in three games (one start) for the Mets, posting a 3.48 ERA (4er, 10.1ip).
- Elected free agency on October 29, 2021.

Born in Stony Brook, NY which is located in Suffolk County on the north shore of Long Island. It is home to Stony Brook University and is 60 miles east of Manhattan.

Is classified as being drafted out of St. John the Baptist High School in West Islip, NY but he never actually pitched there.

A WINDING ROAD TO THE DRAFT

He wasn't allowed to pitch at St. John the Baptist after transferring because the transfer cost him his senior year of eligibility. Instead, he pitched for the Long Island Black Sox in a local men's league facing hitters who had either played collegiately or in some cases, professionally. Passed on his commitment to San Jacinto College to sign with Texas.

Underwent Tommy John surgery in 2017 and missed the remainder of the season. He returned to action in June of 2018, missing nearly 14 months.

Missed most of the 2020 campaign after an ulcerative colitis flare-up. He dropped from 200 to 165 pounds at one point.

Has struck out 432 batters over 363.2 minor league innings, posting a 10.69 strikeouts per 9.0 inning ratio.

His flight to the Rangers facility in Surprise, AZ after signing in 2013 as an 18-year-old was the first time he'd been on a plane by himself.

Grew up a Mets fan but his favorite player was Derek Jeter.

Grew up in Long Island, New York with his mother, father and three younger sisters. His father is retired after a long career at UPS, and now owns a small irrigation company.

2021 SEASON

He even attended the Giants 2010 World Series parade in San Francisco as a fan, despite being drafted by the Dodgers a few months earlier.

Pederson went into the Giants clubhouse as a senior in 2010 thanks to his friend, Shawon Dunston, Jr. In the clubhouse, Pederson received a pair of batting gloves from Pablo Sandoval. Pederson and Sandoval won a World Series together last year with Atlanta.

During that same visit, he also met Bengie Molina, who was eating an ice cream sandwich at the time. At the time Pederson thought to himself "You're in the big leagues, this is the best! How do I get to the big leagues?"

JOCTOBER

Has played in the postseason every year of his Major League career since breaking in full-time in 2015. In 79 career postseason games, Pederson has hit .256 with eight doubles, 12 homers, 29 RBI and an .814 OPS. In 2020, he batted .382 (13-for-34) with two homers and eight RBI in 16 games to help LA win the World Series.

Born and raised in Littleton, CO, which is located nine miles south of Denver and 55 miles north of Colorado Springs. Littleton is the hometown of former San Francisco Giant Dave Dravecky.

Unlike his twin brother Taylor, who has a more traditional delivery for his pitches, Tyler is a submariner, with his knuckles barely staying off the ground as he delivers the ball to the plate. It was at Garden City Community College where he became a submarine pitcher. His coach at the time, Chris Finnegan, suggested Tyler try a submarine style motion.

LUCKY NO. 7

Spent seven seasons in the Giants' minor league system before getting his first call to the big leagues. A 10th-round pick in 2013, Rogers moved steadily through the system before reaching Triple-A for the first time in 2016. It took parts of four seasons and 179 appearances at the highest level of the minors before he finally earned his first taste of big league action in 2019.

109

The number of appearances Rogers has made since the start of the 2020 season, most in the Majors. The next closest reliever is RHP Yusmeiro Petit, who has appeared in 104 games in that span.

EIGHTY

The number of appearances Rogers made in 2021, most in the NL and second in the Majors only to Cleveland's Bryan Shaw (81). His 80 outings were the most by a Giants reliever since Scott Eyre's 86 in 2005.

85.4

The average exit velocity of opposing hitter's balls in play off Rogers in 2021, which was in the top three percent of qualified relievers.

Tyler and his wife, Jennifer, are expecting their first child, a baby boy, in April 2022.

#TWINNING

Tyler and Taylor are what's known as "mirror image" twins, which Scientific American says is an "unofficial phenomenon" affecting one-quarter of identical twins. Only some traits are mirrored; one twin might have a freckle on one cheek, while it's on the opposite cheek on the other twin. In the case of the Rogers brothers, Taylor is left-handed and Tyler is right-handed.

With Tyler's Major League debut in 2019, he and Taylor became the 10th set of twin brothers to both play in the Major Leagues and the seventh set to do so in the same season.

The full list is below:

Jose Canseco (1985-2001) / Ozzie Canseco (1990-1993)
Stan Cliburn (1980-1980) / Stu Cliburn (1984-1988)
Marshall Edwards (1981-1983) / Mike Edwards (1977-1980)
Ray Grimes (1920-1926) / Roy Grimes (1920-1920)
George Hunter (1909-1910) / Bill Hunter (1912-1912)
Bubber Jonnard (1920-1935) / Claude Jonnard (1921-1929)
Damon Minor (2000-2004) / Ryan Minor (1998-2001)
Eddie O'Brien (1953-1958) / Johnny O'Brien (1953-1959)
Joe Shannon (1915-1915) / Red Shannon (1915-1926)

STICKING TOGETHER

Last season, Tyler posted a 1.47 ERA in 42 games for the Giants during the first half of the season but was not named to the National League All-Star team. Taylor was selected as a member of the American League team, his first career All-Star selection. Tyler walked the red carpet with Taylor prior to the game in Denver, which was held roughly 10 miles from where the two grew up.

TAYLOR ON TYLER'S SUPPORT AT THE ALL-STAR GAME IN 2021

"I got a lot of questions about, 'What kind of bragging rights do you have?'" and all this stuff. And that's like what siblings do. That's not what twins do. He came here to support me as a brother and as a fan of me and put his story on the back burner. I don't know how anybody can do that. That was very impressive of him. I would have done the same for him. But he definitely deserved to be here. He just came to support me. That was really cool."

Both Rogers' brothers say they would have become firefighters had they not succeeded in baseball. There are four generations of firefighters in their family. Their father, Scott, a career firefighter, is currently an Operations Chief in Lakewood, CO.

The brothers started the Rogers Family Foundation, dedicated to the mental wellness of first responders.

Graduated from Chatfield High School in Littleton, CO.

Attended Garden City Community College (KS) for his freshman and sophomore seasons before transferring to Austin Peay for his final two seasons.

He and his wife, Jennifer, were married on November 14, 2020. Teammate Tyler Beede served as the officiant for the wedding. Tyler and Jennifer are expecting their first child, a boy, in April 2022.

 Graduated from Westside High School (NE) where he played baseball, football and basketball.

Darin and his wife, Libby, were high school sweethearts at Westside High. She was the state tennis champion who went to the University of Kansas while Darin went to Creighton.

 Attended Creighton University, where he spent all four years as a Bluejay. He finished his four-year career at Creighton with 2,251 career putouts, third-most in NCAA history and 38 shy of the all-time mark. He's also the school's all-time leader in sacrifice flies (22) and putouts while ranking second in RBI (201).

A 20th round draft pick in 2009 out of Creighton University, Ruf had beaten the odds and powered his way to the big leagues with the Phillies by setting a record at Double-A Reading with 38 home runs in 2012.

 While at Creighton, he was named the Joe Carter Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Year as a sophomore (2007) as well as a Rawlings Gold Glove award as the nation's best fielding first baseman.

 He and his wife, Libby, have one son, Henry, and one daughter, Olive.

During 2020's pandemic-shortened season, Ruf went three months without seeing Libby, Henry and Olive, who was a newborn at the time, due to the bubble restrictions in place.

 Darin told The Athletic that it was tough to explain the homelessness in SF to five-year old Henry, who wanted to help them. Libby and Darin came up with a family activity to make bag lunches that contained PB&J, granola bars, crackers, bottled water and a lollipop. Henry helped decorate the bags and then when they'd see someone in need while out they'd give them the lunch.

HOW OBTAINED | GIANTS 8TH ROUND SELECTION IN THE 2014 DRAFT

Was born and raised in Jacksonville, FL. Jacksonville is home to one major sports team, the Jacksonville Jaguars of the NFL. It is also the birthplace of Southern rock group Lynyrd Skynyrd.

91.2%

Slater's stolen base success rate in his career. He's 31-of-34 on the bases at the Major League level.

.854

Slater's career OPS against left-handed pitching.

THE FARM

Attended Stanford University and studied Science, Technology and Society as an integrated-studies major. Was an All-Pac-12 First Team outfielder in 2014. Hit .310 to go along with five homers and 72 RBI in 113 career games during three seasons at Stanford.

Hit his first career grand slam on July 6, 2019 vs. St. Louis, a pinch-hit shot off RHP Miles Mikolas in the 4th inning. The homer was also his first career pinch-hit homer. He was the first Giant with a pinch-hit grand slam since Rich Aurilia did it June 12, 2003 at Chicago-AL. Slater's was the 22nd pinch-hit grand slam in SF-era history.

Attended The Bolles School in Jacksonville, FL, where he was the shortstop and captain of the baseball team that won three straight state championships. Was originally picked as a high school shortstop by the Dodgers in the 44th round of the 2011 draft.

In 2011, as a senior at The Bolles School, he was considered the top baseball prospect in Florida until he broke his ankle during a game of Frisbee with friends. The injury caused him to miss his senior season, and his draft stock plummeted. He considers his ankle injury a blessing in disguise because of how much he now values his college experience.

Was born in Baltimore, MD, the most populous city in the state of Maryland. Baseball legend Babe Ruth was born in Baltimore.

WILLIE MAC

Won the 2021 Willie Mac Award, an annual honor bestowed upon the most inspirational player on the team, as voted upon by Giants players, coaches, training staff, clubhouse staff and the fans. The award was established in 1980 in honor of legend and Hall of Famer Willie McCovey.

WADE'S WORLD

As told to the San Francisco Chronicle, Wade penned a book for a middle school project titled "My Love for Baseball" which he dedicated to his parents. ## SPLASH LANDING

Clubbed his first career Splash Hit on July 31, 2021 vs. Houston. His mom, Emily, was in attendance that day and was standing on the portwalk in RF and watched the homer sail over her head. She later got the ball back.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS ◀

Selected by Minnesota in the ninth round of the 2015 First-Year Player Draft; signed by Twins scout John Wilson.

Welcomed by San Francisco from Minnesota on February 4, 2021. RHP Shaun Anderson joined the Twins in return.

Placed on the 10-day injured list from April 14-May 13, 2012 (left oblique strain).

430' LONGEST HR DISTANCE

His 430' home run off Colorado's German Marquez on August 12, 2021 is his hardest hit home run in the Statcast era (since 2015).

109.3 MPH HARDEST BATTED BALL

Wade's 109.3 mph single off Dodgers' Trevor Bauer on June 28, 2021 is his hardest-hit ball in the Statcast era (since 2015).

107.8 MPH HARDEST HIT HOME RUN

His 107.8 mph home run off Houston's Zack Greinke on July 31, 2021 is his hardest hit home run in the Statcast era (since 2015).

Attended the University of Maryland where he hit .335 with a .453 OBP as a junior in 2015. In the NCAA Tournament that year, he was named the Louisiana Regional's Most Outstanding Player.

During the 2020-21 offseason Wade drove an hour each way from his home to the University of Maryland four days a week. Back at school, Wade worked on his hitting under Maryland assistant coach Matt Swope. Those sessions helped lay the foundation for his breakout season last year.

Wade is an avid ping pong player and practices against a robot to improve his skills. His mother, Emily, is also an avid ping pong player and plays competitively in tournaments.

Attended St. Paul's High School in Brooklandville, MD where he was a four-year letterwinner in baseball and basketball.

2021 SEASON

- Enjoyed a breakout season in his first year with the Giants, setting career highs in essentially every offensive category: hits (85), runs (52), 2B (17), 3B (3), HR (18), RBI (56) and walks (33).
- Was named the 2021 Willie Mac Award winner as voted upon by Giants players, staff and the fans.

POSTSEASON

- Appeared in all five NLDS games (three starts) in his first ever postseason... was 1-for-10 with a walk.

► FSL PITCHER OF THE WEEK (8/26/18 W/FLORIDA)

► 2019 SOU MID-SEASON ALL-STAR (MISSISSIPPI)

Grew up in Advance, NC, a community 75 miles northeast of Charlotte. The census-designated place is located in eastern Davie County and has a total area of 7.2 square miles.

Played baseball at Calvary Baptist School, where he posted a 7-1 record and 1.59 ERA as a junior. Walker was a standout as a pitcher and shortstop.

Made his MLB debut on July 26, 2019 at Philadelphia, where he threw 1.0 scoreless inning.

A Braves fan growing up, Walker was drafted by Atlanta in the fifth round in 2016. Walker's family made the five-hour trek from North Carolina to Turner Field for a game at least once a year.

Has not pitched in game action in two years. Missed all of 2020 due to recovery from shoulder surgery.

The last game that he pitched competitively in was September 15, 2019 for the Braves at Washington, working 1.2 scoreless innings at Nationals Park.

Saw his strikeout numbers tick up after being used as a reliever in 2019. He struck out 82 in 81.1 innings and walked only 11 in 32 games between Double-A Mississippi and Triple-A Gwinnett. His strikeout-to-walk ratio in 2019 was 7.45 compared to 2.15 (101 strikeouts and 47 walks) in 26 games as a starter in 2018.

Played collegiately at Gardner-Webb in Boiling Springs, NC. In three years with the Runnin' Bulldogs he started 30 games and had a 4.23 ERA.

Is the second Gardner-Webb product to play in the major leagues, joining catcher Blake Lalli.

When he was selected in 2016, he was the first Bulldogs player taken in the draft since 2008 (Adam Bullard by the Braves in the 48th round). He was the highest Gardner-Webb player taken since Zach Ward was taken by the Reds in the 3rd round of the 2005 draft.

Led all Braves minor leaguers with 143.0 innings in 2018, his last season as a full-time starter.

Made six starts for Peoria in the Arizona Fall League following the 2018 regular season.

He and his wife, Caroline, were married last November.

Jeremy and his brother, Jacob, who is a year older, played on the baseball team together in high school and for three years at Gardner-Webb.

ORANGE OCTOBER

Fired 7.2 scoreless innings with no walks and 10 strikeouts in his playoff debut, Game 1 of the 2021 NLDS vs. Los Angeles-NL. In doing so, Webb became the fourth Giants pitcher all-time to strike out at least 10 batters in his postseason debut. Overall, Webb was the 11th Giants pitcher to strike out 10 or more batters in a postseason game.

Furthermore, he became just the second pitcher in MLB history with 7+ scoreless innings, 10+ strikeouts and no walks in his postseason debut. The only other pitcher to do that was Jake Arrieta in the 2015 Wild Card Game.

YOUNG'N (HOLLA BACK)

Became the youngest Giant to start a winner-take-all postseason game at 24 years, 330 days old when he started Game 5 of the 2021 NLDS.

2.40

Webb's ERA over his final 20 starts of the 2021 regular season, second-best in the Majors behind LAD's Walker Buehler (2.32).

TWENTY

Number of consecutive starts Webb went without taking a loss from May 11, 2021 to the end of the regular season, tying an SF-era record (also Jack Sanford in 1962).

THE THIRTEENTH FLOOR

Was 6-0 with a 1.96 ERA in 13 games (12 starts) at home in 2021. As a team, the Giants were a perfect 13-0 in those games. If you include the postseason, the Giants went 14-1 in Webb's 15 games (14 starts) at home.

Webb was committed to play collegiately at Cal Poly before signing with the Giants after being drafted in 2014.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS ◀

Selected by San Francisco in the fourth round of the 2014 First-Year Player Draft; signed by Keith Snider.

Placed on the restricted list from May 1-July 28, 2019 (80-game suspension).

Placed on the injured list from April 18-20, 2021 (medical reasons).

Placed on the 10-day injured list from May 20 (retro to May 18)-May 29, 2021 (right shoulder strain).

Placed on the 10-day injured list from June 3 (retro to May 31)-July 9 (right shoulder strain).

Grew up in Rocklin, CA, which is located in Placer County approximately 22 miles from Sacramento.

Grew up going to both A's and Giants games but mostly A's because his father was a fan. Logan's favorite A's: Tim Hudson, Bobby Crosby and Stephen Vogt (who would catch him in his major league debut with the Giants).

Threw for 3,767 yards with 47 touchdowns and 18 interceptions in his football career at Rocklin (CA) High School. Was the starting quarterback his junior and senior seasons.

Married Sharidan Morales on December 5, 2021 in Sacramento, CA.

He is considered legally blind because of astigmatism, which causes blurred vision. Diagnosed in 3rd or 4th grade when he was having a hard time seeing the ball. Wore glasses until age 11 or 12, which made football difficult, then switched to contacts. He still usually wears glasses when he's not playing ball but only at night.

Underwent Tommy John surgery in June of 2016 and returned a season later in 2017.

His dad Erik played one season on the Serra High baseball team in San Mateo with Barry Bonds.

After having a breakout season in 2021, he was commonly referred to as "Baby Ace".

2019 SEASON

2019 was a roller-coaster ride. It began with an 80-game suspension for PEDs while playing for Double-A Richmond. When he returned, he made stops at every level from Arizona rookie to Low A, Double A, a single start in Triple A, then his Major League debut on August 17 in Phoenix. He became the youngest Giants pitcher to make his debut as a starter since then 20-year-old Madison Bumgarner in September 2009.

MESS WITH THE BULL AND...

He drinks three Red Bulls before every start. One right before he gets to the field, one before he starts stretching with the trainer, and then one as he finishes his warmup pitches in the bullpen.

Roots for the Sacramento Kings and Oakland Raiders.

QUITE A RUN

Has held opponents to two runs or fewer in 14 consecutive outings between May 11-September 2, 2021. In doing so, he became the first Giant in over a century to boast such a streak since Ferdie Schupp went 16 consecutive starts allowing two runs or fewer between 1916-1917. Only 12 other players in the modern era (since 1901) had a streak of at least 14 such games. See chart below for the full list since 1901

Clubbed his first career homer on the final day of the 2021 regular season, October 3, against the San Diego Padres off Nabil Crismatt. Webb earned the win that day as the Giants clinched the NL West Division title.

According to KCRA news in Sacramento, many fans and friends of Webb packed into CJ's Pizza Bar & Grill in Rocklin to watch Webb start Game 1 of the 2021 NLDS. The eatery is said to hold a special place in the hearts of Webb and his family.

Webb told The Athletic that the day after the 2021 regular season finale he drove back to Rocklin, put on a Maxx Crosby jersey and invited some of his friends over to watch Monday Night Football. His friends tried to talk to him about his upcoming playoff starts but all he wanted to talk about was a high school football game they all played when Webb was the quarterback.

HANG 10

Webb turned in a 10-game winning streak from May 11, 2021 through the end of the season. The last Giant to win 10 consecutive decisions was Johnny Cueto, who did so from April 26-July 6, 2016.

