EXECUTIVE BIOS

BOB NUTTING CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

family-friendly environment at PNC Park through numerous upgrades and new amenities.

An avid outdoorsman and conservationist, Nutting is a driving force behind the Pirates award-winning "Let's Go Bucs. Let's Go Green." initiative to make PNC Park operations more environmentally friendly. Nutting currently serves on the Board of the Green Sports Alliance, a leading nonprofit organization focused on leveraging the influence of sports to promote healthy, sustainable communities.

Bob serves on the Board of a number of local and national organizations focused on education, the arts and conservation.

Robert (Bob) Nutting serves as Chairman of the Board of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Nutting assumed control of the club in 2007, thus becoming the sixth principal owner in the history of the Pittsburgh Pirates. He has served as Chairman of the Board and represented his family's interest in the club since 2003.

Nutting's family roots in the greater Pittsburgh region date back as long as the Pirates 130-year plus history. Nutting brings a long history of building successful organizations and a multi-generational commitment to the economic growth in the Pittsburgh region.

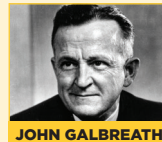

Nutting's dedication to giving back to the community in every aspect of his life has brought a refocused philanthropic commitment to the Pirates organization. For the past 15 years, Nutting has led Pirates Charities, the Club's official philanthropic arm, in making an even deeper, lasting impact off the field.

As the recent expansion of the Club's Latin American academy in Dominican Republic demonstrates, Nutting remains committed to providing Pirates players and staff with the best-of-class facilities. In addition, Nutting has worked to ensure that Pittsburgh remains home to "The Best Ballpark in America" by enhancing and promoting the

TRAVIS WILLIAMS

PRESIDENT

Travis Williams began his role as President of the Pirates on November 1, 2019. In this role, he is responsible for the baseball and business operations of the organization, with a particular focus on the club's vision for the future, connection to its fans and commitment to the community.

In his first year at the helm, Williams made it a priority to strengthen the organization's connection with the fan base by focusing on a fan-oriented business approach. An important part of this approach was the reshaping of the Pirates leadership team with the hiring of several key leaders with vast experience in fan engagement and the customer experience.

Williams has also overseen several outreach initiatives to strengthen the Pirates impact throughout the Pittsburgh community, which was of heightened importance in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic.

From the onset of the pandemic, Williams worked to ensure the organization was driven to help meet the immediate needs of those families throughout our community. During the height of the pandemic, the Pirates partnered with the Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank on several distribution events to serve over 425,000 meals to those in need. He also led a season-long campaign to help local area businesses and nonprofits get back on their feet.

Williams has more than a decade of Pittsburgh sports executive leadership experience, having spent 11 years as an integral part of the Pittsburgh Penguins' executive team. He returned to Pittsburgh from his most recent position as the President of Business Operations for the New York Islanders of the National Hockey League. During his year in New York, Williams helped the Islanders accomplish a lot in a short period of time, including the building of an entire business operations staff, doubling the season ticket base and breaking ground on a new arena.

While with the Penguins, Williams served as the Chief Operating Officer, overseeing the day-to-day business and arena operations. In addition, Williams oversaw the development of PPG Paints Arena as well as the construction of UPMC Lemieux Sports Complex.

Williams joined the Penguins in 2008 as Senior Vice President of Business Affairs/General Counsel. Prior to that, Williams was a partner at Reed Smith LLP where he represented several sports franchises, including the Pirates, as well as regional sports networks and other sports-related businesses during his 12 years with the company.

PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Greg Brown is in his 28th year as a radio and television play-by-play announcer with the Pirates. Only Bob Prince (28 years) and Lanny Frattare (33 years) have called more games as a play-by-play announcer than Brown, who has described the action of close to 4,000 games in his career behind the mic.

Known for his outgoing personality and passion for the ballclub, the Emmy award winning broadcaster has made the phrase "Raise The Jolly Roger" synonymous with a Pirates victory and "Clear The Deck, Cannonball Coming" his signature home run call.

Greg's association with the Pirates began in 1979, when he interned in the Promotions department while attending Point Park College. Following the World Series that year, Brown worked as the clubhouse manager during the Instructional League program in Bradenton, Florida. His 10-year stint in the Bucs front office included work in the Sales, Public Relations and Broadcasting departments. Greg also served as the team's public address announcer during the 1987 campaign. In 1988, he was a sports anchor on WFMJ-TV in Youngstown, OH.

Prior to joining Pittsburgh's broadcast team in 1994, Brown spent five seasons (1989-1993) doing play-by-play and color commentary for the Buffalo Bisons of the American Association (now International League) as well as hosting a sportstalk show on WGR Radio. He also worked as a color analyst and a pre- and post-game show host for the Buffalo Bills of the National Football League for five seasons (1989-93). Also during his time in Buffalo Greg served as a play-by-play announcer for University of Buffalo basketball on WGR Radio and as a broadcaster for the Empire TV Sports Network.

Brown's dedication for the Pirates extends to his efforts away from the broadcast booth as well. He makes numerous off-season appearances in the community, in addition to his yearly participation in the club's caravan and PiratesFest events.

Brown is a native of Washington, D.C. He currently resides in Leet Township with his wife Kim and son Ryan (22).

JOE BLOCK

PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Joe Block is in his sixth season of calling Pirates play-by-play action, having joined the TV and radio broadcast teams in 2016.

Though having grown up in and outside Detroit, Block considers making his home in Pittsburgh "a dream," as his grandparents and great-grandparents originally settled in the region, in Wheeling, WV, and Byesville, OH. As a teenager, Block traveled to Pittsburgh on spring break to take in Penguins games at the Igloo.

Block, 43, has called baseball for 18 seasons, previously with the Milwaukee Brewers and in the minor leagues in Billings, MT, Great Falls, MT, Jacksonville, FL, St. Paul, MN, and Charleston, SC. He also broadcast for the Los Angeles Dodgers, New Orleans Hornets, Montreal Expos and for various regional TV networks since graduating from Michigan State in 1999.

He and his wife, Bethany, a nurse practitioner and South Park native, are actively involved in community and charitable endeavors around Pittsburgh and in the South Hills area.

They reside in Bethel Park with daughters Nancy (5) and Mary Claire (3) and infant son; Zeke.

BOB WALK

COLOR ANALYST

Bob Walk is in his 28th season as a member of the Pirates broadcast crew. He joins Greg Brown as being one of only five men with at least 20 years of service behind the microphone for the Bucs on radio.

The former right-handed pitcher spent 10 of his 14 years pitching in the Major Leagues with Pittsburgh (1984-1993). He compiled a 105-81 lifetime record, which included an 82-61 mark with the Pirates.

Walk's professional career began with Spartanburg in 1977 after he was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the 3rd round of the 1976 June draft. He made his big league debut with the Phillies in 1980 and was the starting pitcher in Game One of the World Series that October against Kansas City.

In the spring of 1981, Walk was dealt to the Atlanta Braves for outfielder Gary Matthews. He spent three seasons in the Atlanta organization before being acquired by Pittsburgh in 1984.

Bob was a 1988 National League All-Star and he posted six straight winning seasons from 1987 to 1992. One of his finest moments in a Pirates uniform came in 1992 when he pitched a 7-1, complete-game victory over the Atlanta Braves in Game Five of the National League Championship Series.

Walk, a native of Newhall, CA, resides in Wexford with his wife Lorrie. They have three sons; Tommy (41), Johnny (39) and Ronny (31). Tommy and his wife, Dominique, are the proud parents of daughters Makayla (18) and Kylie (15). Johnny and his wife, Nikki, have two children; son Jake (6) and daughter Ella (4).

After being named Pittsburgh's Minor League Player-of-the-Year in 1991, K.Y. made his Major League debut on 7/12/92 and singled off Cincinnati's Tim Belcher in his second at bat.

