Robert Peter Geren

Named as A's bullpen coach, November 13, 2002

Named as A's manager, November 17, 2006

Birthdate: September 22, 1961

Birthplace/Resides: San Diego, California / Danville, California

Contract Status: Second year of a three-year contract through 2009

Bob Geren was named the 28th manager in franchise history and the 17th in Oakland history on November 17, 2006. He guided the A's to a 76-86 record in his first season as manager, a year that saw the A's use an Oakland record 54 players while tying a club record by using the disabled list 22 times.

Geren has been a member of the A's coaching staff for the last five seasons, serving as the club's bench coach in 2006 after spending the previous three seasons as bullpen coach. He joined the A's organization in 1999 as manager of Single-A Modesto and spent the next three seasons (2000-02) at the helm of the Triple-A Sacramento River Cats. He also managed in the Boston Red Sox farm system for three seasons, guiding Utica of the New York-Penn League in 1995, the Red Sox Gulf Coast League team in 1996 and Sarasota of the Florida State League in 1998. His sevenyear managerial record on the minor league level is 452-390, including a 319-253 record in the A's system. He gained further managerial experience in the 2005 off-season, leading Escogido in the Dominican Winter League.

Geren was named the California League's Manager of the Year in 1999 after his Modesto club finished 88-52 and won both halves in the Northern Division of the California League. He then led Triple-A Sacramento to consecutive first place finishes in the Southern Division of the Pacific Coast League, as the River Cats posted a 90-54 record in 2000 and 75-69 in 2001.

A former catcher, Geren's professional playing career spanned 15 seasons, including five years in the Major Leagues with the New York Yankees and San Diego Padres. Originally a first round pick of the Padres in 1979, Geren was traded to the St. Louis organization prior to making his Major League debut with the Yankees in 1988. He played four seasons with New York from 1988-91 and enjoyed his best season in 1989 when he batted .288 and hit a career high nine home runs. After spending the 1992 season in Boston's minor league system, Geren finished his playing career with San Diego in 1993. He owns a .233 career batting average in 307 Major League games.

A native of San Diego, Geren attended Clairemont High School. Bob and his wife Pam, reside in Danville with their sons, Brett and Bobby.

RENE LACHEMANN

3rd BASE

Bradley James Fischer

Named as A's bullpen coach, December 6, 1995.

Birthdate: June 28, 1956

Birthplace/Resides: Blissfield, Michigan / McFarland, Wisconsin

The 2007 season marked Brad Fischer's 29th season in the A's organization and his 11th at the Major League level. He had been a minor league player, minor league manager, minor league instructor and assistant director of player development before Art Howe named him as his bullpen coach in 1996. Brad was the A's first base coach in 1997 before moving back to the bullpen for the 1998 season. He returned to the first base coaching box in 2003 and switched back to the bullpen in 2006.

Fischer's playing career lasted just one season (1978) at Bend, the A's rookie league club, although he did appear in emergency situations at Madison in 1983 and '84. He was out of baseball in 1979 but returned to the Oakland organization in 1980 as manager of Single-A Medford.

In his second season as manager, the A's won the Northwest League championship with a 42-28 record as Fischer earned Manager of the Year honors. After a promotion to Madison he guided the Muskies to a league championship in 1982 and a playoff appearance in 1984. Fischer managed at Huntsville from 1985-87 and reached the playoff all three years, including his second league championship in 1985. The former catcher took over the helm of the A's Triple-A affiliate at Tacoma from 1988-90 and in his final season with the Tigers he reached the postseason for the seventh time. Fischer finished his 11-year minor league managerial career with a 743-670 record.

Following his stint as a manager, Fischer was a minor league instructor for the A's from 1991-93. He then spent two seasons working with Keith Lieppman as the assistant director of player development.

Fischer attended Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo and earned a B.S. degree in Industrial Education. He hit .352 with 34 RBI in 40 games as a senior and signed with the A's as a non-drafted free agent. He and his wife, Mary, have four children, Dan (24), Kelly (21), Kaitlyn (16) and Ryan (12).

