MARK ATTANASIO

CHAIRMAN AND PRINCIPAL OWNER

The 2021 season is the 17th for Mark Attanasio as chairman and principal owner of the Milwaukee Brewers. Last season, Attanasio oversaw the organization as it navigated the unprecedented 2020 year, impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic, with a shortened 60-game schedule, and without fans attending in-person.

In the end, the Brewers remained focused on playing top-quality baseball in adverse conditions and achieved their third consecutive postseason appearance, a first in franchise history.

Over the course of Attanasio's leadership, the Brewers have been one of the National League's most competitive teams, tying for the league's fourth-highest winning percentage (1262-1229, .507). In addition, over the past four years, the Brewers have been one of the most successful clubs in all of Major League Baseball. Milwaukee is one of just six teams that have qualified for the postseason in each of the last three years, while only two National League teams have accumulated more wins during that span.

Attanasio has embraced the growing partnership with American Family Insurance as it continues in 2021 with the Club's ballpark now named American Family Field. This follows the re-naming of its Spring Training facility in 2019 to American Family Fields of Phoenix as part of its transformation into a state-of-the-art training and development facility. Over the past 17 years, the Brewers have invested significant resources to enhance the fan experience at American Family Field, consistently rated as one of the best venues in baseball.

Attanasio has also worked to maintain continuity among the organization's leadership by securing long-term contracts with President of Baseball Operations David Stearns, President of Business Operations Rick Schlesinger and Craig Counsell, who is now the longest-tenured manager in the National League.

Attanasio remains focused on his longstanding objective to establish the organization as a champion both on and off the field. He continues to work diligently to uphold the four cornerstone pledges he made to the Brewers and to the community when the Club was purchased 16 years ago:

1. FIELDING A PERENNIALY COMPETITIVE TEAM

Attanasio has worked closely with David Stearns, Craig Counsell and the rest of the baseball operations staff to build a sustainable inflow of young talent that supplements the team's veteran players to field a perennially competitive roster.

In March of 2020, the Club announced the signing of outfielder Christian Yelich to a nine-year contract through the 2028 season with a mutual option for 2029. The long-term contract exemplifies Attanasio's commitment to be a highly competitive franchise and a place that players want to call home.

The organization continued to be well-represented throughout the league's end-of-season awards in 2020 with Devin Williams earning National League Rookie of the Year and National League Reliever of the Year.

The 2020 roster featured prominent contributions by several players drafted or signed and developed in the team's farm system, including infielders Keston Hiura and Orlando Arcia, and pitchers Williams, Corbin Burnes, Brandon Woodruff, Brent Suter and Drew Rasmussen. In addition, this winter the Club signed Gold Glove winners Kolten Wong and Jackie Bradley Jr.

2. DELIVERING THE BEST FAN EXPERIENCE POSSIBLE, WHETHER AT AMERICAN FAMILY FIELD, THROUGH BROADCASTS OR OVER THE INTERNET

Attanasio greatly values the unwavering support and enthusiasm of Brewers fans, especially as the Club was restricted in its ability to host fans in 2020. The Club is committed to ensuring the safety of the in-person experience by collaborating with local health departments, outside experts the Club relies upon, as well as the best information provided to MLB by its experts. The Club is equally concerned for fans, the dedicated workers who help stage home games, the players and coaches, as well as our security professionals. This fluid situation is being re-evaluated on a daily basis, including by Attanasio.

Through all of this, Attanasio has pledged to provide fans with the best experience possible. That commitment has included funding enhancements on numerous fronts of the fan experience at American Family Field over the years with work continuing through the 2020 season and subsequent winter to prepare for the return of fans. When fans return to the ballpark, they will notice new branding around the stadium consistent with the re-branding efforts announced in 2019. Notably, new LED lights and the creation of a brand-new bar and viewing deck - Miller Lite Landing - located in the left-center field Loge Level bleachers. Also prominent is new branding related to the new name of American Family Field.

3. REMAINING A LEADER IN THE COMMUNITY

As part of its community participation in response to the impact of COVID-19, the Brewers were involved in many relief efforts. Brewers Community Foundation (BCF), the charitable arm of the organization, joined a group of local philanthropic partners to support the COVID-19 Urgent Needs Fund at United Way of Milwaukee and Waukesha County, and the MKE Responds Fund at the Greater Milwaukee Foundation. The local coalition was created to help alleviate the profound impact the pandemic had on local communities.

In conjunction with Wahlburgers restaurant, Hy-Vee, Inc. and Crescent Capital, the Brewers and the Milwaukee Professional Fire Fighters Local 215 delivered 1,000 meals to frontline healthcare workers at four different Milwaukee-area hospitals. American Family Field was also opened to host on-site, drive-thru COVID-19 testing during and after the season. Further, various Brewers players created videos, PSAs and social posts to support mask-up messages throughout the season.

In addition, Attanasio led support for the many team initiatives related to social justice that became part of the organization's key focus in 2020. Most recently, the Brewers affiliated with the Green Bay Packers, Milwaukee Bucks and Microsoft to form the Equity League, an effort to raise venture capital and make meaningful investments through grants to minority-owned startups.

Throughout Attanasio's tenure with the Brewers, he has remained personally dedicated and involved with BCF.

Over the past decade, BCF has provided more than 2,000 grants totaling in excess of $19 million to nonprofit organizations across Wisconsin that support programs focused on its four areas of concentration: health, education, recreation and basic needs. In addition to the fans' support of the Foundation, all uniformed players, their families, team executives and front office staff contributed their time and/or financial resources to BCF in 2020.

4. BEING AN ORGANIZATION WHERE PEOPLE WANT TO WORK, WHETHER ON THE FIELD OR BEHIND THE SCENES

Attanasio has continued to deliver on his commitment to make the Brewers one of the best places to work, not only in Greater Milwaukee, but in all of sports. Throughout his 16 years as principal owner, the organization has grown as a desirable destination for some of Major League Baseball's top players, front office personnel and business executives.

Knowing that many employees faced incredible challenges in 2020, Attanasio and the Brewers established the Ballpark Employee Emergency Relief Fund to provide financial assistance to game day workers who lost wages due to the pandemic. Bob Uecker, as well as players Ryan Braun, Lorenzo Cain, Corey Knebel, Josh Lindblom, Brent Suter and Christian Yelich, contributed to the $1 million fund.

The Club also launched Listen. Learn. Act. - an internal program to evaluate and educate on the complex issues of social injustice and systemic racism. The ongoing learning opportunity for employees has allowed for continued meaningful conversations that will translate into meaningful action.

Under Attanasio's leadership, the organization has created a corporate culture focused on best practices and achieving excellence across all areas and departments. This includes providing the Club's employees with training, personal and career development, as well as opportunities to participate in the Brewers' outreach efforts in the Milwaukee community.

BEYOND THE BREWERS

Attanasio has been an accomplished investment management executive for more than 30 years. In addition to his role as chairman and principal owner of the Brewers, he is a managing partner of Crescent Capital Group, Inc., an employee-owned Los Angeles-based asset management firm which he co-founded in 1991.

Attanasio holds positions on several not-for-profit boards, including the board of trustees of Heal the Bay, the Los Angeles County Museum of Art and Harvard-Westlake School. He is also a member of Major League Baseball's Executive Council and Revenue Sharing Definitions Committee, and is chairman of its Investment Committee. Additionally, he is a member of LA2028, the bid committee that successfully secured the 2028 Summer Olympic Games in Los Angeles. Attanasio is also an investor in the Milwaukee Admirals of the American Hockey League.

Attanasio received his A.B. from Brown University and his J.D. from the Columbia University School of Law. He and his wife, Debbie, have two sons, Dan and Mike, and two grandchildren.

SPRING TRAINING

RICK SCHLESINGER

PRESIDENT - BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Rick Schlesinger enters his 19th season with the Brewers and third in his current position after being promoted on January 23, 2019. He has previously held roles with the organization as executive vice president of business operations (2003-10) and chief operating officer (2011-18).

Schlesinger oversees the organization's business operations, including finance, human resources, information technology, legal, sponsorships, marketing, ticketing, business analytics, broadcasting, communications and non-baseball special events. In addition, he oversees the team's Spring Training complex in Phoenix and the operations of the Carolina Mudcats, the organization's Class-A affiliate.

The Brewers have established new records in nearly every aspect of the business during Schlesinger's tenure. Over 2.5 million fans have passed through the gates of American Family Field in 12 of the past 13 seasons (excluding the 2020 season). In that time, the organization has built a focus on the fan experience, developed new and enhanced partnerships and completed a number of major initiatives that benefit various stakeholders.

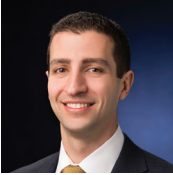

Leading into the 2020 season, the team introduced a new logo and uniform system centered around a modernized version of the iconic ball-in-glove logo, which was first introduced in 1978. The year also marked the completion of The Restaurant To Be Named Later, which replaced Friday's Front Row Grill, as well as a new bar and viewing deck in left field known as the Miller Lite Landing. In addition, a major renovation of the team's Arizona complex – American Family Fields of Phoenix – was finalized.

This past winter, the Brewers home park in Milwaukee officially transitioned in name to "American Family Field" under a new naming rights partnership with the Wisconsin-based American Family Insurance.

Prior to joining the organization, Schlesinger spent five seasons (1998-2002) as vice president of business and legal affairs/assistant general manager for the Anaheim Angels. He previously worked for Walt Disney Pictures and Television in motion picture development and production and at the Los Angeles law firm of Latham and Watkins.

A Phi Beta Kappa graduate from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1983, Schlesinger received his Juris Doctor from Harvard Law School (cum laude) in 1986. A native of Bayside, Wisconsin, Rick currently resides in Oconomowoc with his wife, Kate. They have five children: Bradley, Sam, Caitlin, Molly and Mathieu.

DAVID STEARNS

PRESIDENT - BASEBALL OPERATIONS

David Stearns, 36, enters his sixth season leading the organization's baseball operations functions. Stearns was named the ninth general manager in franchise history on September 21, 2015. He officially assumed the position on October 5, 2015 and was promoted to president of baseball operations on January 23, 2019.

Since becoming general manager at the age of 30, Stearns has implemented an approach to build and retain talent across all levels of the organization that could make an impact at the Major League level. The Brewers increased their win total in their first three seasons (2016-18) under Stearns and manager Craig Counsell, recording a 5-game improvement from 2015-16 (68 wins to 73), 13-game improvement from 2016-17 (73 wins to 86) and 10-game improvement from 2017-18 (86 wins to 96).

Under Stearns' leadership, the Brewers have earned three consecutive postseason berths (2018-20) for the first time in franchise history, including claiming a National League Wild Card spot in 2020.

In 2018, the team won a franchise record-tying 96 games and the second National League Central Division title in franchise history, swept the Colorado Rockies in the National League Division Series, and came within one game of reaching the World Series. The Brewers also earned Baseball America's 2018 Organization of the Year Award.

Prior to the 2018 season, Stearns orchestrated a series of moves that were key to the team's success as he traded for outfielder Christian Yelich and signed outfielder Lorenzo Cain and starting pitcher Jhoulys Chacin. Yelich went on to earn National League Most Valuable Player honors. Yelich and Cain formed one of the most formidable duos atop the lineup in baseball as each finished in the top five in the NL in on-base percentage. Chacin led the Major Leagues in starts (35).

The Brewers made similar high-impact additions prior to the 2019 season, agreeing to a one-year contract with catcher Yasmani Grandal on January 14 and later bringing back third baseman Mike Moustakas on a one-year deal. The team went on to defy early September odds by winning 17 of 19 games en route to clinching a postseason berth on September 25. The Brewers went 18-5 over their final 23 games — the best record in baseball during this span — and secured a National League Wild Card spot, marking the second instance of postseason appearances in consecutive years in franchise history (1981-82).

Stearns joined the Brewers following three seasons (2013-15) as assistant general manager with the Houston Astros, where he was a key member of the management team, focusing on all areas of baseball operations, including analytics, administration, player development and scouting. During his tenure in Houston, the Astros put together one of Major League Baseball's most dramatic turnarounds in recent history, going from 51 wins in 2013 to 70 in 2014 and 86 in 2015 en route to clinching the American League Wild Card, the team's first postseason berth in 10 years.

Prior to joining the Astros, Stearns spent one year as director of baseball operations with the Cleveland Indians, running from December 2011 through November 2012, where he focused on contract negotiations, salary analysis, team strategy and roster management. From 2008-11, he worked in the Office of the Commissioner, most recently as manager of labor relations, where he assisted in the salary arbitration process, handled uniform player contracts, and was a member of Major League Baseball's negotiating team for the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Stearns served baseball operations internships with the Pittsburgh Pirates (summers of 2005-06) and New York Mets (2008). He also worked for the Arizona Fall League as assistant director of baseball operations in 2007.

Stearns graduated from Harvard University with a bachelor's degree in political science in 2007. The New York City native currently resides in Milwaukee with his wife, Whitney, and their daughter, Nora.

TYLER BARNES

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT - COMMUNICATIONS AND AFFILIATE OPERATIONS

Tyler Barnes, 56, enters his 16th season with the Brewers and fourth in his current position. He joined the organization in September 2005.

In his current role, Barnes oversees the team's broadcasting, media relations, community relations and publications efforts as well as brewers.com. Additionally, he is responsible for the oversight of the Carolina Mudcats - the team's Class-A affiliate - and Spring Training operations, including playing an integral role in the opening of the new Spring Training facility, American Family Fields of Phoenix, in 2019. He also serves on the board of Brewers Community Foundation, Inc.

In 2019, Barnes was honored with the Robert O. Fishel Award for Public Relations Excellence. He became the first Brewers recipient of the award, which is presented annually to a Major League Baseball public relations/communications executive whose ethics, character, dedication and professionalism reflect the highest standards in the industry.

A veteran of 34 years in the sports industry, Barnes came to Milwaukee after five years in Phoenix with the Harlem Globetrotters, where he served as chief marketing officer. In that role, he coordinated sales and marketing efforts related to the team's annual 230-game tour. Barnes' prior experience includes six years with the Detroit Tigers and five years with the Houston Astros in marketing and communications roles.

Along with his family, Barnes is an active supporter of Open Arms Home for Children in South Africa. He also serves on the board of Africa On Deck, which supports participation in baseball by children in underserved areas of Johannesburg.

Barnes graduated from Trinity College in Hartford, Connecticut in 1987 with a degree in political science. He is a native of Kansas City, Missouri. Tyler and his wife, Monica, reside in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin. They have two sons, Avery and Cole.

STEVE ETHIER

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT - STADIUM OPERATIONS

Steve Ethier enters his 18th season with the Brewers and fourth in his current role, which he began on December 22, 2017. He oversees all ballpark operations at American Family Field, including facilities, grounds, event services, security, special events, guest relations and other projects.

Ethier previously spent 14 seasons with the organization as manager of team travel (1992-97), director of event services (1997-2003) and vice president of ballpark operations (2003-06), and played a role in the planning and opening of then-Miller Park in 2001.

Ethier began his career in Major League Baseball with the Minnesota Twins as assistant director of operations in 1989. He has also held roles as vice president of ballpark operations with the Washington Nationals (2006-08), security and facility operations with the Office of the Commissioner (2008), executive director of the Minneapolis Convention Center (2009-11), vice president of ballpark operations with the Miami Marlins (2011-13) and senior vice president of stadium operations with the Los Angeles Dodgers (2013-17). In addition to Miller Park, Ethier contributed to the planning and opening of Nationals Park in 2008 and Marlins Park in 2012.

Ethier is a graduate of the University of Minnesota - Twin Cities.

DANIEL FUMAI

CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Dan Fumai (Few-MAY) enters his fourth season with the Brewers as chief financial officer after being named to the position on February 6, 2018. He manages the entirety of the financial operations for the organization, the Class-A Carolina Mudcats and Performance Clean.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Fumai served as vice president of finance and controller for the San Diego Padres (2003-08) and executive vice president of finance and chief financial officer for ANC Sports/Learfield IMG College (2008-2018). He began his career at PricewaterhouseCoopers, working in several key positions from 1992-2003.

Fumai has been involved in numerous merger and acquisition deals as well as in five initial public offerings for companies such as Red Hat, Lending Tree, Inc. and Infinium Software in the Boston, Massachusetts; Raleigh, North Carolina and San Diego, California offices of PricewaterhouseCoopers. He also served as the lead manager of Capital Broadcasting, owner of the Durham Bulls, while in Raleigh.

Fumai is a certified public accountant, earning a bachelor's degree in business administration from Boston University. He serves on the board of directors of It's All About the Kids Foundation, a nonprofit organization committed to the advancement of less fortunate children through the coupling of music, the arts and the generosity of corporations and individuals.

Dan is a native of Floral Park, New York.

JASON HARTLUND

CHIEF REVENUE OFFICER

Jason Hartlund, 48, enters his fourth season with the Brewers as chief revenue officer after being named to the position on May 10, 2018. He oversees ticket sales and services, suite sales, partnership sales and activation, special events, business development and business analytics and strategy.