In his 11 seasons with the Pirates (1992-95 and 1997-2003), Young played a total of 1022 games at first base and ranks third on the club's all-time list for games played at that position, trailing only Gus Suhr (1339) and Jake Beckley (1045).

Pirates Charities places a special emphasis on supporting youth programs focused on health, fitness and education by developing partnerships with those who share in our mission.

Thanks to the generosity of Pirates fans, our corporate sponsors and our community partners, Pirates Charities is proud to fulfill this mission throughout the Pirates season and all year long!

COVID RELIEF

425,000 meals provided to local food banks

Food Distributions

Throughout 2020, Pirates Charities partnered with the Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank. These events provided a total of 425,000 meals and supported 30 local neighborhoods served by the Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank. In addition, the Pirates made a $50,000 donation to the food bank to ensure the needs of those in the community are met during the beginning of the COVID-19 pandemic.

In March 2020, the Pirates hosted a drive-through distribution event, as part of the food bank's Produce to People program. During the event, Pirates front office members joined more than 30 local volunteers to load pre-packaged boxes into vehicle trunks as they arrive.

In April, Pirates Charities directed funds to support the Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank through the "Home Plate Project," a Major League Baseball-wide initiative in partnership with Garth Brooks' "Teammates for Kids Foundation" and Adam Wainwright and Kyle Gibson's "Big League Impact."

Pirates Charities directed the total $30,000 contribution to fund an emergency food distribution with the Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank. The donation provided up to 37,500 meals for families in need in the Pittsburgh region.

AHN Day at PNC Park

On a beautiful Saturday in June, the Pirates teamed up with Allegheny Health Network (AHN) to honor doctors, nurses and hospital staff at PNC Park as part of a special AHN Heroes Day.

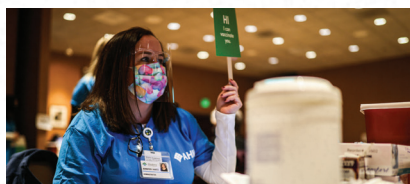

Representing the thousands of front-line healthcare workers who serve our community, the Pirates invited several AHN employees and their families to enjoy a unique on-field experience at PNC Park. The group included three doctors, four registered nurses and three staff members from the Allegheny Health Network family.

These 10 men and women were honored throughout PNC Park as banners adorning their photos lined the outside façade of the ballpark. The banners remained on the exterior of PNC Park for the entire 2020 season as a tribute to our front-line heroes.

Vaccination Clinics

Thanks to our partners at Allegheny Health Network and Highmark, the Pirates were the first professional sports team in Pittsburgh to host mass COVID-19 vaccination clinics. Together we have been able to vaccinate over 13,000 high-risk patients, with more to come over the coming weeks.

Family Forever

During the first week of the 2020 baseball season, the Pirates announced the Club's "Family Forever" campaign, a marketing initiative focused on togetherness and support of fans, businesses and community. The season-long initiative, in partnership with PNC, aimed at supporting several small businesses and nonprofits from around the city in continued commitment towards creating a stronger community.

The Pirates and Pirates Charities relied on the North Side Chamber of Commerce and the African American Chamber of Commerce of Western PA to select six small businesses and six nonprofit organizations to highlight during the season. The Pirates used the team's unique public platform throughout the season to raise awareness and ensure these groups received the exposure they needed during the pandemic.

In addition to the support of the small businesses, the Pirates committed to supporting and raising awareness for several local nonprofits. The Club allocated several in-game assets such as highlight videos to be played in-broadcast and on social media and coordinating in-broadcast interviews with representatives of each nonprofit. Pirates Charities will partner with PNC to contribute to each local nonprofit during their feature week.

More than $358,000 in total club marketing spend was allocated to local businesses and $36,000 was directed to area nonprofits through the Family Forever initiative.

MANAGER

AGE: 50 (turns 51 on July 30)
BORN: 7/30/70 in Carbondale, IL
RESIDES: Treasure Island, FL
APPOINTED: 11/27/19
POSITION PLAYED: C

Derek Shelton was named manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates on November 27, 2019, thus becoming the 41st manager in the organization's 134-year history.

In his first season as manager of the Pirates, Shelton guided the club to a 19-41 record during the shortened 60-game season. He picked up his first Major League win on July 26; a 5-1 victory over the Cardinals at Busch Stadium in St. Louis.

During the 2020 campaign, Shelton worked closely with the Clemente family, the Pirates and MLB to spearhead the universal wearing of uniform #21 on Clemente Day.

Shelton has spent the last 16 years as a manager or coach in some capacity at the Major League level. Prior to joining the Pirates, he spent two seasons serving as the Bench Coach for the Minnesota Twins under 2019 Manager-of-the-Year Rocco Baldelli and Hall-of-Famer Paul Molitor in 2018.

Prior to joining the Twins, Shelton served as Toronto's Quality Control Coach in 2017. He also spent seven seasons (2010-2016) as Hitting Coach for the Tampa Bay Rays under manager Joe Maddon and remains the longest-tenured hitting coach in Tampa Bay's history.

Shelton's big league coaching career began on June 4, 2005, when he replaced Hall-of-Famer Eddie Murray as Hitting Coach for the Cleveland Indians. He spent the next four seasons with the Tribe before moving on to Tampa Bay in 2010.

A catcher during his playing days, Shelton was signed by the New York Yankees as a non-drafted free agent on June 3, 1992. He played with Oneonta in 1992 and with Greensboro in 1993, combining to hit .341 in 46 career minor league games. While in the Yankees system, Shelton played under manager Glenn Sherlock, now a big league coach with the Pirates. Shelton underwent elbow surgery after the 1993 season, ending his playing career.

Shelton began his coaching career in the Yankees farm system with the GCL club in 1997. He also coached with Single-A Tampa in 1998 and with Double-A Norwich in 1999 before managing the GCL Yankees in 2000.

In his three seasons as a minor league manager, Shelton captured two league championships while also advancing to the final series the other year. He guided the GCL Yankees to the championship in 2001 and followed that up with a New York-Penn League title in 2002 with Staten Island, a team that included current Bullpen Coach Justin Meccage.

Shelton joined the Cleveland organization prior to the 2003 campaign and spent three seasons as the Minor League Hitting Coordinator. In his role there, he streamlined the entire Indians minor league system from the Dominican Summer League to Triple-A with all new terminology and approach to hitting.

28 JOEY CORA

THIRD BASE COACH

AGE: 56 (turns 57 on May 14)
BORN: 5/14/64 in Caguas, Puerto Rico
RESIDES: Pittsburgh, PA
APPOINTED: 10/29/16
POSITION PLAYED: INF

Joey Cora is in his fifth season as Pittsburgh's Third Base Coach, having been named to the position on October 29, 2016.

In addition to his role as the Third Base Coach, Cora serves as the club's Infield Coach. Under his tutelage, Adam Frazier was a Gold Glove Award finalist in 2019 and 2020 and the Bucco defense did not commit an error over the last 67 innings of play in 2020 while making just one error in the last nine games.

Cora served as Manager for the Altoona Curve in 2016, the Pirates Double-A affiliate in the Eastern League, and led the club to a 76-64 regular season record and a wild card berth. Altoona took over first place in the Western Division for the first time on June 26, and held that spot for 55-of-63 games until Akron took it over on the next-to-last day of the season.

A native of Caguas, Puerto Rico, Cora was a first-round pick of the San Diego Padres in 1985 — the 23rd overall pick in the First-Year Player Draft that year.

After making his professional debut with Spokane in 1985 and finishing eighth in the Northwest League batting race that season (.324), Joey made his Major League debut with San Diego at the age of 21 on 4/6/87.

The Opening Day second baseman for the Padres in 1987, Cora singled off San Francisco's Mike Krukow for his first big league hit in his fourth at bat.