Rene George Lachemann

Named as A's bench coach, October 26, 2004

Birthdate: May 4, 1945

Birthplace/Resides: Los Angeles, California / Scottsdale, Arizona

Rene Lachemann was the A's third base coach in 2007 after coaching at first base in 2006 and serving as the A's bench coach in 2005. This is Lachemann's second stint with the A's as he was a member of Tony LaRussa's coaching staff from 1987-92, spending two seasons as the first base coach and four years at third base.

Lachemann's career in professional baseball spans 43 years and includes Major League managerial stints in Seattle (1981-83), Milwaukee (1984) and Florida (1993-96). His career record as a Major League manager stands at 428-559 (.434). Lachemann has been on a coaching staff of a team that has reached postseason play six times in his career (1986 with Boston; 1988-90; 92; 2006 with Oakland), including four World Series appearances. He was also a member of the American League's coaching staff for the 1987 and 1990 All-Star Games.

Prior to joining the A's, Lachemann served as the bench coach for the Seattle Mariners (2003-04) and Chicago Cubs (2000-02) and third base coach in St. Louis (1997-99), where he was reunited with Tony LaRussa.

Lachemann began his managerial career in 1973, spending five seasons in Oakland's minor league system. He also gained managerial experience during winter ball, managing in Puerto Rico, Venezuela and Mexico during the 1976-81 off-seasons. In 1978, he earned manager of the year honors at Mayaguez after leading the Puerto Rican team to the Caribbean World Series championship.

A former catcher, Lachemann was signed by the Kansas City Athletics in 1964 and made his Major League debut with the A's in 1965, spending the entire season in Kansas City. His first Major League hit was a pinch hit home run off Chicago's Gary Peters. He also appeared briefly in the Majors with the Athletics in both 1966 and 1968. In 118 big league contests, he hit .210 with nine home runs and 33 RBI.

Lachemann's brothers, Marcel and Bill, also have Major League coaching experience. Marcel served as Rene's pitching coach with the Florida Marlins in 1993 and when Marcel left the Marlins to manage the California Angels in May of 1994, it marked the second time in big league history two brothers were managing at the same time (1879 - Boston's Harry Wright and Providence's George Wright).

A native of Los Angeles, Lachemann attended Dorsey High School and the University of Southern California. He resides in Scottsdale, Ariz. with his wife, Lauri and has two sons, Jim and Britt, and three grandchildren.

Robert W. Schaefer

Named as A's bench coach, November 29, 2006

Birthdate: May 22, 1944

Birthplace/Resides: Putnam, Connecticut / Fort Myers, Florida

One of three new faces on the A's coaching staff in 2007, Bob Schaefer was the A's bench coach after spending one season with the Atlanta Braves as a Special Assistant to the General Manager.

The 2007 season marked Schaefer's ninth year on a Major League coaching staff and his sixth as a bench coach. He previously served as bench coach for Kansas City in 1991 and from 2002-05. Schaefer also coached first base for the Royals from 1988-90 and had the added responsibilities of infield coach during his final four seasons with the Royals organization. He is officially 1-0 as a Major League manager, as he served as the Royals interim skipper in 1991 between the release of John Wathan and the hiring of Hal McRae.

The 63-year old Schaefer has seven seasons of minor league managerial experience, including two seasons at Greensboro (1980-81), one year at Jackson (1983), two years with Tidewater (1984-85) and single seasons with Glenn Falls (1986) and Memphis (1987). He was named South Atlantic League Manager of the Year in 1980 and 1981 and Eastern League Manager of the Year in 1986.

Schaefer also served as a Special Assistant to the GM with Baltimore from 1999-2001 and spent six seasons in the Boston Red Sox organization from 1993-98, the final five as Director of Player Development. Schaefer was selected by St. Louis in the 1966 June draft and spent three seasons in the Cardinals organization as a shortstop.

Schaefer graduated from the University of Connecticut in 1967 and later returned to receive his Master's degree in Physical Education. He received UConn's Distinguished Alumni Award in 2005 which celebrated his achievements with the Huskies baseball program, which included a trip to the 1965 College World Series. Bob makes his off-season home in Fort Myers, Fla. with his wife, Betty. The couple has two children—Lori and Jamie.

