Detroit Tigers Mission Statement

One of the most storied franchises in professional sports, each year it is the goal of the Detroit Tigers to field a championship team and play an exciting brand of Major League Baseball. Equally important, the Tigers place an emphasis on good value, while providing an entertaining, safe and most enjoyable experience. We want families to continue making Comerica Park their place to come and have fun, and take home life-long memories. Off the field, the Tigers take pride in maintaining a civic leadership role and have a long-standing commitment to making a social impact within our communities.

CHRISTOPHER ILITCH

PRESIDENT AND CEO,
ILITCH HOLDINGS, INC.

CHAIRMAN AND CEO, DETROIT TIGERS

- A lifelong Michigander, Chris serves as Chairman and CEO of the Detroit Tigers. Under Ilitch ownership for nearly three decades, the team is considered one of the most iconic franchises in professional sports and prides itself on a rich history and storied tradition dating back to 1901.
- Since being purchased by the Ilitch family in 1992, the team has made two World Series appearances, established record-setting attendance, and played host to the 2005 Major League Baseball All-Star Game. In the heart of downtown, Comerica Park remains one of the most renowned and fan-friendly ballparks in the game.
- Chris has been a strong advocate of the organization's ongoing commitment to cutting-edge analytics and advanced technologies, while aggressively supporting the team's core pillars of sustainable success: superior scouting, drafting, and development of young talent.
- A respected and active voice in the game, Chris regularly attends Major League Baseball owner meetings, and has served on a variety of pivotal MLB committees, including: Executive, Competition, Long-Term Strategic, Audit, Ownership, and Legislative Affairs.
- A noted advocate for the city and its love of sports, Chris has been engaged in prominent large-scale national sporting events in Detroit, including the 2010 NCAA Men's Frozen Four Hockey Championship (co-chair), the 2009 NCAA Final Four Men's Basketball Tournament, Super Bowl XL and the 2005 Major League Baseball All-Star Game (chair).
- Off the diamond, Chris serves as President and CEO of Ilitch Holdings. With deep Michigan roots, the Detroit-based, family-owned company has grown into a world-class food, sports & entertainment and real estate development organization. Born of a single pizza shop opened by Mike and Marian Ilitch in 1959, it is now comprised of 11 companies that employ over 24,000 people worldwide with an annual revenue of $3.9 billion.
- Under his leadership, Olympia Development of Michigan is leading the most ambitious development effort in the Ilitch organization's history. The District Detroit is a dynamic sports, business and entertainment district in the heart of the city.
- As Chairman of Ilitch Charities, and in the tradition of his parents, Chris has long been a champion for Detroit. The non-profit supports a multitude of charitable causes annually with thousands of grants, scholarships and in-kind donations, totaling over $207 million since 2000. From youth development to community revitalization, Ilitch Charities continues to make a hands-on and enduring impact on the city.
- Chris is an active business leader across the state of Michigan and in the city of Detroit. He serves on the board, executive committee and nominating committee for Business Leaders for Michigan and the board and executive committee for the Downtown Detroit Partnership. He is also a member of the board of directors for the Detroit Economic Club.
- Passionate about baseball his entire life, Chris was a captain of his high school baseball team at Cranbrook and coached his sons' youth baseball teams.
- A proud father of three, Chris resides with his wife, Kelle, in metro Detroit.

CHRIS GRANGER

GROUP PRESIDENT OF SPORTS AND ENTERTAINMENT,
ILITCH HOLDINGS, INC.

Enters his third full baseball season as Group President of Sports and Entertainment, at Ilitch Holdings, Inc.

- An experienced sports and entertainment executive, Granger joined the organization in 2017 and is responsible for optimizing the fan and partner experience at all Ilitch-related venues; growing, recruiting and retaining executive talent in the business verticals of the company's sports and entertainment organizations; collaborating with partners to ensure highly active, attractive and community-focused venues; and more.
- Granger oversaw the opening of Little Caesars Arena, which received the prestigious Sports Facility of the Year award at the 2018 Sports Business Awards ceremony. The award was established by SportsBusiness Journal and SportsBusiness Daily to celebrate and recognize the leaders, visionaries and day-to-day practitioners who personify excellence in the business of sports.
- In 2019, Little Caesars Arena ranked second in attendance among arenas in the nation, the DTE Energy Music Theatre was No. 1 among all amphitheatres worldwide and the iconic Fox Theatre ranked sixth in the country among theatres, per Pollstar.
- Granger and his family are active in a range of charitable organizations in the Detroit community, including City Year Detroit and Make-a-Wish Michigan.
- Chris previously served as President of the Sacramento Kings and Sacramento Basketball Holdings, LLC. During his tenure, the Kings enjoyed unprecedented revenue growth and were widely recognized as a highly innovative and community-minded franchise. Granger's influence also extended to the development of Sacramento's new, award-winning Golden 1 Center, and its 1.5 million square-foot downtown mixed-use development project, Downtown Commons.
- Prior to joining the Kings, Chris worked in various capacities for the NBA for 14 years. He most recently served as the Executive Vice President of the NBA's renowned Team Marketing and Business Operations function, where he advised NBA, WNBA and NBA Development League teams on all aspects of business operations.
- Received his bachelor's degree from Cornell University and his Master of Business Administration from Yale. He was named Sacramento Business Person of the Year in 2017 and was a 2010 Sports Business Journal Forty Under 40 award winner.
- He and his wife, Jennifer, have two daughters, Zoe and Megan, and reside in metro Detroit.

AL AVILA

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS & GENERAL MANAGER

Enters his 29th season in professional baseball, 19th season with the organization and fifth full season as the Tigers Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations and General Manager, after being named to the position on August 4, 2015.

- Oversees the day-to-day baseball operations of the organization and the Major League club.
- Under Avila's leadership, the Tigers have acquired a young core of talent through trades, the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft and international free agency, while implementing a long-term strategy that has a focus on developing and retaining young, controllable talent across all levels of the organization. As a result of this focus, the Tigers player development system, which was ranked near the bottom of its peers just a few years ago, entered 2020 ranked No. 6 in Major League Baseball, according to MLB Pipeline.
- Avila has made significant staffing additions to the club's international, professional and amateur scouting departments, while also continuing to expand the club's analytics department.
- Has spearheaded infrastructure improvements throughout all areas of the Tigers player development system, including a state-of-the-art facility at TigerTown in Lakeland and upgrades to the organization's academy in the Dominican Republic.
- Served as the interim General Manager for the Florida Marlins during the 2001 offseason.
- Named Florida's Vice President and Assistant General Manager in July, 2001.
- Under Avila's guidance, the Marlins drafted 2003 World Series Most Valuable Player Josh Beckett in the first round of the June 1999 draft, while in the first round of the June 2000 draft, the Marlins drafted one of the youngest players to play in the MLB Futures Game and five-time MLB All-Star first baseman Adrián González.
- On the international front, Avila, while at the Marlins, led the way to the 1999 signing of then-shortstop Miguel Cabrera, who won the American League Triple Crown in 2012 and was named the American League Most Valuable Player...Cabrera made it to the Major Leagues in 2003 at the age of 20 and clubbed four home runs during the postseason for the 2003 World Champion Marlins...also was instrumental in the signing and development of second baseman Luis Castillo, shortstop Alex González and shortstop Edgar Rentería, all who were named All-Stars during their MLB career.
- Named Director of Scouting for the Marlins in July, 1998...was responsible for all of the Marlins scouting efforts on both the national and international levels and he oversaw the development of those players in the baseball academies in the Dominican Republic and Venezuela.
- Under Avila's guidance, the Marlins signed 1997 NLCS and World Series Most Valuable Player Liván Hernández.
- Before being named the Director of Latin American Operations in 1994, Avila was originally hired by the Marlins as the Assistant Director of Latin American Operations in June, 1992.
- Prior to joining the Marlins, Avila served as the Director of Athletics and head baseball coach at St. Thomas (FL) University from 1989-92...he led the team to a number three ranking in the 1992 NAIA poll and won the Florida Sun Conference Championship in 1991 and 1992...Avila was named the 1991 Florida Sun Conference Coach of the Year...Avila was inducted into the St. Thomas University Athletics Hall of Fame in November, 2016.
- Served as General Manager of the Daytona Beach Admirals of the Florida State League in 1987 and worked for the Los Angeles Dodgers organization in 1986.
- A graduate of Hialeah High School, Avila earned a master's degree in sports administration from St. Thomas University in 1986.
- A former catcher, Avila was signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Los Angeles Dodgers.
- Is the first Cuban-born general manager in Major League Baseball history.
- Inducted into the Professional Baseball Scouts Hall of Fame in 2012.
- He and his wife, Yamile, have three children: sons, Alexander and Alan, and daughter, Annelisa Marie, and three grandchildren, Asher, Avery and Zoey.
- Is the son of Ralph Avila, former Vice President of the Los Angeles Dodgers, and now Senior Scouting Advisor, Dominican Republic. He was named 2006 International Scout of the Year by Major League Baseball.

DAVID CHADD

VICE PRESIDENT,
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

- Resides in Mercer Island, WA during the offseason with his wife, Ashley, their daughter, Meira and their son, Isaiah.
- In September, 2018, Matthew and his wife, Ashley, launched Kingdom Home, a nonprofit organization that exists to end child sex slavery through prevention, with a donation of $100,000. Located in Uganda, Kingdom Home provides a place of refuge, restoration and hope for children at risk. Nearly 200 children, both girls and boys, have been rescued from sex trafficking, gender-based violence, forced child marriages and abandonment. The home not only helps to restore children, but also protects them, and reduces the likelihood that they would re-enter the sex trade or exploitative labor.
- Visited patients at the Children's Hospital of Michigan; contributed and served as a spokesman for the Detroit Tigers participation in MLB's league wide Home Plate Project, which resulted in a gift of $30,000 to Detroit Public Schools Community District; honored fallen Michigan soldiers from TAPS by writing their names on his cleats on Memorial Day; participates in the Detroit Tigers Autographed Memorabilia Donation program, the Autographs for a Cause program and the Tigers Dreams Come True program; attended Keeping Kids in the Game and the annual Ilitch Charities Celebrity Golf Classic; participated in the Wayne State Youth Baseball Camp, the Baseball Fantasy Camp for Kids and the Tigers Winter Caravan.
- Attended Oregon State University and helped the Beavers to the 2013 College World Series -- earned first team All-Pac-12 honors and was named a third team All-American by Baseball America as a senior.
- Is a distant relative of Hall of Famer Bob Feller and former First Lady of the United States, Dolly Madison.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Proved to be one of the most reliable relievers in the Majors in 2019, setting a single-season career high with 73 appearances...that total ranked tied for fourth in the American League and tied for ninth in the Major Leagues...became the 11th pitcher in franchise history to make 73-or-more outings in a season, and first since Joaquin Benoit in 2012 (also 73).