Hartlund, who previously worked for the Brewers from 2005-15, returned to the organization after spending two-and-a-half years (2016-18) as managing director of business development and new arena sales for the Milwaukee Bucks. While there, he led sales efforts for the $1 billion, 30-acre mixed-use development in downtown Milwaukee, including securing the naming entitlements for both the Bucks' new state-of-the-art arena, Fiserv Forum, and practice facility, Froedtert & the Medical College of Wisconsin Sports Science Center. He also worked with Harley-Davidson to secure the Bucks' first jersey patch partner.

Hartlund first joined the Brewers as director of corporate marketing in 2005 and was promoted to senior director in 2006. From 2008-15, he served as vice president of Brewers Enterprises and event services, securing several key events for then-Miller Park, including the H.O.G. (Harley Owners Group) 25th Anniversary Festival, Farm Aid's 25th Anniversary Concert, Kenny Chesney's No Shoes Nation Tour, Paul McCartney's Out There Tour and One Direction's On The Road Again Tour.

Prior to originally joining the Brewers in 2005, Hartlund served as manager of corporate sales for the Green Bay Packers from 2002-05, sports marketing manager for PSP Sports Marketing from 2000-02 and in sales and management for United Sports Ventures, a privately held company that owned and operated Minor League sports franchises.

Hartlund is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire. He and his wife, Lisa, reside in Erin, Wisconsin, along with their daughter, Maggie, and son, Matt.

TEDDY WERNER

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT - BRAND EXPERIENCE

Teddy Werner, 44, enters his 16th season with the Brewers and second under his current title.

Responsible for the team's brand positioning and expansion, Werner manages several aspects of the gameday fan experience, including in-game entertainment and retail. In addition, he assists in various areas of the organization's business affairs with particular attention paid to the relationship with its concessionaire, Delaware North, as well as ballpark improvements and enhancements to American Family Field.

Prior to his current role, Werner managed all aspects of the team's consumer marketing, new media, advertising, branding and creative initiatives from 2014-2019.

In 2012, Werner was named to the "Forty Under 40" list by The Milwaukee Business Journal. He is a board member of the Milwaukee College Preparatory School, the Froedtert Hospital Foundation and the Children's Hospital of Wisconsin Foundation, and he is a co-founder of the Miracle League of Milwaukee.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Werner worked in the National Football League's media relations department (1998-2000) and was a labor and employment associate at Proskauer Rose, LLP in New York (2003-06). He graduated from Yale University in 1998 and from Duke Law School in 2003.

A native of Los Angeles, Teddy resides in Whitefish Bay with his wife, Karin, and children, Isabel, Andy and Nora.

MARTI WRONSKI

GENERAL COUNSEL AND SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT - ADMINISTRATION

Marti Wronski begins her 18th season with the Brewers and fourth in her current role after being promoted in November 2017. She oversees the legal, information technology and human resources departments and, as general counsel, all the organization's legal affairs, including the negotiation and drafting of contracts, trademark and copyright matters, governmental relations and compliance.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Wronski was a member of the Marquette University Law School faculty, where she continues to act as an adjunct professor for both the Law School and MBA programs. In addition, she served as a litigation associate at Foley and Lardner, LLP from 1997-2001.

A native of Neenah, Wisconsin, Wronski graduated summa cum laude from St. Norbert College in 1994 and from the University of Wisconsin Law School with honors in 1997. She received an honorary doctorate from St. Norbert College in 2015.

In June 2006, Wronski was named a "Woman of Influence" by The Milwaukee Business Journal, an honor for women who make a difference in the Milwaukee community and positively influence the people they work with daily. She was also named to the Business Journal's "Forty Under 40" list in 2010 and as one of its "Top Corporate Counsel" members in 2012. In 2016, she received the Joseph E. O'Neill Award from Marquette University Law School, which is given to an individual in the sports industry who has made a significant contribution to the field while exemplifying the highest ethical standards.

Wronski serves on a number of community boards in the Milwaukee area, including Betty Brinn Children's Museum, and is a close associate of Make-A-Wish Wisconsin.

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

Matt Arnold, 42, enters his sixth season with the Brewers and third as senior vice president. He was named the 10th general manager in franchise history on November 19, 2020. He originally joined the organization as vice president and assistant general manager on October 14, 2015.

Arnold assists President of Baseball Operations David Stearns with day-to-day baseball processes and provides functional oversight of all departments within baseball operations. His areas of focus include Major League operations, roster construction, financial planning, staffing and personnel development, contract negotiations and player personnel decisions. He also helps supervise player development, medical operations, integrative sports performance, foreign and domestic scouting and analytics.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Arnold spent nine seasons with the Tampa Bay Rays, assisting then Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations Andrew Friedman and President of Baseball Operations Matt Silverman with player acquisitions, contract negotiations and player evaluations at all levels. His responsibilities also included strategic planning, foreign and domestic special assignments and coordinating advance scouting for the postseason. Additionally, he worked to develop the process of integrating science, biomechanics and human movement analysis within all levels of baseball operations.

Arnold transitioned from the Cincinnati Reds front office to Tampa Bay following the 2006 season as a professional scout. He was promoted to director of professional scouting in November 2009 and to director of player personnel in June 2015. During his time in Tampa Bay, the team won over 90 games in five of six seasons from 2008 and 2013 and qualified for the postseason four times (2008, 2010, 2011 and 2013), including the franchise's first World Series appearance in 2008.

Arnold, who has 20 seasons of professional baseball experience, has also served roles with the Los Angeles Dodgers (2000), Texas Rangers (2002) and Cincinnati Reds (2003-06). In Cincinnati, Arnold served as assistant director of professional scouting with his duties including player analysis, financial planning and arbitration, and he was also involved in advance, amateur and professional scouting.

Originally from California, Arnold graduated from the University of California-Santa Barbara with a bachelor's degree in economics in 2001. He merited academic honors, including Sport Management Student of the Year as a junior.

KARL MUELLER

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT - PLAYER PERSONNEL

Karl Mueller, 41, enters his 18th season with the Brewers and third as senior vice president of player personnel after earning a promotion in June 2019.

In his current role, Mueller assists David Stearns and Matt Arnold in all aspects of baseball operations, including player evaluation, roster construction, contract negotiations, budget planning, administration and staffing. He also oversees the three components of the team's player development apparatus along with baseball systems and research and development.

Mueller began his career with the Brewers as a baseball operations assistant in 2004 before being promoted to roles as coordinator/manager of advance scouting and baseball research (2005-10), director of video scouting and baseball research (2011-15), director of baseball operations (2016-17) and vice president of player personnel (2018-19). Prior to joining the organization, he spent the 2003 season as a baseball operations intern with the Cincinnati Reds.

Mueller graduated from Purdue University in 2002 with a degree in business management and minors in finance and management information systems. He earned a master's degree in sport administration from Xavier University in 2003.

Mueller's grandfather, Edward, played third base in the St. Louis Browns organization for two years following his service in World War II and was a teammate of Don Larsen with the Aberdeen Pheasants in 1947.

Karl and his wife, Emily, reside in Waukesha, Wisconsin, with their three children, Mia, Johnny and Charlotte.

DOUG MELVIN

SPECIAL ASSISTANT - PRESIDENT OF BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Doug Melvin, 67, enters his 18th season with the Brewers and sixth in his current role. He was named the eighth general manager in team history on September 26, 2002, and on August 11, 2015, Melvin and the team announced he would transition into an advisor role following the season.

During his 13-year tenure as general manager, the team had 1,024 regular-season wins and two postseason berths, including a 2011 National League Central Division championship. In 2011, Melvin was named Major League Executive of the Year by Baseball America and Co-Executive of the Year by The Sporting News, along with Detroit's Dave Dombrowski, after the team won a franchise-record 96 games en route to its first division title since 1982.

Under Melvin, the Brewers recorded their first winning season since 1992 in 2007, and the following year, the team earned its first postseason berth in 26 years by capturing the National League Wild Card on the final day of the regular season. On May 8, 2012, the organization announced his promotion to president of baseball operations and general manager along with a contract extension running through the 2015 season.

Melvin spent 20 seasons as a Major League Baseball general manager, the first eight of which were with the Texas Rangers (1994-2001). He was hired in Texas by former President George W. Bush and former United States Ambassador to Japan Tom Schieffer. His tenure with the Rangers featured the franchise's first postseason appearance in 1996 and three American League West Division titles.

Melvin has also served baseball operations roles with the New York Yankees (1979-85) and Baltimore Orioles (1986-94). With the Yankees, he threw batting practice and coordinated advance scouting reports for the coaching staff, later earning a promotion to scouting director in 1985. He and Fred Ferreira were responsible for signing five-time All-Star outfielder Bernie Williams. With the Orioles, he was hired as a special assistant to owner Edward Bennett Williams and President Larry Lucchino beginning in 1986. He became director of player personnel in charge of Minor League operations in November 1987 and was named assistant general manager under Executive Vice President and General Manager Roland Hemond in 1988.

As a player, Melvin pitched six seasons in the minors for the Pittsburgh Pirates (1972-73) and Yankees (1975-78), going 29-19 with a 3.43 ERA in 128 appearances. He signed with Pittsburgh in 1972, and after sitting out the 1974 season with a leg injury, signed with the Yankees (by Pat Gillick) and played four more years.

Highly decorated, Melvin was named American League Executive of the Year by Baseball America in 1996 and Major League Executive of the Year by the same publication in 1998 and 2011. He also earned the same honor from The Sporting News in 1996 and 2011 and was awarded National League Executive of the Year twice by the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum (2008 and 2011). He was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997, the Chatham, Ontario, Sports Hall of Fame in 2000 and the Canadian Baseball Hall of Fame in 2012. In 2018, Melvin was enshrined on the Brewers Wall of Honor.

In 2020, as a member of the National Baseball Hall of Fame's Modern Baseball Era Committee, Melvin helped elect former Brewers catcher Ted Simmons into Cooperstown.

Doug and his wife, Ellen, support breast cancer and research prevention programs in the Milwaukee area. The couple has a daughter, Ashley, who works with the Wounded Warrior Project, and a son, Cory, who is a scout with the Yankees. Cory and his wife, Ellen, have a son named Hudson.

TOM FLANAGAN

VICE PRESIDENT - MINOR LEAGUE OPERATIONS

Tom Flanagan, 48, enters his 32nd season with the Brewers and sixth overseeing the organization's player development department and Minor League operations, including each of the organization's affiliates and the Brewers Baseball Academy in the Dominican Republic.

Flanagan was named to his current role on November 13, 2015, becoming the 10th individual in franchise history tasked with overseeing the team's Minor League operations. After originally joining the organization as a batboy in 1990, he has also held roles as home clubhouse attendant (1993-96), baseball operations assistant (1996-99), assistant director of scouting (2000-05) and senior director of baseball operations (2006-15). In his six years as assistant director of scouting, the Brewers selected at least one future Major League All-Star, including Corey Hart in 2000, J.J. Hardy in 2001, Prince Fielder in 2002, Rickie Weeks in 2003, Yovani Gallardo and Lorenzo Cain in 2004, and Ryan Braun and Michael Brantley in 2005.

Born in Milwaukee, Flanagan graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee with a business administration degree. Tom and his wife, Jennifer, reside in New Berlin, Wisconsin, with their son, Michael, and daughter, Molly.

TOD JOHNSON

VICE PRESIDENT - DOMESTIC SCOUTING

Tod Johnson, 48, enters his 14th season with the Brewers and fifth in his current role after being named to the position in September 2016. In 2019, his role expanded to include the oversight of all domestic scouting operations, covering both amateur and pro players.

Johnson spent the six seasons prior (2011-16) as assistant director of amateur scouting, assisting with scheduling, information gathering and analysis in addition to scouting players for the amateur draft. He also worked with the baseball research and development department to set the direction for the usage of data and technology in the baseball operations department.

Johnson previously spent the 2007-09 seasons as director of application development prior to departing Milwaukee for the 2010 season to serve as a baseball systems architect for the San Diego Padres. He has also held roles with Microsoft Corporation (2002-07), Epiphany Software, Inc. (2000-02) and Hewlett Packard (1995-2000).

A native of Turlock, California, Johnson graduated from California Polytechnic State University-San Luis Obispo, where he played on the baseball team, with a bachelor's degree in business with a concentration in management information systems in 1994. He later earned a master's degree in business administration from the University of California-Davis in 2000.

Tod, his wife, Tricia, and their daughter, Alayna, currently reside in Elm Grove, Wisconsin. Their oldest daughter, Eva, is a freshman at the University of Washington.

MATT KLEINE

VICE PRESIDENT - BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Matt Kleine, 35, enters his 15th season with the Brewers and second as vice president of baseball operations. Upon earning the promotion to his current role, Kleine works directly with David Stearns, Matt Arnold and Karl Mueller, overseeing roster construction, player evaluation, contract negotiation, and administration of the department's strategic initiatives. He also leads the team's salary arbitration practice, manages Major League payroll forecasting, directs the department's internship program, and is responsible for the team's procedural compliance with Major League Baseball rules.

Kleine joined the organization as an associate scout in 2007, a position he held until 2009. He has also served roles as baseball operations and amateur scouting intern (2009-11), baseball operations assistant (2011-2013), coordinator of advance scouting and baseball contracts (2013-14), manager of baseball operations (2014-17), and director of baseball operations (2018-19). Kleine also held positions with Baseball Prospectus and the Houston Astros prior to his arrival in Milwaukee.

Kleine graduated cum laude from DePauw University in 2008, where he was a four-year letterwinner and captain of the 2008 baseball team, which still holds the school record for wins and winning percentage. He finished his collegiate career as the program's all-time leader in RBI and was a three-time team MVP and All-Conference outfielder. He later earned his Juris Doctor from Marquette University Law School in 2011 and obtained his certification in sports law from the National Sports Law Institute while at Marquette.

Matt and his wife, Samantha, reside in Mequon, Wisconsin with their son, Cooper.

QUINTON MCCRACKEN

SPECIAL ASSISTANT – BASEBALL OPERATIONS/PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Quinton McCracken, 50, enters his first season in the Brewers front office.

Prior to joining the Brewers, McCracken returned to his home state of North Carolina in 2019-20 as the first base and outfield coach with the Durham Bulls, the Triple-A affiliate of the Tampa Bay Rays.

He spent the 2018 season as the baserunning and outfield coordinator with the Miami Marlins, and previously served in the front office with the Arizona Diamondbacks and Houston Astros.

Selected by the Colorado Rockies in the 25th round of the 1992 First-Year Player Draft out of Duke University, McCracken spent 12 seasons in the Major Leagues with Colorado (1995-97), Tampa Bay (1998-00), Minnesota (2001), Arizona (2002-03, 04-05), Seattle (2004) and Cincinnati (2006). He finished with a career .274 batting average in 999 Major League games.

McCracken was a teammate of Brewers manager Craig Counsell in Colorado (1995) and Arizona (2002-03, 05).

Quinton and his wife, Maggie, reside in Katy, Texas with their son, Isaiah.

CARLOS VILLANUEVA

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER/PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Carlos Villanueva, 37, enters his fourth season in the Brewers front office. He contributes in various levels of the organization from the Dominican Summer League to the Major League club, mainly focusing on baseball operations, implementation of player plans, and player development.

A former pitcher, Villanueva played 16 seasons of professional baseball after signing with the San Francisco Giants in March 2002, including parts of 11 campaigns in the majors. He was acquired by the Brewers from San Francisco in March 2004, went on to make his Major League debut with the team in 2006, and remained in Milwaukee through the 2010 season.

In 476 career appearances (76 starts) with the Brewers (2006-10), Toronto Blue Jays (2011-12), Chicago Cubs (2013-14), St. Louis Cardinals (2015) and San Diego Padres (2016), Villanueva went 51-55 with a 4.31 ERA. He finished his playing career with the Hanwha Eagles of the Korean Baseball Organization in 2017.

After being selected in the third round of the 2004 Dominican Winter League draft, Villanueva pitched for Águilas Cibaeñas during his professional career.

Carlos, his wife, Arianna, and their sons, Carlos Jr. and David, currently split time living between Cooper City, Florida and Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic.

DAN LARREA

SENIOR DIRECTOR - TEAM TRAVEL AND CLUBHOUSE OPERATIONS

Dan Larrea enters his 26th season with the Brewers and ninth in his current position after being promoted in October 2012. He spent the previous 16 seasons (1997-2012) as director of team travel and is considered the second Latino traveling secretary in Major League Baseball history.

Larrea is responsible for coordinating all phases of travel logistics for the team's players, coaches and front office staff, including all Spring Training arrangements in Phoenix, Arizona. This includes arranging hotel rooms, ground transportation, air travel, baggage transportation, game tickets and per diems for Spring Training, the regular season and postseason. He also oversees the home and visiting clubhouse and equipment staff.