Tyler Lee Van Burkelo

Named as A's hitting coach, December 4, 2006

Birthdate: October 7, 1962

Birthplace/Resides: Oakland, California / Grass Valley, California

The 2007 season was Ty Van Burkelo's first as the A's hitting coach after serving as the minor league roving hitting instructor in the Los Angeles Angels organization for the previous six seasons. Prior to joining the Angels organization, he spent four seasons as a minor league coach in the Arizona Diamondbacks organization (1997-2000), serving as a coach at Rookie-Lethbridge in 1997, Single-A High Desert in 1998 and Double-A El Paso in 1999-2000. He began his coaching career in the Angels organization as a player/coach at Single-A Lake Elsinore in 1996.

Van Burkelo played professionally for 14 seasons, including Major League stints with the California Angels (1993) and Colorado Rockies (1994). He made his Major League debut with the Angels on July 28, 1993 and hit .152 with one home run for the Halos. He was hitless in five at bats for the Rockies in 1994. Van Burkelo played five seasons in Japan for Seibu (1987-90) and Hiroshima (1991). He led the 1988 Seibu club to the Japan League Championship, earning player of the year honors after hitting .268 with 38 home runs and 90 RBI. A 1980 graduate of Chatsworth (CA) High School, he was originally signed as a free agent in 1981 by Milwaukee out of Los Angeles Valley College.

Ty makes his off-season home in Grass Valley with his wife, Christine, and five children—Britney, Cameron, Sierra, Devin and Walker

Elliott Tyrone Waller

Named as A's first base coach, December 21, 2006

Birthdate: March 14, 1957

Birthplace/Resides: Fresno, California / San Diego, California

Tye Waller completed his first season as the A's first base coach in 2007 after serving in the same capacity with the San Diego Padres in 2006. His 19-years in the Padre organization also included a six-year stint as the Padres director of player development (2000-05) before he returned to the field in 2006.

Waller began his coaching career in 1988 with the Padres rookie-level club in Spokane, Wash. He then served as the club's minor league outfield and base running instructor from 1989-93 before taking over the managerial duties at Spokane for the 1994 season. Waller accepted his first Major League coaching position in 1995 as the Padres bullpen coach and then served as San Diego's coordinator of minor league instruction from 1997-1999.

Selected by the St. Louis Cardinals in the fourth round of the 1977 First-Year Player Draft, Waller played 11 seasons professionally, including parts of four seasons in the Majors. In his first season of professional ball, he batted .320 for Calgary and led the Pioneer League in hits, runs and RBI on his way to league MVP honors. He made his Major League debut with the Cardinals in 1980 and appeared in five games for the Redbirds. He was traded to the Chicago Cubs in the off-season to complete a deal that sent Leon Durham and Ken Reitz to the Cubs for Bruce Sutter. He appeared in 30 games for the Cubs in 1981 and finished the season batting .268 with three home runs and 13 RBI. Waller was traded to the White Sox in December of 1982 and signed a free agent contract with the Astros in 1983. He appeared in 11 games for the Astros in 1987, his last season of professional ball.

A native of Fresno, Waller graduated from Hoover High School and attended San Diego City College for two years. Tye makes his off-season home in San Diego with his wife, Cynthia. The couple has four children—Elliott and triplets Todd, Terrence and Tiffany.

Curtis Allen Young

Named as A's pitching coach, December 2, 2003

Birthdate: April 16, 1960

Birthplace/Resides: Saginaw, Michigan / Scottsdale, Arizona

Curt Young completed his fourth season as the A's pitching coach, a position he was appointed to on December 2, 2003. The 2007 season marked Young's 20th in the Oakland organization, which includes 12 years as a player and four years as a minor league coach.

