

2018 SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS MEDIA GUIDE

You may be alone in your car, but you're never alone on the road.

AT&T reminds you to keep your eyes on the road, not on your phone. When you're behind the wheel, nothing is more valuable than your life, or the lives of others

SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS MISSION STATEMENT

THE SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS ARE DEDICATED TO ENRICHING OUR COMMUNITY THROUGH INNOVATION AND EXCELLENCE ON AND OFF THE FIELD.

Laurence M. Baer PRESIDENT & CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

A fourth generation San Franciscan, Larry Baer has gained a national reputation as one of professional sports' leading visionaries. Baer joined the team in 1992 as the executive vice president after he and Peter Magowan led the effort to assemble a new ownership group and negotiate the sale that kept the Giants in San Francisco. A limited partner of the ownership group, Baer was named chief operating officer in May 1996, team president in October 2008 and CEO on January 1, 2012. In his first year as president and CEO, the Giants won their second World Series Championship in three years. In 2014, the Giants won their third World Series title in five years.

As president and CEO, Baer serves as the club's "control" person on all Giants, Major League Baseball and industry issues. Baer is responsible for the overall day-to-day functioning of the organization. Under his direction the Giants developed and constructed AT&T Park -- the first privately-financed Major League ballpark. Since opening in 2000, AT&T Park has been widely praised as one of the "best ballparks ever built." The club has received unprecedented fan support -- becoming one of only four teams to exceed three million in attendance eight consecutive years (2000-2007).

With the support of more than 30,000 full season ticket holders, the Giants sold out the 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015 and 2016 seasons and welcomed more than 3.3 million fans in 2017. The Giants have been the standard bearer in all of baseball for sponsorship revenue, and the ballpark continues to be one of the most popular venues in the country for special events. In 2008, AT&T Park was named Sports Business Journal's Sports Facility of the Year, and in 2011 the Giants received Sports Business Journal's Professional Sports Organization of the Year award.

Baer also serves as a key strategist and negotiator of the club's major business and baseball transactions. This includes the Barry Bonds signing in November 1992, the naming rights agreement with AT&T (then Pacific Bell) in 1996 and other strategic business partnerships. He led the effort to host the 2007 All-Star Game in San Francisco and was the driving force behind the Giants partnership with Comcast to create a regional sports network for the Bay Area.

Baer worked closely with the Giants Baseball department on strategic signings that keep several key players in Giants uniforms for years to come, including Buster Posey, Madison Bumgarner, Hunter Pence, Brandon Crawford and Brandon Belt.

Baer also serves as Chairman and CEO of Giants Development Services, which is currently developing Mission Rock -- a new, mixed use urban neighborhood located on a 28-acre site across McCovey Cove from AT&T Park. In 2015, the Mission Rock Project was overwhelmingly approved by San Francisco voters, garnering 73% of the vote. Once completed, Mission Rock will include more than eight acres of parks and open space, 1,500 residential units, approximately 1.3million square feet of office space, a parking structure to serve ballpark and Mission Rock patrons, and 250,000 square feet of retail, restaurants, and public amenities. The project is currently completing the entitlement phase with groundbreaking projected for 2019.

After earning Phi Beta Kappa honors at the University of California in 1980, Baer joined the Giants as the club's marketing director. In 1983, he left the Giants to attend Harvard Business School, followed by positions at Westinghouse Broadcasting in San Francisco and New York. He next moved to CBS, Inc. in New York serving as special assistant to the network Chairman and CEO, Laurence Tisch. Baer returned to the Giants in 1992 after he and Magowan successfully concluded the purchase of the franchise.

Baer has been the recipient of a number of prestigious awards throughout his career with the Giants. This includes the San Francisco Distinguished Leadership Award for civic leadership (1996), "Sports Torch of Learning Award" by the Scopus Society of the American Friends of The Hebrew University (1995), and the Anti-Defamation League's Torch of Liberty Award (2001). In 2010, Baer was the named the "Person of the Year" by San Francisco Boys and Girls Clubs, and in 2012 he was honored as the Harvard Business School's "Alumnus of the Year." In 2014, Baer was honored by the University of California Berkeley with its "Excellence in Achievement" award and received the Civic Leadership Award from the American Jewish Committee.

Baer serves on Major League Baseball's Business and Media Board of Directors and serves on MLB's Strategic Planning and Constitution Committees.

Baer is a member of the Board of Directors of KQED, Inc., the San Francisco Committee on Jobs, the Bay Area Council, NBC Sports Bay Area and is a member of the Boys and Girls Clubs of America Pacific Region Board of Trustees. In August 2016, Baer was appointed by President Obama to the United States Holocaust Memorial Council, serving as a member of its Governing Board.

Baer and his wife, Pam, co-chaired the San Francisco General Hospital Foundation Campaign Committee in support of the new hospital, which opened in 2016 as Zuckerberg San Francisco General Hospital and Trauma Center.

Larry and Pam Baer reside in San Francisco with their four children.

Mario Alioto

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Mario Alioto, a member of the Giants front office since 1983, is responsible for all revenue and marketing areas of the organization. This includes all ticket sales functions, sponsorship and media sales, promotions, special events, ballpark entertainment, branding and advertising, creative services, publications and the Giants Dugout Store retail operation. He also oversees the relationship with the team's food concessionaire Bon Appetit, and the organization's TV and radio partners (NBC Sports Bay Area, NBC Bay Area, KNBR 680 AM and En Español KXZM 93.7 FM).

Since AT&T Park opened in 2000, Alioto has been responsible for overseeing a record breaking sales strategy that has consistently placed the Giants as one of the top sponsorship generating teams in all of Major League Baseball. Over the past six seasons, Alioto has led the effort that has attracted more than 3.3 million fans through the turnstiles each year, and is a key member of the leadership team that is responsible for making the ballpark experience at AT&T Park one of the best in professional sports.

Alioto served as Vice President, Sales & Marketing during the final years at Candlestick Park. He oversaw a promotional lineup in 1999 that included the first ever bobblehead promotion, which has since become one of the most popular premium items in professional sports. Alioto also played an integral role in developing the Charter Seat program and Winner's Circle sponsorship program as the Giants prepared to build AT&T Park.

Alioto is a board member of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, the San Francisco Giants Community Fund and the Bay Area Sports Hall of Fame.

The St. Mary's graduate lived out every youngster's dream by starting with the organization as a batboy in 1973 and later served as visiting clubhouse manager prior to moving to the front office in 1983.

Alioto and his wife Kelly live in the East Bay and have four children.

Jack F. Bair

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL COUNSEL

Jack Bair has served as a trusted counselor and key strategist to the San Francisco Giants baseball team since January of 1993. As he enters his 26th season with the Giants, Bair has made his mark on many aspects of the organization. As Executive Vice President & General Counsel, he is responsible for all of the team's legal matters and for managing the team's many and complex relations with the City & County of San Francisco and other governmental entities. Bair also serves as President of Giants Development Services, the wholly-owned subsidiary of the San Francisco Giants responsible for real estate matters, including the planned Mission Rock Project just south of AT&T Park. Bair also lead the recent effort to develop the team's international headquarters and player development facility in the Dominican Republic.

Bair played a critical role in the Giants successful effort to develop a new ballpark in downtown San Francisco. Bair coordinated the effort to select the site for the new ballpark and contributed significantly to the ballpark's architectural design. Bair was the Giants liaison to the successful 1996 ballpark campaign for the Giants. He wrote and produced the award-winning campaign video and served as the principal spokesperson for the campaign, addressing hundreds of neighborhood, business and political organizations throughout the City. Bair also negotiated the business transaction with the City and coordinated the successful effort to gain all of the local, regional, state and federal governmental approvals necessary for the project to meet its timetable for Opening Day in April of 2000.

In addition to the ballpark architectural style itself, Bair's creative suggestions led to several of AT&T Park's unique features, such as the public promenade behind the Right Field fence, the perched arcade seating area in Right Field and the Ferry Terminal at Seals Plaza. His father's old-time glove served as the initial model for the world's largest baseball glove that sits above the Left Field bleachers. Bair planned and developed China Basin Park and its historical elements at McCovey Point. Bair is also credited with launching the Giants Community Fund field renovation program and suggesting one of the more clever baseball advertising programs in the 1990's, placing signage for the "GAP" clothing retailer on outfield fences in what in baseball parlance is referred to as "the Gap."

Early in his tenure with the Giants, Bair supervised the club's Arizona Operations, including Spring Training. In conjunction with the City of Scottsdale, he played a key role in the planning, design, rehabilitation and expansion of the Giants' Spring Training home, Scottsdale Stadium and of the club's minor league headquarters at Indian School Park. In 1993, Bair coordinated various ballpark improvement projects to refresh Candlestick Park.

Prior to joining the Giants, Bair worked as a Deputy City Attorney for the City & County of San Francisco. Bair was the attorney assigned to direct the legal effort to save the Giants in 1992 from being sold and relocated to Florida. Before working at the City Attorney's Office, Bair practiced law at the San Francisco law firm of Farella, Braun & Martel. The San Francisco Business Times & Silicon Valley Business Times honored Bair for his accomplishments in the legal community by awarding him its Lifetime Achievement Award in 2011.

Bair serves as an officer of the Giants Community Fund and co-founded the San Francisco Neighborhood Theater Foundation and continues to serve as an officer and member of the Board of Directors. Bair helped successfully fundraise, purchase and remodel the historic Vogue Theatre and acquired a long-term lease on the Balboa Theatre, both in San Francisco. Bair also co-founded and co-directs the Mostly British Film Festival in San Francisco. Bair also serves on the Board of Directors of The Olympic Club in San Francisco. Bair played and coached amateur baseball in San Francisco for several years. Bair is a graduate of the University of California, Davis and Yale Law School.

Jorge Costa SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, OPERATIONS AND FACILITIES, AT&T PARK

Jorge Costa enters his 30th year with the Giants, supervising ballpark operations, security and maintenance at AT&T Park. Costa oversees all operations staff and event personnel, which includes First Aid, security, groundskeepers, parking, janitorial and facility maintenance. He also serves as the team's liaison to local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies.

Under Costa's direction, the Giants implemented the TEAM (Techniques for Effective Alcohol Management) program in 1989. This then led to the Giants to be pioneers in venue management by becoming the first professional sports team to create a Traffic Safety Day in 1990. By continuing the growth of safety programs in 1993 Costa became a charter member of the Designated Driver Advisory Committee which helped create the now industry standard Designated Driver Program. As a result of his commitment, Costa has been bestowed numerous awards for alcohol management, traffic safety, and public awareness of venue and community based programs including the Superior Achievement Award from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.

Costa was instrumental in earning AT&T Park LEED Silver Certification in 2010, the nationally accepted benchmark for design, construction and operation of high performance green buildings. Then in 2015 through continued improvement efforts in recycling, water management, energy efficiency and greener purchasing Costa helped AT&T Park achieve LEED Gold Certification in Building Operations and Management. AT&T Park is the only existing MLB Park to achieve that level of greening sustainability excellence. As a result of their efforts the Giants in 2016 earned their ninth consecutive MLB Green Glove Award for Recycling Excellence, adding to their copious other Greening awards and best practices recognition from industry experts.

Prior to his tenure with the Giants, the Saint Mary's College graduate served as Commissioner Peter Ueberroth's West Coast liaison for stadium operations and security, and was director of operations for 8 years at the Oakland Coliseum. Costa has also participated and attended dozens of events around the world beginning in 1988 at the Melbourne Cricket Grounds. In 1992 he assisted with the preparations of the baseball venues in Barcelona, Spain for the Olympics that year. Two years later Costa served as a venue chief at Stanford Stadium for the 1994 Soccer World Cup. In 1996 he was a part of the first international regular season baseball game held in Monterrey, Mexico. At the 2007 Pan-American Games in Rio de Janeiro, he served as the operations and security consultant for the US Olympic Committee. The following year at the 2008 Olympics in Beijing, China Costa served as an elite venue chief for operations and security for the US Olympic Committee. Then in 2012 he was involved in the operations at the World Baseball Classic Qualifier in Regensburg, Germany followed by hosting the 2013 World Baseball Classic Finals at AT&T Park.

Alfonso Felder EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, ADMINISTRATION

Alfonso Felder, who enters his 22nd year in the Giants front office, oversees the Ballpark Operations, Event Strategy and Services, Guest Services, Giants Enterprises and Human Resources departments. Felder has also been responsible for the Giants' spring training operations in Scottsdale since 2003.

Felder began his front office career at Candlestick Park where he was a key player in the planning and development of AT&T Park. Felder oversaw the development of the original transportation plan for AT&T Park and is now responsible for assuring the continued operational success of the ballpark. Felder manages all of the Giants major capital improvement projects at AT&T Park and in Arizona ranging from fan safety and security projects to ballpark amenities including the Garden at AT&T Park and the Gotham Club. Felder was the point person for hosting the Major League Baseball All-Star Game in 2007 and the World Baseball Classic in 2006 (Scottsdale) and in 2013 (San Francisco).

Felder's first job was as a 16-year-old Giants usher at Candlestick Park. He attended U.C. Berkeley and graduated from Harvard. Felder currently serves on the Board of Governors of the Boys & Girls Clubs of San Francisco. He is also the President of the San Francisco Neighborhood Theater Foundation, the non-profit behind the Vogue Theatre, the Balboa Theatre and the Film Night in the Park outdoor film series. Felder resides in San Francisco with his wife Tara, and sons, Leo and Max.

Leilani Gayles SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF PEOPLE OFFICER

Leilani Gayles is the Chief People Officer for the SF Giants. She is responsible for setting the strategic direction for the San Francisco Giants People agenda and leads the organization in the areas of talent management, staffing, employee relations, compensation and performance management.

Gayles has worked in the human resources field in various environments, ranging from hyper growth start-ups to large technology companies, with a focus on developing high performance teams and winning cultures. Prior to her position with the SF Giants, Gayles worked at Mercury Interactive Software as Global Senior Vice President of People and Places and served as Senior Vice President at Excite@Home. Gayles also served as worldwide Vice President at Silicon Graphics Inc. and held various human resources positions at Hewlett-Packard Company and related technology companies.

Gayles holds a bachelors and a master's degree in human resources organizational development from the University of San Francisco. She is a senior fellow with the American Leadership Forum, a network of regional leaders committed to serving the common good in Silicon Valley. Her professional focus is helping organizations achieve scale and efficiency while creating a highly engaging and productive workplace where people have the opportunity to do the best work of their careers.

Sara Grauf SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, EVENT STRATEGY AND SERVICES

Sara Grauf oversees the development and implementation of event strategy and operations on behalf of the organization. Responsible for both baseball and non-baseball event activation, she played an integral role in the production of the organization’s three world series celebrations, managed the first-ever commercial spectator program for the America’s Cup, and recently lead the organization’s bid effort to secure the 2018 Rugby Sevens World Cup, which the Giants will host at AT&T Park in July. Grauf founded The Giant Race in 2010, which has evolved into an annual health and wellness initiative for the club, operating in four cities and drawing 20,000 participants to the San Francisco events. In addition to her event responsibilities, Grauf oversees the club’s spring training operations and training facility development.

Grauf is the incoming president for the International Live Events Association, and will lead the global organization as President in July of 2018. She is also a member of the Board of Directors for Leadership San Francisco and serves on the board of Experience Scottsdale.

A University of California, Berkeley graduate, Grauf lives in San Francisco with her husband, Dietmar.

Lisa Pantages SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Lisa Pantages enters her 16th season with the Giants organization and currently serves as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer overseeing the company’s financial affairs. She joined the company in 2003 as the Vice President of Finance after 16 years at Deloitte & Touche in its San Francisco office serving such clients as the Giants, the San Francisco 49ers, and the MLB Authentication program. As a member of Deloitte’s team, she worked with the Giants CFO in the efforts to secure financing to save the team from moving to Tampa in 1993. She spent her first 11 seasons overseeing the daily financial operations of the club and its affiliates, including all general accounting activities, financial reporting, budgets and payroll.

Ms. Pantages serves as the Treasurer of the Giants Community Fund and a member of the Board of Directors of The Marine Mammal Center in Sausalito.

The fourth generation San Franciscan is a graduate of San Francisco State University with both a Bachelors in Accounting and Masters in Business Administration – Finance.

Jason Pearl SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, PARTNERSHIPS AND BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

Jason Pearl, in his 26th season with the Giants, is responsible for all corporate partnerships and business development programs for the team and other related events at AT&T Park. The San Rafael, CA native started his career with the Giants in the ticket office in 1993 before moving to the marketing department with a focus on corporate sponsorships in 1994. Jason played an integral role in developing the naming rights agreement with AT&T and the creation of the Winner’s Circle sponsorship model as part of the funding strategy to build the privately financed ballpark. Jason also oversees the organization’s Hispanic marketing, broadcast and outreach efforts, and the business relationship with the team’s flagship radio station, KNBR. Pearl is part of the Giants executive team responsible for the Mission Rock development with a focus on creating business partnership opportunities for the 28 acre project. Jason has been a longtime supporter of the non-profit social enterprise, Juma Ventures, and currently serves on Juma’s National Board of Directors. A 1991 graduate of Cornell University, Jason lives in San Francisco with his wife, Nikki, daughter, Ella, son, Ruben and their two dogs, Redmond and Juniper.

Stephen Revetria

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, GIANTS ENTERPRISES

Stephen Revetria oversees the strategy and vision for Giants Enterprises – the entrepreneurial arm of the San Francisco Giants and one of the top hospitality, event, entertainment and sports consultancy teams in the world. Currently in his 18th year, Revetria joined the company in 1999, just as the Giants moved into AT&T Park. As the Senior Vice President, he is dedicated to developing new ventures beyond the Major League Baseball franchise in addition to increasing the visibility and use of AT&T Park, Pier 48, Lot A, The Gotham Club, The Yard at Mission Rock and Giants Maritime Services which leverage the organization's resources and capabilities.

He played an integral role in the development and creation of the first dedicated full-time events team at a privately financed Major League ballpark and under his direction, Giants Enterprises has received international recognition for the execution of its events during the 2007 All-Star Game and the 2010, 2012 and 2014 World Series, including the Official World Series Galas and ticker-tape parades.

In 2017, under Revetria's direction, Giants Enterprises launched its On-The-Water division, including the acquisition of the California Spirit, a 100-foot luxury maritime vessel, docked within steps of AT&T Park at Pier 40. In addition, Giants Enterprises added Yacht Lady, an 80-foot Monte Fino Motor Yacht, to its fleet. Both vessels provide refined event opportunities for private group charters, San Francisco Giants' game day experiences, social gatherings and more. As a result, Giants Enterprises now has the distinct advantage of operating events both on-land and on-water.

Mr. Revetria is currently Trustee, University of San Francisco; Commissioner for the Golden Gate Park Concourse Authority; Board of Directors, U.S. Travel Association, International Board of Directors, Meeting Professionals International. He is the immediate past-Chairman for the Meeting Professionals International Foundation, past Chairman for the San Francisco Travel Association and past-president of the International Special Events Society of Northern California, and The Guardsmen. He leads the Executive Sales Team, which oversees these areas as well as the Ticket Sales Development, Luxury Suites, and New & Group Sales.

Willie Mays

ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT

Regarded by many as the best all-around player in baseball history, Willie Mays returned to San Francisco in 1986 and now enters his 32nd season in the Giants' front office. In 1993, in one of his first public statements after assuming ownership of the team, former Giants President and Managing General Partner Peter Magowan announced that the franchise was signing Mays to a lifetime contract.

Magowan also announced in 1997 that the front entrance of the club's new ballpark would feature a world-class statue of Mays and the official address of the park would be 24 Willie Mays Plaza. The 86-year-old Mays serves as a Giant emissary. He visits the Giants' minor league teams, as well as Spring Training camp and attends nearly every single Giants home game during the season. The Westfield, AL native also makes appearances on behalf of the club at a variety of civic and charitable events throughout the Bay Area for the Giants Community Fund. He has also made generous contributions to needy children throughout the country through his own Say Hey Foundation charity.

During his 22-year Major League playing career, Mays was named Most Valuable Player twice, 11 years apart, first as a New York Giant and then as a San Francisco Giant. He holds the all-time record for putouts by an outfielder, with a career total of 7,095. He compiled 3,283 hits, won 12 Gold Gloves and appeared in 24 All-Star games. He was third on the all-time home run list with 660 until 2003 when his godson, Barry Bonds, passed him. His career batting average was .302 and for eight consecutive years, he drove in more than 100 runs a season. The "Say Hey Kid" was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1979, the first year of his eligibility (the ninth player to make it on his first try). Mays' uniform number, 24, has been retired by the Giants, as he remains the franchise leader in games played (2,857), at-bats (10,477), runs (2,011), hits (3,187), doubles (504), home runs (646), total bases (5,907) and extra base hits (1,289). He was named team captain of the Giants prior to the 1961 season by manager Alvin Dark.

Mays was presented with the Presidential Medal of Freedom by President Barack Obama in 2015. He joined fellow Hall of Famers Ernie Banks, Yogi Berra and Stan Musial as the only baseball players who have been awarded the Medal of Freedom. Mays has also received numerous honors as one of the premier athletes of the past 100 years. The Sporting News ranked him second only to Babe Ruth among the 100 greatest baseball players of the 20th century. ESPN listed him as eighth in their ranking of the top 50 athletes of the century. In 2003, former Governor Gray Davis appointed Willie Mays to the State Board of Directors of the California African American Museum. He spent part of his 85th birthday aboard cable car No. 24, which was dedicated to him.

He is the spokesperson for The Institute on Aging in San Francisco as well as the President and CEO of the Say Hey Foundation, supporting underprivileged youth. He is also a member of the Concordia Club and has recently re-signed with The Topps Company, Inc., an association that began in 1952, that publishes baseball cards. Mays has received honorary degrees from Dartmouth, Miles College, Ohio State University, San Francisco State and Yale University.

Mays makes his home in Atherton.

Willie McCovey

SENIOR ADVISOR

Willie McCovey, whose Hall of Fame playing career with the Giants spanned four decades, enters his 18th season as senior advisor to the team.

McCovey, who had hit more home runs (521) than any other left-handed hitter in National League history before Barry Bonds passed him in 2001, began his first formal association with the Giants' current ownership group in 2000. He had previously made special public appearances on an ad hoc basis for the present and previous administrations over the past several years, but had not held a formal front office position with the team since 1986.

In honor of the Hall of Fame great, the portion of San Francisco Bay behind right field at AT&T Park has been named "McCovey Cove." In 2003, the Giants unveiled a statue of McCovey at China Basin Park, which is located across from AT&T Park on the southern shoreline of McCovey Cove. He was honored during the Home Run Derby during the 2007 All-Star Game festivities.

In his current position, McCovey offers his expertise to Giants players when possible, appearing at Spring Training and during the regular season. He also makes occasional speaking appearances, and performs other valuable functions for the team.

One of the most respected and feared hitters in baseball during his 22-year career in the Majors, McCovey was a six-time All-Star, ranks second to Lou Gehrig in career grand slams (18) and hit the most homers (231) ever at Candlestick Park. "Stretch" also established a Major League record for most seasons played (22) as a first baseman. In addition, he became the fifth player in MLB history to earn back-to-back home run and RBI titles, hitting 36 homers and driving in 105 runs in 1968 and then capturing NL Most Valuable Player honors with 45 home runs and 126 RBI in 1969.

McCovey, 80, has made an on-field appearance at the close of every season—with the exception of a few recent years due to his knee ailments—to present the Willie Mac Award. The only Giants award ever named after a former player, the Willie Mac Award was established in 1980 and is given to the Giants player who best exemplifies the spirit and leadership consistently shown by McCovey throughout his career.

Barry Bonds

SPECIAL ADVISOR

Barry Bonds serves as a Special Advisor to the CEO. Bonds represents the organization at various community and organizational events in San Francisco. He also attends the Giants' Spring Training Camp in Scottsdale, Arizona and works with the organizations' young players.

Bonds signed with the Giants in 1993 and spent his final 15 Major League seasons in a San Francisco uniform, compiling a .312 batting average with 381 doubles, 41 triples, 586 home runs and 1,440 RBI in 1,976 games. He can be found throughout the SF-era record books, ranking in the top 10 for batting average (first), games (third), at-bats (third - 6,263), runs (first - 1,555), hits (third - 1,951), doubles (first), triples (fourth), home runs (first), RBI (first), stolen bases (first - 263) and walks (first - 1,947).

Bonds won seven NL MVP awards, eight Gold Glove awards and received 14 All-Star selections during his storied 22-year Major League career with the Pittsburgh Pirates (1986-92) and San Francisco Giants (1993-2007). He was a two-time winner of the National League batting title and the lone member of baseball's 500 homer-500 steal club holds Major League Baseball's all-time records for home runs (762) and walks (2,558).

Bonds' impressive resume also includes baseball's single-season records for home runs (73 in 2001), walks (232 in 2004), intentional walks (120 in 2004), on-base percentage (.609 in 2004) and slugging percentage (.863 in 2001).

The Giants will retire Bonds' uniform number 25 and celebrate his career on August 11, 2018 when the club hosts the Pittsburgh Pirates. Bonds will join an elite group of New York and San Francisco Giants players as the 12th player to receive this honor.

Will Clark

SPECIAL ASSISTANT

Longtime Giants icon Will Clark joined the Giants front office in January 2009. In his role, the six-time All-Star first baseman represents the organization at various in-season and off-season community events in San Francisco. He also attends the Giants Spring Training Camp in Scottsdale, Arizona and visits one of the Giants' minor league teams each year. Clark, who brings the experience of a 15-year Major League playing career to the Giants, previously worked as an advisor to the Arizona Diamondbacks' coaching staff in spring training from 2004-2008. Drafted by the Giants in the first round (second overall pick) of the 1985 June draft, Clark spent his first eight big league seasons in a San Francisco uniform, compiling a .299 batting average with 176 home runs and 709 RBI in 1,160 games. One of the best clutch hitters of his time, Clark hit over .300 on 10 occasions. In 1988, he became the first Giants player to drive in 90 or more runs in consecutive seasons since Bobby Murcer in 1975-76. He had one of his finest seasons in 1989, when he batted .333 with 111 RBI, and finished second in the NL Most Valuable Player voting to Giants teammate Kevin Mitchell. He was however named MVP of the '89 NLCS, after batting .650 with a pair of homers and eight RBI, helping San Francisco defeat Chicago four-games-to-one. One of the premier first basemen in the National League during his time with San Francisco, Clark was also an outstanding defensive player, winning a Rawlings Gold Glove in 1991. The New Orleans, LA native owned a .303 lifetime average with 284 home runs and 1,205 RBI over 1,976 career games for the Giants (1986-1993), Rangers (1994-98), Orioles (1999-2000) and Cardinals (2000). Clark, who was a two-time All American at Mississippi State University, was the winner of the Golden Spikes Award as the country's top collegiate player in 1985, hitting .420 with 25 home runs and 77 RBI in 65 games. He was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006 and was inducted into the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame in 2008. He resides in Prairieville, LA with his wife, Lisa, and their son, Trey, and daughter, Ella.

Orlando Cepeda

COMMUNITY AMBASSADOR

Orlando Cepeda, who was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1999, is recognized nationally for his humanitarian efforts as an ambassador for baseball and the San Francisco Giants. He begins his 23rd season as a community representative for the team and is a member of the Giants Community Fund Advisory Board.

In his current role, the “Baby Bull” visits hospitals, senior centers and inner-city schools in the Bay Area and throughout the United States, speaking to “at-risk” children about the dangers of drugs and alcohol. The 80-year-old Ponce, P.R. native also serves as the honorary spokesman for the Crohn’s & Colitis Foundation of America and the Curry Senior Center.

A lifetime .297 hitter with 379 home runs and 1,364 RBI during his 17-year playing career with the Giants, Cardinals, Braves, A’s, Red Sox and Royals, Cepeda hit a home run against the Dodgers in his very first Major League game April 15, 1958. He went on to win 1958 Rookie of the Year honors, the 1966 Comeback Player of the Year award, the 1967 NL Most Valuable Player trophy and 1973 Designated Hitter of the Year laurels. He appeared in three World Series, was a six-time All-Star and hit over .300 nine times in his career.

On July 25, 1999, Cepeda was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame during ceremonies in Cooperstown, NY. He became only the second Puerto Rico native to enter the Hall, joining the late Roberto Clemente. Two weeks earlier on July 11, 1999, Cepeda had his uniform No. 30 retired by the Giants during ceremonies at Candlestick Park. As one of the 12 players in the Giants’ 134-year history to have their jersey number retired, he joins Willie Mays, Willie McCovey, Juan Marichal, Gaylord Perry and Barry Bonds as the only six San Francisco players to receive such an honor.

In 1993, the Baby Bull was also inducted into the Puerto Rico Sports Hall of Fame, while in 1999, he was elected to the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame for his great years with the St. Louis Cardinals which followed his tenure with the Giants. In 2004, he was one of four men to receive the Major League Baseball Players Alumni Association’s Achievement Awards, the MLBPA’s highest alumni honor. He was joined by Jim Bunning, Al Kaline and the late Roger Maris.

Orlando resides in Fairfield, CA. He has five sons--Orlando, Jr., Hector, Carl, Malcolm and Ali Manuel.

Dave Dravecky

COMMUNITY AMBASSADOR

Former San Francisco Giant pitcher Dave Dravecky currently serves as a community ambassador for the team. In his role, Dave represents the organization at a number of community and sponsor events in San Francisco and the Bay Area. He also attends Giants Spring Training Camp in Scottsdale, Arizona, and enjoys representing the organization all over Northern California at various speaking engagements and alumni appearances.

Dave was an All-Star with the San Diego Padres in 1983, and was traded to the Giants in 1987. Winner of the 1989 Willie Mac Award, Dave’s story is both touching and inspiring. After discovering a cancerous tumor in his pitching arm in October of 1988, Dave battled back and returned to the majors in August of 1989. After winning his first start, his humerus bone snapped just five days later while throwing a pitch in the 6th inning. The doctors discovered another mass in his left arm, and Dravecky was forced to retire from baseball. After two more surgeries in the next two years, Dave’s left arm and shoulder were amputated.

Dave is currently a Christian motivational speaker, author, and proud grandfather. Dave and his wife, Jan, moved back to California to be closer to their family and the three-time World Series Champion San Francisco Giants.

Jeffrey Leonard

COMMUNITY AMBASSADOR

Jeffrey Leonard joined the San Francisco Giants front office as a Community Ambassador, prior to the 2014 season. In his role, the two-time All-Star outfielder represents the organization at various in-season and offseason community events in San Francisco. He also attends the Giants Spring Training Camp in Scottsdale, Arizona to attend several organizational events.

Leonard, a 14-year Major League veteran played for the Giants from 1981-88, compiling a .275 batting average with 139 doubles, 24 triples, 99 home runs and 435 RBI in 789 games. His .275 average as a Giant ranks ninth in the SF-era record books and his 115 stolen bases rank seventh.

Nicknamed "HacMan" after the popular video game PacMan, Leonard was known for his "one flap down" routine, running around the bases after hitting a home run with one arm hanging motionless at his side. He had one of his finest seasons in 1987, when he batted .280 with 19 home runs and was named to the National League All Star team. He was named MVP of the '87 NLCS, after batting .417 with four homers and five RBI, despite San Francisco losing the series to St. Louis four-games-to-three.

The Philadelphia, PA native owned a .266 lifetime average with 144 home runs, 614 runs scored and 723 RBI over 1,415 career games for the Dodgers (1977), Astros (1978-81), Giants (1981-1988), Brewers (1988) and Mariners (1989-90).

Leonard, who currently lives in Roseville, CA, is heavily involved in raising funds for breast cancer research. He has his own organization, "One Flap Down Foundation," centered around promoting awareness and finding a cure for breast cancer.

Jeremy Affeldt

COMMUNITY AMBASSADOR

Jeremy Affeldt joined the San Francisco Giants front office as a Community Ambassador prior to the 2016 season. In his role, Affeldt represents the organization at various in-season and offseason community events in the Bay Area and also attends the Giants Spring Training Camp in Scottsdale, Arizona, serving as a guest instructor.

The former left-handed reliever was drafted by the Kansas City Royals in the third round of the 1997 MLB June Amateur Draft and spent 14 years in the big leagues with Kansas City (2002-06), Colorado (2006-07), Cincinnati (2008) and San Francisco (2009-15), where he won three World Series Championships in 2010, 2012 and 2014. Through three postseasons with the Giants, Affeldt recorded 22 consecutive scoreless innings, a streak bettered only by Mariano Rivera. He was the winning pitcher in Game 7 of the 2014 World Series, pitching 2.1 innings of scoreless baseball before giving way to series MVP Madison Bumgarner, who finished the game.

Affeldt is an active leader to end human trafficking and modern day slavery, while also being an advocate to support and feed the hungry at home and around the globe. He's also the co-founder of Generation Alive, a non-profit organization that works to teach and inspire a generation of young people to act by serving others.

Jeremy, his wife Larisa and three boys make their home in Boerne, TX.

Brian R. Sabean EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Brian Sabean begins his 26th season with the San Francisco Giants and his fourth as the Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations after being promoted to the position on April 3, 2015.

Sabean spent the previous 18 years as the Giants' Senior Vice President and General Manager and during this time the club captured seven post-season berths (including four World Series appearances and three Championships), with the club having earned more than half of its 11 overall playoff appearances since moving West. Prior to his promotion, he had been the longest tenured General Manager in Major League Baseball.

In his time as the club's GM, the Giants won three World Championships (2010, 2012, 2014), four National League pennants (2002, 2010, 2012, 2014), five NL West Division flags (1997, 2000, 2003, 2010 and 2012), two Wild Card entries (2002, 2014) and forced a Wild Card tie-breaker game with Chicago in 1998, while posting a 1,556-1,358-1 (.534) mark during that 18-year span. During this stretch, the Giants were one of only three teams in the Major Leagues to have been to the World Series four-or-more times (also: Cardinals, four times and Yankees, six times).

In his 32nd season as a baseball front office executive, the 61-year-old Sabean was honored as the 2010 Major League Baseball Executive of the Year by the Boston Chapter of the BBWAA. He was tabbed with the same honor by both The Sporting News and Baseball America in 2003. In 2012, he was named Baseball America's Executive of the Year as he stewarded the Giants to their second World Series Championship in his tenure as General Manager.

Recently under Sabean's watch, the Giants' organization received prestigious awards, being named the Topps Organization of the Year in both 2009 and 2011 and the Baseball America Organization of the Year in 2010. These awards are given to Major League teams that show outstanding performance, depth and talent throughout their Major and Minor league teams.

In his first year as the Giants' GM, the Concord, NH native finished second in The Sporting News' 1997 Executive of the Year balloting. He seized national headlines for his bold player moves that season, engineering some of baseball's most successful blockbuster trades, which catapulted San Francisco to its first divisional championship in eight years.

During his tenure as GM, Sabean acquired some of the game's best players via trades. They included Giants' All-Stars Jeff Kent, Jason Schmidt, Marco Scutaro and Robb Nen, as well as standout performers Ellis Burks, Joe Carter, Andres Galarraga, Kenny Lofton, Jose Mesa and J.T. Snow. The Giants' GM has been known to bring reinforcements during the July 31 trading deadline, acquiring the likes of Carlos Beltran, Javier Lopez, Jake Peavy, Hunter Pence, Freddy Sanchez and Randy Winn.

Prior to being named GM in 1996, Sabean served one season as the club's Senior Vice President, Player Personnel in 1995 and enjoyed a three-year stint as Assistant to the General Manager and Vice President of Scouting/Player Personnel. Prior to joining the Giants, Sabean played a vital role in developing the Yankees' farm system into one of baseball's finest. During his eight-year tenure with the Yankees, he held several positions of increasing responsibility, including Director of Scouting from 1986-90 and Vice President of Player Development/Scouting from 1990-92.

Sabean, who graduated from Concord (NH) High School in 1974 and Eckerd College (St. Petersburg, FL) in 1978, served as an assistant baseball coach at St. Leo (FL) College in 1979 and the University of Tampa from 1980-82. He was then promoted to head coach at Tampa in 1983, holding that post for two years, compiling a 61-36 record and making the school's first-ever appearance in an NCAA regional tournament in 1984. Sabean and his wife, Amanda, have two sons, Aidan and Declan. They are also the proud dad and stepmom to Colin, Sean, Brendan and Darren.

Bobby Evans

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

Bobby Evans was named the Giants' Senior Vice President and General Manager on April 3, 2015. He is the eighth person to hold the title of General Manager for the organization since the Giants moved to San Francisco in 1958.

Evans enters his 25th season in the Giants baseball operations department. During his tenure he's helped the organization capture eight Postseason berths, including four World Series appearances and three Championships.

During his three-year tenure as GM, Evans has acquired some of game's top players via free agency or trade. They have included two-time All-Star Johnny Cueto, Sam Dyson, three-time All-Star Mark Melancon, 2014 All-Star Jeff Samardzija and Will Smith. During this past off-season, Evans added three-time All-Star Evan Longoria and 2013 NL MVP Andrew McCutchen, giving the Giants eight former All-Stars in their projected 2018 Opening Day lineup.

Prior to being promoted to General Manager, Evans served in the assistant general manager's role for nine seasons. During this time, the Giants were named the Topps Organization of the Year in both 2009 and 2011 and the Baseball America Organization of the Year in 2010.

Evans, 49, first joined the Giants in 1994 as Administrative Assistant, Minor Leagues. He was later promoted to Director of Minor League Operations in 1998, Director of Player Personnel in 2005 and Vice President of Baseball Operations in January 2009.

In 2016, Evans received the Will Wynne Award which is presented at the Raleigh Hot Stove League banquet to the North Carolinian who contributed most to baseball in the past season. Past winners include former Giants manager Roger Craig, Giants Hall of Famer Gaylord Perry and current Giants pitcher Madison Bumgarner.

In 2012, Evans received the Bowie Kuhn Award, which is presented annually at the Baseball Winter Meetings (since 1984) to an individual, team or organization who demonstrates support of the chapel program in professional baseball.

Evans is a 1991 graduate of the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill, where he was the recipient of the John Motley Morehead Scholarship Award. Prior to joining the Giants, he served as an administrator in the Commissioner's Office in New York. During his three-year tenure there, he worked in baseball operations and assisted with compliance to the PBA. While in college, Evans interned with the Boston Red Sox in the player development and scouting departments during the summer of 1989.

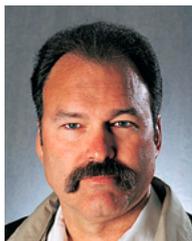

Evans and his wife, Gwen, reside in San Francisco and have two sons, Jonathan and Jackson and a daughter, Anjali.

Dick Tidrow

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, PLAYER PERSONNEL & SENIOR ADVISOR TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

A former American League Rookie Pitcher of the Year and 13-year Major League veteran, Dick Tidrow embarks on his 25th year overall with the club. Tidrow has had an integral role in helping the organization win three World Series titles over the last six seasons. Tidrow came to the organization prior to the 1994 campaign, serving as the club's Major League scout for the American League. He was promoted to Special Assistant to the General Manager in 1996, and was elevated to Director of Player Personnel prior to the 1997 season. His current responsibilities include providing Major League player recommendations for trade and free agent signings, overseeing the Giants' minor league system and assisting in supervising the First-Year Player Draft.

His judgment for talent, whether acquired or developed through the farm system, can be seen throughout the roster of the Major League club, as he had a major hand in the teams drafting and development of their homegrown talent. Of the players on the 2014 World Series 25-man roster, 13 were either selected by San Francisco in the June draft or signed their first professional contract with the Giants.

In addition to the Giants capturing seven post-season berths (including four World Series appearances and three Championships) during Tidrow's tenure, San Francisco's farm system owns the highest winning percentage in baseball over the past 10 seasons with a .552 organizational mark, largely due to Tidrow's tutelage of the club's pitching prospects.

Prior to joining the Giants organization, Tidrow served as a special assignment scout with the New York Yankees from 1985 through 1993. The former right-handed pitcher, nicknamed "Dirt," enjoyed parts of 13 years in the Majors from 1972-84. He was honored as The Sporting News A.L. Rookie Pitcher of the Year as a starter with the Cleveland Indians in 1972, while also capturing pennant and World Series rings as a reliever with the Yankees in 1976 and '77, respectively. He later pitched for the Cubs, White Sox and Mets. His lifetime numbers show a 100-94 record with 55 saves and a 3.68 ERA.

The San Francisco native graduated from Mt. Eden High School in 1965 and Chabot Junior College in 1967, both located in Hayward. Dick and his wife, Mari Jo, have three children— Andy, Matt and Richelle—and make their home in Lee's Summit, MO.

Jeremy Shelley

VICE PRESIDENT & ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Jeremy Shelley enters his 25th season in San Francisco's baseball operations department, currently serving as Vice President and Assistant General Manager. He assists General Manager Bobby Evans with the day-to day operations of the baseball department including player acquisitions, player evaluations, roster management, player contracts and salary arbitration. Additionally, he oversees the pro scouting staff at the major league, minor league and international levels. Shelley also plays an integral role in the club's international operations.

During his time with the Giants he has been an important part of eight Postseason berths, including four World Series appearances and three Championships. He has also helped the organization be recognized as the Topps Organization of the Year in 2009 and 2011 and the Baseball America Organization of the Year in 2010.

The Concord, CA native began his career for the Giants as a baseball operations intern in 1994. He was hired full-time as Administrative Assistant, Baseball Operations in 1996. Shelley was later promoted to Director, Baseball Operations in 2006, Senior Director, Baseball Operations/Pro Scouting in 2009 and Vice President, Pro Scouting and Player Evaluation in 2013.

He earned a BS in finance from Santa Clara University in 1995. Shelley and his wife, Suzanne, live in San Mateo with their two daughters.

John Barr

VICE PRESIDENT & ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER, SCOUTING & INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS

John Barr will begin his 34th season as a baseball executive and his 11th season with the Giants, overseeing amateur and international scouting.

Under Barr's guidance, the Giants have drafted players such as 2010 Rookie of the Year and 2012 National League MVP Buster Posey, All-Stars Brandon Crawford, Brandon Belt and Joe Panik; all of whom have contributed to the Giants' three World Series titles over the last seven seasons. In fact, seven of the 13 position players on San Francisco's 2014 World Series roster were all selected by Barr in the June draft. The Audubon, NJ, native entered the front office ranks in 1984 with the New York Mets as Administrative Assistant to Minor Leagues and Scouting where he remained until becoming the East Coast Supervisor for the Minnesota Twins in 1988. As Scouting Director for the Baltimore Orioles, (1989-90), Barr was responsible for selecting first rounders Ben McDonald ('89) and Mike Mussina ('90). He served as Assistant General Manager for the San Diego Padres (1991-93) before returning to the New York Mets (1994-97) as Scouting Director, where they added players such as AJ Burnett, Paul Wilson, Jay Payton, and Terrence Long to their system. Barr then spent ten years (1998-2007) with the Los Angeles Dodgers as East Coast Supervisor where he was instrumental in the selection of All-Star catcher Russell Martin, starting pitcher Edwin Jackson and reliever Jonathan Broxton. Barr was inducted into the Mid Atlantic Scouts Hall of Fame in November of 2008 and then inducted into the Professional Scouting Hall of Fame during the summer of 2009. The Rider University graduate resides in Haddonfield, NJ, with his wife, Marianne, daughters Kate, Eileen, and Mary, and son, Blake.

