SHAW SPORTS TURF B1K

- ◆ Partnered with Shaw Sports Turf to install a state-of-the-art synthetic grass surface at Chase Field for 2019.
- ◆ The high-performance B1K ("Batting a Thousand") surface is designed specifically for baseball.
- ◆ It is a dual fiber system comprised of Shaw' high-performance Strenexe XD slit film and Shaw's Bolt monofilament.
- ◆ This system provides high durability and functionality by preventing the infill from "splashing," maintaining adequate infill levels across the field.
- ◆ The Bolt fiber provides excellent ball roll, friction and natural grass aesthetics, ensuring that the playing surface at Chase Field will appear nearly identical to that which has been in place since the stadium opened in 1998.
- ◆ The Geofill Performance Infill within the blades forms a firm surface similar to natural soil with lower energy rebound levels identical to high-performance natural grass. The result is a more natural playing posture and motion from the players, creating less fatigue as their bodies will not have to overcompensate for the "bounciness" of the surface.
- ◆ Geofill infill is made from natural materials that are environmentally friendly, and the system will provide a 90% savings – nearly two million gallons – in water consumption each season by requiring less water to maintain the system.
- ◆ Arizona-based Lloyd Civil & Sports Engineering and Fields Inc., and industry leader in synthetic field construction, were involved in the planning and construction of the surface.

The Arizona Diamondbacks sustainability program is an organization-wide commitment to improving its environmental performance and to use baseball as the platform with which we can influence players, fans, employees and corporate partners to positively affect environmental change.

GREEN INITIATIVES & PRACTICES

- ◆ In 2019, the D-backs transitioned to natural synthetic grass at Chase Field. The Geofill infill is made from natural materials that are environmentally friendly, and the system will provide a 90-percent savings (nearly 2 million gallons) in water consumption each season by requiring less water to maintain the system.
- ◆ Salt River Fields at Talking Stick received LEED Gold Certification for New Construction, the first LEED Gold-certified sports venue of its kind in the United States. Sustainable project elements include sitting the stadium to provide maximum shade, using native vegetation, minimizing stormwater runoff, maximizing the amount of fresh air brought in through its HVAC systems and using grass-covered parking lots, rather than asphalt, that can double as playing fields for the community when not in use.
- ◆ In partnership with Waste Management, the D-backs added 200 new recycling/waste receptacles throughout the ballpark prior to the 2017 season, contributing to a 218-percent increase in recycling tons and a 48-percent decrease in waste tonnage sent to landfill over the last 2 seasons.
- ◆ In 2017, 50 high-speed, energy-efficient hand dryers were installed in concourse restrooms, which has removed more than 700 miles of paper towels from the waste stream...the D-backs also established a new compost collection program and have diverted 89 tons of organic materials from the waste stream, and debuted the first vertical garden in Major League Baseball in partnership with UnitedHealthcare.
- ◆ In recognition for their efforts in 2017, the D-backs were named by Major League Baseball as the Most Improved NL club for diversion and sustainability.
- ◆ The D-backs installed low-flow flush valves in 425 toilets and 260 urinals which reduced water usage by 50 percent in these areas during the 2017 season.
- ◆ In 2018, the D-backs and Levy Restaurants donated more than 14 tons of stadium food from Chase Field to Church on the Street. The donated food equates to more than 23,000 meals that help people in the Phoenix community.

- ◆ In 2014, the D-backs replaced fluorescent lighting along the main concourse with energy-efficient LED lighting that will reduce the main concourse lighting power consumption by 60 percent each year.
- ◆ Hosted the first-ever Zero-Waste Spring Training game in Arizona on March 13, 2014, at Salt River Fields to bring awareness to recycling and composting.
- ◆ Contributing members of the Green Sports Alliance, a coalition of professional sports teams and sporting venues committed to promoting "greening initiatives" in sports.
- ◆ APS Electric vehicle chargers located outside Chase Field for fans to charge their car and learn more about alternative energy-powered cars.
- ◆ Media guides are available electronically; D-backs Insider magazine is printed with soy ink on recycled paper; most marketing collateral printed on FSC certified products.
- ◆ Renovation of Game Seven Grill on the Gila River Casinos Plaza included high-efficiency LED lighting and conversion of building to Building Management System to efficiently control energy use.
- ◆ D-backs gameday event and concessions staff shirts are each made from RPET fabric (each shirt created from 16 recycled plastic bottles).
- ◆ Grease is recycled into biodiesel fuel and vendors distribute bio-based and compostable food service items.
- ◆ Offer a reusable "loyalty cup" to season-ticket holders.
- ◆ All paper products used at Chase Field are comprised of recycled material.

APS SOLAR PAVILION

- ◆ Dedicated on April 28, 2011. Partnership between D-backs, Maricopa County Stadium District & APS.
- ◆ Solar-shade structure covers 17,280 square feet.
- ◆ Solar panels will generate 100,000 kWh of solar energy, enough electricity to power the lights at Chase Field for 11 home games.

The D-backs hosted the first annual United HealthCare Garden Harvest at the D-backs Greens on Sept. 20, 2018.

E.G. (KEN) KENDRICK

MANAGING GENERAL PARTNER

A charter member of the ownership group that brought baseball to the Valley of the Sun, Ken Kendrick assumed the role of Managing General Partner of the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2004. Since then, the team has reached the postseason three times (2007, 2011, 2017), including one NLCS appearance, while turning the D-backs into one of the top philanthropic entities in the state. Kendrick has an active role in the day-to-day operations of the D-backs and is the organization's designated representative when Major League Baseball owners convene during the course of the year.

As a commitment to the fans, Kendrick and the D-backs' ownership group continue to provide the most affordable fan experience in Arizona and throughout Major League Baseball while re-investing all profits into the team. Under his leadership, through equity and debt restructures, the team has eliminated more than $200 million of debt, putting the franchise on sound financial ground for years to come. Additionally, he led the negotiations with FOX Sports Arizona on a 20-year extension that began in 2016 and is the largest financial transaction in franchise history.

Prior to the 2017 season, Kendrick and club President & CEO Derrick Hall hired Mike Hazen as the club's Executive Vice President and General Manager who in turn, named Torey Lovullo as the eighth manager in franchise history. The changes led to a 24-game turnaround, a Wild Card game victory and 175-149 record (.540) during the past two seasons.

In December 2015, Kendrick authorized the largest free agent signing in franchise history when the team signed right-handed pitcher Zack Greinke to a six-year contract with the highest average annual value in baseball history.

Kendrick is in his 16th season in his current role and during that time, the franchise has become a model organization in Major League Baseball, reaching the NLCS for just the second time (2007), hosting an All-Star Game at Chase Field (2011), opening a Spring Training facility that is widely considered the finest in all of baseball in Salt River Fields at Talking Stick, and becoming one of the largest philanthropic entities in the Valley with charitable contributions topping $60 million since the organization's inception.

In 2013, ESPN the Magazine rated the D-backs as the No. 1 team in all of Major League Baseball in its Ultimate Standings, which gauges success both on and off the field and Ranking Arizona has named the team the No. 1 place to work in the state among small companies.

While the D-backs are his primary business focus, Kendrick has also helped to change the face of downtown Phoenix, as he is a principal in the development of CityScape, Arizona's largest commercial/retail real estate development just footsteps from Chase Field.