Over the past four seasons, the A's pitching staff has allowed the fewest home runs in the American League (618), ranks second in opponents batting average (.260), tied for second in shutouts (40) and third in ERA (4.09). During Young's tenure as pitching coach, five A's pitchers—Mark Mulder (2004), Tim Hudson (2004), Justin Duchscherer (2005), Barry Zito (2006) and Dan Haren (2007)—have been selected to the American League All-Star team, while closer Huston Street earned 2005 American League Rookie of the Year honors. Zito (July, 2005), Esteban Loaiza (August, 2006) and Haren (May, 2007) earned AL Pitcher of the Month Awards while Joe Blanton twice earned AL Rookie of the Month Awards in 2005.

Young began his coaching career in 2000 as the pitching coach at Double-A Midland. His first Midland staff compiled a 4.64 ERA which was the lowest figure posted by the club in 15 years. His 2001 staff bettered the previous year's figure by 24 points, finishing with a 4.40 ERA, and in 2002 the Rockhounds finished with a 3.88 ERA. Young was moved up to Triple-A Sacramento for the 2003 season and the River Cats posted the fourth best ERA in the Pacific Coast League (3.90) en route to the PCL Championship.

Young compiled a 69-53 record and a 4.31 ERA in 251 games, 162 starts, in an 11-year Major League career that included stints with Oakland (1983-91, 93), Kansas City (1992) and the New York Yankees (1992). He was originally drafted by the A's in the fourth round of the 1981 June draft and made his Major League debut in 1983. The left-hander went 13-9 with a 3.45 ERA in 1986 and led the team in victories, earning him an Opening Day start in 1987. He matched his career best in wins in 1987, posting a 13-7 record and a 4.08 ERA in a career high 31 starts. Young was also a member of the A's starting rotation when they won three consecutive American League pennants from 1988-90. He tossed two one-hitters during his career: October 5, 1986 against Kansas City and June 9, 1987 against Chicago.

Young graduated from Arthur Hill High School in Saginaw, Michigan, where he also starred as a quarterback, and attended Central Michigan University. In 1980, he pitched for the United States team in the World Amateur Baseball Tournament in Japan. Young makes his off-season home in Scottsdale, Arizona with his wife, Kathy and their two sons.

2007 Highlights

Appeared in just 90 games as he spent the final two months of the season on the disabled list...those were the fewest games played of his nine full seasons in the Majors...was placed on the DL on August 3 retroactive to July 27 with lower back spasms but ended up having surgery to repair a torn labrum on his right shoulder on September 5...also had microdiscectomy surgery on his back on October 9...hit a career low .240, marking the fourth consecutive season his average has decreased...also had career lows in at bats (341), runs (43), hits (82), RBI (46), walks (34) and on-base percentage (.306) and matched his low in doubles (21) and total bases (152)...his 15 home runs were his fewest since 1999 when he had 13...the six-time American League Gold Glove Award winner committed just six errors in 88 games at third base for a .9751 fielding percentage...did not qualify for the league leaders but his percentage was second best among AL third basemen with 81 or more games (Iwamura, TB .9753)...it was also the second best mark of his career...started a team leading 87 games at third and now has 1210 career games as a third baseman...that is second most in A's history to Sal Bando who played 1395 games at third in an Oakland uniform and 1446 total in an A's uniform...ranks among the top 10 in nearly every category on the Oakland career lists...is second in doubles (266), third in extra base hits (513), fourth in home runs (227) and total bases (2212), fifth in hits (1225) and RBI (762), sixth in games played (1256), at bats (4553), runs (710) and strikeouts (866) and seventh in walks (550) and slugging percentage (.486)...is sixth in Athletics history in home runs, seventh in extra base hits and strikeouts, ninth in total bases, tied for ninth in RBI and 10th in doubles and slugging...10 of his 15 home runs came in Oakland and he now has 114 career home runs at home, which ranks fourth on the all-time Coliseum list...has 221 career home runs as a third baseman, which is an on-going Athletics franchise record...since 1999, his first full season in the Majors, only Troy Glaus has more home runs as a third baseman (257)...12 of his home runs in 2007 came off right-handed pitching, 10 were solo shots and nine were with two strikes...the A's were 10-5 in games in which he homered and are now 160-52 (.755) when he homers in his career...hit .204 with runners in scoring position and now has a .203 (46 for 227) average with RISP over the last two seasons...was 1 for 10 with the bases loaded and is now 2 for 20 (.100) with the bases full over the last two seasons...batted .197 (36 for 183) against a pitcher the first time he saw him in a game and .291 (46 for 158) after that...was batting .230 (43 for 187) with five home runs and 21 RBI over his first 46 games through May 27...then hit .297 (19 for 64) with seven home runs and 12 RBI over a 17-game span from May 28 to June 15...finished the season by batting .222 (20 for 90) with three home runs and 13 RBI over his final 27 games...made the A's Opening Day roster for the ninth consecutive season and also made his ninth consecutive Opening Day start...that ties the Oakland record for consecutive Opening Day starts held by Bando (1968-76) and Terry Steinbach (1988-96)...the nine Opening Day starts also tie for second most in Oakland history to Rickey Henderson (12) and tie Bando and Carney Lansford for the most by an Oakland third baseman...batted .186 in May, which was his second lowest average ever in a month to his .179 in June of 2006 (min. 50 at bats)...went 1 for 31 with runners in scoring position from May 12 to June 8...hit his second career walk-off home run in the A's 5-4 win over Boston on June 4, a solo shot with two outs in the bottom of the 11th inning off Kyle Snyder...his other came on June 20, 2001 against Seattle...it was his fourth career game-ending hit...went 0 for 6 with his first career four-strikeout game on June 12 at Houston...then homered in three consecutive games from June 13 to 15,