- Established single-season career highs in multiple categories, including wins (6), strikeouts (73), ERA (3.72), WHIP (1.27) and holds (15).
- Made his only start of the season on June 8 vs. Minnesota, tossing 2.0 innings and allowing one run on two hits and a walk, while punching out four...has now started a game for Detroit in each of the last six seasons, becoming the first player to do so since Justin Verlander.
- Named the Tigers Pitcher of the Month for July after compiling a 1.42 ERA (12.2IP/2ER) with 15 strikeouts in 13 outings...among American League relievers with at least 12.0 innings pitched during the month, he ranked third in ERA, fourth with a .205 (9x44) opponent batting average and sixth with a 1.03 WHIP.
- Allowed an earned run in just three of 25 appearances between June 18 and August 17, posting a 1.90 ERA (23.2IP/5ER) on 19 hits and eight walks, while punching out 27...among relievers with at least 23.0 IP over that span, his ERA ranked tied for fifth in the American League and tied for eighth in the Majors.
- Finished the season with 11 consecutive scoreless appearances spanning from September 3-28, going 1-0 with two holds and allowing just four hits and three walks over that span, while striking out seven.
- Selected the Tigers Pitcher of the Month for September, posting a 1-1 record with a 1.54 ERA (11.2IP/2ER) and nine strikeouts.

Made 66 appearances, including one start, for the Tigers in 2018...his 66 appearances were tied for the second-most on the team.

- Established a career high in innings pitched (69.1).
- After giving up five runs in his first outing of the season on April 1 vs. Pittsburgh, he allowed three earned runs over a span of 20 appearances (18.2IP) from April 7 to May 17, compiling a 1.45 ERA.
- Finished the month of June with a 2-0 record and a 0.71 ERA (12.2IP/1ER) and nine strikeouts in 12 appearances.
- Closed the season by not giving up a run in the month of September, tossing 10.1 scoreless innings and allowing just seven hits, limiting opponents to a .189 (7x37) batting average.
- Held lefthanded hitters to a .168 (19x113) batting average, which ranked fourth among American League pitchers (min. 100 lefthanded batters faced)...righties hit .320 (48x150) with him on the mound.

Combined to make 32 starts between Triple A Toledo and Detroit in 2017.

- Started five games for Triple A Toledo in April and had a 0-1 record with a 2.51 ERA (28.2IP/8ER) and 27 strikeouts.
- Picked up his first Major League win in the second game of the doubleheader on May 27 at Chicago (AL), throwing 6.1 shutout innings with three hits allowed, two walks and a career-high 11 strikeouts.
- Tossed 6.2 scoreless frames and earned the win in his second start of the season on June 7 vs. Los Angeles (AL)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Farmer became the first pitcher in Major League history to win his first two starts of a season without allowing a run in either after entering that year with a career record of 0-5 or worse.
- Made six consecutive quality starts with Triple A Toledo from July 22-August 19 -- posted a 3-1 record with a 2.54 ERA (39.0IP/11ER) and 33 strikeouts during the stretch.

Saw time with both the Tigers and Triple A Toledo in 2016.

- Made an Opening Day roster at the Major League level for the first time in his career.

- Posted five consecutive scoreless appearances with the Tigers from April 12-May 28 -- threw 7.1 scoreless innings with two hits allowed, three walks and six strikeouts during the stretch.
- Allowed three earned runs-or-fewer over his final eight starts of the season with the Mud Hens from July 20-August 27 -- compiled a 4-2 record with a 1.86 ERA (48.1IP/10ER) and 47 strikeouts during the stretch.

Split the 2015 season between the Tigers and Triple A Toledo.

- Named to the International League midseason All-Star Team.
- Named the Tigers Minor League Pitcher of the Month for April after starting four games with Toledo and posting a 3-0 record with a 3.00 ERA (21.0IP/7ER), 13 hits allowed, 10 walks and 28 strikeouts...held opponents to a .173 (13x75) batting average during the month.
- Had a stretch of four straight quality starts with Toledo from May 12-June 5 -- compiled a 3-0 record with a 1.37 ERA (26.1IP/4ER), 19 hits allowed and 14 strikeouts during the stretch.
- Recorded the first hit of his Major League career on August 18 at Chicago (NL) -- became the first Tigers relief pitcher to record a hit in a game since Steve Avery on June 4, 2003 at San Diego.
- Ranked as the 12th-best prospect in the Tigers organization by Baseball America following the season.

Tabbed the Midwest League Pitcher of the Year in 2014 as he spent the majority of the season with Single A West Michigan.

- Selected to the Midwest League midseason and postseason All-Star Teams.
- Fanned a season-high 12 batters with West Michigan on April 30 at Lake County -- also recorded a double-digit strikeout total by fanning 11 on August 18 at Cedar Rapids.
- Named the Tigers Minor League Pitcher of the Month for July after posting a 3-0 record with a 0.41 ERA (22.0IP/1ER), and 16 strikeouts in four starts for Single A West Michigan -- limited opponents to a .188 (15x80) batting average during the month.
- Had his contract purchased by the Tigers on August 13 and made his Major League debut later that night, allowing four runs on six hits while striking out four over 5.0 innings vs. Pittsburgh.
- Named the third-best prospect in the Tigers system and best pitching prospect by Baseball America following the season...also rated as possessing the best breaking pitch and best control in the Midwest League.

Selected by the Tigers in the fifth round of the June 2013 draft and saw his first Minor League action in 12 games with Single A Connecticut.

- Fanned a season-high five batters on July 7 at Staten Island -- equaled the high on August 2 vs. Mahoning Valley.

Posted an 11-7 record with a 3.06 ERA (159.0IP/54ER), 136 hits allowed, 42 walks and 132 strikeouts in 26 starts during his rookie season in 2016.

- Earned American League Rookie of the Year honors by the BBWAA, becoming the fifth Tigers player to earn the honor and the first since Justin Verlander in 2006...named the American League Rookie of the Year by The Sporting News and American League Outstanding Rookie in the Players Choice Award balloting.
- Finished 10th in voting for the American League Cy Young Award.
- Tabbed the Detroit Sports Media Tigers Rookie of the Year.
- Among AL pitchers with at least 150.0 innings pitched, Fulmer ranked third with a 3.06 ERA, while he was seventh with a .231 (136x590) opponent batting average and a 1.12 WHIP.
- Finished his rookie season with 132 strikeouts, which was the second-highest total by a rookie pitcher in Tigers history, trailing only Les Cain, who struck out 156 batters as a rookie in 1970.
- Recalled from Triple A Toledo prior to the game on April 29 – made his Major League debut that night at Minnesota and earned the win, allowing two runs on seven hits with one walk and four strikeouts in 5.0 innings...struck out Brian Dozier in the first inning for the first strikeout of his Major League career.
- Recorded the first double-digit strikeout game of his Major League career on May 21 vs. Tampa Bay, striking out 11...added a second game with 10-or-more strikeouts on July 1 at Tampa Bay, fanning 10.
- Threw 7.2 shutout innings on May 27 at Oakland, allowing three hits with one walk and three strikeouts – with his performance, Fulmer became just the third Tigers pitcher since 1913 to throw at least 7.2 shutout innings and allow three hits-or-less in one of his first six career starts, joining Pat Underwood on May 31, 1979 at Toronto and Earl Whitehill on September 29, 1923 vs. Cleveland.
- Won his third straight start on June 1 at Los Angeles (AL), throwing 7.2 shutout innings with two hits allowed, two walks and eight strikeouts -- with his performance, Fulmer became just the second Tigers pitcher since 1913 to have back-to-back starts of 7.0-or-more shutout innings with three-or-fewer hits allowed, joining Mickey Lolich, who had back-to-back shutouts with three-or-fewer hits allowed on September 9 and 15, 1968...also became the second Tigers pitcher since 1913 to win five of his first seven career starts, joining Zach Miner, who won six of his first seven career starts in 2006.
- Carried a no-hitter into the seventh inning of the game on June 1 at Los Angeles (AL) before allowing a two-out single to C.J. Cron -- according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Fulmer became the first Tigers rookie to have a no-hit bid of that length since Bill Slayback, who went seven innings before allowing a hit in his Major League debut on June 26, 1972 against the Yankees.
- Threw 6.0 shutout innings with two hits allowed, three walks and five strikeouts in the game on June 6 vs. Toronto -- became the first Tigers pitcher since at least 1913 to have three straight starts with 6.0-or-more shutout innings and three-or-fewer hits allowed.
- Threw at least 6.0 shutout innings and allowed three-or-fewer hits in four straight starts from May 27-June 12 -- according to the Elias Sports Bureau, since 1893, when the mound was moved to 60 feet, six inches away from the plate, Fulmer and Jake Arrieta (September 22, 2015-April 4, 2016) are the only two pitchers to record four consecutive starts of 6.0-or-more shutout innings and three-or-fewer hits allowed.
- Had a consecutive scoreless innings streak of 33.1 innings from May 21-June 17, which was snapped with a two-out solo homer in the sixth inning by Kansas City's Salvador Perez...the streak ranks as the longest by a Tigers pitcher in franchise history, and according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the streak was the second longest by a rookie pitcher since 1971, trailing only a streak of 35.0 scoreless innings by Fernando Valenzuela during the 1981 season.
- Named Tigers Pitcher of the Month for June after starting five games and posting a 3-1 record with a 0.61 ERA (29.2IP/2ER), 14 hits allowed, 13 walks and 24 strikeouts...led the Majors with a 0.61 ERA during the month, while he was second with a .140 opponent batting average.