After playing parts of three seasons with San Diego (1987, 1989-90), Cora spent the next four years playing for the White Sox, where he connected off Mike Moore for his first Major League home run on 6/2/93 at Detroit. Joey also played in 153 games with Chicago in 1993 while also ranking second in the league with 13 triples that season (his teammate Lance Johnson had 14).

Cora was selected to the American League All-Star team while playing with Seattle in 1997, a season in which he set career highs in doubles (40), home runs (11), RBI (54) and runs scored (105) while playing in 149 games.

The switch-hitting infielder produced a 24-game hitting streak with the Mariners during the 1997 campaign between 5/2-29, the third-longest hitting streak in Seattle team history and the third-longest ever by an American League switch hitter.

Cora spent a total of 11 seasons in the Major Leagues, playing in a career-high 155 games with the Mariners and Indians during his final campaign in 1998. He batted .277 (1035-for-3734) with 171 doubles, 41 triples, 30 home runs, 294 RBI, 624 runs and 117 stolen bases in 1119 career games, recording his 1000th big league hit on 8/21/98.

In addition to his regular season games, Cora appeared in the postseason with the White Sox (1993), Mariners (1995 and 1997) and Indians (1998). He homered off New York's David Cone in the fifth and deciding game of the 1995 Division Series, giving Seattle a 1-0 lead in the third inning. Joey also scored one of the two runs in the 11th inning as the Mariners walked off the Yankees on Edgar Martinez' double off Jack McDowell.

Cora began his coaching career in 2000 with the Florida State League champion Daytona Cubs. He served as a minor league manager in the New York Mets system for two years, with the Rookie-level Appalachian League Kingsport Mets in 2001 and 2002, and also managed the Montreal Expos' Single-A affiliate in the South Atlantic League, the Savannah Sand Gnats, in 2003.

In addition to his minor league coaching career, Cora was a member of the Major League staff of the Chicago White Sox for eight years under manager Ozzie Guillen from 2004-2011. He was Chicago's Third Base Coach for three years (2004-2006) before spending the final five years as the Bench Coach. Cora also joined Guillen in 2012 and served as the Bench Coach and Infield Instructor for the Miami Marlins.

(*) Led League

(†) Tied for League Lead

Selected by Pittsburgh in 2017 First-Year Player Draft (17th round).

HOW TO FIGURE

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of hits by the number of at bats.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine and then divide that number by the number of innings pitched.

FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks, hit by pitches and divide by the total of at bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

SLUGGING AVERAGE: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit-by-pitch, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest batting average based on a minimum of 502 plate appearances, the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games, which may include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitch, etc.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR PITCHING (ERA) CHAMPIONSHIP: Lowest earned run average with a minimum of 162 innings pitched.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP: The fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

- (1) A catcher participates as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.
- (2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.
- (3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION: if another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

NOTE: These figures DO NOT determine Rawlings Gold Glove winners at the end of the season.

Those are selected by a vote of managers and coaches.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A ROOKIE: A player with no more than 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during the previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-man player limit (excluding time in military service).

PINCH HITTING: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around in the inning and a pinch hitter comes up a second time, he will not be considered a pinch hitter the second time.

CONSECUTIVE HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit. The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his club's games.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one-half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

DETERMINING GAMES AHEAD/BEHIND: Subtract the team's wins from the first place club's wins and subtract the first place club's losses from the team's losses. Add the results and divide by two.

Originally selected by Montreal in the 14th round of the 1996 First-Year Player Draft, Carroll made his Major League debut with the Expos on 9/11/02 at Wrigley Field in Chicago. He recorded a pair of hits and scored a run in his first game and singled off Alan Benes in his second plate appearance.

While playing with the Expos under manager Frank Robinson in 2003, Jamey connected off Milwaukee's Wayne Franklin for his first big league home run on 8/1. He spent the entire 2004 season with Montreal and in the 5702nd and last game in franchise history, scored the Expos final run on 10/3 at New York (NL).

Carroll set career highs in batting (.300), hits (139), doubles (23), home runs (five) and RBI (56) while playing for former Bucco manager Clint Hurdle in Colorado in 2006 and delivered the game-ending sacrifice fly that scored Matt Holliday in the 13th inning of Colorado's 9-8 victory over San Diego at Coors Field in the one-game playoff on 10/1/07.

After spending the 2008 and 2009 campaigns with Cleveland, Carroll posted a career-high .379 on-base percentage and 12

Primarily a middle infielder, Carroll made 638 career appearances at second base, 316 at third base, 264 at shortstop, 12 in left field, eight in right field, one in center field and one as a pitcher (8/5/13) in his Major League career.

PNC PARK

GREAT MOMENTS FROM 20 YEARS AT PNC PARK

There have been many, many memorable moments at PNC Park since the Pirates opened their spectacular new ballpark on the North Shore of the Allegheny River on April 9, 2001 against Cincinnati. That afternoon Sean Casey of the Reds, a Pittsburgh native who later played for the Pirates in 2006, hit the first home run at the new facility.

Here's a recap of some of the happenings from the first 20 years at PNC Park that fans will surely remember for many years to come:

Brian Giles hits walk-off grand slam vs. Astros relief ace Billy Wagner with two outs in bottom of the ninth to cap seven-run, game-winning rally. Final score: Pittsburgh 9, Houston 8.

MAY 28, 2004

Rob Mackowiak smashes walk-off grand slam in first game of doubleheader against Cubs to lift Pirates to 9-5 victory after his wife Jennifer had given birth to couple's first child (son Garrett) earlier in the day. In the nightcap, Mackowiak belts two-run, game-tying homer in ninth inning of 5-4, 10-inning Pittsburgh triumph.

JULY 11, 2006

PNC Park is setting for 77th Major League Baseball All-Star Game, which sees A.L. defeat N.L., 3-2, before crowd of 38,904. The Pirates are represented by Jason Bay, who starts in right field and bats clean-up, and Freddy Sanchez.

OCTOBER 1, 2006

Freddy Sanchez goes 2-for-4 vs. Cincinnati on final day of regular season to clinch N.L. batting title with .344 mark. He posts highest batting average by a Pirate since Roberto Clemente hit .345 in 1969.

AUGUST 1, 2009

Rookie Andrew McCutchen homers three times during an 11-6 win over Washington. In sign of great things to come, he contributes solo homer in first inning, two-run shot in fourth, and three-run blast in sixth.

OCTOBER 1, 2013

The Pirates defeat Cincinnati, 6-2, in N.L. Wild Card Game with Francisco Liriano (7.0 IP, 4 H, 1 R) and catcher Russell Martin (two home runs) leading the way. Contest becomes known as "The Blackout Game" because the 40,487 fans that pack PNC Park are adorned in black shirts. Reds ace Johnny Cueto exits in fourth inning after allowing eight hits and four runs, and famously dropping ball on the mound at one point.

OCTOBER 6, 2013

Back-to-back singles by Pedro Alvarez and Russell Martin off Kevin Siegrist in bottom of eighth inning lift Pirates to 5-3 victory over St. Louis in Game Three of National League Division Series. In ninth inning, Jason Grilli surrenders lead-off single to Matt Adams but retires next three batters to earn the save.

MARCH 31, 2014

After Pirates and Cubs fail to push across run during first nine innings of season opener, Pittsburgh native Neil Walker cracks walk-off home run off Carlos Villanueva to open 10th, creating joyous celebration for 39,833 fans on hand.

JULY 11, 2015

Andrew McCutchen strikes decisive blow in 14-inning marathon against St. Louis that lasts five hours and four minutes. Cutch connects for a two-run, walk-off homer that lifts Pittsburgh to 6-5 victory.

JULY 9, 2016

In his second big-league at bat, Josh Bell smacks pinch-hit, grand slam in 12-6 victory over Cubs. The impressive blast and the rookie's joyous reaction inspire the PNC Park crowd to demand curtain call.