After receiving a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from West Virginia University in 1965, Kendrick started his career with IBM. Three years later, he founded Datatel, Inc., which has become the worldwide leader in the development of computer software for the management of infrastructure technology for colleges, universities and foundations. In 2011, Datatel acquired SunGard Higher Education for $1.75 billion. The combined companies were renamed Ellucian and were sold in 2015 for $3.5 billion to TPG Capital.

Kendrick also served as President of a Texas-based financial services technology company for four years in the 1980s. In 1989, Kendrick became the principal investor in Woodforest National Bank in The Woodlands, Texas, which is one of the nation's largest primarily employee-owned banks. Woodforest National Bank, a $5.5-billion entity with 5,000 employees, is a subsidiary of Woodforest Financial Group, which was founded by Kendrick and includes Merchants' Choice Credit Card Services and Par Real Estate.

Kendrick owns Bumble Bee Ranch, which is devoted to providing western lifestyle experiences to children's charities throughout Arizona in addition to the Ironbridge Golf Club in Glenwood Springs, Colo.

He is very active in many philanthropic endeavors, beginning with his role as Chairman of the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation. The D-backs organization, combined with its Foundation, has surpassed the $60-million mark in combined charitable giving since its inception, including more than $35 million in the last seven years. In 2011, Kendrick received the Ellis Island Medal of Honor from the National Ethnic Coalition (NECO). He and his wife, Randy, were previously named the Living and Giving Honorees for the Desert Southwest Chapter of the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. Kendrick also received the Visionary Award from the Foundation for Blind Children, Spirit of the Children Award from Childhelp USA, Today's Kids/Tomorrow's Stars honoree of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Metropolitan Phoenix, River Conservator of the Year by the Roaring Fork Conservancy and was named Man of the Year by the March of Dimes. He also serves on boards for various charities including the Barrow Neurological Institute, Brophy College Prep, the Phoenix Art Museum, The Buddy Program, Childhelp USA, UMOM New Day Centers, Challenger Center for Space Science Education, TGen Foundation, Cleveland Clinic Foundation, Roaring Fork Conservancy, Phoenix Children's Hospital, Arizona Heart Foundation and is Founding Chairman of the Datatel Scholars Foundation.

As a prostate cancer survivor, Kendrick has made significant contributions over the years to fund research in that field and in 2013, the Cleveland Clinic created The Kendrick Family Chair for Prostate Cancer Research.

Among the other endowments funded by Kendrick are Project Excellence, an educational program for inner-city youth at Phoenix Country Day School (PCDS) whose mission is to enrich, engage and empower first-generation students (the first in their families to prepare for higher education) from local public schools and the Loyola Academy, which provides education to sixth, seventh and eighth graders at Brophy College Prep who demonstrate academic promise but have had limited educational opportunities. In addition, Kendrick has supported the Tuzos Soccer Club since 2009 to underwrite the team's expenses with costs for registration, field-use fees, uniforms and equipment. The Club allows players from low-income families the opportunity to play in high-level tournaments, where players can be seen by college and soccer coaches and have the opportunity to receive scholarships.

An avid baseball card collector his entire life, Kendrick owns the famed 1909 T206 Honus Wagner card that was once owned by hockey great Wayne Gretzky. The Wagner card and 34 other iconic and rare baseball cards in Kendrick's collection, titled "The D-backs Collection," were previously displayed at the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, N.Y., and at the Phoenix Art Museum. He was selected for membership in the Professional Sports Authenticator (PSA) Hall of Fame in 2017.

A native of Princeton, W.Va., Kendrick is an alumnus of West Virginia University and sits on the Board of Directors for the WVU Foundation. In 2016, Kendrick spearheaded the dedication of a memorial statue and helped his alma mater endow a scholarship in the name of the late WVU basketball player "Hot Rod" Hundley. In 2014, he was named Philanthropist of the Year by WVU, one year after receiving an honorary doctorate from the university, considered higher education's most prestigious recognition.

Kendrick is the founder of the Center for Free Enterprise at WVU and he and his wife have established programs at WVU's College of Business and Economics focused on free-market research and at the WVU Eye Institute to support children's vision outreach programs. Kendrick funded the WVU Hall of Traditions, which provides a first-class showcase for the tradition of Mountaineer football and serves as a recruiting focal point at WVU. In 2006, Kendrick was inducted into the state of West Virginia's Business Hall of Fame and was also named to the WVU Academy of Distinguished Alumni. In 2011, he was inducted into the inaugural Roll of Distinguished Alumni at WVU's College of Business and Economics. He also sits on an advisory board of the University of Charleston in Charleston, W.Va., where he received an honorary Doctorate degree in 2005.

In 2016, torrential rains over parts of West Virginia caused devastating flooding in many counties and Kendrick came to the aid of his home state, setting up a relief program that raised more than $1 million.

Kendrick and his wife founded the Freedom Center at the University of Arizona to promote, along four dimensions, the understanding and appreciation of the ideals of freedom and responsibility via published research, undergraduate education, graduate education, and community outreach. The Freedom Center also endows the Kendrick Chair in Philosophy and Economics.

The University of Georgia elected Kendrick to its Board of Visitors and its Magill Society and in 2016, he served as the annual guest lecturer at the UGA Terry College of Business Leadership program, a distinction shared by Falcons owner Arthur Blank and the legendary Warren Buffett. He has also underwritten a PhD program at UGA in support of the James C. Bonbright Center.

In 2014, Kendrick was inducted into the Sigma Nu Fraternity National Hall of Fame, an honor bestowed upon less than 60 people in the nearly 150-year history of the organization. Among those enshrined are "Bear" Bryant, Pat Riley, Archie and Eli Manning, Harrison Ford, broadcasters Al Michaels and Joe Buck, as well as former Major League managers Dick Howser and Dallas Green. He was inducted into the Aspen Trashmaster's Golf Hall of Fame in 2014, and in 2015, he received the Angel Award (Man of the Year) from The Buddy Program.

Kendrick was honored with the prestigious Herman W. Lay Memorial Award by the Association of Private Enterprise Education, named for the former Chairman of the Board of Pepsi. The award honors individuals who have emulated the pattern of success and philanthropy that Lay lived while representing the best that the free enterprise system produces.

He and Randy have two children, Cal and Catie, and make their home in Paradise Valley.

MIKE CHIPMAN

GENERAL PARTNER

Mike Chipman is one of the general partners who possess the largest financial stake in the franchise and, in that capacity, routinely provides business insight regarding the future of the D-backs.

A graduate of the U.S. Air Force Academy with a degree in Computer Science, Chipman spent five years in the basic research arm of the Air Force, attaining the rank of Captain before resigning his commission to pursue a career in civilian life. He spent the next few years as a research scientist working in the area of computational physics, principally at Science Application International in La Jolla, Calif.

Chipman then made a huge impact in the computer software industry in the early 1980s when he and his wife, Evy, founded ChipSoft, Inc., the original owner and developer of TurboTax®, the leading income tax preparation software program for consumers and small businesses. Chipman served as President and Chief Executive Officer of ChipSoft until 1990 and Vice Chairman until 1993, when ChipSoft and TurboTax® were merged with Intuit, Inc. ChipSoft grew from a spare room operation in the Chipman's home to a 550-person public company by the time he retired from the business.