2020 TIGERS

- Allowed one run-or-fewer in eight starts from May 21-July 1, becoming one of only six pitchers since 1913 to have eight straight starts with one-or-fewer runs allowed, joining Bob Gibson (11 straight starts, June 6-July 30, 1968), Josh Johnson (8 straight starts, May 13-June 20, 2010), Derek Lowe (8 straight starts, August 31, 2008-April 10, 2009), Johan Santana (8 straight starts, August 23-September 29, 2004) and J.R. Richard (8 straight starts, August 3-September 6, 1979).
- Recorded his ninth win of the season on July 6 at Cleveland -- according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Fulmer became the third rookie in franchise history to win at least nine games before the All-Star break, joining Mark Fidrych in 1976 (9-2) and Justin Verlander in 2006 (10-4).
- Over a 10-start stretch from May 21-July 17, compiled a 7-1 record with a 0.83 ERA (65.1IP/6ER) and 55 strikeouts -- according to the Elias Sports Bureau, since the Major Leagues began keeping track of earned runs just over 100 years ago, no other pitcher has compiled an ERA that low over a span of 10 successive starts in the season of his Major League debut...over the last 50 seasons, the only other rookie to produce an ERA below 1.00 over a span of 10 consecutive starts was Cal Eldred, who had an ERA of 0.95 over a 10-start run for the Brewers in August and September, 1992.
- Threw the first complete game and shutout of his career on August 14 at Texas, allowing four hits and striking out nine...became the first Tigers rookie pitcher to throw a shutout since Justin Verlander on May 22, 2006 at Kansas City.
- Pitched 7.0 innings in the game on September 9 vs. Baltimore, allowing two runs on three hits with one walk and five strikeouts...in his first eight career starts at Comerica Park, Fulmer had a 2-2 record with a 2.90 ERA (49.2IP/16ER) and 38 strikeouts -- according to the Elias Sports Bureau, over the last 25 years, only two other Tigers pitchers have had an ERA under 3.00 over their first eight MLB starts at their home park: Mike Maroth had a home ERA of 2.44 after eight starts in 2002 and Jeff Weaver had a 2.76 home ERA in 1999.

Selected the Eastern League Pitcher of the Year in 2015 after leading the league with a 2.14 ERA (117.2IP/28ER) and a .769 winning percentage and ranking fourth with a 1.10 WHIP and a .228 (77x346) opponent batting average.

- Started the season in the New York Mets organization before being acquired by the Tigers along with Luis Cessa in exchange for Yoanis Céspedes on July 31.
- Led all Eastern League starters with 8.87 strikeouts per nine innings, while he was third with 10.02 baserunners per nine innings and fourth with a .228 opponent batting average.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Selected to participate in the MLB Futures Game prior to the Major League Baseball All-Star Game in 2014 at Target Field in Minneapolis -- threw a scoreless inning with one strikeout for the U.S. Team.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Bounced back from an injury-plagued 2018 season to established career highs in several categories in 2019, including appearances (32), games started (29), innings pitched (144.1) and strikeouts (125).
- Had his most success in short-start situations, compiling a 0-4 record and 3.33 ERA (27.0IP/10ER) in starts lasting 3.0-innings-or-less, allowing 20 hits and seven walks, while striking out 27.
- Eight of his starts this season were followed by a relief appearance from Drew VerHagen, forming what became known as the "NorHagen" duo...the two combined to post a 3.99 ERA (56.1IP/25ER) on 50 hits and 14 walks, while striking out 47.
- Notched eight punchouts in a game three times this season...has only recorded more in a game one time in his career, striking out 11 on September 12, 2016 vs. Miami.
- Didn't allow more than three earned runs in any of his final eight starts of the season, and each was no more than 3.0 innings in length...marked the longest such streak by a starting pitcher in Tigers history, topping the previous high of four, established in 1972 by Bill Slayback.

Limited to 11 appearances, including eight starts, with Detroit in 2018 due to injury.

2020 TIGERS

- Pitched out of the bullpen on April 5 at Chicago (AL), striking out six and allowing just one run in 3.1 innings.
- Sidelined from April 30-September 1 with a left groin strain.
- Struck out a season-high eight batters in his final start of the season on September 29 at Milwaukee.
- Selected to pitch for the MLB All-Stars in their trip to Japan in November...appeared in three games and did not allow a run in 3.1 innings...also started three games for Aguilas Cibaenas of the Dominican Winter League and had a 0-0 record with a 1.84 ERA (14.2IP/3ER) and 12 strikeouts.

Established career highs with 22 appearances, 101.2 innings pitched and 86 strikeouts in 2017 with the Tigers.

- Allowed four earned runs on April 20 at Tampa Bay, snapping his streak of allowing three earned runs-or-less at 21 consecutive starts...also took the loss in the game at Tampa Bay, which was Norris' first loss in 17 road starts to begin his career...the streak of 16 road starts without a loss to start his career was tied with Todd Wellemeier and Larry Jensen for the second-longest streak since 1913.
- Sidelined from July 6-September 1 with a left groin strain.
- Recorded the 200th strikeout of his Major League career on September 13 at Cleveland.

Split the 2016 season between Detroit and Triple A Toledo.

- Placed on the 15-day injured list on April 2, retroactive to March 25, with a lower back strain.
- Threw a season-high 7.0 innings on May 16 at Buffalo...also threw 7.0 innings on June 17 vs. Rochester and August 4 at Louisville.
- Placed on the 15-day injured list on July 5 with a right oblique strain.
- Established a career high with 11 strikeouts on September 12 vs. Minnesota.
- Started five games with the Tigers in September and had a 2-0 record with a 2.73 ERA (29.2IP/9ER) and 38 strikeouts.
- Allowed three earned runs-or-less in all 13 starts with Detroit during the season.

Began the 2015 season in the Toronto Blue Jays organization before being acquired by the Tigers along with Matthew Boyd and Jairo Labouré in exchange for David Price on July 30.

- Opened the season with the Blue Jays, marking the first time in his career he has made an Opening Day roster at the Major League level.
- Earned the first win of his Major League career on April 9 at New York (AL), allowing three runs on six hits with two walks and five strikeouts in 5.2 innings.
- Allowed three earned runs-or-less in each of his first nine starts with Triple A Buffalo from May 6-June 18 -- during the stretch he had a 3.44 ERA (49.2IP/19ER) and 51 strikeouts.
- Made his Tigers debut on August 2 at Baltimore and earned the win, tossing a career-long 7.1 innings and allowing one run on four hits with one walk and five strikeouts.
- Hit a home run in his first professional plate appearance, a two-run home run in the second inning on August 19 at Chicago (NL) off of Jon Lester to record his first Major League hit, home run and RBI -- became the first Tiger pitcher to hit a home run in a game since Jason Johnson on June 8, 2005 at Los Angeles (NL) and the first American League pitcher to hit a home run at Wrigley Field.
- Sidelined from August 20-September 16 with a right oblique strain.

How Obtained: Signed by the Tigers as a free agent on November 30, 2015

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

The 2020 season marks Zimmermann's fifth with the Tigers after signing as a free agent on November 30, 2015.

- Selected to the National League All-Star Team twice with the Washington Nationals (2013, 2014).
- Among active pitchers with at least 1,000 innings pitched, he ranks second with 1.92 walks per nine innings, trailing only Masahiro Tanaka (1.79).
- Named National League Pitcher of the Month in July, 2012 with the Nationals, and American League Pitcher of the Month for April, 2016 with the Tigers.
- Threw the first no-hitter in Nationals history on September 28, 2014 vs. Miami.
- Tabbed the National League Player of the Week twice in his career, both during the 2014 season (June 9 and September 29).

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Started 23 games for the Tigers in 2019, completing his fourth season in the organization.

- Made his second career Opening Day start on March 28 at Toronto...carried a perfect game for 6.2 innings until allowing an infield single to Teoscar Hernández...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Zimmermann's perfect game bid was the longest on an Opening Day since April 16, 1940, when Boston's Lefty Grove threw 7.0 perfect innings vs. the Washington Senators.
- Sidelined from April 26-June 19 with a right elbow sprain.
- Sidelined from August 5-17 with a right cervical spine disc injury.

- Strongest stretch of the season was six starts made between July 29 and September 2, over which he allowed more than two earned runs in just one outing...posted a combined 1-1 record and 3.24 ERA (33.1IP/12ER) over that span on 28 hits and two walks, punching out 26.

Completed his third season with the Tigers in 2018, starting 25 games.

- Started on Opening Day vs. Pittsburgh, marking his first career Opening Day start...threw 6.0 innings and allowed four runs on six hits with one walk and eight strikeouts.
- Sideline from May 6-June 16 with a right shoulder impingement.
- Struck out a season-high 11 batters and threw a season-best 8.0 innings on July 6 vs. Texas...his 11 strikeouts marked his sixth career double-digit strikeout game and were his most punchouts in a game since he struck out 12 on June 8, 2014 at San Diego.
- Went 2-3 with a 3.79 ERA (35.2IP/15ER) and 27 strikeouts in six starts during August.

Made 29 starts in his second season with the Tigers in 2017.

- Walked consecutive batters in the fourth inning on April 13 vs. Minnesota (Miguel Sanó, Max Kepler) -- marked the first time he had walked consecutive batters since the seventh inning on May 6, 2012 vs. Philadelphia, a stretch of 885.1 innings.
- Pitched in his 200th career game on April 19 at Tampa Bay, while he made his 200th career start on April 25 vs. Seattle.
- Recorded the 1,000th strikeout of his Major League career on May 23 at Houston, striking out Jake Marisnick to end the second inning.
- Made four straight quality starts from June 3-20, posting a 1-1 record with a 2.70 ERA (26.2IP/8ER) and 21 strikeouts.
- Finished the month of June with a 1-1 record, a 3.82 ERA (30.2IP/13ER) and 26 strikeouts in five starts.

Completed his first season with Detroit in 2016, compiling a 9-7 record with a 4.87 ERA (105.1IP/57ER) and 66 strikeouts in 19 appearances, including 18 starts.

- Did not allow a run in his first three starts of the season, throwing 7.0 shutout innings on April 8 vs. New York (AL), 6.0 scoreless innings on April 14 at Pittsburgh and 6.1 shutout innings on April 20 at Kansas City -- according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Zimmermann became the first starting pitcher in franchise history to not allow a run in his first three starts of a season.
- Had his consecutive scoreless innings streak snapped at 24.1 innings after allowing a run in the bottom of the sixth inning on April 25 vs. Oakland -- according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Zimmermann became the first starting pitcher to begin his tenure with a team with a scoreless streak of 20.0-or-more innings since Fred Norman began his time with the Cincinnati Reds in 1973 with 26.0 consecutive innings without allowing a run...Zimmermann's streak is the longest by a Tigers pitcher to begin a season and is tied for the eighth longest by any MLB pitcher to start a season in the Expansion Era (since 1961).
- Began the season by picking up the win in each of his first five starts -- became the first Tigers pitcher to win each of his first five starts of a season since Frank Tanana in 1988.
- Named the American League Pitcher of the Month and Tigers Pitcher of the Month for April after posting a 5-0 record with a 0.55 ERA (33.0IP/2ER) and 23 strikeouts in five starts -- led the American League in ERA during April, while he was tied for first in wins...his 0.55 ERA ranked as the third lowest April ERA in Tigers history (min. 25.0 innings pitched), while his ERA was the fourth lowest April ERA in the Majors since 1969 (min. five starts)...the award marked his second pitcher of the month honor.
- Started the season with seven consecutive quality starts from April 8-May 11...his seven straight quality starts to begin the season were the longest streak by a Tigers pitcher since Justin Verlander had 10 consecutive quality starts from March 31-May 19, 2011.
- Sideline from July 1-August 4 with a right neck strain.
- Sideline from August 5-September 6 with a re-aggravation of his previous neck injury.
- Made his first career relief appearance on September 25 vs. Kansas City, tossing 3.0 innings and allowing one run on four hits and four strikeouts.