Webb's favorite snack food are Cheez It crackers.

2021 SEASON

- Wrapped up his third Major League season going 11-3 with a 3.03 ERA (50er, 148.1ip) in 27 games (26 starts) for SF.
- The Giants went 22-5 in his regular season starts, going 13-0 at home and 9-5 on the road.
- Went 11-0 with a 2.20 ERA (31er, 131.0ip) and a .213 opposing average over his last 22 starts (including the postseason)...he struck out 142 batters (9.76 SO/9) and held opponents to six homers (0.41 HR/9ip) in that stretch...his 2.40 ERA after May 11 was second-lowest in MLB (min. 20gs).
- The stretch also marked 22 consecutive starts without a losing decision, something no Giants pitcher can claim since Carl Hubbell did so from 1936-37.
- Webb went 6-0 with a 1.96 ERA (16er, 73.1ip) in 13 games at Oracle Park...his 1.96 ERA at home was third-lowest in the Majors (min. 65.0ip), trailing PHI's Ranger Suarez (1.51) and LAA's Shohei Ohtani (1.95).
- SF won each of his 12 home starts, the most consecutive team wins in a Giant player's home starts to begin a season since Billy Pierce also led the Giants to win 12 straight in 1962...the stretch also matches the second-longest such stretch in Giants history, trailing only Larry Benton's 14 consecutive home starts without a Giants loss in 1928...the last team to have gone undefeated at home when a player starts was Zack Greinke's Brewers in 2011 (Stats, LLC).
- Allowed nine homers over 148.1 innings, third-fewest in the Majors (min. 110ip)...his 0.55 HR/9ip average was third-best in MLB (min. 110ip), trailing MIL's Corbin Burnes (0.38) and MIA's Trevor Rogers (0.41).
- Had a 62.2% groundball rate, second-best in MLB (min. 110ip)...he also struck out batters out at a solid 26.5% rate.
- Was placed in the IL on June 3 with a right shoulder strain and missed 34 games, returning on July 9...also missed 10 games from May 18-28 with the same injury after feeling soreness following his start on May 17 at Cincinnati.

POSTSEASON

- Made his first career postseason start in Game 1 of the NLDS...earned his first postseason win after throwing 7.2-scoreless innings with just five hits and 10 strikeouts.
- Became the 10th-youngest player to start a postseason game for the Giants in the SF-era and youngest since Madison Bumgarner's World Series appearance in 2012 at 23 years and 85 days old.
- Was just the fourth Giant to strike out at least 10 batters in his first career postseason game, joining Jonathan Sanchez, Tim Lincecum and Carl Hubbell...he was also the first Major Leaguer to strike out 10 or more hitters in their postseason debut since Jacob deGrom struck out 13 in Game 1 of the 2015 NLDS...only 16 players in MLB history have had more than 10 strikeouts in their postseason debut.
- At 24 years, 330 days old, Webb became the youngest pitcher in Giants history to start a winner-take-all postseason game when he started Game 5 of the NLDS on Oct. 14...he limited LA to one run on four hits in 7.0 innings with seven strikeouts.

Also received the 2020 Bill Rigney "Good Guy" award from the Bay Area chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. The "Good Guy" award is presented annually to A's and Giants players who show extraordinary cooperation with the media.

IT'S ABOUT TIME...

Made his Major League debut May 25, 2019 after 703 games and 2,600 at bats in the minors and riding more 200,000 miles on buses. He spent four long years in Triple-A, always seemingly on the verge of making the big leagues.

SINGLE DIGIT FUN

He was offered No. 8 – his grandfather's number for 23 seasons with the Red Sox – but chose No. 5 instead when he was called up to San Francisco.

Posted an .852 OPS and hit 21 homers during his rookie season with SF in 2019. The only other Giant rookie in the SF era (1958-present) to post an .850 OPS and hit at least 20 homers was Orlando Cepeda in 1958.

Became the fifth player in the live-ball era to make his Major League debut in May or later and end up leading his team in homers that season. Yaz was tied for the team lead in homers (21) with Kevin Pillar in 2019.

Clubbed three homers on August 16, 2019 at Arizona, becoming the second Giants rookie in franchise history with a three-homer game. OF Jarrett Parker had the other on September 26, 2015 at Oakland. Yastrzemski's three-homer game came in his 70th career MLB game. His grandfather Carl had one three-homer game in his entire career (May 19, 1976 at Detroit).

Hit 21 homers in 2019, becoming the first Giants rookie to hit 20 or more homers in a season since Dave Kingman hit 29 in 1972.

He hit a combined 33 homers between Triple-A Sacramento and the Giants in 2019. He'd never hit more than 15 in a year entering 2019.

VandyBoys

Played collegiately at Vandy and was roommates with current Giants RHP Tyler Beede and C Curt Casali during his time there. Also played with current Major Leaguers Dansby Swanson, Walker Buehler, Tony Kemp, Bryan Reynolds, Sonny Gray and teammate Sam Selman at Vanderbilt.

Graduated from Vanderbilt with a bachelor of sciences degree in crime and society.

YAZ AND THE MLB DRAFT

Selected in the 36th round of the 2009 First-Year Player Draft by Boston but did not sign and elected to attend Vanderbilt... was also drafted after his junior season at Vanderbilt by Seattle (30th round, 2012) but returned to school.

Before the 2013 draft, a National League scout told the The New York Times that Yastrzemski "had outstanding makeup but would probably have to overachieve to reach the majors" because his power was limited.

Grandpa Carl, however, countered in the same story that he was 26 before he discovered his own power. "He'll learn to hit with power," he said. "Right now, the main thing is to hit for average and drive in runs."

Drafted by Baltimore in the 14th round in 2013 and signed. Didn't receive an invite to his first big league camp (with the Orioles) until 2019, when he was 28 years old. Traded to the Giants in March 2019 in exchange for minor league pitcher Tyler Herb.

Married his college sweetheart Paige Cahill on November 10, 2018 in Nashville, TN. The two welcomed their first child, Quinley Mae, on December 3, 2021.

His first concert was the Backstreet Boys when he was eight. He rode in a limo for the first time to the show.

Enjoys golfing in his spare time.

His favorite pizza topping is pepperoni.

TB12

Grew up a Patriots fan and his favorite non-baseball athlete is Tom Brady.

Worked with Heart and Armor, a Bay Area organization, in 2021 to connect more deeply with veterans. Yastrzemski and the group had conversations about mental health, resilience, history and taking care of one another.

2021 SEASON

- Hit a career-best 25 homers in his third season with the Giants...previous career-best was 21 as a rookie in 2019...also had a career-best 71 RBI, 28 doubles and 51 walks.
- Became the first Giants outfielder to hit 25 homers since Hunter Pence hit 27 in 2013.
- 56 of his 105 hits (53.3%) went for extra-bases (28 2Bs, three 3Bs, 25 HRs).
- Was the third-fastest Giant to reach 125 career extra base hits (284 games) in team history behind Hall of Famers Orlando Cepeda (269g) and Willie Mays (273g) (Stats, LLC).
- Over his final 23 games over the regular season, Yastrzemski hit .274 with four doubles, four homers, 19 RBI and a .919 OPS.
- Hit .170 (19x112) vs. LHP...hit .284 (19x67) vs. LHP in 2020.

- Started 119 games for SF and appeared in a team-high tying 139 games overall...IF Wilmer Flores also appeared in 139 games.

POSTSEASON

- Made his first career postseason roster and appeared in all five of the NLDS games (four starts), going 0-for-13.

The Dominican icon continues a long and storied career with the franchise, beginning with his playing days as a member of the original San Francisco Giants club in 1958.

The 2022 campaign will mark Alou's 67th season in professional baseball. Following a distinguished 17-year playing career that ended in 1974, he was appointed a minor league manager in 1976 and remained in uniform each year through the 2006 campaign. In 13 seasons as a Major League manager, the 1994 NL Manager of the Year posted a 1,033-1,021-1 ledger and became just the 53rd skipper since 1900 to register 1,000 wins. The Haina, Dominican Republic native is the first manager of Latin descent to win 1,000 games in the big leagues, and is only the third foreign-born skipper to reach the milestone (Bruce Bochy, France, 1,926-1,944; and Harry Wright, England, 1,000-825).

Alou became the first Dominican-born manager in Major League history when he assumed control of the Montreal Expos on May 22, 1992. Prior to the 2015 season, Alou was elected into the Canadian Baseball Hall of Fame, acknowledging his work with the Expos.

Primarily an outfielder during his playing days, the second Dominican-born player to reach the Majors (following Ozzie Virgil with the 1956 New York Giants) was a three-time All-Star during a 17-year career with the Giants (1958-63), Milwaukee and Atlanta Braves (1964-69), Oakland Athletics (1970-71), New York Yankees (1971-73), Montreal Expos (1973) and Milwaukee Brewers (1974).

POSTSEASON NOTES

NL WEST CHAMPIONS: The 2021 NL West Champion San Francisco Giants concluded their 139th regular season of play by winning their sixth NL West title and first since 2012...overall, it was the Giants' ninth division title since 1969...the Giants took sole possession of first place following their win on May 31 and held it for 121 of 122 days for the remainder of the season, beating out the Los Angeles Dodgers by 1.0 game.

WINNING THE WEST: The Giants won their first NL West title since 2012 and their sixth overall...the Giants have won NL West titles in 1997, 2000, 2003, 2010, 2012 and 2021 since the division was formed in 1994.

OCTOBER BASEBALL: SF participated in postseason play for the first time since 2016 but wound up dropping the NLDS to the Dodgers in five games...it was the 27th time in franchise history (since 1900) the Giants participated in postseason play and the 13th postseason appearance in SF-era history (since 1958).

POSTSEASON HISTORY: The Giants are now 100-93-2 all-time in postseason play and 61-52 in the SF-era (since 1958)...they are 19-20-2 (win-lost-split) in 41 postseason series, having gone 17-21 (4-5-0 win-lost-split) in eight trips to the NLDS, 24-15 (5-2-0) in seven trips to the NLCS and 57-57-2 in the World Series (8-12-2).

AN EPIC MATCHUP: According to Elias, the Giants-Dodgers NLDS was their first ever postseason meeting and it was the first time in MLB history (regular season or playoffs) that two teams met after winning at least 105 games.

BLANK SPACES: Both of the Giants wins during the NLDS were shutouts, giving the Giants 27 postseason shutouts during postseason play all-time...those 27 shutouts are second-most in postseason history behind the Yankees 32 such games...the Giants, however, have only played 195 postseason games whereas the Yankees have played in 414...of those 27 shutouts, 14 have been caught by Buster Posey, which is the most by a catcher all-time in the postseason well ahead of Yadier Molina (eight) and Yogi Berra (seven).

ANOTHER EPIC MATCHUP: Game 5 between the Giants and Dodgers became the fifth winner-take-all postseason game between teams with at least 100 wins all-time...the other four were: Game 7 of the 2017 WS (HOU vs. LAD), Game 5 of the 1977 ALCS (NYY vs. KC), Game 7 of the 1931 World Series (STL vs. PHA) and Game 8 of the 1912 World Series (BOS vs. NYG)...the home team has won two of those five matchups with the visiting team winning each of the last three games.

THAT'S A LOT OF GAMES: Including the five playoff games vs. the Dodgers, the two teams played against one another a total of 24 times...it was the first time in the SF-era (1958-pres.) that the Giants faced the same opponent at least 24 times in a single season (incl. playoffs)...the previous high was 23 games vs. Philadelphia in 1961) and 23 games apiece vs. Chicago-NL and Pittsburgh in 1960...the last time a Giants team played an opponent 24 or more times in a single season prior to 2021 was 1951, when they met the Brooklyn Dodgers 25 times.

LOGAN'S WEBB: RHP Logan Webb had quite a first impression in his first career postseason...the righty went 1-0 and allowed one run in 14.2 innings across his two starts in the NLDS (Game 1 and Game 5)...Webb began his postseason career with 12.2 scoreless innings, the second-longest scoreless streak to begin a postseason career by a Giants pitcher...the only longer streak came from Christy Mathewson, who began his postseason career with the New York Giants by tossing 28.0 scoreless innings from 1905-1911 (Stats, LLC).

THE WOLVERINE: Logan Webb's Game 1 outing (7.2ip, 0r, 0bb, 10so) stands among one of the best postseason debuts in Giants history...he became the fourth Giant to strike out double-digit batters in his first career postseason game and was the only one of the four to not allow a walk...furthermore, Webb became the second pitcher in Major League history with at least 10 strikeouts, no walks and no runs allowed in his postseason debut...the only other pitcher to put together such an outing was Jake Arrieta in 2015.

Giants Postseason Debut with 10+ K – All-Time

Starter	Game/Date	K's
Logan Webb	NLDS G1, 10/8/21	10
Jonathan Sanchez	NLDS G3, 10/10/10	11
Tim Lincecum	NLDS G1, 10/7/10	14
Carl Hubbell	WS G1, 10/3/33	10

BUSTING A MOVE: C Buster Posey went 6-for-20 during the NLDS and is the Giants franchise leader in hits during the postseason (57)...he passed former teammate Pablo Sandoval with his three-hit day in Game 2 of the NLDS...Posey also has played in the most postseason games of any Giant in franchise history (58).

BRYANT THE GIANT: IF/OF Kris Bryant was also one of SF's offensive bright spots during the NLDS, hitting .471 (8-for-17) with one home run and two RBI in the five-game series...Bryant reached base safely in four of the five games.

TOUGH STRETCH: The Giants were held to four runs or fewer in each of the five games during the NLDS...it was only the fourth time in 2021 (regular or postseason) that the Giants were held to four runs or fewer in five straight games...overall, SF scored a total of 10 runs in the five games and batted .182 (29-for-159) in the series...exactly half of the Giants runs in the series were generated with the home run.

YOUNG GUN: With his 2.0 inning save in Game 3, RHP Camilo Doval (24 years, 99 days) became the youngest Giants reliever to earn a save in a postseason game since saves became an official stat in 1969...prior to Doval, the youngest Giant to earn a save was Madison Bumgarner, who was 25 years, 89 days when he notched the save in Game 7 of the 2014 World Series at Kansas City.

REGULAR SEASON NOTES

OVERALL TEAM NOTES

HOW THE WEST WAS WON: The Giants clinched the National League West on the season's final day with their franchise-record-setting 107th win...at the beginning of the season, Fangraphs projected the Giants to finish third in the National League West with a 5.7 percent chance of making the playoffs.

WHAT A FINISH: When it was all said and done, the Giants won the division by one game over the second place Dodgers...according to Elias, the Giants and Dodgers won on the same day 66 times in 2021 (including the season's final day), which is the third-most all-time by two teams from the same league...the only divisional opponents that did it more often were the Mariners and A's in the AL West in 2001 (67)...additionally it's the third time ever that MLB had two 105+ win teams in the same season and it was the first time they were both in the same league (AL or NL) (ESPN Stats & Info).

SIMPLY ONE OF THE BEST...: The Giants set a new franchise record with 107 wins, surpassing the 1904 New York Giants who went 106-47-5...it was the eighth time that the Giants franchise reached the 100-win mark...the 107 wins were the most by a National League team since the 1986 New York Mets won 108 games, which is tied for the most wins by a National League team in the divisional era (1969-present)...the 1975 Reds also won 108 games...the Giants finished with the best record in the Majors this season at 107-55...the last time they had the best regular season record in MLB was 2000 (97-65).

TICKETS PLEASE!: SF clinched an overall playoff berth following its 9-1 win over the Padres on September 13 and was the first team in the Majors to secure a spot in the postseason this year...it was the earliest date in franchise history that the Giants secured a postseason berth... the list below does not include 1904 when the Giants won the NL pennant and refused to play in the World Series...the Giants clinched the pennant in fewer than 140 games that season. (Elias)

TEAM BATTING NOTES

ADIOS PELOTA! SF hit 241 homers in 2021, the most in franchise history for a single-season and the most in the National League...only the Blue Jays (262) hit more.

WE GOT FIVE ON IT: The Giants had a Major League record 17 different players hit at least five home runs, surpassing the previous mark held by the 2019 Mariners (16)...prior to 2021, the record by a National League club was held by the 2019 Reds, who had 15 such players.

DOUBLE DIGIT HOMERS: SF also had 10 different players reach the 10 homer threshold in 2021, most by any NL team and tied for the most in the Majors with the Dodgers, Rays and Yankees...the 10 such players with 10 or more homers was also a new team franchise record with the previous best being nine different players in 2000, 1987, 1958 and 1952.

AND WHEN YOU'RE FIFTEEN...: Additionally, the Giants had seven different players reach the 15-homer mark, the most of any team in Giants history...the previous mark was six different players with 15 or more homers by the 2002 Giants.

HOME RUN DIFFERENTIAL: SF's home run differential was +90, which was the best figure in the Majors and tied for the fourth largest differential in the NL all-time.

HOME RUNS WITH MEANING: Of the franchise-record 241 homers hit in 2021, 111 of them either gave the Giants the lead or tied the game (88 go ahead and 23 game tying)...the 111 go-ahead and game-tying homers were the most in the Majors...overall, the 111 such homers accounted for 46.1 percent of SF's homers hit in 2021.

NOT TO NITPICK BUT...: While the Giants offense had one of its most prolific seasons in some areas, the Giants did struggle in some instances...Giants batters drove in a runner from 3rd base with less than two outs 45.1% of the time, the lowest percentage of any team in the Majors...in terms of making productive outs overall, the Giants as a team had the worst percentage of making a productive out (21.9%) of any team in the Majors...Kansas City led the Majors at 32.6 percent...the league average was 26.4 percent.

TEAM PITCHING NOTES

PITCHING IN: The Giants pitching staff finished the season with the second-best ERA (3.24) in the Majors behind the Dodgers 3.01 ERA and issued the fewest amount of walks of any team in the Majors (416)...the next closest team, Tampa Bay, issued 436...if you look at full seasons only, the club's 416 walks were the seventh-fewest allowed in the SF-era (1958-present)...the last Giants team to walk fewer batters over a full season was the 2014 club (389).

NO BULL: The Giants bullpen had a 2.99 ERA at season's end, best in the Majors ahead of the Dodgers (3.16) and Rays (3.24)...it marked the lowest ERA posted by a Giants bullpen since 2010 (also 2.99)...they also had the lowest WHIP (1.13) and allowed the fewest walks (189) of any team in the Majors...they permitted only 24 homers, tied for sixth-fewest and fashioned a .222 batting average against, tied for second-lowest in the Majors this year behind the Dodgers (.205).