Since retirement, Chipman has invested in various businesses principally through an Investment Angels group. Chipman has had a hand in the development of the highly successful Bank of Internet USA and has been involved as an investor with other banks in Northern Nevada. He has been an owner of commercial real estate in Arizona for more than a decade during which time he became one of the primary investors in the D-backs.

In 2008, Chipman ventured on his longtime dream to complete the 2,650-mile Pacific Crest Trail hike on foot from the Mexican border in California into British Columbia in Canada. He completed the majority of the trail from April through September and finished the remainder in 2010. He has since completed the Grand Enchantment Trail (Phoenix to Albuquerque, 750 miles), Washington Coast Trail (400), Tahoe Rim Trail (165), the Colorado Trail (500) and the John Muir Trail (220). Chipman says the Arizona Trail (800) is on the short list.

He and Evy make their home near Lake Tahoe, Nev., where he has built a model railroad, complete with nearly 1,700 trees. The Chipmans spend a lot of "baseball time" locally in Paradise Valley after having wintered in Carefree for more than 10 years.

JEFF ROYER

GENERAL PARTNER

Jeff Royer is a General Partner of the Team. Royer's love for baseball began in his youth as a devoted fan of Warren Spahn, the record-setting, left-handed pitcher of the Milwaukee Braves.

Royer is a private investor with interests in telecommunications, cable television, medical devices, hospitality and wireless equipment.

DERRICK HALL

PRESIDENT & CEO

Considered by many to be among the leaders of the game, D-backs President & CEO Derrick Hall has turned the organization into a model franchise within the sports industry and throughout the business world during his 13 years at the helm of the club. Hall is the fourth-longest tenured CEO in Major League Baseball behind Atlanta's Terry McGuirk,

St. Louis's Bill DeWitt Jr. and Cincinnati's Bob Castellini, each of whom have a controlling ownership interest in their respective franchises.

Hall focuses the organization's efforts in five areas he has called the "Circle of Success" - fan experience, performance, community, culture and financial efficiency - each of which has seen tremendous growth during his tenure. The success of the franchise during Hall's tenure has led to numerous honors, including ESPN the Magazine tabbing the D-backs as the top Major League franchise in 2013 and sixth overall among the 122 professional sports franchises in the publication's Ultimate Standings, which are based on eight categories on and off the field.

Hall's leadership has helped guide the D-backs to three post-season appearances, including two National League West Division Championships (2007, '11) and one NLCS (2007). In 2017, the D-backs reversed their record and captured the National League Wild Card after Hall and Managing General Partner Ken Kendrick hired Executive Vice President & General Manager Mike Hazen to oversee the franchise's baseball operations.

With a focus on creating the best fan experience in all of sports, Hall has succeeded in accomplishing that goal at both Chase Field and at Salt River Fields at Talking Stick, the D-backs' Spring Training home near Scottsdale. Stadium enhancements at Chase Field that have taken place under Hall's guidance include the APS Solar Pavilion, Game Seven Grill, HD scoreboard in center field, the Sandlot, the Coors Light Strike Zone, All-You-Can-Eat Seats, The Draft Room and value-item pricing at concession stands and Team Shop locations throughout the ballpark. Hall also installed, named and created a FAWTSY (Find a Way to Say Yes) customer service policy throughout the organization to further improve upon the extraordinary fan experience. Last year marked the 10th consecutive season that the team offered the lowest Fan Cost Index in Major League Baseball.

In 2019, the D-backs will play on a new high-performance synthetic grass surface, the first installation of its kind in Major League Baseball. Among its many benefits, the new surface will allow the D-backs to save two million gallons of water each season and increase fan comfort at Chase Field. The D-backs' sustainability efforts have also grown significantly during Hall's tenure, as MLB awarded the D-backs as the Most Improved National League Club for diversion and sustainability in 2017.

In the last 14 years, the team has eliminated more than $200 million of debt through equity and debt restructures, while Hall also negotiated the largest financial transaction in franchise history - a historic 20-year television rights deal with FOX Sports Arizona which started in 2016 - putting the club on sound financial ground for years to come.

In the community, Hall has positioned the D-backs as one of the largest philanthropic entities in the Valley. In 2018, the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation and the D-backs' organization surpassed the $60 million mark in charitable giving since their inception in 1998, including more than $50 million in the past 13 years. In 2014, the team launched the D-backs Give Back Jersey program, which will outfit more than 70,000 youth players across 115 leagues this season. During the 2013 Yarnell Hill fire, the D-backs were able to give back more than $700,000 on behalf of their fans to the families of the 19 firefighters who lost their lives. In 2008, Hall established the Michael Wogan Season Ticket Scholarship Program, a first-of-its-kind program for fans or existing season ticket holders who may have experienced a change in circumstances, providing families with more than 445 full-season tickets for a value of nearly $900,000 since its inception.

The unique corporate culture of the D-backs, which was created by Hall, led Yahoo! and Forbes to deem the club among the "Best Places to Work in Sports." In 2013, the sports industry's highly regarded recruiting network, TeamWork Online, named him as the "Best Boss" in sports, and the organization has been named on several occasions as the "Most Admired Company for Workplace Culture" by AzBusiness Magazine and BestCompaniesAZ. Fittingly, the D-backs' physical front office was rebranded the D-backs Culture & Innovation Center before being rated No. 1 on Ranking Arizona's Best Places to Work list among small businesses.

Among the programs Hall has created is the President's Council, comprised of select members of the executive management team and a rotating committee consisting of the organization's Employee of the Month winners, to organize company culture events throughout the year. He also established employee recognition programs like "A-Game All-Stars" to reward game-day employees for exceptional service on a monthly basis throughout the season. The organization's investment in its employees resulted in the D-backs becoming the first sports organization to be named among the "Best Places to Work" by the Phoenix Business Journal for 12 consecutive years from 2007-18.

In 2016, the Arizona Republic named Hall one of 16 Arizonans to watch, citing his "positive influence [that] grows larger by the year" as someone who "works effortlessly to promote Metro Phoenix and the state." He was also named by Rise Global to its list of 100 Most Influential CEOs, a group that includes names such as Rupert Murdoch, Richard Branson, Elon Musk, Warren Buffett, Tim Cook, Biz Stone and Larry Ellison.

The organization continues to rack up awards and honors under Hall's leadership, including the Arizona Hispanic Chamber of Commerce Corporation of the Year (2017), AAAED's Champion of Diversity (2017), the Dominican Republic Sports & Education Academy (2016), One Community Spotlight on Success (2015), Make-A-Wish Foundation's Chris Greicius Award (2014), the Phoenix Indian Center's Leon Grant Spirit of the Community Award (2014), Greater Phoenix Chamber of Commerce IMPACT Award-Community Champion (2013), Arizona's Corporate Excellence Community Impact Award (2013), City of Phoenix Equal Opportunity Department-Excellence Award (2013), Arizona Business Leadership Award (2012), "Organization of the Year" (2011) and the DREAMR award (2012) by the Downtown Phoenix Partnership, "Most Admired Company" and "Top Leadership" by AzBusiness Magazine (2011). In 2010, the D-backs were given the inaugural United Nations NGO Positive Peace Award, which named the D-backs the most positive team in the world.

Hall's vision to further establish the organization as a sports industry leader while spurring economic development and impact throughout the Valley came to fruition in 2011, as the team hosted the Major League Baseball All-Star Game at Chase Field for the first time ever, creating an economic impact of more than $67 million. Hall's persistence in convincing MLB to award the Mid-Summer Classic to the D-backs allowed Chase Field and Downtown Phoenix to be showcased in more than 100-million homes across the world, while working diligently with city leaders, politicians and officials to ensure that fans had the finest All-Star Game experience.