In 2013, Larrea earned the Major League Baseball Traveling Secretary of the Year Award, presented by the Marriott/Ritz-Carlton Hotels, as voted on by all 30 teams. He originally joined the organization in 1996 in the media relations department.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Larrea was a graduate intern in the Denver Broncos media relations department in 1995. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in political science from the University of California-Santa Barbara in 1992, where he played rugby and was selected to the Southern California Collegiate All-Star Team. He later earned his master's degree in sport management from the University of Massachusetts in 1995.

In October 2014, Larrea was selected as liaison officer by the New Zealand All Blacks national rugby team for their historic match against the United States at Soldier Field. An avid soccer fan, he is also currently a shareholder in Real Oviedo of the Spanish Segunda Division B League.

Dan and his wife, Stacy, reside in Mequon, Wisconsin with their twins, Isabella and Jacob.

WILL HUDGINS

DIRECTOR - BASEBALL SYSTEMS

Will Hudgins enters his fifth season with the Brewers after being named to his current position in August 2018. He joined the organization in July 2016 and previously held roles as architect of baseball systems and developer of baseball systems.

Hudgins leads a team of systems developers in building internal baseball operations software, working with all departments across baseball operations, including coaching, scouting, medical and executive leadership. The department partners closely with baseball research and development to build out internal data sets that are widely used across baseball operations.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Hudgins worked as a software engineer for The Tie Bar, Razorfish and Accenture Interactive.

Hudgins graduated with a bachelor's degree in information systems in 2012 from the University of Notre Dame, where he was a four-year letter winner as a right-handed pitcher, including serving as team captain as a senior. He was named team MVP and Second Team All-Big East after his senior season.

Following his collegiate career, Hudgins was drafted in the 22nd round of the 2012 First-Year Player Draft by the Washington Nationals. He pitched two seasons in the Nationals system with the GCL Nationals, Auburn Doubledays and Hagerstown Suns.

Will currently lives in Whitefish Bay, Wisconsin with his wife, Molly, and their daughter, Hadley.

DAN TURKENKOPF

DIRECTOR - BASEBALL RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

Dan Turkenkopf enters his sixth season with the Brewers after being named to his current position in November 2015. He oversees a team of analysts conducting baseball research projects supporting player evaluation, amateur scouting, player development and the medical department.

Turkenkopf previously worked with the Tampa Bay Rays from 2013-15 as developer of baseball systems. In that role, he designed applications to convey information to the baseball operations staff, coaches and players, and evaluated potential roster transactions.

In addition to his work in the front office, Turkenkopf has been active in the public analysis space since 2008, writing for Baseball Prospectus, The Hardball Times and Beyond the Box Score. While with Baseball Prospectus, he helped author a book entitled Extra Innings: More Baseball Between the Numbers.

Outside of baseball, Turkenkopf has held positions as senior director of strategic research for Apprenda, a cloud software startup, and as a solutions architect with IBM. He graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in 2001 with bachelor's degrees in economics and mathematics.

He currently lives in Saratoga Springs, New York with his wife, Morgan, and twins, Ryan and Juliet.

ROGER CAPLINGER

VICE PRESIDENT - MEDICAL OPERATIONS, HEALTH AND SAFETY

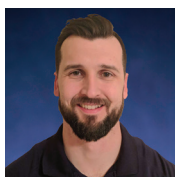

Roger Caplinger, 54, enters his 31st season with the Brewers and ninth in his current position. He oversees all medical operations, which include player health and psychological services. In addition, Caplinger oversees all health and safety initiatives for the organization. The player health medical departments partner with player development and player performance to have a comprehensive player-centric model for development of all athletes.

Caplinger is responsible for all workers' compensation processing and budgeting for the organization's medical staff as well as the oversight of an emergency response team, OSHA plan and AED program at American Family Field, American Family Fields of Phoenix and the Carolina Mudcats. Since 2009, Caplinger has served as the chairman for the Major League Baseball Electronic Medical Records (EMR) Committee.

Prior to his current role, Caplinger served as Minor League medical coordinator (1995-97), assistant athletic trainer (1998-2001) and head athletic trainer (2002-11). He was a part of a group that was named Major League Baseball Athletic Training Staff of the Year in 2011, and in his time as head athletic trainer, the medical staff was presented the Dick Martin Award by Baseball Prospectus as the top medical staff in all of baseball in 2005. In both 2014 and 2015, the team's medical staff was honored with the Martin-Monahan Award for Best Medical Staff in Major League Baseball by Rotowire.

Caplinger, a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association, the Wisconsin Athletic Trainers' Association and the Arizona Athletic Trainers' Association, is a licensed athletic trainer in both the state of Wisconsin and Arizona. He graduated from the Metropolitan State University of Denver in 1991.

Roger and his wife, Jackie, reside in Menomonee Falls, Wisconsin. His children are Kyle, Gabrielle, Brett and Ryan.

BLAIR BUNDY

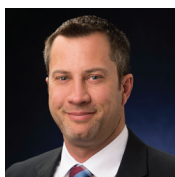

DIRECTOR - PLAYER HEALTH

Blair Bundy enters his fourth season with the Brewers and first in his current role. He currently oversees the athletic training and rehabilitation departments after spending the previous three seasons serving as rehabilitation coordinator.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Bundy worked at the Houston Methodist Center for Orthopedics and Sports Medicine as a clinician and faculty member in the sports physical therapy residency program.

Bundy graduated from Texas A&M University with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology in 2009 and earned his doctorate in physical therapy from UT Southwestern in 2012.

Blair currently resides in Phoenix, Arizona with his wife, Lauren, and sons, Beau and Walker.

MATT KRUG

MAJOR LEAGUE SPORTS PSYCHOLOGIST

Matt Krug, 46, enters his 16th season with the Brewers and 11th in his current role. He joined the organization in 2006 as a sports psychology consultant.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Krug worked with IMG Academies in Bradenton, Florida, and has served as the owner of the Midwest Institute of Performance in Brookfield. He has also worked as an assistant professor of psychology at Wisconsin Lutheran College.

Krug graduated with a bachelor's degree in psychology from Wisconsin Lutheran College in 1997 and earned master's degrees from San Diego State University and Marquette University in 2000. He most recently received his doctorate in counseling psychology from Marquette University in 2012.

Matt and his wife, Anne, reside in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin, with their daughters, Elise and Clara.

SCOTT BARRINGER

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Scott Barringer enters his third season with the Brewers as head athletic trainer after being named to the position on November 19, 2018.

Barringer joined the Brewers from the Houston Astros, where he spent 2016 as Minor League medical coordinator and 2017-18 as assistant athletic trainer. In 2017, he was a part of a group that was named Major League Baseball Athletic Training Staff of the Year, an award that is presented by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS) and voted on by training staffs from throughout the league.

Barringer spent five seasons as a Minor League athletic trainer with the Arizona Diamondbacks (2011-12) and Chicago Cubs (2013-15). He spent one season each with Arizona as the athletic trainer at Rookie Missoula (2011) and Class-A Visalia (2012) prior to joining the Cubs, where he was an athletic trainer at Double-A Tennessee (2013) and Triple-A Iowa (2014-15). Additionally, he served as an athletic trainer in the Arizona Fall League with the Mesa Solar Sox in 2013.

Barringer graduated from East Stroudsburg University with a bachelor's degree in athletic training in 2009 and earned his master's degree in athletic training from East Carolina University in 2011, where he began his career as a graduate assistant athletic trainer (2009-11).

Scott and his wife, Lindsey, reside in Brookfield, Wisconsin.

DAVE YEAGER

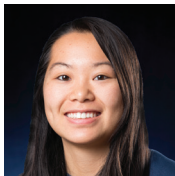

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Dave Yeager enters his 17th season with the Brewers and 10th in his current role. He previously spent time as an athletic trainer at Double-A Huntsville (2005-09) — where he was named Southern League Athletic Trainer of the Year in 2007 — and Triple-A Nashville (2010-11).

In both 2014 and 2015, Yeager was a part of a group that was honored with the Martin-Monahan Award for Best Medical Staff in Major League Baseball by Rotowire.

Yeager graduated from Auburn University with a bachelor's degree in exercise science in 1994 and received his master's degree in physical education from Jacksonville State University in 1997.

Dave and his wife, Wendy, reside in Athens, Alabama with their two sons, Duke and Seth.

THERESA LAU

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER/PHYSICAL THERAPIST

Theresa Lau enters her fourth season with the Brewers and first as an assistant athletic trainer/physical therapist. She joined the organization as Minor League physical therapist in February 2018 and was promoted to rehabilitation coordinator in 2020.

Lau began her career in baseball with the Boston Red Sox in 2017 as a Minor League assistant athletic trainer with their Gulf Coast League affiliate and also provided rehabilitative treatment across the Minor League system in Fort Myers, Florida.

She is dual credentialed, earning her bachelor's degree in athletic training and doctorate in physical therapy from Ithaca College. Lau is also a certified orthopedic manual therapist and a certified strength and conditioning specialist.

Theresa enjoys outdoor activities and currently resides in Phoenix, Arizona.

JOSH SELIGMAN
STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING SPECIALIST

Josh Seligman enters his 11th season with the Brewers as a strength and conditioning specialist. He joined the organization after spending seven seasons (2004-10) with the Florida Marlins as Minor League strength and conditioning coordinator and assistant rehab athletic trainer.

Seligman was part of a group that earned the Martin-Monahan Award for Best Medical Staff in Major League Baseball by Rotawire in 2014 and 2015. In 2019, he was voted as the official strength coach for the National League at the All-Star Game. In 2005, while with the Marlins, he was voted the organization's Athletic Trainer/Strength Coach of the Year.

Seligman graduated with a bachelor's degree in exercise science from Willamette University in 1998. He later earned dual master's degrees in kinesiology (2003) and sports nutrition (2004) from the University of Hawaii, where he was an athletic training graduate assistant with the athletics department from 2001-04.

Josh resides in Pewaukee, Wisconsin with his wife, Michelle, daughter, Sage, and son, Noah.

JASON MEREDITH
STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING SPECIALIST/PERFORMANCE STRATEGIST

Jason Meredith enters his fifth season with the Brewers as strength and conditioning specialist. He joined the organization after seven seasons (2009-16) with the Philadelphia Phillies.

With Philadelphia, Meredith served roles as an intern at Double-A Reading (2009), strength and conditioning coach at Triple-A Lehigh Valley (2011-13) and Minor League strength and conditioning coordinator (2014-16). Prior to joining the Phillies, he spent 2010 as the strength and conditioning coach at Double-A Trenton in the New York Yankees organization.

Meredith graduated from Iowa State University with a bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science — athletic training in 2005 and earned his master's degree in applied physiology and kinesiology from the University of Florida in 2007. While attending Iowa State, he spent the 2004 summer as an athletic training intern with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Jason and his wife, Christina, reside in Chandler, Arizona with their daughter, Isabella, and son, Alexander.

BREWERS IN THE COMMUNITY

BREWERS COMMUNITY FOUNDATION, INC.

Brewers Community Foundation, Inc. is the official charitable arm of the Milwaukee Brewers Baseball Club. We are proud to give back to our community in many ways. Brewers Community Foundation harnesses the pride, passion and commitment of Brewers fans, players and other supporters to positively impact the lives of children and families in Greater Milwaukee and Wisconsin. The Foundation seeks to be thoughtful and dependable philanthropic leaders actively engaged in providing needed financial support consistent with our mission.

BREWERS COMMUNITY FOUNDATION 50/50 RAFFLE

Tickets for the 50/50 Raffle are sold throughout American Family Field from gate opening through the fourth inning of every home game. One lucky fan will take home half of the net proceeds from the game's raffle ticket sales, with the other half benefiting Brewers Community Foundation. The winning ticket will be announced in the middle of the sixth inning, before the Johnsonville™ Famous Sausage Race, and the winner will have until the middle of the seventh inning to claim his/her prize at the 50/50 information table. If the prize goes unclaimed, another ticket will be drawn and announced. Last year, the Foundation helped more than 200 local nonprofit organizations provide quality programming in the areas of health, education, recreation and basic needs. For the winning raffle number and amount, call the 50/50 Raffle hotline at (414) 902-4334.

BREWERS COMMUNITY FOUNDATION DRIVE FOR CHARITY

During select homestands throughout the season, Brewers Community Foundation invites fans to drop off items or make a donation of $10 to help those in need. As a thank you for contributing, fans receive a collectible Brewers pin. The donated items are distributed to nonprofit organizations in Greater Milwaukee. This year, the dates include:

- May 4-6: non-perishable food items
- July 9-11: toiletry items
- August 6-8: school supplies
- September 17-19: new hats, mittens and scarves

The presenting sponsors of the Drive for Charity events are the Brewers Community Foundation Leadership Council. To learn more, visit brewers.com/bcf.

BCF WEEK

Brewers Community Foundation will host its 13th annual BCF Week from August 20-26, 2021. The week will feature activities during each game that raise funds to support children and their families in Greater Milwaukee and Wisconsin. From merchandise sales to games, there's something for everyone.

The presenting sponsors of BCF Week are the Brewers Community Foundation Leadership Council. To learn more, visit brewers.com/bcf.

ULTIMATE AUCTION/GIVE LIKE A PRO FAN PACKS

Fans can get involved and support BCF by bidding on unique experiences in the annual online Ultimate Auction or by purchasing special Give Like a Pro fan packs from June 1-16.

The presenting sponsors of the Ultimate Auction are the Brewers Community Foundation Leadership Council. To learn more, visit brewers.com/bcf.

SCOREBOARD RECOGNITION PROGRAM

Fans can purchase either a full scoreboard message or single-line shared message during a game at American Family Field through Brewers Community Foundation’s Scoreboard Recognition program. To reserve a message, visit brewers.com/scoreboard.

CHAMPIONS FOR CHANGE SCOREBOARD MESSAGES

Before select 2021 Brewers home games, messages detailing the work of organizations Brewers Community Foundation supports will be featured on the American Family Field scoreboard. Accordingly, fans will learn about the fantastic work being done by hundreds of nonprofits in our community, aided by the funds raised by BCF.

GRANT REQUESTS

Brewers Community Foundation provides a significant number of grants each year to nonprofit organizations. Our funding efforts strategically extend financial support to nonprofits that provide quality programming in the areas of health, education, recreation and basic needs, with a particular focus on low income and disadvantaged youth and their families. Grants are generally limited up to $10,000 for Wisconsin-based organizations. All grant applications are to be submitted online. For further information and the online application, please go to brewers.com/bcf.

BREWERS BUDDIES TICKET PROGRAM

In 2019, more than 68,000 complimentary game tickets were distributed to youth groups and community organizations through the Brewers Buddies ticket program. The program is made possible through the generosity of season seat holders, ownership, players, sponsors and Commissioner Emeritus Bud Selig, who provides game tickets to Brewers Community Foundation for distribution to community groups. For information about participation in this program, call (414) 902-4625.

5K FAMOUS RACING SAUSAGES™ RUN/WALK

On July 17, Brewers Community Foundation will be hosting the 23rd annual 5K Famous Racing Sausages Run/Walk. Held rain or shine, this event is a summer tradition for thousands of Brewers fans of all ages. The Run/Walk features unique opportunities to compete against the Johnsonville Famous Racing Sausages and follow the route onto the American Family Field warning track before enjoying a tailgate party with complimentary food and beverage. Each participant receives a commemorative t-shirt, ticket voucher for a future Brewers game and more. Proceeds benefit Brewers Community Foundation and Fisher House Wisconsin, a “home away from home” for families of veterans being treated at Clement J. Zablocki VA Medical Center.

The presenting sponsors of the 5K Famous Racing Sausages Run/Walk are the Brewers Community Foundation Leadership Council members. To learn more, visit brewers.com/5k.

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMS

Brewers Community Foundation is proud to offer three scholarship programs to Wisconsin students. Applications may be submitted online from January through March. For more information and the online application, visit brewers.com/bcf. In 2020, 25 Wisconsin students received scholarships toward their college education through Brewers Community Foundation.

The Allan H. Selig Scholarship Program was created in the name of former Brewers President and Commissioner of Baseball Allan H. (Bud) Selig. Funding for the scholarships is the result of proceeds donated by Major League Baseball from the All-Star Workout Day, part of the 2002 All-Star festivities held at Miller Park. Selected candidates will receive $2,500 annually, renewable each year for a total of $10,000 over four years.

The Players/Coaches Scholarship Program is made possible thanks to Milwaukee Brewers players’ and coaches’ commitment to educational opportunities for youth. This scholarship is a one-year award that varies in amounts from season to season for students who plan to attend or are currently attending a college or university in Wisconsin.

The Community Scholarship Program provided its first award in 2013. Eligible applicants must be a minority or female student residing in either Milwaukee, Waukesha, Ozaukee, Washington or Racine County. Applicants must also be students pursuing studies in a design or construction-related field at a technical college or a college or university in the state of Wisconsin. Scholarship awards will be of varying amounts based on need.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

The Brewers Community Relations Department is committed to supporting many events and activities throughout the state of Wisconsin. The Club is pleased to give back to dedicated fans who have supported the Brewers throughout the years.