the fourth time he has done that in his career...it was the first time since August 26-28, 2004...had a season best eight-game hitting streak from June 27 to July 4 (11 for 29, .379)...started each of the A's first four games after the All-Star Break...then missed the next four games from July 16-20 and made just three starts over the A's final 17 games before going on the DL on August 3...pinch ran on July 24 at Los Angeles, his first appearance as a pinch runner since July 31, 2000 against Toronto...also pinch ran the next day and scored both times...missed 60 games while on the DL...it was his third career stint on the DL, but his first since missing 33 games with a broken right hand in 2004...was transferred to the 60-day DL on September 1.

2007 Highlights

Began the season in the A's bullpen but moved into the starting rotation at the end of May and finished the season with an 8-10 record and a 4.11 ERA in 35 games, 20 starts...his first 11 appearances came in relief and he then started in 20 of his 21 appearances from May 29 to September 16 before finishing the season with three appearances out of the bullpen...was 7-8 with a 4.93 ERA and .293 opponents batting average in his 20 starting assignments and 1-2 with a 1.82 ERA in his 15 relief appearances...allowed just one home run in 34.2 relief innings...is one of three pitchers in Oakland history with 20 or more starts and 15 or more relief appearances in one season (Lary Sorensen, 46 G/21 GS in 1984; Doug Johns, 40 G/23 GS in 1996)...now has a 5.49 ERA (77 er in 126.1 ip) in 27 career starts and a 3.44 ERA (33 er in 86.1 ip) in 51 career relief appearances...was charged with 14 unearned runs, which was fifth most in the American League...opponents grounded into 27 double plays, which was sixth most in the AL...however, he averaged 1.85 grounded into double plays per nine innings, which was the best ratio in the AL and the best in Oakland history, based on a minimum of 100 innings pitched...it was the best by an AL pitcher since Bill Swift had a mark of 1.85 for Seattle in 1988...using the 100 innings pitched minimum, he had the third lowest strikeout to walk ratio (1.18) and strikeout per nine inning average (4.04) in the AL in 2007 as he had 59 strikeouts and 50 walks in 131.1 innings...allowed a .278 opponents batting average, which included a .271 (105 for 387) mark against right-handed hitters and .304 (31 for 102) against lefties...his opponents average increased to .307 with runners in scoring position, although that marked dropped to .190 with RISP and two outs...opponents hit .176 with two outs and .292 with one or no outs...allowed a .263 opponents batting average over his first 60 pitches in a game and .325 after that...was 5-5 with a 3.41 ERA and .247 opponents batting average in 20 appearances in Oakland and 3-5 with a 5.02 ERA and .315 opponents batting average in 15 games on the road...now has a 3.36 career ERA (46 er in 123.1 ip) in his home ballparks and 6.45 (64 er in 89.1 ip) on the road...was 3-5 with a 2.72 ERA in 19 game, seven starts, before the All-Star Break and 5-5 with a 5.27 ERA in 16 games, 13 starts, after the break...allowed a .320 average to hitters leading off an inning and opponents are now batting .332 (65 for 196) in his career in that situation...the