Salt River Fields at Talking Stick, the D-backs' 140-acre Spring Training facility shared with Colorado Rockies on Salt River Indian Community land near Scottsdale, Ariz., that Hall negotiated and designed, has greatly added to the already $350 million of economic impact for the Valley associated with Spring Training each year. In both 2011 and '12, the D-backs set a franchise record for Spring Training attendance while the two clubs set an all-time Major League record for combined attendance at a single Spring Training facility. Salt River Fields was the first pro sports training facility in the U.S. to be built on tribal land and was privately funded without the use of any taxpayer dollars. The facility received LEED-Gold certification from the U.S. Green Building Council in 2011, the first venue of its kind to achieve this designation.

Hall's vision for Salt River Fields was to keep fan interaction with players a top priority while also ensuring maximum comfort for visitors at the 11,000-seat ballpark. Both goals were accomplished, as the main stadium is located in the middle of the facility to enable fans to mingle throughout and get an up-close look at D-backs players as they practice. A unique roof structure and a northeast-facing field allow for approximately 85 percent of the fans in all 7,000 fixed seats to be shaded as the game progresses.

Hall routinely communicates with D-backs fans as part of his "one fan at a time" concept by answering every letter, email or phone call. He conducts monthly chats online and spends most of his time at home games communicating with the fans in the stands to ensure their experience at Chase Field is exceptional.

Among the projects outside of Chase Field and Salt River Fields that have Hall's fingerprints on them is the Legends Entertainment District, a joint venture between the D-backs, the Phoenix Suns and the City of Phoenix that is the first of its kind between two professional sports organizations. The project has transformed the look of Downtown Phoenix by creating experiential outdoor marketing opportunities and an energetic backdrop for visitors and residents to enjoy their experience.

Hall was personally selected to join a handful of corporate leaders by Governor Doug Ducey as one of his first orders of business to form a new pro-business group. The Arizona Zanjeros are focused exclusively on economic development, defining Arizona's brand and marketing the state to CEOs across the country and around the world. In 2015, he joined the Governor's delegation on a weeklong trip to Israel.

Hall sits on Major League Baseball's International Committee and under his guidance, the D-backs hosted the first round of the 2013 World Baseball Classic and have played six games in Mexico during his tenure, most recently the 2019 Mexico Series in Monterrey. Hall has represented the team on goodwill trips to Mexico, Japan, the Dominican Republic, Australia and New Zealand, helping to bring international recognition to the franchise. In 2014, his continued efforts to showcase the D-backs on the global stage reached its highest point as the club hosted the Dodgers during MLB's historic Opening Series in Sydney, Australia, which was subsequently named the International Sports Event of the Year.

Hall also serves on MLB's diversity committee and the Commissioner's on-field diversity task force. In that regard, the D-backs have also been industry leaders. In 2016, the team hosted the highly regarded MLB Business Diversity Summit in Arizona in an effort to bring more diverse candidates into front offices around the game. For its efforts, the team was awarded the Jackie Robinson Most Valuable Diverse Business Partner award by Major League Baseball. The team has been named for five consecutive years to the Arizona Hispanic Chamber of Commerce's Million Dollar Circle of Excellence as an organization that spends more than $1 million annually with minority or women-owned businesses. In 2014, the D-backs became the first MLB organization to sign One Community's Unity Pledge, which supports and advocates for workplace inclusion and protection for all, including LGBT community members. For his commitment to equality, Hall received the prestigious Torch of Liberty Award from the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) in 2014. The award, ADL's highest honor, was established to recognize individuals who have exhibited extraordinary humanitarianism, and whose everyday actions exemplify the principles of opportunity, anti-discrimination, equal rights, community involvement and fairness for all.

Hall currently serves on or is associated with 25 boards, including the Arizona Mexico Commission, Great Hearts Academies, Arizona Chamber of Commerce, ArizonaOn, Greater Phoenix Convention & Visitors Bureau, National Vice President of the Muscular Dystrophy Association, National Advisory Council for Pancreatic Cancer, Stand Up 2 Cancer Melanoma Dream Team Sponsor, Cancer Treatment Centers of America, Valley of the Sun YMCA and Positive Coaching Alliance. Hall served as the 2018 Phoenix Police Reserve Foundation Chair, the 2018 Make-A-Wish America Nominating and Governance Chair and the 2017-18 Pride Campaign Chair for the Phoenix Zoo. He is the past Chairman of the Board for Make-A-Wish Arizona and current board member for Make-A-Wish America, is also a past Chairman of the Board for the Valley of the Sun United Way, where he raised $47 million throughout the Phoenix area as the VSUW's 2009-10 campaign chairman. He has also raised money by serving as an event chairman for the Prostate On-Site Project (POP) Walk, 75th Anniversary March of Dimes, March for Babies Walk, The Wellness Center, several Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation (JDRF) events, Southwest Autism Research & Resource Center (SARRC), St. Vincent de Paul, Florence Crittenton and the Foundation for Blind Children.

Hall served as master of ceremonies at the 2015 Arizona inaugural ceremonies and gives numerous keynote speeches to various groups or conventions throughout the country about his unique vision on leadership, customer service and culture. He has spoken to U.S. Air Force Academy cadets at the annual National Leadership and Character Symposium. He donates speaking engagement fees back to the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation and other local non-profit organizations he supports.

CULLEN MAXEY

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, BUSINESS OPERATIONS & CRO

Cullen Maxey is in his 13th season with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2019 and second as Executive Vice President, Business Operations & Chief Revenue Officer. This season marks Maxey's 10th overseeing all revenue-generating departments throughout the organization, including Analytics, Broadcasting, Content & Communications, Community Affairs, Corporate Partnerships, Special Projects/Fan Experience, Marketing, Spring Training and Ticket Sales & Service.

Since joining the D-backs as Vice President, Corporate Partnerships, Maxey has stimulated revenue generation throughout the organization by enacting an inclusive strategic planning process and a pro-active sales and service approach. In addition, he oversees Arizona Diamondbacks Events & Entertainment (ADEE), the newly formed entity that books and executes all non-baseball events at Chase Field.

Under his leadership, the Corporate Partnership team has increased revenue in all 13 of his seasons, while strategically increasing value to partners by decreasing the marketing inventory and total number of partners. Over the years Maxey enhanced fan experience and generated revenue by developing concepts such as the first-ever season-long dog-friendly ballpark and "Dog Days of Summer" program, a "Cubana" concept allowing groups a casual space to enjoy a game, and many new food and beverage experiences.

For the eighth straight year, the D-backs hosted the Most Valuable Partner awards program, a first-of-its-kind concept created by Maxey as a more effective way to teach marketing practices year-round in a captivating way that motivates partners to participate. The on-stage production and dinner showcases the winners of each category and has garnered local and national attention, just one of several ways the D-backs seek to provide a better return for corporate partners. It has been lauded as a revolutionary way of improving the business-to-business summit in sports.