INDIVIDUAL PLAYER NOTES

THREE'S COMPANY: IF Brandon Crawford, RHP Kevin Gausman and C Buster Posey were all selected to the NL All-Star team for this year's Midsummer Classic in Denver...it was Crawford's third selection (also 2015 and 2018), Posey's seventh (also 2012-2013, 2015-2018) and Gausman's first...Crawford was the only Giant to play in the game as Gausman pitched the day before the break and Posey was dealing with a thumb injury at the time.

I'M HAVIN' A RECORD YEAR...: 13 different Giants tied or set career-bests for homers...IF Brandon Belt (29), IF Brandon Crawford (24), OF Alex Dickerson (13), IF/OF Mauricio Dubón (5), OF Steven Duggar (8), IF/OF Thairo Estrada (7), IF/OF Darin Ruf (16), OF Austin Slater (12), IF Donovan Solano (7), IF/OF Jason Voster (3), IF/OF LaMonte Wade Jr. (18) and OF Mike Yastrzemski (25) all set new career highs in homers while IF Wilmer Flores (18) matched his previous career best.

DYNAMIC DUO: Both IF Brandon Belt and OF Mike Yastrzemski eclipsed the 25-homer mark in 2021...it was the first time since 2006 (Barry Bonds and Ray Durham) that a pair of Giants teammates hit at least 25 homers...it's only the fifth time since 2000 that at least two Giants players each hit 25 or more homers.

WHO'S ON FIRST?: As a collective unit, Giants first basemen hit .283 with 48 homers, 106 RBI and a .969 OPS...the 48 homers were most in the Majors while the .969 OPS was second-best in the Majors behind Toronto's .970 OPS from first basemen.

also posting a career best .975 OPS for any season where he's played at least 95 games...18 of Belt's 29 homers came after the All-Star break as he averaged a homer every 8.61 at-bats...that rate was third-best by a Giants player in the SF-era after the break (see full chart below).

CLUTCH CRAW: Crawford hit a blistering .353 with RISP, fourth best in the Majors, while also hitting .474 in late inning pressure situation with RISP...30 of his 90 RBI this year either gave the Giants the lead or tied the game...the 30 such RBI were seventh-most in the National League...14 of Crawford's career-best 24 homers (58.3%) either gave the Giants a lead or tied the game (nine go-ahead, five game-tying).

GAUS DADDY: RHP Kevin Gausman turned in one of the best first half's in team history, posting a 1.73 ERA in his first 18 starts...his 1.73 ERA was the second-lowest by any qualified Giants pitcher in their first 18 starts since Hal Schumacher posted a 1.39 ERA in his first 18 games in 1933 (Elias)...Gausman went 5-3 with a 4.42 ERA over his 15 starts in the second half of the season but still finished with a career-high in wins and innings pitched, a career-low in ERA and reached the 200 strikeout mark for the first time in his career...Gausman finished among the NL Leaders in ERA (2.81, 6th), wins (14, T-5th), strikeouts (227, 4th), games started (33, T-1st), innings pitched (192.0, 5th), average against (.210, 6th) and WHIP (1.04, 7th)...his 492 swings and misses this season were most in the NL and second-most in the Majors only to Toronto's Robbie Ray (527).

THE COMEBACK KID: After opting out in 2020, C Buster Posey returned in 2021 to have one of his best offensive seasons since 2015...Posey's 18 homers were the most he'd hit since 2015 (19) while he finished the year with a .889 OPS, his best total since his MVP season in 2012 when he posted a .957 OPS in 148 games...additionally, Posey crushed left-handed pitching this season with a .368 batting average, fourth-best in the Majors (min. 100 PA vs. LHP).

LATE NIGHT LaMONTE: IF/OF LaMonte Wade Jr. led the team in game-winning RBI (13) while his 19 go-ahead RBI were second-most only to Crawford...Wade had eight go-ahead RBI that put the Giants in the lead in the 8th inning or later, most in the National League and second-most in the Majors only to Aaron Judge's nine...in the 9th inning this year, Wade was 13-for-24 (.565) with one double, one triple one homer and 12 RBI...he had six game-tying or go ahead hits in the 9th inning, the most by any MLB player in a season in the last 40 years according to Stats, LLC.

WEAPON X: RHP Logan Webb enjoyed a breakout campaign in 2021, setting career bests in virtually every category...from May 11 through the end of the regular season, Webb's 2.40 ERA was second-best in the Majors (min. 20 games started) only to LAD's Walker Buehler, who posted a 2.32 ERA in that time...over his final 20 starts of the season, Webb went 10-0 with that 2.40 ERA...the streak of 20 consecutive starts without taking a loss matched an SF-era record (also Jack Sanford in 1962).

30th Major League Baseball All-Star Game

Tuesday, July 11, 1961 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

In just its second year of existence, Candlestick Park—the Majors' first all-concrete stadium—played host to the first of two Major League Baseball All-Star Games played in 1961. Long before the days of the Home Run Derby and All-Star Gala, the game itself provided plenty of excitement, with a quartet of Hall of Famers leading the National League to a come-from-behind, 5-4, victory in 10 innings. Trailing the American League, 4-3, entering the bottom of the 10th, the senior circuit received a single from Hank Aaron, a run-scoring double by Willie Mays, a walk by Orlando Cepeda and the game-winning single from Roberto Clemente – all off fellow Cooperstown resident Hoyt Wilhelm.

However, those last at-bat heroics were almost not needed, as they became necessitated by one of the more bizarre and memorable moments in All-Star Game history. With the National Leaguers clinging to a 3-2, ninth-inning lead and a runner on third, a gust of wind knocked Giants' pitcher Stu Miller from his set position on the mound, resulting in a balk that allowed the tying run to score.

A capacity crowd of 44,115 filled the 'Stick for a contest that featured four San Francisco Giants (Mays, Cepeda, Miller and Mike McCormick) and a combined 18 players who would later be enshrined in the Hall of Fame.

55th Major League Baseball All-Star Game

Tuesday, July 10, 1984 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

After a 23-year absence, the Major League Baseball All-Star Game returned to the Bay Area with the 1984 Midsummer Classic at Candlestick Park. Proving well worth the wait, 57,756 fans were treated to fifteen future Hall of Famers.

Pitching dominated this contest, with the National League battersmates for the fourth and fifth innings stealing the headlines in a 3-1 senior circuit victory. On the 50th anniversary of the Giants' Carl Hubbell striking out five consecutive batters, the duo of Fernando Valenzuela and Dwight Gooden did "King Carl" one better. Valenzuela fanned all three American League hitters he faced in the fourth inning; then, the youngest player in All-Star Game history—a 19-year-old Gooden—whiffed all three batters in the fifth. Gary Carter, who caught both frames, also broke a 1-1 tie with a solo homer in the second en route to MVP honors.

Oakland's Bill Caudill, making his only All-Star appearance, also posted a perfect inning via strikeout, doing so in his lone frame (seventh). Fittingly, in a game that featured a combined 21 strikeouts, the tight contest ended when Goose Gossage fanned Henderson with a runner on base in the ninth.

78th Major League Baseball All-Star Game

Tuesday, July 10, 2007 at AT&T Park (San Francisco, CA)

The first All-Star Game at AT&T Park lived up to its billing, with the best of baseball turning in a thrilling contest in front of 43,965 fans. Most importantly, the game was San Francisco in all of its essence – beginning with an emotional pre-game tribute to Hall of Famer Willie Mays, the greatest Giant of them all.

True to Mays' greatness, the Midsummer Classic featured a little bit of everything – including the first inside-the-park home run in All-Star Game history, hit by Ichiro Suzuki en route to Most Valuable Player honors. In the end, the American League captured a 5-4 victory after withstanding the National League's furious two-out, ninth-inning rally.

Flexing its muscle and speed, the junior circuit jumped out to a 5-2 lead on the strength of three home runs.

The most memorable – and uniquely San Francisco – was Ichiro's two-run shot in the fifth that put the AL ahead 2-1. With a runner on first and one out, the Seattle star drove the first pitch he saw deep to right field – where it hit off the asymmetrical wall and caromed towards the 421-foot sign in right-center. By the time right fielder Ken Griffey, Jr. could relay the ball to the infield, Ichiro had scampered around the bases and set All-Star Game history.

Following Carl Crawford's solo home run in the sixth and Victor Martinez' two-run clout in the eighth, the AL gave a three-run lead to closer J.J. Putz in the ninth. After the first two National League hitters were retired, Dmitri Young singled and Alfonso Soriano hammered a two-run homer of his own to bring the senior circuit within 5-4. Three walks followed to load the bases – including two off new pitcher Francisco Rodriguez – but Rodriguez got Aaron Rowand to fly out and end the game.

Retired Uniform Numbers

In the storied 139-year history of Giants baseball, 12 former players or managers have enjoyed careers worthy of their jersey numbers being retired by the club. Only the New York Yankees (21) have retired more numbers. The 12 Giant greats are honored at Oracle Park with their names and retired uniform numbers displayed atop the Giants dugout and along the left field suite level facade.

Christy Mathewson and John McGraw, who both predated the use of numbers on jerseys, are recognized along with fellow New York Giants Bill Terry (#3), Mel Ott (#4), Carl Hubbell (#11) and Monte Irvin (#20). Willie Mays (#24), who played for the club on both coasts, joins former San Francisco stars Barry Bonds (#25), Juan Marichal (#27), Orlando Cepeda (#30), Gaylord Perry (#36) and Willie McCovey (#44) in this select group.

The Giants also honor Jackie Robinson, whose uniform number (42) was retired throughout Major League Baseball in 1997 to commemorate the 50th anniversary of his arrival in the big leagues.

In 2004, the Giants commemorated two of baseball's greatest broadcasters with disks honoring Russ Hodges and Lon Simmons.

The Giants recognize the following individuals, who have been honored by the National Baseball Hall of Fame for their contributions to the game: Lindsey Nelson (Ford C. Frick Award, 1988), Leonard Koppett (J.G. Taylor Spink Award, 1992), Bob Stevens (J.G. Taylor Spink Award, 1998), Nick Peters (J.G. Taylor Spink Award, 2009) and Jon Miller (Ford C. ## Russ Hodges

BROADCASTER*HOF Honoree: 1980

"Voice of Giants" for 21-year run that spanned both coasts...began in New York Giants' radio booth in 1949, followed club west in 1958, and broadcast San Francisco Giants games through 1970...author of most famous call in franchise annals, and perhaps in baseball history, with his "Giants Win the Pennant!" description of Bobby Thomson's playoff-winning homer against Brooklyn Dodgers Oct. 3, 1951...his "Bye-Bye Baby" call became synonymous with Giants home runs...Ford C. Frick Award winner entered Hall of Fame in 1980.

Lindsey Nelson

BROADCASTER*HOF Honoree: 1988

Nelson spent three seasons on the airwaves with the Giants from 1979-1981 after spending 17 seasons working in the New York Mets radio booth from 1962-1978...was nicknamed "Mr. New Year's Day" for calling the play-by-play of the Cotton Bowl Classic for 26 seasons on CBS...Nelson also called many Army-Navy games and was also the first announcer during the first NFL game on CBS that used instant replay where he had to remind viewers the programming wasn't live...was the Ford C. Frick Award winner in 1988.

Lon Simmons

BROADCASTER*HOF Honoree: 2004

One of original voices of San Francisco Giants, teaming with fellow Hall-of-Famer Russ Hodges to form arguably finest broadcast team in sports history...brought trademark "Tell It Goodbye" home run call to Giants broadcast booth for 23 years over three different stints (1958-'73, '76-'78 and '96-2002)...is only man to broadcast debuts for each of club's three San Francisco ballparks—Seals Stadium in 1958, Candlestick Park in 1960 and Oracle Park in 2000...beloved for his wit and charm, Bay Area legend was inducted into Hall of Fame in 2004 as 29th winner of Ford C. Frick Award.

Jon Miller

BROADCASTER*HOF Honoree: 2010

Miller, who has gained accolades for his attention to detail and his intellect, has spent four decades calling Major League Baseball games for the A's, Rangers, Red Sox, Orioles and his current team the Giants...was voice of ESPN's national Sunday Night Baseball telecasts for 21 years...broadcast 13 straight World Series on ESPN Radio and 16 overall...his energy, preparation and thoroughness has helped bring game to life in homes and hearts of so many listeners...Miller was honored as 35th Ford C. Frick Award recipient during Hall of Fame Weekend 2010.

Al Michaels

BROADCASTER

HOF Honoree: 2021

Al Michaels, whose passionate and authoritative voice was the nationwide soundtrack of the game for more than a decade, was the lead announcer for the Cincinnati Reds in 1971 and then the San Francisco Giants in 1974. Michaels joined ABC Sports in 1976, the beginning of a 30-year tenure with the network. He became lead announcer of Monday Night Baseball in 1983 while calling an array of other sports, including nearly two decades of Monday Night Football and calling the Miracle on Ice at the 1980 Winter Olympics. Michaels becomes the 45th winner of the Frick Award.

Giants Wall of Fame

On September 23, 2008, the San Francisco Giants unveiled the team's Wall of Fame, which serves as a living tribute to the organization's greatest players and executives. It recognizes retired players whose records stand highest among their teammates on the basis of longevity and achievements. Those honored have played a minimum of nine seasons for the San Francisco Giants, or five seasons with at least one All-Star selection as a Giant.

54 Giants legends have plaques on the wall in honor of their achievements. Bronze plaques honoring these players and their baseball contributions line the wall of Oracle Park along King Street for all baseball fans to enjoy. As present and future generations of Giants players or executives meet the criteria, plaques celebrating their careers will join the Wall of Fame upon their retirement.

Giants All-Time Postseason Results

National League Wild Card

2014 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. PITTSBURGH PIRATES

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 1 GAME TO 0)

The Giants defeated the Pirates, 8-0, in the National League Wild Card game backed by the arm of Madison Bumgarner and the bat of Brandon Crawford. Bumgarner threw a four-hitter while striking out 10 batters and Crawford hit a grand slam in the 4th inning off Edinson Volquez, sending the Giants from a winner-take-all wild-card game to a National League Division Series matchup with the Washington Nationals.

With the bases loaded in the 4th inning and nobody out in a scoreless game, Crawford turned on Volquez's hanging breaking ball and sent it to right field, landing a few rows deep and giving the Giants a 4-0 lead while silencing a PNC Park crowd of 40,629. Crawford became the first shortstop to hit a grand slam in postseason history and he joined Chuck Hiller (1962 World Series), Will Clark (1989 National League Championship Series) and Buster Posey (2012 NLDS) as the only Giants to hit a grand slam in postseason play.

Bumgarner, meanwhile, dominated one of the NL's best lineups, walking one and allowing just four singles on 109 pitches, 79 for strikes. Moments after finishing his shut-out, Bumgarner found himself surrounded by teammates in the middle of the diamond celebrating a playoff victory.

2016 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. NEW YORK METS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 1 GAME TO 0)

A game billed as a matchup between two of the Majors' most dominant pitchers proved exactly that as Noah Syndergaard and Madison Bumgarner matched zeroes for the first 7.0 innings. Syndergaard held the Giants hitless through 5.2 innings until a Denard Span single ended the no-hit bid. Bumgarner went the distance, scattering just four hits and two walks to go with six strikeouts.

With Mets closer Jeury's Familia on the mound and the game still locked in a scoreless tie in the top of the 9th, Brandon Crawford ripped a double to left-center on one of the few hard-hit balls of the night. Familia struck out

Angel Pagan, then walked Joe Panik.

Next up, Conor Gillaspie, who crushed a three-run homer that accounted for all the game's runs. Gillaspie became the third player in Major League history whose first career postseason home run was a go-ahead homer in the 9th inning or later in a winner-take-all game.

Meanwhile, Bumgarner became the first pitcher in baseball history with multiple postseason winner-take-all complete game shutouts.

National League Division Series

1997 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. FLORIDA MARLINS
(MARLINS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 0)

San Francisco won its first National League West title since 1989 to become only the fourth team during the 20th century to win its division after finishing in last place the previous season.

The Giants outdueled the Dodgers in a classic pennant race for the N.L. West flag. Perhaps the crowning moment of San Francisco's magical ride came Sept. 18 when catcher Brian Johnson led off the 12th inning with a game-winning clout off Los Angeles' Mark Guthrie to put the Giants in a first place tie with nine games remaining.

New General Manager Brian Sabean revamped the Giants roster, bringing in 15 players who were not in the organization at the end of the 1996 campaign. He shocked the baseball world by acquiring All-Star pitchers Wilson Alvarez and Roberto Hernandez and 18-year Major League veteran pitcher Danny Darwin from the Chicago White Sox in exchange for six minor leaguers at the July 31 trading deadline.

The renewed Giants made their first post season appearance in eight years when they faced National League Wild Card entry Florida Marlins in the Division Series. Despite losing all three games of the series, San Francisco gave Florida its toughest test en route to its first World Championship.

Both Games #1 and #2 came down to the last at-bat, with Florida taking advantage of being the home club and posting 2-1 and 7-6 victories, respectively.

Despite two solo home runs by Giants' second baseman Jeff Kent in Game #3, the Marlins finished off the sweep on the strength of Devon White's 6th inning grand slam off Alvarez.

2000 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. NEW YORK METS
(METS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

San Francisco won its second National League West title in four years as the club posted a Major League-best 97-65 mark, only to see its October run stopped short by the Wild Card New York Mets, a club that would eventually win the NL flag.

The Giants enjoyed a truly magical regular season, its first in its new jewel of a home, Pacific Bell Park. Playing in front of 81 straight sellouts that accounted for a franchise-record 3,244,320 fans, San Francisco rattled off a 55-26 ledger, matching the Mets for the best home mark in the majors.

Dusty Baker won his third NL Manager of the Year award after guiding his troops to a Major League-best 51-26 record after the All-Star Break, resulting in an 11-game cushion, the Giants' largest winning margin since 1913.

San Francisco produced its most prolific offensive attack in 70 years, led by National League Most Valuable Player Jeff Kent. Teammate Barry Bonds, who finished second in the MVP voting, clubbed 49 home runs.

The Giants jumped out to a 1-0 lead in the NLDS with a 5-1 victory in front of a raucous Game #1 crowd at Pacific Bell Park. Livan Hernandez held New York to one run over 7.2 innings while Ellis Burks clubbed a three-run, 3rd-inning homer off the left field foul pole.

J.T. Snow's dramatic three-run, pinch-hit homer in the bottom of the 9th tied Game #2 4-4, but the Mets would rally to win 5-4 in 10 innings and even the series at a game apiece.

Unfortunately for San Francisco, its offense went south when the club went East, as the Giants could manage only two runs in 22 innings at Shea Stadium. New York's Benny Agbayani gave the Mets a 3-2 victory in Game #3 with a 13th inning solo home run, and Bobby Jones hurled a one-hit shutout for a 4-0 win in the Game #4 clincher.