Yeshayah Goldfarb

VICE PRESIDENT OF BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Yeshayah Goldfarb enters his 18th season with the Giants. During his tenure he has become an integral part of a baseball operations team and decision making process that has led to six playoff seasons, four World Series appearances, and three World Series championships. Goldfarb's daily focus is on Major League and minor league roster construction, looking for strategic opportunities to add talent to the Giants 25 man roster, 40 man roster and player development system while ensuring Giants players are being supported and put in positions to be successful. He also oversees the research and development team, working to create competitive advantages for the Giants by integrating new technologies and data into daily routines and the decision making process. Finally, Goldfarb helps direct long term vision, organizational structure and improvement initiatives within baseball operations.

Goldfarb graduated Cum Laude from the University of California, San Diego. A former pitcher and team captain, he played four seasons with the Tritons and was elected most inspirational Player by his teammates and also presented with the John Roth Memorial Award (Charlie Hustle) by the coaching staff in 2000. The Berkeley, CA native began his career with the Giants as a scouting intern and video assistant in 2001 and was hired full time after the season as Assistant, Baseball Operations. Entering the 2016 season Goldfarb was promoted from Senior Director, Minor League Operations and Quantitative Analysis to Vice President of Baseball Operations. Goldfarb and his wife, Miranda, have a daughter, Eliana, and a son, Ezra, and reside in Oakland, CA.

David Bell

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

David Bell enters his first season with the Giants. In 2017, he completed his fourth year on the St. Louis Cardinals coaching staff and his third as the team's bench coach after serving as assistant hitting coach in 2014. Bell was previously the third base coach for the Chicago Cubs in 2013 after having spent the previous four seasons as a manager and coach in the Cincinnati Reds organization. After a 12-year Major League career, he began his coaching career in 2009 as the Manager for the Reds' Double-A Carolina team, serving in that position through 2011. He managed the Triple-A Louisville club for the Reds in 2012. Following the 2009 campaign, Bell also managed the Peoria Saguaros of the Arizona Fall League. Bell, 45, is a member of one of Major League Baseball's three generation families: the son of Buddy Bell and the grandson of Gus Bell. He resides in Santa Rosa, California with his wife and two children.

Felipe Alou

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Felipe Alou, a man whose name is synonymous with the Giants, returns for his 11th season as a Special Assistant to the General Manager after serving as the club's field manager from 2003-06. He works with Bobby Evans on special assignments, including evaluations and recommendations on players at the Major League and Minor League levels.

The organization recently named their facility in the Dominican Republic after Alou - The Felipe Alou Baseball Academy, which serves as the headquarters of the Giants' Latin American operations and as the educational training and player development home for the team's international prospects.

The Dominican icon continues a long and storied career with the franchise, beginning with his playing-days as a member of the original San Francisco Giants club in 1958. He concluded his four-year tenure at the helm of the Giants ranking seventh on the wins list for San Francisco skippers with a 342-304 record.

The 2018 campaign will mark Alou's 63rd season in professional baseball. Following a distinguished 17-year playing career that ended in 1974, he was appointed a minor league manager in 1976 and remained in uniform each year through the 2006 campaign. In 13 seasons as a Major League manager, the 1994 National League Manager of the Year posted a 1,033-1,021-1 ledger and became just the 53rd skipper since 1900 to register 1,000 wins. The Haina, Dominican Republic native is the first manager of Latin descent to win 1,000 games in the big leagues, and is only the third foreign-born skipper to reach the milestone (current Giants skipper Bruce Bochy, France, 1,789-1,757; and Harry Wright, England, 1,000-825).

Alou became the first Dominican-born manager in Major League history when he assumed control of the Montreal Expos on May 22, 1992. He was the fourth Latin American head man born in the Caribbean Islands, following Mike Gonzalez (Cuba), Preston Gomez (Cuba) and Cookie Rojas (Cuba).

Prior to the 2015 season, Alou was elected into the Canadian Baseball Hall of Fame, acknowledging his work with the Expos.

Primarily an outfielder during his playing days, the second Dominican-born player to reach the Majors (following Ozzie Virgil with the 1956 New York Giants) was a three-time All-Star during a 17-year career with the Giants (1958-63), Milwaukee and Atlanta Braves (1964-69), Oakland Athletics (1970-71), New York Yankees (1971-73), Montreal Expos (1973) and Milwaukee Brewers (1974).

Alou, and his wife Lucie, make their home in Boynton Beach, FL with their two children, Valerie and Felipe, Jr. He is also the father of daughters Maria, Christia, Cheri and Jennifer, along with sons Jose, Moises, Felipe Jose and Luis.

Dave Righetti

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Dave Righetti enters his 19th year with the Giants and his first as Special Assistant to General Manager Bobby Evans. Righetti joined the organization in 1999 as a roving minor league pitching instructor. He joined the Major League staff in 2000 as the pitching coach, a role he held for the next 18 seasons. As a player, Righetti made stops with the Yankees (1979, 1981-90), Giants (1991-93), A's (1994), Blue Jays (1994) and White Sox (1995). He began his career as a starter, then converted to a reliever in 1984. He won the American League Rookie of the Year award in 1981 after going 8-4 with a 2.06 ERA. He ended his career with 252 saves, which ranks 35th on Major League Baseball's all-time saves list. Righetti was inducted into the Bay Area Sports Hall of Fame on May 23, 2013. Righetti and his wife, Kandice, have three children (triplets, Nicolette, Natalee and Wesley).

Randy Winn

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Randy Winn enters his tenth year overall with the club and his second as Special Assistant to General Manager Bobby Evans. In his role, Winn evaluates talent at both the Major and Minor League levels and provides Evans with input regarding potential player acquisitions and roster moves. He was originally acquired by the Giants on July 30, 2005 from the Seattle Mariners in exchange for C Yorvit Torrealba and RHP Jesse Foppert. Winn played all or part of thirteen seasons in the Majors with Tampa Bay (1998-2002), Seattle (2003-05),

San Francisco (2005-09), New York-AL (2010) and St. Louis (2010). He played basketball at Santa Clara University, where he was a teammate of former NBA player Steve Nash. Winn was inducted into the Santa Clara and West Coast Conference Hall of Fame in 2016 and currently works as an analyst for NBC Sports Bay Area along with being President of the Baseball Assistance Team (B.A.T.).

Jack Hiatt

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Jack Hiatt, a former Giants player, enters his 57th season in professional and 26th with the San Francisco Giants, currently serving as a Special Assistant to General Manager Bobby Evans. In his role, Hiatt works closely with Evans on minor league evaluations and recommendations. Hiatt had previously worked as a Senior Advisor to Player Personnel after retiring from his longtime position as the club's Director of Player Development. Hiatt also spent two seasons as the Roving Catching Instructor/Assistant Player Development Director and one campaign (1988) as the manager of the Giants' rookie league club in Pocatello, ID. A catcher and first baseman during his playing days, Hiatt played for the Angels, Giants, Expos, Cubs and Astros during a career that included 483 games from 1964-72. Prior to joining the Giants' player development staff, Hiatt worked as a coach and manager in the Cubs, Angels and Astros organizations, including a stint as a Major League coach with Chicago in 1981. Hiatt and his wife, Sherlyn, reside in Roseburg, OR.

Mark Gardner

SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT, PITCHING

Mark Gardner enters his 16th season with the Giants and his first as special assignment, pitching. Gardner played 13 seasons in the Major Leagues with Montreal (1989-92), Kansas City (1993), Florida (1994-95) and San Francisco (1996-2001). He originally came to San Francisco as a free agent at the end of the 1996 Spring Training and emerged as the club's winningest pitcher that season. In 2001, he was a co-winner (with Benito Santiago) of the Willie Mac Award, given to the most inspirational player on the team. Gardner and his wife, Kerry, reside in Friant, CA. Gardner has two sons, Nicholas and Daniel.

Shane Turner

SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Shane Turner enters his 23rd season with the Giants and his first as a special assistant to the baseball operations department. From 2008-2013, Turner served as the Giants Coordinator of Minor League Operations. In this role, Turner traveled to each of the Giants' minor league affiliates to work closely with SF's young players. In his 20-plus years with the Giants, Turner has managed or coached at every level within the Giants' minor league system. The highlight of his managerial career came in 1998 when he led Class A Advanced San Jose to a league-best 83-57 record and the California League Championship, the first ever in San Francisco. Turner played professionally for 11 years as an infielder in the minor league systems of Chicago-AL, Baltimore, San Francisco, Seattle, Philadelphia and New York-AL. Turner resides in Sinking Spring, PA with his wife Beth and their two children.

Steve Decker

SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Steve Decker enters his 24th season with the Giants organization and his first with baseball operations. He began his coaching career in 2001 with Salem Keizer, where he spent two seasons before coaching with triple-A Fresno from 2003-04. Decker made his managerial debut in 2005 with Salem-Keizer, where he remained through the 2007 season. He managed San Jose in 2008, double-A Connecticut in 2009 and triple-A Fresno from 2010-11. From 2012 to 2014, Decker worked as the Giants' Coordinator or Instruction and Minor League hitting. He joined the Major League staff in 2015 as a hitting coach. As a player, Decker saw action over seven big league seasons with the Giants, Marlins, Rockies and Angels. Decker and his wife, Maite, reside in Keizer, OR, and have one daughter, Hailey.

Ellis Burks

SPECIAL ASSISTANT, SCOUTING

Ellis Burks begins his first season as a Special Assistant for Scouting after serving as a special instructor for the Giants last season during spring training. He was originally acquired by the Giants on July 31, 1998 from the Colorado Rockies in exchange for OF Darryl Hamilton and RHP Jim Stoops. Burks played all or part of eighteen seasons in the Majors with Boston (1987-1992), Chicago-AL (1993), Colorado (1994-98), San Francisco (1998-2000), Cleveland (2001-03) and Boston (2004). After the 2005 season, Burks joined the Indians' front office staff as a special assistant to the general manager.

2018 GIANTS

MANAGER AND COACHES

BRUCE BOCHY
MANAGER

Bruce Bochy was named the 38th manager in Giants franchise history, and 16th in San Francisco annals on Oct. 27, 2006. Bochy, 62, is in his 24th season as a manager, his 12th with the Giants. During his 23 seasons as a big league skipper, Bochy has compiled 1,853 managerial victories, which rank 15th on the all-time list. Of the 14 managers ahead of him, 12 are in the National Baseball Hall of Fame. Bochy has managed 3,708 big league games, the 11th-most all-time, and his 23 years managed is tied for the 13th-most. He's the only manager in MLB history to win 900-plus games with multiple franchises, winning 951 games with San Diego and 902 with San Francisco. In just his second season with the Padres in 1996, Bochy was named NL Manager of the Year, leading San Diego to a 91-71 record and their second NL West division title in franchise history. Bochy has managed four All-Star teams (1999, 2011, 2013, 2015) and has been a member of the All-Star coaching staff eight times: 1997, 1999, 2001, 2007, 2010, 2011, 2013, 2015. In 2011, he was the skipper for the MLB All-Stars in Tawain.

Under Bochy's leadership, the Giants have posted a 902-880 (.506) record since 2007, which ranks as the fourth-best winning percentage in the National League behind the Dodgers (.551), Cardinals (.547) and Cubs (.508). His 902 wins are the second-most by a Giants manager in team history behind Hall of Famer John McGraw (2,583).

The two-time NL Manager of the Year was just the fourth in Giants history to bring more than 10 years of big league managing experience to the job, following Cap Anson (21 seasons) in 1898, Hughie Jennings (14) in 1924 and Felipe Alou (10) in 2003. He's the fourth Giants manager to be born outside of the United States, joining Jack Doyle (Ireland) in 1895, Arthur Irwin (Canada) in 1896 and Felipe Alou (Dominican Republic) in 2003. Bochy is the sixth manager in Giants franchise annals who was primarily a catcher during their career, joining John Clapp (1883), Buck Ewing (1900), Herman Franks (1965-68), Charlie Fox (1970-74) and Wes Westrum (1974-75).

During his 11-year tenure with SF, he has guided the Giants to three World Series titles, with San Francisco winning the Fall Classic in 2010, 2012 and 2014. He became just the fifth manager to lead a team to three titles in a five year span, joining Connie Mack, Joe McCarthy, Casey Stengel and Joe Torre. The Giants' championship in 2010 was their first in San Francisco history (since 1958) and their first overall since the New York Giants won in 1954. The only other Giants managers to win a World Series are John McGraw (1905, 21-22), Bill Terry (1933), and Leo Durocher (1954). McGraw (1905, 1921, 1922) is the only other Giants manager besides Bochy to win three titles. Bochy is the first foreign-born manager to reach the World Series (1998) and first European-born manager to win a World Series (2010).

Overall, Bochy has led his teams to four Pennants and three World Series championships. His teams have posted a 44-33 (.571) record in the postseason. Only Joe Torre (84 wins), Tony LaRussa (70) and Bobby Cox (67) have more postseason victories than Bochy. The Giants have won 11 of their 12 postseason series in Bochy's tenure, with their lone loss coming in the 2016 NLDS against the Cubs. From 2010-2016, Bochy won 11-straight postseason rounds, which tied Joe Torre (Yankees, 1998-2001) for the longest streak ever by a manager.

Prior to joining the Giants' organization, Bochy was the manager of the San Diego Padres from 1995-2006, leading the Friars to a 951-975 (.494) record. To this day, Bochy's 951 victories with the Padres are the most in franchise history. During his tenure with San Diego he guided his Padres clubs to five winning campaigns, including 1996, 1998, 2005 and 2006 NL West titles. Bochy became the first Padres skipper to earn NL Manager of Year honors when he led the 1996 club to their first NL West title since 1984, winning both BBWAA award and The Sporting News accolade (voted upon by senior circuit managers). Two years later, he was named 1998 NL Manager of Year by The Sporting News for second time in three seasons, and was runner-up to Houston's Larry Dierker in BBWAA voting. He guided those Padres to club-record 98 wins, their third NL West title and second NL pennant. Overall, Bochy logged a 24-year affiliation with the Padres organization from 1983-2006. He was named Padres manager on Oct. 21, 1994.

The former catcher spent parts of nine Major League seasons with Houston (1978-80), New York-NL (1982) and San Diego (1983-87). He compiled a lifetime .239 batting average with 26 home runs and 93 RBI in 358 career games. Bochy made his big league debut on July 18, 1978 in an Astros uniform, going 2-for-3 at Shea Stadium. He hit his first big league home run the following day, a solo shot off Mets' Kevin Kobel in the second game of a doubleheader. As a player, he twice advanced to playoffs, logging one NLCS game with Houston in 1980 and one World Series contest with San Diego in 1984. He delivered a pinch-hit single in Game 5 at Detroit in his only Fall Classic at-bat. He enjoyed his best season in 1986 with the Padres, setting personal bests in homers (8), RBI (22), games played (63) and starts behind the plate (29). One of the Padres' more popular figures during his playing days, Bochy ended his career with the 1987 Friars club.

Born in Landes de Bussac, France on April 16, 1955, Bochy is just one of eight Major Leaguers to be born in France, where his father, Sgt. Major Gus Bochy, was stationed as a U.S. Army NCO at the time. Growing up, Bochy moved with his family to the Panama Canal Zone, South Carolina, northern Virginia and Melbourne, Florida. He graduated from Melbourne High School. He attended Brevard Community College for two years on a partial scholarship, winning a state championship in 1975 and decided to turn pro when he was drafted in the first round (24th overall) by the Houston Astros in the 1975 draft.

Bochy and his wife, Kim, reside in San Diego during the offseason and have two sons, Greg (38) and Brett (30). Bruce and Kim are also first time grandparents of Braxton Douglas, born Jan. 24, 2018 to the proud parents of Greg and McKenna. Greg spent several seasons playing minor league baseball in the Padres system. Brett, who married Kelsey Grimm in December, 2015, was drafted by the Giants in 2010 and was called up to the Majors on Sept. 2, 2014, making Bruce the eighth manager in MLB history to manage his own son. On Sept. 13, 2014, Bruce became the first manager to give the ball to his son coming out of the bullpen.

NOTES

Has led the Giants to three World Series titles (2010, 2012, 2014).

Named NL Manager of the Year in 1996.

Bochy was born in Landes de Bussac, France, where his father in the U.S. Army, was stationed at that time.

Is the first foreign-born manager to reach the World Series (1998) and the first European-born manager to win the World Series (2010).

Bochy met his wife, Kim, while at Brevard Community College in 1975 and they married in 1978. They reside in Poway, California and have two sons, Greg and Brett. Greg Bochy spent several seasons playing minor league baseball in the San Diego Padres system. Bochy's younger son, Brett, was drafted by the Giants in 2010. Brett was called up to the Majors on September 2, 2014, making Bruce the eighth manager in MLB history to manage his own son.

In 2015, Bochy published a book titled "A Book Of Walks," describing his favorite walks around San Francisco and other major league cities. Bochy donated all the proceeds of the book to sponsor programs at the Wellstone Center in the Redwoods near Santa Cruz, California

IN THE COMMUNITY

Each year, Bochy participates in the American Heart Association's Heart Walk in San Francisco as he leads the walkers down the Embarcadero raising awareness and funds for heart health.

Bruce and Kim support San Francisco's Homeless Prenatal Program, assisting pregnant women and their children transition to a more empowered life, by participating in an annual fundraiser.

Bochy is involved in supporting the work of the Alzheimer's Association in both Northern California and Florida through his participation in Public Service Announcements and assistance with raising funds.

Bochy encourages youth to play baseball and softball through his participation in MLB's Play Ball Initiative.

Lends his time to Purple Heart Anglers, a nonprofit organization devoted to creating opportunities for disabled veterans to fish and hunt. He supported the group during a visit to Costa Rica in 2016, 2017 and 2018 that included three days of fishing. Zancudo Lodge in southern Costa Rica hosted the trips and donated its world-class fishing lodge

The Bochy's also support a number of community groups and non-profits serving children including the Lemon Grove Academy, Project Night Night, Greater Bay Area Make-A-Wish Foundation, The Rainbow Connection, Positive Coaching Alliance and Generation Alive.

HENSLEY MEULENS

BENCH COACH

Hensley Meulens begins his ninth season on the Giants' coaching staff and his first as bench coach. In his new role, Meulens will take over the day-to-day administration and participate more directly with manager Bruce Bochy's in-game strategy. Meulens also will be responsible for the outfield defense instruction, positioning and preparation.

The former big leaguer spent the past eight seasons as the team's hitting coach, reaching the Major League ranks in 2010. He helped the Giants win a World Series in three of his first five years. Meulens began his coaching career with the Bluefield Orioles, Baltimore's advanced rookie team in the Appalachian League, for the 2003 and 2004 seasons. From 2005-08, he was the hitting coach of the Indianapolis Indians, the triple-A affiliate of the Pittsburgh Pirates. In 2009, he served as hitting coach for the Fresno Grizzlies, the triple-A team of the Giants before reaching the bigs.

A native of Curacao, Meulens played from 1989 to 2000 in MLB, Nippon Professional Baseball, and the Korea Baseball Organization. He was the first Curacaoan to play in both Major League Baseball and the Dominican Professional Baseball League. Meulens was signed by the New York Yankees as an undrafted free agent in 1985. He made his professional debut with the Yankees in 1986 and spent eight years in their system. He was named Carolina League Player of the Year by Baseball America in 1987 and led the International League in home runs (26) and RBI (100) while playing for Columbus in 1992. He made his big league debut with the Yankees on Aug. 23, 1989. Overall, he batted .220 with 15 home runs and 53 RBI in 182 MLB games. He was inducted into the International League Hall of Fame in 2016.

Meulens represented the Netherlands at the 2000 Summer Olympics in Sydney, Australia. He returned to the team as a coach for the 2004 Summer Olympics and the 2009 World Baseball Classic. Meulens was named to serve as manager for the team during the 2013 and 2017 World Baseball Classic. Meulens also played for the Dutch team in the 2001 Baseball World Cup in Taichung, Taiwan and 2002 Intercontinental Cup in Havana, Cuba.

He graduated from Triniteit High School in Willemstad, Curacao. He and his wife, Gyselle, have one son, Elijah Gabriel Ludwig (April 14, 2010) and two daughters, Mia Valentina Turya (Feb. 29, 2012) and Evangelina Cristina Vuri (Jan. 14, 2014). Hensley also has two daughters, Michelle and Danielle, and one grandson, Maxton Hensley Liam Pasquaretta and one granddaughter, Ximena Vida Marie Pasquaretta (the son and daughter of Michelle and her husband Kevin).

NOTES

Nicknamed "Bam Bam" from his softball days back home in Curacao. Was hitting home runs left-handed and his friends compared his power to the Flintstones cartoon character.

Speaks five different languages: English, Spanish, Dutch, Papiamentu & Japanese.

He and his brother run a baseball academy for kids ages four to 19 in Curacao.

On July 13, 2012, he received the Royal decoration of the Kingdom of the Netherlands from Consul General Bart van Bolhuis before the game. Was conferred the status of Ridder in de Orde van Oranje-Nassau – the rank of knighthood. This decoration bestowed the title of Sir. to Bam Bam marking the honor of being knighted by the Queen of the Kingdom of the Netherlands for service to the monarch and country.

He was also selected as an inaugural astronaut for "Space Expedition Curacao," a commercial space tourism program the Caribbean nation launched in 2015.

Meulens got a street named after him by the government of Curacao on Dec. 16, 2013. The street is named KAMINDA Hensley F.A. "Bam Bam" Meulens.

CURT YOUNG

PITCHING COACH

Curt Young begins his first season as the Giants pitching coach. The 57-year-old had been the pitching coach for the A's in 15 of the last 16 seasons, with the only exception being 2011 when he worked for the Red Sox. He was the longest-serving employee in uniform in Oakland A's history; he played for the A's from 1983-91 and served two stints as pitching coach, from 2003-2010 and from 2012-2017. His 23 years in an Oakland uniform surpassed the tenures of Dave Duncan, Mike Gallego and Dave McKay, who each spent 15 years with Oakland as players and coaches. Young had spent 33 years in the Oakland organization, which included 12 years as a player, eight years as a minor league coach and 13 years as the Major League pitching coach.

Under Young's guidance, the A's finished second in the American League in ERA in three straight seasons from 2012-14. The 2014 club posted a 3.22 ERA, which was seventh lowest in Oakland history and the lowest since 1990 (3.18). During his tenure as coach from 2004-10, Oakland pitchers posted an AL-best 4.03 ERA and held opponents to an AL-low .257 average while allowing the fewest home runs (1,062) in the league.

During Young's tenure as Oakland pitching coach, 13 A's pitchers—Mark Mulder (2004), Tim Hudson (2004), Justin Duchscherer (2005, 2008), Barry Zito (2006), Dan Haren (2007), Andrew Bailey (2009), Trevor Cahill (2010), Ryan Cook (2012), Bartolo Colón (2013), Grant Balfour (2013), Sean Doolittle (2014), Scott Kazmir (2014) and Sonny Gray (2015)—have been selected to the American League All-Star team, with Mulder and Haren earning starts in the Midsummer Classic. Closers Huston Street (2005) and Bailey (2009) also earned AL Rookie of the Year honors.

Young began his coaching career in 1996 with the A's affiliate in the Arizona Rookie League. He spent three seasons in Scottsdale before he was named pitching coach at Single-A Visalia in 1999. Young spent the next three years as the pitching coach at double-A Midland. His first Midland staff compiled a 4.60 ERA, which was the lowest figure posted by the club in 15 years. His 2001 staff bettered the previous year's figure by 20 points, finishing with a 4.40 ERA, and in 2002 the RockHounds finished with a 3.88 ERA. Young was promoted to triple-A Sacramento for the 2003 season and the River Cats posted the fourth best ERA in the Pacific Coast League (3.90) en route to the PCL Championship.

Young compiled a 69-53 record and a 4.31 ERA in 251 games, 162 starts, in an 11-year Major League pitching career that included stints with Oakland (1983-91, 93), Kansas City (1992) and the New York Yankees (1992). He was originally drafted by the A's in the fourth round of the 1981 June draft, making his major league debut in 1983. The left-hander went 13-9 with a 3.45 ERA in 1986, leading the team in victories and earning him an Opening Day start in 1987. He matched his career best in wins in 1987, posting a 13-7 record and a 4.08 ERA in a career-high 31 starts. Young was also a member of the A's starting rotation when they won three consecutive American League pennants from 1988-90. He tossed two one-hitters during his career: Oct. 5, 1986 against Kansas City and June 9, 1987 against Chicago.

Young graduated from Arthur Hill High School in Saginaw, Mich., where he also starred as a quarterback, and attended Central Michigan University. In 1980, he pitched for the United States team in the World Amateur Baseball Tournament in Japan.

Curt and his wife, Kathy, make their offseason home in Scottsdale, Ariz. They have two sons (Daniel and Jamie) and a daughter (Shannon).

ALONZO POWELL

HITTING COACH

Alonzo Powell begins his first season as the Giants' hitting coach having worked the previous two seasons as the assistant hitting coach for the 2017 World Series champion Houston Astros. Powell, who was born in San Francisco, has been on a Major League staff every season dating back to 2012 and the 2018 season marks his 36th in professional baseball, having coached for 17 years (2002-18) following a 19-year playing career (1983-2001). He's spent a total of eight seasons (2010, 2012-18) on a Major League coaching staff and saw big league action in two seasons as a player (1987, 1991).

In his brief stint with Houston, the 53-year-old Powell helped the Astros to be one of the top offensive teams in the big leagues. In 2017, the Astros led the Majors in runs scored (896), hits (1,581), doubles (346), batting average (.282), on-base pct. (.346), slugging pct. (.478) and OPS (.823) while striking out fewer than any club (1,087). Per Elias, the Astros became the seventh team in MLB history to post the highest slugging percentage and the fewest strikeouts in a single season, with only two teams doing so since 1911: the 1948 Yankees and the 1995 Indians.

Prior to joining Houston, Powell served in the same role for the Padres from 2012-15.

Immediately following his playing career, Powell began coaching in the Reds minor league system in 2002, serving as Double A Chattanooga's hitting coach for two seasons (2002-03). He would then manage Class A Dayton for two years (2004-05) and was the hitting coach for Dayton in 2006. Powell moved on to the Mariners organization in 2007, and spent five seasons (2007-11) in various roles. He was hired as the club's minor league hitting coordinator in 2007 and spent parts of his next four seasons (2008-11) as the hitting coach at triple A Tacoma. In May of 2010, Powell was named the interim hitting coach for the Mariners. Following the 2011 season, Powell was hired by the Padres as their assistant hitting coach.

His coaching career followed a 19-year playing career that took him through seven Major League organizations and on to great success in Nippon Professional Baseball in Japan. He spent seven seasons in Japan becoming the first American player to win three consecutive batting championships (1994-96). He also made five All-Star teams and received two Gold Gloves in Japan.

Powell and his wife, Jana reside in Peoria, Arizona and have two sons, Cameron and Dalton, two daughters, Courtney and Brooklyn, and four grandchildren, Madison, Mckenzie, Alaya and Liberty.

NOTES

Powell was born in San Francisco and attended Lincoln High School.

He was drafted by the Giants in 1983. He made his big league debut on April 6, 1987 with the Montreal Expos.

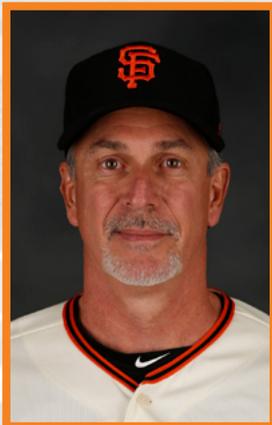

Following his Major League career, Powell played for seven seasons in Japan. He was just the third player in Central League history, and the first foreign player, to win three straight batting titles, hitting .324, .355, and .340 from 1994 to 1996. He was also a 2-time Central League All-Star.

RON WOTUS

THIRD BASE COACH

Ron Wotus will begin his 31st year within the Giants organization and his 21st on the Major League coaching staff. Wotus, who joined the Giants' staff as a third-base coach in 1998, is the longest-tenured coach in franchise history. He has worked under Dusty Baker, Felipe Alou and since the 2007 season, Bruce Bochy. In 2018, Wotus will handle the third base coaching duties after having been the team's bench coach for the past 19 seasons. He will continue to oversee infield instruction, positioning and strategy and will work with the players on baserunning.

Wotus is one of just six individuals since 1900 to serve as a Giants coach for at least 10 years, joining Mark Gardner (15 years, 2003-2017), Larry Jansen (12 years, 1954 and 1961-71), Bob Lillis (11 years, 1986-96), Dave Righetti (18 years, 2000-2017) and Wes Westrum (10 years, 1958-63 and 1968-71).

He has worked with four players that have won NL Gold Gloves under his watch: J.T. Snow (1999, 2000), Omar Vizquel (2005, 2006), Brandon Crawford (2015, 2016, 2017) and Joe Panik (2016).

Wotus coached at Class A Clinton (Iowa) in 1990 before managing in San Francisco's minor league system for seven years from 1991-97. His clubs, ranging from Class A to triple-A, reached the playoffs in every year but one. He was twice named Manager of the Year, while posting an overall record of 554-412 (.574). Wotus was the manager of the single-A San Jose Giants (1991-92), the double-A Shreveport Captains (1993-95) and triple-A Phoenix Firebirds (1996-97). He was named California League Manager of the Year in 1991 after leading San Jose to a 92-44 record. In 1997, he was named Pacific Coast League Manager of the Year after the Firebirds finished 88-55, winning 41 of their final 51 games. Wotus became the Giants third base coach in 1998 under manager Dusty Baker and served as bench coach from 1999-2017 under Baker, Felipe Alou and Bruce Bochy.

The Connecticut native has been in professional baseball for just about his entire adult life. The Pirates selected him in the 16th round in 1979 and he enjoyed an 11-year professional career, including parts of the 1983 and 1984 seasons with Pittsburgh. A middle infielder, Wotus went 12-for-58 in parts of two seasons with the Pirates. He made his Major League debut on Sept. 3, 1983 in Atlanta and recorded his first big league hit, a single, off the Dodgers' Orel Hershiser at Los Angeles on July 4, 1984. His final two seasons as a player came with the Giants' triple-A affiliate in Phoenix in 1988 and 1989.

Wotus graduated from Bacon (Colchester, CT) Academy in 1979. He and his wife, Laurie, reside in Pleasant Hill, CA.

NOTES

Is the first Giants coach in franchise history to serve for 20 years (1998-present).

During his tenure with the Giants, Wotus has worked under just three managers: Dusty Baker, Felipe Alou and Bruce Bochy.

Wotus' public high school in Colchester, CT, dates back to 1803. One of its first graduates was Stephen F. Austin, the "Father of Texas."

He played baseball, soccer and basketball in high school and was named an All-New England center forward in soccer after scoring a then-record 89 career goals.

JOSÉ ALGUACIL

FIRST BASE COACH

José Alguacil returns for his second season as the team's first base coach, his 12th season overall in the organization. Alguacil will continue to oversee bunting instruction along with assisting Ron Wotus with infield defense and baserunning.

The 45-year-old began his managing career in the short season New York-Penn League with the 2004 Vermont Expos, spending three years with the club. In 2007, he rejoined the Giants as a roving minor league infield instructor and worked eight years (2007-2014) in that post before returning to managing in 2015 (double-A Richmond) and 2016 (triple-A Sacramento).

A native of Caracas, he played minor league baseball in the Giants' and Chicago White Sox' organizations, as well as in the independent leagues from 1993 to 2001. He signed with the Giants as a 20-year-old infielder from Venezuela in 1993.

NOTES

Alguacil spoke no English when he arrived at his first spring training. On his third day, he bought a dictionary and began hanging out with American players so he could spend more time around English speakers.

Was a coach for the Spanish National Team in the 2013 World Baseball Classic.

His biggest influences in baseball were Frank Robinson and Felipe Alou. Has said his "mentor" is Joe Amalfitano, the Giants' player development assistant whose major-league experience dates to 1954.

MATT HERGES
BULLPEN COACH

Matt Herges will embark on his first season as San Francisco's bullpen coach. The 47-year-old will work closely with the relief pitchers and oversee their warm-ups and daily preparation. He will also be responsible for series advance analysis.

Herges previously worked the last seven seasons within the Dodgers' minor league chain and most recently was the triple-A pitching coach for the Oklahoma City Dodgers in 2016 and 2017. During his time on the Dodgers' staff he helped instruct Jharel Cotton (now with the Oakland A's), Chris Anderson (first round pick by the Dodgers in the 2013 draft) and Dodgers' highly-touted prospect Julio Urias. Herges' previous stops in the Dodgers' chain included one season with double-A Tulsa, one season with Rookie AZL Dodgers and three seasons with High-A Rancho Cucamonga.

Herges pitched in parts of 11 big league seasons, including three with the Giants from 2003-05. He posted a record of 43-35 with 34 saves and a 3.91 ERA in 567 games (four starts) with Los Angeles-NL (1999-2001), Montreal (2002), San Diego (2003), San Francisco (2003-05), Arizona (2005), Florida (2006), Colorado (2007-08, 2009) and Cleveland (2009).

Herges was the primary setup man during his three-year stint with San Francisco, but also recorded 23 saves in 2004 when he filled in at closer for an injured Robb Nen. He pitched in a total of 118 games for the Giants, going 6-6 with a 4.30 ERA.

Herges graduated from Centennial High School in Illinois before playing collegiate baseball at Illinois State University. Matt and his wife, Jane, have two sons, Tyler John (Nov. 9, 2002) and Bryce Matthew (May 1, 2006), and one daughter, Julia Taylor (Sept. 24, 2004).

RICK SCHU
ASSISTANT HITTING COACH

Rick Schu enters his first season with the Giants organization after having spent the last seven seasons with the Washington Nationals. Schu was elevated to the Nationals' Major League coaching staff on July 23, 2013. His resume includes 20 seasons as a hitting coach and a nine-year Major League career. Over the last few seasons, Schu has overseen one of the most potent lineups in the National League and has helped tutor some of the games best players in Bryce Harper, Daniel Murphy, Anthony Rendon and Trea Turner.

After beginning the 2013 season as the Nationals' Minor League Hitting Coordinator, Schu helped revitalize the Nationals' offense – from July 23, 2013 through season's end, the Nationals went 38-25 (.603) and paced the NL in HR (70), SLG (.417) and OPS (.748).

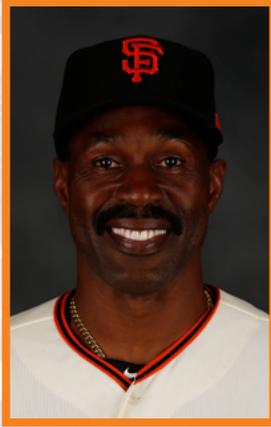

Schu spent 12 years with Arizona, including portions of four seasons (2004, 2007-09) as the Diamondbacks' MLB hitting coach. He worked as Arizona's Minor League Hitting Coordinator in 2003, and 2005-07, and worked as a Minor League coach with four affiliates from 1998-2001.

Schu played in 580 big league games spanning nine seasons (1984-96) with Philadelphia, Baltimore, Detroit, California and Montreal. Despite signing as a non-drafted free agent, Schu eventually rose through the Phillies' system and assumed the third-base job when Hall-of-Famer Mike Schmidt shifted across the diamond to first base in 1985. He hit 24 home runs in his first season with the Nippon Ham Fighters of the Japanese Pacific League, ultimately compiling a .257 average with 44 doubles, 38 home runs and 124 RBI in 257 games over two seasons (1993-94).

Schu resides in El Dorado Hills, Calif., with wife, Keri, son, Jake, and daughter, Easton.

SHAWON DUNSTON

COACH/VIDEO REPLAY ANALYST

Shawon Dunston will begin his 10th season working with San Francisco's coaching staff. Dunston will remain as overseer of the team's replay system and works closely with other members of the staff on all aspects of on-field instruction.

The two-time All-Star (1988 & 1990) owned a .269 career batting average with 150 home runs and 668 RBI in 1,814 games while logging 18 seasons in the big leagues with Chicago-NL (1985-95, 1997), San Francisco (1996, 1998, 2001-02), Pittsburgh (1997), Cleveland (1998), St. Louis (1999, 2000) and New York-NL (1999). The 54-year-old was the first overall pick in the 1982 MLB draft by the Chicago Cubs. He made his Major League debut on April 9, 1985 vs. Pittsburgh. He played four seasons with San Francisco and hit .270 with 18 homers and 67 RBI in 278 games. His only World Series appearance came with the Giants in 2002. Dunston won the Giants' Willie Mac Award in 1996 in what was his first season in San Francisco.

A three-time baseball All-Star and two-time MVP at Thomas Jefferson High School in Brooklyn, New York, Dunston had a .790 batting average with 10 home runs and stole 37 bases in 26 games in his senior season at Thomas Jefferson. Dunston was inducted into the New York State Baseball Hall of Fame in 2017.

Dunston and his wife, Tracie, have three daughters (Whitnie, Jasmine and I'Sha) and one son (Shawon Jr.), who plays in the Giants' minor league farm system.

Bob Tewksbury

MENTAL PERFORMANCE COACH

Bob enters his 37th year of professional baseball and second with the San Francisco Giants. Bob pitched 13 years in the Major Leagues with six teams - NY Yankees, Chicago Cubs, St. Louis Cardinals, Texas Rangers, San Diego Padres and Minnesota Twins. He compiled a 110-102 won-loss record and a 3.92 ERA during his big league career and was a member of the 1992 National League All-Star team. After retiring from baseball in 1998, Bob completed his B.S. in Physical Education from St. Leo University (2000) and earned a Master's of Education in

MAJOR LEAGUE CLUBHOUSE OPERATIONS

Bret Alexander

SENIOR DIRECTOR OF TEAM TRAVEL/ HOME CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Bret Alexander enters his seventh season with the Giants organization and his fourth as the Senior Director of Team Travel & Clubhouse Operations, being promoted to that position in January 2015. Bret is responsible for all facets of team travel logistics during spring training, the regular season and postseason, and oversees the organizational travel for the front office. Working in conjunction with Mike Murphy (Senior Advisor Home Clubhouse), Bret manages all phases of the Giants home clubhouse operations. Bret began his career in professional sports in the NBA with the now former Seattle SuperSonics in 1983, working as an intern. He went on to work as an assistant in media relations and then game operations. After serious consideration to follow his father's footsteps as an NBA referee, Bret instead was introduced to the music group U2 in 1989 through his wife, Theresa, and went on to become their Tour Travel Manager, serving in that capacity from 1991-2011. From 2009-2011 he managed the band's travel logistics throughout the U2 360 World Tour campaign, playing to over seven million fans, 110 shows, 78 cities, 30 countries and five continents. The tour is recognized as the highest grossing tour of all time. A native of Tacoma, Washington, he and his wife, Theresa are the proud parents of three children, Harley (26) and her husband Houston, Griffon (23) and Garret (18). Bret and Theresa currently reside in San Francisco, California.

Alan Lee

SENIOR DIRECTOR OF ARIZONA BASEBALL OPERATIONS/MAJOR LEAGUE EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Alan Lee, who enters his 21st year with the Giants, serves as the Major League Equipment Manager for the fourth season in addition to overseeing operations at the Giants Baseball Complex in Arizona. Alan oversees all purchasing, inventory and distribution of equipment for the Giants' Major League and Minor League systems. As Senior Director of Arizona Baseball Operations, he is in charge of all aspects of the management of the Giants Baseball Complex, which serves as the organization's year-round training facility. He manages business operations, budgeting and facilities improvements. Alan began his baseball career in 1996 as the assistant clubhouse manager for the triple-A Phoenix Firebirds and has worked at multiple levels within the Giants organization since. He has managed the MLB Umpires Room at AT&T Park the last seven seasons, worked the 2007 All-Star Game and 2013 World Baseball Classic, and assisted with team travel during the Giants' last three postseason appearances. Alan is a graduate of Washington State University and resides in Chandler, Arizona with his wife Shannon and daughter Eliana (8).

Mike Murphy

SENIOR ADVISOR, HOME CLUBHOUSE

"Murph" has been a fixture with the Giants since the team moved west in 1958. In recognition of his lifelong commitment to the organization, the Giants clubhouse at AT&T Park is named the Mike Murphy Clubhouse. In his 60 years, Murphy has never missed a Giants' home game. The San Francisco native is in his 61st season with the Giants. Murphy began his career in professional baseball as bat boy for the San Francisco Seals (AAA) from 1954-57, before becoming the Giants' bat boy during the 1958-59 seasons. He became visiting clubhouse attendant in 1960 when the club moved to Candlestick, a job he held until his promotion in 1980. Murphy and his wife, Carole, live in San Bruno with their children, Andrea and Michele; grandchildren, Tori-Lynn and Jeremiah; and Abby, the clubhouse dog.

Brad Grems

HOME CLUBHOUSE COORDINATOR

Brad Grems enters his fourth season with the Giants and 19th in Major League Baseball. Prior to joining the Giants, Brad spent the previous 15 seasons (2001-2014) with the Arizona Diamondbacks, working in the visiting clubhouse. In his time with the Diamondbacks, he worked numerous special events including the 2001 World Series, 2011 MLB All-Star Game and 2006, 2009 and 2013 World Baseball Classic. He also worked as the Home Clubhouse/Equipment Manager for the Salt River Rafter's of the Arizona Fall League in 2012 and 2014. As the Giants' home clubhouse coordinator, he handles the day-to-day operations of the Giants home clubhouse and manages all aspects of the equipment at home and on the road. Brad graduated in 2004 from Arizona State University with a bachelor's degree in Communications. He and his wife, Ashley, reside in Phoenix, Arizona.

Joe Day

HOME CLUBHOUSE CHEF

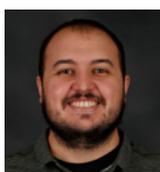

Joe Day is entering his 10th season with the Giants. He runs and maintains the clubhouse kitchen, providing meals to all players, coaches, medical, and clubhouse staff, focusing on individual player needs, and diets. In 2004 he earned an associate's degree in the culinary arts at the California Culinary Academy, and also graduated from their baking and pastry program. Day resides in the Bay Area with his wife Carolline, and daughter Daisy.

Brandon Evans

HOME CLUBHOUSE ASSISTANT

Brandon Evans begins his 23rd season with the Giants, having been employed by the organization since 1996. Evans assists with the day-to-day operations of the Giants home clubhouse. He has worked numerous special events including all the Giants' World Series appearances since 2002, the 2007 All-Star Game and he worked for Team Japan in the World Baseball Classic in 2009 and 2013. Evans was born and raised in San Francisco and currently resides in the city.

James Uroz

HOME CLUBHOUSE ASSISTANT

James Uroz enters his ninth season with the Giants' clubhouse staff. He spent his first four seasons working for the visiting clubhouse, and is now in his fourth season working on the home side. He earned his BA in Business Administration from Saint Mary's College in 2014.

Abe Silvestri

VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Abe Silvestri enters his fourth season with the Giants as the visiting clubhouse manager. The Stanwood, Washington native began his career in sports in 2006 as the Head Assistant Baseball Coach at Central Washington University. He went on to become the Athletic Director at Cle Elum-Roslyn High School in 2010 before moving to Washington State University in 2012 as the Director of Baseball Operations. Silvestri received his Bachelors (Education) and Master's degree (Athletic Administration) from Central Washington University and was recently recognized with the "Disguingished Alumni Under 40" award by his alma mater. Silvestri and his wife, Chelsea, have three children, Henry (six years old), Augie (three years old) and Annie (two years old), and they reside in Danville, CA.