The D-backs' fundraising and community giving have reached their highest levels, as the team and Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation have now given back more than $60 million since their inception and raised more than $45 million since 2009. The D-backs Give Back Jersey Program has been a huge success and will expand to nearly 115 youth leagues and 70,000 athletes this year, each of whom will be wearing D-backs uniforms. Additional community programs created during his tenure include the Back-to-School Challenge which has awarded $850,000 to local schools; the 50/50 raffle which has raised more than $8.5 million for the community; the annual Celebrity Golf Classic benefiting military veterans programs; and the annual Race Against Cancer benefiting cancer related charities throughout the Valley. Maxey also created the D-backs Executive Council which brings together key executives throughout the Valley to contribute ideas, help fundraise and assist in executing the team's philanthropic efforts.

The D-backs' ticket sales strategies have continued to pay off, as an increased focus on business analytics and customer experience has allowed the team to increase total ticket revenue, season ticket revenue, group sales and suite sales in each of the past nine seasons despite an inconsistent sales climate. Maxey led the development of the Season Ticket Advantage program, created to increase the value of being a season-ticket holder and grow retention.

Maxey played a key role in directing his business operations team to ensure the success of the 2011 All-Star Game, which was played at Chase Field for the first time ever, the 2013 World Baseball Classic and 2014 Opening Series in Sydney, Australia. In 2016, the D-backs took the innovative step of self-designing the team's on-field attire, a two-year process lead by Maxey's team. He has also played an integral role in the creation and execution of Salt River Fields at Talking Stick, the Spring Training facility on Salt River Indian Community land and the multi-million-dollar Legends Entertainment District, the team's unique partnership with the Phoenix Suns that has helped revitalize downtown Phoenix. With 55,000 square feet of dynamic outdoor digital and static signage opportunities, the project has developed new revenue for both teams while helping promote ticket sales and deliver team messages to more than 8-million annual visitors and 700 diverse events each year.

Maxey's path to the D-backs began with revenue-generating positions at the Phoenix Suns from 1997-2001. He served as VP of Corporate Sales for the Phoenix Coyotes from 2001-04, which was highlighted by the opening of their new arena in Glendale. Prior to joining the D-backs, Maxey spent two years as the General Manager of Sun Devil Sports Marketing, the multimedia rights holder of Arizona State University Athletics at that time.

The Phoenix native is a member of the Thunderbirds and serves on the board for the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation, Boys & Girls Club of Metro Phoenix, and St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center Foundation.

He and his wife, Brenda, have two children, Will and Lizzie, and reside in Chandler.

JOHN FISHER

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, TICKET SALES AND MARKETING

John Fisher is in his 12th year with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2019, and ninth as the organization's Senior Vice President, Ticket Sales & Marketing. Fisher oversees all groups, suites and season ticket sales, service and ticket operations as well as all marketing efforts for the D-backs.

Fisher, who became a team Senior Vice President prior to 2011, originally joined the D-backs in October 2007 as Director, Season Ticket Sales and Service and managed a staff of season tickets sales representatives that set an organizational record in new ticket package revenue for the 2008 season. His team increased the organization's full-season equivalents in 2008 for only the second time in franchise history and second time since 2002 after winning the World Series in 2001.

Under Fisher, the team's Group Sales and Suite Sales efforts have seen consistent growth and set organization record highs in 2018 while the Ticket Services Team has renewed at all-time high levels. Total attendance has topped 2-million fans during each season of Fisher's tenure despite inconsistent team performance. With a focus on staff development and innovation, Fisher's sales team created a first of its kind part-time college student program and new staffing models and campaign timelines that are widely used throughout Major League Baseball.

In 2011, he assisted Major League Baseball in pricing and sales strategies for the All-Star Game, which took place at Chase Field.

Prior to joining the D-backs, Fisher was the Vice President of Sales and Service for the Minor League Lake Erie Monsters of the America Hockey League for one season (2006-07) after spending six (2001-07) leading group sales efforts for the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers and Quicken Loans Arena. With the Cavaliers, Fisher directed a staff that became the first NBA team to surpass $3 million in group sales revenue and finished in the Top 5 in total group sales revenue for four straight seasons while creating a number of best practices for the league. He also spent four seasons (1997-98, 2000-01) in the Pittsburgh Pirates' ticket office and two (1998-2000) with the NHL's Tampa Bay Lightning in group sales.

Fisher is a 1998 graduate of Robert Morris University in Pittsburgh, where he received his bachelor of science in Business Administration and Sports Management and is a member of the program's Hall of Fame.

CRAIG BRADLEY

VICE PRESIDENT, FINANCE

Craig Bradley enters his 22nd year with the D-backs and 14th as VP, Finance. He works closely with management as well as overseeing the accounting, purchasing, revenue sharing, reporting, Dominican and other business operations and is a member of the Club's Risk Management Committee.

Joining the team in September 1997 as Business Manager of Baseball Operations, Bradley worked alongside former GM Joe Garagiola, Jr. and other staff in setting up the Minor League system, Dominican Academy, scouting and Major League operations. Prior to the inaugural season, he oversaw the completion and start-up of the Tucson training complex and consulted on the development of the facility at Salt River Fields. In 1999, he identified the impact of player injuries and the effect on the player development process from a cost and appropriate time to evaluate perspective. Working with trainers, baseball executives and medical providers, he devised, implemented and managed an injury/workers compensation claim management approach that is proactive from the time an injury occurs through the doctor's final clearance. As a result, the D-backs consistently have the lowest rehab and workers compensation insurance premiums and are among the lowest in disabled list time in baseball.

Moving from baseball operations to finance in 2004, Bradley became the Controller in order to gain more experience and perspective on the operational and financial functions of the entire business. Since then, he has worked to improve business operations by implementing new accounting, forecasting and planning systems, expanded ticket revenue analysis and not-for-profit accounting, and implemented modern mechanisms for delivering funds to over 250 mobile players and staff.

Recognizing his leadership abilities, he was promoted to VP, Finance in 2006. A past member of the President Council (charged with business direction and company culture), Bradley develops effective, motivated and considerate staff while also working closely with the EVP/CFO on club debt and equity transactions, debt service compliance and other business matters.

REMEMBERING JOE BLACK

Major League Baseball and the Arizona Diamondbacks suffered a great loss with the passing of Joe Black on May 17, 2002. A Phoenix resident, Black worked in the D-backs' Community Affairs department and shared his stories as a guest speaker for numerous community groups.

Beyond baseball, Black was a pioneer in the business world and worked tirelessly to impact the civil and human rights advancements for minorities.

RANDY JOHNSON

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT & CEO

Randy Johnson, considered among the top pitchers in Major League history, is in his fifth season as Special Assistant to D-backs President & CEO Derrick Hall. In his role, he assists the organization both on and off the field, working primarily with the team's Minor League pitchers while also assisting in the community and appearing on team broadcasts.

In 2015, Johnson reached the pinnacle of his career as he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y., becoming the first player to feature an Arizona Diamondbacks cap on his plaque. The five-time Cy Young Award winner (four with the D-backs), ranks second on the all-time Major League strikeout list with 4,875 and first among left-handers. A 10-time All-Star, he won 303 games in his career, including a perfect game, and holds nearly every major career pitching record in D-backs franchise history.

Shortly after his Cooperstown induction, Johnson had his No. 51 retired by the franchise, becoming just the third player to receive that honor, joining Luis Gonzalez (No. 20) and Jackie Robinson (No. 42).