2002 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ATLANTA BRAVES

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 2)

Following a 3-0 loss at Florida on August 18, a stagnant San Francisco club stood at 66-56, four games behind Los Angeles in the NL Wild Card chase. From then on, the Giants would play like champions, going 29-10 down the stretch to capture the league's fourth playoff spot by three and a half contests over the Dodgers.

Despite a 95-win campaign that tied for the fourth-most victories in San Francisco history, the Giants entered the NLDS as heavy underdogs to the Atlanta Braves, who captured their 11th-consecutive division crown by an astounding 19.0-game margin.

Undaunted by their opponents and buoyed by the right arm of starter Russ Ortiz, the Giants stormed into Turner Field and won the series opener by an 8-5 count as Rich Aurilia, Benito Santiago and J.T. Snow all collected two RBI apiece.

Yet, the hope of Game #1 quickly turned into despair, as Atlanta backed the stout pitching of Kevin Millwood and Greg Maddux, respectively, with 17 combined runs in a pair of routs to take a 2-1 series lead.

Facing the prospect of a long winter, San Francisco turned to past playoff hero Livan Hernandez to work his magic once again in Game #4 at Pacific Bell Park. The big right-hander responded by hurling 8.1-strong innings, while Aurilia finished 3-for-4 with a homer and four RBI as the Giants won 8-3 to force a return trip to Atlanta.

In the decisive Game #5, Barry Bonds exorcised his demons of postseasons past, singling and scoring the Giants' first run in the 2nd and clubbing an opposite-field, solo homer in the 4th that gave SF a 2-0 lead. Ortiz became the first Giants pitcher to win two games in the same post season series since Carl Hubbell went 2-0 in the 1933 World Series, yet San Francisco's 3-1 victory was in doubt until the end. With two men on and none out in the 9th, closer Robb Nen struck out Gary Sheffield then induced Chipper Jones to ground into a series-ending double play.

2003 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. FLORIDA MARLINS

(MARLINS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

For the first time since 1936-37, the Giants earned consecutive appearances in postseason play, as the club won its third National League West title in seven years and became only the second team in franchise history to go wire-to-wire with an overall finish of 100-61.

A flurry of offseason moves brought new faces to San Francisco as the team introduced first year manager Felipe Alou and four new starters to the lineup. The revamped club breezed by their opposition, ending their campaign 15.5 games ahead of the Dodgers for the Giants' largest advantage in 91 years.

General Manager Brian Sabean garnered Executive of the Year accolades for constructing the team with the third best record in baseball and Barry Bonds earned his unprecedented sixth National League Most Valuable Player Award.

Headed into Game #1 of the NLDS rested and primed for success, pitching ace Jason Schmidt thrived in the intense atmosphere at SBC Park, tossing a complete-game three-hitter as the Giants blanked the visiting Marlins 2-0.

A sudden turn of events plagued the Giants in Game #2, as San Francisco saw their 4-1 lead quickly vanish as Gold Glovers made costly miscues and the Marlins escaped SBC Park with a 9-5 win.

Knotted up at 1-1, both teams headed to South Florida, but the Giants' run of bad luck seemed to follow. After taking a 3-2 advantage in the 11th inning of Game #3, SF let the Marlins slip back into the contest after a dropped fly ball by Jose Cruz, Jr. allowed the tying run on base. With two out, the bases loaded and a 1-2 count on Ivan Rodriguez, Tim Worrell's next pitch was drilled into right field for a game-winning, two-run single.

In Game #4, San Francisco's furious comeback in the 9th fell short as J.T. Snow was thrown out at the plate on Jeffrey Hammonds' two-out single to left, giving the Marlins a 7-6 victory and ending the Giants' hopes for another playoff run.

2010 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ATLANTA BRAVES*(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

After clinching the 2010 NL West Crown in the final game of the regular season, the Giants entered the NL Division Series at home vs. the Atlanta Braves. In order to get there, Giants' General Manager Brian Sabean had built a pitching staff that led the Majors in ERA with a 3.36 figure, while also revamping his offense throughout the season by acquiring difference-making outfielders Pat Burrell and Cody Ross as well as bringing up eventual 2010 NL Rookie of the Year Buster Posey from the minor leagues in late May.

San Francisco made a push for the 2010 NL West title on August 27. Entering that day, SF was 6.0 games back of the San Diego Padres, however the Giants were red hot in the season's final month, posting an 18-8 record, which was the second-best winning percentage in baseball.

The Giants would win the NLDS over the Braves 3- games-to-1 behind their stalwart pitching as all four games in the series were decided by a one-run margin, which marked the first time in postseason history in which every game was decided by one run. The pitching staff posted a 1.66 ERA as Tim Lincecum was dominant in his postseason debut, tossing a two-hit, 14-strikeout shutout during the Giants' 1-0 win in Game #1.

San Francisco lost Game #2 as the Braves' Rick Ankiel hit a splash hit home run in the top of the 11th frame to help Atlanta pull ahead 5-4.

The next two games were won in dramatic fashion as SF rallied past the Braves 3-2 in Game #3, thanks in part to three fielding errors by Atlanta second baseman Brooks Conrad.

Madison Bumgarner came up aces in Game #4 as he held Atlanta to two runs in 6.0 innings in his postseason debut.

However, it was Cody Ross who played hero in the clinching game as he homered in the 6th inning to break up Derek Lowe's no-hit bid, while also driving in the go-ahead run in the 7th inning as SF won 3-2 and clinched their first division series since 2002.

2012 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. CINCINNATI REDS*(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 2)

The 2012 edition of the Giants won the division title despite crushing injuries and unexpected slumps. All-Star closer Brian Wilson was lost for the year after a second Tommy John surgery, Freddy Sanchez never returned after battling back and shoulder issues, Melky Cabrera, acquired in the offseason, was lost in mid-August after testing positive for testosterone and two-time Cy Young award winner Tim Lincecum was having the worst season of his career.

Meanwhile, the Dodgers, with an influx of cash, shook the baseball world with a nine player trade with the Red Sox, centered around slugger Adrian Gonzalez going back to the West Coast.

However, All-Star catcher and 2012 MVP Buster Posey, along with mid-season acquisitions Marco Scutaro and Hunter Pence, ignited the Giants and after trailing the Dodgers by 7.5 games as late as May 28, they slowly chipped away and ended up winning the West by a whopping 8.0 games, their second division title in the last three seasons.

Their first round opponent in the playoffs, the Cincinnati Reds, led by Joey Votto and Brandon Phillips, stormed into San Francisco and took the first two games from the Giants, winning by scores of 5-2 and 9-0. Facing the daunting task of being down 2-0 in the best-of-five division series, the Giants now had to win three consecutive games on the road, something that had never been accomplished in baseball postseason history.

With all the local and national media counting the Giants out, Pence stood up and fired up his teammates with a football-like huddle and rallying speech in the dugout prior to Game #3, a game in which SF won 2-1, avoiding a sweep.

In Game #4, Angel Pagan hit the first leadoff home run in Giants' postseason history, and Gregor Blanco and Pablo Sandoval connected later for an 8-3 victory that evened the series at 2-2.

Not just any comeback would get SF back to playing for a pennant. It would take one of Giant proportions and Posey helped make it happen as he hit the third grand slam in Giants' postseason history and San Francisco pulled off an unprecedented revival, moving to the LCS with a 6-4 victory over the Reds in the deciding Game #5.

2014 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS VS. WASHINGTON NATIONALS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

San Francisco defeated the heavily favored Washington Nationals, three-games-to-one in the National League Division Series.

Jake Peavy pitched no-hit ball for 4.0 innings and didn't allow a run in his 5.2-inning outing in Game #1. Hunter Strickland bailed Peavy out of a bases-loaded jam in the 6th by striking out Ian Desmond. Bryce Harper and Asdrubal Cabrera each hit solo homers off Strickland in the 7th as the Nationals cut a 3-0 deficit to 3-2. Sergio Romo worked out of a jam in the 8th and Santiago Casilla retired all three hitters in the 9th for the save.

What became the longest-ever postseason game in terms of time (6:23) and tied for the longest in terms of innings had seemed headed for a conclusion in the 9th in Game #2. Washington's Jordan Zimmermann had a 1-0 lead, was working on a three-hitter and had retired 20 consecutive batters before walking Joe Panik with two outs in the final frame. Manager Matt Williams then brought in Drew Storen to face Buster Posey, who hit a first-pitch single, and then Pablo Sandoval tied the game by slicing a double into the left-field corner to bring home Panik. The Nats' relay was just in time to cut down Posey at the plate. The game soon spun into extra innings. Yusmeiro Petit threw 6.0-shutout innings, during which he allowed one hit and struck out seven. Leading off the 18th, Brandon Belt drove a Tanner Roark pitch over the right-field wall to put the Giants in front. Strickland preserved the edge in the bottom of the inning to pick up the save.

The Giants' 10-game postseason winning streak ended with an error in Game #3. Madison Bumgarner and Doug Fister were locked in a scoreless matchup in the 7th before the San Francisco ace inaccurately threw to 3rd after fielding Wilson Ramos' sacrifice bunt. Two runs scored on the errant throw.

A bases-loaded walk to Gregor Blanco and an RBI groundout by Panik gave the Giants a 2-0 lead in the second inning of Game #4. Hunter Pence made one of the Giants' top defensive plays of the postseason in the 6th when he banged into the right-field wall as he tracked down Jayson Werth's drive. However, Bryce Harper homered off Strickland in the following inning to tie the game at 2-2. The Giants regained the lead for good in the bottom of the inning on Aaron Barrett's wild pitch on which Panik came home. With two outs and the bases empty in the 9th, Casilla walked Harper before getting Wilson Ramos on a grounder to Panik at second. The Giants soon would spray champagne and prepare to meet the Cardinals in the NLCS.

2016 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS VS. CHICAGO CUBS

(CUBS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

The heavily favored Cubs defeated the Giants three-games-to-one in the best-of-five division series. Jon Lester outduelled Johnny Cueto in Game #1, a 1-0 Giants loss. Both Lester and Cueto logged 8.0 innings each, with the difference, a solo home run off the bat of Javier Baez in the 8th inning off Cueto making the Cubs Game #1 winners.

Game #2 pitted Jeff Samardzija against Kyle Hendricks and both starters lasted less than four innings, with Hendricks being removed due to injury and Samardzija getting roughed up for four runs on six hits in just 2.0 innings of work. Cubs relief pitcher Travis Wood homered off George Kontos and the Giants could not overcome an early 4-0 deficit as they dropped a 5-2 decision to go down 0-2 in the series.

The Giants needed a win in Game #3 or they would find themselves packing their bags for the offseason. It took 13.0 innings, but the Giants outlasted the Cubs by a 6-5 score to get into the win column. The Giants rallied for three runs off LHP Aroldis Chapman in the 8th to go ahead 5-3, then the Cubs stormed back to tie the score at 5-5 in the 9th. Four innings later, Brandon Crawford led off the 13th with a double and Joe Panik followed with a double off the right field wall, giving San Francisco the walk-off win.

Game #4 will leave a sour taste in Giants' fans mouths for a while as the team led 5-2 in the 9th and were just three outs away from pushing the series back to Chicago for a deciding fifth and final game. However, the Giants' bullpen, a problem for SF the latter part of the season, unraveled by giving up four runs on four hits and an error in the final frame to allow the Cubs to take a 6-5 victory.

Giants starter Matt Moore had one of his best starts of the year, allowing just two runs on two hits with 10 strikeouts in 8.0 innings of work.

2021 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. LOS ANGELES DODGERS (DODGERS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 2)

The 2021 NL West Champion Giants concluded their 139th regular season of play by winning their sixth NL West title and first since 2012, beating the Dodgers by just 1.0 game in the division with an overall record of 107-55, the Giants' best record in franchise history.

The Giants and Dodgers matched up in the Division Series, the first time these teams faced one another in the postseason. It was the first-ever postseason meeting that two teams played one another after winning at least 105 games in the regular season (LA won 106 games).

Game #1 pitted Logan Webb against Walker Buehler, with Webb outdueling the Dodgers ace by pitching 7.2-scoreless innings with 10 strikeouts. Webb became the fourth Giant to strike out double-digit batters in his first career postseason game and was the only one of the four to not allow a walk in the Giants 4-0 victory

The Dodgers dominated Game #2 by winning 9-2, scoring seven of the nine runs in the final four innings.

Game #3 was a matchup between former Dodger Alex Wood and Max Scherzer. Evan Longoria provided the game's only run in the 5th inning by hitting a solo homer and the Giants took a two games to one series lead. It marked the Giants' 100th career postseason win and their 27th postseason shutout all-time.

Anthony DeSclafani, making his postseason debut, lasted just 1.2 innings, allowing two runs on five hits in his Game #4 start as the Giants dropped the fourth game by a 7-2 count. Mookie Betts led the Dodgers with three RBI.

In the fifth and final game of the series on October 14 at Oracle Park, the Dodgers and Giants were tied at 1-1 heading into the 9th inning before LA took a 2-1 lead on a Cody Bellinger RBI single. That was all LA needed as Max Scherzer closed out the victory to advance the Dodgers to the NLCS.

National League Championship Series

1971 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. PITTSBURGH PIRATES
(PIRATES WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

After winning its first National League West crown, San Francisco entered the National League Championship Series as the favorite against Eastern Division titlists Pittsburgh. The Giants had posted nine wins in 12 contests vs. the Pirates during the regular season.

However, the Giants ran into the hot hitting of Pirates' first baseman Bob Robertson, who clubbed four home runs to lead Pittsburgh to a three games-to-one series victory.

Since staff ace Juan Marichal pitched San Francisco to the NL West flag in its season finale at San Diego, future Hall of Famer Gaylord Perry got the call in Game #1. The right-hander scattered four runs (three earned) and nine hits over his complete game effort as Willie McCovey and Tito Fuentes each delivered two-run home runs in the fourth inning to power SF to a 5-4 victory.

Then Robertson took over. He clubbed a NLCS record three home runs in Game #2 to lead the Pirates to a 9-4 triumph. The first baseman finished 4-for-4 with four runs scored and five RBI as Pittsburgh's victory ended a six-game losing streak at Candlestick Park.

Marichal pitched a four-hitter when the playoffs shifted to Three Rivers Stadium for Game #3, but home runs by Robertson and Richie Hebner gave the Pirates a 2-1 victory behind Bob Johnson and Dave Giusti. The Bucs advanced to the World Series when they tattooed Perry for seven runs and 10 hits over 5.2 innings in the fourth and final game of the series.

1987 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS*(CARDINALS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

The Giants became only the fourth team in Major League history since 1900 to finish first within two years of a 100-loss disaster. SF rattled off a 90-72 mark to win the 1987 National League West crown after going 62-100 in 1985.

San Francisco battled back from a five-game deficit on Aug. 7 and went 37-17 the rest of the way to capture its first NL West title in 16 years.

Jeffrey Leonard, whose “one-flap-down” home run trot was the story of the series, became the first player on a losing team to capture the NLCS MVP honor when he hit .417 with four home runs and five RBI despite the Giants falling to the Cardinals in seven games. San Francisco split the first two games of the series in St. Louis, with Dave Dravecky, who was acquired from the San Diego

Padres in a seven-player deal on July 4, shutting out the Cardinals on two hits in Game #2. When the series moved to Candlestick Park, the Giants took a 4-0, fifth-inning advantage in Game #3 but the Cardinals roared back to post a 6-5 victory and take a 2-1 lead in the series.

Leonard responded by crushing a two-run clout in the fifth inning of the fourth game to push San Francisco to a series-evening 4-2 triumph. His four homers in four games tied the Championship Series record for a league playoff of any duration.

The Giants took a three games-to-two series advantage back to St. Louis after posting a 6-3 victory in the fifth contest. However, San Francisco didn't score a run in either of the last two games.

1989 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. CHICAGO CUBS*(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

Will Clark carried the Giants to their first NL pennant in 27 years when San Francisco defeated the Chicago Cubs in five games.

Clark provided offensive bookends in the series, starting with six RBI in the opener and ending with a two-out, bases-loaded, series-winning two-run single in the eighth inning of Game #5. “Will the Thrill” established new NLCS standards for average (.650), hits (13), runs (eight), total bases (24) and slugging percentage (1.200).

Included in those opening seven six RBI for Clark was his fourth-inning grand slam off Cubs' starter Greg Maddux, which gave San Francisco an 8-3 lead. The Giants' first baseman finished the contest 4-for-4 with four runs scored, a double and two home runs.

The Cubs claimed victory in Game #2, so the series headed to San Francisco tied a game apiece. However, Robby Thompson clubbed a two-run, 7th-inning homer off Les Lancaster to give the Giants a 5-4 victory in the third game.

In one of the most intense at-bats in Giants' postseason history in Game #4, Matt Williams locked up with lefty Steve Wilson in a 12-pitch plate appearance that resulted in a two-run blast which propelled San Francisco to a 6-4 victory.

As broadcaster Hank Greenwald said, “27 years of waiting have come to an end” when the Giants posted a 3-2 come-from-behind victory in Game #5. Clark once again delivered the game-winner, a two-run single up the spine of the infield off Mitch “Wild Thing” Williams.

2002 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

Following a furious late-season run to capture the Wild Card berth and a stirring five-game NLDS victory over Atlanta, the Giants provided the only truly fitting encore—they won the club's first NL pennant in 13 years by defeating the St. Louis Cardinals in a scintillating and highly competitive five-contest NLCS.

San Francisco began its run to the Fall Classic by winning each of the first two contests in St. Louis. The Giants pounded Cardinals ace Matt Morris early and often en route to a 9-6 victory in Game #1, while Jason Schmidt turned in a dominating Game #2 performance. The right-hander struck out eight and carried a shutout into the eighth inning, while Rich Aurilia's two-homer, three-RBI effort spurred a 4-1 triumph.

Despite Barry Bonds' dramatic three-run, fifth-inning homer into McCovey Cove that briefly tied Game #3 at Pacific Bell Park, a solo clout by St. Louis' Eli Marrero and stingy pitching by the Cardinal bullpen gave the visitors a 5-4 win and renewed hope.

St. Louis jumped out to a 2-0, 1st-inning lead in Game #4 and appeared on its way to evening the series until a pair of Giants veterans turned the tide. In the 6th, J.T. Snow delivered a two-out, two-run double that knotted the contest. Following a two-out intentional walk to Bonds in the eighth, Benito Santiago cemented his series MVP honors by clubbing a full-count offering from Rick White into the left field bleachers for a 4-2 lead. Robb Nen struck out the final two hitters in the 9th to strand the tying run at third and close out a 4-3 SF victory.