Many charities, educational groups, youth groups and nonprofit organizations raise hundreds of thousands of dollars through the support of players and auction items provided by the Milwaukee Brewers. By supporting charitable causes, the Brewers, including players, coaches, Brewers Wives and front office staff, will continue exercising a pledge to be an active member in the community and help improve the welfare of people throughout the region.

BEYOND THE DIAMOND

Beyond the Diamond is a series of community outreach events that take place during the season involving players, coaches, Brewers Wives, alumni and team personnel working hands-on in the community. The community events are funded in part by Brewers Community Foundation and focus on the areas of health, education, recreation and basic needs.

DONATION REQUESTS

The Brewers receive thousands of requests annually to assist local nonprofit organizations, community and civic groups with in-kind donations for fundraising events. Being an active and contributing member of our community, it is very important to us to make every effort to accommodate requests within our region. In our continuing efforts to "Go Green," we no longer accept written letters or fax donation requests. All donation requests must be submitted online at brewers.com/donations.

REVIVING BASEBALL IN INNER CITIES

Reviving Baseball in the Inner Cities (RBI) is a youth baseball program operated by Major League Baseball that began more than 20 years ago in Los Angeles. The Brewers have joined other Major League teams in the continuing effort to bring baseball to inner-city youth, ages 9-17. Brewers RBI teams have made it to regional competitions with the support of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee and funding from Brewers Community Foundation.

RBI ATHLETE OF THE MONTH

Each month, an athlete who is enrolled in the Brewers RBI Program (Reviving Baseball in the Inner Cities) will be recognized for his/her dedication to academics, community involvement, leadership, reliability and monthly performance. RBI coaches can nominate their RBI Athlete of the Month online at brewers.com.

BREWERS ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Brewers Alumni Association consists of over 600 players who were members of the Milwaukee Brewers or the Club's forefathers, the Seattle Pilots, during their Major League career. The Association aims to provide an opportunity for the Club's alumni to maintain relationships with former teammates, the organization and Brewers fans.

BREWERS WIVES

Brewers Wives play an important role in our community outreach efforts with their commitment to several important causes. Each summer, the wives team up with Brewers Community Foundation to raise funds through a number of special events with proceeds earmarked for various organizations in Greater Milwaukee and Wisconsin. Several of the wives, along with their husbands, also support area children with game tickets, food vouchers and donations to youth groups.

BREWERS ON DECK

Brewers On Deck is the team's annual fan fest and season preview. Families can enjoy a day full of interactive games, clinics and autographs from players along with a Brewers Community Foundation Treasure Hunt, which features game-worn jerseys, game-used equipment and other memorabilia. All proceeds from the sale go toward Brewers Community Foundation youth recreation and education programs.

BREWERS COMMUNITY ACHIEVERS

The Brewers Community Achievers program recognizes volunteers, philanthropists and other heroes from our community who have helped their neighborhoods in extraordinary ways. The winners of the award receive four game tickets, on-field acknowledgment, a personalized jersey and the opportunity to throw out the ceremonial first pitch. Winners also receive a Community Achievers certificate and a gift bag filled with Brewers memorabilia.

GRAND SLAM TEACHER PROGRAM

The Milwaukee Brewers are proud to announce the Grand Slam Teacher of the Month Program, recognizing teachers from all grade levels and disciplines who improve student achievement, use innovative strategies in the classroom and make a difference in the lives of their students. Monthly winners will receive four game tickets to a pre-selected game, on-field acknowledgment and the opportunity to throw out a ceremonial first pitch prior to the game, along with a Grand Slam Teacher certificate, a gift bag filled with Brewers memorabilia and a monetary donation will be made to help cover some of their classroom costs.

NELLIE GLOBAL AWARD

The Nellie Global Award will be presented annually to a Wisconsin resident who has made significant and meaningful contributions to society on a global scale. The award is in honor of former Brewers coach and broadcaster Davey Nelson, who was a dedicated board member, supporter and contributor to Open Arms Home for Children in South Africa, an organization that provides care and a home-like environment to children who have been orphaned by the AIDS pandemic. Any U.S. resident has the opportunity to nominate a Wisconsin resident for the Nellie Global Award. Individuals may recommend someone who has made a positive contribution impacting the lives of people around the globe.

COACHES AND PLAYERS

FRONT OFFICE

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT AND SCOUTING

Ethan Small made his debut in the Brewers system in 2019 after being selected in the first round of the 2019 First-Year Player Draft, posting a 0.86 ERA in seven starts between the Rookie Arizona Brewers and Class-A Wisconsin.

TOM FLANAGAN

VICE PRESIDENT - MINOR LEAGUE OPERATIONS

Tom Flanagan, 48, enters his 32nd season with the Brewers and sixth overseeing the organization's player development department and Minor League operations, including each of the organization's affiliates and the Brewers Baseball Academy in the Dominican Republic.

Flanagan's full bio can be found on page 14.

EDUARDO BRIZUELA

SENIOR DIRECTOR - MINOR LEAGUE AND PLAYER OPERATIONS

Eduardo Brizuela, 34, begins his 13th year with the Brewers and sixth in his current role.

Brizuela joined the organization as an advance scouting intern in 2009 and spent three years each as coordinator of administration for Latin America operations (2010-12) and as director of Latin America operations/scouting (2013-15). He was named assistant farm director in 2016, director of Minor League operations in 2019 and senior director Minor Leagues and players operations in 2020.

Brizuela, who is based out of the team's complex in Phoenix, Arizona, works in conjunction with Tom Flanagan on the oversight of the organization's player development system, roster management, player acquisition and the execution of player plans. He also oversees the Phoenix and Dominican Republic-based baseball operations.

Brizuela has helped the Brewers establish a presence in Latin America with the expansion of the Latin America scouting department and the Dominican Republic Academy — where he is responsible for the day-to-day operations as well as the implementation of the player development program from the United States.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Brizuela served as an assistant coach for Polk Community College (2007-08). He graduated with a bachelor's degree in business management from Webber International University in 2008.

Eduardo, his wife, Yelixa, and their three sons, David, Luca and Alec, reside in Phoenix, Arizona.

JAKE MCKINLEY

DIRECTOR - PLAYER DEVELOPMENT INITIATIVES

Jake McKinley, 36, is entering his third year with the Brewers and his second in his current role overseeing player development initiatives, including development and training strategies. He spent the 2019 season as the organization's Minor League pitching coordinator.

Prior to joining the Brewers, McKinley was head coach at William Jessup University in 2018, where he was named Golden State Athletic Conference Coach of the Year. He also served as head coach at Menlo College from 2014-17, where he had four of his players drafted, including Brewers prospect Lucas Erceg. In 2016, he was recognized as MLB Scouts Northern California College Coach of the Year.

McKinley began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Bethany University in 2007. He has also spent time as an assistant coach at Campbellsville University (2007-09) and at California State University, Sacramento (2010-13) and served as pitching coach at West Valley College from 2009-10.

McKinley graduated from Bethany University with a bachelor's degree in speech communications in 2006 and later earned his master's degree in social science from Campbellsville University in 2009. Jake resides in Phoenix, Arizona.

BRYSON NAKAMURA
DIRECTOR - PLAYER PERFORMANCE

Bryson Nakamura, 32, enters his sixth season with the Brewers and first in his current position. Nakamura joined the organization as a medical operations intern in 2016. Following the 2017 season, the integrative sports performance department was formed, creating a department that aims to leverage innovative sport science processes and technologies to put the Brewers at the forefront of data-driven methods to enhance player development.

Nakamura now oversees both ISP and Minor League strength and conditioning as a part of the player development staff.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Nakamura was a sport science intern with the Tampa Bay Rays while completing his doctorate in neuromechanics at the University of Oregon. At Oregon, he was advised by Dr. Michael Hahn of the Bowerman Sports Science Clinic, where his primary research focused on gait characteristics of lower-extremity amputees, but his clinical work focused on the assessment of biomechanical and physiological performance factors for high-level distance runners. He graduated with a bachelor's degree from the University of Puget Sound in 2012, where his primary research area was on footwear product design.

Nakamura is a member of the American Society of Biomechanics, International Society of Biomechanics in Sport, American College of Sports Medicine, and is VP of Conferences and Meetings for the American Baseball Biomechanics Society.

AUGUST FAGERSTROM
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR - PLAYER DEVELOPMENT INITIATIVES

August Fagerstrom, 29, enters his fifth season with the Brewers and first in his current position after being promoted in November 2020. He joined the organization in 2016 as a baseball operations intern and worked as an assistant and analyst in baseball operations from 2017-19 before being named coordinator of player personnel in March 2019. He joined player development in January 2020 as coordinator of player development initiatives.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Fagerstrom was a national baseball writer at FanGraphs and also held writing positions with MLB.com and the Akron Beacon Journal.

Fagerstrom graduated from Kent State University with a bachelor's degree in applied communication and journalism.

MARK MUELLER
SENIOR MANAGER - BASEBALL ADMINISTRATION

Mark Mueller, 39, is entering his 19th year with the Brewers and fourth as senior manager of baseball administration. He spent the previous seven years as manager of Minor League operations.

Mueller joined the Brewers as an amateur scouting intern in 2003 and was named assistant to player development later that year. After three years in that role, he was promoted to coordinator of administration and player development in 2006.

Mueller creates and oversees the operating budget for the player development department, handles the day-to-day administration for the department and manages the visa and immigration process for the entire baseball operations department. In addition, he coordinates the organization's Minor League operations throughout Spring Training and directs travel arrangements for all Minor League transactions.

Mueller, a native of Janesville, Wisconsin, graduated from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse with a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science with a sport management emphasis in 2003. Mark currently resides in Waukesha, Wisconsin.

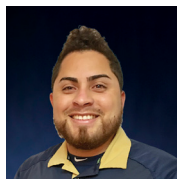

MANUEL VARGAS
COORDINATOR - LATIN AMERICA OPERATIONS

Manuel Vargas, 33, enters his ninth season with the Brewers. He is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the Dominican Republic Academy and the administration of Latin America operations.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Vargas served as an international baseball operations intern for the Major League Baseball office in the Dominican Republic. He earned his bachelor's degree in business management and his master's degree in project management from Pontificia Universidad Católica Madre y Maestra. Manuel, his wife, Hilenes, and their son, Manuel, reside in Santo Domingo.

CHARLIE GREENE FIELD COORDINATOR AND CATCHING INSTRUCTOR

Charlie Greene, 50, enters his 16th season with the Brewers as catching instructor and 15th as field coordinator. As a catching instructor, he oversees and evaluates the organization's catchers while working closely with each affiliate coaching staff.

Greene was selected by the San Diego Padres in the 19th round of the 1991 First-Year Player Draft and reached the majors with the New York Mets in 1996. He spent parts of five seasons in the majors, also playing for the Baltimore Orioles (1997-98), Brewers (1999) and Toronto Blue Jays (2000), prior to spending the last three in the minors with San Diego (2001), Atlanta Braves (2001), Florida Marlins (2002) and Tampa Bay Devil Rays (2003).

Greene's father, Charlie Sr., is one of the most well-known college coaches, having served as head coach at Miami-Dade Community College from 1968-96 and with Team USA in 1988 and 1989.

Charlie and his family reside in Tallahassee, Florida.

BOB MISCIK INFIELD COORDINATOR

Bob Miscik, 62, begins his 13th season with the Brewers and 11th in his current role. He previously held roles in the organization as manager at Class-A Brevard County in 2010 and Double-A Huntsville in 2009. He served as a coach for the All-Star Futures Game in St. Louis in 2009.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Miscik was the Minor League field coordinator for the Cincinnati Reds in 2005. He held the same position with the Texas Rangers from 1997-2002 and also served as Texas' player development coordinator from 2003-04 and manager at Class-A Charlotte in 2000, leading the team to a 58-43 (.574) record after taking over on May 15.

Prior to his tenure with the Rangers, Miscik managed at four different affiliates across six seasons in the Baltimore Orioles organization, including Class-A Kane County (1991), Class-A Frederick (1992), Triple-A Rochester (1993-94) and Double-A Bowie (1995-96). He began his coaching career with Baltimore as Class-A Frederick's hitting coach in 1990.

A former infielder, Miscik played nine seasons in the Pittsburgh Pirates (1980-86) and California Angels (1987-88) systems. Bob resides in Venice, Florida, with his daughter, Natalie.

CAM CASTRO PITCHING COORDINATOR

Cam Castro, 30, enters his third season with the Brewers and second in his current role in which he oversees, develops and implements the pitching development philosophies throughout the organization's farm system. He spent 2019 as the pitching coach for the Class-A Carolina Mudcats.

Castro joined the organization after two plus years as head coach at Lake Erie College (2017-18). He has previously held coaching roles with Defiance College (2012-15) and Augustana University (2016), and worked as a trainer at Driveline Baseball, the data-driven training facility in Kent, Washington. He also spent the summers of 2014-15 as an assistant coach with the Lakeshore Chinooks.

Castro earned his bachelor's degree from Lake Erie College in 2012 and his master's degree from Defiance College in 2014. Cam, his wife Mallory, and their daughter reside in Amherst, Ohio.

BRYAN LESLIE ASSISTANT PITCHING COORDINATOR

Bryan Leslie, 29, enters his second season with the Brewers as assistant pitching coordinator. He spent the previous three years at Driveline Baseball Enterprises, Inc., including roles as throwing trainer (2017-19) and manager of pitching (2019).

Leslie previously spent time as an EMT (2016) and as a medical scribe manager (2014-15) after graduating from Knox College with a bachelor's degree in neuroscience and a minor in Spanish in 2014. Bryan resides in Phoenix, Arizona.

JUNIOR SPIVEY

COORDINATOR - BASEBALL DIVERSITY INITIATIVES

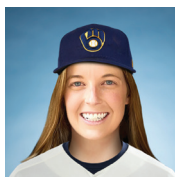

Junior Spivey, 46, begins his first season in the Brewers organization as coordinator of baseball diversity initiatives.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Spivey was a manager with Perfect Game USA, managing the All-American West team in 2020 and the U13 Select team in 2019-20. He also managed and coached with Major League Baseball's Breakthrough Series and Hank Aaron Invitational.

Spivey was selected by the Arizona Diamondbacks in the 36th round of the 1996 First-Year Player Draft out of Cowley County Community College. He made his Major League debut in 2001 with the Diamondbacks and went on to play five seasons with Arizona, the Milwaukee Brewers and Washington Nationals from 2001-05. He was named a National League All-Star in 2002, hitting .301 with 16 home runs and 78 RBI in 143 games with the Diamondbacks.

Acquired by Milwaukee in an eight-player trade in December 2003, Spivey spent 2004-05 with the Brewers. He finished his professional career in 2009.

Junior, his wife, Tabitha, and their children, Tré and Kingston, reside in Chandler, Arizona.

SARA GOODRUM

COORDINATOR - HITTING DEVELOPMENT INITIATIVES

Sara Goodrum, 27, begins her fifth season in the Brewers organization and first in her current role in which she oversees the organization's hitting development.

Goodrum joined the organization as an intern in April 2017 working out of the Spring Training complex in Arizona before being promoted to coordinator of integrative sports performance in November 2017.

A four-year letterwinner on the softball team, Goodrum graduated from the University of Oregon with a bachelor's degree in human physiology. While at Oregon, she served as an undergraduate research assistant at the Bowerman Sports Science Clinic. She earned her master's degree in exercise and sports science from the University of Utah, while also interning at EXDS, an athlete training facility in Phoenix.

A native of Mesa, Arizona, Sara resides in Gilbert, Arizona.

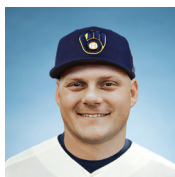

BRENTON DEL CHIARO

ASSISTANT HITTING COORDINATOR - ARIZONA OPERATIONS

Brenton Del Chiaro, 41, begins his fifth season in the Brewers organization and second in his current role. In addition to serving as hitting coach for the Arizona Brewers, he will also coordinate all Arizona-based hitting programs during extended spring training, rehab and throughout the offseason. He has spent each year in the system as hitting coach for the team's Rookie-level affiliate in Arizona.

Prior to joining the organization, Del Chiaro spent the previous nine seasons (2008-16) with the Los Angeles Angels organization. This included roles as a coach at Rookie Orem (2008), hitting coach (2009-10) and manager (2011) at Class-A Cedar Rapids, manager at Rookie Arizona (2012), hitting coach at Class-A Inland Empire (2013-15) and hitting coach at Double-A Arkansas (2016). He also spent time with the Major League team as bullpen catcher in 2007 after retiring following a seven-year playing career in their system (2001-07).

JORDAN GETZELMAN

ASSISTANT HITTING COORDINATOR - TRAINING STRATEGY

Jordan Getzelman, 26, enters his second season in the Brewers organization as assistant hitting coordinator of training strategy.