Mark Sagrafena

VISITING CLUBHOUSE CHEF

Mark Sagrafena is entering his 18th season with the Giants. He is responsible for all kitchen and dining operations for the visiting team's coaches, players and staff in the visiting clubhouse. He was born and raised in the Bay Area and attended the College of San Mateo.

Gavin Cuddie

VISITING CLUBHOUSE ASSISTANT

Gavin Cuddie is entering his fourth season with the San Francisco Giants as an attendant in the visiting clubhouse. Cuddie graduated from Washington State University with a Bachelors degree in Journalism and Media Production. He worked five years as a student manager with the Cougar's baseball team. The Seattle native resides in the Pacific Northwest during the offseason, and makes his home in the bay area during the baseball months.

NOTES

Married Hudson High sweetheart Haylee Stephenson Dec. 3, 2010, at Providence Baptist Church in Lufkin... they have one son, Greyson Ellis (Aug. 27, 2014).

Attended the University of Texas...led the Longhorns to the College World Series in 2009 after pacing the team in batting avg. (.319)...earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention in 2008...overall, batted .321 (152-for-473) with 14 HRs and 108 RBI in 124 games in his two seasons at Texas.

Before going to Texas, played one year for San Jacinto College in Houston and was a pitcher and designated hitter...batted .441 with 10 HRs to receive All-Conference designated hitter honors and 2007 Juco World Series Big Stick Award for the third-ranked Gators as a freshman.

Was selected by the Atlanta Braves in 11th round of 2007 First-Year Player Draft, but did not sign.

Graduated from Hudson High School in Lufkin, Texas...as a senior, garnered district MVP, All-State and All-America honors...was a standout pitcher and thought he'd make the Major Leagues in that position.

- Suffered a right groin strain in just the second game of the season on April 7 at Arizona.. missed four games with the injury and was back in the starting lineup April 12 at San Diego.
- Recorded at least one double in five straight games from May 3-7, tied for the second-longest such streak in SF Giants history (Jeff Kent owns record with seven straight games with at least one double).
- From May 15-17, became the second Giants player in the modern era (since 1900) to tally at least three hits, including a home run, in three consecutive games...Barry Bonds had a three-game streak of that kind in May 2000 against the Expos.
- Hit the 34th upper deck home run in Coors Field history on May 22, hitting a two-run shot off Kyle Kendrick in the 6th inning...the estimated distance of the HR was 475 feet, the longest of his career.
- Recorded three hits in four consecutive road games from May 15-22, matching the longest such streak in Giants franchise history (since 1912)...the only other Giants to have such a streak were: Jim Davenport (1958), Willie Mays (1958), Willard Marshall (1942) and Freddy Leach (1929).
- On June 25 vs. SD, became the second Giants player with two triples in a game at AT&T Park, joining Omar Vizquel (July 31, 2006).
- Recorded his second career multi-HR game on Aug. 1 at Texas...hit a solo HR off LHP Cole Hamels, who was making his Rangers debut, then homered in the 11th inning to help the Giants defeat Texas 9-7.
- Registered his third career multi-HR game Aug. 11 vs. Houston, hitting two HRs off LHP Scott Kazmir.
- Was kneed in the head while sliding into second base on Sept. 15 vs. Cincinnati that caused concussion-like symptoms.
- Was pulled from the game in the ninth inning on Sept. 18 vs. Arizona because he had trouble focusing during the game...passed one round of concussion tests, but was tested again and was diagnosed with a concussion.
- Flew to Pittsburgh to meet with concussion specialist Michael Collins Sept. 24...was shut down the remainder of the season.
- Following the season had surgery to repair a torn meniscus...had played through the injury most of the season and was often seen walking through the clubhouse with a big ice pack on his knee.
- 2014: Had an injury-riddled campaign that saw him land on the DL on three separate occasions, first with a broken left thumb (was HBP from LHP Paul Maholm May 9 at LA), then suffered a concussion that landed him on the DL twice after the All-Star break (was hit by a ball thrown by Marco Scutaro in the face while taking throws at first base during batting practice July 19 at Miami)...overall, missed a total of 96 games (missed 50 games with a broken left thumb and 46 games with a concussion).
- Was sent to the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center on Aug. 18 to visit Dr. Mickey Collins, who is considered one of the preeminent experts in sports concussions, in the hopes of gaining more clarity on his recurring concussion symptoms.
- Visited Dr. Mickey Collins again Sept. 11 and received clearance to accelerate his baseball activity...was removed from DL Sept. 16.
- 2013: His 16 home runs as a first baseman were the most by a Giant since J.T. Snow slugged 19 in 2000.
- Was named NL Player of the Week for the period ending Aug. 11, 2013...collected hits in each of his seven games, compiling a .440 (11-for-25) batting average, which was the eighth-highest mark among National Leaguers...led the NL in total bases (20) and runs scored (eight), tied for second in home runs (two) and hits, and posted the eighth-best slugging percentage (.800).
- Became the first Giants player in franchise history to have a five-hit, six-RBI and four runs scored game...accomplished this on Sept. 14, 2013 at Los Angeles in the Giants' 19-3 victory.
- 2011: Was the Giants' top prospect entering the season and began the year on the club's Opening Day roster, but was transferred back and forth from the Major League level to the minors on six different occasions (optioned to minors three times, recalled three times).
- Was named the Giants' Harry S. Jordan award winner for being the best player in his first spring.
- Was the Giants' 2011 Opening Day first baseman, becoming the first player to make his debut at first base for the defending World Series Champions since Ryan Jackson started at first for the 1998 Marlins (Elias).
- At 22 years and 345 days old, became the fifth youngest Giant to start at first base on Opening Day since Will Clark in 1986 (22 years, 26 days).

NOTES CONTINUED

Had a verbal agreement with Cubs coming out of high school to be drafted in high rounds and paid high-round money...but the Cubs didn't come through and Red Sox drafted him the 11th round....he did not sign and went to college instead.

IN THE COMMUNITY

Involved with the following organizations: George Mark Children's House, Greater Bay Area Make-A-Wish Foundation, Take Me Out to the Ballgame Ticket Donation Program, Giants Community Fund – Junior Giants and Not For Sale.

- Recorded his first big league hit (off Clayton Kershaw) in his first career at-bat with a single to first baseman James Loney on March 31 at Los Angeles-NL.
- Hit his first big league home run in his fifth career AB and sixth career plate appearance on April 1 at Los Angeles, hitting a three-run home run to dead center field off of RHP Chad Billingsley in the 4th inning...became the seventh Giants rookie to hit his first career home run at Dodger Stadium, joining Jack Hiatt (1965), John Montefusco (1974), Mark Leonard (1990), Armando Rios (1998), Todd Linden (2003) and Jason Ellison (2004).
- Sat out four games after getting hit by pitch on his left wrist from Cardinals' Trevor Miller on May 31 at Busch Stadium...X-rays originally came back negative, but it was later found that he had hairline fracture in his wrist...was placed on 15-day DL on June 4, activated July 7 and optioned to triple-A Fresno.

POSTSEASON CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- His 37 career postseason games as a first baseman are the most in Giants franchise history.
- His 11 walks in the 2014 postseason were the second most in a single postseason in Giants franchise history (Barry Bonds, 27 in 2002).
- His solo HR in the 18th inning in Game 2 of the 2014 NLDS at Washington gave the Giants a 2-1 victory...marked the third extra-inning HR in Giants postseason history, along with Dusty Rhodes in the 1954 World Series and Mel Ott in the 1933 Fall Classic.
- At 24 years old, became the fourth youngest Giants player to start at first base in a postseason game since Will Clark in 1987 (23 years old)...Belt made his first postseason start in Game 1 of the Division Series vs. Cincinnati on Oct. 6, 2012.

2017 SEASON

- Finished the season with an 8-12 record and a 4.78 ERA (87er, 163.2ip) in 34 games (24 starts).
- Made his first Opening Day roster as the Giants' lone left-hander out of the bullpen... made seven relief appearances, allowing three runs in 5.2 innings pitched (4.76 ERA) before being added to the rotation on April 25 in place of LHP Madison Bumgarner, who was placed on the disabled list.
- As a starter went 8-12 with a 4.81 ERA (80er, 149.2ip) in 24 starts.
- Earned the win in four consecutive starts from May 16-June 2, becoming the first Giants' rookie to win four-or-more consecutive starts since Madison Bumgarner (4), July 6-24, 2010 (streaks exclude any relief appearances & are broken by any no decisions) (Stats LLC).
- His best stretch of the season was from May 11-June 2, where he pitched at least 7.0 innings and allowed three runs or fewer in five-straight starts, while posting a 4-0 record with a 1.91 ERA (8er, 37.2ip).
- Struggled over his last five starts from Aug. 14-Sept. 5, going 0-5 with a 7.90 ERA (24er, 27.1ip) and a .303 opponents average...was moved to the bullpen and made his final three appearances as a reliever.
- Allowed 0.93 home runs per 9.0 innings over his 34 appearances, which was tied for the seventh-lowest ratio in the National League... after allowing just 10 homers over his first 19 starts, he gave up seven home runs over his last five starts.
- His 2.36 walks per 9.0 innings ranked as the fifth-lowest figure in the NL...he allowed 30 walks in his last 18 contests (2.72 walks per 9.0ip) after allowing just 13 walks over his first 16 appearances (1.82 walks per 9.0ip).
- On June 2 at Philadelphia, he threw his first career complete game shutout...threw 112

NOTES

Attended Creighton University.
 Finished three-year collegiate career with a 2.76 ERA to rank second in school history.
 Was named Missouri Valley Conference First Team Scholar-Athlete, MVC Second Team, Co-SIDA Academic All-American and MVC Scholar-Athlete of the Week in 2011.

The grandson of cattle ranchers, Ty was raised in Centennial, Colorado, a suburb of Denver...his father, Randy, is still in the cattle business as CEO of CattleFax, a sort of Bloomberg of commodity markets, providing market information, analyses and research...Ty's mother, Karen, was an elementary school teacher for 30 years, now retired...he has a sister, Haylee, who is seven years younger and a volleyball player at Creighton University.

Ty is a devout Catholic...his autograph includes the notation Matthew 6:33. ("But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well")...an autograph he got from Rockies infielder Terry Shumpert as a kid included the Biblical reference and Ty never forgot...he later contacted Shumpert to let him know how much it meant to him.

Ty double-majored in finance and accounting at Creighton, Jesuit school...he left school when he was drafted by the Giants in 2012 at the end of his junior year...he had just one semester left to earn the degree in one of his majors, finance...he completed it in 2013 after his season in San Jose ended, and he graduated with honors in December.

IN THE COMMUNITY

Involved with the following organizations: Fantasy Camp for Kids, Never Ever Give Up and Big League Impact.

pitches while allowing seven hits and issuing no walks in the Giants' 10-0 victory.

- On Aug. 3 vs. Oakland, he crushed his first career home run, a 416-foot, three-run shot to center field...became just the third Giants rookie pitcher to drive in at least three runs in a game since the team began playing in San Francisco in 1958, joining Jim Duffalo (four in 1961) and Brad Hennessey (three in 2005) (Elias).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 2016: Rookie southpaw went 1-0 with a 1.06 ERA (2er, 17.0ip) in four games (two starts) after being called up by San Francisco on Sept. 1
- Was recalled from triple-A Sacramento on Sept. 1, marking his first callup to the big leagues... the Aurora, Colorado native made his Major League debut on Sept. 5 at Colorado, tossing 3.0-scoreless innings of relief.
- On Sept. 25 at San Diego, Blach made his first career start in place of RHP Johnny Cueto, who missed his start with a groin strain...he allowed two runs on four hits and three walks with three strikeouts in the Giants' 4-3 loss.
- Made his second career start on Oct. 1 vs. Los Angeles-NL and tossed 8.0-scoreless innings... became just the fourth Giants rookie pitcher to throw 8.0-or-more scoreless innings against the Dodgers in a winning effort.
- Recorded two hits off Clayton Kershaw on Oct. 1...became just second ML pitcher to record two hits off Kershaw in a game.
- Compiled a 14-7 record with a 3.43 ERA (62er, 162.2ip) in 26 starts with triple-A Sacramento.
- His 14 wins were the most in the Pacific Coast League and his 3.43 ERA ranked sixth...Blach also led the PCL in innings pitched (162.2ip), complete games (three) and tied for the lead in shutouts (two).
- Was named a Pacific Coast League Pitcher of the Week two times, a PCL All-Star, and the PCL left-handed Pitcher of the Year.
- 2015: Spent all season working in the triple-A Sacramento starting rotation, going 11-12 with a 4.46 ERA in 27 starts.
- His ERA jumped from 3.13 during the 2014 season in double-A to 4.46 in the hitter-friendly Pacific Coast League in 2015.
- Led the PCL in innings pitched (165.1ip).
- Was selected for the 2015 Rawlings Gold Glove Award for defensive excellence at pitcher... Blach was perfect in the field during his 2015 campaign at triple-A, not committing an error in 53 total chances...he recorded 14 putouts and 39 assists.
- Was added to the Giants' 40-man roster on November 20, 2015.
- Was a non-roster invitee at Giants' Major League Spring Training for the second consecutive year.
- 2014: Posted an 8-8 record with a 3.13 ERA (49er, 141.0ip) and 91 strikeouts in 25 starts for double-A Richmond.
- Was named to the Eastern League mid-season All-Star team.
- Finished fifth in the Eastern League with a 3.13 ERA.
- Was a non-roster invitee at Giants' Major League Spring Training for the first time in his career.
- 2013: Had a superb season on the mound for Class A Advanced San Jose, posting a 12-3 record with a 2.79 ERA (42er, 130.1ip) and 117 strikeouts.
- Won the CAL ERA title (2.90 ERA) and finished tied for second with 12 wins and had the second-lowest WHIP (1.09).
- Was named the Giants' sixth-best prospect by MLB.com, and eighth-best by Baseball America following the season.
- Was named to the California League mid-season and postseason All-Star teams.
- Was named Best Starting Pitcher in all of Minor League Baseball by MILB.com, based on fans' votes.
- Along with teammate Mac Williamson, was honored as the San Jose Giants co-Most Valuable Player.

POSTSEASON CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Made his first career postseason roster in 2016 and tossed 3.1-scoreless innings of relief over two appearances in the NLDS against the Chicago Cubs.

HEIGHT | WEIGHT | BATS | THROWS
6-4 | 242 | R | L

Full name: Madison Kyle Bumgarner
Birthdate: August 1, 1989
2018 Opening Day Age: 28
Birthplace: Hickory, North Carolina
M.L. Service: 7 years, 127 days
Became a Giant: Selected by San Francisco in the first round (10th overall) in the 2007 First-Year Player Draft Contract Status: Signed through 2018 (club option for 2019)

2017 SEASON

- Made 17 starts with the Giants, going 4-9 with a 3.32 ERA and 101 K in 111.0 IP... a dirt bike accident in April caused the then 27-year-old left-hander to miss three months of the season with a left shoulder AC sprain.
- On April 20, during the Giants' off day in Denver, Colorado, was riding trail bikes in the mountains when, at the end of his 2-3 hour trek, he got into an accident, where he suffered a Grade 2 left shoulder sprain and bruised ribs... underwent comprehensive tests at a local hospital in Denver before returning to rest at the team's hotel.
- The medical process was led by Dr. Ken Akizuki, the team's orthopedist, but outside specialists were also consulted... Dr. Tim McAdams, the team doctor for the 49ers, saw Bumgarner, and his test results were sent to renowned orthopedists Dr. James Andrews and Dr. Neal ElAttrache... all four doctors agreed that Bumgarner did not need surgery.
- Was placed on the 10-day disabled list for the first time in his career on April 21... was transferred to the 60-day DL June 6.
- Made four rehab starts, one with the AZL Giants, one with triple-A Sacramento and two with Class A Advanced San Jose.
- Returned on schedule to the Giants' starting rotation on July 15 at San Diego, starting the second game after the All-Star break... started 13 games in the second half and finished his season with an impressive road win against the Dodgers.
- Made 13 starts after being reinstated from the DL and went 4-6 with a 3.43 ERA (32er, 84.0ip).
- On April 2 at Arizona, he was perfect through 5.1 innings before Jeff Mathis tripled with one out... he was the first pitcher who was perfect through 5.0 innings in his team's season opener since J.R. Richard did it in the Astros' opening game of the 1980 season against the Dodgers...but for the sixth time in Bumgarner's career, the Giants lost a game after staking him to a lead of three or more runs (Elias).

- 100th Career Win: Sept. 30, 2016 vs. LAD
- 1,000th Career Strikeout: June 28, 2015 vs. COL (Brandon Barnes)
- Owns MLB record: 0.25 ERA in the World Series (min. 25.0ip).
- Owns MLB record: Two grand slams by a pitcher in a single season (2014) (tied with Tony Cloninger, 1966).
- His 17 home runs lead all active pitchers and are tied for the third-most in Giants franchise history.
- Was the first LH pitcher in MLB history to hit five HRs and strikeout at least 200 batters in a season (2015).

- Slugged his way into the record books in his start on April 2, hitting home runs in his first two at-bats of the season...became the first pitcher in MLB history to hit two HRs in his team's first game of a season.
- He became the first pitcher to hit two home runs and strike out at least 10 in a game since Rick Wise of the 1971 Phillies (who also had 11 strikeouts against the Giants). Via Elias research, Bumgarner's 11 strikeouts were the most by a Giants pitcher on Opening Day since the mound moved to its current distance from home plate in 1893.
- On September 23 at Los Angeles-NL, in a 2-1 win over the Los Angeles Dodgers, Bumgarner won his 104th career game, which tied Mike McCormick for second place among left-handed pitchers on the Giants all-time career win list in the SF era (since 1958).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 2016: Went 15-9 while tossing a career-best 226.2 innings and posting a career-low 2.74 ERA...also registered the most strikeouts of his career with 251.
- Among league leaders he ranked tied for first in games started (34), second in innings pitched (226.2), second in complete games (4), third in strikeouts (251), third in quality starts (25), fourth in ERA (2.74), fifth in opponents average against (.213) and tied for 10th in wins (15)... according to FanGraphs, Bumgarner ranked ninth in the big leagues in pitcher WAR (4.9).
- Threw the most pitches of any big league pitcher (including postseason) with 3,791 pitches thrown.
- Was named to the All-Star team for the fourth-straight season.
- His 251 strikeouts were the most in Giants franchise history by a left-handed pitcher, breaking the all-time franchise record for a left-hander that Cy Seymour had held ever since 1898 (244 strikeouts).
- Is the fifth Giants pitcher all-time to record 200 strikeouts in three consecutive seasons... the other four are Juan Marichal, Christy Mathewson, Amos Rusie and Tim Lincecum.
- Averaged the most strikeouts per 9.0 innings of his career (9.97).
- Bumgarner did not earn a win after departing from a start with the Giants ahead eight times...that's the most blown wins by any starting pitcher in 2016...since the franchise relocated to San Francisco in 1958, only one other Giants pitcher had at least eight potential wins blown by the bullpen in a season... Orel Hershiser had eight such starts for the Giants in 1998 (Elias).

On June 30, 2016 in OAK, Bumgarner became the first pitcher since 1976 to hit for himself in an AL ballpark, and only the fifth since the DH was invented in 1973.

Registered 251 strikeouts in 2016, the most by a Giants LH pitcher all time in a single season.

Has 33 double-digit strikeout games, the second-most in Giants franchise history behind Tim Lincecum (38).

Has thrown 23.0 shutout innings in winner-take-all postseason games.

No pitcher has made more scoreless postseason starts than Bumgarner (six).

Is the first pitcher in baseball history with multiple postseason winner-take-all complete game shutouts.

Ranks second all-time in postseason shutouts (three).

Became the fourth-youngest Giants pitcher to make his ML debut (20 years, 38 days old).

Posted a 34-6 record with a 2.00 ERA in 63 games (62 starts) in his minor league career.

Won the South Atlantic League triple crown in 2008, going 15-3 with a 1.46 ERA and 164 strikeouts.

Was named San Francisco's 2008 Minor League Pitcher of the Year.

Married high school sweetheart Ali Saunders on Valentine's Day 2010.

Graduated from South Caldwell High School in Hudson, NC, a town of 2800 people 90 minutes northwest of Charlotte. "You wave at everybody you see, pretty much," he says.

Finished prep career by hitting a walk-off two-run inside-the-park home run to win state title...finished 2007 season hitting .424 (42-for-99) with 10 2Bs, 11 HRs and 38 RBI.

Had dominating senior season being named Gatorade's North Carolina Player of the Year after going 11-2 with a 1.05 ERA and 143 strikeouts in 86.0 innings.

With his $2 million signing bonus, paid off his mother's house and bought himself and then-fiancé, Ali, new trucks...he replaced his 1999 Dodge truck that had 150,000 miles on it.

His father's family goes back 100 years in Caldwell County...one area is called "Bumtown" for all the Bumgarner's living on both sides of Deal Mill Road... it's four miles southeast of Hudson and 10 miles northwest of Hickory.

His first word was "ball"...a baby picture at 15 months, shows him with a baseball in his left hand.

Fishes and hunts deer and bear...only kills what he eats...says he can cook venison - on the grill - but had to leave the bear meat to people who know what they're doing.

His teammates in Double A Norwich, where he spent the 2009 summer, nicknamed him "The Future".

IN THE COMMUNITY

Involved with the following organizations: Greater Bay Area Make-A-Wish Foundation and Giants Community Fund.

- Had his streak of allowing two earned runs or fewer end at 12 consecutive starts from April 20-June 20...the streak was tied for the third-longest in Giants history since 1913 and the longest since Jesse Barnes went 13-straight in 1920...Bumgarner's streak ended June 25 after giving up three earned runs to the Phillies.
- Had a 1.94 ERA at the All-Star break, the second lowest-figure in the Majors (behind Clayton Kershaw, 1.79) and the best by a Giants pitcher at the break in 33 years (Atlee Hammaker, 1.70 ERA in '83).
- Went 19 consecutive starts of 6.0-or-more innings pitched from April 20-July 27, the longest such run of his career.
- Missed one start in the spring with a pair of minor injuries, neuroma between the third and fourth joints on the bottom of his left foot, which causes intermittent and considerable pain, as well as discomfort in his right ribcage just below the chest...was scratched from his Cactus League start on March 13 vs. San Diego...had been pitching through the foot injury all spring...it developed during the offseason.
- At the plate he tied for the league lead in homers among pitchers (three), ranked second in extra base hits (eight), tied for third in RBI (nine) and was fifth in slugging pct. (.345).
- Made his third straight Opening Day start, the longest streak by a Giants left-hander since Johnny Antonelli from 1955-57.
- Was the team's designated hitter on June 30 at Oakland...since 1973, the only other pitchers to be in the starting lineup when a DH was available were: Ferguson Jenkins (Texas, Oct. 2, 1974), Ken Holtzman (Oakland, Sept. 27, 1975), Ken Brett (White Sox, July 6, 1976 & Sept. 23, 1976) and Andy Sonnanstine (Tampa Bay, May 17, 2009).
- Pitched one of the best games of his career on ESPN's Sunday Night Baseball on July 10 vs. Arizona, one day before the AS break...matched his career-high with 14 strikeouts and lost a no-hitter with one out in the eighth inning, giving up a single to Jake Lamb...marked his second-longest no-hit bid of his career (7.2ip in 2015).
- On August 18 vs. New York-NL he allowed a grand slam to the Justin Ruggiano in the top of the fourth inning, but then hit a two-run homer in the bottom half of the inning to give the Giants a 5-4 lead...he became the third pitcher in Major League history to allow a grand slam and then hit a go-ahead homer in the subsequent half inning...Boston's Fred Klobedanz did that against New York in 1896, going deep in the top of the second inning after allowing a slam in the bottom of the first, and the Reds' Hal Jeffcoat, a converted outfielder, hit a go-ahead homer in the bottom of the eighth inning in 1957, after giving up a bases-full homer to Stan Musial in the top half of the inning.
- Earned the 100th win of his career in his start against the Dodgers on Sept. 30...only one pitcher who recorded his first 100 wins with the Giants was younger than Bumgarner (27 years old) at the time of his 100th win...Christy Mathewson won his 100th decision for the New York Giants at age 24 in May 1905 (Elias).
- 2015: Completed his fifth full big league season by going 18-9 with a 2.93 ERA and 234 strikeouts in 32 starts...matched his career-high for wins in a season, threw a season-best 218.1 innings and struck out a career-high 234 batters, the most by a Giants left-handed pitcher since Rube Marquard fanned 237 for the NY Giants in 1911.
- Became the first Giants pitcher to win 18-or-more games in two consecutive seasons since Gaylord Perry in 1969 (19 wins) and 1970 (23)...prior to Bumgarner, the last left-handed Giants pitcher with consecutive 18-win seasons was Carl Hubbell, who did so in six seasons in succession, from 1932-1937.
- Reached 200.0 innings for the fifth consecutive season...became the second Giants left-handed pitcher in franchise history with 200+ innings in five seasons, joining Carl Hubbell (10 seasons of five 200+ innings (1929-1937, 1940).
- Became the first left-handed pitcher in MLB history to hit five home runs and strike out at least 200 batters in a season.
- Was named by manager Bruce Bochy to his third career All-Star team, marking the third-straight season he'd been elected to the Midsummer Classic.
- Led all NL pitchers in homers (5), RBI (9) and slugging pct. (.459) to win his second Silver Slugger Award (also won in 2014).
- Became the fourth Giants pitcher to homer at least five times in a single season...Hal Schumacher was the last to do so, having homered six times for the New York Giants in 1934...two other Giants pitchers also had five homers - Art Nehf (1924) and Jouett Meekin (1894).
- Became the first pitcher to hit five homers in a season since Carlos Zambrano hit six in 2006...the only active pitcher with more career home runs than Bumgarner's 11 is Yovani Gallardo (12).

- On April 22, he faced 2014 NL MVP Clayton Kershaw...according to STATS, LLC, it was the first time that the reigning regular season MVP faced the previous year's World Series MVP in a starting pitching matchup.
- Hit his first home run of the season and the seventh of his career on May 21 off Los Angeles' Clayton Kershaw at AT&T Park...the 415-foot homer marked the first Kershaw had ever allowed to a pitcher in 411 plate appearances...Bumgarner joined Melky Cabrera as the only Giants players to homer off Kershaw at AT&T Park...Bumgarner was the first pitcher to homer against a reigning MVP since 1969 (Clay Carroll off Bob Gibson).
- Struck out a career-best 14 batters June 23 vs. San Diego, but the Giants lost 3-2 in 11 innings... it was the third time since 1900 that the Giants lost a game in which one of their pitchers struck out 14 or more batters...Rube Marquard struck out 14 in an 8-7 loss to the Braves on Sept. 4, 1911 and Carl Hubbell struck out 15 Dodgers in a 3-2 loss on May 26, 1932 (Elias).
- Bumgarner's 14 strikeouts matched Atlee Hammaker (14 strikeouts on Sept. 11, 1983 vs. Houston) for the most by a Giants left-handed pitcher in SF-era history (since 1958).
- Struck out Colorado's Brandon Barnes June 28 for his 1,000th career strikeout...at 25 years, 331 days old he became the third-youngest Giants pitcher to reach 1,000 strikeouts with the team, joining Amos Rusie (21 years old in 1893) and Christy Mathewson (25 years, 12 days in 1905).
- Tossed his eighth career complete game Aug. 11 vs. Houston, striking out 12 batters and allowing one run on five hits...became the third Giants pitcher (SF-era history) to strike out seven consecutive batters (career-best), rattling off seven straight from the 1st-3rd innings...Jonathan Sanchez (Aug. 3, 2010 at Colorado) and Juan Marichal (Sept. 6, 1964 at Philadelphia) also accomplished the feat.
- Bumgarner threw a three-hit shutout, struck out 14 batters and hit a home as the Giants completed a four-game sweep of the Nationals Aug. 16...according to Elias, the only other player in modern major-league history to throw a shutout, strikeout at least 14 batters and hit a homer in the same game is Hall of Famer Early Wynn, who did it against the Red Sox on May 1, 1959 (one-hitter, 14 strikeouts) and his homer accounted for the only run of the game.
- Bumgarner also joined Juan Marichal as the only San Francisco pitchers to throw a shutout, record 10+ strikeouts and hit a home run...Marichal accomplished the feat on Sept. 12, 1963 at New York-NL.
- Was named the NL Pitcher of the Week Aug. 10-16 after going 2-0 with a 0.50 ERA (1er, 18.0ip), 26 strikeouts and one walk.
- Mounted the longest perfect-game bid of his career Sept. 12 vs. San Diego but was denied that and a no-hitter when Melvin Upton Jr. singled to center with two outs in the 8th inning...Bumgarner's longest perfect-game bid had been 7.0 innings...he finished with his third career one-hitter.
- 2014: Posted one of the best seasons of his career, going 18-10 with a 2.98 ERA and 219 strikeouts, a record for a San Francisco left-handed pitcher...his 18 wins were the most by a SF pitcher since Shawn Estes had 19 in 1997.
- Was selected to his second consecutive All-Star team as he finished fourth on the player ballot, behind Johnny Cueto, Adam Wainwright and Clayton Kershaw...however, was not eligible to pitch because he started the Sunday prior to the break...he didn't pitch in the All-Star Game in 2013 either, as Bochy held him back for long relief.
- Was named the NL's Pitcher of the Month twice: May (5-0, 2.08 ERA, 48 Ks, 5 BBs) and August (4-1, 1.57 ERA, 56 Ks, 3 BBs).
- Was named the "Willie Mac" award winner, an annual honor bestowed upon the most inspirational player on the team, as voted upon by Giants players, coaches, training staff and the fans.
- Was named by Bruce Bochy as the Opening Day starter on Feb. 25...at 24 years and 242 days old on March 31, Bumgarner became the third-youngest Giants opening day starter since the Giants moved to San Francisco in 1958.
- He also became the third youngest left-hander to start a season opener in Giants franchise history (since 1883)...only Ledell "Cannonball" Titcomb (21 years and 242 days of age on April 20, 1888 at Washington) and Mark Davis (23 years and 167 days of age on April 3, 1984 vs. Chicago-NL) were younger than Bumgarner (courtesy of Bill Arnold).
- Hit his third career home run and his first career grand slam in his second at-bat off Colorado's Jorge De La Rosa on April 11 at AT&T Park...became just the second Giants pitcher to hit a grand slam since the team moved to San Francisco in 1958 and the first since Shawn Estes did so on May 24, 2000 vs. Montreal (off Mike Johnson).
- Finished May with a 5-0 record, a 2.08 ERA, and 48 strikeouts in 39.0 innings to win NL Pitcher of the Month, his first monthly award of his career.
- Became the second pitcher in ML history to hit two grand slams in a season, clubbing his second in the Giants' 8-4 win over the D-Backs on July 13...his batterymate, Buster Posey also hit a grand slam in the game...according to Elias, Bumgarner and Posey were the first pitcher-catcher ever to hit a grand slam for the same team in the same game...it marked the third time that the Giants hit two grand slams in a game since moving to San Francisco...the last instance was Sept. 19, 1998 vs. Los Angeles-NL (the hitters were Bill Mueller and Jeff Kent)...it also happened on April 26, 1970 vs. Montreal (Willie McCovey and Dick Deitz)...it was just the second time in the Giants' 132-year history they hit grand slams in consecutive innings of the same game: Mueller and Kent did it against the Dodgers in 1998.

- Pitched a one-hitter and matched his career-high of 13 strikeouts in his start Aug. 26 vs. Colorado...retired his first 21 batters before Justin Morneau doubled down the right-field line to start the 8th, ending his perfect game bid through 7.0 innings, the longest such bid of his career.
- 2013: Was named by MGR Bruce Bochy to the National League All-Star team, his first All-Star selection as a Major Leaguer, although he did not appear in the game...became the first Giants LH pitcher to make the ASG since Shawn Estes in 1997.
- On June 14 at Atlanta he lost a no-hit bid in the 6th inning on a single by Chris Johnson that fell among three teammates...was perfect through 14 hitters until he walked B.J. Upton in the 5th...overall, blanked the Braves on two hits and 10 strikeouts in 7.0-scoreless innings.
- 2012: Became the first Giants pitcher to have a 16+ win season at age 23-or-younger since Hal Schumacher won 23 games for the New York Giants in 1934 at the age of 23.
- Took a no-hitter into the sixth inning of his start on June 28 vs. Cincinnati, but allowed a leadoff single to Ryan Hanigan to start the 6th, his only hit allowed in what was his first career complete game and his first shutout in SF's 5-0 win...extended the Giants' team scoreless streak to 36.0 innings and put the Giants in the record books as it was the team's fourth-consecutive shutout, a new franchise record.
- Signed a five-year extension through 2017 with a club/vesting option for 2018 and a club option for 2019 on April 6...the 5-year extension covers Bumgarner through his arbitration years and his first year of free agency (2017).
- 2011: Endured his worst start of his career and one of worst in Giants history on June 21 vs. Minnesota...recorded just one out while allowing eight first inning runs...faced 10 batters and retired only pitcher Carl Pavano, becoming the first player in baseball's modern era to allow as many as nine hits while recording fewer than two outs.
- Became the first Giants starting pitcher since 1900 to allow eight-or-more runs without getting out of the first inning.
- 2010: Earned his first Major League victory July 6 in Milwaukee after tossing 8.0-scoreless innings and allowing only three hits in SF's 6-1 win...according to Elias, only two other Giants rookies pitched a game like that: Noah Lowry in 2004 when he tossed 9.0-shutout frames against the Reds on Aug. 3 and Matt Cain, who accomplished it twice in 2006, tossing 9.0-scoreless innings at Oakland on May 21 and blanking Colorado for 8.0 innings on Sept. 14.
- At 20 years, 339 days, became the second-youngest Giants pitcher in the last 25 years to win his first Major League game and first since Matt Cain in 2005.
- 2009: Made his Major League debut Sept. 8 vs. San Diego, taking the place of RHP Tim Lincecum, who was scratched from his scheduled start due to back spasms.
- At 20 years and 38 days old became the fourth-youngest Giants pitcher to make his Major League debut...only Mike McCormick (17 years and 342 days), Nestor Chavez (19 years and 65 days) and Ron Bryant (19 years and 321 days) were younger (Sports Features Group)...in fact, became franchise's youngest pitcher to start a game in his Major League debut since the Giants moved west in 1958...Mike McCormick started for San Francisco as a 19-year-old, however made his ML debut two years earlier as member of the New York Giants.
- Was summoned from double-A, where he was originally scheduled to start an Eastern League playoff opener on Sept. 9...learned that he was that night's starting pitcher roughly three hours prior to game time, and retired his first four batters faced before giving up a home run to Chase Headley in the 2nd inning...gave up another solo shot to Kevin Kouzmanoff in 4th frame...marked the first time in 2009 (minor leagues included) that he had surrendered a pair of HRs in a single contest.
- Prior to joining the big league club combined to go 12-1 with a 1.85 ERA in 25 games (24 starts) with Class-A Advanced San Jose and double-A Connecticut...helped Defenders win first division title as Giants' affiliate after going 9-1 with a 1.93 ERA in 20 games (19 starts).
- Was named to the Eastern League All-Star team, but did not appear in the game.

- 2008: Posted perhaps the best season of any Giants farmhand, winning the South Atlantic League triple crown, going 15-3 with a 1.46 ERA and 164 strikeouts for SAL Champion Augusta GreenJackets.
- Named 2008 Minor League Baseball's Most Spectacular Pitcher for finishing the season with the lowest ERA...was also named to SAL in-season and postseason All-Star teams, along with earning SAL Pitcher of Week honors five times...was named MiLBY's best starting pitcher for all of Class A leagues.
- Reeled off 38.0-consecutive scoreless innings July 28-Aug. 27, 2008 (span of six starts), marking the longest scoreless stretch by a hurler in all of minor league baseball.
- Named San Francisco's 2008 Pitcher of the Year, joining Pablo Sandoval (Player of Year) as the first two recipients to earn the inaugural award.

POSTSEASON CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has already won three World Series titles before the age of 26 years old and has been one of the most dominating postseason pitchers in baseball history in his four postseason stints.
- Has gone 8-3 with a 2.11 ERA, three complete games (three shutouts) and 87 strikeouts in 102.1ip.
- He has a 0.79 ERA over his last nine postseason outings and a 0.670 WHIP in that same span.
- He ranks second all-time in postseason shutouts (three)...his three shutouts put him in a four-way tie for second place in the career ranks, behind only fellow Giants legend Christy Mathewson (four).
- Bumgarner has a 0.50 ERA (3er, 53.2ip) in six career postseason road games.
- Bumgarner has never allowed a hit with RISP in a road postseason game (0-for-24).
- Is the 26th pitcher (28th time) to win the World Series MVP Award, the first in Giants franchise history and the first pitcher overall since Philadelphia's Cole Hamels in 2008...Bumgarner joins former teammate Edgar Renteria (2010) and teammate Pablo Sandoval (2012) as the only World Series MVP winners in Giants history.
- Became the seventh player (fourth pitcher) ever to be named the LCS MVP and the World Series MVP in the same season, joining Willie Stargell (1979 Pirates), Darrell Porter (1982 Cardinals), Orel Hershiser (1988 Dodgers), Livan Hernandez (1997 Marlins), Cole Hamels (2008 Phillies) and David Freese (2011, Cardinals).
- Is the first pitcher with a 5.0-inning save in postseason history.
- He's also the first pitcher with two wins, a sub-0.50 ERA in at least 20.0 innings in a single World Series since Hall of Famer Sandy Koufax for the 1965 Dodgers.
- If Bumgarner were never to pitch in the World Series again, his 0.25 ERA would be the best of anyone with at least 20.0ip.
- Is the ninth player in Major League history to throw multiple shutouts in the same postseason...the only younger pitcher with multiple shutouts in one postseason was Josh Beckett at age 23 with the Marlins in 2003.
- Did not allow a run in his first 21.0ip in the World Series (dates back to 2010), the second-longest consecutive scoreless innings streak to start a World Series career in MLB history, behind Christy Mathewson's 28.0-inning run from 1905-1911...Bumgarner's streak was snapped in Game 1 of the WS at KC after allowing a solo HR to Salvador Perez in the 7th.
- Seven other pitchers had a streak of 21 consecutive scoreless innings in the World Series at any point in their careers: Whitey Ford (major-league record 33 straight scoreless innings, 1960-1962), Babe Ruth (29, 1916-1918), Mathewson (28, 1905-1911), Lew Burdette (24, 1957), Sandy Koufax (22, 1965-1966), George Earnshaw (22, 1930), and Carl Mays (21, 1918-1921).
- He's thrown 23.0-shutout innings in winner-take-all games.
- Has made six career postseason starts of 7.0-or-more innings pitched with no runs allowed, the most such starts in Giants franchise history...in fact, his six career postseason games without allowing a run are tied with Tom Glavine for the most all-time.
- 2016: Made two starts, going 1-0 with a 1.93 ERA (3er, 14.0ip) and one complete game.
- Recorded his third career postseason shutout in the Giants' 3-0 win against the Mets in the wild-card game on Oct. 5.
- The pitching matchup between Madison Bumgarner and Noah Syndergaard in the Wild-Card game was first scoreless duel through 7.0 innings in a sudden-death playoff game since John Smoltz and Jack Morris faced off in Game 7 of the 1991 World Series.
- Entered his start in Game 3 of the Division Series against the Cubs with a 23.0-inning postseason scoreless streak...that was snapped at 24.0 innings as he allowed a three-run homer to opposing starting pitcher Jake Arrieta...Bumgarner's streak tied Lew Burdette for the third-longest in MLB postseason history.
- His HR allowed to Arrieta marked the first HR in his career he's ever allowed to an opposing pitcher.

- 2014: Had one of the greatest postseasons of all time, going 4-1 with a 1.03 ERA and one save in seven games (six starts)...he had two wins, a 5.0-inning save and an 0.43 ERA in the World Series...he won the wild-card game at Pittsburgh, and won the LCS and World Series MVP honors, clinching the World Series with 5.0-scoreless innings of relief in Game 7.
- Became the first pitcher with two wins, a shutout and a save in a World Series since the save rule became official in 1969.
- Logged 52.2 innings in the 2014 postseason, the most of any pitcher in a single postseason, surpassing Curt Schilling's 48.1ip.
- Tossed a complete-game shutout in Game 5 of the 2014 World Series, permitting just four hits with no walks and eight strikeouts...the performance was just the 16th shutout in World Series history in which no walks were allowed, and the first since Kansas City's Bret Saberhagen in Game 7 of the 1985 World Series...in Giants history, Christy Mathewson accomplished the feat in Games 1 and 5 of the 1905 Fall Classic, while Rube Benton did so in Game 3 of the 1917 World Series.
- In 52.2 innings in the 2014 postseason, he permitted just six earned runs (1.03 ERA) on 28 hits with six walks and 45 strikeouts...among pitchers with at least 30.0 innings pitched in a single postseason, his ERA of 1.03 ranks third behind Burt Hooton of the Dodgers (0.82 over 33.0ip in 1981) and Atlanta's John Smoltz (0.95 over 38.0ip in 1996).
- Pitched at least 7.0 innings in each of his six starts, becoming the second pitcher in history to do so, joining Arizona's Curt Schilling (six starts in 2001).
- Bumgarner's road scoreless streak in the postseason also ended at a record 32.2 innings.
- In the Wild Card game at Pittsburgh, he became the third pitcher to notch a shutout with at least 10 strikeouts in a winner-take-all postseason game, joining Sandy Koufax (for the Dodgers against the Twins in the 1965 World Series) and Justin Verlander (for the Tigers against the A's in the 2012 ALDS).
- 2012: Tossed consecutive World Series Games of at least 7.0-scoreless innings with at least six strikeouts in the postseason...the only pitchers in MLB history to accomplish that were Christy Mathewson of the Giants in Games 1 and 3 of the 1905 World Series; Bill Hallahan of the Cardinals in Game 3 in 1930 and Game 2 in 1931; Don Larsen of the Yankees in Game 5 in 1956 and Game 3 in 1958; and Sandy Koufax of the Dodgers in Games 5 and 7 in 1965.
- 2010: Had one of the most memorable postseasons of any 21-year-old, going 2-0 with a 2.18 ERA 5er, 20.2ip) in four games.
- Earned his first career postseason victory in Game 4 of the LDS vs. Atlanta on Oct. 11, a contest that SF won 3-2 to advance to the LCS...tossed 6.0 innings and yielded two runs on six hits... became the youngest Giants pitcher in franchise history to win a postseason game at 21 years and 71 days old.
- Was the first rookie starting pitcher to win a clinching game on the road in the postseason since Dave Righetti (Yankees at A's, Game 3 of ALCS) and Fernando Valenzuela (Dodgers at Expos, Game 5 of NLCS) pitched their teams to World Series in 1981.
- In Game 4 of World Series on Oct. 31, 2010, Bumgarner joined teammate Buster Posey as the first all-rookie starting battery in a World Series game since Spec Shea and Yogi Berra started for the Yankees in Game 1 of the 1947 World Series (Elias).
- At 21 years, 91 days old, was the fifth-youngest pitcher to start a World Series game.
- Became the fourth-youngest starter to win a World Series game as the Giants took a 3-1 series lead over the Rangers on Oct. 31, 2010 with a 4-0 shutout victory...logged 8.0 innings and didn't allow an earned run becoming the youngest to ever accomplish that feat... Bumgarner's dominance gave the Giants their fourth shutout of the postseason, tying 1998 Yankees and 1905 New York Giants for the most in a single postseason in Major League history.
- Only three starting pitchers younger than Bumgarner (21 years, 91 days old) have ever won a game in World Series history – Bullet Joe Bush (20 years, 316 days) for 1913 Athletics, Jim Palmer (20 years, 356 days) for 1966 Orioles and Fernando Valenzuela (20 years, 356 days) for 1981 Dodgers.
- Only one starting pitcher younger than Bumgarner ever tossed at least 8.0-shutout innings in a WS game – Jim Palmer, who was 100 days younger when he blanked Dodgers in Game 2 of 1966 WS.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2012 & 2016 Wilson Defensive Player Of The Year

2015 & 2016 MLBPAA Giants Heart & Hustle Award

Owns MLB Record: First shortstop to hit a grand slam in the postseason (2014).