JULY 1, 2019

Josh Bell goes deep three times during 18-5 domination of Cubs with homers in each of the first two frames and a third in the ninth inning. Bell goes 4-for-6 with seven RBI, four runs scored and 13 total bases.

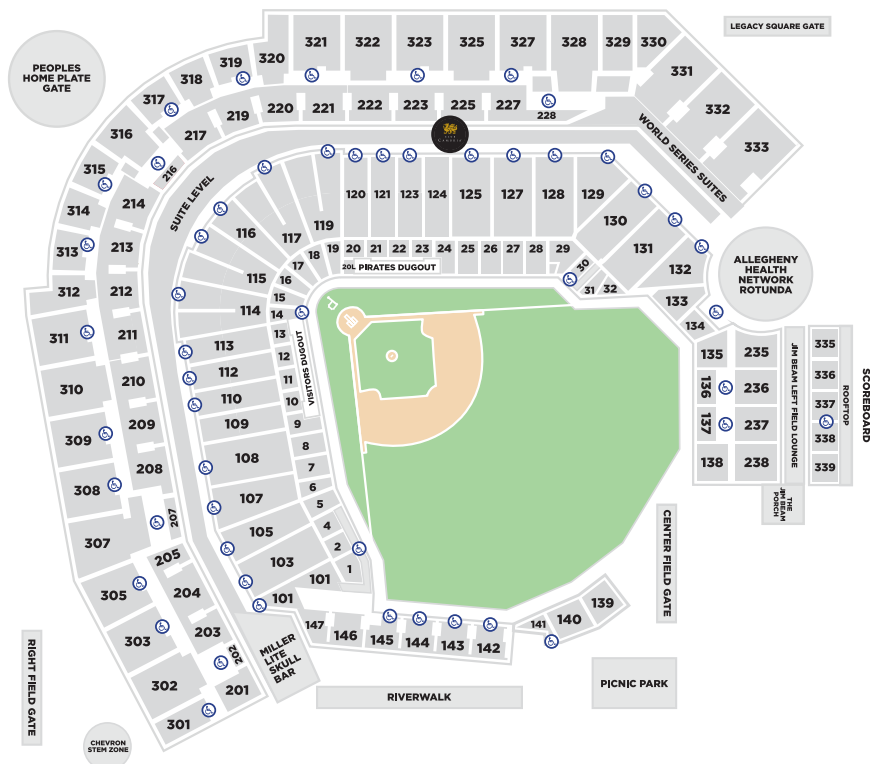

SEPTEMBER 9, 2020

Although fans weren't able to attend games at PNC Park in 2020 due to coronavirus pandemic, a memorable moment occurs when Pirates players and coaches honor Hall of Famer Roberto Clemente by wearing his famous #21 for a game against the White Sox. It marks the first time anyone representing the Pirates had worn the iconic number since it was retired in 1973.

Major concerts have also been part of the PNC Park experience, including performances by Bruce Springsteen (2003), Pearl Jam and the Rolling Stones (2005), Dave Matthews Band (2010), Jason Aldean and Miranda Lambert (2014), Billy Joel (2016) and others.

PNC PARK STATUES

HONUS WAGNER

The Honus Wagner statue has had three different “homes” since being dedicated on April 30, 1955. Originally, the Wagner statue was located in Schenley Park, close to the Pirates early home, Forbes Field. It was then moved to Three Rivers Stadium and erected outside Gate C on July 21, 1972.

The statue is now located at the home plate entrance to PNC Park. Honus Wagner’s statue was sponsored by the Pittsburgh Professional Baseball Association as a lasting tribute to his character and abilities. Contributions to the statue fund were in amounts ranging from $1,000 to $1.00 and were received from thousands of individuals, organizations and foundations. Names of all contributors were then inscribed on one continuous roll and put in a stainless steel, hermetically-sealed tube before being placed inside the statue.

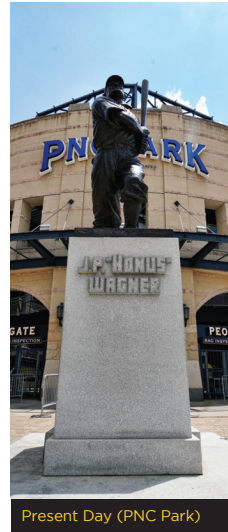

“No one player has ever brought more honor to the game of baseball than has Honus Wagner,” said former Pirates President Bill Benswanger, who served as master of ceremonies at the original statue dedication in 1955.

DID YOU KNOW?

Bucco Hall-of-Famer Honus Wagner is just one of three players to accumulate at least 3,000 hits, 600 doubles and 500 stolen bases during his career. The other players are Ty Cobb and Paul Molitor.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE

The Roberto Clemente statue was dedicated on July 8, 1994, to kick off All-Star Week in Pittsburgh. It was originally erected outside Gate A at Three Rivers Stadium and is now located outside the Center Field Gate to PNC Park, a few steps away from the Roberto Clemente Bridge.

The base of the statue is black granite and stainless steel with a diamond set in the center. Glass blocks represent first, second and third base. Beneath the glass is soil from Puerto Rico — where Roberto first played the game — Forbes Field and Three Rivers Stadium. The soil is marked as “hallowed ground,” a place of transcendence where the past, present and future of baseball meet and to which each individual can bring his or her own memories.

Encircling the diamond and set in the stainless steel is a timeline of Clemente’s life. Fifteen inscriptions run counter-clockwise around the diamond, beginning at home plate and ending somewhere between third base and home. There is space for a 16th inscription, but it remains empty, a reflection of the incomplete circle of Roberto Clemente’s life. Susan Wagner sculpted the 12-foot bronze statue of Clemente and L.D. Astorino & Associates, Ltd., served as the architect of the project.

DID YOU KNOW?

Roberto Clemente led the Major Leagues in hits and batting average during the decade of the 60’s. In that 10-year span, Clemente recorded 1,877 hits to top the list, 58 ahead of Hank Aaron (1,819), while producing a .328 batting average.

WILLIE STARGELL

On September 29, 2000, the Pirates announced that a statue of Willie Stargell would be unveiled at the club's new home, PNC Park. The announcement was made during the last weekend of Pittsburgh's final games at Three Rivers Stadium.

Stargell, however, did not live to see the day he would be forever immortalized at the statue unveiling on April 7, 2001. After not being able to attend the unveiling ceremony because of an illness, the Hall-of-Famer passed away in the early morning hours of April 9, the same day PNC Park officially opened its doors to begin a new era of Pirates baseball.

The 12-foot bronze statue stands along Federal Street at the entrance to left field at PNC Park. At the base of the statue is a quote from Stargell: "Last night, coming in from the airport, we came through the tunnel and the city opened up its arms and I felt at home." Also throughout the base of the statue are "Stargell stars," which the Pirates all-time home run leader handed out to his teammates toward the conclusion of his 21-year playing career with Pittsburgh.

DID YOU KNOW?

Willie Stargell is the all-time home run leader in the 131-year history of the Pirates. He hit a total of 475 homers in his 21-year career— all coming in a Bucco uniform. "Pops" led all National League players with 289 home runs hit over the 10-year span from 1968-1977, trailing only Reggie Jackson (312) for the Major League lead.

Dedicated 2001 (PNC Park)

BILL MAZEROSKI

As part of the 50th anniversary season of the 1960 World Series Championship, the Pirates announced plans on January 29, 2010, to erect a statue of Hall-of-Fame second baseman Bill Mazerowski.

The 12-foot bronze statue was officially unveiled on September 5, 2010, Mazerowski's birthday, and stands at the end of Mazerowski Way, which is located at the right field entrance to PNC Park. Susan Wagner, who sculpted the Clemente, Stargell and Kiner statues, also produced this likeness of Maz.

Mazerowski remains the only player in Major League Baseball history to hit a game-winning home run in Game 7 of a World Series. His blast off New York's Ralph Terry on October 13, 1960, gave the Bucs a 10-9 victory in the deciding game played at Forbes Field in Pittsburgh.