Prior to joining the Brewers in March 2020, Getzelman was the director of hitting development at Dallas Baptist University from 2019-20 and served as an assistant coach at William Jessup University in 2018 under current Brewers Director of Player Development Initiatives Jake McKinley.

Jordan and his wife, Casey, live in Nashville, Tennessee.

MIKE GROOPMAN

VICE PRESIDENT - INTERNATIONAL SCOUTING AND PLAYER PERSONNEL

Mike Groopman, 35, begins his fourth year with the Brewers and his first in his current role. He oversees the team's international scouting efforts, focusing on player evaluation and acquisition, as well as the management of the international scouting staff, infrastructure and process. Additionally, Groopman will provide international player personnel leadership and work closely with staffs involved in Dominican Republic Academy player development.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Groopman spent 10 years with the Kansas City Royals, holding roles as baseball operations intern (2008), baseball operations administrative assistant (2009), assistant to baseball operations (2010), director of baseball analytics (2011-15) and director of baseball operations/analytics (2015-17).

Groopman also interned in baseball operations with the Cincinnati Reds (2006) and New York Mets (2007), as well as in Major League Baseball's labor relations department prior to the 2008 season. He earned his bachelor's degree from Columbia University in 2007.

Mike resides in Milwaukee with his wife, Erin, and their children, Eliza and Evan.

LUIS PÉREZ

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR - INTERNATIONAL SCOUTING

Luis Pérez, 38, begins his sixth season with the Brewers and his third as assistant director of international scouting. He spent the previous three seasons as Latin America crosschecker.

Prior to joining the organization in 2015, Pérez spent four years at the Major League Baseball Scouting Bureau in Venezuela as a scout (2012-13), supervisor (2013-15) and crosschecker (2016). A former outfielder, he played five (2002-06) seasons in the Oakland Athletics system, including earning the California League batting title in 2006 after hitting .334 with Class-A Stockton. He spent the final three seasons of his playing career in independent ball.

Luis, his wife, Karla, and their son, Julian, reside in Pembroke Pines, Florida.

TAYLOR GREEN

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR - SCOUTING/INTERNATIONAL PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Taylor Green, 34, begins his sixth year with the Brewers and second in his current role.

Previously, Green spent three years as supervisor of pro scouting and served as a professional scout in 2016. From 2018-19, he assisted Mike Groopman with overseeing emerging amateur markets, including Asia, Europe and Australia.

Green was selected by the Brewers in the 25th round of the 2005 First-Year Player Draft. He played 10 seasons professionally, reaching the majors in 2011-12, and was included on the Brewers' 2011 postseason roster. He earned the organization's Minor League Player of the Year honors in two seasons, first in 2007 and again in 2011.

Taylor and his wife, Sofia, reside in Phoenix, Arizona, with their children, Lewis and Walker.

TOD JOHNSON VICE PRESIDENT - DOMESTIC SCOUTING

Tod Johnson, 48, enters his 14th season with the Brewers and fifth in his current role after being named to the position in September 2016. In 2019, his role expanded to include the oversight of all domestic scouting operations, covering both amateur and professional players.

Johnson's full bio can be found on page 14.

TIM McILVAINE ASSISTANT DIRECTOR - DOMESTIC SCOUTING

Tim McIlvaine, 39, begins his 16th season with the Brewers and his fifth in his current role. He previously spent three years as supervisor of amateur scouting (2014-16). McIlvaine served as an area scout in the Mid-Atlantic region (2006-07) and Central Florida (2008-13) and was responsible for signing notable players such as pitchers Jeremy Jeffress, Jacob Barnes and Hiram Burgos and second baseman Scooter Gennett.

McIlvaine graduated from Spring Hill College in Mobile, Alabama in 2003 with bachelor's degrees in psychology and political science. He was a catcher and captain on Spring Hill's baseball team and later returned as a graduate assistant in 2005 following a year in professional baseball with the Minnesota Twins' Rookie Gulf Coast League team in 2004.

Tim's father, Joe, served as general manager of the San Diego Padres (1990-93) and New York Mets (1993-97). He and his wife, Janine, reside in Nashville, Tennessee with their two daughters, Sarah and Cayse.

BRYAN GALE ASSISTANT DIRECTOR - DOMESTIC SCOUTING

Bryan Gale, 39, enters his 14th season with the Brewers and second in his current role in which he assists Tod Johnson in the oversight of the Domestic Scouting Department.

Gale spent the previous three seasons as supervisor of pro scouting, overseeing all aspects of the professional scouting department and the independent leagues.

Gale joined the organization in 2008 as an advanced scouting intern after serving as an associate scout with the Minnesota Twins in 2007, a Major League Baseball video scout at Stats LLC in 2005 and as a marketing intern with the Chicago Cubs in 2006. He pitched professionally in the Toronto Blue Jays organization and collegiately at Michigan State University, where he still holds school records for career wins and strikeouts. He graduated from Michigan State with a degree in marketing in 2005.

Bryan and his wife, Gia, reside in Cranford, New Jersey.

MIKE BERGER

PRO SCOUTING CROSSCHECKER

Mike Berger, 58, enters his 42nd season in professional baseball and his fourth in the Brewers organization as a pro scouting crosschecker.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Berger served as vice president and assistant general manager with the Miami Marlins from 2014-17 and director of player development and professional scouting director with the Arizona Diamondbacks from 2009-13.

Berger was selected in the fourth round of the 1980 First-Year Player Draft by the Pittsburgh Pirates and played 14 seasons in the Minor Leagues with Pittsburgh, Montreal and Texas. He was the hitting coach at Triple-A Oklahoma City in the Rangers organization from 1992-94 and managed Class-A Charleston in 1995 before joining the Montreal Expos scouting department in 1996. Berger also worked in the scouting departments of the Houston Astros, Colorado Rockies and Toronto Blue Jays.

His father, Jack, was a longtime public relations director with the Pittsburgh Pirates, working under Branch Rickey, while his grandfather, Jack Sr., was one of the original members of the BBWAA and a sports cartoonist for the Pittsburgh Press.

Berger resides in Jupiter, Florida, with his wife, Leslie. He has three children, Nicholas, Matthew and Caitlyn, who is a medic staff sergeant with the United States Air Force currently serving in Germany.

BRYAN BULLINGTON

DOMESTIC/INTERNATIONAL SCOUT

Bryan Bullington, 40, enters his fifth season in the Brewers organization as a domestic and international scout.

Selected by the Pittsburgh Pirates as the top overall pick in the 2002 First-Year Player Draft, Bullington made his Major League debut with the Pirates in 2005.

He pitched in the Pirates, Cleveland Indians, Toronto Blue Jays and Kansas City Royals organizations from 2003-10, appearing in 26 games in the majors. Bullington concluded his professional career playing in Japan with the Hiroshima Carp and Orix Buffaloes from 2011-15.

Bullington graduated from Ball State University with a bachelor's degree in business administration in 2002. Bryan resides in Mokena, Illinois with his wife, Lauren, and children, Isabella, Matthew and Jack.

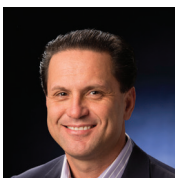

DOUG REYNOLDS

NATIONAL SUPERVISOR - SCOUTING

Doug Reynolds, 53, begins his 29th season with the Brewers and 13th in a supervisor role. He was previously an area scout from 1993-2008, covering Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, Northern Florida, South Carolina and Tennessee. Notably, Reynolds was responsible for signing outfielder Lorenzo Cain.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Reynolds spent one year as an assistant coach at Tallahassee Community College (1992). A former catcher, he was selected by the Baltimore Orioles in the 1989 First-Year Player Draft and played three seasons with the organization (1989-91).

Reynolds graduated from Liberty University with a bachelor's degree in business management. Doug, his wife, Jennifer, and three children, Brooke, Scott and Nicholas, reside in Tallahassee, Florida.

COREY RODRIGUEZ

SUPERVISOR - SCOUT TEAMS/WEST COAST SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT SCOUT

Corey Rodriguez, 52, begins his 28th season with the Brewers and third in his current role. He previously spent 15 seasons as an area scout and 10 seasons as a regional supervisor and was involved in the signing of All-Star outfielder Geoff Jenkins.

Rodriguez earned an associate's degree in psychology from De Anza Junior College in 1989. He later graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education from the University of South Alabama in 1992 and a master's degree in athletic administration and kinesiology from California State University, Hayward in 1994.

Corey resides in Palos Verdes Estates, California. He has three children, Jady, Nolan and Holland.

DREW ANDERSON
REGIONAL SUPERVISOR - SCOUTING

Drew Anderson, 39, enters his 11th season with the Brewers and his third in his current role. He spent the previous eight years as an area supervisor overseeing the Midwest region.

Anderson played baseball collegiately at the University of Nebraska, where he played in the 2001 and 2002 College World Series and made the NBC World Series All-Star team in 2001. He was selected by Milwaukee in the 24th round of the 2003 First-Year Player Draft and played eight seasons with the Brewers (2003-07, '09-10) and Cincinnati Reds (2008), including reaching the majors in 2006.

Drew and his wife, Ashley, reside in Kansas City, Missouri with their children, Maya, Madden, Faith and Nash.

JOSH BELOVSKY
REGIONAL SUPERVISOR - SCOUTING

Josh Belovsky, 47, begins his 14th season with the Brewers and sixth in his current role, in addition to which he has served as manager in the Area Code Games. He previously spent eight seasons as an area scout and was responsible for signing players including Khris Davis and Kodi Medeiros.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Belovsky served as an associate scout for the Colorado Rockies from 2002-06. He pitched professionally in the Boston Red Sox system (1999-2000) and spent time in the Western Baseball League with the Mission Viejo Vigilantes (1998) and the Chico Heat (2001).

Belovsky graduated with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from California State University, Fullerton in 2004 and later earned his master's degree in coaching and athletic administration from Concordia University Irvine in 2007.

Josh and his wife, Sara, reside in Orange, California, with their children, Lillian and Luke.

DAN NELLUM
REGIONAL SUPERVISOR - SCOUTING

Dan Nellum, 50, enters his 14th season with the Brewers and fifth in his current role. He spent the previous nine years as the Mid-Atlantic region supervisor, covering Delaware, Maryland, North Carolina, Virginia, Washington, D.C. and West Virginia.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Nellum spent 16 years coaching at the collegiate level. He began his coaching career at Seminole State College of Florida, where a back injury ended his playing career. Nellum coached there while finishing his bachelor's degree at the University of Central Florida in 1993. After a year at Central Florida, he served as an assistant coach at Georgetown University for four years. He has also served as a clinician and instructor at several camps and clinics throughout the country.

Dan and his wife, Michelle, reside in Crofton, Maryland, with their two children, Maya and Daniel Jr.

MIKE SERBALIK
REGIONAL SUPERVISOR - SCOUTING

Mike Serbalik, 50, begins his sixth season with the Brewers as regional supervisor. Prior to joining the organization, he served as an area scout with the Arizona Diamondbacks and previously worked for the Cincinnati Reds and Houston Astros.

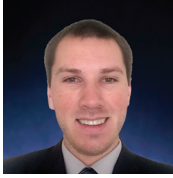

Serbalik played collegiately at Siena College in New York and was selected by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 37th round of the 1992 First-Year Player Draft.

Mike and his wife, Donna, reside in Jupiter, Florida.

MATT ERICKSON*MANAGER

Matt Erickson, 45, begins his 13th season in the Brewers organization, all as a coach at Wisconsin. He has led the Timber Rattlers to a 605-644 (.484) record in 10 seasons as manager, including a Midwest League championship in 2012 and additional postseason appearances in 2014 and 2016.

In 2013, Erickson managed the Western Division at the Midwest League All-Star Game. Prior to being named manager in 2011, he spent two seasons as a coach with the Timber Rattlers (2009-10).

Erickson, a former infielder, played 11 professional seasons in the Florida Marlins (1997-2003, '05), Brewers (2004-05) and Arizona Diamondbacks (2006-07) systems. He reached the majors with Milwaukee in 2004 and collected his only hit — a single — against Hall of Famer Greg Maddux at Wrigley Field on July 17, 2004.

HIRAM BURGOS*PITCHING COACH

Hiram Burgos, 33, begins his fourth season in the Brewers organization and his first at Wisconsin. He spent his first three seasons as pitching coach for Milwaukee's Rookie Arizona affiliates.

Burgos was selected by the Brewers in the sixth round of the 2009 First-Year Player Draft and pitched nine seasons (2009-17) in the system, reaching the majors in 2013. He was named the organization's Minor League Pitcher of the Year in 2012 after going 10-4 with a 1.95 ERA in 28 appearances (27 starts) between Class-A Brevard County, Double-A Huntsville and Triple-A Nashville.

NICK STANLEY*HITTING COACH

Nick Stanley, 33, enters his fourth season in the Brewers organization and his first at Wisconsin. He was slated to manage Arizona Brewers Gold in 2020 and spent his first two seasons as a hitting coach, including 2019 with Rocky Mountain and 2018 with the DSL Brewers/Indians.

Prior to joining the organization, Stanley coached at St. Petersburg College in 2017, a role he also held in 2010. He previously worked as a national coach for Baseball New Zealand in Auckland, contributing to several aspects of the organization, including player and program development as well as recruitment.

Stanley, a former first baseman, played two seasons in the Houston Astros system (2009-10).

2020 SEASON NOTES

BREW-TOBER

The Brewers qualified for the postseason for the seventh time in franchise history and in three straight seasons for the first time.

Season	Qualified
1981*	Won AL East [2nd half]
1982	Won AL East
2008	Won NL Wild Card
2011	Won NL Central
2018	Won NL Central
2019	Won Second NL Wild Card
2020	Won Second NL Wild Card

* strike-shortened season

 COVID-19 shortened season

DOESN'T MATTER HOW YOU GET THERE

The Brewers and Astros, who both went 29-31 (.483) last season, became the first two teams in Major League history to qualify for the postseason with records below .500....the 1981 Royals went 50-53 (.485) overall, but made the postseason off their 30-23 record to capture the AL West in the second half of the split season....excluding the 1981 Royals, the lowest winning percentage to qualify for the postseason prior to 2020 belonged to the 2005 Padres, who won the NL West at 82-80 (.506).

DEVIN-LY BODY

Devin Williams, the 2020 NL Reliever of the Year, was first or tied for first among MLB relievers in the following categories:

Category (min. 20ip)	MLB Rank
ERA [0.33]	1st
AVG [.090]	1st
WHIP [0.63]	1st
Strikeouts [53]	T1st (led NL)

- For the first time since 1992, the Brewers finish above .500, going 83-79 to place second in the National League Central.
- Justin Verlander tosses the third no-hitter ever against the Brewers in the Tigers' 4-0 victory on June 12 at Comerica Park.
- J.J. Hardy belts the Brewers' 217th home run of the season to break the franchise record (216 in 1982).....the Brewers would finish with 231 home runs, leading the Major Leagues (record since broken in 2019 - 250 HR).
- With a pair of homers on September 25 vs. St. Louis, Prince Fielder becomes the youngest player ever to hit 50 home runs in a season.....at 23 years, 139 days, he breaks the mark of Willie Mays, who hit #50 at the age of 24 years, 137 days.
- Prince Fielder becomes the first Brewer to win the Hank Aaron Award, which goes to the top offensive performer in each league.....Fielder is presented with the award prior to Game 4 of the World Series in Denver on October 28.
- Ryan Braun is named National League Rookie of the Year, becoming just the second Brewer ever to win the award.....Pat Listach won it in the American League for the Brewers in 1992.

2008

- At 90-72, the Brewers record their most wins in a season since they went 92-70 in 1992.....the team produces consecutive winning seasons for the first time since 1991 [83-79] and 1992.
- Ned Yost [83-67] is dismissed as manager with 12 games left on September 15.....he is replaced by Dale Sveum [7-5].
- The Brewers clinch the National League Wild Card on the last day of the season (September 28 vs. Chicago-NL) to qualify for the postseason for the first time since 1982.
- The Brewers fall to the Phillies, three games to one, in the National League Division Series.
- The Brewers reach the three-million mark in attendance for the first time in franchise history [3,068,458].....as part of the new attendance record (since broken), the team has 44 sellouts, including 22 in a row from July 10 to September 1.
- Ben Sheets becomes the first pitcher in franchise history to start an All-Star Game.....he tosses a pair of scoreless innings in the game, which was played at Yankee Stadium during the final season of the historic ballpark.
- In arguably the biggest trade in franchise history, the Brewers acquire reigning American League Cy Young Award winner CC Sabathia from Cleveland on July 7 in exchange for outfielder Matt LaPorta, pitchers Zach Jackson, Rob Bryson and a player to be named (outfielder Michael Brantley).....Sabathia goes on to post an 11-2 record with a 1.65 ERA for the Brewers.
- Due to Hurricane Ike, the Cubs and Astros are forced to play two games at Miller Park on September 14 and 15.....Carlos Zambrano tosses the first no-hitter in Miller Park history with his 5-0 win on September 14.
- Ken Macha is named manager on October 30.