Giants' lefty Kirk Rueter and Morris engaged in a classic October pitchers' duel in a Game #5 that was scoreless until St. Louis broke through with a run in the 7th. Bonds tied the contest 1-1 with an eighth-inning sacrifice fly, thus setting the stage for one of the most dramatic moments in San Francisco history.

Morris retired the first two Giants hitters in the bottom of the 9th inning, but was chased by consecutive singles from David Bell and Shawon Dunston. St. Louis turned to reliever Steve Kline, and Kenny Lofton greeted the southpaw by lining his first pitch into right-center field for a single that scored a sliding Bell as the jubilant NL champion Giants poured onto the field.

2010 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA PHILLIES*(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The Giants again relied upon the strength of their pitching in the League Championship Series as they went on to win the best-of-seven LCS from the Phillies to clinch their 18th National League Pennant and fourth while in San Francisco.

Tim Lincecum outdueled Roy Halladay in Game #1 as Cody Ross hit a pair of solo home runs off of the eventual 2010 NL Cy Young award winner to help the Giants defeat the Phillies 4-3 in the opener.

Game #2 did not go as scripted for San Francisco as the Phillies' Roy Oswalt allowed just one run in 8.0 innings and Jimmy Rollins drove in four runs as the Phillies won 6-1. Ross was the lone bright spot for Giants' offense as he connected for his third home run of the series, which tied the game at one apiece in the 5th inning.

San Francisco grabbed a 2-1 edge in Game #3 with a 3-0 shutout behind Matt Cain, who stymied the Phillies in 7.0 innings, allowing just two hits. The Giants scored in the 4th as once again it was Ross who delivered a run-scoring single, which helped cement his status as the NLCS MVP.

Juan Uribe delivered a walk-off sacrifice fly off Roy Oswalt with one out in the 9th inning as SF took Game #4 by a 6-5 count. Buster Posey also contributed offensively going 4-for-4 and becoming the first rookie in the San Francisco era and second in club history to record four hits in a postseason game.

The Giants entered Game #5 just one win away from clinching their 18th NL Pennant and had their ace on the mound with Lincecum. However, the Phillies countered with Roy Halladay, who was pitching with an injured right groin. The injury did not deter him as the Phillies won 4-2, which sent the series back to Philadelphia.

Early during Game #6 it appeared as if the series would go to seven games, as Giants' starter Jonathan Sanchez worked just 2.0 innings, allowing a pair of runs. However, the bullpen was stellar, combining for 7.0-scoreless innings to keep the Giants in the game. Juan Uribe hit an opposite-field home run that barely cleared the right-field wall in the 8th inning, sending the Giants' dugout into a frenzy. Brian Wilson was called upon after Lincecum, and, allowed consecutive one-out singles in the 8th. Wilson got Carlos Ruiz to lineout into a double-play to escape the frame. The Giants' closer then made things interesting in the 9th, issuing walks to Jimmy Rollins and Chase Utley, before striking out Ryan Howard looking to end the game.

2012 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS*(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

After a historic win over the Cincinnati Reds in the Division Series, the Giants faced the St. Louis Cardinals in the League Championship Series for the third time in postseason history. It marked the first time in LCS history that the previous two World Series winners had met.

The clubs split the first two games in San Francisco, with Carlos Beltran and David Freese each hitting two-run home runs to lift the Cardinals to a 6-4 victory in Game #1. In Game #2, Marco Scutaro hit a two-run single in San Francisco's four run 4th inning before leaving with a hip injury and the Giants received their first home win in the postseason, with a 7-1 victory to even the LCS at one game apiece.

The series shifted to St. Louis and the Cards took advantage of the home field as Matt Carpenter hit a two-run home run after subbing for Beltran, and the Cardinals chased Matt Cain before a three and a half hour rain delay in the 7th inning of a 3-1 Red Bird Game #3 win.

The Giants were routed 8-3 in Game #4. Adam Wainwright threw 7.0 innings of four-hit ball and St. Louis' offense roughed up Tim Lincecum and the Giants' bullpen.

Facing elimination for the fourth time in the 2012 postseason, the Giants' sent Barry Zito to the mound in Game #5 and the soft-tossing lefty was at his best, pitching San Francisco back into the series with a 5-0 win that narrowed SF's deficit to 3-2. Zito resembled the same guy who won the 2002 AL Cy Young Award with the A's, as he retired 11 consecutive batters in one stretch while striking out six in 7.2 innings.

Back in San Francisco for a Game #6, the Giants chased opposing starter Chris Carpenter to an early exit in their 6-1 victory that forced the series to a decisive Game #7. Ryan Vogelsong finished with nine strikeouts, a career-high for any game.

Hunter Pence got the Giants going with a weird double, Cain pitched his second clincher of the postseason and the Giants closed out Game #7 of the LCS in a rainstorm, routing the Cardinals 9-0 to advance to the World Series for the 19th time in franchise history, the fifth time since moving to San Francisco and for the second time in the last three seasons.

San Francisco won its record-tying sixth elimination game of the postseason, completing a lopsided rally from a 3-1 deficit. Scutaro recorded his sixth multi-hit game of the series and matched an LCS record with 14 hits and Pablo Sandoval drove in a run for his fifth straight game. After falling behind in the series 3-games-to-1, the Giants outscored the Cardinals 20-1 over the final three games behind stellar pitching performances from Zito, Vogelsong and Cain.

2014 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS VS. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

The underdog Giants beat the Cardinals four-games-to-one in the National League Championship Series.

In Game #1, Madison Bumgarner (named the NLCS MVP) threw 7.2 innings, extending his road postseason scoreless streak to a major-league-record 26.2 innings. He allowed four hits, struck out seven and walked one. Sergio Romo and Santiago Casilla retired the final four St. Louis hitters in order.

Game #2 was one of the Giants' best postseason games in 2014. St. Louis led 2-0 before the Giants scored single runs in the 5th, 6th and 7th innings to go in front 3-2. Cardinals rookie Oscar Taveras hit a pinch-hit homer off Jean Machi in the bottom of the 7th to tie the game. In the following frame, Matt Adams homered off Hunter Strickland to make it 4-3, Cardinals. With men at first and second and two outs in the 9th, Trevor Rosenthal uncorked a wild pitch on a 3-2 delivery to Joe Panik. Going on the pitch, pinch-runner Matt Duffy motored home for a 4-4 game. The tie didn't last 9th inning by hitting an 0-1 pitch from Romo into the right field seats, giving the Cardinals a 5-4 win.

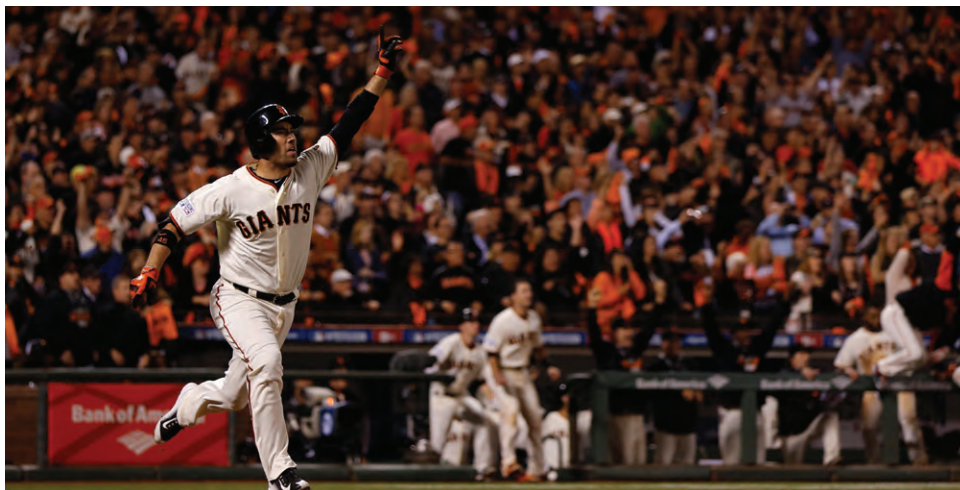

The Giants won Game #3, 5-4 in 10 innings. Tim Hudson had a 4-0 lead before the Cardinals would whittle the margin to 4-3 and tie the game on Hudson's final pitch. Brandon Crawford opened the bottom of the 10th inning by drawing a walk from lefty Randy Choate. Juan Perez then lined a single to left before Gregor Blanco followed by dropping down a bunt between the mound and the third-base line. Choate grabbed it and made an errant throw to first base allowing Crawford to score the winning run.

After St. Louis built a 4-1 lead in the 3rd off Ryan Vogelsong in Game #4, the Giants answered with two in the bottom of the inning, getting two-out RBI singles from Buster Posey and Hunter Pence. Yusmeiro Petit blanked the Cardinals over the next three innings to pick up the win.

Game #5 was perhaps one of the most memorable postseason games in Giants history. Panik put SF up 2-1 in the 3rd inning after hitting a two-run homer off Adam Wainwright. However, Matt Adams and Tony Cruz hit solo HRs off Bumgarner in the 4th, giving the Cards a 3-2 lead. Bumgarner did not allow a baserunner after Cruz's homer, setting down the final 13 men he faced. Wainwright had retired 10 straight through the 7th, but Pat Neshek replaced him to begin the 8th. Pinch-hitter Michael Morse greeted Neshek with a drive over the wall in left to tie the game and send the AT&T Park crowd into a frenzy. The Cardinals sent Michael Wacha to the mound in the 9th. Pablo Sandoval opened the inning with a single, and Joaquin Arias pinch-ran for him. With one out, Wacha lost all contact with the strike zone, throwing four consecutive balls to Brandon Belt and falling behind Travis Ishikawa 2-0. Ishikawa proceeded to etch his name next to Bobby Thomson's for hitting a home run that propelled the Giants to the World Series.

World Series

1905 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS
(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

The Fall Classic returned after a year's hiatus and Hall of Famer Christy Mathewson made it his showcase, leading the Giants to their first World Championship with three shutout victories.

The 25-year-old right-hander, who had 32 victories in 1905 to register his third straight 30-win season, shut down the Philadelphia Athletics in New York's five-game victory. In the space of six days, he pitched three shutouts and permitted just 14 hits overall.

Mathewson even played a part in the Giants' offense during a 3-0 Game #1 victory in Philadelphia. He ignited a two-run rally in the fifth inning to break open a scoreless contest, then went on to shut out the Athletics on four hits.

New York skipper John McGraw, who boycotted the 1904 World Series vs. the Boston Red Sox, didn't have to rely solely on Mathewson to get him the title. He also had Red

Ames and Joe McGinnity, who won 22 and 21 games during the regular season, respectively, in his rotation.

Those two hurlers worked in Game #2, but McGinnity was ticketed with the defeat after surrendering three unearned runs in a 3-0 defeat.

Mathewson was staked to a 2-0, 1st inning lead in Game #3 and responded by blanking Philadelphia on four hits. First baseman Dan McGann was the Giants' big gun in the 9-0 romp, collecting two singles and a double while driving in four runs.

McGinnity rebounded from his Game #2 defeat to shut out Eddie Plank and Philadelphia in a classic 1-0 pitchers' duel in Game #4.

But it was Mathewson who got to finish off the job he started when he blanked the Athletics 2-0 in the fifth and deciding game.

1911 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS
(ATHLETICS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The "running" Giants, who established a league record with 347 stolen bases, persevered through the rebuilding of the Polo Grounds and posted 99 victories to capture the National League pennant. New York had to play its home games through early June at the park of the American League's New York Highlanders (later the Yankees) after the Polo Grounds burned to the ground in April.

However, New York's offense was limited to only four stolen bases in its six-game World Series defeat to the Philadelphia Athletics.

1905 Series hero Christy Mathewson still anchored John McGraw's pitching staff, going 26-13 during the regular season. The Hall of Famer got New York off to a great start vs. Philadelphia in Game #1 of the Fall Classic, tossing a six-hitter in the 2-1 triumph.

The Athletics rebounded to take Games #2 and #3 with Frank "Home Run" Baker clubbing dramatic home runs in both outings.

Then the rains came. The World Series was put on hold for six days due to Mother Nature.

When the Fall Classic resumed exactly a week after Game #3 had been played, Mathewson was outduelled by Chief Bender in a 4-2 decision that gave the Athletics a three-games-to-one advantage.

The Giants escaped the inevitable in Game #5 by scoring a 4-3 triumph in 10 innings before getting clobbered 13-2 in the series' sixth and final game.

1912 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. BOSTON RED SOX*(RED SOX WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3 - 1 TIE)

The Giants, bolstered by lefty Rube Marquard's modern Major League record 19-game winning streak, lived a storybook 1912 campaign. That's until the 10th inning of the final game of the World Series, when usually-reliable center fielder Fred Snodgrass dropped a fly ball that opened the door for a two-run Boston rally that gave the Red Sox the title.

New York, which featured two 20-game winners in Marquard (26) and Christy Mathewson (23), posted 103 victories during the regular season and coasted to the pennant with a ten-game cushion.

Newcomer Jeff Tesreau, who won 17 games for the Giants, got the nod in Game #1 but suffered a 4-3 defeat to the Red Sox.

Despite a see-saw contest that saw four lead changes, Game #2 was a wash as it was called due to darkness, thus making the 1912 World Series an eight-game affair.

The Giants evened the score in Game #3, posting a 2-1 victory behind Marquard before the Red Sox got the better of Tesreau again in the fourth contest, this time by a 3-1 count.

Trailing two-games-to-one, the Giants posted 5-2 and 11-4 wins, respectively, in Games #6 and #7.

The Series came down to the 10th inning of the eighth and final game, as the Giants and Red Sox were deadlocked at 1-1 after nine innings. New York took a 2-1 lead in the top half of the 10th before the wheels fell off in the bottom half. Boston pinch hitter Clyde Engle opened the frame with a routine fly ball that Snodgrass was camped under and then dropped.

Boston eventually won the game 3-2 on a sacrifice fly in the 10th and ruined New York's magical season.

1913 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS*(ATHLETICS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

New York won its third straight National League flag, but couldn't get over the hump in the World Series for the third consecutive year, falling four-games-to-one to the Philadelphia Athletics.

After winning the pennant with a twelve-game cushion, the Giants were beset by injuries during the Fall Classic. First baseman Fred Merkle was limited to 13 at-bats due to a bad leg. Center fielder Fred Snodgrass played in only two games and made three trips to the plate after suffering from a severe charley horse. Chief Meyers, the Giants' catcher, was shelved for the Series after suffering a fractured finger in practice preceeding Game #2.

The Athletics jumped out to a 1-0 series advantage after shelling Rube Marquard for five runs and eight hits in five innings for a 6-4 victory in the opener.

Once again, Christy Mathewson provided New York with a fine postseason performance when he tossed a 3-0, 10-inning shutout in Game #2. He even drove in the game-winning run with his single in the 10th.

That was last highlight for the Giants as the Athletics rolled to the World Championship by posting victories in each of the last three contests.

Mathewson, pitching in what would be his final World Series, wound up with a 5-5 lifetime mark in the Fall Classic—he was 4-0 at one point—after splitting two decisions in 1913.

Skipper John McGraw was determined to restore his club to World Series glory. However, it would be another four years until the Giants would take the field again in the championship series.

1917 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. CHICAGO WHITE SOX

(WHITE SOX WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The Giants' run of bad luck continued in their fourth straight World Series defeat as they fell to the Chicago White Sox in six games.

In the sixth and deciding game, New York was in a scoreless deadlock with Chicago heading into the fourth inning. That's when the Giants' penchant for mistakes at inopportune times reared its ugly head once again. This time, Chicago second baseman Eddie Collins led off the frame with a grounder to New York third baseman Heinie Zimmerman, who made a two-base throwing error on the play. Joe Jackson's ensuing fly ball was dropped by right fielder Dave Robertson, positioning White Sox at the corners.

Chicago center fielder Happy Felsch then grounded back to the pitcher, Rube Benton, who saw Collins break from third and threw to Zimmerman in an attempt to get Collins hung up. Zimmerman ran Collins toward the plate, but the runner bounded past catcher Bill Rariden to make it a Zimmerman-Collins race to the plate. The White Sox second baseman won the footrace and distracted the Giants' defense enough to allow the baserunners to advance to second and third. Both Chicago runners would score on an ensuing base hit. That's all the White Sox would need to salt away the World Championship as they went on to win Game #6 by a 4-2 count.

Famed Olympian and footballer Jim Thorpe was on the 1917 Giants' club, but made only one "appearance" during the World Series in Game #5. He was slated to start in right field, but never took the field. The right-handed hitting Thorpe was removed for a left-handed pinch hitter after the White Sox lifted lefty hurler Reb Russell in favor of right-hander Eddie Cicotte.

1921 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 5 GAMES TO 3)

The Giants snapped a four-World Series losing streak when they outdueled the rival Yankees in a thrilling eight-game series. With both clubs playing their home contests at the Polo Grounds, it was the first Fall Classic to be played in its entirety at one stadium.

The National League champions were headlined by third baseman Frankie Frisch, right fielder Ross Youngs, first baseman George Kelly and left fielder Irish Meusel, while Babe Ruth and his 59 home runs was the sparkplug for the Yankees.

The American Leaguers jumped out to a two games-to-none lead after posting consecutive 3-0 victories. The Giants battled back from a 2-0, 2nd inning deficit in Game

#3 to post a 13-5 victory. John McGraw's club knotted the Fall Classic at two games apiece when it logged a 4-2 triumph in the fourth game, despite Ruth's first World Series home run.

Ruth, hobbled by knee and arm ailments, spirited the Yankees to a 3-1 victory in Game #5 when he started the go-ahead rally with a bunt base hit.

However, the Bambino couldn't continue and the Giants took advantage of the situation to run off three straight victories and give the franchise its first World Championship since 1905. Art Nehf got the National Leaguers over the top with his four-hit, 1-0 victory in Game #8.

1922 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES*(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 0 - 1 TIE)

The Giants, playing the second of four consecutive World Series, earned their berth by taking the National League pennant with a seven-game cushion.

John McGraw's club brought home its second straight title after defeating its fellow Polo Grounds tenants, the Yankees, in a four-victory sweep that actually took five games to complete due to a tie.

Third baseman Heinie Groh, who was acquired from Cincinnati the previous winter, led the Giants to a 3-2 triumph in the opener after logging a 3-for-3 showing. The National League entrant had been shut out by Joe Bush through seven innings, before it stormed back from a two-run deficit on Irish Meusel's two-run single and Ross Youngs's sacrifice fly.

Meusel got back in the act quickly in Game #2, drilling a three-run home run off Bob Shawkey in the 1st inning.