Started 33 games in 2015 as he completed his sixth season with the Washington Nationals.

- Finished his six-year Nationals career as the club's all-time leader in wins (70), innings pitched (1094.0), strikeouts (903) and games started (178).
- Tied for the National League lead with 33 starts, while he ranked sixth with 1.74 walks per nine innings and tied for eighth with 22 quality starts.
- Recorded nine consecutive quality starts from April 18-June 2 -- posted a 4-1 record with a 2.09 ERA (60.1IP/14ER) and 41 strikeouts during the stretch.
- During a 15-start stretch from June 24-September 8, went 7-3 with a 2.95 ERA (94.2IP/31ER)...struck out 82 and issued just 15 walks during that stretch.

Named to the National League All-Star Team for the second straight season as he established a career high with 182 strikeouts in 2014.

- Finished fifth in voting for the National League Cy Young Award.
- Led all National League pitchers with 1.31 walks per nine innings, while he ranked second with a .737 winning percentage and a 6.28 strikeout-to-walk ratio, third with two shutouts, fourth with 0.59 home runs per nine innings and a 1.07 WHIP, sixth with three complete games and seventh with a 2.66 ERA (199.2IP/59ER).

- Tied for the team lead and matched a Nationals single-season record with 24 quality starts.
- Named an All-Star for the second straight season, but did not play/attend due to a right biceps strain.
- Selected the National League Player of the Week twice during the season, earning the award on June 9 and September 29.
- Threw the first no-hitter in Nationals history on September 28 in a 1-0 win vs. Miami, striking out 10 and issuing one walk -- marked the first no hitter in Washington, D.C., since 1931.
- Closed the regular season by throwing 12 straight quality starts from July 28-September 28 -- posted a 8-0 record with a 1.87 ERA (81.2IP/17ER) and 75 strikeouts over the 12 starts.
- Started Game 2 of the National League Division Series vs. San Francisco, allowing one run on three hits with one walk and six strikeouts in 8.2 innings.

Tied for the National League lead with 19 wins as a member of the Washington Nationals in 2013.

- Selected to the National League All-Star Team for the first time in his career, but did not pitch in the game.
- Finished seventh in voting for the National League Cy Young Award.
- Established a career high with 213.1 innings pitched, becoming the fourth National to throw 200.0-or-more innings in a season.
- Ranked second in the National League with four complete games, while he was tied for third with a .679 winning percentage, sixth with 213.1 innings pitched, seventh with 1.69 walks per nine innings, eighth with a 1.08 WHIP, and ninth with 10.08 baserunners allowed per nine innings.
- Allowed two runs-or-fewer in seven straight starts from April 21-May 24.

Reached the 30-start plateau for the first time in his career as he started 32 games for the Nationals in 2012.

- Finished the season ranked tied for fourth in the National League with 24 quality starts, seventh with a 2.94 ERA (195.2IP/64ER) and eighth with 1.98 walks per nine innings.
- Led all qualified MLB pitchers with a .163 (28x172) opponent batting average with runners in scoring position.
- Hit the first home run of his Major League career on May 28 at Miami off of Carlos Zambrano.
- Threw 11 consecutive quality starts from June 5-July 28 -- posted a 5-1 record with a 1.80 ERA (70.0IP/14ER) and 52 strikeouts.
- Led the National League with a 0.97 ERA (37.0IP/4ER) and finished tied for the lead with four wins in the month of July.

Started 26 games for the Nationals in 2011.

- Ranked third in the National League with 1.73 walks per nine innings, while he was 10th with a 3.18 ERA (161.1IP/57ER).
- Struck out the side on nine pitches in the second inning on May 6 at Florida, becoming the first Nationals pitcher to accomplish the feat.
- Threw the first complete game of his career on June 29 at Los Angeles (AL), but took the loss after allowing just one unearned run on four hits with one walk and four strikeouts.
- Established a Nationals club record with 11 straight quality starts from May 1-June 29 -- posted a 4-3 record with a 1.85 ERA (73.0IP/15ER) and 57 strikeouts during the stretch.
- Started six games during the month of June and had a 3-1 record with a 0.85 ERA (42.1IP/4ER) and 27 strikeouts -- ranked second in the National League in ERA, while he was third in innings pitched.
- Did not pitch in September due to an innings limit.

Limited to seven starts with the Nationals in 2010 after finishing his recovery from Tommy John surgery.

- Sidelined from February 19-July 31 with a right ulnar collateral ligament injury.

Made 16 starts as a rookie for the Nationals in 2009, but had his season cut short due to an elbow injury.

- Had his contract purchased from Triple A Syracuse on April 20 -- made his Major League debut later that night vs. Atlanta and earned the win after allowing two runs on six hits with one walk and three strikeouts in 6.0 innings.
- Picked up the victory in his second start on April 26 at New York (NL), giving up just one run on six hits with two walks and five strikeouts in 5.1 innings -- became the first franchise pitcher to earn the win in first two big league starts since Randy Johnson with the Montreal Expos in 1988.
- Sidelined from July 19-November 8 with right elbow inflammation.
- Had season-ending surgery to repair the right elbow ulnar collateral ligament on August 19 -- the procedure was performed by Dr. Lewis Yocum in Los Angeles, CA.

Named the Nationals Minor League Pitcher of the Year in 2008, spending most of the season with Double A Harrisburg.

- Selected to the Eastern League midseason All-Star Team.
- Threw 7.0 shutout innings with three hits allowed and nine strikeouts on April 30 vs. Winston-Salem -- named Carolina League Pitcher of the Week following the performance.

- Started four games in July and had a 4-0 record with a 1.82 ERA (39.2IP/8ER) and 39 strikeouts.
- Named the top prospect in the Nationals system by Baseball America following the season, while he was ranked as the 41st-best prospect in baseball and the fifth-best prospect in the Eastern League -- also rated as having the best fastball and slider in the Nationals organization.

Completed his first season in professional baseball in 2007, appearing in 13 games, including 11 starts, with Vermont.

- Ranked fifth in the New York-Penn League with a 2.38 ERA (53.0IP/14ER).
- Selected as Vermont's Pitcher of the Month for August/September after making six starts and posting a 3-1 record with a 2.73 ERA (26.1IP/8ER) and 36 strikeouts.
- Named the seventh-best prospect in the Nationals organization by Baseball America following the season, while he was named the fifth-best prospect in the New York-Penn League.

LOWRY REMEMBERED WITH TIGERS MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

The Detroit Tigers family suffered a tragic loss during the 1997 season when Jamestown Jammers manager Dwight Lowry collapsed and died suddenly at his home in Jamestown, NY, on July 10.

Shortly after Lowry's death, the Tigers renamed their annual Player Development Man of the Year Award in his honor.

Lowry, who was 39 at the time of his death, had been tabbed the club's inaugural Player Development Man of the Year in 1996 after leading the Single A Fayetteville Generals to a second-half division title and a South Atlantic League postseason berth.

Lowry was in his fourth season as a manager in the Tigers Minor League system and he had also spent parts of four seasons as a player with Detroit, including the 1984 World Championship campaign. Lowry is survived by his wife, Pamela, and children Sesilie, Amanda and Zachary.

KENNY GRAHAM

Director, Player Development

Marking his first season with the Tigers, Graham serves as the Director of Player Development. His major focus is on hitting development and strategies, establishing an organization-wide hitting protocol with a focus on utilizing data and technology to aid growth and performance.

Graham spent the previous three seasons as the Minor League hitting coordinator for Milwaukee. Prior to that he spent seven seasons in various Minor League roles in Toronto's system, including as the co-hitting coordinator (2015) and hitting coach at Single A Lansing (2012-13, 2015), Single A Bluefield (2011) and Single A Auburn (2010). He also managed the organization's Gulf Coast League affiliate in 2014 and served as the hitting coach for the Independent League's Gary RailCats for two seasons (2008-09).

He attended Indiana University and was an outfielder on the baseball team before moving into coaching at the University of Indianapolis as the hitting coach, while receiving his Masters Degree in Curriculum and Instruction.

DAN HUBBS

Director, Pitching Development and Strategies

Serving as the club's first Director of Pitching Development and Strategies, Hubbs will work to establish an organization-wide pitching protocol with an emphasis on leveraging data and technology to aid growth and performance.

He most recently served as the head baseball coach at the University of Southern California (2013-2019), where he coached 37 players who were drafted and went on to play professional baseball. Hubbs began his time at USC in 2012 when he came in as associate head coach after spending 12 seasons as pitching coach at the University of California, Berkeley (2000-2011).

Before his time with the Golden Bears, Hubbs served as the pitching coach for the Los Angeles (NL) Single A affiliate Yakima Bears (1998) and as a volunteer assistant coach at Pepperdine University (1999).

Prior to his transition to coaching, Hubbs was an All-American pitcher at USC (1993) and played seven years in the minors with the Los Angeles (NL) and Philadelphia organizations, advancing to the Triple A level.

DR. GEORGIA GIBLIN

Director, Performance Science

After originally joining the organization as a post-doctoral fellow through a partnership with the University of Michigan, Dr. Giblin enters her first season as the club's Director of Performance Science.

The focus of Dr. Giblin's work with the Tigers is building and implementing a sustainable system under which the club can assist players to perform at their maximum capacity, and stay healthy through the use of traditional baseball methods and advanced technology.

Prior to joining the Tigers, Dr. Giblin completed her doctorate in Biomechanics and Skill Acquisition at Victoria University in Melbourne, Australia, and worked four years as a Biomechanist at the Queensland Academy of Sport, providing biomechanical support to the softball, track and field, triathlon and archery Olympic programs.

RAFAEL MARTINEZ

Director, Latin American Player Development

Martinez returns as the club's Director of Latin American Player Development in 2020, his second year in the position after transitioning from a role on the Major League coaching staff with the Tigers in 2018.

Prior to his time in Detroit, Martinez was the manager for the Gulf Coast League Tigers for one season (2016) and the Dominican Summer League Tigers for five seasons (2011-15). He guided the DSL Tigers to the postseason in back-to-back years, including a championship run in 2013. Before becoming the club's manager, Martinez spent three seasons (2008-10) as the DSL Tigers hitting coach, which was his first professional coaching assignment.