2009

- The Brewers turn their second triple play of the season in a 5-4 win on September 23 vs. Cincinnati.....it marked the first time in franchise history that the team produced a pair of triple plays in the same season (also April 29 vs. Miami).

2017

- The Brewers finish 86-76, marking a 13-game improvement over 2016.....they are eliminated from postseason contention on the penultimate day of the season.
- First time All-Star Corey Knebel goes 45 consecutive appearances with a strikeout from April 3 to July 15, setting a new single-season Major League record for relievers (Bruce Sutter, 39g, 1977).
- Ryan Braun becomes the first player in franchise history to produce 300 home runs as he belts a 2-run shot off John Lackey on September 8 at Chicago-NL.
- The September 15-17 series against the Miami Marlins, originally scheduled to be played in Miami, is relocated to Miller Park due to damage caused by Hurricane Irma.....as a result, the Brewers play 84 home games and 78 road games in 2017.

2018

- Within hours of each other, outfielders Christian Yelich (trade on January 25) and Lorenzo Cain (free agent signing on January 26) are acquired.
- The Brewers play their first tie-breaker game in franchise history on October 1 at Chicago-NL and earn a 3-1 victory to capture their second National League Central championship.....at 96-67, the team ties the franchise record for regular-season wins (also 2011).

- Including the postseason, the Brewers notch 102 wins, a franchise record for a single year.....the team posts a 12-game winning streak from September 23 to October 12 (including 4 postseason wins), marking the second-longest winning streak in a year in franchise history, trailing only the 13-game streak from April 6-20, 1987.
- The Brewers sweep Colorado in the National League Division Series before losing in seven games to Los Angeles in the National League Championship Series.
- For the first time in franchise history, the Brewers send five players to the All-Star Game: Jesús Aguilar, Lorenzo Cain, Josh Hader, Jeremy Jeffress and Christian Yelich.
- Christian Yelich becomes the fifth player in Major League history to hit for the cycle twice in the same season and first to do it against the same team.....he accomplishes the feat against the Reds on August 29 in Cincinnati and on September 17 in Milwaukee.
- Christian Yelich becomes the first batting champion in franchise history as he hits .326.
- Christian Yelich is named National League Most Valuable Player on November 15, marking the fifth time in franchise history that the Brewers have produced a league MVP.

2019

- The Brewers go on an 18-2 run in September to help capture the second National League Wild Card spot and qualify for the postseason in consecutive years for just the second time in franchise history (also 1981-82).....the team goes on to lose the NL Wild Card Game, 4-3, on October 1 at Washington.
- For the second straight season, the Brewers send a franchise-record five players to the All-Star Game: Yasmani Grandal, Josh Hader, Mike Moustakas, Brandon Woodruff and Christian Yelich.
- Ryan Braun smacks the Brewers' 232nd home run of the season to break the franchise record (231 in 2007).....Braun breaks the record in dramatic fashion with a go-ahead grand slam in the ninth inning on September 15 at St. Louis.....the Brewers would finish with 250 home runs.
- Reigning National League MVP Christian Yelich has his season end on September 10 at Miami due to a fractured right knee cap suffered on a foul ball.....he would miss the final 18 games and the Wild Card Game.
- Christian Yelich wins the National League batting title (.329) for the second consecutive season.....he becomes the first player to win consecutive NL batting titles since the Rockies' Larry Walker in 1998 and 1999.
- Christian Yelich (44hr/30sb) becomes the 10th player (12 times) in Major League history to produce a 40/30 season.....he joins Ryan Braun (2012) as the only Brewers to accomplish the feat.
- Lorenzo Cain notches his first career Gold Glove Award, joining Carlos Gómez (2013) as the only Brewers center fielders to earn the honor.

2020

- Christian Yelich signs a nine-year contract on March 6, which runs through the 2028 season with a mutual option for 2029.
- In a season shortened to 60 games - beginning July 24 - due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Brewers (29-31) qualify for the postseason for the third straight year, a feat previously never accomplished in franchise history.....the team would go on to lose to the Dodgers in two games in the National League Wild Card Series.
- The three-game series with St. Louis to begin the home schedule at Miller Park from July 31-August 2 is postponed due to multiple positive COVID-19 test results for the Cardinals.
- Ryan Braun plays his 14th and possibly final season - all with the Brewers - ending his career as the all-time franchise leader in HR (352) and among the top three in nearly every other major offensive category.
- The Brewers and Reds elect not to play on August 26 in an effort to draw attention to racial injustice issues.
- Alec Mills throws the fourth no-hitter ever against the Brewers as the Cubs win, 12-0, on September 13 at Miller Park.
- Devin Williams is named National League Rookie of the Year, becoming the third Brewer ever to win the award as he joins Pat Listach (1992 - AL) and Ryan Braun (2007).....Williams also wins 2020 National League Reliever of the Year.
- Matt Arnold is promoted to vice president and general manager on November 19.....David Stearns remains with the organization as president of baseball operations.

PRIMARY LOGO

1969

The Seattle Pilots used this logo for one season before moving to Milwaukee and becoming the Brewers.

1970-1977

The Barrelman logo was the first identity used by the Brewers. It was first used by the original American Association Brewers in the 1940s.

1978-1993

The ball-in-glove logo was introduced in 1978 after a contest open to the public drew more than 2,000 entries. An art history student at UW-Eau Claire, Tom Meindel, designed the logo that went on to be the winner. The design of the logo was meant to be recognizable on items as small as a button and as large as a billboard.

1994-1999

As the Brewers celebrated their 25th anniversary in Milwaukee, they introduced a new look. Green was incorporated as a color for the first time in franchise history. The logo resembled an industrial stamp, paying homage to Milwaukee's industrial history, and gave the team a modern yet old-fashioned look.

2000-2017

This logo was introduced during the final season at County Stadium, giving the team a fresh look heading into Miller Park. The classic yet contemporary look was created by McDill Design of Milwaukee along with Major League Baseball Creative Services. The barley in the logo speaks to the heritage of the "Brewers" name that has been in Milwaukee baseball since 1901.

2018-2019

In 2018, the team officially began using the "M" logo as its primary mark. The logo was first introduced in 2000 as part of the complete redesign of the team's artwork. Like the team's previous primary logo, the barley in the logo speaks to the heritage of the "Brewers" name that has been in Milwaukee baseball since 1901.

2020-PRESENT

At the onset of the Brewers' 50th anniversary, the team introduced a new look with a contemporary take on the ball-in-glove icon and brand-new uniforms. The new logo connects the past with the present; it includes elements of historical marks - a yellow border and circular text from the original Barrelman logo - with the modernized ball-in-glove logo and Brewers Industrial typeface.

ALL-TIME ROSTER (NUMERICAL)

The franchise has had 72 different uniform numbers worn by players and managers since 1969. The team has retired five uniform numbers — #1 for Allan H. “Bud” Selig, #4 for Paul Molitor, #19 for Robin Yount, #34 for Rollie Fingers and #44 for Hank Aaron — in addition to Major League Baseball’s retirement of Jackie Robinson’s #42 in 1997.

The following list does not include coaches. It does include players who may not have appeared in a game.

* - Shortened Season

1981: In a season cut short by a players' strike, the Brewers had the best overall record in the American League East, going 62-47. The team went 31-25 in the first half and then won the second-half title with a 31-22 mark.

1994: The season was cut short on August 12 due to a players' strike.

1995: Due to an owners' lockout, the Major League season did not begin until April 25 (Brewers opened on April 26).

2020: Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the season was reduced to 60 games and did not begin until July 24.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

1981 AMERICAN LEAGUE EAST DIVISION SERIES

MILWAUKEE vs. NEW YORK - YANKEES WIN, 3-2

For the first time in Major League history, a divisional playoff series was played because of the split season. In the American League East, New York, winners of the first half, confronted Milwaukee, winners of the second half. It was the 34th time that the Yankees participated in the postseason and the first appearance in playoff competition for the Brewers. New York took the best-of-five series, three games to two, and swept three games from Oakland to earn the American League championship. The Yankees lost to the National League champion Los Angeles Dodgers, four games to two, in the 78th World Series.

1982 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

MILWAUKEE vs. CALIFORNIA - BREWERS WIN, 3-2

In a dramatic and thrilling series, Milwaukee set a precedent in League Championship Series play as they overcame an 0-2 deficit to win their first American League pennant. The Angels captured the first two games played in Anaheim and the Brewers rallied at County Stadium, sweeping three straight games. The comeback performance was a first in LCS history.

1982 WORLD SERIES

MILWAUKEE vs. ST. LOUIS - CARDINALS WIN, 4-3

It was the 79th World Series and was labeled the "Suds Series" between Milwaukee and St. Louis. The competition truly foamed over with exciting action as it went the limit. The series was tied three times and each club held the advantage twice in the see-saw battle. The Cardinals won their ninth world championship by downing the Brewers, four games to three, including winning the final two games in St. Louis. It was the Cardinals' 13th trip to the World Series and the Brewers' first.

2021 MEDIA INFORMATION

The guidelines listed below govern media access for the 2021 regular season at American Family Field and are subject to change based on guidance from Major League Baseball and/or national/local government agencies and health officials.

MEDIA ENTRANCE AND PARKING

Media will park in the Logan and Kuenn lots and enter American Family Field through the right-field entrance.

HOURS OF OPERATION

Media will be permitted to enter American Family Field beginning four hours prior to first pitch and must leave no later than 90 minutes following the conclusion of postgame interviews.

CREDENTIALS

Credentials for games at American Family Field must be applied for using Major League Baseball's online credential system (credentials.mlb.com) by end of day (5 p.m. CT) the day prior to each game. The only credentials honored for the 2021 regular season are those issued by Major League Baseball, Brewers Media Relations and BBWAA cards (including gold cards).

Please note the media relations department will not be able to accommodate all credential requests this season. In accordance with Major League Baseball regulations, an extremely limited number of media will be permitted inside American Family Field each day. Please also note there will not be any season media credentials available to apply for this season.

All media will be required to submit daily credential requests. BBWAA members must inform the media relations department of their intentions to attend a game at least 24 hours in advance.

HEALTH/SAFETY PROTOCOLS

In accordance with Major League Baseball's health and safety protocols, all members of the media will undergo daily credential, security, medical and temperature screening. Failure to comply with this screening will result in entry being denied. All members of the media are required to bring/wear face coverings at all times and practice physical distancing at all times.

MEDIA INTERVIEWS

Media will not have direct access to players, coaches or baseball operations personnel. All interviews will take place by video conference via Zoom or by phone and must be coordinated through the media relations department. Recordings of these interviews will be made available via mlbpressbox.com. Manager Craig Counsell, coaches and players will be available to the media before and after each game.

WORKING MEDIA AREAS

After entering the ballpark, working media must go directly to their assigned seat in the press box. Media will only be allowed to work from their assigned seat, which will be physically distanced from other media members and cleaned and sanitized daily. Members of the working media are not permitted to roam or access any other areas of the ballpark.

PHOTOGRAPHER INFORMATION

Still photographers must wear face coverings and gloves at all times inside American Family Field and avoid touching surfaces with their hands. Still photographers are only permitted to shoot from the three upper levels of the ballpark (Loge Level, Club Level, Terrace Level) as well as at least five rows from the playing field on the third-base side of the Field Level (sections 121-131). Photographers are not allowed to access any other areas on the Field Level or ballpark. Please keep in mind that none of these areas will be sanitized each day and photographers should take their own precautions. Please also note that still photographers will not have access to the photo workroom on the Service Level this season. A row at the back of the main press box has been designated and equipped with hard-wired internet connections for still photographers to upload.

MEDIA DINING

Media members will be permitted to bring their own food and beverages, but must only be consumed at their assigned seats in the press box. Media will not be allowed to congregate in the media dining room inside the press box. Food will not be available for purchase in the media dining room to start the season, but the Brewers will re-evaluate dining options as conditions allow.

BOB UECKER

Bob Uecker enters his 51st season as a broadcaster for his hometown team, calling games on Newsradio 620 WTMJ and the Brewers Radio Network. He is celebrating his 66th year in baseball.

Known across the country as “Mr. Baseball,” Uecker is highly respected throughout the industry. He will forever be recognized in the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York after earning the prestigious Ford C. Frick Award in 2003, which is presented annually to a broadcaster for major contributions to the game. On July 27 that summer, he made one of the most memorable speeches in Hall of Fame history, leaving his audience, including former President George H.W. Bush, in tears from laughter.

In 2001, Uecker was inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame, where he joined baseball broadcasting luminaries Vin Scully, Mel Allen, Red Barber, Ernie Harwell and Jack Brickhouse, as well as other American icons, including Bob Hope, Jack Benny, Edward R. Murrow and Orson Welles. He was later inducted into the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association Hall of Fame in 2011 and the National Association of Broadcasters Broadcasting Hall of Fame in 2012.

In honor of Uecker’s tenure as a broadcaster for the Brewers — which is the fourth-longest tenure of any broadcaster in the history of Major League Baseball — he is recognized throughout the American Family Field grounds. In 2003, Uecker became a member of the Brewers Walk of Fame, which is located near home plate on the plaza outside American Family Field.

On August 31, 2012, a statue bearing his likeness was dedicated in his honor outside American Family Field, joining those previously dedicated to fellow Hall of Famers Hank Aaron, Robin Yount and Commissioner Emeritus Allan H. “Bud” Selig. The ceremony was attended by celebrities, current and former players, as well as Uecker’s family and friends.

On April 25, 2014, a second statue was dedicated in Uecker’s honor, this one in the last row of the “Uecker Seats” on the Terrace Level at American Family Field. The statue commemorates the Miller Lite commercials in which he famously delivered the often-repeated line, “I must be in the front row!” That year, he was also inducted into the inaugural class of the Brewers Wall of Honor, which is located along the third-base side outside American Family Field.

Uecker has also been recognized locally throughout his career with the Brewers, including earning Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year honors five times. He was inducted into the Wisconsin Performing Artists Hall of Fame in 1993, the Wisconsin Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame in 1994, and the Wisconsin Sports Hall of Fame in 1998. In January 1995, he earned the Big B.A.T. Award from the Baseball Assistance Team at a dinner in New York City in recognition of his continued support of former Major League players who need assistance.

Prior to becoming the voice of the Brewers in 1971, Uecker spent 1969 and 1970 broadcasting Atlanta Braves games alongside fellow Ford C. Frick Award winner Milo Hamilton and Ernie Johnson, Sr.

Uecker’s big break can be traced to a 1969 visit with Al Hirt, a renowned jazz trumpeter from New Orleans. Hirt asked him to come on stage at a small nightclub he opened in Atlanta. Hirt was so impressed with Uecker that he arranged an appearance for him on The Tonight Show, starring Johnny Carson. Uecker became one of Carson’s favorite guests, making more than 100 appearances before Carson retired in 1992. He also made appearances on The Mike Douglas Show, The Merv Griffin Show and Late Night with David Letterman, and served as a guest host on Saturday Night Live. Uecker became a national celebrity, and the ABC Network capitalized on his popularity. He went on to make appearances on The Superstars, Friday Night Videos and The Midnight Special, which opened the door for additional high-profile appearances.

A versatile talent, Uecker’s credits go far beyond guest appearances and play-by-play. In 1985, he launched a television acting career as one of the stars of ABC’s sitcom Mr. Belvedere, which aired 122 episodes. He also hosted two syndicated television shows, Bob Uecker’s Wacky World of Sports and Bob Uecker’s War of the Stars.

Additionally, Uecker was one of the Miller Lite All-Stars in commercials for the beverage during the 1980s and was cast as a radio announcer in the movies Major League, which was filmed at County Stadium in Milwaukee, and Major League II. He has even made appearances on the pro wrestling circuit, hosting WrestleMania III and WrestleMania IV, which earned him a spot in the WWE Hall of Fame in 2010.

Uecker’s national recognition gained broadcasting Brewers games both on radio and television also led to his role as color commentator for ABC Sports coverage of Monday Night Baseball, the League Championship Series and World Series, as well as NBC’s Friday Night Baseball.

Uecker’s accomplishments are not limited to the electronic medium as he authored a book entitled Catcher in the Wry, a humorous look back on his six years spent as a catcher with the Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves, St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Phillies. One of the highlights of his career was being a member of the 1964 world champion Cardinals.

Despite his national attention and success, Uecker has never forgotten his roots. In 2015, he was honored with the Lombardi Foundation’s Award of Excellence for his role in helping raise funds and awareness for cancer research. His philanthropic efforts have benefited several local organizations, including the United Performing Arts Fund, the Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer Fund, the Milwaukee Symphony, the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee, Big Brothers/Big Sisters and Wounded Warriors.