A's were 10-10 in his 20 starting assignments...tossed six innings or fewer in 17 of his 20 starts, allowed two runs or fewer eight times and walked two batters or fewer 14 times...allowed 2 of 11 (18.2%) inherited runners to score and first batters faced were 4 for 15 (.267) in his relief appearances...tossed at least one inning in 14 of his 15 relief appearances, including five outings of three or more innings...made the A's Opening Day roster and posted a 1.83 ERA in 11 relief appearances before moving into the starting rotation...did not allow a run in seven of those outings...tossed 4.0 shutout innings in relief of Chad Gaudin on April 27 against Seattle and 4.2 scoreless innings in relief of Colby Lewis on May 22 at Chicago...took Lewis' spot in the starting rotation on May 29 against Texas and lost, despite allowing just one earned run in 5.1 innings...then tossed 6.0 shutout innings in each of his next two starts on June 5 and 10 for a career high 12.0 inning scoreless streak...walked a career high six batters on June 5 in a 2-0 win against Boston to become the ninth pitcher in Oakland history to walk six or more batters and not allow a run (last: Zito, September 4, 2000 at Toronto)...singled off Matt Cain in the fifth inning on June 10 at San Francisco for his first Major League hit...was 2-2 with a 1.22 ERA, a .200 opponents batting average and one home run in 37.0 innings over his first 14 games, three starts, through June 10...then went 6-8 with a 5.25 ERA, a .305 opponents batting average and 12 home runs allowed over his final 21 games, 17 starts, beginning on June 16...allowed a home run to Shawn Green on June 22 at New York (NL), snapping a 13-game (four start), 40.2-inning, 165-batters faced streak without allowing a home run dating back to April 14...his one mid-season relief appearance came on July 7 against Seattle when he tossed 6.1 scoreless innings in relief of Rich Harden in a 4-0 A's loss...it matched the longest outing by an A's reliever in 2007 and it was the longest scoreless outing by an A's reliever since Steve Chitren tossed 6.1 scoreless innings on September 16, 1990 against Minnesota...returned to the rotation after Harden returned to the disabled list and, after a loss on July 13 at Minnesota, he put together a career high five-game winning streak from July 18 to August 19...compiled a 3.67 ERA over that seven start stretch, which included an outing on July 29 at Seattle when he allowed a career high tying seven runs in 3.0 innings...however, ended up with a no decision in a 14-10 A's loss...capped the winning streak by tossing a career high 8.0 innings and allowing just one run on August 19 against Kansas City...then finished the season with a four-game losing streak, posting an 8.28 ERA and a .364 opponents batting average over his final eight games, five starts...tossed 1.2 innings in each of his final two starts on September 9 at Texas and September 16 against Texas...finished the season with three relief appearances (8.2 ip, 10 h, 3 r, 3 er, 1 bb, 5 so).