In 2001, Johnson was named the co-MVP of the D-backs' World Series championship, helping the franchise win the only major sports title in the state's history in just the fourth year of the franchise's existence. After striking out 11 New York Yankees in a 3-hit shutout in Game 2, Johnson pitched 7.0 innings to earn the victory in the do-or-die Game 6 and then came on in relief during Game 7 to earn the victory. Of the team's 11 postseason wins that year, Johnson earned five.

Johnson appeared in 22 big league seasons for the Expos, Mariners, Astros, D-backs, Yankees and Giants. His 303 career victories rank as the fifth-most by a left-hander in Major League history, while he holds 5 of the 7 highest single-season strikeout totals by a southpaw in modern history. His 5 Cy Youngs rank second all-time to Roger Clemens' 7 and he is 1 of 2 pitchers to win the award 4 consecutive times (1999-2002) along with Pedro Martinez. In 1999, Johnson joined Gaylord Perry in the rare feat of winning the award in both the American and National Leagues. A 9-time strikeout king and four-time earned-run average champion, Johnson was regularly clocked above 100 miles per hour during his playing career, leading to numerous incredible single-game performances. He struck out 20 batters in a game on May 8, 2001 vs. Reds and holds the Major League record for most strikeouts in a relief appearance (16 @ Padres on July 18, 2001).

On May 18, 2004, Johnson became the oldest pitcher in Major League history to throw a perfect game when he accomplished the feat at Atlanta. The left-hander also pitched a no-hitter for the Seattle Mariners on June 2, 1990 vs. Detroit and is one of five pitchers to throw a no-hitter in both the American and National League.

Johnson retired from baseball in January 2010 and on Jan. 6, 2015, was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility with 97.3-percent of the vote, the third-highest percentage of all time for pitchers. He was inducted into the Seattle Mariners Hall of Fame in 2012.

Nicknamed "The Big Unit," the 6'10" Johnson held the title of tallest player in Major League history for much of his career before that was surpassed by his D-backs teammate Jon Rauch (6'11").

In 1982, as a senior, he struck out 121 batters in 66.0 IP and threw a perfect game in his last high school start. He joined the organization in player development and was promoted to Vice President of Professional and International Scouting in 2006, eventually serving as Vice President of Player Development and International Scouting.

During his tenure with the Red Sox, Shipley played an integral role in the evaluation and signing of pitchers Daisuke Matsuzaka, Felix Doubront, Hideki Okajima and Junichi Tazawa, and infielders Xander Bogaerts and Jose Iglesias. During the 2005-06 offseason, Shipley was part of a committee of team executives that handled the general manager's duties for the Red Sox.

He began his baseball operations career in 2000 as the Montreal Expos' Minor League infield and baserunning coordinator while also helping the Australian national team prepare for the Olympics. He then served as a professional scout with the San Diego Padres from 2001-02 before joining the Red Sox in December 2002.

A native of Parramatta, Australia, Shipley played in 11 Major League seasons with the Los Angeles Dodgers (1986-87), New York Mets (1989), San Diego Padres (1991-94, '96-97), Houston Astros (1995) and Anaheim Angels (1998) and hit .271 in 582 career games.

Shipley was the second Australian-born player and first to debut in the modern era of Major League Baseball when he made his debut on June 22, 1986 vs. San Diego. Australia's Joe Quinn played in the Major Leagues from 1884-1901.

He was involved in a 12-player deal between the Padres and Astros in December 1994, the largest volume of players traded in 37 years.

Shipley attended the University of Alabama, where the Crimson Tide reached the College World Series championship game in 1983.

Shipley served as a coach for Team Australia in the 2006 World Baseball Classic and continues to work closely with numerous organizations that promote the game of baseball in his native country.

He has two daughters, Amanda and Kylee.

The D-backs and Dodgers play Opening Day at Sydney Cricket Grounds in Sydney, Australia on March 22, 2014.

YOU CAN'T MAKE THIS UP

On April 24, 2018 @ Phillie Phanatic, Avila met Hunter Gillett, a D-backs fan in town to see doctors for surgery for his hip dysplasia, and allowed him to pick out his bat before the game...Avila then went 3-for-4 with a home run and 2 RBI with Hunter's bat of choice, and gifted the bat to him after the game.

"I grabbed my 3 game bats and asked him to pick 1 out for me and I'll use it," Avila told FOX Sports Arizona after the game. "He picked it out because, in his words, it was the cleanest bat, but after it's obviously a little dirty. He picked out a winner for sure."

- ◆ Threw out 32.2 pct. (19-of-59) of attempted basestealers, including a career-high 3 caught stealings on Sept. 15 vs. White Sox.
- ◆ Tied for MLB lead with 11 double plays as catcher (also: Salvador Pérez/KC).

BROTHERS GOTTA PH

On Sept. 11, 2018 vs. A's, Corban Joseph pinch-hit for Caleb, marking the first time that a brother pinch-hit for his brother since Sept. 16, 2009, when the Padres' Adrian González pinch-hit for Edgar González vs. D-backs.

Named to the following All-Star Teams: 2013 Eastern League (mid- and postseason), 2011 EL (midseason), 2009 Carolina League (mid- and postseason), 2008 New York-Penn League (mid-season).

- ◆ Tied for 12th in the Majors with 21 caught stealing despite playing in just 82 games.
- ◆ His 38.2 caught stealing pct. (21-for-55) would have led the AL and ranked second in baseball if qualified (fell 3 games shy).
- ◆ Homered in 5 straight games from Aug. 2-9, 2014, an Orioles record for a catcher.

PERSONAL

"I know we joke around about this impenetrable cup, but there's something to be said about peace of mind when you feel completely protected now," Joseph told The Baltimore Sun. "The CEO has shot a bullet into this thing, so if it's good enough for a bullet, it's good for me."

LEARNING FROM THE BEST

Kelly to media about playing with former teammate, Yadier Molina:

"It's kind of unique because I got to see him on a day-to-day basis and see how he goes about his business and how he prepares for a game. I've gone to 5 Spring Trainings with him, so I've got to see first-hand the work ethic and what it takes to be a Gold Glove catcher and the leader of a team. I've just taken that stuff to heart."

- ◆ Named the Cardinals' 2016 Minor League Player of the Year after hitting .289 with 17 doubles, 6 home runs and 32 RBI with Double-A Springfield and Triple-A Memphis.
- ◆ Participated in the MLB All-Star Futures Game @ Petco Park.
- ◆ Played with Glendale in the Arizona Fall League...participated in the Rising Stars Game and named to the league's All-Prospect Team.

2018 REVIEW

- ◆ Led the SK Wyverns to the 2018 Korean Series title, going 12-7 with a 4.09 ERA in 28 starts of the KBO League.
- ◆ Made 2 starts in the Korean Series vs. Doosan Bears, earning the victory in Game 3...started Game 6 and held the Bears hitless in the first 5.1 innings.
- ◆ Ranked among KBO starting pitchers in strikeouts per 9.0 IP (2nd), WHIP (1.26, 6th), ERA (7th), and wins (8th).

Full name:

Kenneth Merrill Kelly

GIVE 'EM THE HEATER!

According to The Athletic, Kelly's average fastball velocity increased in all 4 years in the KBO: 89.5 in 2015, 90.8 in 2016, 91.8 in 2017 and 92.5 in 2018.

"One big thing is just the maturation of my body getting stronger as I got older," Kelly said about his increased velocity. "The next part would be the progression of my mechanics. When I first came to Korea, I was not very good at using my whole body, including my legs, when delivering the ball. Over the past couple of years, I have tried to focus on using more of my body to throw."