However, the Yankees battled back to tie the contest at 3-3 and it was inexplicably called because of "darkness" after the 10th inning by umpire George Hildebrand, despite at least a half-hour of daylight remaining.

Jack Scott, who went 8-2 in just 17 games for the Giants, tossed a four-hitter at the Yankees in Game #3 and led the National Leaguers to a 3-0 victory.

The Giants managed to post 4-3 and 5-3 victories in the fourth and fifth games, respectively, to advance to their second straight title. It also helped that the Giants' pitchers shut down Babe Ruth over the final three outings, holding him 0-for-9.

The 1922 World Championship would prove to be the third and final one in the illustrious career of the Giants' winningest skipper, John McGraw.

1923 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES*(YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

It was an all-New York World Series for the third straight year, but there were a few changes. First, the Yankees moved into their own ballpark, Yankee Stadium. Second and most importantly, the American League entrant ended the Giants' two-year reign as World Champions.

The man who proved to be a thorn in the side of the Yankees was a Giants' outfielder who would later become synonymous with the club from the Bronx—Casey Stengel.

The 34-year-old outfielder christened World Series play in Yankee Stadium when he lined a ninth inning Joe Bush offering into left-center field that got between the outfielders for an inside-the-park home run, breaking a 4-4 draw and giving the Giants a 5-4 triumph in Game #1.

The Yankees, who had not defeated the Giants in their last nine World Series meetings (eight defeats, one tie), finally broke through in Game #2 when Babe Ruth clubbed two home runs in the 4-2 victory.

When the Series returned to Yankee Stadium for Game #3, Stengel shared the stage with pitcher Art Nehf. The outfielder broke open a scoreless duel with a home run into the right field stands. Nehf finished off the American Leaguers after allowing five singles and a double in the 1-0 win.

That was all she wrote for the Giants as the Yankees rattled off three consecutive victories to win their first World Championship. The American Leaguers coasted to 8-4 and 8-1 victories in Games #4 and #5, respectively.

In the sixth and final contest, Ruth got the Yanks off to a great start with his first inning, upper deck blast. But the A.L. entrant would need a five-run 8th inning to post the 6-4 decider.

1924 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. WASHINGTON SENATORS

(SENATORS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

The Giants made their fourth straight appearance in the Fall Classic, but they faced someone other than the Yankees for the first time during that span when they squared off with the Washington Senators.

New York was the National League representative in the World Series for the eighth time in 14 years, but it had to scramble to win the flag by one-and-a-half games over Brooklyn.

With the World Series tied at three games apiece, honored legacies of Merkle, Snodgrass and Zimmerman returned to longtime Giants' fans. Despite making three errors in the final contest, New York was done in twice by the infield at Washington's Griffith Stadium.

New York took a 3-1 advantage into the 8th inning of that final contest. With two outs and the bases-loaded, Senators' second baseman/manager Bucky Harris hit a grounder that skipped over the head of 18-year-old third baseman Freddie Lindstrom. Two runs scored on the bad-hop single to tie the game.

The contest remained deadlocked until the bottom of the 12th inning, when Giants' catcher Hank Gowdy tripped over his mask and dropped a Muddy Ruel pop. The Washington catcher responded with a double down the third base line. One batter later with runners on first and second, center fielder Earl McNeely grounded to third. But once again, the ball skipped over Lindstrom's head and Ruel came around to score the winning tally.

This would prove to be the final World Series appearance for Giants manager John McGraw. Although he owned a 3-6 lifetime mark in the Fall Classic, only one other manager appeared in more series – Casey Stengel with 10 trips.

1933 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. WASHINGTON SENATORS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

New York, in its first full season under new manager Bill Terry, won the National League pennant on the strong pitching of Carl Hubbell and Hal Schumacher.

The Giants entered the World Series as the underdog to the high-powered offense of the Washington Senators. However, the New Yorkers tacked up a 1.53 ERA (8er, 47.0ip) en route to their four games-to-one series victory.

Hubbell and Schumacher, who had combined for 17 shut-outs during the regular season, were selected to start the first two contests vs. the Senators.

Hubbell, the second winningest pitcher in Giants history, struck out 10 and didn't allow an earned run in the 4-2 victory. Outfielder Mel Ott accounted for three of New York's four runs, with his two-run home run and RBI single. Schumacher followed Hubbell's lead and allowed only a solo home run in the Giants' 6-1 Game #2 victory.

The good pitching turned on the Giants in Game #3 as Washington's Earl Whitehill tossed a five-hit shutout to give the Senators a 4-0 triumph.

Hubbell, who led the National League with 23 wins, carried a 1-1 game into the 10th inning in Game #4 when the Giants edged ahead on third baseman Travis Jackson's bunt single, a sacrifice and shortstop Blondy Ryan's single. King Carl escaped a one-out, bases-loaded jam in the bottom half of the inning with a double play to preserve New York's 2-1 victory.

Schumacher helped himself offensively in the decisive Game #5 with his two-run single in the 2nd inning. Then 43-year-old reliever Dolf Luque took over a 3-3 game and worked the final four-and-one-third innings to get the Giants in position to win. Ott took care of the offense when he drilled a solo blast into the center field stands at Griffith Stadium in the top of the 10th inning to give New York a 4-3 victory.

1936 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES*(YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The Giants locked horns with their cross-town rivals, the Yankees, in the Fall Classic for the fifth time after winning the National League flag by a five-game margin.

The Yankees, who were without Babe Ruth but had Joe DiMaggio, captured the Series in six games to start a run that saw them win 16 of the next 27 World Championships.

The National Leaguers rode the arm of Hall of Famer Carl Hubbell to their 11th World Series. The 33-year-old left-hander won his last 16 decisions of the regular season to finish with a 26-6 ledger that included a 2.31 ERA.

King Carl was on the mound for the Giants in Game #1 and got the National Leaguers a 6-1 victory after allowing just seven hits, including a third inning home run by George Selkirk. Trailing 1-0 in the 5th inning, shortstop Dick Bartell launched a solo blast of his own before the Giants added another run in the 6th and four more in the 8th.

The National Leaguers' victory in Game #1 snapped a 12-game winning streak owned by the Yankees in World Series action.

The Yankees went on to win each of the next three games, outscoring the Giants by a cumulative 25-7 count.

Staving off elimination, the Giants scored a 5-4, 10-inning victory in Game #5. Manager Bill Terry, playing in the next-to-last game of his playing career, drove in the game-winner with a sacrifice fly.

The American Leaguers finished off the Polo Grounds tenants in Game #6 as they pounded out 17 hits en route to their series-clinching 13-5 victory.

1937 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES*(YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

The two New York teams squared off once again in the Fall Classic, but the Yankees' offensive firepower proved to be too much for the Giants as the American League entrants took home the title in a five-game series.

The Giants, who boasted two 20-game winners in Carl Hubbell and rookie Cliff Melton, only had one big bat to combat the Yankee arsenal. Mel Ott clubbed 31 home runs and drove in 95 runs.

However, that was no match for the Yankees' lineup that had five different 100-RBI men in Lou Gehrig, Joe DiMaggio, Tony Lazzeri, Bill Dickey and George Selkirk.

Hubbell was once again the Giants' Game #1 starter and was coasting along with a 1-0 lead into the bottom of the 6th. Then the Yankees produced one of their vaunted big-run innings, posting a six-run frame. The American Leaguers went on to post the 8-1 victory.

It was much of the same in Games #2 and #3 as the Yankees posted 8-1 and 5-1 triumphs, respectively.

The Giants turned the tables in Game #4 as they plated six runs in the 2nd inning, with the big blows coming from center fielder Hank Leiber. He opened the frame with a single and scored before capping off the rally with a two-run single. The National Leaguers had Hubbell on the hill and he shut down the Yankees on six hits for the 7-3 victory.

The Yankees captured their second straight title with a 4-2 win in the fifth contest.

1951 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The 1951 World Series was overshadowed by an event that took place the day before it began – “The Shot Heard ‘Round the World.”

Bobby Thomson's three-run, 9th-inning homer off the Dodgers' Ralph Branca in the National League-deciding playoff game put an exclamation on one of the greatest stretch drives in the history of baseball.

Manager Leo Durocher's club trailed Brooklyn by 13-and-a-half games on Aug. 11. Then the Giants rattled off 16-straight victories and won 37 of their last 44 regular-season games to force a best-of-three playoff series with the Dodgers for the National League pennant.

The momentum seemed to carry over to the next day for the opener of the World Series as Monte Irvin stole home in the first inning to register the first swipe of home since the Yankees' Bob Meusel did it in 1928. The Giants' left fielder finished the contest 4-for-5 and spearheaded a 5-1 victory.

Irvin would once again lead the National Leaguers' offense in Game #2, but his three hits weren't enough to overcome the Yankees in a 3-1 defeat.

Shortstop Eddie Stanky inspired a five-run, fifth-inning rally in Game #3 when he kicked the ball out of Phil Rizzuto's glove on a failed stolen base attempt and scrambled to third. The Giants would move on to a 6-2 triumph at the Polo Grounds.

Despite holding a two-games-to-one series lead, the Giants couldn't finish off the Yankees as the American Leaguers ran off three straight victories to claim the title.

1954 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. CLEVELAND INDIANS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 0)

Willie Mays got the National League champion Giants off to a great start in the 1954 World Series when he made perhaps the greatest defensive play in baseball history.

With New York and Cleveland tied 2-2 in the 8th inning of Game #1 at the Polo Grounds and two Indian runners on base, the Hall of Fame center fielder made an over-the-shoulder catch of a 460-foot smash off the bat of the Indians' Vic Wertz.

The Giants went on to win 5-2 when pinch-hitter Dusty Rhodes hit a three-run, 10th-inning home run off Indians' starter Bob Lemon. Ironically, the game-winning clout went only 260 feet.

The Giants would go on to sweep the Indians in four games to register their last World Championship in an upset over the highly-touted American League champs.

Rhodes, who hit .341 in part-time duty and as a pinch-hitter deluxe during the regular season, also delivered the game-winning hits in both Games #2 and #3. However, his services weren't needed in the fourth and final contest as New York jumped out to a 7-0 advantage and coasted to the 7-4 championship-clinching victory.

New York was the surprise National League champion. After finishing fifth in 1953, the Giants were led by Mays, who won the N.L. batting title with a .345 mark that included 41 home runs and 110 RBI. The center fielder had returned to the Giants after missing the 1953 campaign due to military service.

Johnny Antonelli, another newcomer who was acquired from Milwaukee in exchange for Bobby Thomson in the off-season, won 21 games to help New York to the N.L. flag.

1962 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

A matter of inches was the difference between the Giants bringing a World Championship to San Francisco for the first time or losing to the New York Yankees in the Fall Classic for the fifth time.

With the Giants trailing 1-0 with two outs and runners on second and third in the bottom of the ninth inning of Game #7, San Francisco's clean-up hitter Willie McCovey stepped in to face Ralph Terry. The Giants' Hall of Famer lined a one-ball, one-strike pitch toward right field, but Yankees' second baseman Bobby Richardson moved slightly to his left and threw up his glove to register the final out and the Yankees' 20th World Series crown.

San Francisco captured the National League flag by posting a late-season rally to catch Los Angeles and force a three-game playoff, which the Giants won 2-1.

The Giants carried a 2-2 tie into the 7th inning of Game #1 at Candlestick Park until Clete Boyer drilled a solo home run to spur the Yankees onto a 6-2 triumph.

Jack Sanford fired a three-hit shutout to even the Series at one-game apiece in San Francisco's 2-0 Game #2 victory. In a seesaw World Series, the Yankees would log a 3-2 Game #3 win before Giants' second baseman Chuck Hiller drilled a grand slam in the seventh inning of the fourth game to propel San Francisco to a 7-3 victory. It was the first bases-loaded clout by a National League player in World Series history.

Despite Sanford's 10-strikeout effort in seven-and-a-third innings, the Yankees posted a 5-3 win in Game #5.

As the Series moved back to San Francisco, there was a five-day delay due to a travel day and three rainouts. Once play resumed, Billy Pierce pitched a three-hitter and Orlando Cepeda posted three hits and two RBI to force a seventh game with a 5-2 Game #6 win.

1989 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. OAKLAND ATHLETICS

(ATHLETICS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 0)

The Bay Bridge Series, which pitted the Giants against their local rival, the Oakland Athletics, will always be remembered more for the Loma Prieta earthquake than the four-game brooming by the American Leaguers.

That might be a good thing for the Giants, as they were outclassed in almost every phase of the game by the Athletics, as was evidenced by the 32-14 cumulative run total.

A's Game #1 starter Dave Stewart set the tone for this Fall Classic when he hurled a five-hit shutout at the Giants. He was backed by solo home runs from Dave Parker and Walt Weiss off San Francisco starter Scott Garrelts.

In much the same fashion, Oakland rolled to a 5-1 victory in Game #2 behind the pitching of Mike Moore.

Then it happened. Something that would make this four-game Series sweep stand out in history. At 5:04 p.m. on Oct. 17, an earthquake with a 7.1-Richter scale reading rocked the Bay Area and the 60,000 fans at Candlestick Park. With reports of damage throughout the Bay Area, the ballpark was evacuated and the game was cancelled.

Finally, 10 days later, the Athletics picked up where they had left off, as they drilled five home runs on their way to a 13-7 rout in the rescheduled Game #3. The five-homer effort, two by Dave Henderson along with single clouts from Jose Canseco, Carney Lansford and Tony Phillips, tied a Series record set by the 1928 Yankees.

The A's never trailed in the series as Rickey Henderson opened Game #4 with a home run off Giants' starter Don Robinson. The Giants would close it to 8-6 in the seventh, but that was as close they would get in the 9-6 finale.

2002 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ANAHEIM ANGELS

(ANGELS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

In the first World Series between two Wild Card teams, the Giants and Anaheim Angels lived up to the moniker, combining to set numerous offensive records in a memorable seven-game Fall Classic.

Anaheim emerged from the fireworks with its first World Championship in franchise history, while San Francisco was saddled with heartbreak after seeing a title slip away just five outs from the pinnacle.

The clubs split the first two contests in Anaheim, with Barry Bonds grabbing the spotlight in his first appearance on the World Series stage. San Francisco's left fielder clubbed a solo homer in his first at-bat to spark a 4-3 Giants win in Game #1, then connected for a mammoth 9th-inning shot in Game #2. Not to be outdone, the Angels' Tim Salmon homered twice as Anaheim won an 11-10 slugfest to even the series.

When the scene shifted north, the Angels seemed to take control with a convincing 10-4 win in Game #3. As they had all season, the Giants battled back in Game #4, rallying from a 3-0 deficit to earn a 4-3 victory on David Bell's two-out, RBI-single in the 8th inning.

Game #5 belonged to San Francisco, as the home club delighted the 42,713 fans at Pacific Bell Park with a 16-4 rout. Jeff Kent tied Giants World Series records with four runs, two homers and four RBI, Rich Aurilia drove in three runs to establish a franchise playoff mark with 17 RBI overall, and J.T. Snow had two of his series-high 11 hits.

The Giants were eight outs from their first World Series title since 1954, as Shawon Dunston's two-run homer, Bonds' record eighth post season clout (fourth of Series), and Kent's RBI-single propelled SF to a 5-0 lead in Game #6. But the ultimate prize was wrested away as Scott Spezio's three-run, 7th-inning homer and series MVP Troy Glaus' two-run, 8th-inning double highlighted Anaheim's rally to a 6-5 victory.

San Francisco scored first in Game #7, but ultimately could not overcome the pitching of John Lackey and the bat of Garret Anderson, who delivered the deciding three-run, 3rd-inning double in Anaheim's 4-1 triumph.

2010 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. TEXAS RANGERS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

It was a different story for the San Francisco Giants during the World Series as the club was bolstered by their offense and pitching to win their sixth World Championship and first since they moved from New York to San Francisco in 1958 to capture the 106th Fall Classic, 4 games to 1 over the Texas Rangers. It marked the club's first World Series win since 1954, ending the Majors' 3rd-longest drought without a Championship at that time, behind the Cubs (102 years) and Indians (62 years) as the top 2 teams at the time.

The Giants' bats were on fire as they battered Cliff Lee and the Rangers' bullpen with an 11-7 victory in the opening game of the 2010 World Series. What was originally penned as a pitchers' duel between Lee and Tim Lincecum turned out to be an offensive outburst by both teams. Freddy Sanchez finished with four of the Giants' 14 hits as Aubrey Huff went 3-for-4 with an RBI and Juan Uribe capped a six-run 5th inning with a three-run home run, which set off the fog horn and blasts from water cannons out in right field. San Francisco took a commanding two game lead after Matt Cain held the Rangers' bats at bay in a 9-0 shutout in Game #2. Cain tossed 7.2-scoreless frames to extend his postseason scoreless innings total to 21.1 frames, while Edgar Renteria led the offense as he homered and drove in three runs.

The only mishap for the Giants was during Game #3 as they fell to the Rangers 4-2 at Texas. However, the team resorted back to their pitching heavy strategy in Game #4 as rookie Madison Bumgarner took to the mound and fired off 8.0-shutout innings as the Giants shut out the Rangers 4-0 on Halloween night. Huff (two-run home run) and Buster Posey (solo home run) supplied the club with enough offense as the team was one game away from winning their first Championship in over 54 years.

Lincecum and World Series MVP Renteria helped deliver the title in Game #5 as Lincecum outdueled Cliff Lee in a game that was scoreless until Renteria hit a three-run home run with two outs in the 7th inning. Lincecum defeated Lee for the second time in a week, allowing just three hits over 8.0 innings while recording 10 strikeouts. The game was scoreless until Cody Ross and Juan Uribe both singled to open the seventh inning before Huff laid down the first sacrifice bunt of his career to move the runners. Renteria stepped to the plate and sent a 2-0 pitch over the left-center field wall silencing a sold out crowd of 52,045. Brian Wilson was summoned for the 9th and retired Josh Hamilton on a called 3rd strike, getting Vladimir Guerrero on a grounder to shortstop and then struck out Nelson Cruz to cap the best season in San Francisco Giants history.

2012 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. DETROIT TIGERS*(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 0)

Playing in the World Series for the 19th time in franchise history and the fifth time since moving to San Francisco in 1958, the Giants were set to face the Detroit Tigers, the first time these two storied franchises had ever met in a postseason series.

Pablo Sandoval and Barry Zito both shined for the Giants in Game #1 as Sandoval hit three home runs, and joined Reggie Jackson, Babe Ruth and Albert Pujols as the only players to accomplish that in the Fall Classic, and Zito outdueled Justin Verlander, the reigning Cy Young winner, as the Giants won 8-3. Sandoval homered in his first three at-bats, hitting a solo shot in the 1st inning, a two-run blast in the 3rd that set off the fog horns and capped it with yet another solo shot to center that sent the festive AT&T Park crowd into a frenzy.