Elected into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2001, the Pirates retired Mazerowski's uniform #9 in 1987. He was a seven-time All-Star and holds numerous Major League records for second basemen, including most seasons leading the league in assists (nine), most double plays in a single season (161 in 1966) and most career double plays (1,707).

DID YOU KNOW?

Bill Mazerowski holds the Major League record for most seasons (eight) leading the league in double plays and the most double plays turned in one season (161 in 1966). "Maz" still remains the only player in MLB history to hit a game-ending home run in Game Seven of the World Series.

HISTORY

TEAM HISTORY

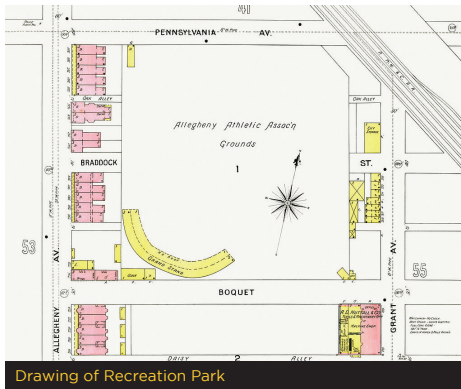

THE EARLY YEARS

Now in their 135th National League season, the Pittsburgh Pirates own a history filled with World Championships, legendary players and some of baseball's most dramatic games and moments.

The Pirates' roots in Pittsburgh actually date back to April 15, 1876, when the Pittsburgh Alleghenys brought professional baseball to the city by playing their first game at Union Park. In 1877, the Alleghenys were accepted into the minor-league International Association, but disbanded the following year.

Baseball returned to Pittsburgh for good in 1882 when the Alleghenys reformed and joined the American Association, a rival of the National League. After the 1886 season, the Kansas City franchise was expelled from the N.L. and Pittsburgh President William A. Nimnick's application for membership was accepted.

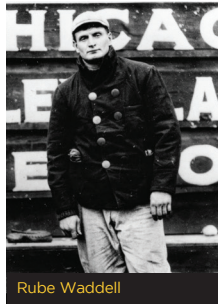

On April 30, 1887, the Alleghenys defeated the defending league-champion Chicago White Stockings, 6-2, before a crowd of nearly 10,000 at Recreation Park. The victorious beginning was not an indication of things to come, however, as the team managed to finish higher than fifth only once in the 13 remaining seasons of the century. In 1890, the Alleghenys' roster was demolished when key players jumped to a new rival to the National League — the Players League. They staggered to a club-record 113 losses as the two leagues engaged in a bitter battle over talent.

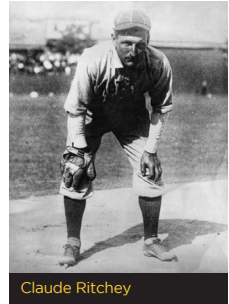

Drawing of Recreation Park

When the Players League folded after only one season, all players were expected to return to the clubs they played for in 1889. But in 1891 Pittsburgh signed Louis Bierbauer, a second baseman with Brooklyn of the Players League who had spent the previous four seasons with the Philadelphia Athletics. The A's and their American Association brethren immediately accused Pittsburgh of "pirating" Bierbauer away from them. Pittsburgh kept the player and the nickname and became known as the Pirates thereafter.

The fortunes of the Pirates turned in 1900 when the National League reduced its membership from 12 to eight teams. As part of the move, Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the defunct Louisville club, acquired controlling interest of the Pirates. In the largest player transaction in Pirates history, the Hall-of-Fame owner brought 14 players with him from the Louisville roster, including Hall of Famers Honus Wagner, Fred Clarke and Rube Waddell — plus standouts Deacon Phillippe, Chief Zimmer, Claude Ritchey and Tommy Leach. All would play significant roles as the Pirates became the league's dominant franchise, winning pennants in 1901, 1902 and 1903 and a World championship in 1909.

Rube Waddell

Claude Ritchey

Wagner, dubbed "The Flying Dutchman," was the game's premier player during the decade, winning seven batting titles and leading the majors in hits (1,850) and RBI (956) from 1900-1909. One of the pioneers of the game, Dreyfuss is sometimes called "The Father of the World Series" because he challenged Henry Killilea, the owner of the American League champion Boston Americans, to a post-season playoff in 1903 to determine who was baseball's best team. On October 1, 1903, Phillippe defeated the legendary Cy Young, 7-3, in the first World Series game ever played. Boston, however, later emerged as the Series winner, overcoming a three-games-to-one deficit to win the best-of-nine competition, five games to three. In the Series, Phillippe started five of the games.

The Pirates finished as runner-up three times in the next five years before getting another shot at a World Series title in 1909. The Bucs won a club-record 110 games that year with three pitchers — Howie Camnitz (25), Vic Willis (22) and Lefty Leifield (19) combining for 66 victories. The Series pitted the league's batting champions — Wagner and Detroit's Ty Cobb against each other, but rookie pitcher Babe Adams, who was 12-3 during the regular season, emerged as the Series hero for the Pirates.

While Camnitz, Willis and Leifield failed to win a game, Adams won three, including a six-hit shutout in the seventh and deciding game. It was the last of four titles the Pirates would win under Clarke, who managed the club until 1915.

THE FORBES FIELD YEARS

Forbes Field | Opening Day 1909

The 1909 season also marked the beginning of a new era in ballparks as the Pirates christened Forbes Field on June 30 that year. Since 1891, the Pirates had called Exposition Park — which was located on virtually the same site as Three Rivers Stadium — their home. Described as the “Hialeah of Ballparks” when it opened, Forbes Field would remain the home of the Pirates for six decades and would host many great moments.

Pittsburgh sank to the league’s second division for most of the next decade, but by the early 1920’s — with an influx of outstanding talent which included future Hall of Famers Pie Traynor, Kiki Cuyler, Rabbit Maranville and Max Carey — Pittsburgh was again a contender. After three straight third-place finishes from 1922 to 1924, the Pirates won the N.L. title by eight and a half games over the second-place New York Giants in 1925.

The Series matched Pittsburgh against the Washington Senators, who jumped out to a three-games-to-one lead. The Pirates, however, bounced back to win the final three games and the Series. Their miraculous comeback included a 15-hit pounding of Hall of Famer Walter “Big Train” Johnson in Game Seven.

In 1926, a rookie named Paul Waner joined the Bucs and batted .336. A year later, his brother Lloyd joined him and belted out 223 hits for a club rookie record .355 average and the Pirates were again National League champions. Paul, who was nicknamed “Big Poison” — batted .300 or better 14 times, captured three batting titles and collected 200 or more hits in eight different seasons. He was named the league’s Most Valuable Player in 1927 and went on to compile 3,152 hits and a .333 career batting average. Lloyd — who was tagged “Little Poison” — hit .300 or better in 10 of his first 12 seasons, compiled a career mark of .316 and accumulated 2,450 hits. Both were elected to the Hall of Fame.

The 1927 World Series featured the Pirates against New York’s famed “Murderer’s Row” with Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig, who swept Pittsburgh in four straight games. The next 33 years, Pirate fans went without a pennant winner, although they were not denied their share of great players and great moments.

Lloyd Waner, Babe Ruth, Paul Waner, Lou Gehrig prior to 1927 WS

The Waners were consistently among baseball’s premier hitters during the 1930’s with Paul amassing more hits (1,959) during the decade than any player in baseball. Traynor was one of the era’s best all-around players and is generally regarded as one of the finest third basemen ever to play the game. Shortstop Arky Vaughan topped the .300-mark in each of his 10 seasons with the Pirates (1932-1941) and his .385 average in 1935 has gone unequalled by any National League performer. He, too, is enshrined at Cooperstown.