HOME! SWEET HOME!

- ◆ Grew up in Scottsdale, Ariz., and attended Desert Mountain High School, Yavapai College and Arizona State University.
- ◆ Prior to 2019, 4 D-backs players played high school, college (4-year university) and the Majors all in Arizona: Jake Barrett, Tuffy Gosewisch, Cody Ransom and Ed Vosberg.

COLLEGE CAREER

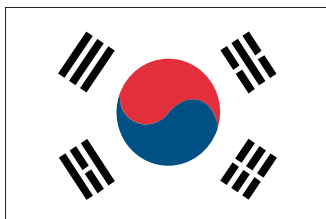

- ◆ Attended Yavapai College in Prescott, Ariz. (2008-09) and Arizona State University (2010).
- ◆ Was 15-1 in 2 seasons with Yavapai...teammates included OF Kole Calhoun and RHP Kirby Yates.
- ◆ Helped the Sun Devils reach the College World Series in 2010, going 10-3 with a 4.23 ERA.

- ◆ Dad, Tom, had been the GM of the Chicago Ritz-Carlton and others within the Four Seasons Hotel corporation over 35 years before recently taking early retirement.
- ◆ Brother, Reid, played 5 Minor League seasons in the Astros (2006-09) and White Sox' (2010) organizations.

DRAFT DAY DIARY

Selected by the Orioles in the 37th round of the 2007 draft but did not sign.

- ◆ Spent 4 seasons (2015-18) with the SK Wyverns, going 48-32 with a 3.86 ERA (313 ER in 729.2 IP) in 119 games (118 starts).
- ◆ Was teammates for 2 seasons (2017-18) with former D-back Jamie Romak...Romak played 12 games for Arizona in 2015.
- ◆ His Wyverns' manager was Trey Hillman, who was named the Marlins' first base coach in Dec. 2018...Hillman also managed the Royals from 2008-10.

"[My agent and I] made the decision at the time that it was the best option since I wanted to be a starting pitcher and I was a swingman-type guy in Tampa," Kelly said to media after signing with the D-backs. "SK guaranteed me that opportunity."

- ◆ Was 9-4 with a 2.76 ERA and 108 strikeouts in 28 games (15 starts) with Triple-A Durham.

2018 REVIEW

- ◆ Signed with the Royals as a Minor League free agent on March 9 and was released on March 24.
- ◆ Appeared in 2 Cactus League games (1 start), going 0-1 with a 19.64 ERA.

REMEMBERING #JDF16

- ◆ Went to Rio de Janeiro with former teammates Giancarlo Stanton and A.J. Ramos and painted a mural that said "Niño," which was what they used to affectionately call José Fernández, a month after his death in 2016.
- ◆ The mural, painted by New York-born Brazilian street artist, Tito na Rua, contains the Cuban flag, Fernandez's No. 16, his nickname "Niño," and each player's signature.

@RNolasco: Wherever we are, you are... Saudades #rip #JDF16 #niño #riodejaneiro

Saudades is a portuguese term for "a deep emotional state of nostalgic or profound melancholic longing for an absent something or someone that one loves."

- ◆ Set a career high and a Marlins franchise record with 16 strikeouts on Sept. 30, 2009 @ Atlanta.
- ◆ Struck out the side in the third, fourth and fifth innings to mark 9 consecutive strikeouts, 1 shy of Tom Seaver's Major League record of 10 straight in 1970... only Seaver and Jake Peavy (2007) had also struck out 9 in a row.

"Something kind of weird about me is that, ever since high school, I keep a mental tally in my head of how many [strikeouts] I have every single game," Nolasco told media after the game. "I knew how many I had and what was going on, but I wasn't aware of any record."

REVENGE HOMER

- ◆ His first Major League hit was a home run against the team that drafted him, the Cubs, on May 22, 2006.
- ◆ Was the second Marlins pitcher to homer for his first hit (also: Tony Saunders on May 8, 1997 vs. Braves).

MILESTONE MOMENTS

- ◆ Earned his 100th career victory on May 25, 2015 vs. Red Sox.
- ◆ Registered his 1,000th strikeout on July 3, 2013 @ Braves (Brian McCann).
- ◆ Made 4 Opening Day starts: 2017 Angels, 2014 Twins and 2013 and '09 Marlins.

ROAD REPORT

- ◆ Entered 2019 with 66 of his 114 wins (57.9 pct.) coming on the road.
- ◆ Won 7 consecutive road starts from June 23-Aug. 17, 2010, the first NL pitcher to do so since the Cubs' Carlos Zambrano in 2006.

ALWAYS A CO-POW

Named NL co-Player of the Week for Sept. 3-9, 2012 (2-0, 0.56 ERA) and from June 9-15, 2008 (2-0, 1.23 ERA).

- ◆ Goes by "Ricky" in honor of Emilio's favorite player, Rick Monday.
- ◆ At 10, attended a no-hitter tossed by the Dodgers' Kevin Gross vs. Giants on Aug. 17, 1992.

GOING STREAKING!

- ◆ Retired 28 consecutive batters over 2 starts on Aug. 31 vs. Reds (12) and Sept. 6, 2016 @ A's (16).
- ◆ Marked the longest streak of consecutive batters retired by an Angels pitcher since Mike Witt's perfect game in 1984.

INSIDE THE 2001 DRAFT

- ◆ Selected in the fourth round of the 2001 draft, while his brother, Dave, was picked in the 23rd round by Milwaukee.
- ◆ Dave was a pitcher in the Brewers' organization for 4 Minor League seasons (2001-04).
- ◆ Ricky was selected 12 spots (108) before the Padres chose Josh Barfield (120), D-backs assistant director of player development.

Is an avid boxing fan and lists Canelo Álvarez vs. Gennady Golovkin (GGG) II on Sept. 15 2018, and Manny Pacquiao vs. Juan Manuel Márquez IV on Dec. 8, 2012, as the best fights he has attended.

BIG LEAGUE DREAMS

Met Tony La Russa while at Double-A Mobile and was speechless...they chatted about his swing and La Russa told him that he would "see him soon"...David was promoted to the D-backs 2 weeks later when he got the news from then-manager, Andy Green.

- ◆ Hit .293 AVG/.352 OBP/.444 SLG with 31 doubles, 14 home runs and 57 RBI in 140 games for Arizona in 2017...set career highs in runs (82) and doubles.
- ◆ Named the D-backs' 2017 Marvin Miller Man of the Year.

POSTSEASON: Batted .222 with 1 walk and 2 runs in 4 games.

4 Set the club record with 4 doubles on April 22, 2017 vs. Dodgers

USA! USA! USA!

Became a United States citizen between the 2017-18 season.

His nickname is the "Freight Train"...the name was given to him by D-backs broadcaster Steve Berthiaume based on his style of play.

IT'S LIT

Is the self-proclaimed DJ in the clubhouse and on the plane...goes by DJFT, short for DJ Freight Train.

HOW YOU DOIN'?

His favorite TV show is "Friends"... says it helped him learn English and watches it every night after coming home from the ballpark.

WHATEVER WORKS

Was motivated to learn English after meeting his wife, Jordan, in Jupiter, Fla...met in a bar when her friends pinched his butt...took a friend out on their dates to help with the language barrier then got worried that he may flirt with her, so he learned English quickly.