In addition, Uecker is an advocate for organizations that battle cystic fibrosis and heart disease and is involved with the Wisconsin Department of Tourism and the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

JEFF LEVERING

@JLevering4

Jeff Levering enters his seventh season calling games on the Brewers Radio Network after joining the organization in January 2015. He was named Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sports Media Association for 2020.

During each of the past seven winters, Levering has served as a play-by-play announcer for college basketball games on FOX Sports and the Big Ten Network.

Levering joined the Brewers after two seasons (2013-14) as the lead broadcaster of the Triple-A Pawtucket Red Sox. He previously spent three seasons each as the radio voice and manager of public relations for the Double-A Springfield Cardinals (2010-12) and as director of broadcasting/media relations for the Class-A Rancho Cucamonga Quakes (2007-09).

Levering began his professional broadcasting career in 2005 as a field reporter and associate producer for FOX Sports West/Prime Ticket in Los Angeles, covering the Angels, Lakers, UCLA and other magazine-style shows.

Levering received his bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism from Chapman University in Orange, California, where he also played baseball all four years. He was the starting designated hitter on the 2003 Division III national championship team.

Jeff and his wife, Ashley, have a son, Brock, and daughter, Logan.

LANE GRINDLE

@lanegrindle

Lane Grindle enters his sixth season with the Brewers after joining the radio broadcast team in February 2016. Throughout the season, he calls games with Jeff Levering during games missed by Hall of Famer Bob Uecker.

In addition to his broadcasting responsibilities, Grindle interviews players and team executives for his podcast, Brewers On Top, and writes features for the Minor Details blog. He also handled public address announcements at American Family Field on a fill-in basis during the Brewers' postseason run in 2018.

In the offseason, Grindle handles play-by-play for the Missouri Valley Football Conference on ESPN3 in addition to calling numerous college basketball games on various outlets.

Grindle joined the Brewers following 10 seasons (2006-15) behind the microphone for University of Nebraska baseball radio broadcasts on the Husker Sports Network. He spent his first two seasons (2006-07) as the Cornhuskers' pre/postgame host prior to being named play-by-play announcer in 2008. He also held positions as pregame host and sideline announcer for Nebraska football (2007-15) and host of a television show for Nebraska basketball (2008-13).

Grindle graduated from the University of South Dakota in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in contemporary media and journalism and a minor in history.

Lane, his wife, Ali, their three daughters, Josie, Payton and Harper, and son, Luke, reside in Menomonee Falls, Wisconsin.

BREWERS RADIO NETWORK AFFILIATE LIST

The flagship station of the Milwaukee Brewers is Newsradio 620 WTMJ in Milwaukee. In addition to the Brewers, Newsradio 620 WTMJ is also the flagship station for the Milwaukee Bucks of the NBA and the Green Bay Packers of the NFL. Several Spring Training games as well as all 162 regular-season games and any postseason games the Brewers may play this season will be carried live on the Brewers Radio Network.

BRIAN ANDERSON

@BAndersonPxP

Brian Anderson enters his 15th season with the Brewers after being named play-by-play announcer on January 10, 2007. He is a three-time recipient of the Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year Award (2013-14, 2017), which is presented by the National Sports Media Association. Anderson was bestowed an Emmy Award for Outstanding Crafts Achievement for On-Camera Talent in 2020.

In addition to Brewers telecasts, Anderson has called play-by-play for TBS's postseason coverage for the past 13 seasons. In this role, he was behind the mic for Roy Halladay's historic no-hitter for the Philadelphia Phillies in Game 1 of the 2010 National League Division Series against the Cincinnati Reds, the Brewers-St. Louis Cardinals National League Championship Series in 2011, and Justin Turner's dramatic walk-off home run for the Los Angeles Dodgers in Game 2 of the 2017 National League Championship Series against the Chicago Cubs.

Since 2010, Anderson has also called play-by-play for Turner Sports' Sunday MLB on TBS package, a role he will continue to fill on select Sunday national games in 2021. Outside of baseball, Anderson has covered the NCAA Basketball Tournament for Turner Sports/CBS Sports since 2012, the NBA on TNT since 2014, and various golf events since 2016.

Anderson joined the Brewers from the Golf Channel, where he was a play-by-play announcer from 2003-06. In his role there, he served as a host for a variety of the network's events, including the PGA Tour and Nationwide Tour. He also worked at FOX Sports Southwest, calling NCAA college basketball from 2002-07 and serving as sideline reporter for the San Antonio Spurs from 1999-2007, during which he saw the Spurs win three NBA championships.

From 1998-2000, Anderson handled Minor League and Little League Baseball telecasts for ESPN. His broadcasting career began with the Double-A San Antonio Missions of the Texas League, serving as a play-by-play announcer on both radio and television from 1994-2003.

Anderson was a catcher on the nationally-ranked baseball team at St. Mary's University (Texas) and graduated cum laude from the school in 1993 with a degree in English-communications. His brother, Mike, had a stint in the majors as a pitcher with the Cincinnati Reds (1993) and is currently a special assistant to the general manager with the Texas Rangers.

Brian, his wife, Michele, and their daughter, Maddy, reside in Hartland, Wisconsin.

BILL SCHROEDER

@BrewersFanCamp

Bill Schroeder enters his 27th season with the Brewers as color commentator. He joined the television broadcast team in 1995 following a distinguished playing career as a catcher.

Schroeder spent eight seasons (1983-90) in the majors with the Brewers and California Angels, including a career year in 1987 in which he batted .332 with 42 RBI and a career-high 14 HR. He caught the only no-hitter in franchise history, thrown by Juan Nieves in Baltimore on April 15, 1987. He was traded to the Angels following the 1988 campaign and retired in 1990.

In recognition of Schroeder's long-serving tenure on the broadcast team, he was enshrined on the Brewers Wall of Honor on July 17, 2015. In the organization's history, only Hall of Famer Bob Uecker has broadcast more games.

In addition to his role on Brewers telecasts, Schroeder has also served as the coordinator of Brewers Fantasy Camp, an instructional camp for adults at the team's Spring Training home in Phoenix, Arizona, for 16 offseasons. The camp is always a hit, selling out each year. He also authored a book with Drew Olson, If These Walls Could Talk: Milwaukee Brewers, in 2016.

Born in Baltimore and raised in West Windsor, New Jersey, Schroeder graduated from West Windsor Plainsboro High School, where he earned All-State honors as a junior and senior. He attended Clemson University, leading the Tigers to Atlantic Coast Conference titles in 1978 and 1979.

"Rock" and his wife, Kate, reside in New Berlin, Wisconsin. He has two daughters, Lindsey and Mallory, a son, Billy, and two granddaughters, Madelyn and Presley. The couple also has a miniature dachshund named Rupert.

MATT LEPAY

@MattLepay

Matt Lepay enters his eighth season with the Brewers calling play-by-play after joining the team in January 2014. He has earned Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year ten times, most recently in 2019. The award is presented by the National Sports Media Association.

Lepay has been the voice of Wisconsin Badgers football since 1994 and the 2020-21 season marked his 33rd as the men's basketball play-by-play announcer. In his time with the University of Wisconsin, Lepay has called six Rose Bowl Games and 22 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament appearances, including the Badgers' trips to the Final Four in 2000, 2014 and 2015.

Lepay joined WIBA Radio in Madison in 1994 after a stint as sports director at WTSO Radio in Madison. He authored a book entitled Why Not Wisconsin? in 2012 which chronicles the Wisconsin football and basketball programs since he arrived in 1988.

In addition to play-by-play duties, Lepay handles a number of other speaking appearances on behalf of UW Athletics, including hosting the weekly Badger Sports Report. He was honored during Camp Randall's 100th anniversary season in 2017 as a member of Camp Randall 100, a prestigious group that shaped the first century at the home of Badgers football.

A native of Dayton, Ohio, Lepay received his bachelor's degree in journalism from Ohio State University. Matt and his wife, Linda, reside in Middleton, Wisconsin.

SOPHIA MINNAERT

@SophiaMinnaert

Sophia Minnaert enters her ninth season as a sideline reporter for Brewers broadcasts. In 2018, she won an Emmy Award for Outstanding Crafts Achievement for On-Camera Talent – Sports Reporter.

Minnaert is also in her fourth year as broadcast and digital features content director after being named to the position in June 2018. In this role, she produces and hosts digital features in English and Spanish for Brewers On Tap, a free series on the Brewers' YouTube channel and brewers.com.

In addition to her role with the Brewers, Minnaert handles sideline duties for the WIAA state football championships and previously worked as a sideline reporter on Milwaukee Bucks broadcasts.

Prior to joining Brewers telecasts, Minnaert covered high school state championships for PlayOn! Sports Midwest on FOX Sports Wisconsin, Fox Sports Midwest and CSN Chicago. She was also a feature reporter on FOX Sports Wisconsin's Prep Zone.

In November 2013, Minnaert and FOX Sports Wisconsin traveled to the Dominican Republic for the series Baseball in the Dominican Republic. The series earned an Emmy for the Brewers Academy program as well as a nomination for an individual episode, Baseball in the Dominican Republic: Jean Segura.

A native of Madison, Wisconsin, Minnaert graduated from Edgewood High School and later earned degrees in journalism and Spanish language and literature from Marquette University.

The Milwaukee Brewers take pride in offering the best overall experience for every fan who attends a game. Central to the quality of the fan experience is the team's jewel of a ballpark. After 20 seasons as Miller Park, the home of the Brewers is now American Family Field after the team began a naming rights agreement with American Family Insurance on January 1, 2021.

In 2019, over 2.9 million fans attended games at then-Miller Park, marking the 12th time in the past 13 seasons in which fans were permitted in the ballpark the team exceeded 2.5 million in attendance. Excluding 2020, the Brewers are one of just eight teams in Major League Baseball to have sold at least 2.3 million tickets in every year since 2006. American Family Field has drawn over 49 million visitors to baseball games in 19 seasons fans have been allowed entrance, highlighted by 3,071,373 in 2011, which established an all-time Milwaukee baseball attendance record.

One of the keys to American Family Field's popularity is the dynamic nature of the facility that has allowed the ballpark to adapt to changing fan tastes over the years. This season, the Brewers will reintroduce two new fan experiences at American Family Field. The Field Level dining option in the left-field corner, The Restaurant To Be Named Later, which opened briefly in the 2020 season, will reopen with a menu that celebrates a variety of Wisconsin favorites with twists on classic food and beverage offerings.

The Miller Lite Landing, located in the left-field Loge Level, features a new bar with Molson Coors offerings and a lower section of seating in front of the deck overlooking left field. Further, fans can quench their thirst at the new Terrapin Bar, located on Field Level in the right-field corner, offering a handful of Terrapin brands on draft and in can.

In addition to the new ballpark name, fans can expect to see updated branding throughout the ballpark that reflects the new logo introduced at the start of the 2020 season and new LED sport lights that allow more flexibility in turning on and off lights for pre-game and celebratory moments. Additional décor includes the 2020 postseason pennant along the exterior of the press box, celebrating the franchise's first time advancing to the postseason in three consecutive seasons.

Notable upgrades in recent seasons have included a renovation of the PNC Club Level concourse in 2018 that featured a redesign and modernization of the corridor, as well as new dining options. A complete transformation of the food and beverage hospitality experience came in 2017, which marked the largest project funded by the organization in American Family Field history. The effort, which was honored with Ballpark Digest's 2017 Best New Concessions Experience Award, encompassed an architectural redesign throughout the ballpark. This included a total of 11 concession stands in the new "First Base Ward" and "Third Base Ward" as well as two new full-service bars on the Field Level offering a variety of Molson Coors products. Another element of the redesign was the introduction of a "Local Brews" bar on the right-field side of the Loge Level, which features 30 taps serving craft beers from across Wisconsin.

In 2016, the team enhanced the U.S. Cellular® Power Playgrounds kids' area, renovated the Home Plate Team Store and created a new executive suite for hosting meetings and entertaining at games.

In 2015, the signature project was "The Selig Experience," a state-of-the-art attraction honoring former Brewers owner and Commissioner Emeritus, Hall of Famer Allan H. "Bud" Selig. The exhibit tells the story of Selig's role in saving Major League Baseball in Milwaukee, his successful efforts to bring the Brewers to the city, and his tireless efforts to promote and grow the game in his hometown.

In 2011, the Brewers debuted a state-of-the-art, high-definition scoreboard. It became the third true 1080, high-definition scoreboard in Major League Baseball and, at 5,940 square feet, is one of the largest scoreboards in baseball.

Other major updates to the ballpark over the years include the Miller Lite Deck and renovation of the Johnsonville™ Deck and SKYY Lounge on the Club Level (2013), the Brewers Team Store on the Club Level (2012), a party suite honoring the 2011 Brewers (2012), the Brewers Team Store on the Terrace Level (2009), the main Brewers Team Store (2009), the renovation of 43 Club-Level suites (2009), the renovation of the Johnson Controls Stadium Club (2008), the Northwestern Mutual Legends Club (2007) and the Aurora Health Care Bullpen (2007).

American Family Field debuted on April 6, 2001 as Miller Park. In front of President George H.W. Bush, Commissioner Selig and many more dignitaries, the Milwaukee Brewers and Cincinnati Reds christened Miller Park in a thrilling game, culminating with a game-winning home run from Richie Sexson in the bottom of the eighth inning. On that day, President Bush became the first sitting president to attend a professional sporting event in the state of Wisconsin. He, along with Commissioner Selig, threw out ceremonial first pitches.

Built to accommodate a variety of events, American Family Field is not just the home of Brewers baseball. In its inaugural 2001 season, the park played host to a pair of major concerts, the George Strait Country Music Festival in May and a show by 'N Sync in July. Both concerts drew more than 34,000 fans and earned rave reviews from the performers and fans alike.

That was just the beginning of major musical events. In 2003, legendary rocker Bruce Springsteen brought his E Street Band for a memorable performance in front of more than 30,000 fans. In August 2005, Miller Park played host to the 150th birthday party for its original namesake, the Miller Brewing Company, with a mini-village built on the field along with a stage where rocker Bon Jovi played to a sold-out crowd. In 2008, H.O.G. [the Harley Owners Group] celebrated its 25th anniversary with a spectacular rally of 45,000 motorcycle enthusiasts and a concert featuring Kid Rock in the parking lots.

In October 2010, Miller Park hosted the 25th Anniversary Farm Aid Benefit Concert, featuring performances by such luminaries as Neil Young, Willie Nelson, Dave Matthews and John Mellencamp. In 2013, Miller Park hosted two sold-out concerts: Kenny Chesney's No Shoes Nation Tour and Paul McCartney's Out There Tour, and in 2015, One Direction rocked the venue during its On the Road Again Tour. Chesney has since performed at the ballpark twice more, on his Spread the Love Tour in 2016 and Trip Around the Sun Tour in 2018, and will return for a fourth show this year, joined by Florida Georgia Line and Old Dominion, on May 8 as part of his Chillaxification 2021 Tour.

In recent seasons, Miller Park also played host to pop icon Ed Sheeran (2018) and represented the only Midwest stop on legendary musician Billy Joel's tour in 2019. In addition to Kenny Chesney, American Family Field will host The Stadium Tour in 2021, featuring Mötley Crüe, Def Leppard, Poison and Joan Jett & The Blackhearts on August 28.

In addition to concerts, there have been three international soccer matches played at Miller Park, including meetings between Swansea City A.F.C. of the English Premier League and Chivas of Mexico's Liga MX in 2014, Atlas Fútbol Club of the Mexican Liga MX and Newcastle Football Club of the English Premier League in 2015, and C.F. Pachuca and Club León, both of Mexico's Liga MX, in 2018.

Miller Park hosted the 73rd Major League Baseball All-Star Game in 2002, which was Milwaukee's third All-Star contest and first since 1975, and was featured in the movie Mr. 3000 (2004), starring Bernie Mac and Angela Bassett.

AMERICAN FAMILY FIELD TOURS

Experience the magnificence of American Family Field while enjoying an exclusive tour that features a number of behind-the-scenes attractions. Daily tours run from late March through September and last approximately 70 minutes. All tours are wheelchair accessible. Groups of 20 or more must make reservations at least two weeks in advance.

Admission for the American Family Field Classic Tour is $12 for adults and $8 for children 12 and under and senior citizens. Special rates are also available for youth groups. For more information on tours, including times, please call the American Family Field Tour Hotline at (414) 902-4005.

FAN EXPERIENCES

BERNIE'S SLIDE EXPERIENCE

Fans have the opportunity to celebrate a Brewers home run, just like Bernie Brewer. Available before games, fans may book an adventure and slide down Bernie's famous slide in left field. This experience includes a unique behind-the-scenes tour of American Family Field, up to five rides down the slide and photo opportunities with an amazing backdrop. To book this experience, visit brewers.com/slide.

PRE-GAME EXPERIENCE

Enjoy a once-in-a-lifetime game day experience at American Family Field, available before select home games for two to eight people. The experience includes a behind-the-scenes tour of American Family Field, visiting locations such as the Selig Experience, press box and media interview room, and concludes with an on-field viewing of batting practice. For more information or to book your Pre-Game Experience, visit brewers.com/pregameexperience.