In Game #2, Madison Bumgarner tossed 7.0-scoreless innings, then the Giants took advantage of a bunt that stayed fair to scratch out the go-ahead run in a 2-0 win for a 2-0 advantage in the Series.

The Giants took a commanding 3-0 lead in the Fall Classic with a 2-0 win on a chilly night in Detroit in Game #3. SF won their franchise-record sixth straight postseason game as Ryan Vogelsong blanked the Tigers for 5.2 innings and Gregor Blanco hit an RBI triple and Brandon Crawford drove him home with a single in the 2nd inning. The Giants became the eighth team to post consecutive World Series shutouts and the first to accomplish the feat since the 1966 Baltimore Orioles.

Nearly knocked out in the playoffs time and time again, the Giants completed a four game sweep of the Tigers to win their second title in three seasons. Marco Scutaro's go-ahead single with two outs in the 10th inning lifted the Giants to a 4-3, 10-inning victory. Sergio Romo got Triple Crown winner Miguel Cabrera to look at strike three for the final out and the Giants finished the month of October with seven straight wins and their seventh World Series championship.

2014 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS VS. KANSAS CITY ROYALS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

Backed by the eventual World Series MVP Madison Bumgarner, the Giants beat the Kansas City Royals in seven games to capture their third championship in five years.

Kansas City hadn't lost in this postseason before the Series, but the Giants ended that streak at eight games with a 7-1 win in Game #1. SF scored three times in the 1st inning off James Shields; Pablo Sandoval hit an RBI double and Hunter Pence crushed a two-run homer to right-center. Bumgarner carried a shutout into the 7th before Salvador Perez homered, ending Bumgarner's World Series scoreless-innings streak at 21 and his road postseason scoreless-innings streak at 32.2. His three-hit, 7.0-inning performance gave the Giants the jump in the Series.

Gregor Blanco opened Game #2 by jumping on a 3-2 pitch from Yordano Ventura and jolting it over the wall in right. That lead was short-lived as the Royals scored single runs in the 1st and 2nd innings off Jake Peavy. The game was 2-2 in the 6th when the Royals put a five-spot on the board and finished it off with a 7-2 win.

Tim Hudson, made his first World Series appearance in Game #3 and retired 12 in a row in one stretch – but took the loss. The Royals scratched out a run in the 1st and added two in the 6th, the final run scoring on Eric Hosmer's single off Javier Lopez. Michael Morse's pinch-hit RBI double keyed the Giants' two-run 6th, but that would be the extent of SF's offense. Kansas City relievers Kelvin Herrera, Brandon Finnegan, Wade Davis and Greg Holland combined for four hitless innings.

Ineffective pitching by Ryan Vogelsong and bad defense by the Giants allowed the Royals to score four two-out runs in the third to grab a 4-1 edge in Game #4. However, another three shutout innings from Yusmeiro Petit, enabled the Giants to mount their comeback. The Giants scored one in the 3rd and two in the 5th to tie the game. Joe Panik's two-run double highlighted a four-run 7th, and helped the Giants secure an 11-4 win.

The Giants' final home game of the postseason was highlighted by Bumgarner, who threw another four-hit shutout to become the Giants' first pitcher since 1962 to throw a complete game (Billy Pierce) and shutout (Jack Sanford) in the World Series.

In Game #6, the Royals scored seven runs in the 2nd inning to put the game away early. Yordano Ventura held the Giants to three hits in seven innings, setting up Game 7.

Sandoval went 3-for-3 and scored twice, Morse drove in two runs and Jeremy Affeldt earned the win with 2.1 innings of shutout relief. However, it was Bumgarner who stole the show for the Giants and helped the team win its eighth championship. On just two days' rest, he entered the game in the 5th inning. After allowing a single to Omar Infante, the first batter he faced, Bumgarner retired the next 14 hitters. With two outs in the 9th, Alex Gordon lifted a single into left-center that Blanco misplayed. Gordon wound up at third, 90 feet from tying the game. On a 2-2 pitch, Bumgarner got Salvador Perez on a foul pop clutched by Sandoval, who then collapsed in joy. Bumgarner, who had been the NLCS MVP, was the only choice for Series MVP. He went 2-0 with a save and gave up all of one run and nine hits in 21 innings.

Opening Date: April 11, 2000

Design: Classic urban ballpark with an old-time feel and all the amenities of modern ballparks. Inspired by Wrigley Field and Fenway Park and modeled after Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Jacobs Field and Coors Field.

Construction: Commenced on December 11, 1997. Construction lasted 28 months, with Opening Day on April 11, 2000.

Name Change: Ballpark originally opened as Pacific Bell Park; name was changed to SBC Park on January 1, 2004; changed to AT&T Park on March 1, 2006 and then the name was changed to Oracle Park on January 10, 2019.

Financing: Oracle Park, the first privately financed Major League ballpark to be built in 38 years, cost $357 million. The financing plan included $172 million from naming rights, other sponsorships, pouring rights, concession rights and the selling of charter seats; a $170 million bank loan; and $15 million in tax increment financing from the City's Redevelopment Agency.

LEED Certification: In 2019, Oracle Park achieved LEED Platinum Certification for Existing Building Operations and Management, making Oracle Park the first Major League Baseball stadium to achieve this honor. The certification was achieved through numerous greening and sustainability programs the park has implemented and refined throughout the years since its first LEED Silver Certification in 2010.

Green Glove: Major League Baseball named the San Francisco Giants as recipient of the 2020 Green Glove Award, which recognizes the MLB Club with the highest waste diversion rate, after diverting 98 percent of all waste at Oracle Park from local landfills. The Giants, who collected nine consecutive awards between 2008 and 2016, secured their 12th Green Glove Award in 13 seasons in 2020.

Location: The 13-acre site is bounded by King, Second and Third Streets, and by the China Basin Channel. The site is owned by the Port of San Francisco and is leased to the Giants at fair market value.

Field Measurements:

- Left Foul Line: 339 feet;
- Right Foul Line: 309 feet;
- Center Field: 391 feet;
- Left-center Field Alley: 382 feet;
- Right-center Field Alley: 415 feet

Stadium Operator: San Francisco Giants

Seating Capacity: 41,331

Surface: Overseeded Bermuda grass with a DuraEdge infield and crushed brick warning track.

Outfield Fences: 8 feet high from left field to center with 19-foot span that reaches 11 feet high at its peak in left field; 7 feet high from left of center to the Triples Alley notch in right center; 25 feet high in right field.

Distance from Stands to Home Plate: 48 feet from first row of seats behind home plate.

Lighting: In 2017, in partnership with PG&E, the ballpark upgraded more than 556 traditional light bulbs to new energy efficient LED lights. The switch resulted in an energy savings of 290,466 kilowatt hours during the regular baseball season, which is the same amount of energy it takes to power 30 homes.

LHP Jarlin Garcia works in the bullpen prior to a game last season

Prior to the start of the 2020 season, the Giants moved the bullpens at Oracle Park off of the playing surface and behind the centerfield wall.

The new bullpens were finished prior to the start of the 2020 season. The new Giants' and visitors' bullpens are located on either side of The Garden at Oracle Park, just below the left field and centerfield bleachers. A portion of the Giants' bullpen will be incorporated into the Garden at Oracle Park and fans will now have direct views from the Garden into the Giants bullpen.

Construction for the bullpens began in December, 2019 but was halted in March when the Coronavirus pandemic shut down construction. Work resumed in late May of 2020 and the bullpens were completed ahead of the start of Spring Training 2.0 at Oracle Park in July of 2020.

The placement of the new bullpens brought some dimension changes to Oracle Park ahead of last season. Triples Alley went from being 421' to 415' while the centerfield wall was brought in from 399' to 391'. The centerfield wall was also lowered a foot to 7'.

Several bleacher seats directly overlook the bullpens and two new standing room terraces were built into the bleachers to enhance fan engagement.

Terraces adjacent to the bullpens are approximately three feet above the bullpens and will offer fans direct views into the bullpens and of the playing field beyond. The terraces were cut into existing bleacher seating and will enable natural light to brighten fan areas under the bleachers which feature new views into the ballpark.

The bullpen design was developed by the Giants with Hubbard Godfrey Architects.

Prior to the 2019, the Giants installed a brand new videoboard in center field, the third-largest videoboard in the Majors.

During the 2018-2019 offseason, the Giants embarked on a capital improvement project that greatly enhanced the fan experience at Oracle Park with the installation of a brand new videoboard in center field.

The $10 million project represented the largest single capital improvement the Giants have undertaken at the ballpark since it opened in 2000. It replaced the old Mitsubishi Diamond Vision board (fifth-smallest and second-oldest in the Majors at the time) with the third-largest board in the Majors behind Cleveland and Seattle (and biggest in any sports venue in the state of California).

Fans can notice the difference as soon as they enter Oracle Park as the new board, also produced by Mitsubishi, fills the entire width between the two outfield light standards. The new display is 50% wider and more than twice as high as its predecessor.

All told, the new board covers 10,700 square feet, which is more than three times the surface area of the previous board. It features more pixels and less space between them, making the image much bolder.

In addition to higher-quality video, the board provides ample room to display an array of additional information never before available to fans in the ballpark. This includes more in-depth and advanced stats, such as launch angle, exit velocity and home run distance, along with split stats based on fielder shifts, pitch types and much more.

May 21, 2005 – Former Giants great and Hall of Fame pitcher Juan Marichal had his statue dedicated in 2005. The nine-foot bronze statue is located at Oracle Park's Lefty O'Doul Plaza and features Marichal's famous high-leg kick.

September 6, 2008 – The Giants dedicated a bronze statue in honor of Hall of Fame first baseman Orlando Cepeda. The statue, which stands at nine feet tall on a five foot base, is located at the Second Street entrance to Oracle Park. The sculpture portrays a youthful and smiling Cepeda.

- Carlos Beltran's "splash hit" on September 14, 2011 marked his 300th career home run.
- Ryan Klesko is the only player to have splash hits as both a Giant and as an opposing player.
- Tyler Colvin's "splash hit" on May 12, 2014 was also his first hit for the Giants and came on his first at-bat at Oracle Park since joining the team.

Oracle Park Attendance Highlights

All Oracle Park information below is courtesy of David Kronheim

- Giants' yearly total attendance has been above the Major League Baseball average total attendance per team in each year since 2000, including 2021.
- Since moving to Oracle Park in 2000, the Giants have finished in the Top 5 in Major League attendance in 14 different seasons (2000-2005, 2011-2018). They've been in the Top-12 in MLB total attendance in every season since 2000, including 2021.

2021 Attendance Notes

- Full season total attendance was 1,679,484, and average per date was 20,734. Both of these figures ranked #12 in each category in Major League Baseball for 2021.
- After full capacity at Oracle Park was allowed, starting June 25, 2021, the Giants drew 1,351,206 in 47 dates, an average of 28,749 per date. That was the 10th best average per date in the Majors in 2021, only counting those dates when full capacity was allowed in each team's ballpark.
- The first 34 home dates of 2021 at Oracle Park were played with capacity restrictions. Those dates drew a total of 328,278, an average of 9,655 per date.
- 20 dates drew at least 30,000, and 9 of them topped 35,000. There were three full-capacity sellouts.
- Largest regular season crowd was 41,155 on September 5 vs. the Dodgers. Largest postseason crowds were 42,275 on both October 9 and October 14, vs. the Dodgers.
- 2019 Attendance - 2,707,760, an average of 33,429 per date. Average per date ranked #11 among all MLB teams in 2019. The Giants ranked #4 in average per date in 2018, #3 in 2017, #4 in 2016, #3 in 2015, #4 in 2014, #3 in 2013, and they were #4 in average per date in 2012. The 2019 season marked the lowest total attendance in Oracle Park history (2000-present).
- The Giants' National League record sellout streak ended on July 17, 2017. 530 consecutive regular season dates, plus 25 dates in the post-season, for a total of 555, were sold out. It was the second longest sellout streak in MLB history. The streak began with the last three regular season dates in 2010, starting on October 1, continued through the next six full seasons, through the game of July 9, 2017.
- The old National League sellout streak record was 257 regular season games, plus 16 in the post season, for a total of 273, by Philadelphia from 2009 to August, 2012. Boston holds the MLB record of 820 straight sellouts (794 regular season, 26 post-season) from 2003 through Opening Day 2013.
- Oracle Park (cost-$357 million) was the first privately financed MLB park since Dodger Stadium opened in 1962.
- Oracle Park opened on April 11, 2000. Its original name was Pacific Bell Park. The name was changed to SBC Park on January 1, 2004, changed to AT&T Park on March 1, 2006, and then changed to Oracle Park on January 10, 2019.
- Of all teams that have moved into a new ballpark in the last 45 years, the Giants are the only team whose attendance has been higher every single year in their current park, than it ever was in their former park. Kansas City has drawn better at Kauffman Stadium each year than they ever did at Municipal Stadium. But the Royals only played four seasons (1969-1972) at Municipal Stadium before Kauffman opened in 1973.
- In 2015, the Giants surpassed 50 million in attendance at Oracle Park, reaching this level faster than at any ballpark in Major League history. This total was achieved in the park's 16th season, and on the 1,261st regular season date played there. The old record was held by Baltimore, who reached 50 million at Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1,311 dates, and in that park's 17th season. San Francisco, Baltimore, Colorado, and Toronto are the only teams to reach 50 million in attendance at a ballpark in less than 1,500 regular season dates.
- Largest regular season crowd at Oracle Park was 43,503 vs. the Yankees on June 24, 2007. The biggest postseason crowd was 44,046 on October 8, 2010 for a National League Division Series game with Atlanta.
- The smallest crowd was 23,934 on May 11, 2009 vs. Washington. The only games that drew less than 30,000 at Oracle Park have been in 2009 (12 dates), in 2010 (five dates), and in 2019 (14 dates).
- Highest season attendance at Oracle Park is 3,387,303 (41,819 per date - all sellouts) in 2011.
- Attendance has topped three million in 17 of the 21 years at Oracle Park, including eight straight years from 2000 through 2007, and also in nine straight years from 2010 through 2018. The only teams with an equal or longer streak of three million seasons are the Dodgers (1996-2010), Yankees (2000-2018), Angels (2003-2018), Cardinals (2004-2018) and Rockies (1993-2001).

- The Giants have outdrawn the A's in 36 of the 53 years these teams have shared the Bay Area, including every year starting in 1993. This includes 2021, but of course, excludes 2020.
- In their first year at Oracle Park, the Giants drew 3,244,167 (40,051 per date - all sellouts). This was up 1,165,768 (56.1%) from what they drew at Candlestick Park in 1999. That increase in total attendance was the 5th best gain in Major League history.
- In the first 20 years (2000-2019) at Oracle Park, the Giants drew 64,005,011, an average of 3,200,251 per season, and 39,509 per date. In that same period, only the Yankees (71,571,346), Dodgers (70,910,969), and Cardinals (66,559,544) outdrew the Giants. All 2000-2021 home ballparks of these 3 teams have, and had, a higher capacity than Oracle Park.
- In the 21 years with attendance (2000-2019, 2021) at Oracle Park, the Giants have drawn 65,684,495, an average of 3,127,833 per season, and 38,615 per date. In this same period, only the Dodgers (73,715,662), Yankees (73,531,200), and Cardinals (68,662,074) have outdrawn the Giants. - Giants' attendance topped 30,000 at 742 consecutive regular season dates from the last 6 at Candlestick Park in 1999 through the first 7 dates of 2009. Another streak of regular season dates with attendance of 30,000+ began with the last 57 dates of 2010, and ended at 708 straight dates after April 8, 2019.

MISSION ROCK

SAN FRANCISCO'S NEWEST WATERFRONT NEIGHBORHOOD

Located along the waterfront, just south of Oracle Park, Mission Rock at full completion will deliver approximately 1,200 housing units - 40 percent of which will be affordable for low-to moderate-income households; 1.4 million square feet of high quality offices and biotech research space, including the new Global and North American headquarters for Visa - long-time partner of the San Francisco Giants. Eclectic neighborhood-serving retail and local manufacturing facilities will encompass 250,000 square feet and historic Pier 48 will be rehabilitated. Thousands of construction and permanent jobs will be produced. China Basin Park near McCovey Cove will expand along with enhanced waterfront access and open space experiences that totals eight acres and will link the neighborhood to the broader San Francisco shoreline and Bay Trail. In 2018 the Giants selected first-class real estate global developer and property manager Tishman Speyer as the development partner. Together, the Giants and Tishman Speyer work closely with the Port of San Francisco, the City of San Francisco, neighbors, and the community to build an inspired new neighborhood called Mission Rock. The first phase of construction is currently underway and includes four buildings and the expansion of China Basin Park.

Visa's Global & North American HQ ▲

The Visa Building at Mission Rock is designed by Henning Larsen, Adamson Associates, and Y.A. Studio. The building's overall massing volume is carved into smaller bays, which creates a dynamic and varied appearance from street level reminiscent of traditional San Francisco neighborhoods.

◀ The Canyon

The Canyon at Mission Rock is a residential building designed by MVRDV and Perry Architects. The Canyon features a signature narrow valley that runs between the steep rocky walls.

Residential ▶

Designed by Studio Gang and Quezada Architecture, this residential building is strategically placed just north of what will be Mission Rock Square. Outdoor terraces are dispersed throughout the building creating comfortable outdoor spaces that complement San Francisco's indoor-outdoor lifestyle.

Life Science/Office ▲

Designed by architects WORKac, Adamson Associates, and Y.A. Studio, this life science building forms a series of horizontally-shifting layers and green characteristics that reflect San Francisco ecological values.

China Basin Park ▲

Designed by architects SCAPE, Miller and Company, and Min Design, the park design offers a diverse array of experiences, employing different architectural treatments for each of its four edges. To the west, an entry plaza welcomes visitors from the urban edge of Third Street and the O'Doul Bridge. A raised grove of trees helps mitigate wind impacts and simultaneously serves as an intimate gathering place. To the south, an engaging promenade connects the park to restaurants, shops, and cafes spilling out of office and residential buildings. To the east, a sweeping lawn stretches downwards towards the water capturing dramatic views of the San Francisco Bay and the Bay Bridge. To the north, the park interacts with the Bay in a creative fashion. In the center of it all, a generous plaza captures the energy of the park and features a small restaurant for casual dining.

◀ Neighborhood Experience

A unique pedestrian and community experience will incorporate shared streets, inspired parks and open space networks, Bay Trail connections, and dynamic storefronts curated to serve visitors, residents, and workers alike.