Martinez was originally signed by Los Angeles (NL) as a non-drafted free agent in 1991, and played seven seasons in the Minor Leagues (1992-96), followed by stints in the New York (NL) (1997) and Boston (1998) systems.

He and his wife, Norkis, have a daughter, Hillary, and son, Rafael Jr.

DAVE OWEN

Minor League Field Coordinator

Owen will serve as the club's Minor League Field Coordinator this season, his 10th overall in the organization. Prior to this post, he held the title of Director of Player Development.

He joined the Tigers after three seasons on the Major League coaching staff with Kansas City, including as bench coach in 2008 and third base coach in 2009-10. Prior to his time with the Royals, Owen was a coach with the Hokkaido Nippon Ham Fighters in 2007 and served as a coach with the Philadelphia Phillies for three seasons (2004-06).

Owen previously served as the Minor League infield coordinator for the Philadelphia Phillies for three seasons, from 2004-06.

Prior to his coaching career, he spent 12 seasons as a scout with the Chicago White Sox (1992-96), Tigers (1997-99) and Phillies (2000-03).

Owen played professionally for 11 seasons after being selected by the Chicago Cubs in the 10th round of the June 1979 MLB First-Year Player Draft, and saw action at the Major League level with the Cubs (1983-85) and Royals (1988).

Owen and his wife, Yasmin, reside in Cleburne, TX. They have two grown daughters, Haley and Courtney.

TIGERS PLAYER DEVELOPMENT STAFF

JOE DEPASTINO

Catching Coordinator

DePastino will serve as the Minor League catching coordinator in 2020, his 10th season in that role and his 13th season in the Tigers organization.

He joined the Tigers organization in 2008 as the manager at Single A West Michigan, guiding the Whitecaps to the Midwest League playoffs during each of his three seasons. DePastino's assignment as the manager at West Michigan was his first professional managing or coaching assignment.

He played 13 seasons professionally after being selected by the Boston Red Sox in the seventh round of the June 1992 draft. Primarily a catcher in his career, DePastino played at the Minor League level with the Red Sox (1992-99), Baltimore Orioles (2000), Houston Astros (2000), New York Mets (2002-03), Atlanta Braves (2004) and Toronto Blue Jays (2005).

DePastino reached the Majors with the Mets in 2003, appearing in two games with the club.

JEFF BRANSON

Hitting Coordinator

Branson enters his second season as the club's Minor League hitting coordinator. The 2020 season marks his 31st in professional baseball.

Prior to joining the Tigers, he served as the hitting coach with Pittsburgh for five seasons (2014-18) and as the assistant hitting coach in 2013. Before working with the big league club, Branson was the hitting coach with Triple A Indianapolis (2009-12), manager at Single A Lynchburg (2007-08), manager at Single A Hickory (2005-06) and manager at Single A Williamsport (2004). His first coaching assignment came in 2003, when he was the hitting coach at Williamsport.

He was originally selected by Cincinnati in the second round of the 1988 First-Year Player Draft and played nine seasons in the Major Leagues. Over that span he hit .246/.300/.372 with 34 home runs and 156 RBI in 694 career games between Cincinnati (1992-97), Cleveland (1997-98) and Los Angeles (NL) (2000-01).

The native of Waynesboro, MS, played baseball at Livingston (AL) University, and was named to the Converse Division II All-American Team as a junior in 1988. Additionally was a member of the 1988 United States baseball team that won a Gold Medal at the Olympic Games in Seoul, Korea.

SCOTT FLETCHER

Hitting Coordinator

Fletcher will serve as the Minor League hitting coordinator in 2020, his third season in that role and sixth in the Tigers organization.

Prior to assuming his position, he served as advance coach/assistant hitting coach for the Atlanta Braves Major League club for three seasons (2012-14). In his role, he assisted the hitting coach in every aspect of the hitting program and prepared the club's advance scouting reports prior to each series.

His additional coaching experience includes roving infield coordinator for the Colorado Rockies (2009-11), roving instructor in the Tampa Bay organization (1996-97), manager at Single A Charleston (1997), and assistant baseball coach at Emory University in Atlanta.

The former middle infielder was originally drafted by the Chicago Cubs in the first round of the Secondary Phase of the June 1979 Draft. He played 15 seasons at the Major League level with several clubs including the Cubs (1981-82), Chicago White Sox (1983-85, 1989-91), Texas Rangers (1986-89), Milwaukee Brewers (1992), Boston Red Sox (1993-94), and the Tigers (1995). During his career, hit .262/.332/.342 in 1,612 career games.

The Fort Walton Beach, FL native attended Georgia Southern University. He and his wife, Angie, have three children, Brittany, Brian and Brooke. Brian was drafted by the Kansas City Royals in the 10th round of the 2010 MLB First-Year Player Draft, while Brittany is married to 11-year Major League veteran, Gordon Beckham, and Brooke is an on-air personality for FOX Sports Detroit.

JOSÉ VALENTÍN

Infield Coordinator

Valentín returns as the Minor League infield coordinator for his third season in the Tigers organization.

Prior to joining the Tigers, he spent four seasons in the San Diego Padres organization, serving as the first base coach with the Padres for two seasons (2014-15) and manager of the Single A Fort Wayne TinCaps (2012-13), leading the team to the playoffs in each season. Following the 2012 season, Valentín was named the Low-A Manager of the Year by Baseball America.

Following his playing career, he served as an instructor at the Puerto Rico Baseball Academy and High School in Gurabo.

Originally signed as a non-drafted free agent on October 12, 1986 by the Padres, Valentín played five seasons in the Padres Minor League system before being traded to the Brewers...played parts of 16 seasons in the Major Leagues with the Milwaukee Brewers (1992-99), Chicago White Sox (2000-04), Los Angeles Dodgers (2005) and New York Mets (2006-07). During his career he hit .243/.321/.448, with 302 doubles, 41 triples, 249 home runs, 816 RBI and 136 stolen bases in 1,678 games.

GENE ROOF

Outfield/Baserunning Coordinator

Roof begins his 34th season in the Tigers organization in 2020. He will serve as the Minor League outfield/baserunning coordinator, a role he returned to in 2001 after last holding the position early in 1997.

In 2000, Roof managed Double A Jacksonville and led the Suns to the East Division title in the second half of the season. The Suns advanced to the Southern League Championship Series, narrowly being defeated by the West Tenn Diamond Jaxx. He managed Triple A Toledo from 1997-99 after he took over as the Mud Hens manager in June of 1997 when Glenn Ezell left the team to undergo heart surgery. Before taking over for Ezell, Roof had served as the Minor League outfield/baserunning coordinator since 1996.

Prior to his appointment as the Minor League outfield/baserunning coordinator, Roof spent four seasons (1992-95) as Detroit's Major League first base coach. Roof also spent one season as the manager for Double A London (1991) and two seasons at Single A Fayetteville (1989-90).

As a player, Roof played in parts of three seasons for the St. Louis Cardinals (1981-83) and Montreal Expos (1983). He collected a base hit in his first Major League plate appearance on September 5, 1981, off the Dodgers' Jerry Reuss. Gene is one of five Roof brothers to play professional baseball. His brother, Phil, spent 15 years in the Majors as a catcher.

Roof's eldest son, Shawn, signed with the Tigers after being selected in the 33rd round of the 2007 MLB First-Year Player Draft. His middle son, Eric, signed with the Tigers after being selected in the 18th round of the 2009 MLB First-Year Player Draft, and is currently the Head Baseball Coach at Eastern Michigan University. His youngest son, Jonathan, signed with the Texas Rangers after being selected in the eighth round of the 2010 MLB First-Year Player Draft, and currently serves as an Assistant Coach at Eastern Michigan University.

A.J. SAGER

Pitching Coordinator

Sager will serve as the pitching coordinator in 2020 for his seventh season in the role after six seasons as the pitching coach at Triple A Toledo. It will mark his 19th season in the organization.

He spent his first five seasons (2002-06) in the organization as the pitching coach with Single A West Michigan, before serving in that same capacity with Double A Erie in 2007.

He pitched professionally for 12 seasons (1988-99), logging time in the San Diego, Colorado, Detroit and Cincinnati organizations.

In 123 lifetime Major League appearances with San Diego (1994), Colorado (1995) and Detroit (1996-98), Sager posted a 12-15 record, a 5.36 ERA and five saves.

Sager served as a color analyst for the University of Toledo football radio network for eight seasons (2000-07).

JAIME GARCIA

Assistant Pitching Coordinator

The 2020 season marks Garcia's eighth season in the Tigers organization and his fifth as assistant pitching coordinator. Prior to his current position, he was pitching coach for the Gulf Coast League Tigers in 2015 and pitching coach for Double A Erie from 2013-14.

Prior to joining the Tigers, Garcia spent six seasons with the Houston Astros organization. He spent his first four seasons (2007-10) with the Astros as the organization's assistant pitching coordinator, before serving as the Minor League pitching coordinator in 2011. Garcia spent 2012 as the pitching coach with the Gulf Coast League Astros and the Latin Pitching Supervisor. Garcia spent four seasons with the Cincinnati Reds organization, serving as the pitching coach with Single A Dayton (2003) and the Gulf Coast League Reds (2004-06).

Prior to joining the Reds organization, he served as the pitching coach with Single A Charleston in the Kansas City Royals organization in 2000 before spending two years as the organization's Latin America Pitching Instructor (2001-02). Garcia spent the 1997 season as the pitching coach with Single A Beloit in the Milwaukee Brewers organization and both the 1998 and 1999 seasons as the pitching coach with the Gulf Coast League Rangers in Texas' organization.

He began his professional coaching career with the Chicago White Sox organization, serving as the pitching coach with the Gulf Coast League White Sox for three seasons (1988-90) before managing that club in 1991. Garcia served as the pitching coach with Single A South Bend for three seasons (1992-94) and Single A Prince William for two seasons (1995-96).

FRANCISCO CONTRERAS

Latin American Hitting Coordinator

Contreras enters his first season as the organization's Latin American Hitting Coordinator. Prior to this position he served one season as hitting coach with GCL Tigers West, which was his first full-time coaching role since finishing his playing career.

He spent the 2016 season as a player-coach for Single A West Michigan, and played six seasons in the Tigers Minor League system, spending four years with the Dominican Summer League Tigers (2010-14) and two years with West Michigan (2014-15). He batted .231/.300/.318 over 377 career games in the Tigers system.

The Santo Domingo, DR native was originally signed by the Tigers as a non-drafted free agent on October 22, 2009.