Hall of Famer Ralph Kiner won or shared the N.L. home run title in each of the seven seasons that he wore a Pirates uniform (1946-52) — which is a streak that has never been matched in either league. In 1956, Pirate first baseman Dale Long hit home runs in a record eight straight games between May 19th and May 28th (that mark was matched by Don Mattingly in 1987 and Ken Griffey Jr. in 1993). Three years later, Harvey Haddix hurled what many consider the greatest game ever pitched when he retired 36 straight Milwaukee Braves hitters over 12 innings on May 26, 1959. The same year, ElRoy Face won 17 straight games in relief.

Though the Pirates failed to finish higher than seventh from 1950 through 1957, the foundation for another championship was being put into place. Standout players were added throughout the decade, including 2001 Hall-of-Fame inductee Bill Mazeroski, Dick Groat, Vernon Law, Bob Friend, Bill Virdon Face and Hall-of-Fame right fielder Roberto Clemente.

In 1956, Pirate owner John Galbreath hired Joe L. Brown as general manager. With the club languishing in last place at 36-67 midway through the 1957 campaign, Brown promoted coach Danny Murtaugh to field manager. Within three seasons the Bucs were again champions of the National League and again matched against the powerful New York Yankees in the World Series. This time the Bronx Bombers featured Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris.

The 1960 World Series remains one of the most incredible post-season encounters ever on record. The Yankees won Game Two, Game Three and Game Six by a combined score of 38-3, but the Pirates used great pitching, defense and timely hitting to stretch the Series to a seventh game at Forbes Field. Pittsburgh took a 9-7 lead into the ninth — thanks to Hal Smith’s three-run homer in the eighth — but the Yankees came up with two runs in the top of the ninth to tie the score. The game and the Series ended, however, in the bottom of the ninth as Mazeroski belted what is perhaps the most dramatic home run in baseball history off Ralph Terry. Mazeroski was the only player in baseball history ever to end a World Series with a home run until Joe Carter of Toronto accomplished the feat in Game Six of the 1993 Fall Classic.

During the 1960’s, Clemente established himself among the game’s elite players. He collected more hits (1,877) than anyone during the decade and would go on to reach the 3,000-hit plateau in 1972. During his marvelous career, he topped the .300 mark 13 times, won four batting titles and was named the National League’s Most Valuable Player in 1966.

THE THREE RIVERS YEARS

Three Rivers Stadium

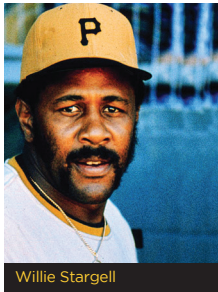

The changing of the decade also brought along a change to the home ballpark of the Pirates. After playing in cavernous Forbes Field since June 30, 1909, the Bucs began play at a multi-purpose stadium located at the confluence of Pittsburgh's three rivers. The aptly named Three Rivers Stadium played host to its first game on July 16, 1970, with the Pirates losing a 3-2 decision to the Reds.

During the 1970's, the Pirates were again among baseball's premier teams. In that 10-year span, they won six division titles and finished as low as third only once. In the first 25 years of divisional play, the Bucs won more games (2,100) and finished first more often (nine times) than any other N.L. East club. The Pirates put together a 2,100-1,878 record during that period (.528 winning %).

The Pirates captured two more World Championships during the 1970's. Their 1971 victory over Baltimore was a showcase for Clemente, who batted .414 and received the Series MVP award.

Roberto Clemente

Willie Stargell

In 1979, the Pirates became only the fourth team in history to erase a three-games-to-one deficit when they again bested the Orioles in seven games. Hall of Famer Willie Stargell took home MVP honors — as he did during the regular season — with a .400 batting average, three home runs (including the Series' deciding blow in Game Seven) and seven RBI. It was a fitting conclusion to the decade for Stargell, who was the leading home run hitter of the 1970's (296). While the Pirates brought two world championships back to Pittsburgh during the 1970s, the Pittsburgh Steelers also came to prominence. The Steelers won four Super Bowls during the 70s, which, coupled with the Pirates success, helped garner Pittsburgh the "City of Champions" label.

On October 2, 1985, the Galbreath family and Warner Communications sold the club to Pittsburgh Associates; a group of private investors who were committed to keeping the team in Pittsburgh.

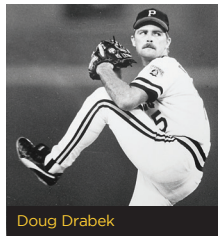

Pittsburgh Associates was made up of 10 investors representing six corporations, three individuals and Carnegie Mellon University. The group included the Aluminum Company of America, Mellon Bank, PNC Financial Corporation, PPG Industries, USX Corporation, Westinghouse Electric Company, Eugene and Raymond Litman, John McConnell and Harvey M. Walken.

After several lean years in the mid-eighties, the Pirates returned to contention in 1988 when they finished in second place and broke the club's 28-year-old attendance mark.

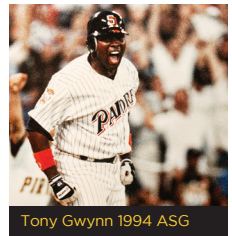

With players like Barry Bonds, Doug Drabek, Bobby Bonilla and Andy Van Slyke, Pittsburgh started the decade of the 1990's in fine fashion, winning the N.L. East title three straight years. The Bucs became the first team to win three straight division titles since the Philadelphia Phillies accomplished the feat between 1976 and 1978. Bonds captured MVP honors in 1990 and 1992, while Drabek won the Cy Young award in '90. Manager Jim Leyland took home N.L. Manager-of-the-Year honors in both 1990 and 1992. In his 11 seasons at the helm, Leyland won 849 games, placing him third on the club's All-Time Managerial win list.

Pittsburgh was on the brink of a World Series berth in both the 1991 and 1992 season, but the Pirates lost the seventh and deciding game each year to the Atlanta Braves. In 1992, Pittsburgh came within three outs of the Fall Classic. But in the bottom of the ninth inning at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium, the Braves triumphed with three runs and won the game 3-2 and the series, four-games-to-three.

The people of Pittsburgh and the surrounding Tri-State area responded well to the club's success in the nineties as the Pirates drew in excess of two million fans in both 1990 and 1991.

Doug Drabek

Tony Gwynn 1994 ASG

A crowd of 59,568, the largest ever to watch a professional baseball game in Pittsburgh, witnessed the 65th Major League Baseball All-Star Game, played at Three Rivers Stadium on July 12, 1994. In one of the most thrilling All-Star Games ever to be played, the National League prevailed over the American League in extra frames. Fred McGriff helped send the game into extra innings when he delivered a two-run, pinch-hit home run off Lee Smith in the bottom of the ninth inning that tied the score. After the American League failed to score in the top of the 10th inning, the National League broke its six-game losing streak when Tony Gwynn scored on a double by Moises Alou.

A new chapter of Pirate history began on February 14, 1996, when Kevin McClatchy and his group of investors purchased the storied franchise from Pittsburgh Associates.

Picked by many publications to finish last in 1997, the Pirates remained in the division race until the final weekend of the season and the club was named USA Today's "Organization of the Year" at the conclusion of the season. Major League Baseball also underwent a change in 1997 with the birth of Interleague play. That season, the Pirates welcomed the Kansas City Royals to Three Rivers Stadium on June 13 for the club's first interleague matchup, which Pittsburgh won by a score of 5-3.

While the Bucs contended for the division during the entire 1997 season, one of the most memorable moments of the season came on July 12. That night, pitchers Francisco Cordova and Ricardo Rincon thrilled Pirates fans with the only combined, extra-inning no-hitter in major league history. The game ended in the bottom of the 10th inning when Mark Smith delivered a three-run home run for the 3-0 win.

The 2000 season brought an end to a full century of great moments, a 100-year period which began with three straight National League pennants and ended with an aura of hope and dreams of more championships to come. With a new home on the horizon, the Bucs said goodbye to Three Rivers Stadium with their final game ever played there on October 1, 2000. Three no-hitters, Clemente's 3000th hit two All-Star Games, countless playoff games, two World Championships and endless summer evenings can be associated with no other place in the history of Pittsburgh than Three Rivers Stadium.