Mission Rock Community Pillars frame an ongoing commitment to the neighborhood

Advancing Economic Vitality

- ▶ Commitments to hire 30% of construction workers from San Francisco, award ~20% of contract dollars to local businesses, and invest $1 million to a construction workforce development program.
- ▶ Street names honoring extraordinary trailblazers with San Francisco ties: Toni Stone Crossing and Dr. Maya Angelou Lane.
- ▶ In 2021 Mission Rock became LEED Gold certified under the Neighborhood Development program of the US Green Building Council.

Building Sustainability

Creating Connections

- ▶ The Mission Rock District Energy System (DES) will use a shared energy plant to supply both hot and cold water to the entire development, replacing the need for equipment in each building and reducing annual energy, water, sewage, and CO2 emissions.
- ▶ The Black Water Recycling System will allow water collected from sinks, showers, and toilets to be treated on-site to meet non-potable needs such as irrigation, toilet flushing, and cooling tower makeup water.

Bruce Bochy ►► Special Advisor

Bruce Bochy is in his third year as a Special Advisor after retiring from 25 seasons as a big league manager following the 2019 season. During his 25-year managerial career he compiled 2,003 victories, the 11th-most by any manager in MLB history, and his 4,032 games managed are the seventh-most in MLB. He's the only manager in MLB history to win 900-plus games with multiple franchises, winning 951 games with San Diego and 1,052 with San Francisco, the second-most managerial wins by a Giants manager behind Hall of Famer John McGraw. Bochy managed four All-Star teams (1999, 2011, 2013, 2015) and was a member of the All-Star coaching staff eight times: 1997, 1999, 2001, 2007, 2010, 2011, 2013, 2015. In 2011, he was the skipper for the MLB All-Stars in Taiwan.

Named the 38th manager in Giants franchise history, and 16th in San Francisco annals on October 27, 2006, Bochy guided the Giants to three World Series titles in 2010, 2012 and 2014. The Giants' championship in 2010 was their first in San Francisco history (since 1958) and their first overall since the New York Giants won in 1954. Overall, Bochy led his teams to four Pennants and three World Series championships with his teams posting a 44-33 (.571) record in postseason play.

Prior to joining the Giants' organization, Bochy was the manager of the San Diego Padres from 1995-2006. To this day, his 951 victories with the Padres are the most in franchise history. Bochy became the first Padres skipper to earn NL Manager of Year honors when he led the 1996 club to their first NL West title since 1984. Overall, Bochy logged a 24-year affiliation with the Padres organization from 1983-2006. He was named Padres manager on October 21, 1994.

The former catcher spent parts of nine Major League seasons with Houston (1978-80), New York-NL (1982) and San Diego (1983-87) and compiled a lifetime .239 batting average with 26 home runs and 93 RBI in 358 career games. He made his big league debut on July 18, 1978 in an Astros uniform, going 2-for-3 at Shea Stadium.

Born in Landes de Bussac, France on April 16, 1955, Bochy is one of eight Major Leaguers to be born in France, where his father, Sgt. Major Gus Bochy, was stationed as a U.S. Army NCO at the time. He graduated from Melbourne (FL) High School and attended Brevard Community College for two years on a partial scholarship, winning a state championship in 1975. He decided to turn pro when he was drafted in the first round (24th overall) by the Astros in 1975.

Bochy and his wife, Kim, reside in Nashville and have two sons, Greg and Brett, and three grandchildren, Braxton Douglas, born Jan. 24, 2018 and Maddox Melrose born Feb. 25, 2020 to Greg and McKenna and Blakely Grace, born Aug. 4, 2018 to Brett and Kelsey.

Greg spent several seasons playing minor league baseball in the Padres system. Brett was drafted by the Giants in 2010 and was called up to the Majors on Sept. 2, 2014, making Bruce the eighth manager in MLB history to manage his own son. On Sept. 13, 2014, Bruce became the first manager to give the ball to his son coming out of the bullpen.

Will Clark ►► Special Assistant

Longtime Giants icon Will Clark joined the Giants front office in January 2009. In his role, the six-time All-Star first baseman represents the organization at various in-season and off-season community and organizational events in San Francisco. He also attends the Giants Spring Training Camp in Scottsdale, AZ and visits several of the Giants' minor league teams each year. Clark, who brings the experience of a 15-year Major League playing career to the Giants, previously worked as an advisor to the Arizona Diamondbacks' coaching staff in spring training from 2004-2008.

Drafted by the Giants in the first round (second overall pick) of the 1985 June draft, Clark spent his first eight big league seasons in a San Francisco uniform, compiling a .299 batting average with 176 home runs and 709 RBI in 1,160 games. One of the best clutch hitters of his time, Clark hit over .300 on 10 occasions. In 1988, he became the first Giants player to drive in 90 or more runs in consecutive seasons since Bobby Murcer in 1975-76. He had one of his finest seasons in 1989, when he batted .333 with 111 RBI, and finished second in the NL Most Valuable Player voting to Giants teammate Kevin Mitchell. He was, however, named MVP of the '89 NLCS, after batting .650 with a pair of homers and eight RBI, helping San Francisco defeat Chicago four-games-to-one.

One of the premier first basemen in the National League during his time with San Francisco, Clark was also an outstanding defensive player, winning a Rawlings Gold Glove in 1991. The New Orleans, LA native owned a .303 lifetime average with 284 home runs and 1,205 RBI over 1,976 career games for the Giants (1986-1993), Rangers (1994-98), Orioles (1999-2000) and Cardinals (2000).

Clark, who was a two-time All American at Mississippi State University, was the winner of the Golden Spikes Award as the country's top collegiate player in 1985, hitting .420 with 25 home runs and 77 RBI in 65 games. He was inducted into the inaugural class of the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006 and was inducted into the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame in 2008.

Will and his family are heavily involved in supporting and giving back to the Autism community. He has worked closely with the Giants in creating and supporting the annual Autism Awareness special event at Oracle Park.

He resides in Prairieville, LA with his wife, Lisa, and their son, Trey, and daughter, Ella.

Clark's No. 22 is scheduled to be retired by the Giants in a ceremony on July 30, 2022.

Orlando Cepeda ►► Community Ambassador

Orlando Cepeda, who was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1999, is recognized nationally for his humanitarian efforts as an ambassador for baseball and the San Francisco Giants. He begins his 27th season as a community representative for the team and is a member of the Giants Community Fund Advisory Board.

In his current role, the "Baby Bull" visits hospitals, senior centers and inner-city schools in the Bay Area and throughout the United States, speaking to "at-risk" children about the dangers of drugs and alcohol. The 84-year-old Ponce, P.R. native also serves as the honorary spokesman for the Crohn's & Colitis Foundation of America, Meals on Wheels San Francisco and the Curry Senior Center.

A lifetime .297 hitter with 379 home runs and 1,364 RBI during his 17-year playing career with the Giants, Cardinals, Braves, A's, Red Sox and Royals, Cepeda hit a home run against the Dodgers in his very first Major League game April 15, 1958. He went on to win 1958 Rookie of the Year honors, the 1966 Comeback Player of the Year award, the 1967 NL Most Valuable Player trophy and 1973 Designated Hitter of the Year laurels. He appeared in three World Series, was a six-time All-Star and hit over .300 nine times in his career.

On July 25, 1999, Cepeda was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame during ceremonies in Cooperstown, NY. He became only the second Puerto Rico native to enter the Hall, joining Roberto Clemente. Two weeks earlier on July 11, 1999, Cepeda had his uniform No. 30 retired by the Giants during ceremonies at Candlestick Park. As one of the 12 players in the Giants' 136-year history to have their jersey number retired, he joins Willie Mays, Willie McCovey, Juan Marichal, Gaylord Perry and Barry Bonds as the only six San Francisco players to receive such an honor.

In 1993, the Baby Bull was also inducted into the Puerto Rico Sports Hall of Fame, while in 1999, he was elected to the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame for his great years with the St. Louis Cardinals which followed his tenure with the Giants. In 2004, he was one of four men to receive the Major League Baseball Players Alumni Association's Achievement Awards, the MLBPA's highest alumni honor. He was joined by Jim Bunning, Al Kaline and Roger Maris.

Orlando and his wife, Nydia, reside in Concord, CA. He has four sons – Orlando Jr., Carl, Malcolm and Ali Manuel, and several grandchildren.

Dave Dravecky >>> Community Ambassador

Former San Francisco Giant pitcher Dave Dravecky currently serves as a community ambassador for the team. In his role, Dave represents the organization at a number of community and organizational events in San Francisco and the Bay Area. He also attends Giants Spring Training Camp in Scottsdale, AZ, and enjoys representing the organization all over Northern California at various speaking engagements and alumni appearances.

Dravecky was an All-Star with the San Diego Padres in 1983, and was traded to the Giants in 1987. Winner of the 1989 Willie Mac Award, Dravecky's story is both touching and inspiring. After discovering a cancerous tumor in his pitching arm in October of 1988, Dave battled back and returned to the majors in August of 1989. After winning his first start, his humerus bone snapped just five days later while throwing a pitch in the 6th inning. The doctors discovered another mass in his left arm, and Dravecky was forced to retire from baseball. After two more surgeries in the next two years, Dravecky's left arm and shoulder were amputated.

Dravecky is currently a motivational and inspirational speaker, author, and proud grandfather. He and his wife, Jan, reside in Arizona to be closer to their family as well as the spring training home of the Giants.

Jeffrey Leonard >>> Community Ambassador

Jeffrey Leonard joined the San Francisco Giants front office as a Community Ambassador, prior to the 2014 season. In his role, the two-time All-Star outfielder represents the organization at various in-season and offseason community and organizational events in San Francisco. He also attends the Giants Spring Training Camp in Scottsdale, AZ to attend several organizational events.

Leonard, a 14-year Major League veteran played for the Giants from 1981-88, compiling a .275 batting average with 139 doubles, 24 triples, 99 home runs and 435 RBI in 789 games. His .275 average as a Giant ranks ninth in the SF-era record books and his 115 stolen bases rank seventh.

Nicknamed "HacMan" after the popular video game PacMan, Leonard was known for his "one flap down" routine, running around the bases after hitting a home run with one arm hanging motionless at his side. He had one of his finest seasons in 1987, when he batted .280 with 19 home runs and was named to the National League All Star team. He was named MVP of the '87 NLCS, after batting .417 with four homers and five RBI, despite San Francisco losing the series to St. Louis four-games-to-three.

The Philadelphia, PA native owned a .266 lifetime average with 144 home runs, 614 runs scored and 723 RBI over 1,415 career games for the Dodgers (1977), Astros (1978-81), Giants (1981-1988), Brewers (1988) and Mariners (1989-90).

Scottsdale Stadium

The 2020 campaign marked the opening of a new clubhouse and world class training facility at Scottsdale Stadium. Nestled in the heart of historic Old Town Scottsdale and surrounded by art galleries, restaurants and boutique shops, Scottsdale Stadium has become the home of not only the San Francisco Giants and the Arizona Fall League, but also of numerous special events, festivals, concerts, and parties. Designed by the architects of Camden Yards in Baltimore, the stadium is adorned with turn-of-the-century lamps, framed antique baseball gloves, and sidewalk bricks in the shape of home plate.

Headlining Phase 1 of the Scottsdale Stadium renovations was the new multi-story clubhouse and event center on the Osborn Road side of the ballpark. The 10,000 square-foot event facility is the largest in downtown Scottsdale and is used year-round by the Giants and the City of Scottsdale. The event space currently holds the team's dining room. The Giants also utilize the space if rain keeps them from working out outside.

The new clubhouse sits at the base of the three-story, 40,000 square foot building and includes 10 televisions, plenty of comfortable seating, and mood lighting that can be changed with a flick of a switch. In the back of the building is the first floor of the two-story world-class weight room and training facility, which has views of the back field at Scottsdale Stadium, where the Giants do workouts in the spring and hold simulated games. The second floor includes a float tank for players to recover. The third floor has a lounge for players to hang out and includes two decks overlooking the stadium.

From the fan side, there is a new, expanded entrance to Scottsdale Stadium off Drinkwater Blvd that also includes a new box office. Fans also notice aesthetic changes to the ballpark in right field where there are new right field concourse bleachers with standing room decks as well as an expansion of the Charro Lodge in right field. The expanded Charro Lodge increases shade and capacity for Giants Spring Training games.

Lastly, there have been updates to the press and suite level at Scottsdale Stadium that include upgrades to the Giants administrative offices.

Phase Two of the project will bring further upgrades to fan amenities and the stadium concourses.

Ford C. Frick Award Winners

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the broadcaster, National League President, Commissioner, and Hall of Famer, has been presented annually since 1978. Frick was a driving force behind the creation of the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown and he helped foster the relationship between radio and the game of baseball.

Mel Allen and Red Barber were the first two recipients in 1978. A single winner has been selected in each year following.

The annual Frick Award ballot is created by a subcommittee of the voting electorate. A new election cycle has been established starting with the 2017 Award, rotating annually between Major League Markets (team-specific announcers); National Voices (broadcasters whose contributions were realized on a national level); and Broadcasting Beginnings (early team voices and pioneers of baseball broadcasting). This cycle will repeat every three years.

The Frick Award Committee casts ballots during November, and the results are announced during the Baseball Winter Meetings in December. The Frick Award electorate is comprised of the living Frick Award recipients and four broadcast historians/columnists.

Voters are asked to base their selections on "Commitment to excellence, quality of broadcasting abilities, reverence within the game, popularity with fans, and recognition by peers." To be considered, an active or retired broadcaster must have a minimum of 10 years of continuous major league broadcast service with a ball club, network, or a combination of the two.

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually during Hall of Fame Weekend. Each award recipient (not to be confused with an inductee) is presented with a calligraphy of the award and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

Frick Award winner in 1988.

Lon Simmons

Frick Award Winner: 2004

One of original voices of San Francisco Giants, teaming with fellow Hall of Famer Russ Hodges to form arguably finest broadcast team in sports history...brought trademark "Tell It Goodbye" home run call to Giants broadcast booth for 23 years over three different stints (1958-'73, '76-'78 and '96-2002)...is only man to broadcast debuts for each of club's three San Francisco ballparks—Seals Stadium in 1958, Candlestick Park in 1960 and Pacific Bell Park in 2000...beloved for his wit and charm, Bay Area legend was inducted into Hall of Fame in 2004 as 29th winner of Ford C. Frick Award recipient during Hall of Fame Weekend 2010.

On and off the field the 2021 season was a year marked by uncertainties, challenges, perseverance, and resiliency. The Giants on the field won a historic 107 games through grit, hustle, determination, preparation and hard work. Off the field the Giants helped encourage people to get vaccinated, recognized front line and essential workers for their dedication to assisting others during the COVID-19 Pandemic, continued to lead our community in addressing social justice causes, provided space for a pop-up food pantry to alleviate food insecurity in the community, and created college scholarships for San Francisco's Black youth to help pursue their dreams.

MLB VACCINATE AT THE PLATE

The Giants and Major League Baseball partnered with the San Francisco Department of Public Health and the COVID Command Center to get as many residents vaccinated against COVID-19 as possible. During the month of June, people who got vaccinated at one of San Francisco's designated vaccination sites received two complimentary tickets (1 voucher) for a Giants game between July and September. Overall 2,500 ticket vouchers were distributed throughout 50 vaccination sites in San Francisco.

PRIDE

The Giants became the first MLB team to incorporate Pride colors into their on-field uniforms when they faced the Chicago Cubs on Saturday, June 5 at Oracle Park. Players and coaches wore jerseys that featured an SF logo "Pride Patch" on their right sleeves and caps that incorporated the Pride colors into the SF logo.

WILLIE MAYS SCHOLARS

WILLIE MAYS SCHOLARS PROGRAM

The Willie Mays Scholarship makes college aspirations come true for San Francisco's Black youth and empowers them to pursue their goals to achieve success in high school, college and beyond. Beginning in Fall 2021, five Scholars will be inducted annually and receive a scholarship of up to $20,000 as part of $70,000 worth of support through high school and college that includes hands-on mentoring and tailored wraparound support services. In partnership with Alive & Free and 100% College Prep, the Willie Mays Scholars will be equipped to succeed, through college and beyond.

GILMAN FIELD DEDICATION WITH BRANDON CRAWFORD

In partnership with the Good Tidings Foundation, San Francisco Recreation and Parks, and short-stop Brandon Crawford, the Giants Community Fund restored the Gilman Playground baseball field to create a safer, equitable, state-of-the-art location for children to play baseball and softball. The field features a brand-new grass infield and outfield, a refurbished plaza entryway to the field, a fresh coat of paint on the backstop and new dugout fencing and benches.

JUNIOR GIANTS

Junior Giants returned to the field this summer with 10,860 boys and girls playing in 57 leagues throughout California, Nevada and Oregon. In 2021, Junior Giants introduced Play Ball Events and hosted 15 pre-season clinics for 480 kids throughout Northern California to provide local players with an extra opportunity to get on the field. The Giants Community Fund also served 3,000 players virtually through Junior Giants at Home and two new online programs: Junior Giants Spring Training and Giants on the Go.

NIKE CITY CONNECT

The Giants in partnership with Nike created a unique themed jersey featuring the Golden Gate Bridge Towers peeking over the thick San Francisco fog. These jerseys represent the fusion of cultures, vibrancy from the City streets, having a dream and believing in yourself, and the impactful work in the diverse communities of San Francisco. City ConnectED highlighted the stories of perseverance, hard work, dedication, grit and drive. These stories define success as impact - on their community, on those less fortunate, on their friends, family and teammates. Each story is a piece of San Francisco.

COMMUNITY SPIRIT

Giants employees, from the players to the front office staff, are expected to give back to the community and our fans. Players and uniformed personnel do this through developing their own community programs or supporting existing programs in the form of appearances, financial contributions and relaying important messages through videos, press conferences and appearances. The front office staff supports many of the organization's community initiatives and actively volunteers their time throughout the year. Additionally, autographed items were donated to over 400 community partners who used them for fundraising purposes. A total of 33,879 tickets were distributed and donated through MLB's Players Give Back Program and MLB's Community Commissioner's Initiative which focused on giving back to essential workers, front line employees and local non-profits.

WHO WE SUPPORT

Each season, the Giants team up with community organizations to raise awareness for various causes. The Giants used TV and radio broadcast spots, social media posts and in-game assets to support these causes. Programs included: Alzheimer's Awareness, Salute to the Military, Pediatric Cancer Awareness, Until There's A Cure, Strike Out Violence Day, Mental Health Awareness, Lou Gehrig Day, Junior Giants Stretch Drive, Heritage Nights, Step Up to the Plate for Homelessness, and many others.