DR. SPENCER WOOD*Performance and Mental Skills Coach

Dr. Wood returns for his third season in the Tigers organization, serving as the performance and mental skills coach.

He has spent the past 19 years working for a number of teams in professional leagues such as the NBA, MLB and with a variety of individual athletes from multiple sports, including professional golf.

Dr. Wood has also assisted with national team mental skills preparation for international competitions such as the World Cup, World Championships and Olympic Games.

He has two undergraduate degrees, a masters in exercise science, and a PhD in psychology with an emphasis in sport psychology. He is also NCSA-CSCS certified and NASM-CPT certified.

BRIAN PETERSON*Mental Skills Instructor

Peterson continues in his role with the Tigers after joining the Tigers in 2003 as the mental skills instructor. The 2020 season marks Peterson's 39th in professional baseball.

Prior to his appointment as the Tigers mental skills instructor, he spent nine seasons in the Marlins organization (1993-2001). During his tenure with the Marlins, Peterson served as the pitching coach for Single A Kane County (1993-97) and Double A Portland (1998) before being named the performance enhancement instructor (1999-2001).

His coaching career began with Kansas City's Double A affiliate in Memphis during the 1990-91 seasons as the club's pitching coach. In 1992, he was the pitching coach with Salt Lake, an independent team in the Rookie level Pioneer League.

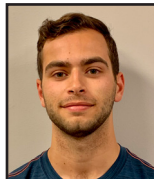

Peterson has a master's degree in counseling psychology from the University of South Dakota.

BRIAN TAGGETT*Latin American Performance Coach

Moving to a full-time role for the first time with the organization, Taggett serves as the Latin American performance coach in 2020. His responsibilities include assisting in the holistic development of Minor League players from Latin America.

Prior to this post, he served as the international player programs intern with the Tigers during the 2019 season.

Taggett played baseball at Emory University, and earned a double-major in Latin American/Caribbean studies and political science.

COREY TREMBLE*Minor League Medical and Rehabilitation Coordinator

Tremble returns for his 13th season with the Tigers organization in 2020, marking his eighth as the Minor League medical and rehabilitation coordinator. Following the 2018 season, the organization named him the Dwight Lowry Player Development Person of the Year.

He served as the athletic trainer for the Gulf Coast League Tigers during the 2008 season, Single A West Michigan during the 2009 and 2010 seasons and Single A Lakeland during the 2011 and 2012 seasons. Additionally, he served as an athletic trainer with Surprise in the Arizona Fall League in 2010.

He graduated from Florida Southern College in 2005 and attended the University of South Florida for his graduate studies in exercise science from 2006-08, where he also served as a Graduate Assistant Athletic Trainer.

Tremble is a certified and licensed athletic trainer, a muscle activation technique jumpstart specialist, and a certified strength and conditioning specialist.

He was the 2006 recipient of the Dr. Clarence Livingood Memorial Scholarship from the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society and currently sits on the PBATS Website and EMR Committees. Tremble resides in Lakeland, FL with his wife, Joanna.

STEVE CHASE*Minor League Strength and Conditioning Coordinator

Chase enters his 16th season with the Tigers organization, and his sixth as Minor League strength and conditioning coordinator after six seasons as the assistant strength and conditioning coordinator.

Following the 2016 season the organization named him the Dwight Lowry Player Development Person of the Year.

He served as a strength and conditioning coordinator with Single A Lakeland (2005), Double A Erie (2006-07) and Triple A Toledo (2008) prior to being named to his current position.

Chase received his bachelor's degree from Grand Valley State University in physical education with an emphasis on fitness and wellness.

He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist through the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

TOM PRINCE

Toledo Manager

Leading the staff at Triple A Toledo, Prince joins the Tigers following three years as the bench coach for the Pittsburgh Pirates. The 2020 season marks his 37th in professional baseball.

Prior to his role on the Major League staff, Prince was Pittsburgh's Minor League field coordinator (2016), and also managed at Double A Altoona (2015), Single A Bradenton (2014) and GCL Pirates (2007-12). He began the 2004 season with Short-Season Williamsport, where he would manage from 2005-06, before finishing the season leading Single A Lynchburg.

Following the 2008 season, Prince was named the Gulf Coast League's Manager of the Year after leading the Pirates to a league-best 37-18 record.

Originally selected by Pittsburgh in the fourth round of the secondary phase of the 1984 June draft, the Kankakee, IL native made his Major League debut with the Pirates in 1987 and played parts of 17 seasons in the majors between Pittsburgh (1987-93), Los Angeles Dodgers (1994-98), Philadelphia (1999-2000), Minnesota (2001-03), and Kansas City (2003). Over 519 career games, Prince posted a .208 (248x1190) batting average, with 24 home runs and 140 RBI.

MIKE HESSMAN

Toledo Hitting Coach

Hessman returns to the Triple A Toledo coaching staff as the hitting coach in 2020, his second year in the role.

He previously served one season each in the same capacity at Double A Erie and Single A Connecticut, the latter marking his first stint in a coaching capacity at any level.

Prior to coaching, Hessman set the Minor League career home run record at 433 with Toledo in 2015, the final season of his long playing career.

Hessman played parts of five seasons in the Major Leagues with three organizations, including the Atlanta Braves (2003-04), Tigers (2007-08), and New York Mets (2010). He hit 14 total home runs over 109 games in his Major League career.

Originally selected by the Braves in the 15th round of the 1996 MLB First-Year Player Draft, the baseball veteran spent a total of 19 seasons in the Minor Leagues at various levels. He spent the most time with Toledo during his Minor League career. Prior to being drafted, he attended Mater Dei High School in California.

JUAN NIEVES

Toledo Pitching Coach

Nieves enters his second season as the pitching coach at Triple A Toledo after serving three seasons in the same role with the Miami Marlins.

Prior to his time with Miami, he was the pitching coach for the Boston Red Sox (2013-2015) and bullpen coach for the Chicago White Sox (2008-2012). For nine seasons he was a Minor League pitching instructor in the Chicago White Sox system (1999-2007) and was also with the New York Yankees for five seasons (1992-1996).

Originally signed by the Milwaukee Brewers in 1983, he later became the second-youngest player in Major League history to throw a no-hitter, completing the feat on April 15, 1987 against Baltimore. Over three seasons with the Brewers he posted a 32-25 record and 4.71 ERA (490.2IP/257ER), while striking out 352.

Prior to being signed, he attended Avon Old Farms High School (CT), where he posted a career 19-1 record with a 1.05 ERA.

C.J. WAMSLEY

Toledo Developmental Coach

Entering his first season with the Tigers, Wamsley will serve as the developmental coach in Triple A Toledo.

Prior to joining the Tigers he was an assistant coach on the staff at Ohio University for five seasons (2015-19), following a three-year stint with Troy University where he worked with the club's catchers, outfielders and hitters. His division one coaching career began at Morehead State University, where he was an assistant coach.

Wamsley was a four-year letterwinner at Western Kentucky University, where he played on the baseball team. Over his 68-game college career he batted .299/.379/.421.

ERIE SEAWOLVES (AA)

ARNIE BEYELER

Erie Manager

Enters his first season with the organization, serving as manager for Double A Erie. The 2020 campaign marks his 29th as a manager, coach or scout, over which he's built a reputation for an innovative coaching style and use of technology.

Prior to being named to his post with the SeaWolves, he was the Major League first base coach with the Baltimore Orioles for the 2019 season. Before his season with the Orioles, he was the manager of Triple A New Orleans in the Miami organization for three seasons (2016-18), posting a combined 193-223 record. From 2013-15 he was on the Major League staff with the Boston Red Sox.

He's managed or coached at every level from Single A to the Major Leagues, including stints in these systems: Baltimore, Miami, Boston, San Diego, Texas and New York (AL). Highlights include winning the Governor's Cup with Triple A Pawtucket in 2012, and earned playoff appearances with Double A Portland in 2007-08 and Single A Stockton in 2003-04.

Beyeler was a Minor League infielder for six seasons in the Tigers system from 1986-91, reaching Triple A Toledo in his first professional campaign. He now resides in Atlantic Beach, FL, and has two children.

ADAM MELHUSE

Erie Hitting Coach

Joining the organization for his first season, Melhuse will serve as the hitting coach for Double A Erie.

Prior to joining the Tigers he was a hitting coach in the Los Angeles (NL) organization, spending the 2019 season with Double A Tulsa and 2018 with Triple A Oklahoma City. He also was the manager of Single A Burlington in the Los Angeles (AL) system for two seasons (2016-17).

Before transitioning to coaching he spent four seasons as an advanced scout for Chicago (NL), which followed an eight-year Major League playing career. Over 311 career games, Melhuse hit .234/.290/.389 with 24 home runs and 98 RBI, spending time with Los Angeles (NL) (2000), Colorado (2000-01, 2008), Oakland (2003-07) and Texas (2007-08).

MARK JOHNSON

Erie Pitching Coach

Johnson returns to the Double A Erie staff as pitching coach for his second season, after serving in the same capacity with Single A Lakeland for the 2017-18 seasons. It marks his 14th year in the Tigers organization.

Prior to being named the pitching coach for Lakeland, he served two seasons in the same capacity at Single A West Michigan (2015-16), and was previously the pitching coach at Single A Connecticut for two years (2013-14).

He spent five seasons as the pitching coach in his first stint with West Michigan (2008-12). He served as the pitching coach with Single A Oneonta during the 2007 season, marking his first professional coaching assignment.

A first-round selection by the Houston Astros in the June 1996 draft, Johnson pitched nine seasons with the Astros (1997), Florida Marlins (1998), New York Yankees (1999), Tigers (2000-03, 2005), Milwaukee Brewers (2002) and Los Angeles Dodgers (2004) organizations.

TONY SMITH

Erie Developmental Coach

Joining the Tigers for his first coaching position in affiliated baseball, Smith will serve as the developmental coach with Double A Erie. Prior to joining the Tigers he was the pitching coach (2017-19) and bullpen coach (2016-17) with the Shaumburg Boomers of the Frontier League.

He served as the Director of Pitching, Arm Care and Overhand Throwing at Athletes HQ (2018-19) and The Dugout (2016-18), both of which are specialized baseball and softball training facilities in Illinois. At both of those training facilities he regularly coached players using Driveline, Florida & Texas Baseball Ranch and OnBaseU protocols, functional movement screens and Rapsodo devices.

Prior to transitioning to coaching, Smith pitched four seasons with various independent league teams, posting a 21-10 record and 4.73 ERA (266.2IP/140ER), while striking out 182 and walking 76.