THE ROAD LESS TRAVELED

- ◆ Signed with the Cardinals as a pitcher at 17 in 2004 for about $35,000... pitched in 27 games from 2005-07 before transitioning to the outfield.
- ◆ Had a mid-90's fastball and a good "12-to-6" breaking ball before his first shoulder (labrum) surgery...got hurt again and thought his baseball dream was over...was released on Cinco de Mayo in 2009 and hasn't liked that holiday ever since...asked the Cardinals to allow him to stay for 2 weeks after being released so he could see his wife graduate from college.
- ◆ His parents persuaded him to try hitting again and first played in a government-run independent league in Venezuela...went back to the United States, without an agent, and was given the number of Eduardo "Eddie" Dennis, who managed the independent Rio Grande Valley WhiteWings... rented a car and drove to practice and was signed after his hitting session.
- ◆ Worked at McDonalds for gas money to drive to Texas to play with Rio Grande...slept on an air mattress in his first season with the WhiteWings.
- ◆ Had interest from the Rays and Angels before signing with the D-backs in 2013...Arizona scout Chris Carminucci wanted him to come to Phoenix for a tryout in 2013 but couldn't afford to travel...Carminucci then came to see him hit in a batting cage in St. Petersburg, Fla....Arizona's rosters were full so started the season playing independent baseball, and had to wait until July before signing with the D-backs.

- ♦ Middle name is, John, after former Phillies bench coach, John Vukovich, who, like Darren Daulton, succumbed to a brain tumor in 2007.

"There was no doubt about it that he was going to be named Daulton. He was caring. He was loving. He exemplified everything that Philadelphia Phillies baseball was all about. It's about loyalty. It's about love. It's about pulling for one another. It's about giving everything you have that night and preparing to win."

Gary Varsho to the Philadelphia Inquirer in 2017.

"My dad told me that (Daulton) was a great friend of his and that he was one of the hardest workers he knows. I can't thank him enough for naming me that."

"It's awesome. It's a good feeling to have being named after him, especially now that I'm a catcher. I would just look at that, and it inspired me to know that I'm named after a really great baseball player. It's a great feeling to have that I'm going to carry on the name a little bit."

Daulton Varsho to the Philadelphia Inquirer in 2017.

Luis Gonzalez and Paul Goldschmidt with the 2018 Luis Gonzalez Award.

LUIS GONZALEZ AWARD

In 2015, the Luis Gonzalez Award was created, which will be given annually to the D-backs player who best exemplifies the talents, spirit and heart of the D-backs legend both on and off the field, as voted by his teammates, coaches and clubhouse staff.

Paul Goldschmidt was honored in a pregame ceremony on Sept. 26, 2018 as winner of the annual award.

"Paul Goldschmidt is an MVP both on the field and off," said Gonzalez. "While his talents as a player often go unnoticed by the national media, so does his approach to giving back and that is by design. He never wants the recognition or the attention but he is a true leader for our team and the community."

One of the most popular figures in Arizona Diamondbacks history because of the way he interacted with fans and his game-winning single in Game 7 of the 2001 World Series to give the organization its first World Championship, Gonzalez became the first former player to have his number retired by the D-backs during a pregame ceremony in 2010.

RANDY JOHNSON ON MAY 18, 2004 @ BRAVES

Adept at setting records throughout his career, Randy Johnson added something new to his impressive resume when he retired all 27 Atlanta Braves he faced on May 18, 2004, at Turner Field. At 40 years, 251 days, he became the oldest pitcher in history to record a perfect game, bettering Cy Young, who was 37 years, 37 days on May 5, 1904. Johnson's gem was the 15th in modern day regular season history, the 16th including Don Larsen's perfect effort for the Yankees in the 1956 World Series.

Johnson fanned 13 in the 117-pitch performance which concluded with a 98-mph pitch to Eddie Perez to end the game. It was the first no-no in franchise history and first perfect game in the Majors since the Yankees' David Cone on July 18, 1999 vs. Montreal. It was also the first perfect in the National League since the Expos' Dennis Martinez on July 28, 1991 @ Dodgers.

JACKIE ROBINSON

MLB CAREER

YEARS: 1947-1956

AWARDS: 6x NL All-Star (1949-54), 1947 Rookie of the Year, 1949 NL Most Valuable Player.

NOTES: Bud Selig announced on April 15, 1997, that Jackie Robinson's No. 42 was retired by Major League Baseball, barring players on any Major League club to wear the number...as an exception to the retired number policy, MLB has recently begun honoring Robinson's legacy by allowing players to wear No. 42 on April 15 each season to celebrate Jackie Robinson Day... for the 60th anniversary of Robinson's Major League debut, MLB invited players to wear No. 42 on Jackie Robinson Day in 2007...the gesture was originally the idea of Ken Griffey, Jr., who sought Rachel Robinson's permission to wear the number... after receiving her permission, Selig not only allowed Griffey to wear the number, but also extended an invitation to all clubs to do the same.

His wife, Julie, has kept his memory alive with the Steve Pascente Charitable Foundation, which supports a variety of foundations including Widowed With Children, The Steve Pascente Memorial Scholarships at Arizona State University and The Andre House. When the D-backs opened the 1998 season against the Colorado Rockies, Nick Pascente, the son of Steve and Julie, served as honorary batboy.

DICK DOZER MEMORIAL PRESS BOX | MARCH 12, 1925-JANUARY 4, 1994

Dick Dozer spent the majority of his life covering Major League Baseball for the Chicago Tribune, but he was hardly a stranger to the Valley. He arrived in Phoenix and wrote for the Phoenix Gazette, while also contributing his time in organizing the annual "Dream Game," an old-timers contest that benefitted the Phoenix Memorial Hospital Foundation, and working with the Mesa Ho-Ho-Kams. Dozer was BBWAA Chapter President in 1976. He passed away in 1994. His son, Rich, was an integral player in the D-backs' inception as team president from 1995-2006 and has an executive conference room named in his honor.

JOHN MICHAELSON RADIO BOOTH

The Arizona Sports 620 radio booth was named after John Michaelson prior to the 2001 season, honoring the veteran producer/engineer who passed away in the winter of 2000. A veteran behind the scenes in radio broadcasting for years, including three seasons on D-backs broadcasts, Michaelson was a tireless worker and friend to all who came in contact with him.

JOE GILMARTIN MEMORIAL SEAT | MAY 26, 1929-FEBRUARY 27, 2018

Joe Gilmartin, who passed away in 2018, was an iconic Valley writer who earned the highest honor with the 2014 Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame's Curt Gowdy Media Award. He was a 16-time Arizona Sportswriter of the Year, a 2015 inductee into the Arizona Sports Hall of Fame and in 2004, was the second inductee into the Associated Press Sports Editors Arizona Sports Writers' Hall of Fame. Gilmartin covered 25 NBA Finals, 15 Final Fours, 20 Super Bowls and 14 World Series, including the D-backs' 2001 World Championship run. He had a 34-year career with the Phoenix Gazette from 1962-96. He covered the Phoenix Suns as a beat writer and broadcast analyst, which led to his book "The Little Team That Could...And Darn Near Did!," a look back at the Suns' 1976 NBA Finals run. Late in his career, he served as a contributing writer to D-backs' Publications and the D-backs' and Suns' websites. Gilmartin's son, Leo, has been a member of the D-backs broadcasting department since 1996.