Took over as the A's closer when Huston Street went on the disabled list in mid-May and ended up leading the club with 17 saves...set an Oakland record for saves by a left-handed pitcher, topping the previous mark of 12 set by Rick Honeycutt in 1989...the saves were a career high as he had just eight saves in 708 games pitched over his previous 13 seasons in the Majors...they were the fewest saves by an A's team leader since 1996 when Bill Taylor led the club with 17...tied for 11th in the American League in saves but had four blown saves for a save percentage of 80.9%, which tied for third lowest among AL closers...also led the A's with 68 appearances and topped A's relievers with a career high 68.0 innings pitched...it was the ninth consecutive season he appeared in at least 60 games, making him one of four pitchers to appear in 60 or more games in each season since 1999 (Steve Kline, Mike Myers, David Weathers)...now has 776 career games pitched, which ranks 45th in Major League history and 14th among pitchers active at the end of the 2007 season...was 1-2 with a 3.97 ERA in his 68 appearances...allowed a career high 67 hits for a .258 opponents batting average...that included .205 (15 for 73) by left-handed hitters and .278 (52 for 187) by right-handers...allowed four of his home runs to right-handers...all five of his home runs came in night games on the road...did not allow a home run in 35.2 innings in Oakland and 23.1 innings during the day...four of his five home runs came when pitching on no days rest and he had a 5.47 ERA and converted 6 of 9 save opportunities in 26 such outings...compiled a 3.02 ERA and was 11 for 12 in save chances in his other 42 appearances...first batters faced were 17 for 66 (.258) with a walk and he allowed 7 of 31 (22.6%) inherited runners to

with a six-out save...the 2.0 innings pitched matched his season high...allowed five runs on two hits and three walks in 0.2 innings on June 26 at Cleveland for the blown save and loss...the walks matched his career high (sixth time, fourth time as a reliever) and the runs were his most in a game since May 28, 1996 at Texas when he also allowed five runs...then converted five consecutive save opportunities over a 13-game span from July 1 to August 4...did not allow a run in 12 of those outings for a 0.69 ERA and .140 opponents batting average...that included a season best 10.0

inning scoreless streak from July 14 to August 4...finished the month of July with a 0.96 ERA, his best one month ERA since June of 2002 when he did not allow an earned run in 12.2 innings...retired 22 consecutive batters from July 23 to August 4...the streak came to an end when he allowed a leadoff home run to Michael Young in the bottom of the ninth inning on August 6 at Texas for the blown save...recorded two more saves after Street returned to the closers role on August 15...including September 15 against Texas when he recorded the final five outs of the A's 7-3 win...that was his final outing of the season.