The Pirates closed out their 30-year tenure at Three Rivers Stadium with a 10-9 loss to the Chicago Cubs in the final game of what was the club's home since 1970. Pittsburgh native John Wehner smacked the final home run in the history of the ballpark off Chicago's Jon Lieber. Ironically, Wehner also grounded out to third base for the final out ever at Three Rivers. With the loss, Pittsburgh closed out Three Rivers Stadium with a record of 1,324 wins and 1,082 losses.

In the early morning of February 11, 2001, Pittsburgh bid farewell to Three Rivers when the home of the Pirates and Steelers was imploded.

THE PNC PARK YEARS

PNC Park

PNC Park officially opened its gates on April 9, 2001. Regarded by many as the best ballpark ever built, PNC Park is an intimate two-level structure which offers all fans dramatic views of the downtown skyline as well as the natural grass playing surface. After touring all 30 major league ballparks during the summer of 2003, ESPN.com ranked PNC Park as the best in baseball.

The anticipation and joy of a new ballpark turned to sorrow, when on the morning of the first regular season game at PNC Park, a beloved member of the Pirates family was lost when Willie Stargell passed away on April 9, 2001.

Despite suffering 100 losses for just the seventh time in club history in 2001, fans came out in record numbers as the Bucs played in front of 19 sellouts and a total of 2,436,139 customers during the inaugural season at PNC Park.

On June 25, 2002, the Pirates registered the 9,000th win in the history of the franchise with a 4-1 victory over the Montreal Expos, thus becoming just the fourth club to produce 9,000 wins.

The Pirates have had a long list of sluggers in their history and Brian Giles added his name to that list during his five seasons in a Bucco uniform. He hit 30 or more home runs in each of his first four seasons with the club, just one of three Pirates to hit 30 or more long balls in four consecutive years (also Hall-of-Famers Ralph Kiner and Willie Stargell). His 165 home runs with Pittsburgh rank seventh in club history.

Brian Giles

Jason Kendall

Catcher Jason Kendall spent each of his first nine big league seasons in a Pittsburgh uniform after being selected in the first round of the 1992 June draft. In that time, he made 1,205 appearances behind the plate. That figure ranks first all-time in the annals of the club, 50 games ahead of George Gibson, who caught for the Bucs from 1906 thru 1915. Kendall surpassed Gibson's 90-year-old record in Los Angeles on August 3, 2004.

For the first time in team history a Pittsburgh player captured Rookie-of-the-Year honors as outfielder Jason Bay took home the honors in 2004. A two-time National League All-Star, Bay was a fan favorite at the 2006 All-Star Game in Pittsburgh.

The national spotlight shined once again on the city of Pittsburgh during the 2006 season as the Major League Baseball All-Star Game was played at PNC Park, marking the fifth time the event has been held in the Steel City. The American League won a dramatic 3-2 decision in the Midsummer Classic as the Pirates became the first team in baseball history to host the All-Star Game in three different venues.

Jason Bay & Freddy Sanchez

Also in 2006, Freddy Sanchez added his name to the club's record list of 25 batting champions as his .344 average led the National League. Sanchez banged out 200 hits in 2006 and led the N.L. with 53 doubles while being named to his first of two All-Star teams.

On January 18, 2007, Bob Nutting officially assumed control of the ballclub, thus becoming only the sixth principal owner in the Pirates storied history. Following a deep look into the team's operations, Nutting introduced Frank Coonelly as the team's new president on September 13, 2007 and, in-turn, Neal Huntington as the team's new general manager on September 25, 2007. From there the new leadership team made significant changes to each of the three major areas — Major League manager/coaching staff, Scouting Director and Farm Director, with the goal of building an organization that can consistently compete.

Between 2009-2016, fans witnessed the debuts of first-round draft picks Andrew McCutchen, Pedro Alvarez, Neil Walker, Gerrit Cole and Jameson Taillon along with appearances of many other young players, including Starling Marte, Gregory Polanco and Josh Bell.

Clint Hurdle was named manager of the Pirates on November 15, 2010, and in his first five seasons at the helm, the inspirational leader posted a 431-379 record while leading the Bucs to the postseason three times.

During the 2012 campaign, Bucco fans showed their great support of the club as the Pirates played host to 17 sellouts during the season.

McCutchen also emerged as one of the best players in the game, winning a Gold Glove and Silver Slugger award in 2012 while finishing third in the National League MVP voting.

In 2013 the Pirates returned to prominence in the league as they won 94 regular season games and appeared in the postseason for the first time since 1992.

The Pirates placed five players on the 2013 All-Star team — the most since also having five selected to the 1972 Midsummer Classic. Along with McCutchen, Pedro Alvarez, Jason Grilli, Jeff Locke and Mark Melancon represented the Bucs at the 2013 All-Star Game, played at Citi Field in New York.

Led by 16-game winner and the National League Comeback Player-of-the-Year Francisco Liriano, the Bucco pitching staff posted 16 shutouts in 2013 and ranked third in the N.L. with a 3.26 ERA; the best mark by the pitching staff since 1984. Grilli (33) and Melancon (16) picked up 49 of the club-record and National League leading 55 saves.

The offense was led by McCutchen, who took home N.L. MVP honors in 2013 after hitting .317 with 97 runs, 38 doubles, 21 home runs, 84 RBI and 27 stolen bases in 157 games. McCutchen became the sixth player in club history to win the MVP award, joining Dick Groat (1960), Roberto Clemente (1966), Dave Parker (1978), Willie Stargell (1979) and Barry Bonds (1990, 1992).

Silver Slugger award winner Pedro Alvarez shared the league lead in home runs in 2013, as the young slugger smacked 36 long balls to become the first Bucco to lead or share the N.L. lead in homers since Willie Stargell did so with 44 in 1973.

2013 Wild Card Champions

After winning 94 games during the 2013 regular season and finishing second in the N.L. Central division standings, the Pirates defeated the Reds in the Wild Card playoff game, played before a sold out crowd at PNC Park on October 1.

The Pirates had a two-games-to-one lead in the best of five Division Series playoff against the Cardinals, but dropped the final two games to bring an end to their magical 2013 campaign.

The Pirates produced a record 23 sellouts during the 2013 regular season before playing in front of three standing-room only crowds in the postseason.

Clint Hurdle also took home some hardware following the 2013 season as he was named the N.L. Manager-of-the-Year; just the second Bucco skipper to win the award.

The Pirates reached the postseason again in 2014 while drawing 2,442,564 fans and averaging 30,155 for their 81 home dates. In addition, the Bucs posted 23 regular season sellouts for the second consecutive year.

With a combination of the second-best OBP in the National League (.333) and a pitching staff that posted the second-lowest ERA (2.94) over the final two months of the season, the Pirates won 88 games in 2014, finishing 2.0 games behind St. Louis in the Central division race.

Josh Harrison finished second in the N.L. batting race while Andrew McCutchen once again put up MVP-type numbers, leading the Pirates to the postseason in back-to-back seasons for just the sixth time in franchise history.

The final game of the 2014 season was played on October 1 as a standing-room only crowd of 40,629 watched eventual World Series MVP Madison Bumgarner shut down the Bucs in the Wild Card Game as the Giants began their run toward the championship.

For the sixth time in franchise history, and for the first time since 1991, the Pirates won 98 games in a season as the 2015 squad posted a 98-64 record.

The Pirates also established a club-record attendance figure in 2015, drawing 2,498,596 fans and averaging 30,847 fans for their 81 home dates. The Bucs went 53-28 at home, setting a record for most wins in a season at PNC Park.

During the 2015 campaign, Pittsburgh posted its 10,000th franchise win on September 24, becoming the fifth club to record as many victories.