Is one of six players in Major League baseball history to hit a grand slam in his first big league game.

Joins Bobby Bonds and Brian Dallimore as the only Giants whose first career ML hit was a grand slam.

Is the first Giants shortstop to lead his team in home runs in a season (21 HRs in 2015) since Bill Dahlen (7 HRs in 1905).

On Aug. 8, 2016 at Marlins Park, Crawford became the first player in 41 years to record seven hits in a game, going 7-for-8 (five singles, double, triple, 10 total bases)...he tied the NL record for hits in one game, set by Baltimore's Wilbert Robinson in 1892 and tied by Pittsburgh's Rennie Stennett in 1975.

Became the first player in the history of the Giants franchise to record seven hits in one game.

- Won his second consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove award, beating out Freddy Galvis of the Phillies and Addison Russell of the Cubs... became the first Giants repeat winner at any position since Omar Vizquel in 2005-06.
- Teammate Joe Panik won his first Gold Glove at second base in 2016...Crawford and Panik composed the first double-play combo to win in the NL since the Cardinals' Edgar Renteria and Fernando Vina in 2002.
- Finished tied for the ML lead with 11 triples.
- Did not commit an error in his final 43 games and 174 total chances...his .983 fielding pct. was fourth among NL shortstops.
- Was named the Giants' 2016 Heart and Hustle Award winner for the second straight season...this esteemed award honors active players who demonstrate a passion for the game of baseball and best embody the values, spirit and traditions of the game.
- Hit the second walk-off home run of his career on April 8 vs. LAD, hitting an opposite-field solo shot in the 10th inning off Dodgers RHP Joe Blanton to give the Giants a 3-2 win.
- Became just the third player in National League history to collect seven hits in a game and just the sixth in MLB history on Aug. 8 at Miami, as he went 7-for-8 (five singles, double, triple, 10 total bases).
- Tied a National League record for hits in a game, set by Baltimore's Wilbert Robinson in 1892 and tied by Pittsburgh's Rennie Stennet in 1975...the ML record is nine (in 11 ABs) by Cleveland's Johnny Burnett in 1932.
- Crawford became the first player in Giants franchise history to record seven hits in one game.
- Dislocated his left pinky finger on Sept. 20 at Los Angeles-NL while sliding headfirst into third base while running from first to third on a single...had his finger popped back into place in the tunnel following the injury and missed the next four games.
- 2015: 2015 All-Star separated himself from the pack with a breakout season at the plate, making a big jump to elite-level production at shortstop...he won his first Rawlings Gold Glove Award and Silver Slugger Award, becoming the first Giant to win both awards in the same year since Barry Bonds in 1997.
- Set career-highs in nearly every offensive category, including batting average (.256), runs (65), hits (130), doubles (33), home runs (21), RBI (84) and slugging percentage (.462).
- Started 136 games, all at shortstop, and had the sixth-best fielding pct. among NL shortstops with a .979 figure.
- Became the first Giants shortstop to win a Gold Glove since Omar Vizquel won it two years in a row in 2005 and 2006.
- Became the first Giants shortstop to hit 20-plus homers in a season since Rich Aurilia in 2001 (36).
- Also became the first shortstop to lead the Giants in home runs for a season since Bill Dahlen in 1905 (seven homers).
- Led all Major League shortstops with 84 RBI...Chris Speier was the last Giant to lead all MLB shortstops in RBI (71 in 1973).

First Giant to win a Gold Glove & Silver Slugger in the same season (2015) since Barry Bonds in 1997.

Is the first Giants repeat Gold Glove winner (2015-17) at any position since Omar Vizquel in 2005-06.

MLB Debut: May 27, 2011 at MIL

First MLB Hit: May 27, 2011 at MIL (grand slam)

First MLB Home Run: May 27, 2011 at MIL

NOTES

Married (Jalynne Dantzscher, Nov. 26, 2011)... the couple have two daughters (Bralyn Ann, Dec. 18, 2012; Jaydyn April, March 8, 2014) and one son (Braxton Michael, January 15, 2016).

Graduated from Foothill (Pleasanton, CA) High School.

Grew up a Giants fan because his father was a Giants fan and season-ticket holder at Candlestick (seats on the third-base side)...his father took a 9-month-old Brandon to the 1987 playoffs and said his son wasn't bothered at all by the loud noise.

Attended UCLA...batted .302 with 53 runs, 13 2Bs, five 3Bs, seven HRs and 51 RBI in 60 games for the Bruins in 2008...earned UCLA's Most Valuable Player honors in both 2006 and 2007, while also receiving All-Pac 10 accolades...hit over .300 in each of his three years at UCLA, posting a career avg. of .319 with 44 2Bs, 13 3Bs, 20 HRs, 136 RBI and 145 runs.

His favorite player was Royce Clayton because he played shortstop. Also liked Will Clark, Barry Bonds and Kirt Manwaring. But favorite player was Alex Rodriguez.

Father Michael works in the contracts department for Northrop Grumman, a global security company, in San Jose...his mother Lynn is a fifth-grade teacher at Vintage Hills Elementary in Pleasanton.

More sports-in-the-family: Brandon's sister Amy – a former softball player at UCLA – is married to another former Bruin, Garrit Cole, the Pirates first-round pick in the 2011 draft, now a starter in the Majors.

IN THE COMMUNITY

Involved with the following organizations: Guide Dogs for the Blind, Greater Bay Area Make-A-Wish Foundation, Take Me Out to the Ballgame Ticket Donation Program, Giants Community Fund – Junior Giants, Big League Impact and Casa Colina (Craw Claw proceeds).

- Was one of five Giants (sixth occurrence) whose primary position was SS to hit at least 20+ HRs and drive in 80-plus runs in a season, joining Travis Jackson (1929, 21 HRs, 94 RBI), Al Dark (1953, 23 HRs, 88 RBI), Rich Aurilia (1999, 22 HRs, 80 RBI; 2001, 37 HRs, 97 RBI) and Juan Uribe (2010, 24 HRs, 85 RBI).

- Selected by the players for the All-Star team, his first All-Star selection...became the first Giants shortstop to be elected since Rich Aurilia in 2001, and became one of seven Giants shortstops to ever be elected, joining Travis Jackson (1934), Dick Bartell (1937), Bill Jurges (1939, 1940), Alvin Dark (1951, 1952), Chris Speier (1972, 1974) and Aurilia (2001).
- Drove in a then career-best six runs May 16 at CIN, hitting his fourth career grand slam and finishing a triple shy of the cycle.
- Missed 15 games in Aug. and Sept. with a tight left oblique and a tight calf...suffered the oblique injury on a swing in his final AB against CHC's Jake Arrieta Aug. 25...the calf injury came after getting hit by a pitch from LAD's Chris Hatcher Aug. 31.
- 2014: His 10 triples were tied for the second-most in the big leagues behind Dee Gordon (12).
- His 69 RBI were the third-most among NL shortstops behind WAS's Ian Desmond (91) and STL's Jhonny Peralta (73).
- Started 142/162 games at SS and committed a career-high 21 errors, which ranked as the second-most among big league SS (WAS's Ian Desmond had 24) and the fourth-most among all players at any position.
- 2012: Became the third player drafted by San Francisco to start at shortstop on Opening Day since Royce Clayton in 1995 (other: Brian Bocoock in 2008).
- Finished second among NL shortstops in All-Star fan voting in 2012, receiving 3,666,897 votes... was just 306,024 votes behind St. Louis' Rafael Furcal (3,972,921).
- Was ejected for first time in his career July 23 vs. SD...was thrown out by 1B umpire Jordan Baker in the 8th after he hit an apparent double in the 6th but was ruled out by Baker, who said he missed the bag.
- Recorded first career game-winning hit July 24, 2012 vs. San Diego, delivering a walk-off single in the bottom of the 9th inning off of LHP Joe Thatcher, giving the Giants a 3-2 win.
- Hit his first career pinch-hit HR Aug. 13, 2012 vs. WAS, hitting two-run shot off LHP Gio Gonzalez in the 7th inning of SF's 14-2 loss.
- 2011: Initially missed the beginning of the 2011 season with a broken finger sustained during spring training.
- Had his contract purchased from San Jose on May 26, as the Giants placed Mike Fontenot, Darren Ford and Buster Posey all on the DL.
- Made his Major League debut on May 27 at Milwaukee and hit a grand slam in the 7th inning that turned a 3-1 deficit into a 5-3 lead and helped the Giants to a 5-4 victory...became only the sixth player in Major League history to hit a grand slam in his first big league game...others: Bill Duggleby, Phillies (April 21, 1898); Bobby Bonds, Giants (June 25, 1968); Jeremy Hermida, Marlins (Aug. 31, 2005); Kevin Kouzmanoff, Indians (Sept. 2, 2006); and Daniel Nava, Red Sox (June 12, 2010)...Duggleby, Hermida, Kouzmanoff and Nava each accomplished feat in their first career at-bat (Elias).
- Became the first Giants player to have his first ML hit be a grand slam since Brian Dallimore did it on April 30, 2004 vs. Florida...Dallimore homered in his third career plate appearance off LHP Dontrelle Willis...Crawford became one of 11 players in Giants franchise history (since 1919) to have his first big league hit be a HR in his first game.
- 2010: Missed eight weeks after breaking his right hand after being hit by a line drive while fielding a ground ball off a fungo bat...prior to injury was named to the Eastern League mid-season All-Star team.

POSTSEASON CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has won a pair of World Series rings with the Giants in 2012 and 2014.
- His 38 postseason games at shortstop are the most in Giants history.
- 2016: Started all five Giants postseason games, hitting .250 (5-for-20) with three doubles.
- 2014: On Oct. 1 at Pittsburgh, he became the first shortstop in postseason history to hit a grand slam.
- Became the second Giant to hit a grand slam in winner-take-all postseason game, joining Buster Posey (2012 NLDS at CIN).
- Became the fourth different Giants shortstop (fifth occurrence) to record at least three RBI in a World Series contest in Game 5 vs. KC in 2014.
- 2012: At 25 years old became fifth-youngest Giants player to start at SS in a postseason game since Matt Williams in 1989 (23 years old).

2017 SEASON

- Posted an 8-8 record with a 4.52 ERA in 25 starts...his 25 starts marked the fewest he's made in a season since 2013 (11 starts).
- Went 3-0 with a 3.79 ERA (8er, 19.0ip) and a .233 opponents average over his first three outings...since the Giants franchise moved to San Francisco in 1958, Cueto is one of two Giants pitchers to win his first three starts of a season in consecutive years as he also won his first three starts in 2016 (also: Rick Reuschel in 1988 and 1989).
- Dealt with a blister on his middle finger all season...developed an additional blister on the pad of his index finger in late May.
- Was placed on the disabled list July 15 and missed 45 games with blister issues on his right hand and then suffered a flexor tendon strain in his rehab start with San Jose (A) on July 31...went 2-1 with a 4.26 ERA (15er, 31.2ip) in six starts after coming off the DL Sept. 1.
- His eight wins marked the second-fewest he's had in a season over his career...he recorded five wins over 11 starts in 2013.
- Allowed 22 home runs in 147.1 innings pitched...his 1.34 homers allowed per 9.0 innings was the highest average of his career since 2008 (1.50).
- Missed the first three weeks of Spring Training to take care of his ill father, Domingo...arrived in Phoenix on March 3 after traveling with his father, who was hospitalized in February with a mini stroke...their arrival was delayed because Domingo needed to obtain a visa... Cueto worked out at the Giants' facility in the Dominican Republic.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 2016: Went 18-5 (.783) with a 2.79 ERA and five complete games in 32 starts in his first season with San Francisco.

NOTES

- In 2009, Cueto was a member of the Dominican Republic national baseball team.
- He still lives in San Pedro de Macoris in a house not far from his childhood home, and he owns a farm outside the city...he owns 15 horses, including two paso finos, the smooth-gaited trail horses imported to the Caribbean generations ago from Spain.

- Among league leaders he ranked third in innings (219.2), tied for fourth in quality starts (22), fifth in ERA (2.79), sixth in strikeouts (198) and eighth in WHIP (1.09).
- His five complete games were the most in the NL and the second-most in the Majors behind Chicago's-AL Chris Sale (6)...it marked the most by a Giants' pitcher in a single season since Jason Schmidt had five in 2003.
- The Giants went 23-9 in his outings and won his final four starts, where he went 4-0 with a 1.78 ERA (7er, 35.1ip).
- Became the ninth pitcher in Giants history to start and win each of his first three games with the team; the most prominent pitchers who did that were Juan Marichal in 1960, Billy Pierce in 1962, Bill Swift in 1992 and Brad Penny in 2009...Cueto was the first pitcher to start and win each of his first three games in a Giants uniform, including a pair of victories over the Dodgers (Elias).
- Became the first pitcher in Giants history to start his tenure with the team by winning at least 13 of his first 14 decisions this season...three pitchers started 12-2 with the Giants - Hooks Wiltse (1904), Slick Castleman (1934-35), and Johnny Antonelli (1954) (Elias).
- Won a career-high 10-consecutive decisions from April 26-July 6, which marked the longest winning streak of any Giants starter in a single season since Jason Schmidt won 12-straight decisions from April 26-July 17, 2004 (Stats, LLC).
- Averaged 103.1 pitches per start, which ranked as the third-most among NL pitchers.
- Had a 29.1-consecutive scoreless innings streak at AT&T Park from April 21-May 23...the streak was the second-longest home scoreless streak by a Giants pitcher since the team moved to San Francisco in 1958...Bud Black owns the record with 32.0-straight scoreless innings at home from April 15-May 15, 1991 (Stats, LLC).
- Was named NL Player of the Week for May 23-29 after going 2-0 over two starts while posting a 0.60 ERA (1er, 15.0ip).
- Was the starting pitcher for the NL in the All-Star Game at Petco Park...became the eighth pitcher in Giants franchise history to start an All-Star game (ninth time), joining Carl Hubbell (1934), Juan Marichal (1965 and 1967), Vida Blue (1978), Rick Reuschel (1989), Jason Schmidt (2003), Tim Lincecum (2009) and Matt Cain (2012).
- Made his Giants debut on April 5 at Milwaukee and tossed 7.0 innings while allowing one run on six hits with no walks and four strikeouts...became the first Dominican-born Giant to win a start in nearly 21 years since Sergio Valdez did so on Sept. 21, 1995 vs. Colorado.
- Made his home debut on April 10 vs. Los Angeles-NL...in his first inning at AT&T Park he hit Chase Utley with the game's second pitch, tweaked his back and right knee with a spill behind the plate, and spotted LA with a 5-0 lead...he proceeded to allow one run over his next 6.0 innings to earn the win and became the first Giants pitcher to earn a win after allowing five-or-more runs in the first inning since Ryan Jensen on June 27, 2002 vs. San Diego.
- Tossed a shutout while striking out 11 to earn the 100th win of his ML career, a 1-0 triumph for the Giants over the Padres on April 26 at AT&T Park...became the first Giants pitcher to throw a 1-0 shutout with at least 10 strikeouts since Jason Schmidt in 2004 (May 18th vs Cubs -- one hit, 13 K).
- Surrendered three runs (two home runs) in 1.2 innings during his ASG start July 12 and took the loss...became the first Giants pitcher to take the loss in the AS Game since Shawn Estes in 1997.
- Left his start early on Sept. 20 due to a left groin strain he suffered in his previous start at Los Angeles-NL...despite exiting in the sixth inning, Cueto earned the win as he tossed 5.1-scoreless innings with six strikeouts in the Giants' 2-0 victory.
- Missed his second to last start scheduled for Sept. 25 due to a left groin strain he suffered in his previous start at Los Angeles-NL on Sept. 20th.
- Struck out 11 Rockies on Sept. 29 and improved to 18-5 in his final start of the regular season...since 1950, only two other pitchers have made 30 starts in their first season with a team and had a winning percentage as high as Cueto's: Bob Ojeda went 18-5 for the 1986 Mets, after

Cueto is the second of five children, four boys and a girl. (His sister died several years ago of kidney failure)...Cueto says he never worked at anything except baseball...his mother encouraged him to focus on the game and would pull him out of bed in the morning to go work out...she made sure Cueto always had baseball equipment. "We had good food, good shoes, good clothes," he says. "We weren't rich. But we weren't poor, either, thank God. We had something."

He's most known for his deceptive, disruptive deliveries and his Luis Tiant windup. He twists his body clockwise, balancing on one leg, until his back is facing the plate. Then he whips back around—dreadlocks flying—and fires.

As for his famous hair, Cueto says he has been growing it for seven years and styles the dreads himself. They require little more than simply rolling individual locks between his palms, he says, and he sometimes rolls them in the dugout during games.

being acquired in a trade with the Red Sox; and Roger Clemens was 18-4 for the 2004 Astros after signing as a free agent (Elias).

- 2015: Was acquired by the Royals in a mid-season trade with Cincinnati, which sent left-handed pitcher Brandon Finnegan, John Lamb and Cody Reed to the Reds.
 - Made 13 starts with KC, going 4-7 with a 4.76 ERA with 17 walks and 56 Ks in 81.1 innings.
 - Recorded the only complete game shutout by a Royals pitcher, firing 9.0 scoreless innings against Detroit on August 10, allowing just four hits...he became the second Royal to throw a shutout in his home debut, joining Eric Rasmussen, who did it on August 6, 1983 in a 4-0 win over the Red Sox.
 - He also became the first Major League pitcher to throw a shutout in both leagues since Cliff Lee did it in 2009 with Philadelphia and Cleveland.
 - Suffered the first five-game losing streak of his career between Aug. 21 and Sept. 13...during that stretch he posted a 9.57 ERA and allowed eight home runs in 26.1 innings (2.73 HR/9.0ip).
 - Posted a 7-6 mark and a 2.62 ERA in 19 starts with Cincinnati.
- 2014: Finished second in the NL Cy Young Award voting, 12th in the MVP Award voting and was a finalist for a Players Choice Award as the league's Outstanding Pitcher.
 - Was voted by the players to his first NL All-Star team.
 - Received the Wilson Defensive Player of the Year Award for his position.
 - For the third time in four seasons received the Johnny Vander Meer Award as the Reds' Most Outstanding Pitcher in voting of the local chapter of the BBWAA...also was given the Ernie Lombardi Award as the club's Most Valuable Player, the first Reds pitcher to be named MOP and MVP in the same season since Danny Graves in 2000.
 - Became the 24th pitcher in franchise history to win 20 games in a season, the first Reds pitcher with 20 wins since Danny Jackson in 1988 (23-8) and the first Reds right-hander since Sammy Ellis (22-10) and Jim Maloney (20-9) both won 20 games in 1965.
 - Led the NL in starts (tied), innings, strikeouts (tied w/ Wash's Stephen Strasburg), opponents' batting average (.194) and day ERA (1.52) while ranking second in ERA and T2nd in wins.
 - Became the first Reds pitcher to lead the league in innings since Bronson Arroyo in 2006 (240.2), the first Red to lead the NL or share the lead in strikeouts since Aaron Harang in 2006 (216) and only the third Reds pitcher since 1900 to lead the NL in both innings and strikeouts in the same season (Noodles Hahn in 1901, Bucky Walters in 1939).
 - Since divisional play began in 1969, is only the sixth NL pitcher to produce in a season at least 20 wins, 242 strikeouts and an ERA under 2.30 (Clayton Kershaw 2011, Dwight Gooden 1985, Tom Seaver 1971, Steve Carlton 1972, Bob Gibson 1968 & 1969).
 - Is one of only two pitchers in Reds history since 1900 to produce at least 20 wins and 242 strikeouts in a season (Jim Maloney) and one of only three Reds to produce at least 242.3 innings and 242 strikeouts (Jim Maloney, Mario Soto).
 - Cueto's 2.25 ERA was the lowest by any Reds qualifying pitcher since Gary Nolan's 1.99 in 1972 and the lowest by a Reds pitcher with at least 33 starts since Dolf Luque's 1.93 mark in 1923.
 - His career-high 242 strikeouts tied Mario Soto (1983) for the fourth-most in franchise history.
 - Was named NL Player of the Week for Aug. 4-10, his first career weekly honor, following a 9-2 win at Cleveland and a 7-2 win vs. Miami.
 - Became first Reds pitcher to make three straight Opening Day starts since RHP Aaron Harang did it for five straight years from 2006-2010.
 - Became the first pitcher in ML history, since 1900, to throw at least 7.0 innings while allowing five hits or fewer in each of his first nine appearances of the season...since the earned run became an official statistic (1912 in NL, 1913 in AL), through the first nine starts of a season no Major League pitcher ever produced an ERA and opponents' batting average as low as Cueto's totals (1.25, .135).
 - From July 8-Aug. 15 produced a career-high seven-game winning streak that included a five-start winning streak from July 26-Aug. 15, which tied his career high (July 8-Aug. 2, 2012).
 - Made only four spring training starts (1-1, 4.61) because of irritation in his right scapula.

- 2013: The Reds' Opening Day starter made just 11 starts around three stints on the disabled list with a strained right lat (April 15-May 19, June 5-15, June 29-Sept. 15).
- 2012: Finished fourth in the BBWAA's NL Cy Young Award voting and was a finalist for the Players Choice Outstanding Pitcher Award...finished 30th in the BBWAA's MVP voting.
- For the second straight season received the Johnny Vander Meer Award as the club's Most Outstanding Pitcher.
- Was part of a staff in which five pitchers started 161 of the club's 162 games (Bronson Arroyo, Homer Bailey, Mat Latos, Mike Leake)...the Reds became only the eighth team in Major League history to produce five pitchers with at least 30 starts each (1977 Dodgers, 1980 A's, 1993 Dodgers, 2003 Mariners, 2005 Cardinals, 2005 Indians, 2006 White Sox)...the Reds used six or fewer starting pitchers in a season for only the fourth time since 1900 (1900, 1942, 1951, 2012) and were the only team in the Major Leagues in 2012 to use as few as six starting pitchers.
- Individually he ranked among the NL leaders in wins (3rd), ERA (3rd), starts (T1st), innings pitched (5th), home ERA (2.79, 9th), road ERA (2.77, 3rd), day ERA (1.99, 2nd), fewest walks per 9ip (2.0, 9th), winning percentage (.679, 10th) and hit batsmen (12, 2nd).
- As a batter, tied Phillies OF Juan Pierre for the National League lead in sacrifice bunts (17).
- His 2.78 ERA was the lowest by a Reds pitcher since Jose Rijo's 2.48 in 1993 and his 19 wins were the most by a Reds pitcher since LHP Danny Jackson in 1988 (23-8, 2.73) and the most by a Reds RHP since Jack Billingham in 1974 (19-11, 3.94).
- Became the first Reds pitcher with at least 19 wins and an ERA below 3.00 since Jackson in '88 and the first right-hander since Jim Maloney in 1965 (20-9, 2.54).
- When he earned the 5-2 victory on Aug. 28 at Arizona he became the first Reds pitcher to become the Major Leagues' first 17-game winner since Ewell Blackwell in 1947.
- From June 12-July 22 threw 23.0 consecutive scoreless innings at home, the second-longest scoreless streak ever at GABP (Carlos Zambrano, 30ip, July 29, 2007-April 10, 2010).
- In the first Opening Day start of his career threw 7.0 shutout innings to earn the 4-0 win vs. Miami...was the first Reds homegrown pitcher to start Opening Day since Brett Tomko in 1999.
- 2011: Received the BBWAA's Johnny Vander Meer Award as the club's Most Outstanding Pitcher.
- Posted a sterling 2.31 ERA in 24 starts around injuries that began and ended his season.
- Began the year on the 15-day disabled list with irritation in his right biceps/triceps...following four rehab appearances for Louisville (April 16-May 1), made all 24 of his appearances for the Reds between May 8-Sept. 14 before he suffered a strained right latissimus dorsi muscle 46 pitches and 3.2 innings into his final start.
- Through his final appearance led the Majors in ERA but fell 6.0 innings shy of qualifying for the official title.
- Made four appearances in spring training before the onset of the biceps/triceps injury.
- 2010: Established then career highs in victories (12) and innings pitched (185.2) and tied his career high with 31 starts...his .632 winning percentage was 10th-best in the National League... led the staff in strikeouts (138).
- From Aug. 13-20 was suspended for seven games for his participation in an on-field incident with St. Louis on Aug. 10 that led to the ejections of both managers and fines for four other players.
- 2009: Ranked second on the Reds' staff to Bronson Arroyo in victories (11), starts (30) and innings pitched (171.1ip) and second to Aaron Harang in strikeouts (132).
- From Aug. 20-31 was on the disabled list with inflammation in his right shoulder.
- Contended for a spot on the National League All-Star staff after going 8-4, 2.69 in his first 16 starts of the season but in his last two appearances prior to the break allowed 13 earned runs in 5.2 innings.
- Started the Dominican Republic's second game of the World Baseball Classic and threw 4.2 scoreless innings to earn the 9-0 win vs Panama in the San Juan bracket (4.2ip, 3h, 1bb, 5k).
- 2008: In his Major League debut went 9-14, 4.81 in 31 starts...led all National League rookie pitchers in strikeouts (158) and ranked among the NL rookie leaders in ERA (8th), starts (31, T1st), wins (9, T2nd), innings pitched (174.0, 4th) and opponents' BA (.264, 6th).
- Became the first Reds rookie to make 30 starts since Tom Browning in 1988 (38gs) and the first Reds rookie righthander to make 30 starts since Gary Nolan in 1967 (32gs).

- On Aug. 24 at Colorado left his start after 3.0 innings with a posterior strain in his right elbow... didn't pitch again until Sept. 6 but made four more starts to finish the season (1-2, 6.16).
- On April 3 vs. Arizona made his ML debut at 22 years, 48 days old and earned the 3-2 victory (7ip, 1h, 1er, 0bb, 10k)...became the first pitcher in modern Major League history to debut with at least 10 strikeouts and zero walks, the first Reds pitcher since 1900 to record 10 strikeouts in his ML debut and only the third pitcher to win his ML debut while allowing one hit and recording at least 10 strikeouts (Steve Woodard in 1997, Juan Marichal in 1960)...retired his first 15 batters and allowed only one baserunner overall, Justin Upton homered leading off the 6th.
- In his second start on April 8 at Milwaukee, had eight strikeouts without a walk in 6.1 innings... became the first pitcher since 1900 to record as many as 18 strikeouts without a walk in his first two career starts.

• 2007: For the second straight season was the Reds organization's Minor League Pitcher of the Year...in 28 starts at three different levels combined to go 12-9, 3.07 with 170 strikeouts in 161.1 innings...led all Reds' minor leaguers in ERA and strikeouts and ranked third in victories... was selected to play in the Florida State League All-Star Game.

• 2006: Was the Reds organization's Minor League Pitcher of the Year after finishing 15-3, 3.00 in 26 starts at Class A Dayton and Sarasota...led all Reds' minor leaguers with 15 wins and finished second in the organization with 143 strikeouts...was the East Division's starting pitcher in the Midwest League All-Star Game.

• On May 13, in a rain-shortened 6-0 win at Wisconsin, pitched the first no-hitter in Dayton franchise history (5ip, 2bb, 8k).

POSTSEASON CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has made five postseason rosters in his career (three with Cincinnati, one with Kansas City and one with San Francisco)...has been to the postseason five times in the last nine seasons.
- Is 2-4 with a 4.54 ERA (21er, 41.2ip) and two complete games in eight career postseason starts.

• 2016: Took the loss in Game 1 of the NLDS at Chicago-NL, despite tossing a complete game in SF's 1-0 loss...struck out a postseason career-high 10 batters...marked the 15th complete game in postseason history with 10-or-more Ks and three or fewer hits allowed...he's the only one of those pitchers to lose the game.

• Recorded a complete game in each of his last two postseason appearances (dating back to 2015) and became the first pitcher to throw a complete game in back-to-back postseason appearances since Josh Beckett (Florida vs. the Yankees on Oct. 25, 2003 and Boston vs. the Angels on Oct. 3, 2007) (STATS, LLC).

• 2015: Made four postseason starts, going 2-1 with a 5.40 ERA (15er in 25.0ip).

• Tossed the ninth complete game in franchise history in postseason play in Game 2 of the World Series, allowing one run on two hits in a 7-1 victory...his complete game was the first by a Royal since Bret Saberhagen's complete-game shutout in Game Seven of the 1985 Fall Classic.

• Earned his first postseason victory in Game 5 of the ALDS vs. Houston, allowing two runs on two hits over 8.0 innings in a 7-2 triumph...he allowed a single and a two-run home run on consecutive pitches in the second inning and then retired the final 19 hitters he faced.

• Suffered his lone setback in Game Three of the ALCS in Toronto, allowing eight runs on six hits over 2.0 innings...the eight earned runs tied for the most in a postseason game in Major League history.

• 2013: Started the Wild Card Playoff at Pittsburgh and suffered the 6-2 loss.

• 2012: In Game 1 of the Division Series at SF left the 5-2 victory after one batter and eight pitches with a strained right oblique...was the fewest number of batters faced by a starting pitcher in a Postseason game in Major League history...the previous record was held by Wsh's Curly Odgen, who faced two batters in Game Seven of the 1924 World Series vs the New York Giants...prior to Game Four was replaced on the NLDS roster by Mike Leake, who suffered that night's 8-3 loss.

• 2010: Started Game 3 of the National League Division Series vs. the Phillies at Great American Ball Park and suffered the 2-0 loss...Phillies starter Cole Hamels threw a five-hit complete game (0bb, 9k).

NOTES

Married Maddie Reynolds.
Attended the former Young Harris Junior College and Mercer University.

Grew up in the small town of Dayton, Tennessee, most famous as the setting for the Scopes Monkey Trial... it's south of Knoxville, north of Chattanooga.

In his senior year, Cory wrote to more than 25 colleges through the southeast hoping to land a spot on a baseball team...he heard from zero...in his senior year, a coach named Rick Robinson, from Young Harris Community College in the mountains of North Georgia, noticed Cory's sidearm throw from second base...Robinson said if he could learn to pitch from that angle, he would consider giving him scholarship money...Cory worked all summer on his delivery and landed the scholarship.

Only Mercer University in Macon, Georgia, recruited him to play as a junior, but after he excelled in the Cape Cod League that summer, the big universities like Florida and Tennessee came calling...Cory declined. "Mercer wanted me when nobody else wanted me," he told his mother. "I'm going to honor that."

In the Braves' farm system in 2011, he won the Bill Lucas Award, given annually to the minor leaguer who exhibits the best character and sportsmanship.

When the Giants called, he was thrilled...he told a Tennessee reporter: "Honestly San Francisco is my favorite city in the Major Leagues...it has everything and for me is the most beautiful experience in baseball...the rolling hills and the sprawling bay surrounding AT&T Park are remarkable and you're so close to so many captivating areas up and down the California coast as well."

IN THE COMMUNITY

Involved with the following organizations: Fantasy Camp for Kids and Jefferson Awards – Students in Action.

- Spent the entire season with triple-A, going 2-2 with a 2.72 ERA (13er, 43.0ip) in 33 relief appearances (46so, .230 avg. against).
- Missed the first month of the season while recovering from Tommy John surgery he had in 2014.
- 2014: Attended spring training with the Braves and was likely to earn one of the open roster spots in the bullpen...however, left his last outing with discomfort in his right elbow and it was later revealed that he would need "Tommy John" surgery...missed the entire season.
- Was released by the Braves November 10.
- 2013: Appeared on a Major League Opening Day roster for the first time in his career.
- Earned his first career save on May 20 vs. Minnesota.
- Was optioned to triple-A Gwinnett July 5 and did not pitch for the remainder of the season due to a strained right shoulder.
- 2012: Was named triple-A Gwinnett's Most Outstanding Pitcher, leading the club with nine saves.
- Was selected to the Triple-A All-Star Game (did not appear).
- 2011: Made his Major League debut April 25 at San Diego and tossed 2.0 perfect innings.

M.L. Service: None
Became a Giant: Signed by San Francisco as a non-drafted free agent on March 2, 2010
Contract Status: Signed through 2018

2017 SEASON

- Posted a 4-4 record with a 3.04 ERA (25er, 74.0ip) in 13 starts for triple-A Sacramento.
- Was suspended on July 1 for the remainder of the season after testing positive for stanozolol, a performance-enhancing substance.
- Landed on the seven-day disabled list on June 22 with a back injury.
- Was ranked as San Francisco's No. 8 prospect by MLB Pipeline.com.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 2016: Combined for a 6-10 record, a 4.69 ERA and 152 strikeouts between double-A Richmond and triple-A Sacramento in what was his seventh professional season with the Giants.
- Was promoted to the River Cats on May 10, his first taste of triple-A.
- Logged just five quality starts for Sacramento, but did pitch at least 5.0 innings in 17 of his 21 starts.
- Registered seven or more strikeouts in seven of his 21 starts overall.
- 2015: Spent the season with double-A Richmond, going 3-2 with a 3.09 ERA in 37 games/nine starts.
- Played for the Gigantes del Cibao in the Dominican Winter League.
- 2014: Was added to the Giants' 40-man roster in November.
- Split the season between Class A Advanced San Jose and single-A Augusta, combining for a 4-9 record and a 4.36 ERA in 19 games/17 starts.
- Began the season in the Class A Advanced San Jose rotation and made a strong initial impression posting a 1.88 ERA with 22 strikeouts in 14.1 innings over his first three starts.
- Back-to-back rough starts (13 total runs allowed) though put Gregorio on the DL as he attempted to work through mechanical issues with his delivery... returned to action three weeks later, but made just one relief appearance before going back on the disabled list with a sore back.
- Once healthy, Gregorio was sent to Augusta, where he spent the entire second half, posting a 3.57 ERA in 12 starts with 65 strikeouts in 68.0 innings.
- 2013: Lost time to the disabled list after suffering an oblique strain and missed the entire month of May... made just two appearances after July 26 because of a blister issue.
- 2012: Led the Northwest League in starts (16) and hits allowed (85).
- 2011: When he made his American debut he was dominant, pitching for the Giants' rookie team in Arizona and leading the league in ERA (2.32)... was named to the Arizona League postseason All-Star team.
- 2010: Originally signed with the San Francisco as an 18-year old out of the Dominican Republic.

NOTES

Married (Ariadna)...has three children: Eva, Evans, Ethan.

Grew up in Maturin, in the north part of Venezuela known for oil production.

Oldest of four children to a single mother, who worked odd jobs like driving a jitney to make ends meet...his father left when Gorkys was three years old...as a kid he played baseball in the backyard with a ball made of rolled-up socks and tape.

Gorkys is named after Maxim Gorky, the early 20th-century Russian writer and Marxist activist...his grandfather had wanted to name his son "Gorky" but when his wife nixed the idea, that boy – Gorkys' father -- grew up to give the name to own son.

As a teenager, Gorkys trained for baseball in the morning and worked at a car wash in the afternoon to help support his family...he signed a professional baseball contract with Detroit in 2005 at age 17... he has played on minor-league teams with Detroit, Atlanta (twice), Pittsburgh (twice), Miami, Kansas City, Chicago White Sox and the Giants for a total of 1,092 games -- plus 24 in Mexico, and 381 during nine seasons in Caribbean winter ball.

- 2012: Made his MLB debut with the Pirates on May 21 vs. New York-NL and struck out as a pinch hitter.
- Recorded first Major League hit and RBI on May 27 vs. Chicago-NL with a two-run single off Michael Bowden in the 6th.
- Was traded to Miami along with Pittsburgh's 2013 Competitive Balance selection in exchange for first baseman Gaby Sanchez and minor league pitcher Kyle Kaminska on July 31.
- Connected off Milwaukee's Shaun Marcum for first big league home run on Sept. 4...homered again in his next game on Sept. 8 at Washington - a leadoff shot off Ross Detwiler.
- Won the 2012 Venezuelan Winter League batting title after hitting .367 with 13 doubles, two triples, two home runs and 23 RBI in 61 games.
- 2009: Was ranked by Baseball America as Atlanta's fourth-best prospect prior to the 2009 season.
- Was acquired by Pittsburgh as part of a four-player deal on June 3 and was assigned to double-A Altoona.
- 2008: Went 0-for-4 in the 2008 MLB Futures Game at Yankee Stadium.
- 2007: Was named the Midwest League Most Valuable Player and to the league's mid and post-season All-Star teams in 2007...recorded a career-high 54 stolen bases in 2007, which was also topped the Midwest League.
- Went 0-for-1 with a walk while pinch hitting and playing center field in the 2007 MLB Futures Game in San Francisco.
- 2006: Led Gulf Coast League in batting, at bats, runs and hits while being named a post-season All-Star during his second professional season in 2006.

POSTSEASON CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 2016: Went 1-for-6 at the plate during San Francisco's postseason run and started one game in center field (Game 1 of NLDS against Chicago-NL).

NOTES

Nick's father Tim Hundley was a longtime college football coach...he has coached at UCLA, SMU, UTEP, Washington, Colorado, Oregon State, Idaho and UNLV...he is in the NAIA Hall of Fame and spent a large portion of his coaching career with Rick Neuheisel (UCLA, Washington, Colorado).

Though he played football (quarterback and defensive back), baseball was his first love...he'd practice his swing in the swimming pool when the family lived in Los Angeles, using the water for resistance and would lay down masking tape on the floor of his bedroom in front of a full-length mirror to practice stepping into his swing...his mother, Pam, drove around with an L-screen (which protects a batting-practice pitcher) in her van, ready for whenever Nick could get someone (most often his dad) to throw BP. Gave up football as a senior in high school to focus on baseball, where he truly excelled. He began as a shortstop and switched to catching as a junior...he was two-time team captain for Lake Washington High School in Redmond, Washington, and Oregon State Player of the Year.

The Marlins drafted him in the fifth-round out of high school but Nick opted to go to the University of Arizona, which was rebuilding its program...the school had been to just one regional in eight years.

IN THE COMMUNITY

Involved with the following organizations: Fantasy Camp for Kids and Giants Community Fund.

- 2013: Played in a career-high 114 games with San Diego, setting career-highs in several of offensive categories including hits (87), runs scored (35), doubles (19) and home runs (13).
- Started a career-high 102 games behind the plate and recorded a 23.6 % (25-for-106) caught stealing rate.
- His career-high 13 home runs were the most by a Padres catcher since Mike Piazza had 22 in 2006, the franchise record for home runs in a season by a catcher.
- 2012: Began the season with the Padres, hitting .166 (32-for-193) over his first 53 games before being optioned to Triple-A Tucson June 30.
- In 13 games with Tucson, he hit .190 (13-for-42), missing time due to a stint on the seven-day disabled list due to a strained hamstring.
- Was recalled from Tucson Aug. 9 and went hitless in 11 at-bats before being placed on the 15-day disabled list with a bruised right knee Aug. 17, missing the remainder of the season.
- 2011: Had two stints on the disabled list, from May 6-June 8 with a strained right oblique and again from July 8-Aug. 12 with a strained right elbow, which required an arthroscopic procedure.
- 2010: In his second full Major League season he started 73 games behind the plate and posted a 3.70 catchers ERA, ranking sixth in the National League.
- Combined with Yorvit Torrealba to tie for the fourth-fewest stolen bases allowed by a NL team (79).
- 2009: Was hit on his left wrist June 9 and played in two games following the injury before being placed on the disabled list June 19 (retroactive to June 18) with a left wrist contusion.
- 2008: Made his ML debut July 4 at ARI, and recorded his first hit in the Padres' 5-1 win.
- Hit his first Major League home run July 26 at Pittsburgh off Franquelis Osoria.
- 2007: Finished fourth in the Texas League in home runs and fifth in slugging percentage with double-A San Antonio.
- Was named the Padres No. 8 prospect by Baseball America entering the season.
- 2006: Split the season between Class A Fort Wayne and Class A Advanced Lake Elsinore.
- Hit .406 with eight home runs and 22 RBI during a season-high 18-game hitting streak May 28-July 1, and was named the Midwest League Batter of the Week for June 12-18.
- Was named the Padres No. 9 prospect and best defensive catcher by Baseball America entering the season.

2017 SEASON

- Appeared in 53 games with SF, batting .173 (26-for-150) with nine extra-base hits.
- Had his contract purchased from triple-A Sacramento on June 24 and made his MLB debut that day vs. New York-NL.
- Recorded his big league hit on June 30 at Pittsburgh, a single off LHP Wade LeBlanc.
- Went hitless in the first 17 at-bats of his career...since the Giants moved to SF only one other player (non-pitchers) began their MLB career 0-for-17 or worse (Edwards Guzman 0-for-21 in 1999).
- Was HBP on his left wrist on July 1 at Pittsburgh and was placed on the DL on July 7 with a wrist contusion.
- Was activated from the DL on July 17 and was optioned to triple-A Sacramento...was recalled from Sacramento on Aug. 3.
- Hit his first Major League home run on Aug. 7 vs. Chicago-NL off RHP Jake Arrieta.
- Hit .312 with 13 homers and 44 RBI in 64 games with triple-A Sacramento.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 2016: Named a mid-season All-Star, Jones hit .247 with 26 doubles, 15 home runs and 67 RBI in his first season at the double-A level.
- Spent the entire year with Richmond and was the Opening Day starting third baseman...led the Flying Squirrels in homers and RBI.
- 2015: Played the entire season with Class A Advanced San Jose, batting .268 with 29 doubles, six home runs and 47 RBI in 105 games.
- 2014: Had modest success while playing for Class A Augusta during the first half of the season before a prolonged slump in June and July resulted in a demotion to short-season Salem-Keizer...in 118 games between the two teams,

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

MLB Debut: June 24, 2017 vs. NYM

First MLB Hit: June 30, 2017 at PIT (single)

First MLB Home Run: Aug. 7, 2017 vs. CHC

NOTES

Attended Watauga High School (Boone, North Carolina).

Was named the Gatorade North Carolina High School Player of the Year during his senior season in 2013...batted .461 with 11 home runs and 43 RBI...also owned a 4-3 record and a 1.23 ERA with 63 strikeouts in 40.1 innings as a pitcher.

Was an honorable mention All-State selection as a junior in 2012 at Stillwater (OK) High School.

Had committed to play college baseball at Stanford University before signing with the Giants.

Has a brother two years younger named Utah...the boys were given unusual names because their parents felt they needed something distinctive to go with their common last name.

Dad, Billy Jones, has coached college baseball for all of Ryder's life, moving the family from Green River to Oregon State, Arizona State, Oklahoma State, North Carolina State to Appalachian State...Mother, Tiffani, grew up in the Bay Area.