2007 Highlights

Was placed in the A's starting rotation when Esteban Loaiza went on the disabled list to start the season and pitched exclusively as a starter for the first time in his career...was 11-13 with a 4.42 ERA in 34 starts...his statistics before and after the All-Star Break told his story in 2007 as he was 8-3 with a 2.88 ERA, .246 opponents batting average and five home runs allowed in 18 starts before the break and 3-10 with a 6.30 ERA, .290 opponents batting average and 16 home runs allowed in 16 starts after the break...ranked fourth in the American League in ERA at the break and only two Oakland pitchers since 1991 had a lower ERA at the break (Haren, 2.30 in 2007 and Hudson, 2.71 in 2003)...then led the Majors in losses after the break and compiled the highest ERA in the AL...is the fourth pitcher in Oakland history to lose 10 games after the All-Star Break along with Brian Kingman (12 in 1980), Matt Keough (11 in 1978) and Rick Langford (10 in 1977)...his ERA was third highest ever by an Oakland pitcher after the break (Wasdin, 6.84 in 1996; Haynes, 6.35 in 1998)...for the season, he led the A's in losses, runs (108), walks (100) and hit batters (8) and tied for the team lead in games started...became just the second A's pitcher since 1993 to walk 100 or more batters (Appier, 102 in 2000)...tied for the AL lead in games started, was second in walks, third in intentional walks (8), tied for sixth in runs, seventh in grounded into double plays (26), tied for eighth in losses, tied for ninth in earned runs (98) and tied for 10th in hit batters...struck out 154 for a strikeout to walk ratio of 1.54, which was second lowest in the AL...now has 255 career strikeouts and 180 walks for a ratio of 1.42...had the fourth highest opponents on-base percentage in the AL (.354)...allowed a league leading eight triples, which tied for the seventh highest single season total in Oakland history...15 of the 21 home runs he allowed came with the bases empty as have 29 of his 38 career home runs...eight of his 21 home runs came against Los Angeles, the most ever in one season by an Oakland pitcher against the Angels...allowed a .267 opponents batting average, which included a .250 (94 for 376) mark against right-handed hitters and .282 (111 for 393) against left-handers...had 32 walks and 105 strikeouts against right-handers and 68 walks and 49 strikeouts against left-handers...his opponents average dropped to .256 with runners in scoring position, including .192 with RISP and two outs and .115 with the bases loaded...has allowed a .182 (31 for 170) career average with RISP and two outs...allowed a .295 opponents batting average the first time through the lineup, .219 the second time through and .290 after that...opponents were successful in 12 of 13 (92.3%) stolen attempts with him on the mound, which was third highest in the AL and second highest in Oakland history (Lilly, 96.0% in 2003)...opponents are now 22 for 24 (91.7%) off him in his career...was 2-1 with a 3.56 ERA in seven starts during the day compared to 9-12 with a 4.66 ERA in 27 starts at night...his 27 starts at night were the most by an A's pitcher since Vida Blue and Ken Holtzman both had 27 such starts in 1975...the A's were 18-16 in his starting assignments, which included 11-3 over his first 14 starts and 7-13 over his final 20 assignments...tossed seven or more innings in nine of his 34 starts, allowed two runs or fewer 16 times and walked two batters or fewer 15 times...left with the lead in five of his no decisions in which he pitched at least five innings only to have the bullpen blown the save...allowed two home runs in his first start on April 5 at Los Angeles but then had a 10-start, 67.0-inning, 284-batter homerless streak that ended when Jason Kubel homered in the sixth inning on June 3 against Minnesota...picked up his first win of the season on April 17 against Los Angeles to give him a career high five-game winning streak dating back to July 4, 2006...finished April with a 1-1 record and a 2.54 ERA in five starts...the ERA ranked seventh in the AL...then went 4-0 with a 2.15 ERA in six starts in May...tied for second in the AL in May wins and ranked fifth in ERA...won his first start in June, giving him a career high tying five-game winning streak from May 8 to June 3 (2.15 ERA)...was 6-1 with a 2.43 ERA, a .242 opponents batting average and three home runs allowed in 13 starts entering play on June 14...then went 5-12 with a 5.70 ERA, a .282 opponents batting average and 18 home runs allowed over his last 21 starts...the 12 losses were the most in the Majors from June 14 until the end of the season...walked five or more batters in three consecutive starts from July 12 to 23, the longest such streak by an Oakland starter since Todd Van Poppel did it in four consecutive starts from August 16-September 3, 1993...that streak began a career high tying five-game losing streak from July 12 to August 7 (8.54 ERA)...included in that stretch was his first career complete game, a four-hitter in the A's 4-3 loss at Seattle on July 28...finished July with a 1-3 record and a 6.44 ERA in five starts...the ERA was fifth highest in the AL...had his first career 10 strikeout game on August 23 at Tampa Bay...matched his career high with 10 hits (fourth time) in just 3.2 innings on September 8 in a 7-3 loss at Texas...allowed a career high eight runs (three earned) in 4.0 innings in an 8-7 loss to Seattle on September 18...walked a career and A's season high seven batters in 4.0 innings in a 7-3 loss at Boston on September 25...it was just the fourth time in Oakland history a pitcher walked seven or more in four innings or fewer...then struck out a career and A's season high 11 batters in his next and final start on September 30 against Los Angeles...went 1-4 with a 6.46 ERA in six starts in September.

2007 Highlights

Completed his 16th season in the Major Leagues but after 15 years as a catcher in the National League, he was used exclusively as a designated hitter and pinch hitter in his first season in the American League...batted .275 with eight home runs and 44 RBI and was limited to 83 games because of a two-month stint on the disabled list...the 83 games played were the third fewest of his career and he did not reach double figures in home runs for the first time since hitting one home run in 21 games in his first season in 1992...his eight home runs brought his career total to 427, which ranks 39th in Major League history and 10th among players who were active at the end of the 2007 season...his ML record total for home runs by a catcher remained at 396...had a .313 on-base percentage and a .414 slugging percentage, both of which were his lowest since 1992 (.284/.319)...now has a .545 career slugging percentage, which ranks 29th in ML history (min. 5000 PA)...hit .315 with six of his eight home runs and 29 of his 44 RBI on the