For the third straight year the Pirates hosted the N.L. Wild Card Game in 2015, making the postseason three consecutive years for just the fourth time in team history.

Mark Melancon set a club record and led the Major Leagues with 51 saves in 2015. In addition, Gerrit Cole won 19 games, Starling Marte captured a Gold Glove Award for his fielding excellence and Andrew McCutchen won the 2015 Roberto Clemente Award for his many community endeavors.

The 2017 season saw the emergence of another young talented player as Josh Bell set a National League record for most home runs hit by a switch-hitting rookie (26).

For the 49th time in club history, a Gold Glove award was given to a Pirates player as Corey Dickerson took home the hardware for his outfield excellence in 2018.

Bell placed his name in the record books during the 2019 season, putting up one of the best offensive months in MLB history. The N.L. All-Star hit .390 with 12 homers, 31 RBI and a 1.238 OPS in May while setting the club record for most total bases (94) in a month. He also became just the third National League player in history to produce at least 12 doubles and 12 home runs in any calendar month.

Another chapter in history began in 2020, a season that was shortened to 60 games due to the international COVID-19 pandemic. Travel was limited as the Pirates played teams only from the N.L. and A.L. Central divisions.

Derek Shelton served as the 41st manager in team history in 2020 while Ben Cherington took over General Manager duties - the 13th GM in Pirates history.

Baseball uniform illustrations from 1900-1994 are from Marc Okkonen's Baseball Uniforms of the 20th Century; from 1995-today are courtesy of Major League Baseball Properties

The jersey of this period was short-sleeved with no trim except for a dark blue collar. Stockings were dark blue with red stripes and the cap was blue with a white "P". A "PBC" monogram signifying Pittsburgh Baseball Club was also added to the left sleeve later in the decade.

1910-1920

The regular collar was replaced by the short, stand-up "cadet" style with a button collar. Pinstriped material was also introduced. As the team nickname became more accepted, "Pirates" was displayed in capital letters down the button lapel (1912). The cadet-style collar soon gave way to a tapered collar extension, but the button lapel remained solid dark blue with white buttons and a "P-P" straddling the top button (1913-14). Later in this decade, the cap had piping and also included a "P" in white or red.

1921-1932

Standard white uniforms were worn at home and gray on the road with simple graphics and solid colors. The 1925 & '27 championship teams wore the standard capital "P" on its sleeves but not on the jersey. A red "P" was also placed on the solid blue cap.

1933-1937

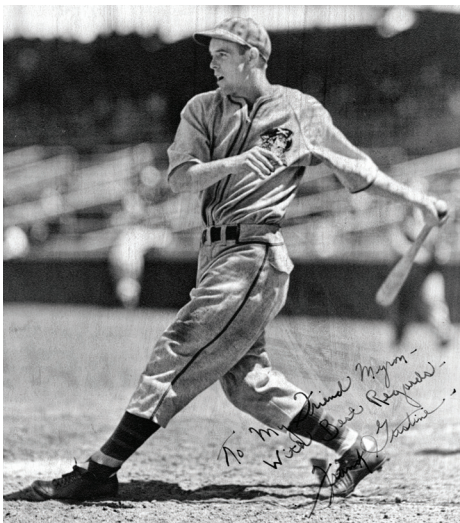

The Pirate uniforms brightened up considerably with added colors, trim features and graphics. The name "Pirates" was placed across the jersey in an arc of fancy red and blue capital letters. Solid blue belts were included and piping trim on the uniforms included blue and red.

1938-1939

The name "Pirates" appeared on the jersey in script lettering with underline flourish.

1940-1941

The uniform abandons the traditional "P" or "Pirates" for an emblem of an actual buccaneer. The patch was placed on the left breast of both the home and road jerseys. This was the first time an emblem of the team's nickname was ever worn on a game jersey.

1940-1944

A zipper front replaced the button-down jersey.

1947

Team introduces script "Pirates" (home) and "Pittsburgh" (away) in arc lettering.

1948

The team replaced the traditional blue and red with the present day black and gold. The script "Pirates" and "Pittsburgh" was replaced with the block lettering that you still see today. The cap became solid black with a gold "P."

1954

The word "Pittsburgh" is removed from the road jersey, and replaced with "Pirates."

1957

The Pirates became the second team to begin wearing sleeveless jerseys.

1962

Numbers were introduced on the front of the home and road jerseys and have been there ever since.

1970

The Pirates became the first major league club to adopt the new double-knit fabric uniforms, which they debuted at the first game at the new Three Rivers Stadium in July. The jersey became a pullover with no button or zipper. The pants contained a built-in sash belt. The cap crown was mustard yellow with a black bill. Within two years, nearly every other club was wearing a double-knit uniform.

1976

The Pirates, as well as other clubs, commemorate the National League's centennial by wearing the old striped, pill-box style caps. The Bucs wore yellow caps with a black bill and black stripes.

1977-1979

Abandoned were the traditional white and gray uniforms in exchange for combinations of white, gold, black and pinstriping. The caps became black with yellow stripes. Players' last names appear on the back of the jerseys for the first time.

1985

The Pirates returned to the basic white and gray uniform.

1987

The Pirates replaced the striped cap in favor of the traditional standard black round crown type.

1990

A script "Pittsburgh" is added to the gray road uniform for the first time since 1947.

1995

The Pirates return to button-down jerseys and belted pants.

1996

That change lasted only one year, as the Pirates return the names to the back of the jerseys.

1997

The organization introduces a complete new look by wearing an alternate home jersey as well as bringing the color "red" back into the uniform for the first time since 1946.

2001

With the opening of PNC Park, the club enters a "New Era of Baseball." The team re-introduces the sleeveless jersey as part of both the home and road uniform. The Pirates also become the first team ever to wear a cap with a red underbill (cap worn with the alternate home jersey only).

2005

The Pirates re-introduce pinstripes to the uniform. The alternate uniforms are worn on Sunday home games.

2007

The club introduces a red, sleeveless jersey to be worn on selected home dates.

2009

The Pirates re-introduce sleeves to their home and road jerseys and added a black alternate jersey. The sleeveless pinstriped jersey are worn on Sundays through the end of 2010.

The club introduces an alternate uniform mustard gold cap which was worn on Sunday home games throughout the season. The pullover style jersey was similar to the one from the early 1970's. The front of the jersey featured black "Pirates" lettering outlined in mustard gold on the chest, as well as the player's number below the lettering on the left hand side of the jersey. The players' names were added to the back of the jerseys to go along with their number, as opposed to the 1970 jerseys that did not feature the names. These jerseys were worn through the end of 2015.

2015

The club introduces camouflage jerseys to be worn on selected home dates.

2016

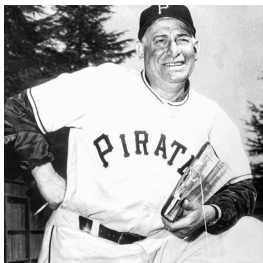

The Pirates introduce a gold jersey/black pant uniform combination to be worn on Sunday home games. The club also wore a pill-box style cap with the uniform.

2020

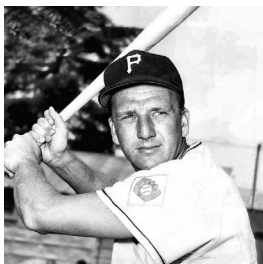

The Pirates re-introduce the script "Pittsburgh" to the road uniform in both gray and black uniforms.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

The Roberto Clemente Award is given annually to the Major League Baseball player who "best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team," as voted on by baseball fans and members of the media. Originally known as the Commissioner's Award, it has been presented by MLB since 1971. In 1973, the award was renamed after Clemente following his death in a plane crash while delivering supplies to victims of the Nicaragua earthquake on 12/31/72. Each year, a panel of baseball dignitaries selects 1 player from 30 nominees, one from each club. Teams choose their nominee during the regular season, and the winner is announced at the World Series.