HELFAER FIELD

The Milwaukee Brewers joined the Southeast Wisconsin Professional Baseball Park District Board and the Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation to build Helfaer Field, Wisconsin's finest youth baseball facility. Designed by Eppstein-Uhen Architects of Milwaukee, the facility was built on the site of County Stadium by Hunzinger Construction, the company that built the original County Stadium and part of the team that built American Family Field. The foul poles of County Stadium have been used at Helfaer Field, and the area where home plate existed in the old ballpark has been memorialized on the third base concourse.

The $3.1-million facility was built with the help of a $2 million charitable grant from the Helfaer Foundation, as well as $1.1 million from the American Family Field infrastructure budget. Featuring 502 bleacher seats and additional concourse seating of 220, this is the premier location for youth baseball and softball leagues to host their games and tournaments and is perfect for kickball, employee outings, corporate events, birthday parties, and much more.

The fences reach 200 feet with six-foot high walls, with the exception of left field, where the wall is nine feet tall. The playing surface of Helfaer Field was replaced in October 2008, giving Little Leaguers the same playing surface that big leaguers play on inside American Family Field.

For more information about the facility or to reserve your event today, please visit brewers.com or call (414) 902-4332.

ROOF OPEN/CLOSED

The decision as to whether a game begins with the roof open or closed rests solely with the Milwaukee Brewers.

If the game begins with the roof open:

- It shall be closed only in the event of impending rain or other adverse weather conditions. The decision to close the roof shall be made by the home club after consultation with the umpire crew chief.
- The umpire crew chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the closing of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the crew chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.
- The roof may be re-opened by following the procedures for opening the roof as detailed below.

If the game begins with the roof closed:

- It may be opened when, in the opinion of the home club, the climatic environment has reached a level where fan comfort and enjoyment will be best served by opening the roof to the natural atmospheric conditions.
- Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following guidelines should be applied when opening the roof during a game:
 - The roof may be opened only once during the game
 - The umpire crew chief will be notified at the commencement of the inning that the roof will be opened at the inning's conclusion
 - The umpire crew chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the crew chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge
 - The roof may only be opened between innings

AMERICAN FAMILY FIELD STATUES

There are five statues located on the plaza outside of American Family Field, one each of former Brewers owner and Commissioner Emeritus Allan H. [Bud] Selig, radio broadcaster Bob Uecker and Hall of Famers Hank Aaron and Robin Yount. The last features three ironworkers in honor of the three individuals who died when a crane collapsed during the construction of the ballpark on July 14, 1999. In addition, there is a statue of Uecker inside American Family Field located behind section 422 on the Terrace Level.

THE SELIG EXPERIENCE

In 2015, The Selig Experience arrived at American Family Field as a state-of-the-art attraction honoring former Brewers owner and Commissioner Emeritus Allan H. “Bud” Selig, who was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2017.

American Family Field is already known as a premier destination for baseball fans, and The Selig Experience takes that to the next level. The exhibition space totals approximately 1,400 square feet and includes authentic artifacts from Selig’s tenure as Brewers owner. It celebrates the fans’ love of the game as told through the story of the Brewers’ founder.

The exhibit is located in the left-field corner on American Family Field’s Loge Level. The attraction is highlighted by a multimedia presentation that tells the story of Selig’s role in bringing Major League Baseball back to Milwaukee and his tireless efforts to promote and grow the game in his hometown. The show builds to a surprising three-dimensional encounter with the Commissioner himself, using technology found in only a handful of exhibits around the world, inside an authentic reproduction of his County Stadium office. After the show, fans are able to take a sneak peek into Selig’s office.

The design and production of The Selig Experience was led by BRC Imagination Arts, an experience design firm that turns brands into destinations. For more than three decades, its masterful storytellers have been chosen by iconic brands and cultural attractions all over the world to inspire and engage their audiences. Uihlein-Wilson Architects contributed to the initial design of the space for The Selig Experience.

AMERICAN FAMILY FIELD WALK OF FAME

The American Family Field Walk of Fame commemorates some of the greatest names in Milwaukee baseball history. It is located on the plaza area outside the ballpark near the statues of Hank Aaron, Robin Yount, Commissioner Emeritus Allan H. [Bud] Selig and Bob Uecker. Each inductee is honored with a granite-shaped home plate set in the ground.

Started in Miller Park’s inaugural season of 2001, the Walk of Fame has welcomed 20 inductees. The first class in 2001 included Hank Aaron, Rollie Fingers, Paul Molitor and Robin Yount. In 2007, former Milwaukee Braves players were added to the ballot in an effort to honor the strong baseball tradition of the city.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS WALL OF HONOR

The Brewers Wall of Honor commemorates Milwaukee Brewers players, coaches and executives who meet a set criteria based on service to the organization and/or career accomplishments. The Wall of Honor is a permanent exhibit on an exterior American Family Field wall adjacent to the Hot Corner entrance in left field. Honorees are recognized with a bronze plaque affixed to the wall along with their image and a brief synopsis of their Brewers career etched onto the marker. The plaques are created by Matthews International, designers of the plaques for the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

The inaugural Wall of Honor class of 58 inductees was recognized during a ceremony at Miller Park on June 13, 2014. Honorees and their guests (as well as representatives of those who were deceased) were invited to attend the unveiling ceremonies and be recognized during a program on the field prior to the game.

Beginning in 2015, a player who appeared in at least one game with the Brewers and served as a primary broadcaster for 20 or more seasons with the team was eligible for induction. Added to the criteria in 2018, a Brewers executive who spent at least 10 seasons as general manager with a postseason appearance was eligible for induction.

In 2021, Carlos Gómez, Yovani Gallardo and Francisco Rodríguez will join the Wall of Honor. In addition to the 69 members currently inducted, there are nine active players who meet the criteria, including John Axford, Ryan Braun, Josh Hader, Jeremy Jeffress, Jonathan Lucroy, Devin Williams and Christian Yelich. Upon retirement, those players will be added annually to the Wall of Honor. Additionally, any inductee into the National Baseball Hall of Fame who played for or managed the Brewers is eligible.

INDUCTION CRITERIA

- 2,000 or more plate appearances
- 1,000 or more innings pitched
- 250 appearances as a pitcher
- Winner of a major award (MVP, Cy Young, Rookie of the Year, Reliever of the Year)
- Manager of a pennant-winning team
- Individuals memorialized with a statue on American Family Field's plaza

SPECIAL EVENTS AT AMERICAN FAMILY FIELD

The special events department focuses on the execution of best in class pre-game and non-game day functions at American Family Field. From hosting corporate meetings and social events to 5K run/walks, there are many exciting ways fans can enjoy the ballpark when the Brewers are home and away. Trade shows take place on the PNC Club Level and conferences are held year-round in our event spaces on non-game days, but American Family Field is not just limited to indoor facilities, as the parking lots also offer a great option for large corporate tailgates, car shows and much more. There are many venues throughout American Family Field that are suitable for hosting special events, each with its own unique characteristics.

The Northwestern Mutual Legends Club can comfortably hold up to 240 people between the interior and exterior patio space during the summer months, or up to 100 people during the offseason when just the interior is available. In addition to a breathtaking floor-to-ceiling field view, comfortable furnishings and lounge furniture, indoor and outdoor full-service bars, there are 17 flat-screen televisions and multimedia equipment available for presentations and programs.

The Johnson Controls Stadium Club is a space that combines baseball with a formal atmosphere that can accommodate up to 300 guests for non-game day events throughout the year. From social gatherings and business dinners to wedding receptions and holiday parties, the options are endless for events in the Johnson Controls Stadium Club.

The SKYY Lounge is located on the PNC Club Level concourse behind home plate. The large open space is a great venue for a wide variety of events such as receptions and banquets or expos and seminars. Unique features of the SKYY Lounge include modern furnishings, a chef's table, an expansive full-service bar and a built-in dance floor.

The Brewers Conference Center, located on the Club and Terrace Levels, features five spaces that can accommodate up to 200 guests and is available for pre-game meetings and presentations or as break out spaces for non-game day events. The five Conference Center rooms come equipped with ceiling-mounted projectors, drop-down screens, audio capabilities, complimentary Wi-Fi and exterior stadium views.

The Executive Suite is a luxury meeting facility located on the PNC Club Level of American Family Field. This meeting space, which opened in 2016, can seat up to 30 guests and includes premier audio/visual equipment and a spectacular view of the playing field. On game days, the Executive Suite quickly converts from a board room to a premium suite with seating and food and beverages for groups that would like to hold a meeting and enjoy a Brewers game.

New in 2021, American Family Field has a brand-new restaurant and bar, The Restaurant To Be Named Later. The restaurant features a private group space, The Brew Room, available to groups of 30-60 on game days. The area includes buffet, two complimentary beers per adult and access to a private patio. For more information, visit brewers.com/allin.

For a truly unique experience, clients may also host an event on the playing field, Field Level concourse or may even rent the entire ballpark. American Family Field has hosted professional soccer matches and national concert tours. When the Brewers are on the road, American Family Field can be transformed in a number of ways. For more information, visit AmFamField.com.

ANNUAL SPECIAL EVENTS

BREWERS MINI-MARATHON

The Brewers Mini-Marathon is a half marathon (13.1 miles), 10K (6.214 miles) and 5K (3.1 miles) race that starts and finishes at American Family Field, including a portion on the warning track. Each year, participants raise funds to benefit the MACC Fund (Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer, Inc.) and childhood cancer research throughout Wisconsin. Once participants cross the finish line, they are invited to a post-race tailgate party at American Family Field with live music and food. Registration, our 2021 race date and more information can be found at brewersmini.com.

FIELD OF SWEET DREAMS PRESENTED BY FLEET FARM AND STEINHAFELS

The yearly camp-out in Bernie's backyard is a family favorite at American Family Field. Guests bring sleeping bags, tents and pillows and spend the night sleeping in the outfield under the stars. Bernie Brewer and the Johnsonville Famous Racing Sausages stop by to visit, and guests cheer on the Brewers as the away game is shown on American Family Field's scoreboard. Everyone is invited to play catch in the outfield and take a tour of American Family Field before watching a movie and hearing a bedtime story read by Brewers players and coaches. For more information, visit brewers.com/sweetdreams.

BERNIE BREWER @Bernie_Brewer

Perhaps as much a part of Milwaukee’s baseball history as the players, Bernie Brewer, the official team mascot, has become a symbol of what is special about being a fan of the Brewers. The concept of a team mascot first emerged back in 1970, when the expansion team needed to draw more fans to the ballpark. That year, the original “Bernie Brewer,” 69-year-old Milt Mason, camped out in a trailer atop the scoreboard in late June, vowing not to come down until a crowd of at least 40,000 attended a game. A bat-day crowd of 44,387 showed up to bring their adopted hero down from his perch on August 16.

The demand for Bernie Brewer grew, and by 1973, he emerged as a character who cheered on the team from a beer-barreled chalet, sliding down into a beer stein following each Brewers home run and victory. Bernie Brewer became a fixture at home games, especially for teams known as “Bambi’s Bombers” and “Harvey’s Wallbangers,” when homers came with regularity.

In 1984, the Brewers rebuilt the bleachers, replacing Bernie’s Chalet with a sound tower, sending the mascot into temporary retirement. But, by popular demand in 1993, Bernie returned and has been a fixture at every home game since.

JOHNSONVILLE™ FAMOUS RACING SAUSAGES

Legend has it that the Johnsonville™ Famous Racing Sausages started to take shape in the early 1990s. In their formative years, they were little more than a cartoon running a virtual race every home game on the giant scoreboard in center field at County Stadium. As the movement began to take shape and a buzz developed about the characters, eventually the Bratwurst (#1), Polish (#2) and Italian (#3) made their debuts out of the left-field corner of County Stadium on select Sundays throughout the season. What started as a fun way to entertain many of the children attending afternoon games became an instant hit. The three sausages added a fourth when Hot Dog (#4) came on board in the middle of the 1990s.

The race grew in popularity among young and old alike. During the 2000 season — the final year of County Stadium — the virtual race was thrown out and mascots began to race every game. Running with the Sausages took on a life of its own as having an ‘in’ with the team might mean the chance to dive into the costume and scurry along the warning track prior to the seventh inning. Hideo Nomo, Pat Meares and Geoff Jenkins are just three of the lucky players to boast “Racing Sausage” among their personal accolades. In 2007, Chorizo (#5) permanently joined the team after a one-game debut in 2006.

HANK “THE BALLPARK PUP”

The morning of February 17, 2014 dawned sunny and warm in Phoenix, not unlike most days that the Milwaukee Brewers see at their Phoenix Spring Training headquarters. But what first seemed like an ordinary day soon became much more, all because of a visit from a four-legged friend.

Many major metro areas are overwhelmed with a problem of stray animals, and Phoenix is no different. Small dogs are occasionally seen wandering the outskirts of the Brewers’ training fields, but they are typically too scared to interact with anyone on site. That day, though, a scruffy, dirty, and slightly injured little dog wandered up to staff at Spring Training camp and made himself at home. This pup was fearless, and he knew a good thing when he saw it. Not long after, the little guy was named Hank (after the great Hank Aaron), and his story was just starting.

Hank was cared for by staff on site, and soon Brewers coach Ed Sedar became his unofficial guardian. Sedar would feed Hank from the clubhouse buffet each day, and he quickly became friendly with various players and staff. It was clear, though, that the priority was to find Hank’s home, and the Brewers set out to do just that.

By using social and traditional media channels, the Brewers posted regular updates on Hank’s exploits. Every day, Hank would interact with players and coaches in the team’s clubhouse, go from station to station as players participated in drills, ran occasionally with the Johnsonville™ Famous Racing Sausages and hosted meet-and-greets with visiting players, celebrities and fans. Outfitted in a Brewers jersey, updates of Hank’s activities were posted every day by the Brewers, and it wasn’t long before national media picked up on the story.

Locally, nationally and internationally, Hank’s story appeared everywhere — ABC World News Tonight, The Today Show, People Magazine, The Tonight Show and countless others all featured Hank’s heart-warming tale, and the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel ran photos and stories about Hank virtually every day for over a month. What didn’t happen, though, was just as surprising. Despite the team’s best efforts, nobody came forward to claim Hank as their lost pet. Working with the Wisconsin Humane Society, the Brewers arranged to have Hank adopted by a team executive, and Hank’s forever home shifted north.

Hank’s popularity in Milwaukee preceded his arrival to the city, and the Brewers rolled out a line of merchandise to celebrate this popularity. In addition, the team partnered with the Wisconsin Humane Society to donate 20 percent of the retail sales from all Hank items to the “Hank Fund.” By September, the fund had reached a level of $150,000 through this contribution.

Hank’s story included an Opening Day introduction on the field, a sold-out bobblehead night, meet-and-greets with fans at games and a Hank House (dog house) built for Hank’s visits. After his newly-found fame became too much for one dog to handle, the Hank mascot was introduced on Wisconsin Humane Society Day at Miller Park on September 13, 2014.

In January 2015, Hank was named “Dog of the Year” at the CW Network’s World Dog Awards in Los Angeles, an award which was presented to the canine who made the biggest impact on pop culture in 2014. What makes Hank unique is how he came to be a part of the organization. The Brewers didn’t find Hank; Hank found the Brewers.

BARRELMAN

Barrelman made his debut as a team mascot in 2015. The mascot was originally used by the American Association Brewers in the 1940s prior to serving as the Milwaukee Brewers primary logo from 1970-77. In 2020, Barrelman was refreshed as part of the team’s new brand.

The Brewers will play their 24th season of Spring Training baseball in Phoenix in 2021. Three offseasons ago, the team's Spring Training complex underwent a complete transformation that turned the grounds into a state-of-the-art facility. On November 25, 2017, the Phoenix City Council voted in favor of a renovation of the site. Construction began March 20, 2018 and Maryvale Baseball Park soon became American Family Fields of Phoenix.

American Family Fields of Phoenix officially opened February 12, 2019, featuring a 106,000-square foot clubhouse and office building that houses locker rooms, training spaces and support functions for both Major League and Minor League players, as well as the Brewers Retail Store and the team's primary ticket office. The investment included updated facilities for sports science and psychological services, an eight-lane batting tunnel, an agility field, new pitching and catching mounds, a practice field matching American Family Field's dimensions, and improvements to each of the seven playing fields. Renovations also featured a new entry plaza, scoreboard, concession stands and restrooms on a widened first-base concourse. Additionally, the Brewers partnered with Grand Canyon University to create an on-site "Learning Lounge," through which local students are able to access free tutoring. The project was named Ballpark Digest's Renovation of the Year and Best Spring Training Experience by the Phoenix New Times, while the "Learning Lounge" earned a Governor's Tourism Award.

John F. Long, a longtime Valley developer, donated 56 acres of land to make the Brewers' Spring Training complex a reality in 1998. The team oversees operations of the facility, which was designed by HKS Design and built by Mortenson Construction.