A natural righty, Ryder's father believed he'd be better off hitting left-handed...Ryder didn't take immediately to the new grip...during a practice one day, Billy duct-taped his son's hands to the big red whiffle-ball bat to allow him to get accustomed to the feel of the new grip. Soon Ryder was batting left-handed.

Considers Stillwater home because his father spent eight years at Oklahoma State beginning when Ryder was in fifth grade...his school bus would drop him off after school at the college's baseball facility...he would do homework and then get involved in practices...Ryder credits his time playing with the Oklahoma State players as the biggest influence in his development as a player.

he hit only .225 with 10 home runs and 67 RBI.

- Entered the season ranked as the #15 prospect in the Giants' organization according to Baseball America.
- 2013: Was named to the postseason Arizona Rookie League All-Star team...ranked ninth in the league in batting average.

NOTES

Married (Chelsea Gielarowski)...they have been together since high school.

Grew up and still makes his home in Pittsburgh, PA.

Father is former right-handed pitcher Joe Law, who spent nine seasons in the A's farm system and four days on the Major League roster.

Has one sibling, an autistic brother, Dustin, who is four years younger than Derek.

His father, Joe, was his pitching coach at every level through high school...Derek was good enough to be drafted at the end of high school in 2009 (by the Texas Rangers in the 28th round), but he chose to go to Miami Dade College in Florida, which has a highly respected baseball program.

In high school, he was voted Most Athletic and Best Dancer. "Only my good friends know I can dance,"

He loves baseball history with a particular interest in the Negro Leagues...he has been collecting baseball figurines since he was a kid...his most prized: Josh Gibson and Satchel Paige.

IN THE COMMUNITY

Involved with the following organizations: AACSCEND – Autism Awareness and Little League Support.

- 2014: Was a non-roster invitee to big league camp and was so impressive that he wasn't sent down to the minors until the final weekend.
- Was ultimately assigned to double-A Richmond where he posted a 2.57 ERA and converted 13/14 save opportunities in 28.Oip...however, suffered an elbow injury in early June that required Tommy John surgery, which ended his season.
- Was leading the Eastern League in saves prior to his injury.
- 2013: Combined to go 5-4 with a 2.50 ERA in 46 games between ARL-Giants, Class A Augusta and Class A Advanced San Jose...posted a 102-to-12 strikeout/walk ratio between all three clubs (8.2 K/BB).
- Was perfect 11-for-11 in save chances and had a 45-to-1 K-to-BB ratio in 25.2 innings with SJ.
- Excelled in the Arizona Fall League after the regular season, not allowing an earned run in 12.0 innings...was named to Arizona Fall League Top Prospects list.

POSTSEASON CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 2016: Made his first career postseason roster and allowed one run in 2.1 innings, covering three appearances while pitching for the Giants against the Cubs in the NLDS.

2017 SEASON

- Played in 156 games, all starts (142-3B, 14-DH), his fewest games played since 2012 (74)... leads the Majors with 798 games played over the last five seasons.
- Broke the Rays club records for runs (780, topping Carl Crawford's 765) and walks (569, topping Ben Zobrist's 542)...was already the Rays' all-time leader in home runs, RBI, doubles, extra-base hits, slugging pct., games played and total bases.
- Hit 20 HR, his fifth straight season with at least 20 and ninth in his 10 first seasons in the Majors...Longoria joined Hall of Famer Eddie Mathews as the only third basemen in Major League history (min. half of games at 3B each year) to hit at least 20 HR in nine of their first 10 seasons in baseball...Mathews did it in each of his first 14 seasons, from 1952-65, with the Braves.
- Also became the second AL third baseman ever to record nine 20-HR seasons at any point in his career, joining Graig Nettles (10)... Longoria's nine seasons with 20 HR are more than twice the total of anyone else in club history (Carlos Peña and Aubrey Huff, four).
- Led the Rays with 36 2B and 86 RBI...is one of two players in baseball to lead their team in RBI in each of the past five seasons, along with CHC Anthony Rizzo.
- Ranked second among AL third basemen with 11 Defensive Runs Saved, according to FanGraphs, his best mark since 2013 (12)...in Baseball America's annual Best Tools survey, was rated the No. 3 defensive third baseman in the AL, behind BAL Manny Machado and TEX Adrián Beltré...from July 5–Aug 28, played a career-best 47 consecutive errorless games (prev. 46, April 27–June 18, 2015).

NOTES

Married Jaime Edmondson...Evan and Jaime have two kids: daughter Elle Leona and son Nash Harrison...they also have Tatum, a 120-pound, Boerboel Mastiff rescue born in South Africa.

His wife surprised him on his 31st birthday with a guided five-day trip to Cuba shortly after travel restrictions were lifted...their sightseeing included two days outside of Havana, a national park, zip-lining, a country-style meal and a stop at Cojimar, the fishing village that inspired The Old Man and the Sea...he did see some lasting effects of the club's historic trip to Havana last March: a cook at one of the paladares (home restaurants) they visited was a Rays fan and retrieved a Longoria T-shirt to prove it.

- Tied HOU Josh Reddick for the Major League lead with 12 sacrifice flies...his 76 SF since his rookie season of 2008 are 12 more than any other player in baseball (Albert Pujols, 64)...only three players in major league history have recorded as many over their first 10 seasons: Ruben Sierra (91), Frank Thomas (82) and Jeff Bagwell (78).
- Made his ninth consecutive Opening Day start, all at 3B, the longest active streak among 3B in the Majors...on Opening Day vs. NYY, hit his fourth career Opening Day home run, extending his franchise record...had the first RBI (1st inning, sac fly) and home run (2nd inning, 2-run) of Major League Baseball's regular season.
- On May 19 vs. NYY tied his career high with four hits (seventh time).
- On Aug. 1 at HOU, became the second Ray to hit for the cycle, following Melvin Upton Jr. on Oct 2, 2009 vs. NYY...also passed Carl Crawford for most runs scored in club history...his homer was the front end of back-to-back shots with Logan Morrison in the 1st, his triple was his first since Sept. 17, 2016 at BAL and his 9th-inning double completed the feat after it was overturned via instant replay...according to the Elias, it was the first time under the current replay system (2014-present) that a cycle included any hit that was involved in any type of umpire review or manager challenge.
- On Sept. 6 vs. MIN, hit his first homer since Aug. 1 at HOU, snapping a career-long 123 AB homer-less drought (prev. 90 AB, April 6–May 6, 2015).
- Named the Rays nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award, given to the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team...it was the second time in his career he's been nominated (2014).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 2016: Turned in one of the best offensive seasons in Rays history, establishing career highs with 173 hits, 36 HR, 81 XBH and 330 total bases.
- Set Rays club records for a right-handed hitter in home runs, extra-base hits and total bases...his 36 HR ranked third in Rays club history to Carlos Peña in 2007 (46) and 2009 (39) and his 81 XBH ranked third in the AL and second in Rays club history to Aubrey Huff (84) in 2003...his 330 total bases ranked eighth in the AL and second in Rays club history to Huff (353) in 2003...his 41 doubles tied for sixth in the AL and tied for fifth in Rays club history...led the Rays with 98 RBI.
- Was honored by the Tampa Bay Chapter of the BBWAA with the Don Zimmer Award (as the team's most valuable player) as well as the Paul C. Smith Champion Award (given to the player who best exemplifies the spirit of true professionalism on and off the field)...it was Longoria's second time winning each award (Zimmer in 2013; Smith in 2014).
- Played in 160 games, all starts (152-3B, 8-DH)...marked his fourth straight season of at least 160 games...became only the third in baseball history to play 160-plus games in four consecutive seasons while playing a majority of games at third base each year, joining Hall of Famers CHC Ron Santo (1962-65) and BAL Brooks Robinson (1961-64).
- All 36 of his home runs came while playing third base, ranked third in the majors to COL Nolan

NOTES CONTINUED

Ducky's, the boutique sports lounge concept he opened, is entering its fifth year...in April 2016, Evan and his partners opened a second Ducky's at Tampa International Airport...Ducky's also will continue their presence at Tropicana Field...Ducky's features duckpin (mini) bowling lanes and plenty of TVs...Evan, whose main passion outside baseball is food and cooking, was heavily involved in creating a healthy menu with the help of a few chef friends in Vegas and NY.

Evan plays the drums and can often be heard practicing before games at Tropicana Field...one of his most prized possessions is a drum head signed by the members of the band Rush.

Went from being undrafted in high school, to Rio Hondo Junior College to becoming the highest-drafted player ever out of Long Beach State University (third overall in 2006).

In his two-year career at Long Beach, batted .336 with 16 HR and 73 RBI...played primarily 3B, but as a sophomore in 2005, he filled in at SS for the injured Troy Tulowitzki.

Named the Big West Conference's 2006 co-Player of the Year, third team All-America by Collegiate Baseball and a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award, given to the top player in college baseball after batting .353 (71-for-201) with 11 HR and 43 RBI in his junior year for Long Beach...led the conference with a .603 SLG and .468 OBP.

Played his freshman season at Rio Hondo Junior College (Calif.), where he batted .430 with 8 HR and 64 RBI to earn All-Foothill Conference and first team All-State honors

Named the Cape Cod League MVP in 2005 after leading the wood-bat league with 8 HR, 35 RBI, 16 XBH and a .500 SLG...Baseball America named him a first-team summer All-America selection...played with the Chatham A's on a team that featured five of the first 39 picks in the 2006 June Draft.

Arenado (41) and CWS Todd Frazier (39).

- No player in baseball matched his combination of hits (173), doubles (41) and home runs (36) in 2016...in major league history, only three other third basemen (min. half of games at 3B) have reached these totals in a single season: TOR Josh Donaldson in 2015, COL Nolan Arenado in 2015 and ATL Chipper Jones in 1999...Donaldson and Jones were both named their league's MVP.
- Became one of three third basemen in major league history to hit 20 HR in at least eight of his first nine seasons, joining Eddie Mathews (9) and Scott Rolen (8)...is one of three AL third basemen with eight 20-HR seasons at any point in their career, joining Graig Nettles (10) and Adrian Beltre (8).
- Recorded his fourth career 30-HR season (also 2009, 2011, 2013), breaking a tie with Carlos Peña for most in Rays club history.
- Half of his home runs (18) came in the 6th inning or later, a number topped by only TOR Edwin Encarnación (23), CWS Todd Frazier (20) and KC Kendrys Morales (19).
- Became just the second third baseman all-time with at least 80 XBH in a season while making fewer than 10 errors, joining COL Vinny Castilla in 2004 (81-XBH, 6-E).
- Joined OAK Carney Lansford (1987-88) as the only third baseman in Major League history with back-to-back seasons of 10 errors or fewer.
- On April 3 vs. TOR, made his eighth straight Opening Day start, tying Carl Crawford for most in Rays franchise history.
- Compiled an 11-game hitting streak from May 28–June 8, batting .419 (18-for-43) with six HR and 15 RBI over that stretch.
- From June 2-5 at MIN, became the first player in club history to homer in each game of a four-game series and the first AL player to do that since BAL Adam Jones from May 23-26, 2013 at TOR...was the first Ray to homer in four straight games since Carlos Peña homered in a club- record 6 straight games from June 6-12, 2010...Longoria hit five HR in the series, with a multi-homer game in the finale, setting a club record for a series of any length...hit seven HR in only seven games against the Twins, most ever by a Ray against a non-division opponent.
- Was named AL Player of the Week for May 30–June 5, his seventh career weekly honor...ranked among AL leaders during that span in total bases (31, 1st), SLG (1.107, 1st), hits (13, tied for 1st), HR (5, tied for 1st), avg. (.464, 2nd), doubles (3, tied for 3rd), RBI (9, 4th) and OBP (.516, 4th).
- Hit nine HR in June, tying José Canseco (1999) for the most in franchise history for the month...they were his most in a calendar month since August 2011, his monthly record (10).
- Hit two HR on July 17 vs. BAL, and two 3B the next day at COL, becoming the first player with a multi-homer and multi-triple game in consecutive games since COL Larry Walker on May 21-22, 1996, according to the Elías.
- 2015: Played in 160 games in 2015, tied for third most in the majors...led the team with 21 HR, 73 RBI, 35 2B, 57 XBH and 74 runs.
- Reached several career milestones in 2015...on April 11 at MIA, doubled for his 425th XBH, breaking Carl Crawford's Rays club record...on April 16 at TOR hit his 230th 2B, passing Ben Zobrist's club record...recorded his 1,000th hit on May 5 at BOS, a single off Rick Porcello, the third in club history to reach the mark...played his 1,000th game on May 21 vs. OAK...on Sep 2 at BAL, hit his 200th career home run, a 2-run shot off Kevin Gausman.
- Hit his 20th HR on Sep 24 at BOS, his seventh 20-HR season...tied Eric Chavez for most 20-HR seasons by a third baseman in AL history before turning 30.
- Became the first third baseman in Major League history to record 200 HR and 250 2B in his first eight seasons (min. 50 pct. of games at 3B)...was the 20th player all-time to reach those totals in their first eight seasons, joining a group including Ted Williams, Joe DiMaggio, Hank Aaron and Barry Bonds.
- Named a finalist for the Rawlings American League Gold Glove Award for third base, won by BAL Manny Machado...led AL third basemen with a career-high .976 fielding pct., which broke the franchise record for 3B held previously by Akinori Iwamura (.975 in 2007)...it was his first time leading the league.
- On May 7 vs. TEX, ended streaks of 198 straight starts and 270 games, both the longest active in baseball at the time...scratched from the starting lineup (flu-like symptoms).

- On April 6 vs. BAL, hit his third career Opening Day homer (off Chris Tillman) to set a club record, passing Ben Zobrist and Gerald Williams.
- Hit .342/.392/.568 (53-for-155) against LHP, ranking fifth in the AL in avg. and eighth in SLG...hit .245/.306/.390 (110-for-449) vs. RHP.
- 2014: Started all 162 games in 2014...was one of three major leaguers to start every game that season along with ATL Freddie Freeman and KC Alcides Escobar...tied Delmon Young (2007) and Aubrey Huff (2003) for the single-season Rays club record...made a career-high 154 starts at 3B, fourth most in the Majors.
- Led the club with 21 HR and 91 RBI...had 83 RBI as a third baseman, third in the Majors to SEA Kyle Seager (96) and OAK Josh Donaldson (95).
- His .724 OPS was a career low and 146 points below his career .870 mark entering the year.
- Had 38 two-out RBI, tied with BOS David Ortiz for third in the AL behind DET Miguel Cabrera (42) and Víctor Martínez (39).
- 2013: In 2013, chosen as the Don Zimmer Award winner by the Tampa Bay Chapter of the BBWAA, as the team's most valuable player...placed sixth in AL MVP balloting, matching his own 2010 finish for the highest in club history...it was the third time he finished in the top 10.
- Led the Rays in runs (91), doubles (39), home runs (32), RBI (88), extra-base hits (74, third in the AL) and slugging pct. (.498).
- Had 32 HR, one shy of his career high at the time...had 31 HR as a third baseman, third in the majors behind DET Miguel Cabrera (44) and PIT Pedro Álvarez (36)...22 of them came against AL East opponents.
- Named a finalist for the Rawlings American League Gold Glove Award for third base, won by BAL Manny Machado...his .972 fielding pct. ranked second among AL 3B to Machado (.973)...was leading AL third basemen in fielding until a multi-error game on Sep 27 at TOR, the Rays 160th game of the season.
- Hit nine of his 32 HR and had 14 XBH against the Yankees—matching New York's nine HR as a team vs. the Rays...according to the Elias, he became the third player to hit nine HR or more vs. the Yankees in a season in the expansion era (since 1961), joining CLE Fred Whitfield in 1965 (10) and TOR José Cruz Jr. in 2001 (nine).
- Batted .397 (25-for-63) during a career-high 16-game hitting streak from May 6-22, raising his avg. to a season-high .335...he batted .242 (106-for-438) in 114 games after that.
- Reached base safely in 45 of the Rays first 46 games of the season...remains one of 14 AL players since 1913 to reach in 45 (or more) of his team's first 46 games.
- On Aug. 10 at LAD, pulled the hidden ball trick on veteran Juan Uribe—one of two times it was successful in 2013, along with COL Todd Helton against STL Matt Carpenter on Sep 19.
- Went 3-for-4 with 1 HR, 1 2B, 1 BB and 2 RBI in the Rays 5-2 win in the Game 163 tiebreaker on Sept. 30 at TEX.
- 2012: On Nov. 26, 2012, signed a contract extension through the 2023 season.
- Missed 85 games due to a partially torn left hamstring, which he sustained on April 30 vs. SEA... was hitting .329/.433/.561 (27-for-82) with 4 HR, 19 RBI and 7 2B in 23 games at the time of his injury...placed on the DL the following day and was not activated until Aug. 7.
- The Rays went 41-44 in his absence, but went 47-27 (.635) when he was in the lineup...in the AL, only OAK Yoenis Céspedes had a better record in games he started (82-46, .641)...the Rays scored nearly a run more per game when he was active (4.79 R/G) than when he was on the DL (3.86 R/G).
- In the Rays season finale Oct. 3 vs. BAL, hit three HR to tie the club record and his career high (also Sept. 18, 2008 vs. MIN)...tied Melvin Upton Jr. (Sept. 9, 2012 vs. TEX) and Jonny Gomes (July 30, 2005 vs. KC)...became one of four players all-time to hit 3 HR in his team's final game of the season: CWS Gus Zernial (1950), PHI Dick Allen (1968) and CWS Dan Johnson (also 2012).
- 2011: Despite missing 26 games within the first month of the 2011 season, led the Rays with 31 HR, 99 RBI and a career-high 80 BB...strained his left oblique in the second game of the season and was removed from the game just 14 innings into the season...placed on the 15-day DL the following day...reinstated on May 3 but did not record his first HR and RBI until May 7 at BAL, the Rays 33rd game.
- Led the Majors with 86 RBI from June 11 through season's end (98 games)...his 27 HR during that span tied for the AL lead and tied for second most in the majors...hit 20 HR after the All-Star break, one shy of BOS Jacoby Ellsbury and ATL Dan Uggla for the Major League lead...hit 13 HR in his final 41 games while the Rays went 26-15.

- On Sept. 28 vs. NYY, the final day of the regular season, hit a walk-off home run off Scott Proctor in the 12th inning to clinch the AL Wild Card...the Rays had trailed 7-0 in the 8th inning before Longoria's HR won it, 8-7...it was his second home run of the game...according to the Elias, Longoria was only the second player in major league history to hit a walk-off home run in his team's final game of the regular season to clinch a postseason berth...the other was NYG Bobby Thomson with his "Shot Heard 'Round the World" against the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1951.
- During the final 24-game run—in which the Rays made up nine games in the AL Wild Card race in September—he reached base 49 times, second in the majors in that span to DET Miguel Cabrera (54)...led the majors with 27 BB in September.
- On June 12 at BAL, hit the first inside-the-park home run of his career off Jeremy Accardo in the Rays 9-6 win.
- 2010: In 2010, finished sixth in the AL MVP voting, the highest finish of any Ray in club history (tied by Longoria in 2013)...at age 24, became the first 3B (AL or NL) to make the All-Star Team in each of his first three seasons...won his second consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove Award.
- Averaged 40 2B, 27 HR and 101 RBI in his first three seasons...only two other players in major league history averaged at least 40 2B, 25 HR and 100 RBI in their first three seasons: BOS Ted Williams and STL Albert Pujols.
- Became the fifth player all-time with 20 HR and 30 2B in each of his first three seasons, joining STL Albert Pujols, NYY Joe DiMaggio, BOS Ted Williams and SF Orlando Cepeda...CWS José Abreu has since joined that list.
- Played in 151 of the Rays first 152 games but missed the final 10 games with a left quadricep strain suffered in the field on Sep 23 at NYY.
- Tied for second in the Majors with 46 doubles...his 121 doubles through his first three seasons have been topped by only five players in Major League history.
- On Aug 8 at TOR, singled off Brandon Morrow with two outs in the 9th inning to end his no-hit bid...became the third Ray to break up a no-hitter in the 9th inning, first with two outs...Joey Butler also did it on July 1, 2015 vs. CLE.
- At the All-Star Game—held on July 13 at Angel Stadium, just minutes away from his hometown of Downey, Calif.—doubled off COL Ubaldo Jiménez in the 2nd inning, then walked and scored the lone run for the AL in his second trip to the plate.
- Elected by fans as the starting AL third base-man—the second time he was voted to start, but his first start (did not play in 2009 due to injury)...Longoria, Carl Crawford and David Price together became the first Rays to start the Midsummer Classic.
- 2009: Totaled 33 HR, 44 2B and 113 RBI...only three others in Major League history have reached those numbers in one season before the age of 24...joined STL Albert Pujols (2001, 2003), SEA Alex Rodriguez (1996) and CLE Hal Trosky (1934, 1936).
- Was one of seven players in major league history to reach the 30-HR/40-2B/100-RBI/100-R milestones in one season before age 24, joining CLE Hal Trosky (1934, 1936), BOS Ted Williams (1939), SEA Alex Rodriguez (1996), STL Albert Pujols (2001-03) and FLA Miguel Cabrera (2005)...BOS Mookie Betts did it in 2016...remains the only player in Rays history to reach those numbers in any season
- Ranked among AL leaders in RBI (113, 4th), HR (33, tied for 8th), XBH (77, 4th), total bases (307, tied for 7th) and IBB (10, tied for 5th).
- Earned the Rawlings AL Gold Glove Award for 3B...was the youngest to win an AL Gold Glove at any position since OAK Eric Chavez in 2001.
- Earned the AL Silver Slugger Award for 3B, the youngest in either league to win the award in 2009...is one of three Rays to win the award: Carlos Peña in 2007 and Carl Crawford in 2010.
- Was the youngest 3B in either league to win both the Gold Glove and Silver Slugger in the same season since the Silver Slugger Award began in 1980.
- Named AL Player of the Month for April, becoming the first reigning Rookie of the Year from either league to earn Player or Pitcher of the Month honors in April of the following year...hit .369 with 6 HR, 24 RBI, 11 2B and a .714 SLG.
- Named AL Player of the Week three times (April 5-12, April 27–May 3, Aug 31–Sep 6), most of any player in the Majors.
- Hit two HR on Aug 4 vs. BOS, including a 13th-inning walk-off against Takashi Saito...also struck out four times...he and OAK Brandon Moss (2013) are the only players in the live ball era to record 2 HR and 4 SO in the same game.

- Had a 12-game hitting streak Aug 29–Sep 8...included streaks of eight straight games with an RBI, tying a club record, and 8 straight games with an extra-base hit, setting a club record.
- Was elected by the fans as the starting AL third baseman but was unable to play due to an infection on the ring finger of his right hand...finished with the third-most votes among AL players behind NYY Derek Jeter and MIN Joe Mauer...at 23, would have been the youngest player in 11 years to start for the AL (SEA Alex Rodriguez was 22 in 1998).
- Was added to Team USA, replacing Chipper Jones...struck out as a pinch-hitter in his only plate app in USA's 9-4 loss to Japan in the elimination game.
- 2008: Named the 2008 AL Rookie of the Year by the BBWAA...received all 28 first-place votes, becoming the seventh AL rookie to win the award unanimously and first since Nomar Garciaparra in 1997...was the first Ray to win a national BBWAA award.
- On April 18, signed a contract worth a guaranteed $17.5 million over six years and potentially $44 million over nine years.
- Despite missing 30 games with a fractured right wrist, led Major League rookies with 27 HR, 85 RBI, 60 XBH, 238 total bases and a .531 SLG...set Rays rookie records in HR, XBH and SLG.
- His 27 HR were most by an AL rookie since BOS Nomar Garciaparra (30) in 1997...his team-high .531 SLG ranked 8th in the AL.
- Selected from Triple-A Durham on April 12 and joined the Rays in their 11th game...played in every game, mostly batting fifth and cleanup, until he was hit by a pitch from J.J. Putz on Aug 10 at SEA and suffered a fractured right wrist...did not return to the lineup until Sep 13 at NYY.
- His .963 fielding pct. has been topped by only one other AL rookie third baseman since 1966: Akinori Iwamura (.975) with the Rays in 2007...also played his only game at shortstop in his pro career on June 29 vs. CHC after Jason Bartlett was a late scratch.
- Named the team's Outstanding Rookie by the Tampa Bay Chapter of the BBWAA.
- Made his major league debut on April 12 vs. BAL, starting at 3B and batting sixth...went 1-for-3 with a RBI...his first career hit was a 6th-inning RBI single to left off Daniel Cabrera.
- Hit his first career home run on April 14 vs. NYY, a game-tying shot in the 7th inning off Brian Bruney...drew a curtain call as the tail end of back-to-back home runs with Melvin Upton Jr.
- On May 25 vs. BAL, tallied a Rays rookie-record 6 RBI...homered in both the 1st and 2nd innings, his first career multi-HR game.
- Hit 3 HR on Sep 18 vs. MIN, becoming the second Ray ever to hit three in one game, following Jonny Gomes on July 30, 2005 vs. KC...was the first rookie 3B to hit three HR in a game since BOS-NL Eddie Mathews on Sep 27, 1952 at Brooklyn.
- Became one of six Major Leaguers to get an at-bat in the World Series and the All-Star Game as a rookie: NYY Joe DiMaggio (1936), NYY Tom Tresh (1962), BOS Fred Lynn (1975), LAD Steve Sax (1981-82) and NYY Hideki Matsui (2003).
- Named to the AL All-Star Team after winning the "Final Vote" fan ballot with a then-record nine million votes...became the youngest Rays position player ever to make the club...was the third rookie 3B ever to make the AL squad, joining KC Kevin Seitzer (1987) and MIN Rich Rollins (1962).
- Went 1-for-4 with a ground-rule RBI double as he entered the game as a pinch-hitter...plated CLE Grady Sizemore, tying the game at 3-3 and forcing extra innings, and the AL went on to win 4-3 in 15...became the first rookie to collect an RBI in the Midsummer Classic since NYY Tom Tresh in 1962.
- Became the sixth rookie to participate in the Home Run Derby since it began in 1985, and the first Ray...at 22 years, 283 days old, became the youngest participant since SEA Ken Griffey Jr. in 1992 (22 years, 234 days).
- 2007: Played in a total of 171 games in 2007 combining Double-A Montgomery (105), Durham regular season (31) and postseason (8), Arizona Fall League (12) and Team USA (15)...batted a combined .298 (188-for-630) with 42 2B, 33 HR and 115 RBI.
- Named Southern League MVP despite an Aug 1 promotion to Durham...at the time of his transfer was tied for the league lead with 21 HR, still a Montgomery single-season record...led the league with a .518 SLG.
- Hit .375 (12-for-32) for Durham during the postseason.
- In November helped Team USA win their first IBAF World Cup since 1974 as the U.S. ended Cuba's 33-year dominance with a 6-3 win over the Cubans in the gold medal game in Taiwan.

- 2006: Selected by the Rays with the third overall pick in the 2006 June Draft and signed a contract within 20 minutes of his selection...ranked as the top position player and best pure college hitter in the draft by Baseball America.
- Made three stops in his first professional season, spending time at Short-A Hudson Valley, Class-A Visalia and Montgomery...combined at all stops to bat .315 with 14 2B, 18 HR and 58 RBI in 62 games...ranked 4th among Rays farm-hands in home runs despite the short season.
- Made his pro debut with Hudson Valley, hitting .424 (14-for-33)...joined Montgomery on Aug 4, helping the Biscuits down the stretch and through their Southern League championship run.
- Appeared in all 7 Montgomery playoff games batting .345 with three HR, six RBI and eight runs... belted a two-run, two-out, walk-off home run in the 9th inning Sep 9 vs. Jacksonville (Dodgers) to give the Biscuits a 2-0 win and clinch the first-round series sweep.

POSTSEASON CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has appeared in the postseason four times during his 10-year career, most recently in 2013... owns a .191 career postseason batting average with nine homers and 21 RBI.
- 2012: Hit a game-tying three-run homer off BOS Clay Buchholz in the Rays 5-4 win in Game 3 of the ALDS...it came on Oct 7, his 28th birthday...according to SABR's David Vincent, he became the second player in MLB history to hit a postseason homer on his birthday...joined KC Willie Mays Aikens, who hit two HRs on his 26th birthday in Game 1 of the 1980 World Series at PHI... it was his club-record ninth postseason homer, fourth of the game-tying or go-ahead variety.
- 2011: In the ALDS, went 3-for-8 in Games 1 and 2 at Texas and 0-for-7 with 5 SO in Games 3 and 4 at home...in Game 2, hit a three-run homer off Koji Uehara in the 7th inning to trim the Rays deficit to 7-6 in the eventual 8-6 loss.
- 2010: Went 3-for-4 with 2 2B and a 2-run homer the Rays 5-2 win in Game 4 at Texas...his three XBH remained tied for a Division Series record...was 1-for-16 in the other four games of the ALDS.
- 2008: Slugged six HR to set a major league record for a rookie in a single postseason (prev. 4, FLA Miguel Cabrera in 2003)...was the youngest player in major league history to hit six HR or more in a single postseason...turned 23 on Oct 7, between the ALDS and ALCS...4 of his 6 HR came in the ALCS vs. Boston, tying the all-time LCS record at the time...TEX Nelson Cruz broke the record in 2011 with six HR.
- Homered on his first two swings of the postseason, both coming in Game 1 of the ALDS vs. CWS at Tropicana Field...became the second player in MLB history to homer in his first two ABs of the postseason, joining MIN Gary Gaetti in 1987...at age 22, became the third-youngest player at the time to homer twice in a postseason game, behind ATL Andruw Jones in 1996 (19) and NYY Tony Kubek in 1957 (20).
- Combined with Melvin Upton Jr. to hit 13 HR in the postseason, tied for 2nd most of any pair of teammates in major league history (SF Barry Bonds and Rich Aurilia hit 14 in 2002; TEX Nelson Cruz and Adrian Beltre hit 13 in 2011)...8 of the 13 came in the ALCS, most by any duo in a single series in postseason play...he and Upton were also the first teammates under 25 to have multi-homer games in one postseason.
- His four HR in the ALCS came in 4 consecutive games (Games 2-5), tying an LCS record...went back-to-back with Carlos Peña in Game 4 and Game 5, the first time teammates had done it twice in a postseason series.
- Totaled 13 RBI in the postseason, most ever by a rookie...eight of them came in the ALCS, tying CIN Pat Duncan (1919) for most RBI by a rookie in a single postseason series...nine of his 12 postseason hits went for extra bases.

2017 SEASON

- Completed his first season in a Giants uniform, but missed time to the DL with a forearm injury.
- Helped team USA win the WBC after being added to the roster for the semi-finals and finals (0.2ip, 1h, 0r, 1bb).
- Appeared in just 32 games, going 1-2 with a 4.50 ERA (15er, 30.0ip) and was 11-for-16 in save chances.
- Twice spent time on the disabled list with a pronator strain.
- This injury has lingered since 2012...pitched through pain starting in mid August to project leadership and help build team and personal momentum heading into 2018.
- His 30.0ip marked the fewest he threw in a single season since 2010 (21.1ip).
- Opponents hit .301 (37-for-123) off him with 12 extra-base hits.
- Righties were 21-for-58 (.362) off him...prior to 2017 righties had hit just .237 off him.
- Struck out 29 batters in 30.0 ip...his 8.70 K/9.0 ratio was the highest it's been since 2014 (9.00).
- Did not pitch in a save situation over his last 12 games (last save came on June 20 at ATL).
- His five blown saves marked the most he had in a season since 2013 when he went 16-for-21 in save chances.
- Underwent season-ending surgery Sept. 12 to relieve compression in his right forearm... Dr. Steven Shin performed the surgery in Los Angeles.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 2016: Split the season between the Pirates and Nationals, combining for a 2-2 record, a 1.64 ERA and going 47-for-51 in save opportunities in 75 relief appearances.
- Started the season with Pittsburgh and went 1-1 with a 1.51 ERA (7er, 41.2ip) and recorded

NOTES

His name is pronounced "muh-LAN-son".

Married to Mary Catherine...the couple has three children; daughters Brooklyn (Sept. 27, 2011) and Ella Grace (October 17, 2015) and son Jack David (April 19, 2014)

Is a 2003 graduate of Golden (CO) High School, where he played baseball, basketball and football.

Was drafted out of high school by the Dodgers (30th round), but did not sign.

Attended the University of Arizona, where he set school single-season (11 in 2005) and career (18) saves records (both since passed)...also set a freshman team record with 29 appearances in 2004.

Traveled to Auckland, New Zealand as an ambassador for Major League Baseball during the 2011 off-season; also spent time swimming with great white sharks in Southern New Zealand with his wife during the trip (another diver tagged one of the sharks "Melancon" in his honor).

Along with catcher Nick Hundley, his former college teammate, and utility player Chris Woodward, helped run "Training with the Pros" baseball camps and clinics for players from age five and up.

- 30 saves in 33 chances over 45 games.
- The Pirates won 83-consecutive games in which he had a save opportunity.
- Was acquired by Washington from Pittsburgh on July 30...posted a 1-1 record with a 1.82 ERA (6er, 29.2ip) and was 17-for-18 in save opportunities in 30 games with the Nationals.
- His 47 saves overall were tied with Baltimore's Zach Britton and Los Angeles' Kenley Jansen for the second-most in the Majors behind New York's Jeurys Familia (51).
- He ranked third in the National League in save percentage (92.2%) and led all NL relievers with a 1.64 ERA.
- His 5.42 SO/BB ratio ranked as the seventh-best figure among National League relievers.
- Became the first player to ever save 17 games for a team after having recorded 30 saves for another team earlier that season, according to Elias.
- 2015: Had one of the best seasons of his career, going 3-2 with a 2.23 ERA (19er, 76.2ip), while converting 51-of-53 save opportunities in a career-high 78 games for the Pirates.
- Led the Majors in saves (51) and established a Pittsburgh club record in that department.
- His 51 saves tied him with Rod Beck (1998) for the sixth-highest single-season total in National League history; Eric Gagne (2003) and John Smoltz (2002) share the record (55).
- Became just one of 12 pitchers in MLB history to earn 50 or more saves in a season (15th time overall).
- Was the recipient of the Trevor Hoffman National League Reliever-of-the-Year award.
- Was named to his second National League All-Star team (also 2013) and was also selected to The Sporting News N.L. All-Star team.
- Tied the Pirates club record for most saves (29) prior to the All-Star break (also Jason Grilli in 2013).
- Converted a club record 35 straight save opportunities from April 23-Aug. 15.
- Set the Pirates team record for most interleague saves in one season (seven).
- His 76.2 innings pitched were a career-high (previous-high: 74.1 ip in 2011 with Houston).
- Picked up a save in 10 consecutive games from May 22-June 10, matching the Pittsburgh club record held by Salomon Torres (2006) and Mike Williams (2002).
- Set a Pirates club record for most saves (11) in the month of June; the most saves in June by a National League pitcher since Huston Street had 11 with Colorado in 2009.
- Recorded his 100th career save and 30th of the season on July 20 at Kansas City.
- Pitched a career-best 22.1 consecutive scoreless innings between June 7-Aug. 2.
- Picked up his 100th save in a Pirates uniform on Sept. 25; just one of four pitchers in team history with 100 or more saves since saves became an official stat in 1969 (also Kent Tekulve-158, Mike Williams-140 and Dave Giusti-133).
- 2014: Posted a 3-5 record with a 1.90 ERA (15er, 71.0ip) and went 33-for-37 in save chances in 72 games for Pittsburgh.
- His 33 saves ranked eighth in the National League.
- Posted a 0.89 ERA (4er, 40.1ip) and was 20-for-21 in save opportunities over 41 games at PNC Park.
- Served as the Pirates' closer while Jason Grilli was on the D.L. from April 26-May 23 and went 8-for-10 in save opportunities.
- Gave up a solo homer to Lucas Duda in the ninth inning on May 26 at New York-NL, ending his streak of 86.0 innings without allowing a home run, dating back to April 14, 2013.
- Saved 10 games in May, which was tied for most in the Majors with SF's Sergio Romo.
- Took over full-time closer duties when Jason Grilli was traded to the Angels on June 27... converted a season-best 12 consecutive save chances from June 21-Aug. 12.
- Worked 2.0 scoreless innings and earned the win in the 11-inning suspended game on Sept.

NOTES CONTINUED

Spent two weeks conducting baseball clinics in South Africa in December 2013, along with his wife, as an ambassador for MLB.

Participated in the MLB All-Star series against the Japanese National Team in various cities around Japan in November 2014; posted a save and did not surrender a run in his three appearances (3.0ip).

He uses blood analytics to decide which vitamins, minerals, etc., to take. "You can read the science behind each vitamin and mineral, every biomarker that you're testing for and really learn everything about it and understand why it helps you and why you need it."

He is a practitioner of Bikram yoga, the kind done in 105-degree heat for 90 minutes.

He has loved AT&T Park since his first visit as a college student. Arizona was in town to play Cal. "As a bunch of college students, we obviously went with the cheapest seats, but even in the nosebleeds I was blown away by the atmosphere. Just having the park right there on the water, and the view of the Bay, and the packed house...it was one of the neater moments I've experienced at a ballpark as a fan. I can still see that scene in my mind."

IN THE COMMUNITY

Involved with the following organizations: MLB Buses for Baseball, Take Me Out to the Ballgame Ticket Donation Program, Giants Community Fund and Little League Support.

5 at Wrigley Field (completed on Sept. 6)...it marked the first time he worked 2.0 innings in a game since Sept. 8, 2012.

NOTES

Graduated from Rowlett (Texas) High School.

Attended Grayson County College in Texas before transferring to University of Oklahoma.

Was drafted three times. The Brewers selected Okert in the 43rd round of the 2010 draft while he was a starting pitcher at Grayson College in Grayson County, Texas. He declined to sign, and was returned to Grayson for the 2011 season. The Brewers selected him again in 2011, this time in the 33rd round. Okert again turned them down in order to continue his college career.

In 2012, he transferred to the University of Oklahoma, where his draft stock would skyrocket...in his only season as a Sooner, he pitched primarily out of the bullpen, making 25 of 30 appearances as a reliever. In 85.0 innings, he posted a 9-8 record with 78 strikeouts and a 3.07 ERA.

The Giants rewarded him by drafting him in the fourth round in 2012.

NOTES

Married (Jessica - Dec. 6, 2014).

Graduated from Bishop Kelly High School (Boise, ID). Ranked No. 2 among Idaho/Montana's top 30 players in High School class of 2007 by Baseball Northwest.

Earned Pitcher of the Year honors twice as well as Gatorade Player of the Year. Was 8-2 with 124 strikeouts as a senior, just a year after going 9-1 with 110 Ks.

Was a superstar athlete in HS, earning Most Athletic at Bishop Kelly High. Lettered three years in baseball (pitcher and center field), two in football (linebacker) and one in basketball.

Turning point in his baseball life: At Oregon State, he had ulnar nerve surgery his sophomore year then Tommy John surgery as a junior. He missed the whole season. Osich attended every practice and game, turning himself into a student of the game. He found himself mentoring and advising younger players, becoming a kind of junior coach.

Despite his injury, the Angels drafted him in the seventh round in 2010, but he returned to OSU for his senior year in 2011 as a starting pitcher. He finished rehabbing his arm in February of that year and threw a no-hitter against UCLA in April, striking out 13. Then had shoulder issues.

Graduated in four years and earned a degree in sociology with a focus on criminal justice.

His bad luck with injuries followed him into the minor leagues - Ulnar-nerve surgery, 2009, 2010 Tommy John (surgery), 2011 torn sub-scapula muscle in shoulder, 2012 impingement, 2013 radial-nerve injury, 2014 another impingement.

NOTES

Graduate of Colonial Forge (VA) High School. Named first-team All-Commonwealth District and second-team All-State as a senior (2007).

Holds 14 school records at Colonial Forge including home runs (21), runs (67), slugging pct. (1.053), on-base pct. (.613) and single-season RBI (32).

Attended the University of Virginia and was named All-ACC as a freshman in 2008. Enjoyed a breakthrough season as a sophomore in 2009, batting .355 with a team-high 16 home runs to help lead UVA to the 2009 College World Series.

In fall ball of his freshman year he hit .100. He took a summer job working Virginia baseball camps at Davenport Field at UVA, supplemented with a slate of summer school classes and a regular date with the weights inside the team's clubhouse. He put on 20 pounds and found a way to let struggles roll off his back. He set the single-season runs record for UVA with 76 his sophomore year.

Started 331 consecutive games from Aug. 1, 2012 to Sept. 28, 2014, the third-longest streak in Giants history

NOTES

Married Alexis Cozombolidis on Nov. 26, 2016.

Graduated from Arlington High School (TX).

Played ball at Texarkana Junior College then moved on to the University of Texas-Arlington after Don Werner, a minor-league coach whose son played with Hunter convinced the coach at UTA to give Pence a shot. In his sophomore year, he hit .400 toward the end of the season, did the same in a summer league and was told, for the first time, that he might just have a future in baseball. In 2004, the Astros didn't have a first-round pick, but they selected Pence in the next round, taking other teams by surprise.

Attended the University of Texas-Arlington, where he majored in finance.

- Began the 2015 season on the 15-day disabled list...missed the first 36 games of the season with a fractured left forearm that he suffered in the Giants' third spring training game on March 5 after getting hit by Cubs' RHP Corey Black.
- Had his 383 consecutive games streak end with him beginning the season on the DL...his streak marked the third-longest in Giants franchise history, behind Bill Terry (468, 1930-1933) and George Burns (459, 1915-1917)...his consecutive games streak started on Aug. 1, 2012.
- Was activated from the DL May 16.
- Was out of the Giants' lineup for nine days before the team put him on the 15-day DL on June 12 because of tendinitis in his left wrist...suffered the injury while making a diving catch on the Pirates' McCutchen on June 1...was activated from the 15-day disabled list July 7 after having missed 30 games.
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list again Aug. 20 (retroactive to Aug. 18) with a moderate oblique strain, an injury suffered on his final at-bat Aug. 17 at St. Louis...he did not appear in another game the rest of the season.

- 2014: The 2014 All-Star batted .277 with a career-high 106 runs scored along with 29 doubles, 10 triples, 20 home runs and 74 RBI in 162 games.
- Among NL leaders in runs (second), triples (tied for second), hits (third), total bases (fourth, 289) and multi-hit games (fourth).
- Became third SF player in last 10 seasons with 100+ runs scored (also: Barry Bonds, 129 in 2004, Aubrey Huff, 100 in 2010).
- Became the first Giant to have over 700 plate appearances in a season since Brett Butler in 1990 (732)...in fact, became just the fifth Giant in SF-era history with over 700 plate appearances in a season, joining Willie Mays (706 - 1962), Bobby Bonds (3 times - 1969 - 720, 1970 - 745, 1973 - 738), Tito Fuentes (1973 - 731), and Chili Davis (1982 - 701).
- Was one of four players to appear in all 162 games, joining KC's Alcides Escobar, ATL's Freddie Freeman, TB's Evan Longoria.
- Was the most durable player on SF's roster, starting all but one game...played all but 23 defensive innings.
- His 331 consecutive games starts streak ended on the second-to-last-day of the season (Sept. 27) to rest...Pence's streak began Sept. 25, 2012 and had been the longest active streak in the bigs.
- Only one other player in the last 45 years has started 300+ consecutive games in right field... Jeff Francoeur started 370 in a row for the Braves from 2005-2008.