ANDREW GRAHAM

Lakeland Manager

Graham returns as the manager in Single A Lakeland in 2020, his third year leading the Flying Tigers. Additional recent posts include manager at Double A Erie in 2018 and three seasons as manager at Single A West Michigan, from 2014-16. This campaign marks his 12th with the Tigers organization.

In 2016, his Whitecaps advanced to the Midwest League Eastern Division Championship Series after posting a 71-65 record, finishing third in the Eastern Division.

He guided the Whitecaps to the Midwest League's championship in 2015. In his first season as manager at West Michigan, he led the Whitecaps to their first playoff berth since 2010. He previously served three seasons as manager at Single A Connecticut.

He served as a coach with the Gulf Coast League Tigers in both 2009 and 2010, in addition to serving as the organization's Minor League catching coordinator in 2010.

Selected by the Tigers in the 19th round of the 2003 MLB First-Year Player Draft, he spent six seasons (2003-08) in the club's Minor League system as a catcher.

Graham saw action with Australia during the World Baseball Classic in both 2006 and 2009. He batted .364 (4x11) with three RBI in three games for Australia in 2009. He served as a coach for Australia in the 2017 World Baseball Classic.

CHASE ROWE

Norwich Hitting Coach

Marking his first coaching position in professional baseball, Rowe joins the staff at Short-Season Norwich for the 2020 campaign.

For the previous 11 years he served as the head coach for the La Roche University baseball team, a role he began at just 23 years-old. He led the Redhawks to a combined 305-170 record and saw the program through a very successful period in the Allegheny Mountain Collegiate Conference, winning eight conference titles and seven coach of the year awards and conference tournament titles. His squad advanced to the NCAA Division III College World Series in 2016 and was a runner-up in the Midwest Regional in 2015.

He's also held the title of associate scout with Colorado (2013-19) and Miami (2009-11). As a player, Rowe was an infielder at Golf Coast Community College (2001-02) and Slippery Rock University (2002-05).

CARLOS BOHORQUEZ

Norwich Pitching Coach

Bohorquez returns for his 11th season in the Tigers organization and his third as the pitching coach with the club's short-season affiliate. Following the 2019 season he was awarded the Dwight Lowry Award, given annually to the "Player Development Person of the Year".

Prior to his current post he served as the pitching coach for the Gulf Coast League Tigers East for three seasons, and in the same capacity with the Venezuelan Summer League Tigers for six seasons.

Originally signed by the Cincinnati Reds as a non-drafted free agent on July 12, 1999, he spent three seasons in the organization as a third baseman before being converted to a pitcher. Bohorquez compiled a 14-19 record and 3.90 ERA in 194 games over six seasons as a pitcher in the Reds Minor League system (2002-07). He pitched in Mexico during the 2008 season.

DREW MARTINEZ

Norwich Developmental Coach

Joining the Tigers organization for his first season, Martinez will serve as the developmental coach for Short-Season Norwich.

Before his current post, Martinez spent two years (2018-19) as the hitting coach with Florence Freedom of the Frontier League, also working with players on baserunning and defense. The club led the Frontier League in multiple offensive categories under his tutelage in 2019.

Other stops in his post-playing career include hitting/outfield coach with Southwest Tennessee Community College (2017-19), head coach of the Fulton Railroaders (2017) and volunteer coach at Memphis University (2017).

Martinez played collegiately at Memphis and was drafted in the 10th round of the 2011 MLB Draft by the Los Angeles Angels. The outfielder played two seasons of affiliated ball (2011-12) and four in independent leagues (2013-16).

RYAN MINOR*GCL Tigers West Manager

His first season in the Tigers organization, Minor will lead the GCL Tigers West coaching staff in 2020. Prior to joining the Tigers he spent 12 seasons coaching in the Baltimore Orioles player development system.

Minor has managed 10 seasons during his coaching career, including at Single A Delmarva (2010-12 and 14-17) and Single A Frederick (2013 and 18-19). He won a career high 73 games with Dalmarva during the 2016 season.

Originally drafted by Baltimore in the 33rd round of the 1996 MLB Draft, Minor played in 142 Major League games over four seasons between the Orioles (1998-2000) and Montreal (2001). He batted .177/.228/.259 with five career home runs and 27 RBI.

Minor played baseball and basketball at the University of Oklahoma, where he was a two-time All-Big 8 Conference First Team selection in basketball (1995-96), was named the conference's Player of the Year as a junior and ranks seventh on the university's all-time scoring list. Minor was also drafted in the second round (No. 32 overall) by the Philadelphia 76ers in the 1996 NBA Draft.

TIM GARLANDGCL Tigers West Hitting Coach

Garland returns for his fourth season in the Tigers organization, and his first on the staff at GCL Tigers West. Prior to this post, he served three seasons as the hitting coach at Single A Lakeland.

Before joining the Tigers, Garland was a developmental specialist for one season with Single A Quad Cities in the Houston Astros organization in 2015. In his position as developmental specialist, he focused on the development of the River Bandits outfielders, as well as baserunning for all the players on the club.

Prior to his position as the developmental specialist, he spent two seasons as the hitting coach at Double A Corpus Christi, also in the Astros organization.

Before joining the Astros, Garland served as hitting coach for Double A Midland of the Oakland Athletics organization for two seasons (2011-12). He made his coaching debut in 2006 with Class A Kane County, later serving as hitting coach at Single A Stockton from 2007-10.

He was originally drafted by the New York Yankees in the June 1989 draft out of Pensacola Junior College, owning a career .281 batting average in 1,356 Minor League career games. In addition to the Yankees system, he spent time in the Giants, Orioles and Athletics organizations.

MIKE ALVAREZ*GCL Tigers West Pitching Coach

Alvarez returns for his third season as Gulf Coast League Tigers West pitching coach in 2020.

He previously spent 19 seasons in the Atlanta Braves organization, most recently as the pitching coach of Triple A Gwinnett after being named to the position in May of 2016.

Alvarez spent time as a pitching coach, roving pitching instructor and pitching supervisor in the Braves organization from 1998-2016. Additionally, he spent three seasons (2012-15) as the pitching supervisor for the Dominican Summer League Braves. Alvarez also held the pitching coach post with Double A Mississippi from 2011-12 and Triple A Richmond in 2005.

Following his playing career as a Minor League pitcher with the Baltimore Orioles (1980-81) and Kansas City Royals (1981-86), Alvarez spent 13 years as a Minor League pitching coach with the Royals from (1985-97), including five years with the club's Triple A team, the Omaha Royals.

CAM ROTH

GCL Tigers East Manager

Entering his first season with the organization, Roth will manage the GCL Tigers East squad in 2020.

Prior to joining the Tigers, Roth was the manager of the Lake Erie Crushers of the Frontier League for two seasons, posting a combined 95-97 record. The Crushers won the league's Eastern division in 2019, and he was named Manager of the Year.

Roth's coaching career began with the Frontier League's Schaumburg Boomers, serving on the staff beginning in 2013 and helping the club to back-to-back league titles.

He played collegiately at the University of North Carolina - Wilmington for three years, before he was drafted by the Orioles in the 29th round of the 2010 MLB Draft. Roth pitched for two seasons in the Baltimore organization and one in the Frontier League, combining to post a 13-16 record, 4.25 ERA (267.0IP/126ER) and 186 strikeouts.

RAFAEL GIL

GCL Tigers East Hitting Coach

Gil returns as the Gulf Coast League Tigers East hitting coach for his second season in the role, after serving in the same capacity with the Gulf Coast League Tigers West in 2018. This season will mark his 10th with the Tigers organization.

He was the manager of the Gulf Coast League Tigers East and West in 2016 and 2017, respectively, and previously served as manager of the Venezuelan Summer League Tigers for five seasons (2011-15).

He guided the VSL Tigers to a Venezuelan Summer League Championship in 2014. His stint as the manager of the Venezuelan Summer League Tigers marked his first professional managing or coaching assignment.

Originally signed by the Boston Red Sox as a non-drafted free agent on July 22, 2003, he spent five seasons with the organization as a catcher. He saw action with Single A Lowell in the New York-Penn League during his final season in 2008.

SANTIAGO GARRIDO

GCL Tigers East Pitching Coach

Garrido will serve as the GCL Tigers East pitching coach in 2020 for the first time, marking his third season as a coach in the Tigers system. Prior to this position he was a coach on the staff with Double A Erie for two seasons, after retiring from his playing career following the 2017 season.

He appeared in 13 games between Erie and Single A Lakeland in his final season, compiling a 1-1 record, including one save with a 5.76 ERA (25.0IP/16ER) and 26 strikeouts.

Garrido played 10 Minor League seasons with three organizations, including Kansas City (2007-13), Tampa Bay (2014) and Detroit (2016-17), and compiled a 18-32 record, 17 saves, a 4.54 ERA (513.0IP/259ER) and 397 strikeouts.

The Higuey, DR native was originally signed by the Royals as a non-drafted free agent on January 26, 2007.

DOMINICAN SUMMER LEAGUE TIGERS1 (R)

RAMON ZAPATA

DSL Tigers1 Manager

Zapata will return as the manager for the Dominican Summer League Tigers1 in 2020, marking his third season leading the club. He previously served two seasons as the hitting coach for the GCL Tigers East (2016-17) and three seasons as the hitting coach for the DSL Tigers (2013-15).

Prior to joining the Tigers organization, he served as the DSL Pirates infield coach in 2012, where he ended the season as the team's manager.

He spent 17 seasons in the Pittsburgh Pirates organization in multiple roles including GCL Pirates coach (1996-97), DSL Pirates Manager (1997-2010) and Pirates Dominican Academy field coordinator (2010-11). In 2003 he led the DSL Pirates to the DSL Championship and was named the DSL Manager of the Year. Zapata also managed the DSL All-Star Game in 2006 and 2007.

Originally signed by the Pirates as a non-drafted free agent, Zapata played for five seasons at the Minor League level (1991-95).

He was born in the Dominican Republic and attended San Rafael School in Boca Chica, DR.

Ovalles returns in 2020 for his fifth season as the DSL Tigers1 hitting coach. Under his tutelage the club batted .250 (581x2322) in 2019, ranking as the third-highest average in the Tigers organization.

Prior to coaching, he played in the Tigers organization for three seasons (2011-13) in the Venezuelan Summer League. Over three seasons, the catcher/first baseman batted .263/.376/.418 with 12 home runs and 67 RBI over 154 games.

The Caracas, VZ native originally signed with the Tigers as a non-drafted free agent in 2011.

WILLIAMS MORENO

DSL Tigers1 Pitching Coach

Moreno returns for his third year as a coach with the Tigers, and second as the pitching coach with the DSL Tigers1 after working as the assistant pitching coach for the DSL Tigers2 in 2018.