- 2013: Won the "Willie Mac" Award, given to the team's most inspirational player, as voted by players, coaches, trainers, fans and Willie McCovey.
- Became the seventh Giant to hit at least 20 HRs and steal 20 bases in a season and the first since Barry Bonds in 1998 (the others: Bobby Bonds, Willie Mays, Jeffrey Leonard, Glenallen Hill and Orlando Cepeda).
- Joined Los Angeles' (AL) Mike Trout as the only players in the Majors to hit 20-plus home runs, steal 20-plus bases and record 90-plus RBI in 2013.
- In fact, the only players in SF-era history to accomplish the feat of 20 HRs, 20 steals and 90 RBI are Willie Mays, Orlando Cepeda, Bobby Bonds, Barry Bonds and Hunter Pence.
- Started every one of the Giants' 162 games and became the first Giants player in the SF-era (since 1958) to start every regular season game in a season, and the first since Alvin Dark started all 154 games for the New York Giants in 1954.
- Also became the first Giants player since Bobby Thomson to start every game of a season in the outfield...Thomson started all 156 games in center field during the 1949 season for the New York Giants.
- Became the first NL player to start all 162 games in the field (not at DH) since Prince Fielder with the Milwaukee Brewers in 2009...was also the first Major League outfielder to start 162 games since Jeff Francoeur with the Atlanta Braves in 2007.
- Was one of five players selected by Manager Bruce Bochy to be on the final ballot for the All-Star Game...joined the Dodgers Yasiel Puig and Adrian Gonzalez, Nationals' Ian Desmond and Atlanta's Freddie Freeman...however, lost out to Freeman.
- Recorded his 1,000th career hit April 9, 2013 with a single in the 6th inning off RHP Matt Belisle.
- Hit the longest home run of his career on Aug. 27, 2013 at COL, hitting a 476-foot two-run shot to left-field off RHP Chad Bettis...marked the second-longest homer in the Majors during 2013 (ATL's Evan Gattis, 486 feet).

NOTES CONTINUED

He works just as hard on his mind as on his body. He reads books on psychology, philosophy and spirituality.

Big fan of video games -- says it helps him in baseball. His closest friends are guys he played baseball with in high school and who now run the Hunter Pence Baseball Academy in Houston.

- Recorded a career high seven RBI on Sept. 14, 2013 at Los Angeles...all of Pence's seven RBI were recorded in the first 5.0 innings and according to Elias, he is only the third Giants player since 1958 to drive in seven runs by the end of the 5th...Jeff Kent drove in seven in the first 4.0 innings against CIN on July 24, 1998, and Jim Ray Hart had seven in the first 5.0 frames July 8, 1970 at ATL.
- During SF's four game series against the Dodgers from Sept. 12-15, 2013, he hit .471 (8-for-17) with five HRs and 12 RBI...became the first Giants player since Willie Mays in 1965 to homer in every game of a four-game series against the Dodgers...his 12 RBI tied Dick Dietz for the most in a single series by a Giants player in SF-era history (since 1958).
- Was named the NL Player of the Week for Sept. 9-15, 2013 after hitting .448 with six home runs and 19 RBI.
- Was named NL Player of the Month for Sept. as his 11 HRs were tied for the most in the league and his 32 RBI led the National League.
- Signed a five year contract extension through 2018 with the Giants on the final day of the 2013 season.
- 2012: Was a trade deadline acquisition for the Giants to help bolster the offense...hit .219 with 28 runs, 11 2Bs, two 3Bs, seven HRs and 45 RBI in 59 games for SF.
- Was acquired by the Giants from the Phillies on July 31, 2012 in exchange for OF Nate Schierholtz, minor league C Tommy Joseph and minor league RHP Seth Rosin.
- Posted the first 100+ RBI season of his career and ranked fifth in the NL in RBI.
- 2011: Split time between Houston & Philadelphia after being traded from the Astros July 29.
- Was named to his second career NL All-Star team in 2011.
- Recorded a career-best 23-game hitting streak from May 19-June 13, going 39-for-96 (.406) with four HRs and 19 RBI.
- 2009: Was selected to his first All-Star team as he set a career-high playing in 159 games.
- Led all ML outfielders in assists with 16...marked the second-consecutive season he led the NL.
- 2007: Had his contract purchased from triple-A Round Rock on April 27 and made his Major League debut on April 28 vs. Milwaukee and went 1-for-3.
- Hit his first career home run off of Dennis Dove on May 5 at St. Louis, which was a grand slam.
- Was named NL Rookie of the Month for May and NL Co-Player of the Week for May 14-20.
- Was leading the NL in avg. (.342) at the All-Star break to become the first rookie to do so in either league since 1957, when classifications for rookies were established.
- Went on the 15-day DL, July 23-Aug. 21 with a right wrist capsular sprain with a small chip fracture...missed 27 games.
- 2006: Was selected for the All-Star Futures Game in Pittsburgh and the Texas League All-Star Game.
- 2005: Was named South Atlantic League Rookie of the Year and team MVP after ranking fourth in the SAL with 25 HRs.

POSTSEASON CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has been a part of four postseason teams (2011 Phillies, 2012, 2014 and 2016 Giants)...owns two World Series rings with San Francisco.
- Has hit .254 with two home runs and 16 RBI in 43 career postseason games.
- 2016: Was just 4-for-22 (.182) with one run scored over five postseason contests.
- 2014: Hit .333 (22-for-66) with six doubles, a home run and eight RBI in 17 games...his 12 runs scored were the fourth-most in a single postseason in Giants history behind Barry Bonds (18 in 2002), Kenny Lofton (16 in 2002) and Rich Aurilia (13 in 2002).
- Hit .444 (12-for-27) in the World Series with three doubles, a home run, five RBI and seven runs scored...his .444 avg. in this series was tied for the third-highest in a single World Series among players with at least 25 at-bats.
- His 12 hits in the World Series were tied with Pablo Sandoval (2014) and Buck Herzog (1912) for the most ever by a Giants' player in a single World Series.
- Reached base safely in 20-consecutive postseason games from Game 2 of the 2012 World Series vs. Detroit- Game 7 of the 2014 World Series vs. Kansas City.
- 2012: In his second career taste of the postseason, he batted .210 (13-for-62) with one home run and four RBI in 16 games.
- Lit a fire under the Giants with a pre-game speech before Game 3 of the Division Series at Cincinnati that ignited a comeback that will go down as one of the best in baseball history.
- 2011: Started all five of the Phillies' postseason games and batted .211 (4-for-19).

2017 SEASON

- Batted .320 with 34 doubles, 12 home runs and 67 RBI in 140 games.
- Won his fourth Silver Slugger Award.
- His .320 batting avg. was the fifth-highest figure in the National League...became just the 11th catcher in NL history with at least four career seasons batting .300 or better.
- Finished with a .400 on-base pct., marking the second time he's accomplished the feat in his career (2012 - .408 OBP).
- Became the first Giants player to record 150+ hits in six consecutive seasons since Will Clark did so from 1987-1992 (Stats, LLC).
- Started the All-Star Game and became the first NL catcher to make three straight All-Star starts since Hall of Famer Mike Piazza made six straight from 1994-99.
- Started 133 games (96 at catcher, 30 at first base and seven as the DH).
- Hit .345 at home, which ranked as the third-highest in the National League.
- Left the game in the 1st inning on April 10 vs. Arizona (Home Opener) after getting hit in the head by a 93.4 MPH fastball thrown by RHP Taijuan Walker...was placed on the seven-day disabled list the next day with concussion symptoms...was reinstated on April 18.
- Cracked a home run in the 17th inning to bring an end to a marathon game in San Francisco, with the Giants going home as 3-2 winners over the Reds on May 12...it was the latest inning for a walk-off homer in Giants history.
- Reached base safely in each of his first 37 road games, one of the longest streaks to start a season by any NL player in the last 100 years.
- Stole home in the 6th inning on Sept. 8 at Chicago-AL.
- Was named the Giants' nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award, which honors a player for his community philanthropy.
- Helped Team USA win the WBC, batting .267 (4-for-15) with two home runs.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 2016: Was named to his fourth All-Star team and his third as the NL's starting catcher.
- Hit a pair of three-run HRs on May 28 at Colorado, both of which have given the Giants the lead (first and eighth innings)...marked his third career multi-homer game and it was just the fifth time in SF-era history (since 1958) that a Giants catcher had driven in six-or-more runs in a game.
- Recorded his 1,000th career hit on Sept. 27 when he homered in the fifth inning...he became the first Giants player with 1,000 hits all in a Giants uniform since Rich Aurilia in 2003.
- 2015: Posted another stellar season, batting .318 with 28 doubles, 19 home runs and 95 RBI in 150 games.
- Won his third Silver Slugger award.
- Made 143 starts (103 at catcher, 37 at 1st base and three as DH).
- Was selected to his third All-Star Game and second as a starter...received more than 9.9 million votes.
- Became the Giants' first three-time All-Star catcher since Walker Cooper in 1946-48...the only other Giants catcher with three All-Star nods in a Giants uniform was Harry Danning (1939, 1940, 1941).
- Among NL leaders he finished fourth in batting avg. (.318), tied for fifth in hits (177), sixth in on-base pct. (.379), ninth in RBI (95).
- Reached base safely via hit, walk or hit by pitch in a career-best 27 games from April 25-May 27.
- Caught Chris Heston's no-hitter on June 9 at New York-NL...according to Elias, he became one of three catchers to catch three no-hitters and win three World Series titles...the other two are Bill Carrigan (1912 to 1916) and Yogi Berra (which includes catching Don Larsen's perfect game in the World Series).
- Hit his fourth career grand slam June 24 off SD's RHP Ian Kennedy...it was his second grand slam in a five game span...according to Elias, the last Giants player to hit two grand slams in a period of five games or fewer was Chris Speier, who hit two in five games from May 5-9, 1987.
- Hit his 100th career home run Sept. 6 at Colorado off LHP Yohan Flande...joined Tom Haller (107) as the only catchers in Giants franchise history to hit at least 100 home runs.
- 2014: Finished fourth in the NL in batting average behind COL's Justin Morneau (.319), PIT's Josh Harrison (.315) and Andrew McCutchen (.314)...also ranked fourth in batting average w/RISP (.346), eighth in slugging pct. (.490) and tied for ninth in RBI.
- Led the Majors with a .348 batting average on the road...Barry Bonds was the last Giants player to pace the big leagues in road batting average when he hit .386 in 2002.

Named NL Player of the Month: July 2010.

Named NL Rookie of the Month: July 2010.

Named NL Player of the Week three times: July 5-11, 2010, June 24-30, 2013, Sept. 1-7, 2014.

Became the third catcher taken by SF with their number one pick (others: Dave Rader in 1967 and Bob Cummings in 1978).

Became the fifth catcher to win the MVP award, joining Johnny Bench (1970, 1972), Roy Campanella (1951, 1953, 1955), Ernie Lombardi (1938) and Gabby Hartnett (1935).

In 2012 he became the first player since Frank Robinson to win a league MVP award, batting title and World Series in the same season.

Posey, Yogi Berra (1951 Yankees) and Roy Campanella (1955 Dodgers) are the only catchers to win a World Series and MVP in the same season.

Is one of 17 catchers in MLB history to have caught three-or-more no-hitters.

Is one of three catchers to catch three no hitters and win three World Series titles, joining Bill Carrigan (1911-1916) and Yogi Berra (1951-1956).

Is the only player in franchise history to start four All-Star games (2012, 2015, 2016, 2017).

His 53 postseason games are the most in Giants franchise history, while his 23 postseason RBI are also the highest total in franchise history.

Has started 780 games behind the plate, the second most all-time in franchise history, behind Gus Mancuso (800).

Is one of 10 players to have at least 1,100 hits all-time with the Giants since 1958.

NOTES

Married (Kristen, Jan. 2009). Kristen gave birth to twins, Lee Dempsey & Addison Lynn Aug. 14, 2011.

Was named AFLAC All-American following his senior season at FSU while being named the nation's 18th-best prospect by Prospects Plus...was Georgia Gatorade Player of Year and Louisville Slugger State Player of Year.

Capped one of greatest seasons in FSU history, winning the 2008 Golden Spikes Award, which is emblematic of the top amateur player in the country. Became the third Giant to receive the honor, joining Tim Lincecum (2006) & Will Clark (1985).

Won every major Player of Year award in 2008, winning the Dick Howser Trophy and Brooks Wallace Award, while claiming the Johnny Bench Award for the nation's top collegiate catcher. Was also named Player of Year by Collegiate Baseball, Baseball America and Rivals.com. Finished '08 season as the national leader in six offensive categories, including batting avg. (.463), hits (119), RBI (93), total bases (226), slugging pct. (.879) and on-base pct. (.566).

Played all nine positions during one game vs. Savannah State. Also hit a grand slam in the second inning. He used four different gloves.

Was drafted out of HS by the Angels in the 50th round of the 2005 First-Year Player Draft, but did not sign.

- Hit .347 with a .899 OPS as a first baseman (30 starts) compared to a .305 clip and .849 OPS as a catcher (109 starts).
- Started 141 games, 109 at catcher, 30 at first base and two as the designated hitter.
- Had some back issues that led to fatigue in his legs earlier in the season and hit .259 with seven HRs, 25 RBI in April-May.
- However, had the highest batting avg. in the Majors after the All-Star break, hitting .354 with 12 HRs, 43 RBI in 62 games.

- 2013: Signed a nine-year contract (eight-year extension) through 2021 with an option for 2022 on March 29...marked the longest contract in Giants history.
- Was selected to his second-consecutive All-Star Game, via the player ballot.
- Became the 48th catcher to catch multiple no-hitters when he caught Tim Lincecum's no-no on July 13 at San Diego.
- Suffered a small fracture on the tip of his right finger and missed four games from Sept. 4-7, 2013...was struck on his bare hand Sept. 3 when a pitch from Madison Bumgarner bounced off the plate...impact of pitch ripped half his fingernail.

- 2012: Was named NL Most Valuable player after batting .336 with 78 runs scored, 39 doubles, 24 home runs and 103 RBI while posting a .408 on-base pct., .549 slugging pct. and a .957 OPS.
- Was listed first on 27 ballots, second on four and third on one of the 32 ballots submitted by two writers representing each league city to score 422 points, based on a tabulation system rewarding 14 points for first place, nine for second, eight for third and on down to one for 10th.
- Became the fifth catcher to win the MVP award, joining Johnny Bench (1970, 1972), Roy Campanella (1951, 1953, 1955), Ernie Lombardi (1938) and Gabby Hartnett (1935).
- At 25 years old, was the youngest player to win an MVP award since Ryan Sandberg in 1984.
- Became the first player since Frank Robinson to win a league MVP award, batting title and World Series in the same season...Robinson accomplished the feat with the Orioles in 1966...five players registered that had trick prior to Robinson: Dick Groat (1960 Pirates), Mickey Mantle (1956 Yankees), Willie Mays (1954 Giants), Stan Musial (1946 Cardinals) and Joe DiMaggio (1939 Yankees) (Elias).
- Posey, Yogi Berra (1951 Yankees) and Roy Campanella (1955 Dodgers) are the only catchers to win a World Series and MVP award in the same season (Elias).
- It was the 13th time a Giants player had been honored and the first since Barry Bonds in 2004.
- Joined Willie Mays and Willie McCovey as the only Giants to win Rookie of the Year and a MVP award in franchise history.
- Is one of only three catchers to win Rookie of the Year, MVP and a World Series in their careers, joining Johnny Bench and Thurman Munson... Posey, Willie Mays and Willie McCovey are the only Giants to accomplish that trio of feats.
- Won Rookie of Year Award in 2010 & became the 14th former winner to be elected MVP.
- Became the 18th player to win both the NL batting title and NL MVP in the same season.
- Joined Mays (1954) and Barry Bonds (2002, 2004) as the only Giants players to win a NL batting title and a MVP award.
- Won the NL batting title, leading the league with a .336 avg. (also led Majors)...became the

Jeff Torborg	1965, 1970, 1973
Jason Varitek	2001, 2002, 2007, 2008

*Carlos Ruiz and Jason Varitek are the only two catchers in MLB history to have caught four no-hitters first catcher to win the NL batting title in 70 years, since Ernie Lombardi did so with the Boston Braves in 1942.

- Joined Lombardi and Eugene Franklin "Bubbles" Hargrave as the only catchers in the league's history to win a batting title.
- Became the first Giant to win the batting crown since Barry Bonds in 2004 (.362) & became the seventh player in Giants franchise history to lead the league in batting average.
- Won title after rule change making the final sentence of Rule 10.22(a) inapplicable to Melky Cabrera, who finished one plate appearance shy of qualifying due to his suspension (the stricken sentence would have allowed Cabrera, because of the size of his lead over his nearest competitor, to win the title though finishing with fewer than the requisite 502 PAs.
- His 103 RBI were the most driven in by a Giant since Jeff Kent had 108 RBI in 2002.
- Only players in Giants franchise history (since 1900) to drive in 100+ runs in a season with their primary position being catcher was Walker Cooper in 1947 (122 RBI) & Dick Dietz in 1970 (107).
- Joined Dick Dietz (22 HRs in 1970) and Tom Haller (26 in 1966) as the only Giants players with 20+ home runs "as a catcher" only since 1958.
- Was named an All-Star for the first time in his career, being named the starting catcher for the NL squad...registered 7,621,370 votes, setting the highest total by an NL player in ML history.
- 2011: In his second full big league season Posey was limited to 45 games after a devastating injury in May ended his season.
- Was placed on the disabled list on May 26 with a fractured bone in his lower left leg...suffered the injury the night before in a collision at home plate with Florida's Scott Cousins, who crashed into Posey as he was trying to block the winning run in the 12th inning...Posey was receiving the throw from right fielder Nate Schierholtz on Emilio Bonifacio's sacrifice fly to medium right field when he had dropped the throw right before Cousins went shoulder-first into him and his left cleat appeared to stick in the infield dirt while the rest of his body was hurled sideways...Giants trainers Dave Groeschner and Mark Gruesbeck helped carry him off the field...the manner in which Cousins hit Posey sparked conversation about rule changes for months.
- Underwent three MRI's – first on his ankle, second on his lower leg & the third on his knee...results showed torn ligaments in his ankle, fractured fibula in his lower left leg & nothing on his knee.
- Underwent successful surgery May 29 to repair torn ligaments in his left ankle...had two screws inserted in his leg in a 90-minute procedure that was performed at a medical facility in Burlingame by team orthopedist Ken Akizuki and Giants podiatry specialist Larry Oloff, along with Michael Dillingham, a former 49ers physician who had extensive experience with traumatic injuries.
- Had successful surgery on July 22 to remove screws from his left ankle.
- Made first career Opening Day roster and became youngest Giants starting catcher at 24 years and four days old since Tom Haller was 23 years and 292 days old when he started for SF in 1961.
- 2010: Named National League winner of Jackie Robinson Rookie of Year Award, becoming sixth player to earn honor in Giants franchise history.
- Won the ROY Award with 129 points, receiving 20 first-place votes, nine second-place votes and two third-place votes.

- Became the sixth Giant and first in 35 years to win the award, which was established in 1947...joined Willie Mays (1951), Orlando Cepeda (1958), Willie McCovey (1959), Gary Matthews (1973) and John Montefusco (1975).
- Became the sixth NL catcher to be honored Rookie of Year, joining Johnny Bench (1968), Earl Williams (1971), Benito Santiago (1987), Mike Piazza (1993) and Geovanny Soto (2008).
- Became the first Rookie of the Year winner to also become World Series champion in same season since Boston's Dustin Pedroia in 2007...the last NL player to do it was Florida's Dontrelle Willis in 2003.
- With Posey winning ROY, it snapped a 35-year drought for the Giants organization, which had been the longest span without a rookie award for NL team.
- Joined Texas' Neftali Feliz (AL Rookie of Year) as the third pair of players named ROY in their respective leagues after appearing in that year's World Series...previous pairs were Willie Mays and Gil McDougald in 1951 (Giants and Yankees) and Dave Righetti and Fernando Valenzuela in 1981 (Yankees and Dodgers).
- Named to Topps' ML Rookie AS team.
- Solidified his status as the Giants' most heralded position playing prospect since Matt Williams in 1987 after batting .305 with 23 doubles, 18 HRs and 67 RBI in 108 games for SF in 2010.
- His .305 batting avg. was third-highest for any player who started at least 50 games at catcher in his rookie season, behind Mike Piazza's .318 clip with LA-NL in 1993 and Ronny Paulino's .310 mark with PIT in 2006 (Elias).
- His 67 RBI were fifth-most by Giants rookie since 1958 and most since Chili Davis had 76 in 1982...his 18 homers were tied for fifth-most by a Giants rookie since '58 and most since Davis had 25 in '82.
- Missed the first two months in the big leagues as he was playing for triple-A Fresno, and wasn't the number one catcher until July 1, 2010.
- In his season debut on May 29 vs. Arizona, had three RBI singles in four at-bats to help the Giants earn a 12-1 victory.
- Earned NL Player of the Week honors from July 5-11, 2010, hitting .556 (15-for-27) with five HRs and 14 RBI.
- Posted a career-best 21-game hitting streak from July 4-28, batting .440 with six HRs and 23 RBI...in his first 10 games of the streak, Posey had 19 hits, six HRs and 13 RBI - no rookie in NL history ever had those numbers for any 10-game stretch.
- His 21-game hit streak marked the second-longest hit streak by a rookie in SF-era history, behind Hall of Famer Willie McCovey's 22-game hit streak in 1959.
- Became the seventh player in SF-era history to have a hit streak of 20-or-more games and his 21-gamer tied Robby Thompson for the fifth-longest in SF history...also became just the 21st Major League catcher to post a hit streak of 20+ and only the second to accomplish the feat as a rookie, joining Benito Santiago (34-straight games in 1987).
- Was named NL Player of the Month, NL Rookie of the Month and was named winner of "Major League Baseball's Clutch Performer of the Month", all for July 2010...finished with a NL-leading 43 hits and ranked third with a .417 avg., tied for third with 24 RBI, fourth with a .466 on-base pct. and fifth in the league with a .699 slugging mark.
- Became the first Giants player with at least 40-or-more hits in a single month since Randy Winn had 46 in August of 2008...his 43 hits in July were the most in one calendar month by a Giants rookie, surpassing Jim Ray Hart, who had 42 in July 1964...his seven HRs were also most in one calendar month by a Giants rookie since Jack Clark hit seven in 1977.
- Began the year at triple-A Fresno to catch more innings and get consistent at-bats...with injuries to Mark DeRosa and Edgar Renteria, a window of opportunity opened for Posey to get at-bats at the Major-League level and he was called up to the big leagues on May 29.
- Played the majority of his games at first base (23 starts at first in 26 games), pushing Aubrey Huff to outfield, however, the trade of Bengie Molina to Texas on July 1 cleared an everyday catching job...at time of trade, Molina was hitting just .257 with a .312 on-base pct. and had been battling a sore left elbow.
- Hit first big league homer off Reds pitcher Aaron Harang at Great American Ball Park June 9.
- Hit his first career grand slam and posted his first multi-homer contest on July 7 at Milwaukee...hit a two-run home run off Chris Narveson in the first inning, capping frame that included three home runs by Giants...Posey's grand slam came in SF's seven-run 4th inning and came against LHP Chris Capuano...became the first Giants rookie to have at least four hits, two homers and six RBI in a game since Willard Marshall on May 15, 1942 vs. Cincinnati.

- 2009: One of San Francisco's prized young players, Posey made quick strides in just his two minor league seasons, finishing the year with San Francisco.
- Had his contract purchased from triple-A Fresno on Sept. 2 and appeared in seven games for the Giants, going 2-for-17 (.118)...made four starts, all at catcher and caught 40.0 innings overall.
- Upon hearing of his call-up to Majors, caught an early flight at dawn out of Las Vegas with teammate Dan Runzler and landed in Philadelphia at 3 p.m. local time Sept. 2...his call-up was somewhat of a surprise, however, with catcher Bengie Molina missing time with a strained upper right quad, the Giants had no choice but to add Posey to the big league roster as an insurance option.
- After hitting a combined .325 with 18 HRs and 80 RBI in his first full season between Class A Advanced San Jose and triple-A Fresno, Posey finally got his first Major League at-bat on Sept. 11 in a 10-3 loss to the Dodgers in Los Angeles, when he entered the game as a late defensive insertion and struck out in his lone plate appearance against Hiroki Kuroda.
- Collected first ML hit in his third career at-bat on Sept. 19 at Los Angeles-NL, with a bloop single to RF off Jeff Weaver.
- Caught Randy Johnson Sept. 25, 2009 vs. Chicago-NL, which was largest age difference between a pitcher and catcher since Jesse Orosco and Rob Bowen threw together Sept. 27, 2003 (23 years and 309 days)...the age difference between Posey and Johnson was 23 years and 198 days (Sports Features Group).
- Prior to his promotion to the big league club, spilt year between Class A Advanced San Jose and triple-A Fresno...began year at SJ, hitting .326 with 23 2Bs, 13 HRs and 58 RBI in 80 contests, helping the Giants win the first half title in the CAL North Division with a 42-28 (.600) record...the Giants later went on to win the California League Championship.
- After earning CAL mid-season All-Star honors, Posey skipped double-A and made the jump to triple-A, being promoted July 14.
- Was scheduled to be promoted, however was hit in the head with a pitch by Stockton's Craig Italiano on June 26, and missed five games.

POSTSEASON CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has already won three titles in his first six big league seasons with the Giants (2010, 2012, 2014).
- Became the first player to win the Rookie of the Year Award, MVP and three World Series titles prior to his 28th birthday (Elias).
- His 53 postseason games are the most in Giants franchise history.
- 2016: Recorded his 22nd postseason RBI in Game 3 of the NLDS, passing Barry Bonds for the highest total in franchise history.
- 2014: Went 17-for-69 (.246) in 17 postseason games...all 17 of his hits were singles.
- 2012: Helped lead the Giants to their second World Series title in three seasons.
- His biggest contribution came in Game 5 of the Division Series at Cincinnati in which he hit the 54th grand slam in postseason history and the third in Giants history to help SF become the first team in ML history to overcome a 2-0 deficit in the division series...his second career grand slam off Mat Latos put the Giants up 6-0 in the 5th and sparked the Giants dugout.
- Joined Will Clark (Game 1 of 1989 NLCS) and Chuck Hiller (Game 4 of 1962 WS) as only Giants with grand slams in the postseason (Brandon Crawford then hit one in the wild-card game at Pittsburgh on Oct. 1, 2014).
- Became fourth player in ML history to hit a grand slam in a "winner-take-all" postseason game, joining Johnny Damon (2004 ALCS), Troy O'Leary (1999 ALDS) and Bill Skowron (1956 WS).
- 2010: Posey became just the fifth NL Rookie of the Year to help his team win the World Series.
- Led the Giants in hits in the first round win over Atlanta in the Division Series, going 6-for-16 (.375), which marked the seventh-highest avg. by a rookie in the DS (min. 10 PAs).

Select Company

Buster Posey became the first player since Frank Robinson to win a league MVP award, batting title and World Series in the same season. The full list is below (courtesy of Elias).

Buster Posey, Giants	2012

- Became the first rookie catcher in Major League history to bat cleanup in a post-season game, batting fourth in Game 1 of the 2010 Division Series vs. Atlanta on Oct. 7 (Elias).
- Posey and Braves catcher Brian McCann became only the fourth pair of catchers to start and bat cleanup in the same postseason contest...others were Yogi Berra and Roy Campanella (1953 and 1955 World Series), Johnny Bench and Manny Sanguillen (1970 NLCS), and Bench and Carlton Fisk (Games 5 and 6 of 1975 World Series (Elias)).
- Hit safely in all five games of the 2010 World Series vs. Texas, batting .300 (6-for-20) with a homer and two RBI...hit a solo home run off Darren O'Day in Game 4, becoming the fourth rookie catcher ever to hit a home run in a World Series game, joining Wally Schang (1913 Philadelphia Athletics), Bill DeLancey (1934 Cardinals) and Rod Barajas (2001 Diamondbacks).
- Became youngest Giants player to hit a homer in a World Series contest at 23 years and 219 days... previous youngest was Matt Williams (23 years, 333 days) in Game 3 of 1989 WS vs. Oakland.
- On Oct. 31, 2010 at Texas, Posey joined teammate Madison Bumgarner as the first all-rookie starting battery in a World Series game since Spec Shea and Yogi Berra started for Yankees in Game 1 of 1947 World Series.

Has one brother, Sam, older by four years. The two are very close. Sam works for the agency that represents Jeff.
Lives in Arizona in the off-season. Likes classic rock, the outdoors, surfing, Oakland Raiders.

- Was masterful on June 17, tossing a complete-game four-hitter as the Giants defeated the Rays 5-1...he was one strike away from a shutout when Brad Miller drilled a 3-2 pitch for a shutout-spoiling homer.
- Had the longest no-hit bid of his career on Aug. 21 vs. New York-NL, tossing 6.0-hitless innings until a leadoff double by Curtis Granderson to start the seventh inning snapped his streak.
- 2015: Led the Sox in innings pitched (214.1) and tied with Jose Quintana for the team lead in starts...his 163 strikeouts were the fewest since becoming a full-time starter.
- Became one of eight pitchers to record 30-plus starts, 200.0-plus innings and 160-plus strikeouts every season since 2013, joining Madison Bumgarner, Cole Hamels, Felix Hernandez, Jon Lester, Jose Quintana, Max Scherzer and James Shields.
- Made his third straight Opening Day start (also Cubs in 2013-14) in his White Sox debut on April 6 at KC.
- Joined RHP Jaime Navarro (Cubs in 1996; White Sox in 1997-98) as the only pitchers to make an Opening Day start for both the Sox and Cubs.
- Was ejected following the 7th inning on April 23 vs. KC after the White Sox and Royals were involved in an on-field altercation...the ejection was the first of his career...received a five-game suspension from MLB for his actions (appealed suspension).
- Threw his second career shutout and sixth complete game on July 9 vs. Toronto...surrendered just four hits (all singles) and did not give up a hit until the 6th inning...was the first Sox to hold the opponent hitless through the first five innings in consecutive starts since Chris Sale from April 17-May 22, 2014.
- Threw his seventh career complete game and third shutout on Sept. 21 at Detroit...allowed one hit, threw 88 pitches, faced 28 batters and did not go to a three-ball count...Victor Martinez's leadoff single in 5th inning was the only hit.
- His 88 pitches were the fewest in a 9.0-inning complete game in baseball in 2015 and were the fewest by a White Sox pitcher in a shutout since at least 1988, when pitch counts were first officially tracked (Elias).
- Became the first pitcher to throw a shutout with four or fewer hits allowed after surrendering 10-plus runs in his previous start since the White Sox Bill Dietrich, who no-hit the St. Louis Browns on June 1, 1937 (Elias).
- 2014: Combined to go 7-13 with a 2.99 ERA, 202 strikeouts and a .234 opponents average over 33 starts between Chicago and Oakland.
- Recorded career highs in innings pitched (219.2) and strikeout-to-walk ratio (4.70) and career lows in opponents on-base pct. (.279) and walks per 9.0ip (1.76)...matched his career highs in starts (33), losses (13) and complete games (two).
- Became just the sixth pitcher since 1919 to own a winning pct. of .350 or less with a sub-.300 ERA (.350, 2.99), joining Al Benton (1942, .350, 2.90), Don Cardwell (1968, .350, 2.96), Sammy Stewart (1981, .333, 2.32), Nolan Ryan (1987, .333, 2.76) and Jim Abbott (1992, .318, 2.77).
- Ranked among the ML leaders in IP (T9th), opponents on-base pct. (10th), starts (T11th), strikeouts (13th, 202), strikeout-to-walk ratio (14th) and opponents avg. (16th, .234).
- Was traded on July 5 by the Cubs along with RHP Jason Hammel to the Athletics in exchange for RHP Dan Straily, OF Billy McKinney, IF Addison Russell and a PTBNL or cash considerations.
- Named to his first NL All-Star Team July 7, two days after the trade (was not eligible to pitch).
- His 13 no decisions tied for third in bigs...the bullpen surrendered a lead six times in his starts.
- Became just the sixth pitcher since 1914 to have at least five no decisions in a season when allowing zero runs.
- 2013: Ranked among the NL leaders in games started (T2nd, 33), strikeouts (4th, 214), IP (5th, 213.2), strikeouts per 9.0 IP (5th, 9.01) and complete games (T5th, 2).
- Became the first Cubs pitcher since Ryan Dempster in 2010 to record 200.0 innings and 200 strikeouts in a single season.
- Joined Dodgers' Clayton Kershaw (236.0ip, 232so), Philadelphia's Cliff Lee (222.2ip, 222so) and

NOTES CONTINUED

Met his wife Andrea backstage at a Pink Floyd concert in 2012. (She worked for the band.) He got only her first name, so he had his brother, Sam, do some sleuthing to find out who she was and how he could contact her. A week later Sam had a name and address. Jeff sent her a handwritten letter with his phone number. She called and they "dated" over the phone for two or three weeks before meeting in person in Chicago. They married February 13, 2015, near their home in Paradise Valley, Arizona, with just 12 guests.

Andrea studied art history and architecture at Columbia in New York.

IN THE COMMUNITY

Involved with the following organizations: Immunization Coalition, Take Me Out to the Ballgame Ticket Donation Program, UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital and Surfrider Beach Cleanup.

- St. Louis' Adam Wainwright (241.2ip, 219so) as the only four NL pitchers to reach those marks.
- Allowed two hits over 8.0-scoreless innings on Opening Day (April 1) at Pittsburgh...joined Lon Warneke (April 17, 1934) at Cincinnati as the only Cubs season-opening starters in the last 100 years to work at least 8.0 innings with two or fewer hits allowed.
- 2012: Made 28 starts in his first full season in the Cubs' starting rotation...led the team in starts, quality starts (17) and strikeouts (180) and tied for the lead in wins (9).
- Tossed his first complete game in his final start of the season on Sept. 8 at Pittsburgh, allowing three runs (two earned) with one walk and nine strikeouts...hit eighth in the Cubs lineup.
- Was shut down for the season following that start after reaching 174.2 innings pitched, which surpassed the total from his first four Major League seasons (169.2 from 2008-11).
- 2011: Tied for 10th among NL relievers with 75 relief appearances in his first full season with the Cubs...his eight wins were the most by a Cubs reliever since Lee Smith recorded nine in 1986.
- 2010: Made his first Opening Day roster with the Cubs but spent a majority of the season with triple-A Iowa.
- 2009: Split the season between triple-A Iowa and the Cubs (three stints)...opened the season with Iowa before being recalled by the Cubs on April 23...made five relief appearances before being optioned back to Iowa on May 6.
- Was recalled a second time from June 30-Aug. 13, going 1-2 with a 7.77 ERA over 12 games (one start).
- Earned his only win on July 27 vs. Houston after working 2.0-scoreless innings in relief...made his first Major League start on Aug. 12 vs. Philadelphia (L, 7er, 3.1ip).
- Connected on his first big league home run on Sept. 23 at Milwaukee (off Chris Narveson).
- 2008: Made his Major League debut on July 25 vs. FLA (1er, 2.0ip)...recorded his first save on July 27 vs. FLA.

POSTSEASON CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has made two postseason rosters in his career, appearing with the Cubs in 2008 and with the Giants in 2016.
- 2016: Made his first career postseason start in Game 2 of the NLDS at Chicago-NL...took the loss, as he lasted just 2.0 innings, allowing four runs on six hits and one walk with one strikeout.
- 2008: Appeared on his first career postseason roster with the Cubs and made one relief appearance in Game 1 of the 2008 Division Series against the Dodgers, allowing one run in 1.0 inning of work.

NOTES

Attended Academia Centro de Estudio Carabobo (VZ) in 2003.

A born lefty, learned how to throw with his right hand at the age of 9 so he could play catcher. Later added switch-hitting to his switch-throwing.

Parents stressed education rather than sports but Pablo convinced his parents to let him sign with the Giants at 16 because his older brother Michael was already in professional baseball in the Twins organization.

IN THE COMMUNITY

Pablo created the Pablo Sandoval Foundation to help promote lasting improvements in the lives of underprivileged children. The organization focuses on assisting children who are poor, disabled, sick, or in charitable need.

Teamed up with Positive Athlete, a program that helps promote positivity to young athletes.

(27-for-106) against southpaws... prior to that point, had been 2-for-41 off left-handers.

- Hit a solo HR in the 11th inning on May 11 at Oakland for the deciding run...was his fifth career extra-inning HR.
- On June 15 vs. Atlanta, recorded both his 200th career double in the 7th inning and his 1,000th career hit with a two-out double in the 9th.
- Ejected by HP umpire John Hirschbeck in the 8th inning on Aug. 28 at New York-NL, his first career ejection.
- Played in just one of the Red Sox' last 17 games beginning Sept. 18 due to illness that resulted in pneumonia.

First MLB Home Run: June 8, 2017 at MIL

NOTES

Attended Stanford University and was an All Pac-12 First Team Outfielder in 2014.

Was the Dodgers 44th selection in the 2011 First-Year Player Draft, but did not sign.

Raised in Jacksonville, Florida, the grandson of former Jacksonville mayor Ed Austin, a gregarious politician and attorney. During his mayoral term, from 1991-95, the city was awarded the 30th NFL franchise (the Jaguars). He was also the state attorney for almost 20 years. There is Ed Austin Regional Park, a 144-acre park in Jacksonville. The Office of the State Attorney is housed in the Ed Austin Building. His portrait hangs in the Duval County Courthouse.

In addition, a bronze statue in Jacksonville's Northbank Riverwalk honors Austin's late grandmother, Patricia Austin, for her volunteer and charity.

Was considered the top baseball prospect in Florida until he broke his ankle playing Frisbee and missed his senior season.

He considers his ankle injury a blessing in disguise because of how much he now values his college experience. He studied Science, Technology and Society as integrated-studies major. He is about a dozen credits short of graduating.

IN THE COMMUNITY

Involved with the following organizations: Giants Community Fund – Education Day and MLB Buses for Baseball.

.298 with 13 home runs and 42 RBI.

- Was named PCL Player of the Month in August after hitting .381 and leading the league in total bases (77) and home runs (nine), ranking second in hits (43), on-base percentage (.444) and OPS (1.126) and third in RBI (26), extra-base hits (16) and slugging (.681)...he also posted 14 multi-hit games in August, including a stretch of four consecutive games with three or more hits.

2017 SEASON

- Had three stints with the Giants and finished the season 4-4 with a 3.68 ERA (24er, 58.2ip) over 13 appearances (10 starts).
- Was originally recalled from triple-A Sacramento on April 21, taking the roster spot of LHP Madison Bumgarner who landed on the DL...made two relief appearances and allowed five runs in 3.1 innings of work... was optioned back to triple-A on May 1.
- His second appearance with SF came on July 1...he was recalled to take the roster place of RHP Dan Slania in the bullpen, but his only appearance was his first career start on July 6...was told he would start just 20 minutes prior to first pitch after RHP Johnny Cueto was scratched with an inner ear infection.
- Was recalled for the third time on July 25 and made one appearance.
- Was placed on the 10-day disabled list on July 28 with a strained right calf...was activated from the disabled list on Aug. 5 and was placed into the starting rotation for the remainder of the season...posted a 4-2 record with a 2.42 ERA (12er, 44.2ip) in nine starts.
- Giants pitchers had just six double-digit strikeout games all season...Stratton recorded two of San Francisco's 10+ strikeout games over just 10 starts.
- Earned his first career save July 25 vs. PIT.
- In just his third Major League start Aug. 13 at Washington, he threw 6.2-scoreless innings and registered his first career double-digit strikeout game...it marked just the fourth time in his professional career that he struck out 10-or-more batters in a game...became the first rookie pitcher in MLB in 2017 to reach double-digits in strikeouts in a game without allowing a run.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

MLB Debut: May 30, 2016 at ATL
 First MLB Win: June 11, 2016 vs. LAD
 First MLB Save: July 25, 2017 vs. PIT

NOTES

Married (Martha Kate). The couple have one son (Christopher Mack).

Attended Mississippi State University.

Named SEC Pitcher of the Year as a junior in 2012 after going 11-2 record with a 2.38 ERA over 17 appearances (12 starts).

Was a consensus First Team All-American.

Won the 2012 Ferriss Trophy as the top collegiate baseball player in the state of Mississippi and was a semifinalist for the Golden Spikes Award (National Player of the Year).

Chris went undrafted out of high school, in part because he needed to add some bulk to his lanky frame - he was 6 feet 2 and 170 pounds - and in part because his educator-parents were fairly adamant about their son attending college. His mother, brother and other relatives all attended Mississippi State so Chris committed to the school early in his junior year.

Met his wife, Martha Kate, at a church basketball game while she was a high school freshman and he was a junior. He was working the scoreboard for her game trying to make some extra money. They have been together ever since. Martha Kate also went to Mississippi State and earned a degree in educational psychology.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 2016: Appeared in seven games with SF, allowing four runs on 11 hits in 10.0 innings (3.60 ERA).
- Was recalled from triple-A Sacramento May 28 while the team was in Denver...took the roster spot of RHP Matt Cain.

- Made his Major League debut May 30 at Atlanta, tossing a scoreless 8th inning.
- Was rewarded with his first Major League victory on June 11 vs. Los Angeles-NL, despite allowing a go-ahead solo home run to Adrian Gonzalez in the top of the 10th inning.
- Was recalled from triple-A Sacramento on June 14 after RHP Matt Cain was placed back on 15-day DL...had been optioned the day before when Cain was activated for his start.
- Went 12-6 with a 3.87 ERA (54er, 125.2ip) in 21 games (20 starts) for the River Cats.
- 2015: Split the season between double-A Richmond and triple-A Sacramento, combining for a 5-10 record and a 3.95 ERA in 26 games (all starts)...threw 148.0 innings and registered 111 strikeouts between the two teams.
- Was a non-roster invitee to Giants spring camp for the first time.
- Added to San Francisco's 40-man roster on November 20, 2015.
- 2013: Ranked ninth in the South Atlantic League in ERA (3.27) and tied for 10th in wins (9).
- Was a mid-season All-Star in the South Atlantic League.
- Prior to the 2013 campaign, Baseball America ranked Stratton as the Giants' third best prospect.

NOTES

Married (Shelley). The couple have one daughter (Kinsey Rae).

Graduated from Pike County (Zebulon, GA) High School.

Played high school baseball and was quarterback of the football team, where he earned MVP honors.

Hunter is the fourth of seven children (five boys, two girls) who shared one bathroom. Dad Ken was a left-handed pitcher who, like Hunter, threw 99 mph. He reached Triple-A with the Detroit Tigers.

Married Shelley in 2011. They have known each other since kindergarten and began dating in eighth grade.

In high school, Hunter was the star pitcher on the baseball team, star quarterback on the football team, homecoming king and vice president of his senior class.

Rotator cuff surgery with Pirates 2011, then shortly after being claimed off waivers by the Giants in 2013, he had Tommy John surgery. Was throwing in low 90's before rotator cuff and his speed jumped a little after. It jumped a little more after Tommy John.

IN THE COMMUNITY

Involved with the following organizations: Nancy & Stephen Grand Family House, Jefferson Awards – Students in Action, Fantasy Camp for Kids, MLB Buses for Baseball and Navy Seal Foundation.

- 2014: Was recalled from double-A Richmond Sept. 1, marking his first big league call-up.
- Made nine relief appearances for SF, tossing 7.0-scoreless innings with nine strikeouts while going 1-0 with one save.
- Was in big league camp during spring recovering from Tommy John surgery and missed the first-plus month of the season.
- 2013: Was converted to a full-time relief role and in the midst of his best minor league season suffered an elbow injury in late-May, which required season ending Tommy John surgery.
- Was a perfect 9-for-9 in save opportunities.
- Was acquired off waivers by San Francisco on April 2 from Pittsburgh.
- 2011: Missed the entire season due to shoulder problems and ended up having rotator cuff surgery in August.
- 2010: Appeared in 12 games (10 starts) between single-A West Virginia and single-A Bradenton before going on the DL for the rest of the season with an elbow strain.

POSTSEASON CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Won a World Series ring with the Giants in 2014 and has made the postseason roster twice in his career (also 2016)...is 1-0 with a 5.73 ERA (7er, 11.0ip) in 11 games.
- 2014: Went 1-0 with a 7.56 ERA (7er, 8.1ip) and a save in eight contests.
- Earned save in Game 2 of the NLDS at Washington with a scoreless frame in the 18th inning.
- Allowed just three home runs in 50 games on three levels during the regular season and then allowed six home runs in eight appearances this postseason (Bryce Harper twice, Asdrubal Cabrera, Matt Adams, Omar Infante and Mike Moustakas)...his six home runs allowed were the most by a reliever in a single postseason.

Became a Giant: Drafted in the 12th round of the 2011 First-Year Player Draft
Contract Status: Signed through 2018

2017 SEASON

- Hit .258 (50-for-194) with nine stolen bases in 104 games with the Giants.
- Recalled two separate times.
- Made 38 starts (17 at second base, 11 at third base, eight at shortstop and two in left field).
- Hit his third career home run on Sept. 12 off Dodgers' LHP Clayton Kershaw...was 0-for-14 with six strikeouts against Kershaw entering the at-bat.
- Hit .296 in 26 games at triple-A.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 2016: Batted .292 with four doubles and six RBI in 52 games with SF.
- Missed 29 games with a left thumb sprain from June 10-July 14 and was optioned to triple-A upon being activated.
- Started in left field for the first time in his career on May 21 vs. Chicago-NL...was put in left because Angel Pagan and Hunter Pence were dealing with sore hamstrings.
- 2015: Had his contract purchased from triple-A Sacramento Aug. 3, replacing Joe Panik, who had been placed on the 15-day disabled list with lower back inflammation.
- Collected his first ML hit Aug. 3 at Atlanta off LHP Ross Detwiler, a one-out single in the 12th inning, and then scored the go-ahead run on Buster Posey's two-out single.
- Received his first big league start on Aug. 5 at Atlanta, starting at second base and going 2-for-4 with three RBI.
- According to Elias, the only other second basemen with at least three RBI in either their first or second game with the Giants were Rogers Hornsby and Jeff Kent.
- His first career home run was a grand slam Aug. 27 vs. Chicago-NL off LHP James Russell in the 8th inning...became the 15th player in Giants history (sixth in SF-era) to hit a grand slam for his first big league home run.
- Recorded his first career game-ending hit Aug. 28 vs. Chicago-NL, hitting a single with the bases loaded off LHP Kevin Siegrist with one out in the 9th inning to give the Giants a 5-4 win.
- Hit the ninth inside-the-park HR in AT&T Park history on Oct. 3 vs. Colorado (off LHP Chris Rusin).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

MLB Debut: Aug. 3, 2015 at ATL
First MLB Hit: Aug. 3, 2015 at ATL (single)
First MLB Home Run: Aug. 27, 2015 vs. CHC
 Became the 15th player in Giants history (sixth in SF-era) to hit a grand slam for his first big league home run.

NOTES

Married (Tiffany on October 26, 2012)...they have one son, Huck McCoy Tomlinson, born October 31, 2016.
 Attended Texas Tech University.
 Grew up in Elgin, a small rural town of a few thousand people in southern Oklahoma near the historic Fort Sill Army base.
 No college recruited him out of high school. His uncle, Ricky Burns, called and emailed one junior college after another "begging for a tryout for him," Burns said. He ended up at Seward Community College in Liberal, Kansas, only because the shortstop who had committed to the school backed out. Seward was a six-hour drive from Elgin. Kelby is the first player from Seward Community College to reach the Majors.
 After two years at Seward, he went to Texas Tech.
 He wears glasses on the field though he has around 20/30 vision in both eyes. But he feels the glasses provide extra sharpness in night games and now he's accustomed to wearing them even in day games.

IN THE COMMUNITY

Involved with the following organizations: MLB Buses for Baseball.

POSTSEASON CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has appeared on one postseason roster with the Giants in 2016, going 0-for-6 in three games.

- Following the season he played for the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League and batted .370 (27-for-73) with two home runs and 14 RBI in 19 games...helped lead the Scorpions to win the AFL Championship...was named to the Arizona Fall League 2015 Top Prospects Team.
- 2014: Had his season cut short after requiring Tommy John surgery on his right elbow on April 29...orthopedist Dr. James Andrews performed the surgery.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

MLB Debut: Sept. 23, 2015 at SD
 First MLB Hit: Sept. 25, 2015 at OAK (single)
 First MLB Home Run: June 8, 2016 vs. BOS

NOTES

Was a high-velocity pitcher at Wake Forest Rolesville High School and in fact, was ranked as the No. 1 pitching prospect in North Carolina.

Chose to attend Wake Forest University and after redshirting as a freshman, he fashioned an outstanding baseball career, not as a pitcher, but as an outfielder.

Had labrum surgery as a college freshmen.

Earned First Team All-ACC honors as a junior in 2012.

Led the ACC with 17 HRs in 2012 and finished his three year collegiate career with 36 home runs.

Was selected by the Red Sox in the 46th round of the 2011 First-Year Player Draft, but decided to return to Wake Forest.

The following June, the Giants chose Williamson with their third round pick.

- 2013: Had the most impressive season of any Giants hitting prospect at a full-season affiliate, leading the organization in home runs (28) and RBI (89).
- Was promoted to San Jose (A) in his second professional campaign and hit .292 with 25 HRs and 89 RBI in 136 games.
- Among the California League leaders he ranked tied for third in home runs and games played, tied for fourth in hits, fourth in total bases (262) and fifth in runs scored (94).
- Finished season ranked tied for third on San Jose's single season home run list.
- Was awarded SJ's co-team MVP award (with Ty Blach).
- Was named California League Player of the Week for Aug. 19-26 after going 16-for-31 (.516) with four HRs and 12 RBI.

2017 SEASON

- Was a non-roster invitee to Diamondbacks Major League spring training... was selected from triple-A Reno on May 5.
- Made 43 appearances in left field (18 starts), 35 in center (32) and six in right (two) with Arizona.
- Was successful in 15-of-16 stolen base attempts.
- Hit his fifth career leadoff home run on May 25 at Milwaukee.
- Matched his career-high with three stolen bases on Oct. 1 vs. Kansas City (fourth time).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 2016: Made 56 starts for San Francisco and hit .235 in his starts.
- Went 7-for-33 (.212) as a pinch-hitter.
- Missed 22 games with a right shoulder impingement (Aug. 23-Sept. 16).
- Hit his first career pinch-hit home run on July 8 vs. Arizona, hitting a solo shot off RHP Silvino Bracho in the 8th inning.
- 2015: Batted a career-best .291 in 115 games with the Giants, his fourth-consecutive season with the team.
- Started 78 games (34 in CF, 25 in LF and 19 in RF).
- Landed on the seven-day concussion disabled list June 10 (retroactive to June 9), three days after Brandon Belt accidentally hit him on the head with a between-inning practice throw while the team was in Philadelphia...Blanco was hit midway through the game of June 7, but said he continued to play because his symptoms were not bad...was removed from the DL June 19.
- Was diagnosed with a concussion for the second time during the season, this time as the result – most likely – of a shot he took from an infielder’s knee while sliding into second base in Los Angeles in September...missed the Giants’ final 22 games.
- 2014: Finished his third season with the Giants and batted .260 (102-for-393) with 51 runs scored, 18 doubles, six triples, five home runs and 38 RBI in 146 games...went 16-for-21 in stolen base attempts, with his 16 steals tying Angel Pagan for the most on the team.
- Started 92/162 games, making 56 starts in center field and 36 in left...committed one error in 226 total chances (six assists).
- 2012: Preserved Matt Cain’s perfect game on June 13 vs. Houston with a spectacular catch in deep right center field in the 7th inning...was playing the gap in right field as Jordan Schafer hit a deep drive to the wall...Blanco covered an enormous amount of ground to make a diving leap to secure Cain’s perfect bid.

2017 SEASON

- Missed time in spring with a sprained right ankle and started the season on the 10-day disabled list.
- Played in three rehab games with triple-A Sacramento from April 18-20 and was reinstated off the DL April 21 (optioned to AAA).
- Spent the entire season with Sacramento hitting .163 with five extra-base hits and nine RBI.
- Was placed on the seven-day disabled list from June 29-July 13.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 2016: Made the team out of spring training and spent the entire year as the backup to Buster Posey.
- Hit .324 with nine RBI in 17 spring games and was named the winner of the Barney Nugent Award, given to a player in his first big league camp whose performance best exemplifies the Giants spirit.
- Hit his first career home run on April 8 off Dodgers RHP Chris Hatcher...broke up a no-hit bid with his first career homer, a two-run blast that came moments after Ross Stripling was removed with a no-hitter.
- Slugged two home runs in the Giants' win at Coors Field on April 12.
- Hit three home runs in his first eight at-bats of the season.
- Became first Giants rookie to hit three HRs over his first three games of a season since Bobby Thomson in 1947...also became the first Giant to HR for his first three hits in a season since Kevin Mitchell in 1991.
- Played third base for the first time in his professional career on June 28 vs. Oakland...entered the game in the bottom of the eighth inning as a pinch-hitter and stayed in the game as the third baseman.
- 2015: Brown was a late Sept. call-up that provided depth at catcher to help limit the wear-and-tear on Buster Posey.
- Had his contract purchased Sept. 16.
- Recorded his first big league hit Sept. 22 at SD, hitting a double off RHP Tyson Ross.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

MLB Debut: Sept. 19, 2015 vs. ARI

First MLB Hit: Sept 22, 2015 at SD (double)

First MLB Home Run: April 8, 2016 vs. LAD

NOTES

Born and raised in Valencia, California, about 30 miles north of LA. Father, Doug, is retired from the Burbank Police Department, where he was a patrolman, a detective then a sergeant in the patrol division. His Mother, Janet, has worked dispatch at the Burbank Police Department for over 30 years, handling both 911 and no-emergency calls.

Trevor has a twin sister, Melissa, and a younger brother, Josh.

At Newhall Hart High, Brown was a grind-it-out, hustling utility player. He played shortstop as a freshman, third base as a sophomore, center field as a junior and catcher and pitcher his senior year.

He attracted little attention from colleges, and only as a pitcher. He had one offer: from Loyola-Marymount. The day before he was going to commit to LMU, UCLA called him and his parents in. They had noticed Brown while scouting Trevor Bauer, who happened to be pitching to Brown. UCLA offered a small scholarship and a promise that he would have opportunities to catch. Doug and Janet weren't sure they could afford UCLA without a larger scholarship, but Doug said "we took one look at him - we weren't even to the parking lot - and we turned around and he committed to UCLA right then."

Played mostly infield at college, estimating about 75 percent infield and 25 percent at catcher.

2017 SEASON

- Injury knocked him out of most of his 2017 campaign as he was limited to just 44 games.
- Missed the first seven weeks of the season with a right flexor strain in his elbow and instead of heading back to double-A, where he finished the 2016 season, he was eased back into things in the California League... just days after being activated on June 28, Duggar returned to the disabled list with a left hamstring strain on June 30.
- Promoted to triple-A in August where he appeared in just 13 games.
- Combined for a .262 batting average, 12 doubles, six homers and 26 RBI in 44 games.
- Played in the Arizona Fall League after the season, hitting .263 in 20 games and was named to the All-Prospect Team.
- Was a non-roster invitee to Giants camp for the first time in his career.

NOTES

Attended Clemson University and was a two-time Third Team All-ACC selection.

Was a starting outfielder in all three years of his collegiate career and had a career batting average of .299.

Was named to the preseason Golden Spikes Award Watch List.

Was rated the #45 overall prospect for the 2015 draft by MLB.com entering his junior season.

Was selected to the 2014 Cape Cod All-Star Game.

Earned Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-American honors in 2013. Hit .300 with 30 RBI, 15 stolen bases in 62 games.

Attended James F. Byrnes High School. Received South Carolina All-State honors as a junior and senior.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 2016: Established a Flying Squirrels record with a 19-game hitting streak July 18-Aug. 6.
- Named Player of the Week May 22 with San Jose (A) and July 24 with Richmond (AA).
- Tabbed the 25th-best prospect in the Giants' farm system according to Baseball America.
- 2015: Played for Salem-Keizer before joining the San Jose Giants during the California League Championship Series...batted .293 with a homer and 27 RBI in 58 games for SK.
- Ranked seventh in the Northwest League in batting average...led Volcanoes with 35 walks.
- Combined to hit 33 doubles, nine triples, nine homers and drove in 63 RBI in 115 games.

NOTES

Married his wife, Laura, in December 2013.

Attended the University of Alabama. Was named to the 2010 All-SEC First Team. Led the Crimson Tide with a .369 batting avg. in 2008, becoming only the second freshman in school history to lead the team in batting.

Graduated from Cullman High School. In 2007, won a state championship and was named Alabama 5A Player of the Year.

His older brother, Michael, played baseball at Mississippi State from 2005-07.

- Missed time on the DL from June 19-30 with a hip muscle strain.
- Traded to Boston on July 27 in exchange for Shane Victorino and cash considerations.
- Designated for assignment on Nov. 20...cleared waivers and outrighted to triple-A Pawtucket on Nov. 30.
- 2014: Spent a majority of the season with Colorado, setting career highs in games played (105), hits (83), and triples (7) across a pair of stints with the Rockies.
- With COL, split his time defensively at SS (69 G, 58 GS), 2B (17 G, 12 GS), and 3B (5 G, 5 GS).
- Began the season with triple-A Colorado Springs, hitting .333 (18-for-54) in 15 games.
- 2013: Made his first career Opening Day roster and spent the majority of the season with Colorado...hit .235 (67-for-285) with seven HRs in 88 games over three stints with the Rockies.
- Started Opening Day at second base, the first time in his professional career he began a season at a position other than shortstop.
- 2012: Made his ML debut, batting .274 in 73 games with the Rockies.
- Named a Texas League mid-season All-Star, batting .306 in 87 games with double-A Tulsa.
- Made his ML debut on July 13 vs. Philadelphia, going 2-for-2 with two RBI, a BB, and a stolen base...became the first Rockies player with a hit in each of his first two ML plate appearances since Ben Petrick on Sept. 1, 1999.
- Was not recalled from double-A Tulsa until after the All-Star break, but still ranked in the top 10 among NL rookies in doubles (8th), XBH (T-8th), RBI (9th), and HR (T-10th)...his 130 total bases after the break ranked second among NL rookies.
- Had 17 extra base hits in his first 22 games...became only the fourth player since 1913 with as many as 17 extra base hits within their first 22 ML games, joining Mandy Brooks (19 in 1925), Joe DiMaggio (18 in 1936), and Roy Weatherly (17 in 1936)...they have since been joined by Trevor Story (17 in 2016) and Gary Sanchez (17 in 2015-16).
- Hit his first career pinch-hit HR on Aug. 25 at Chicago-NL and hit his first career grand slam on Sept. 16 at San Diego.
- 2011: Named a California League postseason All-Star after spending the entire season with High-A Modesto.
- Hit safely in 27 consecutive games from July 4-Aug. 3, the longest hitting streak of the season among all minor leaguers.
- Ranked second in the California League and seventh in the minors in batting average (.348).
- Named Colorado's organization Player of the Month for August (.393 AVG).
- Named California League Player of the Week for Aug. 1-7 and Aug. 30-Sept. 5.
- Hit .441 (52-for-118) during a 27-game hitting streak from July 4-Aug. 3, the second-longest in Modesto history.
- Reached base via hit, BB, or HBP in 41 consecutive games from June 23-Aug. 12.

Full name: Hector Enrique Sanchez
Birthdate: November 17, 1989
2018 Opening Day Age: 28
Birthplace: Maracay, Venezuela
M.L. Service: 5 years, 18 days
Became a Giant: Signed by San Francisco to a minor league contract on Jan. 5, 2018
Contract Status: Non-Roster Invitee

2017 SEASON

- 2017 marked the 28-year-old's first Opening Day roster in a Padres uniform, staying with the big league club for the duration of the season besides two brief rehab assignments with triple-A El Paso.
- His first home run of the season was a game-tying pinch-hit home run in the top of the ninth inning on April 30 at SF...it was the first game-tying pinch-hit home run in the ninth inning by a Padre since Adrián González on Sept. 16, 2009 vs. ARI.
- On June 24 vs. DET, hit his second home run of the season (also a pinch-hit home run) in his second at-bat since returning from the disabled list (right foot contusion).
- His third homer of the season on June 30 vs. LAD was also in a pinch-hit role...his three-pinch-hit round-trippers led the Padres and were tied for the third-most in the Majors...accounted for three of the Padres six pinch-hit HRs, which ranked tied for sixth among all MLB clubs.
- His three pinch-hit home runs led the team and they ended the season tied for third-most of any player in the Majors.
- Per Elias, Sanchez was the fourth Padre to have three-or-more consecutive homers in a season coming in a pinch-hitting role...Matt Stairs and Brett Wallace hit four straight in 2010 and 2015, respectively, and Jerry Turner hit five consecutive homers in 1978.
- On July 21 at SF, Sanchez went 3-for-6 and he finished a triple shy of the cycle...in 834 career plate appearances, he is still in search of his first triple.
- Appeared in 75 games, besting his previous career high of 74 games, set in 2012 while with the Giants...his 12 extra-base hits were also the most since 2012 (18).
- His .423 slugging percentage was the second-highest in a season in his career, behind only his .469 SLG that he posted last season.
- Appeared in 25 games (19 starts) behind the plate, posting a .987 fielding percentage as a catcher...has a career .988 percentage behind the dish.
- Hit .300 (9-for-30) against the Giants, his former team...his RBI (11), runs scored (six), hits (nine), doubles (two), home runs (four) and games played (15) were the most against any other club he faced in 2017.

AWARDS

NOTES

He and his wife, Elizabeth, have one son, Dylan.

Signed with the Giants as a 16-year-old free agent in 2007. Left school after the ninth grade to attend a baseball academy in Venezuela, where he stayed for two years.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 2016: Split the season between the White Sox and Padres organizations, playing in 28 Major League games.
 - Began the year with triple-A Charlotte before having his contract purchased by the White Sox on April 26...designated for assignment on May 9 and acquired by the Padres off waivers on May 11.
 - Designated for assignment by the Padres on June 14, clearing waivers and being outrighted to triple-A El Paso where he hit 13 home runs in 55 games.
 - Had his contract purchased again by SD on Aug. 31, playing the remainder of the season in the bigs.
 - Started seven games behind the plate for San Diego.
- 2015: Made his fourth Opening Day roster with San Francisco, appearing in 28 games.
 - Optioned to triple-A Sacramento on May 16 to make room for outfielder Hunter Pence on the active roster...appeared in 18 games (four starts) with SF before being optioned.
 - Recalled from Sacramento July 19...connected on his second career grand slam July 21 at SD.
 - Left the game on Sept. 5 at COL and missed the remainder of the season with a sprained left ankle, strained left hamstring and left mid-foot sprain.
 - Played in 37 games with the River Cats, hitting .273 with four homers and 14 RBI...left the game on July 2 vs. Salt Lake City after taking three foul tips off the mask...missed two weeks with concussion symptoms.
- 2014: Appeared in just 66 games with the Giants due to suffering concussions in July and August.
 - Started 33 games at catcher and one at first base.
 - Recorded his first career two-homer game, including his first grand slam, and drove in a career-high five RBI on April 23 at Colorado...his 11th-inning slam gave the Giants a 12-8 lead.
 - Became just the sixth Giants player since the franchise moved to San Francisco in 1958 to hit an extra-inning grand slam, joining Willie Mays (1967), Jack Hiatt (1969), Jeffrey Leonard (1983), Greg Litton (1992), and A.J. Pierzynski (2004).
 - Made his first career start at first base on May 13 vs. Atlanta.
 - Caught Tim Lincecum's no-hitter on June 25 vs. San Diego...joined Miguel Montero (Arizona 2010) and Jesus Montero (Seattle 2012) as the only Venezuelan-born players to catch a no-hitter in the Major Leagues.
 - Placed on the seven-day concussion list on July 26 after taking a foul ball off the mask the night before.
 - Diagnosed with a second concussion on 8/16 after taking another foul tip off the mask...returned from a rehab assignment on Aug. 19 and transferred to the 60-day DL.
- 2013: Made his second consecutive Opening Day roster and appeared in 63 games over three stints with the Giants, making 25 starts behind the plate and one as the designated hitter.
 - Placed on the disabled list from July 9-24 with a strained right shoulder...optioned to Fresno on July 24 after being reinstated...recalled on Aug. 8 for the remainder of the season.
 - Combined to hit .270 with six doubles, three homers and 16 RBI in 37 combined games between triple-A Fresno, single-A San Jose and the Arizona Rookie League Giants.
 - After the season, appeared in 20 games with La Guaira of the Venezuelan Winter League.
- 2012: Made his first career Opening Day roster and spent his first full season in the Major Leagues, making 48 starts behind the plate and one at designated hitter.
 - 25 of his starts came with Barry Zito on the mound and 16 with Tim Lincecum.
 - Enjoyed his best month at the plate in September, .341 (15-for-44) in 15 games.
 - Recorded his first career four-hit game on July 14 vs. Houston.
- 2011: Spent the majority of the season with triple-A Fresno and single-A San Jose before making his Major League debut with San Francisco on July 15.
 - His contract was purchased from Fresno on July 15 and he made his Major League debut that night as a pinch hitter at SD, recording a walk.
 - Optioned back to the Grizzlies on July 19 and recalled on Aug. 19 for the remainder of the season.
 - Recorded his first career hit and RBI on Aug. 23 vs. SD, a pinch-hit, run-scoring single off Luke Gregerson.

2017 SEASON

- The left-handed outfielder/first baseman hit .292 across two levels, with 24 home runs and 79 RBI in 125 games with double-A Richmond and triple-A Sacramento.
- Started off hot in double-A, hitting .301 with six home runs in 37 games...he drew 18 walks and struck out just 26 times in 133 at-bats.
- Transferred to triple-A in late May and spent the rest of the season with the River Cats, batting .289 with 18 HRs & 50 RBI in 88 games.
- A former first baseman, Shaw moved to left field to open the door for him to make it to the Major Leagues sooner.
- 2016: Named an Organizational All-Star by MLB.com, Shaw combined for a .267 avg. with 38 doubles, four triples, 21 homers & 85 RBI in 132 games with San Jose (A) and Richmond (AA).
- Named mid-season All-Star & Baseball America High Class A All-Star while playing for SJ.
- 2015: As a 21-year-old in short-season Salem-Keizer, Shaw put together an impressive .287/.360/.551 slash line, slugging 11 doubles and 12 home runs in just 46 games.
- Was named the Northwest League Player of the Week for Aug. 31-Sept. 7.
- Named to the Northwest League mid-season All-Star team and the Baseball America short-season All-Star team.
- Shaw was also named an Organizational All-Star by MLB.com.

NOTES

Attended Boston College.

Led the Cape Cod league in home runs (eight) in 2014 and won the John J. Claffey Award as the New England top prospect. Reports out of the Cape were that Shaw was hitting 450-foot homers to dead center.

Played mostly right field at Boston College.

A right hamate bone injury and poor weather in the Northeast combined to limit Shaw to 144 at-bats as a junior. He batted .319 with 11 home runs and 43 RBI.

Was a former standout at Lexington (Mass.) High School.

Was drafted by the Mets in the 26th round in 2012 but did not sign.

Was also a defenseman in hockey during high school.

30th Major League Baseball All-Star Game

Tuesday, July 11, 1961 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

In just its second year of existence, Candlestick Park—the majors' first all-concrete stadium—played host to the first of two Major League Baseball All-Star Games played in 1961. Long before the days of the Home Run Derby and All-Star Gala, the game itself provided plenty of excitement, with a quartet of Hall of Famers leading the National League to a come-from-behind, 5-4 victory in 10 innings. Trailing the American League 4-3 entering the bottom of the 10th frame, the senior circuit received a single from Hank Aaron, a run-scoring double by Willie Mays, a walk by Orlando Cepeda and the game-winning single from Roberto Clemente—all off fellow Cooperstown resident Hoyt Wilhelm.

However, those last at-bat heroics were almost not needed, as they became necessitated by one of the more bizarre and memorable moments in All-Star Game history. With the National Leaguers clinging to a 3-2, ninth-inning lead and a runner on third, a gust of wind knocked Giants' pitcher Stu Miller from his set position on the mound, resulting in a balk that allowed the tying run to score.

A capacity crowd of 44,115 filled the 'Stick for a contest that featured four San Francisco Giants (Mays, Cepeda, Miller and Mike McCormick) and a combined 18 players who would later be enshrined in the Hall of Fame.

55th Major League Baseball All-Star Game

Tuesday, July 10, 1984 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

After a 23-year absence, the Major League Baseball All-Star Game returned to the Bay Area with the 1984 Midsummer Classic at Candlestick Park. Proving well worth the wait, 57,756 fans were treated to fifteen future Hall of Famers.

Pitching dominated this contest, with the National League batterymates for the fourth and fifth innings stealing the headlines in a 3-1 senior circuit victory. On the 50th anniversary of the Giants' Carl Hubbell striking out five consecutive batters, the duo of Fernando Valenzuela and Dwight Gooden did "King Carl" one better. Valenzuela fanned all three American League hitters he faced in the fourth inning; then, the youngest player in All-Star Game history—a 19-year-old Gooden—whiffed all three batters in the fifth. Gary Carter, who caught both frames, also broke a 1-1 tie with a solo homer in the second en route to MVP honors.

Oakland's Bill Caudill, making his only All-Star appearance, also posted a perfect inning via strikeout, doing so in his lone frame (seventh). Fittingly, in a game that featured a combined 21 strikeouts, the tight contest ended when Goose Gossage fanned Henderson with a runner on base in the ninth.

78th Major League Baseball All-Star Game

Tuesday, July 10, 2007 at AT&T Park (San Francisco, CA)

The first All-Star Game at AT&T Park lived up to its billing, with the best of baseball turning in a thrilling contest in front of 43,965 fans. Most importantly, the game was San Francisco in all of its essence — beginning with an emotional pre-game tribute to Hall of Famer Willie Mays, the greatest Giant of them all.

True to Mays' greatness, the Midsummer Classic featured a little bit of everything — including the first inside-the-park home run in All-Star Game history, hit by Ichiro Suzuki en route to Most Valuable Player honors. In the end, the American League captured a 5-4 victory after withstanding the National League's furious two-out, ninth-inning rally.

Flexing its muscle and speed, the junior circuit jumped out to a 5-2 lead on the strength of three home runs. The most memorable — and uniquely San Francisco — was Ichiro's two-run shot in the fifth that put the AL ahead 2-1. With a runner on first and one out, the Seattle star drove the first pitch he saw deep to right field — where it hit off the asymmetrical wall and caromed towards the 421-foot sign in right-center. By the time right fielder Ken Griffey, Jr. could relay the ball to the infield, Ichiro had scampered around the bases and set All-Star Game history.

Following Carl Crawford's solo home run in the sixth and Victor Martinez' two-run clout in the eighth, the AL gave a three-run lead to closer J.J. Putz in the ninth. After the first two National League hitters were retired, Dmitri Young singled and Alfonso Soriano hammered a two-run homer of his own to bring the senior circuit within 5-4. Three walks followed to load the bases — including two off new pitcher Francisco Rodriguez — but Rodriguez got Aaron Rowand to fly out and end the game.

Giants Rainouts

Since moving to San Francisco in 1958, the Giants have had just 32 home games rained out, including five at AT&T Park. During one stretch, the team went 454 games (from April 10, 1976 through Oct. 2, 1981) without a cancellation. The Giants have gone 10 full years without a rainout. AT&T Park has the second-fewest rainouts among open-air stadiums

(Petco Park has two). Here is a breakdown of the Giants' San Francisco rainouts:

Retired Uniform Numbers

In the storied 135-year history of Giants baseball, 11 former players or managers have enjoyed careers worthy of their jersey numbers being retired by the club. Only the New York Yankees (21) have retired more numbers. The 11 Giant greats are honored at AT&T Park with their names and retired uniform numbers displayed atop the Giants dugout and along the left field suite level facade.

Christy Mathewson and John McGraw, who both predated the use of numbers on jerseys, are recognized along with fellow New York Giants Bill Terry (#3), Mel Ott (#4), Carl Hubbell (#11) and Monte Irvin (#20). Willie Mays (#24), who played for the club on both coasts, joins former San Francisco stars Juan Marichal (#27), Orlando Cepeda (#30), Gaylord Perry (#36) and Willie McCovey (#44) in this select group.

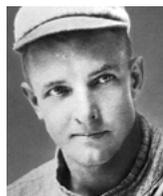

The Giants also honor Jackie Robinson, whose uniform number (42) was retired throughout Major League Baseball in 1997 to commemorate the 50th anniversary of his arrival in the big leagues.

In 2004, the Giants commemorated two of baseball's greatest broadcasters with disks honoring Russ Hodges and Lon Simmons.

The Giants recognize the following individuals, who have been honored by the National Baseball Hall of Fame for their contributions to the game: Lindsey Nelson (Ford C. Frick Award, 1988), Leonard Koppett (J.G. Taylor Spink Award, 1992), Bob Stevens (J.G. Taylor Spink Award, 1998), Nick Peters (J.G. Taylor Spink Award, 2009) and Jon Miller (Ford C Frick Award, 2010).

Courageously broke Major League Baseball's color barrier with Brooklyn in 1947...5-time All-Star was named NL Rookie of Year in 1947 and MVP in '49...to commemorate 50th anniversary of his arrival in big leagues, number 42 was retired by every Major League team in 1997...was named to MLB's All-Century Team...

Russ Hodges

BROADCASTER

HOF Honoree: 1980

"Voice of Giants" for 21-year run that spanned both coasts...began in New York Giants' radio booth in 1949, followed club west in 1958, and broadcast San Francisco Giants games through 1970...author of most famous call in franchise annals, and perhaps in baseball history, with his "Giants Win the Pennant!" description of Bobby Thomson's playoff-winning homer against Brooklyn Dodgers Oct. 3, 1951...his "Bye-Bye Baby" call became synonymous with Giants home runs...Ford C. Frick Award winner entered Hall of Fame in 1980...

Lon Simmons

BROADCASTER

HOF Honoree: 2004

One of original voices of San Francisco Giants, teaming with fellow Hall-of-Famer Russ Hodges to form arguably finest broadcast team in sports history...brought trademark "Tell It Goodbye" home run call to Giants broadcast booth for 23 years over 3 different stints (1958-'73, '76-'78 and '96-2002)...is only man to broadcast debuts for each of club's 3 San Francisco ballparks—Seals Stadium in 1958, Candlestick Park in 1960 and AT&T Park in 2000...beloved for his wit and charm, Bay Area legend was inducted into Hall of Fame in 2004 as 29th winner of Ford C. Frick Award...

Jon Miller

BROADCASTER

HOF Honoree: 2010

Miller, who has gained accolades for his attention to detail and his intellect, has spent four decades calling Major League Baseball games for the A's, Rangers, Red Sox, Orioles and his current team the Giants...was voice of ESPN's national Sunday Night Baseball telecasts for 20 years...has broadcasted 14 World Series, including the last 13 on ESPN Radio...his energy, preparation and thoroughness has helped bring game to life in homes and hearts of so many listeners... Miller was honored as 35th Ford C. Frick Award recipient during Hall of Fame Weekend 2010...

Giants Wall of Fame

On September 23, 2008, the San Francisco Giants unveiled the team's Wall of Fame, which serves as a living tribute to the organization's greatest players. It recognizes retired players whose records stand highest among their teammates on the basis of longevity and achievements. Those honored have played a minimum of nine seasons for the San Francisco Giants, or five seasons with at least one All-Star selection as a Giant.

49 Giants legends have plaques on the wall in honor of their achievements. Bronze plaques honoring these players and their baseball contributions line the wall of AT&T Park along King Street for all baseball fans to enjoy. As present and future generations of Giants players meet the criteria, plaques celebrating their careers will join the Wall of Fame upon their retirement.

The Giants' 26 postseason appearances (since 1900) are tied with the A's for the fourth-most all-time behind the New York Yankees (53), Brooklyn/Los Angeles Dodgers (31) and St. Louis Cardinals (28).

The Giants' eight championships are tied with the Boston Red Sox for the fourth-most in Major League history. Only the Yankees (27), Cardinals (11) and Athletics (9) have more.

The Giants are one of four major American professional sports franchise in this century (2000-present) with three titles during a five-year span. The others are the New England Patriots (2001, 2003, 2004), Los Angeles Lakers (2000, 2001, 2002) and San Antonio Spurs (2003, 2005, 2007).

Giants All-Time Post Season Results

National League Wild Card

2014 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. PITTSBURGH PIRATES

(Giants win series, 1 game to 0)

The Giants defeated the Pirates, 8-0, in the National League wild-card game backed by the arm of Madison Bumgarner and the bat of Brandon Crawford. Bumgarner threw a four-hitter while striking out 10 batters and Crawford hit a grand slam in the 4th inning off Edinson Volquez, sending the Giants from a winner-take-all wild-card game to a National League Division Series matchup with the Washington Nationals.

With the bases loaded in the 4th inning and nobody out in a scoreless game, Crawford turned on Volquez's hanging breaking ball and sent it to right field, landing a few rows deep and giving the Giants a 4-0 lead while silencing a PNC Park crowd of 40,629. Crawford became the first shortstop to hit a grand slam in postseason history and he joined Chuck Hiller (1962 World Series), Will Clark (1989 National League Championship Series) and Buster Posey (2012 NLDS) as the only Giants to hit a grand slam in postseason play.

Bumgarner, meanwhile, dominated one of the NL's best lineups, walking one and allowing just four singles on 109 pitches, 79 for strikes. Moments after finishing his shutout, Bumgarner found himself surrounded by teammates in the middle of the diamond celebrating a playoff victory.

2016 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. NEW YORK METS

(Giants win series, 1 game to 0)

A game billed as a matchup between two of the Majors' most dominant pitchers proved exactly that as Noah Syndergaard and Madison Bumgarner matched zeroes for the first seven innings. Syndergaard held the Giants hitless through 5.2 innings until a Denard Span single ended the no-hit bid. Bumgarner went the distance, scattering just four hits and two walks to go with six strikeouts.

With Mets closer Jeury Familia on the mound and the game still locked in a scoreless tie in the top of the ninth, Brandon Crawford ripped a double to the left-center on one of the few hard-hit balls of the night. Familia struck out Angel Pagan, then walked Joe Panik.

Next up, Conor Gillaspie, who crushed a three-run homer that accounted for all the game's runs. Gillaspie became the third player in Major League history whose first career postseason home run was a go-ahead homer in the ninth inning or later in a winner-take-all game.

Meanwhile, Bumgarner became the first pitcher in baseball history with multiple postseason winner-take-all complete game shutouts.

National League Division Series

1997 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. FLORIDA MARLINS

(Marlins win series, 3 games to 0)

San Francisco won its first National League West title since 1989 to become only the fourth team during the 20th century to win its division after finishing in last place the previous season.

The Giants outdueled the Dodgers in a classic pennant race for the N.L. West flag. Perhaps the crowning moment of San Francisco's magical ride came Sept. 18 when catcher Brian Johnson led off the 12th inning with a game-winning clout off Los Angeles' Mark Guthrie to put the Giants in a first place tie with nine games remaining.

New General Manager Brian Sabean revamped the Giants roster, bringing in 15 players who were not in the organization at the end of the 1996 campaign. He shocked the baseball world by acquiring All-Star pitchers Wilson Alvarez and Roberto Hernandez and 18-year Major League veteran pitcher Danny Darwin from the Chicago White Sox in exchange for six minor leaguers at the July 31 trading deadline.

The renewed Giants made their first post season appearance in eight years when they faced National League wild card entry Florida Marlins in the Division Series. Despite losing all three games of the series, San Francisco gave Florida its toughest test en route to its first World Championship.

Both Games #1 and #2 came down to the last at-bat, with Florida taking advantage of being the home club and posting 2-1 and 7-6 victories, respectively.

Despite two solo home runs by Giants' second baseman Jeff Kent in Game #3, the Marlins finished off the sweep on the strength of Devon White's sixth inning grand slam off Alvarez.

2000 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. NEW YORK METS

(Mets win series, 3 games to 1)

San Francisco won its second National League West title in four years as the club posted a Major League-best 97-65 mark, only to see its October run stopped short by the Wild Card New York Mets, a club that would eventually win the NL flag.

The Giants enjoyed a truly magical regular season, its first in its new jewel of a home, AT&T Park. Playing in front of 81 straight sellouts that accounted for a franchise-record 3,244,320 fans, San Francisco rattled off a 55-26 ledger, matching the Mets for the best home mark in the majors.

Dusty Baker won his third NL Manager of the Year award after guiding his troops to a Major League-best 51-26 record after the All-Star Break, resulting in an 11-game cushion, the Giants' largest winning margin since 1913.

San Francisco produced its most prolific offensive attack in 70 years, led by National League Most Valuable Player Jeff Kent. Teammate Barry Bonds, who finished second in the MVP voting, clubbed 49 clouts.

The Giants jumped out to a 1-0 lead in the NLDS with a 5-1 victory in front of a raucous Game #1 crowd at AT&T Park. Livan Hernandez held New York to one run over 7.2 innings while Ellis Burks clubbed a three-run, third-inning homer off the left field foul pole.

J.T. Snow's dramatic three-run, pinch homer in the bottom of the ninth tied Game #2 4-4, but the Mets would rally to win 5-4 in 10 innings and even the series at a game apiece.

Unfortunately for San Francisco, its offense went south when the club went east, as the Giants could manage only two runs in 22 innings at Shea Stadium. New York's Benny Agbayani gave the Mets a 3-2 victory in Game #3 with a 13th inning solo home run, and Bobby Jones hurled a one-hit shut-out for a 4-0 win in the Game #4 clincher.

2002 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ATLANTA BRAVES

(Giants win series, 3 games to 2)

Following a 3-0 loss at Florida on August 18th, a stagnant San Francisco club stood at 66-56, four games behind Los Angeles in the NL Wild Card chase. From then on, the Giants would play like champions, going 29-10 down the stretch to capture the league's fourth playoff spot by three and a half contests over the Dodgers.

Despite a 95-win campaign that tied for the fourth-most victories in San Francisco history, the Giants entered the NLDS as heavy underdogs to the Atlanta Braves, who captured their 11th-consecutive division crown by an astounding 19.0-game margin.

Undaunted by their opponents and buoyed by the right arm of starter Russ Ortiz, the Giants stormed into Turner Field and won the series opener by an 8-5 count as Rich Aurilia, Benito Santiago and J.T. Snow all collected two RBI apiece.

Yet, the hope of Game #1 quickly turned into despair, as Atlanta backed the stout pitching of Kevin Millwood and Greg Maddux, respectively, with 17 combined runs in a pair of routs to take a 2-1 series lead.

Facing the prospect of a long winter, San Francisco turned to past playoff hero Livan Hernandez to work his magic once again in Game #4 at AT&T Park. The big right-hander responded by hurling 8.1-strong innings, while Aurilia finished 3-for-4 with a homer and four RBI as the Giants won 8-3 to force a return trip to Atlanta.

In the decisive Game #5, Barry Bonds exorcised his demons of post season past, singling and scoring the Giants' first run in the second and clubbing an opposite-field, solo homer in the fourth that gave SF a 2-0 lead. Ortiz became the first Giants pitcher to win two games in the same post season series since Carl Hubbell went 2-0 in the 1933 World Series, yet San Francisco's 3-1 victory was in doubt until the end. With two men on and none out in the ninth, closer Robb Nen struck out Gary Sheffield then induced Chipper Jones to ground into a series-ending double play.

2003 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. FLORIDA MARLINS

(Marlins win series, 3 games to 1)

For the first time since 1936-37, the Giants earned consecutive appearances in post season play, as the club won its third National League West title in seven years and became only the second team in franchise history to go wire-to-wire with an overall finish of 100-61.

A flurry of offseason moves brought new faces to San Francisco as the team introduced first year manager Felipe Alou and four new starters to the lineup. The revamped club breezed by their opposition, ending their campaign 15.5 games ahead of the Dodgers for the Giants' largest advantage in 91 years.

General Manager Brian Sabean garnered Executive of the Year accolades for constructing the team with the third best record in baseball and Barry Bonds earned his unprecedented 6th National League Most Valuable Player Award.

Headed into Game #1 of the NLDS rested and primed for success, pitching ace Jason Schmidt thrived in the intense atmosphere at AT&T Park, tossing a complete-game three-hitter as the Giants blanked the visiting Marlins 2-0.

A sudden turn of events plagued the Giants in Game #2, as San Francisco saw their 4-1 lead quickly vanish as Gold Glovers made costly miscues and the Marlins escaped AT&T Park with a 9-5 win.

Knotted up at 1-1, both teams headed to South Florida, but the Giants' run of bad luck seemed to follow. After taking a 3-2 advantage in the 11th inning of Game #3, SF let the Marlins slip back into the contest after a dropped fly ball by Jose Cruz, Jr. allowed the tying run on base. With 2 out, the bases loaded and a 1-2 count on Ivan Rodriguez, Tim Worrell's next pitch was drilled into right field for a game-winning, 2-run single.

In Game #4, San Francisco's furious comeback in the 9th fell short as J.T. Snow was thrown out at the plate on Jeffrey Hammonds' 2-out single to left, giving the Marlins a 7-6 victory and ending the Giants' hopes for another playoff run.

2010 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ATLANTA BRAVES

(Giants win series, 3 games to 1)

After clinching the 2010 NL West Crown in the final game of the regular season, the Giants entered the NL Division Series at home vs. the Atlanta Braves. In order to get there, Giants' General Manager Brian Sabean had built a pitching staff that led the Majors in ERA with a 3.36 figure, while also revamping his offense throughout the season by acquiring difference making outfielders Pat Burrell and Cody Ross as well as bringing up eventual 2010 NL Rookie of the Year Buster Posey from the minor leagues in late May.

San Francisco made a push for the 2010 NL West Title on August 27. Entering that day, SF was 6.0 games back of the San Diego Padres, however the Giants were red hot in the season's final month, posting an 18-8 record, which was the second best winning percentage in baseball.

The Giants would win the NLDS over the Braves 3-games-to-1 behind their stalwart pitching as all four games in the series were decided by a one-run margin, which marked the first time in postseason history in which every game was decided by one run. The pitching staff posted a 1.66 ERA as Tim Lincecum was dominant in his postseason debut, tossing a two-hit, 14-strikeout shutout during the Giants' 1-0 win in Game #1.

San Francisco lost Game #2 as the Braves' Rick Ankiel hit a splash hit home run in the top of the 11th frame to help Atlanta pull ahead 5-4.