Prior to becoming a coach Moreno pitched four seasons in the Tigers organization, posting a 5-5 record and 6.59 ERA over 86.0 IP with a total of 67 strikeouts. He was a member of the Tigers 2014 and 2015 Venezuelan Summer League teams that both went on to win the Venezuelan Summer League Championship.

The Maracay, VZ native originally signed with the Tigers as a non-drafted free agent in 2012.

IVAN CONTRERAS

DSL Tiger Infield & Baserunning Coach

Entering his first season with the Tigers, Contreras will serve as the infield and baserunning coach with DSL Tigers in 2020.

His transition to coaching follows a seven-year playing career in the Los Angeles Angels and Toronto Blue Jays systems, rising as high as Double A. Over those seven seasons he hit .258/.318/.365 in 396 games, with 59 doubles, 34 triples, six home runs and 124 RBI. He played second base and left field.

Additionally, he played four seasons for Gigantes del Cibao in the Dominican Winter League from 2009-12.

MARCO YEPEZ

DSL Tigers2 Manager

Yepez returns as the manager of the DSL Tigers2 for his second season in the role, after working as the club's hitting coach in 2018. He previously was manager of DSL Tigers in 2017.

Prior to joining the organization he was the third base coach on the Leones del Caracas coaching staff of the Venezuelan Winter League in 2016.

Yepez spent eight total seasons in the Minor Leagues in the Florida Marlins (2002), Montreal Expos (2003-04) and Washington Nationals (2005-09) organizations. He batted .268/.347/.356 over 649 games during his Minor League career.

In addition to playing abroad in Venezuela, the former infielder also played in the professional baseball leagues in Colombia, Nicaragua and Italy, where he concluded his playing career in 2012 after three seasons.

The Caracas, VZ native was originally signed by Florida as a non-drafted free agent in 2009.

LUIS MATEO

DSL Tigers2 Hitting Coach

Joining the Tigers for his first season, Mateo will serve as the hitting coach with DSL Tigers2 during the 2020 season.

With over 20 years of professional coaching experience, Mateo most recently served as the hitting coach with Houston's DSL affiliate from 2009-14, and again in 2018. Between his two stints with the Astros' DSL affiliate, he was the hitting coach with their GCL affiliate from 2016-17 and also with Short-Season Greenville in 2015, helping the Astros to the league title.

Prior to his time with the Astros organization, Mateo managed DSL Oakland from 2007-08, and began his coaching career in 1998 with DSL Arizona.

He signed as a player with Oakland and played two seasons (1988-89) in the Athletics Minor League system.

LUIS MARTE

DSL Tigers2 Pitching Coach

Marte returns as the DSL Tigers2 pitching coach for the third season, after serving as the assistant pitching coach for the DSL Tigers in 2017.

Prior to his move to coaching, he most recently pitched at Triple A Toledo in the Tigers organization in 2013. He spent parts of two seasons at the Major League level with the Tigers from 2011-12, pitching in 17 games over which he posted a 2-0 record and 2.77 ERA (26.0IP/8ER).

The San Cristobal, DR native spent eight total seasons in the Tigers organization. He was originally signed by the Tigers as a non-drafted free agent on November 16, 2005.

CARMELO JAIME

DSL Tigers2 Infield & Baserunning Coach

Jaime will serve as the infield coach for the DSL Tigers2 for the third season, after spending two seasons (2016-17) as the infield coach of the GCL Tigers East.

He previously spent five seasons in the same capacity with the Dominican Summer League Tigers. His stint as the infield coach with the DSL Tigers marked his first professional coaching assignment.

He played three seasons at the Minor League level with the Tigers after being selected by Detroit in the 24th round of the 2008 MLB Draft.

Born in the Dominican Republic, Jaime attended Miami Dade Community College in Florida.

KELY RAMOS

DSL Tigers Catching Instructor

Ramos enters the 2020 season as the catching instructor for the organization's two DSL teams. This marks his second season since beginning his coaching career.

His transition to coaching comes after playing eight seasons in the Minor Leagues between stints in the New York (NL), Boston and Baltimore player development systems. Over that span he batted .234/.287/.375 with 46 home runs and 221 RBI in 478 games. Ramos last played in 2003 with Single A Aberdeen.

SANDY ACEVEDO

DSL Tigers Outfield Instructor

Acevedo returns for his fourth season working with the Tigers DSL affiliates, serving as the outfield instructor in 2020.

He previously served as a coach with DSL Tigers2 in 2018 and was the outfield coach with the DSL Tigers in 2017. The 2020 season will mark his seventh season in a full-time capacity with the organization.

Originally signed by the Tigers as a non-drafted free agent in 2010, Acevedo spent four seasons in the Tigers Minor League system (2010-13).

JOSE CABRERA

DSL Tigers Assistant Pitching Coach

Cabrera returns as a coach with the DSL Tigers for his second season in the organization.

Prior to joining the Tigers, Cabrera spent the 2016 season as a coach for Houston in the Dominican Summer League.

Cabrera had a six-year Major League career, playing four seasons for Houston (1997-2000) and one season each for Atlanta (2001) and Milwaukee (2002). The righthanded pitcher compiled a 19-17 record and 4.95 ERA (271.0IP/149ER) with 192 strikeouts over 198 career games.

The native of La Delgada, DR had one postseason appearance in his Major League career, tossing 2.0 shutout innings in the National League Division Series with Houston in 1999.

SOILO PERDOMO

DSL Tigers Coach

Perdomo will serve as a coach with the DSL Tigers in 2020, his eighth season in a full-time capacity with the organization. He began working with the Tigers during instructional league in the Dominican Republic in October of 2009.

Prior to joining the Tigers organization, Perdomo spent two seasons as a coach with the DSL Nationals (2007-08) in Washington's organization.

MIKE ILITCH (1929-2017)

- Mike Ilitch was a once-in-a-generation entrepreneur and champion for Detroit.
- He and his wife, Marian, invested their family savings in 1959 to open the first Little Caesars store in Garden City, Michigan, a suburb of Detroit. That single mom-and-pop pizza shop grew into the largest carryout pizza chain in the world, with restaurants in 26 countries and territories across the globe. The success of the business was built upon the exceptional quality and value of the Little Caesars menu and Mike's marketing savvy and imaginative ideas in production.
- The growth of Little Caesars helped Mike and Marian create other leading brands in the food, sports and entertainment industries.
- The couple purchased the Detroit Red Wings in 1982. While the team was known as the Dead Wings at the time, Mike and Marian believed they were a sleeping giant and immediately took charge to turn the team around. By 1997, the Red Wings won their first Stanley Cup in 42 years, and they went on to win three more. Four Stanley Cup parades held along Woodward Avenue in Detroit attracted hundreds of thousands of people, many from the suburbs who had not been to downtown Detroit in decades. Detroit became known as Hockeytown and brought a sense of pride to the area's hockey fans and the community as a whole.

- Throughout Mike's life, he remained true to his hometown and was a zealous supporter of Detroit, working tirelessly to help it prosper and to bring pride to the city.
- In 1988, Mike and Marian purchased the neglected Fox Theatre and carefully restored it to its original 1928 splendor.
- One year later, they moved their Little Caesars world headquarters from the suburbs into the newly renovated Fox Office Center adjacent to the restored theatre. This was during a time when many businesses were fleeing the city. Restoration of the theatre and renovation of the office building brought new life to the area. Currently, the headquarters campus is being expanded with an addition of a new nine-story, 234,000 square foot building next door to the Fox Theatre.

- Mike displayed further commitment to the city he loved when he purchased the Detroit Tigers in 1992 and built a new state-of-the-art ballpark for the team. Remembering his early years as a Minor League baseball player with the Tigers, he did everything in his power to make the fan experience at Comerica Park a memorable one.
- The new ballpark enabled Detroit to successfully host the MLB All-Star Game in 2005 and the Tigers would go on to host the World Series in 2006. Mike also encouraged the Ford family to bring the Detroit Lions back to Detroit from the suburbs and build a new stadium right next door to the ballpark by relinquishing a portion of land to make way for the new stadium. The new football venue allowed Detroit to host the Super Bowl in 2006.

- Mike and Marian believed passionately in giving back to the community. As the parents of children who played hockey, the couple wanted to provide other children the opportunity to play the sport as well. So they established the Little Caesars Amateur Hockey Program in 1968, and it has provided opportunities for tens of thousands of youngsters to play the great game of hockey over the years. Hundreds have gone on to play at colleges, universities and in the National Hockey League.
- The couple established the Little Caesars Love Kitchen in 1985. With two trucks on the road to serve those in need, these restaurants on wheels have served more than three million people.
- Inspired by the story of a veteran returning to civilian life, Mike founded the Little Caesars Veterans Program in 2006. He had read a newspaper story about an Army Sergeant who had tragically lost both his legs during combat in Iraq. As a veteran himself, Mike was impressed with the can-do attitude of this veteran. The Little Caesars Veterans Program that followed provides honorably discharged veterans with financial incentives and other support to help them open a Little Caesars franchise.

- The charitable reach of Mike & Marian Ilitch and the Ilitch companies has expanded to more than $207 million in grants and giving since 2000. Ilitch Charities and its affiliates, the Detroit Red Wings Foundation and the Detroit Tigers Foundation, continue to carry on the mission of supporting deserving causes and organizations across the community.
- As part of this charitable legacy, Mike & Marian Ilitch have personally gifted nearly $50 million to Detroit's Wayne State University – $8 million to the Department of Surgery and $40 million dedicated to establish the new Mike Ilitch School of Business, which will train and educate the next generation of the city's great entrepreneurs.
- Mike received numerous business, cultural, and philanthropic awards during his lifetime, including:
 - The International Franchise Association Hall of Fame (2016)
 - SportsBusiness Journal's "The Champions: Pioneers and Innovators in Sports Business" (2014)
 - Michigan Sports Hall of Fame (2004)
 - US Hockey Hall of Fame (2004)
 - National Hockey League Hall of Fame (2003)
 - Ellis Island Medal of Honor (1997)

- Locally in Detroit, Mike was honored for his efforts in the community with the Joe Louis Brown Bomber Jacket Award, the Distinguished Martin Luther King, Jr. Community Service Award, the Shining Light Regional Cooperation Award and the Edward H. McNamara Goodfellow of the Year Award. He was also given the key to the city.
- Mike Ilitch was a remarkable American success story. In 2012, he wrote, "Develop a love for all people; be humble; work hard. I guarantee you will be successful in life." He did just that and had a life well lived.