The next two games were won in dramatic fashion as SF rallied past the Braves 3-2 in Game #3, thanks in part to three fielding errors by Atlanta second baseman Brooks Conrad.

Madison Bumgarner came up aces in Game #4 as he held Atlanta to two runs in 6.0 innings in his postseason debut.

However, it was Cody Ross who played hero in the clinching game as he homered in the sixth inning to break up Derek Lowe's no-hit bid, while also driving in the go-ahead run in the seventh inning as SF won 3-2 and clinched their first Division series since 2002.

2012 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. CINCINNATI REDS

(Giants win series, 3 games to 2)

The 2012 edition of the Giants won the division title despite crushing injuries and unexpected slumps. All-Star closer Brian Wilson was lost for the year after a second Tommy John surgery. Freddy Sanchez never returned after battling back and shoulder issues, Melky Cabrera, acquired in the offseason, was lost in mid-August after testing positive for testosterone and two-time Cy Young award winner Tim Lincecum was having the worst season of his career.

Meanwhile, the Dodgers, with an influx of cash, shook the baseball world with a nine player trade with the Red Sox, centered around slugger Adrian Gonzalez going back to the West Coast.

However, All-Star catcher and 2012 MVP Buster Posey, along with mid-season acquisitions Marco Scutaro and Hunter Pence, ignited the Giants and after trailing the Dodgers by 7.5 games as late as May 28, they slowly chipped away and ended up winning the West by a whopping 8.0 games, their second division title in the last three seasons.

Their first round opponent in the playoffs, the Cincinnati Reds, led by Joey Votto and Brandon Phillips, stormed into San Francisco and took the first two games from the Giants, winning by scores of 5-2 and 9-0. Facing the daunting task of being down 2-0 in the best-of-five division series, the Giants now had to win three consecutive games on the road, something that had never been accomplished in baseball postseason history.

With all the local and national media counting the Giants out, Hunter Pence stood up and fired up his teammates with a football-like huddle and rallying speech in the dugout prior to Game #3, a game in which SF won 2-1, avoiding a sweep.

In Game #4, Angel Pagan hit the first leadoff home run in Giants postseason history, and Gregor Blanco and Pablo Sandoval connected later for an 8-3 victory that evened the series at 2-2.

Not just any comeback would get SF back to playing for a pennant. It would take one of Giant proportions and Buster Posey helped make it happen as he hit the third grand slam in Giants' postseason history and San Francisco pulled off an unprecedented revival, moving to the LCS with a 6-4 victory over the Reds in the deciding Game #5.

2014 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS VS. WASHINGTON NATIONALS

(Giants win series, 3 game to 1)

San Francisco defeated the heavily favored Washington Nationals, three-games-to-one in the National League Division Series.

Jake Peavy pitched no-hit ball for 4.0 innings and didn't allow a run in his 5.2-inning outing in Game #1. Hunter Strickland bailed Peavy out of a bases-loaded jam in the sixth by striking out Ian Desmond. Bryce Harper and Asdrubal Cabrera each hit solo homers off Strickland in the seventh as the Nationals cut a 3-0 deficit to 3-2. Sergio Romo worked out of a jam in the eighth and Santiago Casilla retired all three hitters in the ninth for the save.

What became the longest-ever postseason game in terms of time (6:23) and tied for the longest in terms of innings had seemed headed for a conclusion in the ninth in Game #2. Washington's Jordan Zimmermann had a 1-0 lead, was working on a three-hitter and had retired 20 consecutive batters before walking Joe Panik with two outs in the final frame. Manager Matt Williams then brought in Drew Storen to face Buster Posey, who hit a first-pitch single, and then Pablo Sandoval tied the game by slicing a double into the left-field corner to bring home Panik. The Nats' relay was just in time to cut down Posey at the plate. The game soon spun into extra innings. Yusmeiro Petit threw 6.0-shutout innings, during which he allowed one hit and struck out seven. Leading off the 18th, Brandon Belt drove a Tanner Roark pitch over the right-field wall to put the Giants in front. Hunter Strickland preserved the edge in the bottom of the inning to pick up the save.

The Giants' 10-game postseason winning streak ended with an error in Game #3. Madison Bumgarner and Doug Fister were locked in a scoreless matchup in the seventh before the San Francisco ace inaccurately threw to 3rd after fielding Wilson Ramos' sacrifice bunt. Two runs scored on the errant throw.

A bases-loaded walk to Gregor Blanco and an RBI groundout by Joe Panik gave the Giants a 2-0 lead in the second inning of Game #4. Hunter Pence made one of the Giants' top defensive plays of the postseason in the sixth when he banged into the right-field wall as he tracked down Jayson Werth's drive. However, Bryce Harper homered off Hunter Strickland in the following inning to tie the game at 2-2. The Giants regained the lead for good in the bottom of the inning on Aaron Barrett's wild pitch on which Panik came home. With two outs and the bases empty in the ninth, Santiago Casilla walked Harper before getting Wilson Ramos on a grounder to Panik at second. The Giants soon would spray champagne and prepare to meet the Cardinals in the NLCS.

2016 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. CHICAGO CUBS

(Cubs win series, 3 games to 1)

The heavily favored Cubs defeated the Giants three-games-to-one in the best-of-five division series. Jon Lester outdueled Johnny Cueto in Game #1, a 1-0 Giants loss. Both Lester and Cueto logged 8.0 innings each, with the difference, a solo home run off the bat of Javier Baez in the 8th inning off Cueto making the Cubs Game #1 winners.

Game #2 pitted Jeff Samardzija against Kyle Hendricks and both starters lasted less than four innings, with Hendricks being removed due to injury and Samardzija getting roughed up for four runs on six hits in just 2.0 innings of work. Cubs relief pitcher Travis Wood homered off George Kontos and the Giants could not overcome an early 4-0 deficit as they dropped a 5-2 decision to go down 0-2 in the series.

The Giants needed a win in Game #3 or they would find themselves packing their bags for the offseason. It took 13.0 innings, but the Giants outlasted the Cubs by a 6-5 score to get into the win column. The Giants rallied for three runs off LHP Aroldis Chapman in the 8th to go ahead 5-3, then the Cubs stormed back to tie the score at 5-5 in the 9th. Four innings later, Brandon Crawford led off the 13th with a double and Joe Panik followed with a double off the right field wall, giving San Francisco the walk-off win.

Game #4 will leave a sour taste in Giants' fans mouths for a while as the team led 5-2 in the 9th and were just three outs away from pushing the series back to Chicago for a deciding fifth and final game. However, the Giants' bullpen, a problem for SF the latter part of the season, unraveled by giving up four runs on four hits and an error in the final frame to allow the Cubs to take a 6-5 victory.

Giants starter Matt Moore had one of his best starts of the year, allowing just two runs on two hits with 10 strikeouts in 8.0 innings of work.

National League Championship Series

1971 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. PITTSBURGH PIRATES

(Pirates win series, 3 games to 1)

After winning its first National League West crown, San Francisco entered the National League Championship Series as the favorite against Eastern Division titlists Pittsburgh. The Giants had posted nine wins in 12 contests vs. the Pirates during the regular season.

However, the Giants ran into the hot hitting of Pirates' first baseman Bob Robertson, who clubbed four home runs to lead Pittsburgh to a three games-to-one series victory.

Since staff ace Juan Marichal pitched San Francisco to the NL West flag in its season finale at San Diego, future Hall of Famer Gaylord Perry got the call in Game #1. The right-hander scattered four runs (three earned) and nine hits over his complete game effort as Willie McCovey and Tito Fuentes each delivered two-run home runs in the fourth inning to power SF to a 5-4 victory.

Then Robertson took over. He clubbed a NLCS record three home runs in Game #2 to lead the Pirates to a 9-4 triumph. The first baseman finished 4-for-4 with four runs scored and five RBI as Pittsburgh's victory ended a six-game losing streak at Candlestick Park.

Marichal pitched a four-hitter when the play-offs shifted to Three Rivers Stadium for Game #3, but home runs by Robertson and Richie Hebner gave the Pirates a 2-1 victory behind Bob Johnson and Dave Giusti. The Bucs advanced to the World Series when they tattooed Perry for seven runs and 10 hits over 5.2 innings in the fourth and final game of the series.

1987 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

(Cardinals win series, 4 games to 3)

The Giants became only the fourth team in Major League history since 1900 to finish first within two years of a 100-loss disaster. SF rattled off a 90-72 mark to win the 1987 National League West crown after going 62-100 in 1985.

San Francisco battled back from a five-game deficit on Aug. 7 and went 37-17 the rest of the way to capture its first NL West title in 16 years.

Jeffrey Leonard, whose “one-flap-down” home run trot was the story of the series, became the first player on a losing team to capture the NLCS MVP honor when he hit .417 with four home runs and five RBI despite the Giants falling to the Cardinals in seven games. San Francisco split the first two games of the series in St. Louis, with Dave Dravecky-who was acquired from the San Diego Padres in a seven-player deal on July 4-shutting out the Cardinals on two hits in Game #2. When the series moved to Candlestick Park, the Giants took a 4-0, fifth inning advantage in Game #3 but the Cardinals roared back to post a 6-5 victory and take a 2-1 lead in the series.

Leonard responded by crushing a two-run clout in the fifth inning of the fourth game to push San Francisco to a series-evening 4-2 triumph. His four homers in four games tied the Championship Series record for a league playoff of any duration.

The Giants took a three games-to-two series advantage back to St. Louis after posting a 6-3 victory in the fifth contest. However, San Francisco didn't score a run in either of the last two games.

1989 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. CHICAGO CUBS

(Giants win series, 4 games to 1)

Will Clark carried the Giants to their first NL pennant in 27 years when San Francisco defeated the Chicago Cubs in five games.

Clark provided offensive bookends in the series, starting with six RBI in the opener and ending with a two-out, bases-loaded, series-winning two-run single in the eighth inning of Game #5. “Will the Thrill” established new NLCS standards for average (.650), hits (13), runs (eight), total bases (24) and slugging percentage (1.200).

Included in those opening-game six RBI for Clark was his fourth-inning grand slam off Cubs' starter Greg Maddux, which gave San Francisco an 8-3 lead. The Giants' first baseman finished the contest 4-for-4 with four runs scored, a double and two home runs.

The Cubs claimed victory in Game #2, so the series headed to San Francisco tied a game apiece. However, Robby Thompson clubbed a two-run, seventh-inning homer off Les Lancaster to give the Giants a 5-4 victory in the third game.

In one of the most intense at-bats in Giants' post season history in Game #4, Matt Williams locked up with lefty Steve Wilson in a 12-pitch plate appearance that resulted in a two-run blast which propelled San Francisco to a 6-4 victory.

As broadcaster Hank Greenwald said, “27 years of waiting have come to an end” when the Giants posted a 3-2 come-from-behind victory in Game #5. Clark once again delivered the game-winner, a two-run single up the spine of the infield off Mitch “Wild Thing” Williams.

2002 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

(Giants win series, 4 games to 1)

Following a furious late-season run to capture the Wild Card berth and a stirring five-game NLDS victory over Atlanta, the Giants provided the only truly fitting encore—they won the club's first NL pennant in 13 years by defeating the St. Louis Cardinals in a scintillating and highly competitive five-contest NLCS.

San Francisco began its run to the Fall Classic by winning each of the first two contests in St. Louis. The Giants pounded Cardinals ace Matt Morris early and often en route to a 9-6 victory in Game #1, while Jason Schmidt turned in a dominating Game #2 performance. The right-hander struck out eight and carried a shutout into the eighth inning, while Rich Aurilia's two-homer, three-RBI effort spurred a 4-1 triumph.

Despite Barry Bonds' dramatic three-run, fifth-inning homer into McCovey Cove that briefly tied Game #3 at AT&T Park, a solo clout by St. Louis' Eli Marrero and stingy pitching by the Cardinal bullpen gave the visitors a 5-4 win and renewed hope.

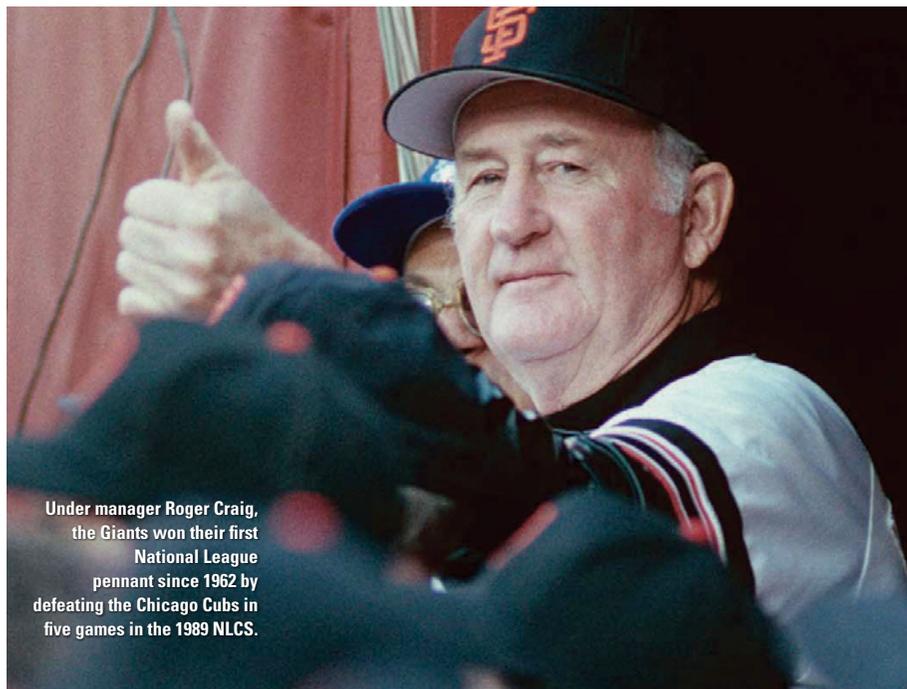

St. Louis jumped out to a 2-0, first-inning lead in Game #4 and appeared on its way to evening the series until a pair of Giants veterans turned the tide. In the sixth, J.T. Snow delivered a two-out, two-run double that knotted the contest. Following a two-out intentional walk to Bonds in the eighth, Benito Santiago cemented his series MVP honors by clubbing a full-count offering from Rick White into the left field bleachers for a 4-2 lead. Robb Nen struck out the final two hitters in the ninth to strand the tying run at third and close out a 4-3 SF victory.

Giants' lefty Kirk Rueter and Morris engaged in a classic October pitchers' duel in a Game #5 that was scoreless until St. Louis broke through with a run in the seventh. Bonds tied the contest 1-1 with an eighth-inning sacrifice fly, thus setting the stage for one of the most dramatic moments in San Francisco history.

Morris retired the first two Giants hitters in the bottom of the ninth inning, but was chased by consecutive singles from David Bell and Shawon Dunston. St. Louis turned to reliever Steve Kline, and Kenny Lofton greeted the southpaw by lining his first pitch into right-center field for a single that scored a sliding Bell as the jubilant NL champion Giants poured onto the field.

Under manager Roger Craig, the Giants won their first National League pennant since 1962 by defeating the Chicago Cubs in five games in the 1989 NLCS.

2010 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA PHILLIES

(Giants win series, 4 games to 2)

The Giants again relied upon the strength of their pitching in the League Championship Series as they went on to win the best-of-seven LCS from the Phillies to clinch their 18th National League Pennant and fourth while in San Francisco.

Tim Lincecum outdueled Roy Halladay in Game #1 as Cody Ross hit a pair of solo home runs off of the eventual 2010 NL Cy Young award winner to help the Giants defeat the Phillies 4-3 in the opener.

Game #2 did not go as scripted for San Francisco as the Phillies' Roy Oswalt allowed just one run in 8.0 innings and Jimmy Rollins drove in four runs as the Phillies won 6-1. Cody Ross was the lone bright spot for Giants' offense as he connected for his third home run of the series, which tied the game at one apiece in the fifth inning.

San Francisco grabbed a 2-1 edge in Game #3 with a 3-0 shutout behind Matt Cain, who stymied the Phillies in 7.0 innings, allowing just two hits. The Giants scored in the fourth as once again it was Ross who delivered a run-scoring single, which helped cement his status as the NLCS MVP.

Juan Uribe delivered a walk-off sacrifice fly off Roy Oswalt with one out in the ninth inning as SF took Game #4 by a 6-5 count. Buster Posey also contributed offensively going 4-for-4 and becoming the first rookie in the San Francisco era and second in club history to record four hits in a postseason game.

The Giants entered Game #5 just one win away from clinching their 18th NL Pennant and had their ace on the mound with Lincecum. However, the Phillies countered with Roy Halladay, who was pitching with an injured right groin. The injury did not deter him as the Phillies won 4-2, which sent the series back to Philadelphia.

Early during Game #6 it appeared as if the series would go to 7 games, as Giants' starter Jonathan Sanchez worked just 2.0 innings, allowing a pair of runs. However, the bullpen was stellar, combining for 7.0-scoreless innings to keep the Giants in the game. Juan Uribe hit an opposite-field home run that barely cleared the right-field wall in the eighth inning, sending the Giants' dugout into a frenzy. Brian Wilson was called upon after Tim Lincecum, pitching in relief for the first time in his career, allowed consecutive one-out singles in the eighth. Wilson got Carlos Ruiz to lineout into a double-play to escape the frame. The Giants' closer then made things interesting in the ninth, issuing walks to Jimmy Rollins and Chase Utley, before striking out Ryan Howard looking to end the game.

2012 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

(Giants win series, 4 games to 3)

After a historic win over the Cincinnati Reds in the Division Series, the Giants faced the St. Louis Cardinals in the League Championship Series for the third time in postseason history. It marked the first time in LCS history that the previous two World Series winners had met.

The clubs split the first two games in San Francisco, with Carlos Beltran and David Freese each hitting two-run home runs to lift the Cardinals to a 6-4 victory in Game #1. In Game #2, Marco Scutaro hit a two-run single in San Francisco's four run fourth inning before leaving with a hip injury and the Giants received their first home win in the postseason, with a 7-1 victory to even the LCS at one game apiece.

The series shifted to St. Louis and the Cards took advantage of the home field as Matt Carpenter hit a two-run home run after subbing for Carlos Beltran, and the Cardinals chased Matt Cain before a three and a half hour rain delay in the seventh inning of a 3-1 Red Bird Game #3 win.

The Giants were routed 8-3 in Game #4. Adam Wainwright threw 7.0 innings of four-hit ball and St. Louis' offense roughed up Tim Lincecum and the Giants' bullpen.

Facing elimination for the fourth time in the 2012 postseason, the Giants' sent Barry Zito to the mound in Game #5 and the soft-tossing lefty was at his best, pitching San Francisco back into the series with a 5-0 win that narrowed SF's deficit to 3-2. Zito resembled the same guy who won the 2002 AL Cy Young Award with the A's, as he retired 11 consecutive batters in one stretch while striking out six in 7.2 innings.

Back in San Francisco for a Game #6, the Giants chased opposing starter Chris Carpenter to an early exit in their 6-1 victory that forced the series to a decisive Game #7. Ryan Vogelsong finished with nine strikeouts, a career-high for any game.

Hunter Pence got the Giants going with a weird double, Matt Cain pitched his second clincher of the postseason and the Giants closed out Game #7 of the LCS in a rainstorm, routing the Cardinals 9-0 to advance to the World Series for the 19th time in franchise history, the fifth time since moving to San Francisco and for the second time in the last three seasons.

San Francisco won its record-tying sixth elimination game of the postseason, completing a lopsided rally from a 3-1 deficit. Marco Scutaro recorded his sixth multi-hit game of the series and matched an LCS record with 14 hits and Pablo Sandoval drove in a run for his fifth straight game. After falling behind in the series 3-games-to-1, the Giants outscored the Cardinals 20-1 over the final three games behind stellar pitching performances from Barry Zito, Ryan Vogelsong and Matt Cain.

2014 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS VS. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

(Giants win series, 4 game to 1)

The underdog Giants beat the Cardinals four-games-to-one in the National League Championship Series.

In Game #1, Madison Bumgarner (named the NLCS MVP) threw 7.2 innings, extending his road postseason scoreless streak to a major-league-record 26.2 innings. He allowed four hits, struck out seven and walked one. Sergio Romo and Santiago Casilla retired the final four St. Louis hitters in order.

Game #2 was one of the Giants' best post-season games in 2014. St. Louis led 2-0 before the Giants scored single runs in the fifth, sixth and seventh innings to go in front 3-2. Cardinals rookie Oscar Taveras hit a pinch-hit homer off Jean Machi in the bottom of the seventh to tie the game. In the following frame, Matt Adams homered off Hunter Strickland to make it 4-3, Cardinals. With men at first and second and two outs in the ninth, Trevor Rosenthal uncorked a wild pitch on a 3-2 delivery to Joe Panik. Going on the pitch, pinch-runner Matt Duffy motored home for a 4-4 game. The tie didn't last long though, as Kolten Wong led off the bottom of the ninth inning by hitting an 0-1 pitch from Sergio Romo into the right field seats, giving the Cardinals a 5-4 win.

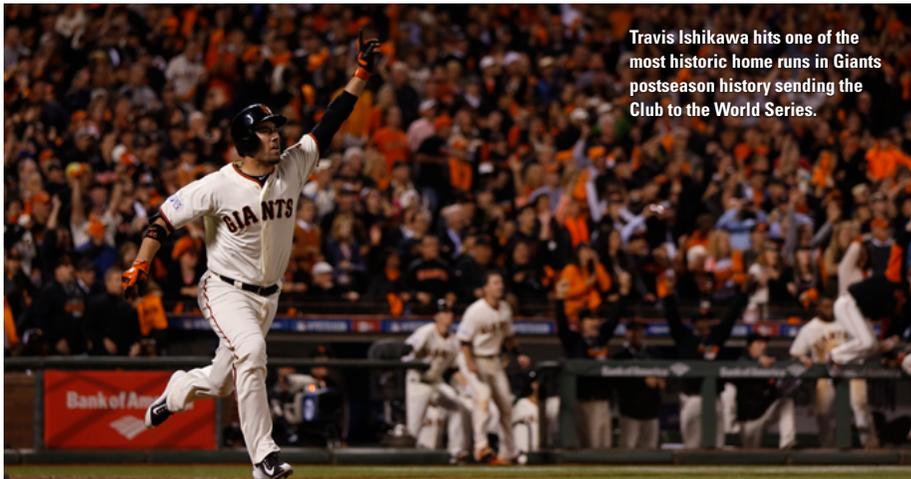

The Giants won Game #3, 5-4 in 10 innings. Tim Hudson had a 4-0 lead before the Cardinals would whittle the margin to 4-3 and tie the game on Hudson's final pitch. Brandon Crawford opened the bottom of the 10th inning by drawing a walk from lefty Randy Choate. Juan Perez then lined a single to left before Gregor Blanco followed by dropping down a bunt between the mound and the third-base line. Choate grabbed it and made an errant throw to first base allowing Crawford to score the winning run.

After St. Louis built a 4-1 lead in the third off Ryan Vogelsong in Game #4, the Giants answered with two in the bottom of the inning, getting two-out RBI singles from Buster Posey and Hunter Pence. Yusmeiro Petit blanked the Cardinals over the next three innings to pick up the win.

Game #5 was perhaps one of the most memorable postseason games in Giants history. Joe Panik put SF up 2-1 in the third inning after hitting a two-run homer off Adam Wainwright. However, Matt Adams and Tony Cruz hit solo HRs off Madison Bumgarner in the fourth, giving the Cards a 3-2 lead. Bumgarner did not allow a baserunner after Cruz's homer, setting down the final 13 men he faced. Wainwright had retired 10 straight through the seventh, but Pat Neshek replaced him to begin the eighth. Pinch-hitter Michael Morse greeted Neshek with a drive over the wall in left to tie the game and send the AT&T Park crowd into a frenzy. The Cardinals sent Michael Wacha to the mound in the 9th. Pablo Sandoval opened the inning with a single, and Joaquin Arias pinch-ran for him. With one out, Wacha lost all contact with the strike zone, throwing four consecutive balls to Brandon Belt and falling behind Travis Ishikawa 2-0. Ishikawa proceeded to etch his name next to Bobby Thomson's for hitting a home run that propelled the Giants to the World Series.

World Series

1905 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS

(Giants win series, 4 games to 1)

The Fall Classic returned after a year's hiatus and Hall of Famer Christy Mathewson made it his showcase, leading the Giants to their first World Championship with three shutout victories.

The 25-year-old right-hander, who had 32 victories in 1905 to register his third straight 30-win season, shut down the Philadelphia Athletics in New York's five-game victory. In the space of six days, he pitched three shutouts and permitted just 14 hits overall.

Mathewson even played a part in the Giants' offense during a 3-0 Game #1 victory in Philadelphia. He ignited a two-run rally in the fifth inning to break open a scoreless contest, then went out to shut out the Athletics on four hits.

New York skipper John McGraw, who boycotted the 1904 World Series vs. the Boston Red Sox, didn't have to rely solely on Mathewson to get him the title. He also had Red Ames and Joe McGinnity, who won 22 and 21 games during the regular season, respectively, in his rotation.

Those two hurlers worked in Game #2, but McGinnity was ticketed with the defeat after surrendering three unearned runs in a 3-0 defeat.

Mathewson was staked to a 2-0, 1st inning lead in Game #3 and responded by blanking Philadelphia on four hits. First baseman Dan McGann was the Giants' big gun in the 9-0 romp, collecting two singles and a double while driving in four runs.

McGinnity rebounded from his Game #2 defeat to shut out Eddie Plank and Philadelphia in a classic 1-0 pitchers' duel in Game #4.

But it was Mathewson who got to finish off the job he started when he blanked the Athletics 2-0 in the fifth and deciding game.

1911 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS

(Athletics win series, 4 games to 2)

The "running" Giants, who established a league record with 347 stolen bases, persevered through the rebuilding of the Polo Grounds and posted 99 victories to capture the National League pennant. New York had to play its home games through early June at the park of the American League's New York Highlanders (later the Yankees) after the Polo Grounds burned to the ground in April.

However, New York's offense was limited to only four stolen bases in its six-game World Series defeat to the Philadelphia Athletics.

1905 Series hero Christy Mathewson still anchored John McGraw's pitching staff, going 26-13 during the regular season. The Hall of Famer got New York off to a great start vs. Philadelphia in Game #1 of the Fall Classic, tossing a six-hitter in the 2-1 triumph.

The Athletics rebounded to take Games #2 and #3 with Frank "Home Run" Baker clubbing dramatic home runs in both outings.

Then the rains came. The World Series was put on hold for six days due to Mother Nature.

When the Fall Classic resumed exactly a week after Game #3 had been played, Mathewson was outdueled by Chief Bender in a 4-2 decision that gave the Athletics a three-games-to-one advantage.

The Giants escaped the inevitable in Game #5 by scoring a 4-3 triumph in 10 innings before getting clobbered 13-2 in the series' sixth and final game.

1912 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. BOSTON RED SOX

(Red Sox win series, 4 games to 3 - 1 tie)

The Giants, bolstered by lefty Rube Marquard's modern Major League record 19-game winning streak, lived a storybook 1912 campaign. That's until the 10th inning of the final game of the World Series, when usually-reliable center fielder Fred Snodgrass dropped a fly ball that opened the door for a two-run Boston rally that gave the Red Sox the title.

New York, which featured two 20-game winners in Marquard (26) and Christy Mathewson (23), posted 103 victories during the regular season and coasted to the pennant with a ten-game cushion.

Newcomer Jeff Tesreau, who won 17 games for the Giants, got the nod in Game #1 but suffered a 4-3 defeat to the Red Sox.

Despite a see-saw contest that saw four lead changes, Game #2 was a wash as it was called due to darkness, thus making the 1912 World Series an eight-game affair.

The Giants evened the score in Game #3, posting a 2-1 victory behind Marquard before the Red Sox got the better of Tesreau again in the fourth contest, this time by a 3-1 count.

Trailing two-games-to-one, the Giants posted 5-2 and 11-4 wins, respectively, in Games #6 and #7.

The Series came down to the 10th inning of the eighth and final game, as the Giants and Red Sox were deadlocked at 1-1 after nine innings. New York took a 2-1 lead in the top half of the 10th before the wheels fell off in the bottom half. Boston pinch hitter Clyde Engle opened the frame with a routine fly ball that Snodgrass was camped under and then dropped.

Boston eventually won the game 3-2 on a sacrifice fly in the 10th and ruined New York's magical season.

1913 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS

(Athletics win series, 4 games to 1)

New York won its third straight National League flag, but couldn't get over the hump in the World Series for the third consecutive year, falling four-games-to-one to the Philadelphia Athletics.

After winning the pennant with a twelve-game cushion, the Giants were beset by injuries during the Fall Classic. First baseman Fred Merkle was limited to 13 at-bats due to a bad leg. Center fielder Fred Snodgrass played in only two games and made three trips to the plate after suffering from a severe charley horse. Chief Meyers, the Giants' catcher, was shelved for the Series after suffering a fractured finger in practice preceding Game #2.

The Athletics jumped out to a 1-0 series advantage after shelling Rube Marquard for five runs and eight hits in five innings for a 6-4 victory in the opener.

Once again, Christy Mathewson provided New York with a fine post season performance when he tossed a 3-0, 10-inning shutout in Game #2. He even drove in the game-winning run with his single in the 10th.

That was last highlight for the Giants as the Athletics rolled to the World Championship by posting victories in each of the last three contests.

Mathewson, pitching in what would be his final World Series, wound up with a 5-5 lifetime mark in the Fall Classic—he was 4-0 on one point—after splitting two decisions in 1913.

Skipper John McGraw was determined to restore his club to World Series glory. However, it would be another four years until the Giants would take the field again in the championship series.

1917 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. CHICAGO WHITE SOX

(White Sox win series, 4 games to 2)

The Giants' run of bad luck continued in their fourth straight World Series defeat as they fell to the Chicago White Sox in six games.

In the sixth and deciding game, New York was in a scoreless deadlock with Chicago heading into the fourth inning. That's when the Giants' penchant for mistakes at inopportune times reared its ugly head once again. This time, Chicago second baseman Eddie Collins led off the frame with a grounder to New York third baseman Heinie Zimmerman, who made a two-base throwing error on the play. Joe Jackson's ensuing fly ball was dropped by right fielder Dave Robertson, positioning White Sox at the corners.

Chicago center fielder Happy Felsch then grounded back to the pitcher, Rube Benton, who saw Collins break from third and threw to Zimmerman in an attempt to get Collins hung up. Zimmerman ran Collins toward the plate, but the runner bounded past catcher Bill Rariden to make it a Zimmerman-Collins race to the plate. The White Sox second baseman won the footrace and distracted the Giants' defense enough to allow the baserunners to advance to second and third. Both Chicago runners would score on an ensuing base hit. That's all the White Sox would need to salt away the World Championship as they went on to win Game #6 by a 4-2 count.

Famed Olympian and footballer Jim Thorpe was on the 1917 Giants' club, but made only one "appearance" during the World Series in Game #5. He was slated to start in right field, but never took the field. The right-handed hitting Thorpe was removed for a left-handed pinch hitter after the White Sox lifted lefty hurler Reb Russell in favor of right-hander Eddie Cicotte.

1921 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(Giants win series, 5 games to 3)

The Giants snapped a four-World Series losing streak when they outdueled the rival Yankees in a thrilling eight-game series. With both clubs playing their home contests at the Polo Grounds, it was the first Fall Classic to be played in its entirety at one stadium.

The National League champions were headlined by third baseman Frankie Frisch, right fielder Ross Youngs, first baseman George Kelly and left fielder Irish Meusel, while Babe Ruth and his 59 home runs was the sparkplug for the Yankees.

The American Leaguers jumped out to a two games-to-none lead after posting consecutive 3-0 victories. The Giants battled back from a 2-0, 2nd inning deficit in Game #3 to post a 13-5 victory. John McGraw's club knotted the Fall Classic at two games apiece when it logged a 4-2 triumph in the fourth game, despite Ruth's first World Series home run.

Ruth, hobbled by knee and arm ailments, spirited the Yankees to a 3-1 victory in Game #5 when he started the go-ahead rally with a bunt base hit.

However, the Bambino couldn't continue and the Giants took advantage of the situation to run off three straight victories and give the franchise its first World Championship since 1905. Art Nehf got the National Leaguers over the top with his four-hit, 1-0 victory in Game #8.

1922 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(Giants win series, 4 games to 0 - 1 tie)

The Giants, playing the second of four consecutive World Series, earned their berth by taking the National League pennant with a seven-game cushion.

John McGraw's club brought home its second straight title after defeating its fellow Polo Grounds tenants, the Yankees, in a four-victory sweep that actually took five games to complete due to a tie.

Third baseman Heinie Groh, who was acquired from Cincinnati the previous winter, led the Giants to a 3-2 triumph in the opener after logging a 3-for-3 showing. The National League entrant had been shut out by Joe Bush through seven innings, before it stormed back from a two-run deficit on Irish Meusel's two-run single and Ross Youngs' sacrifice fly.

Meusel got back in the act quickly in Game #2, drilling a three-run home run off Bob Shawkey in the first inning. However, the Yankees battled back to tie the contest at 3-3 and it was inexplicably called because of "darkness" after the 10th inning by umpire George Hildebrand, despite at least a half-hour of daylight remaining.

Jack Scott, who went 8-2 in just 17 games for the Giants, tossed a four-hitter at the Yankees in Game #3 and led the National Leaguers to a 3-0 victory.

The Giants managed to post 4-3 and 5-3 victories in the fourth and fifth games, respectively, to advance to their second straight title. It also helped that the Giants' pitchers shut down Babe Ruth over the final three outings, holding him 0-for-9.

The 1922 World Championship would prove to be the third and final one in the illustrious career of the Giants' winningest skipper, John McGraw.

1923 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(Yankees win series, 4 games to 2)

It was an all-New York World Series for the third straight year, but there were a few changes. First, the Yankees moved into their own ballpark, Yankee Stadium. Second and most importantly, the American League entrant ended the Giants' two-year reign as World Champions.

The man who proved to be a thorn in the side of the Yankees was a Giants' outfielder who would later become synonymous with the club from the Bronx—Casey Stengel.

The 34-year-old outfielder christened World Series play in Yankee Stadium when he lined a ninth inning Joe Bush offering into left-center field that got between the outfielders for an inside-the-park home run, breaking a 4-4 draw and giving the Giants a 5-4 triumph in Game #1.

The Yankees, who had not defeated the Giants in their last nine World Series meetings (eight defeats, one tie), finally broke through in Game #2 when Babe Ruth clubbed two home runs in the 4-2 victory.

When the Series returned to Yankee Stadium for Game #3, Stengel shared the stage with pitcher Art Nehf. The outfielder broke open a scoreless duel with a home run into the right field stands. Nehf finished off the American Leaguers after allowing five singles and a double in the 1-0 win.

That was all she wrote for the Giants as the Yankees rattled off three consecutive victories to win their first World Championship. The American Leaguers coasted to 8-4 and 8-1 victories in Games #4 and #5, respectively.

In the sixth and final contest, Ruth got the Yanks off to a great start with his first inning, upper deck blast. But the A.L. entrant would need a five-run eighth inning to post the 6-4 decider.

1924 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. WASHINGTON SENATORS

(Senators win series, 4 games to 3)

The Giants made their fourth straight appearance in the Fall Classic, but they faced someone other than the Yankees for the first time during that span when they squared off with the Washington Senators.

New York was the National League representative in the World Series for the eighth time in 14 years, but it had to scramble to win the flag by one-and-a-half games over Brooklyn.

With the World Series tied at three games apiece, horrified legacies of Merkle, Snodgrass and Zimmerman returned to longtime Giants' fans. Despite making three errors in the final contest, New York was done in twice by the infield at Washington's Griffith Stadium.

New York took a 3-1 advantage into the eighth inning of that final contest. With two outs and the bases-loaded, Senators' second baseman/manager

Bucky Harris hit a grounder that skipped over the head of 18-year-old third baseman Freddie Lindstrom. Two runs scored on the bad-hop single to tie the game.

The contest remained deadlocked until the bottom of the 12th inning, when Giants' catcher Hank Gowdy tripped over his mask and dropped a Muddy Ruel pop. The Washington catcher responded with a double down the third base line. One batter later with runners on first and second, center fielder Earl McNeely grounded to third. But once again, the ball skipped over Lindstrom's head and Ruel came around to score the winning tally.

This would prove to be the final World Series appearance for Giants manager John McGraw. Although he owned a 3-6 lifetime mark in the Fall Classic, only one other manager appeared in more series—Casey Stengel with 10 trips.

1933 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. WASHINGTON SENATORS

(Giants win series, 4 games to 1)

New York, in its first full season under new manager Bill Terry, won the National League pennant on the strong pitching of Carl Hubbell and Hal Schumacher.

The Giants entered the World Series as the underdog to the high-powered offense of the Washington Senators. However, the New Yorkers tacked up a 1.53 ERA (8er, 47.0ip) en route to their four games-to-one series victory.

Hubbell and Schumacher, who had combined for 17 shutouts during the regular season, were selected to start the first two contests vs. the Senators.

Hubbell, the second winningest pitcher in Giants history, struck out 10 and didn't allow an earned run in the 4-2 victory. Outfielder Mel Ott accounted for three of New York's four runs, with his two-run home run and RBI single. Schumacher followed Hubbell's lead and allowed only a solo home run in the Giants' 6-1 Game #2 victory.

The good pitching turned on the Giants in Game #3 as Washington's Earl Whitehill tossed a five-hit shutout to give the Senators a 4-0 triumph.

Hubbell, who led the National League with 23 wins, carried a 1-1 game into the 10th inning in Game #4 when the Giants edged ahead on third baseman Travis Jackson's bunt single, a sacrifice and shortstop Blondy Ryan's single. King Carl escaped a one-out, bases-loaded jam in the bottom half of the inning with a double play to preserve New York's 2-1 victory.

Schumacher helped himself offensively in the decisive Game #5 with his two-run single in the second inning. Then 43-year-old reliever Dolph Luque took over a 3-3 game and worked the final four-and-one-third innings to get the Giants in position to win. Ott took care of the offense when he drilled a solo blast into the center field stands at Griffith Stadium in the top of the 10th inning to give New York a 4-3 victory.

1936 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(Yankees win series, 4 games to 2)

The Giants locked horns with their cross-town rivals, the Yankees, in the Fall Classic for the fifth time after winning the National League flag by a five-game margin.

The Yankees, who were without Babe Ruth but had Joe DiMaggio, captured the Series in six games to start a run that saw them win 16 of the next 27 World Championships.

The National Leaguers rode the arm of Hall of Famer Carl Hubbell to their 11th World Series. The 33-year-old left-hander won his last 16 decisions of the regular season to finish with a 26-6 ledger that included a 2.31 ERA.

King Carl was on the mound for the Giants in Game #1 and got the National Leaguers a 6-1 victory after allowing just seven hits, including a third inning home run by George Selkirk. Trailing 1-0 in the fifth inning, shortstop Dick Bartell launched a solo blast of his own before the Giants added another run in the sixth and four more in the eighth.

The National Leaguers' victory in Game #1 snapped a 12-game winning streak owned by the Yankees in World Series action.

The Yankees went on to win each of the next three games, outscoring the Giants by a cumulative 25-7 count.

Staving off elimination, the Giants scored a 5-4, 10-inning victory in Game #5. Manager Bill Terry, playing in the next-to-last game of his playing career, drove in the game-winner with a sacrifice fly.

The American Leaguers finished off the Polo Grounds tenants in Game #6 as they pounded out 17 hits en route to their series-clinching 13-5 victory.

1937 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(Yankees win series, 4 games to 1)

The two New York teams squared off once again in the Fall Classic, but the Yankees' offensive firepower proved to be too much for the Giants as the American League entrants took home the title in a five-game series.

The Giants, who boasted two 20-game winners in Carl Hubbell and rookie Cliff Melton, only had one big bat to combat the Yankee arsenal. Mel Ott clubbed 31 home runs and drove in 95 runs.

However, that was no match for the Yankees' lineup that had five different 100-RBI men in Lou Gehrig, Joe DiMaggio, Tony Lazzeri, Bill Dickey and George Selkirk.

Hubbell was once again the Giants' Game #1 starter and was coasting along with a 1-0 lead into the bottom of the sixth. Then the Yankees produced one of their vaunted big-run innings, posting a six-run frame. The American Leaguers went on to post the 8-1 victory.

It was much of the same in Games #2 and #3 as the Yankees posted 8-1 and 5-1 triumphs, respectively.

The Giants turned the tables in Game #4 as they plated six runs in the second inning, with the big blows coming from center fielder Hank Leiber. He opened the frame with a single and scored before capping off the rally with a two-run single. The National Leaguers had Hubbell on the hill and he shut down the Yankees on six hits for the 7-3 victory.

The Yankees captured their second straight title with a 4-2 win in the fifth contest.

1951 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(Yankees win series, 4 games to 2)

The 1951 World Series was overshadowed by an event that took place the day before it began — “The Shot Heard ‘Round the World.”

Bobby Thomson’s three-run, ninth-inning homer off the Dodgers’ Ralph Branca in the National League-deciding playoff game put an exclamation on one of the greatest stretch drives in the history of baseball.

Manager Leo Durocher’s club trailed Brooklyn by 13-and-a-half games on Aug. 11. Then the Giants rattled off 16-straight victories and won 37 of their last 44 regular-season games to force a best-of-three playoff series with the Dodgers for the National League pennant.

The momentum seemed to carry over to the next day for the opener of the World Series as Monte Irvin stole home in the first inning to register the first swipe of home since the Yankees’

Bob Meusel did it in 1928. The Giants’ left fielder finished the contest 4-for-5 and spearheaded a 5-1 victory.

Irvin would once again lead the National Leaguers’ offense in Game #2, but his three hits weren’t enough to overcome the Yankees in a 3-1 defeat.

Shortstop Eddie Stanky inspired a five-run, fifth-inning rally in Game #3 when he kicked the ball out of Phil Rizzuto’s glove on a failed stolen base attempt and scrambled to third. The Giants would move on to a 6-2 triumph at the Polo Grounds.

Despite holding a two-games-to-one series lead, the Giants couldn’t finish off the Yankees as the American Leaguers ran off three straight victories to claim the title.

1954 — NEW YORK GIANTS vs. CLEVELAND INDIANS

(Giants win series, 4 games to 0)

Willie Mays got the National League champion Giants off to a great start in the 1954 World Series when he made perhaps the greatest defensive play in baseball history.

With New York and Cleveland tied 2-2 in the eighth inning of Game #1 at the Polo Grounds and two Indian runners on base, the Hall of Fame center fielder made an over-the-shoulder catch of a 460-foot smash off the bat of the Indians’ Vic Wertz.

The Giants went on to win 5-2 when pinch-hitter Dusty Rhodes hit a three-run, 10th-inning home run off Indians’ starter Bob Lemon. Ironically, the game-winning clout went only 260 feet.

The Giants would go on to sweep the Indians in four games to register their last World Championship in an upset over the highly-touted American League champs.

Rhodes, who hit .341 in part-time duty and as a pinch-hitter deluxe during the regular season, also delivered the game-winning hits in both Games #2 and #3. However, his services weren’t needed in the fourth and final contest as New York jumped out to a 7-0 advantage and coasted to the 7-4 championship-clinching victory.

New York was the surprise National League champion. After finishing fifth in 1953, the Giants were led by Mays, who won the N.L. batting title with a .345 mark that included 41 home runs and 110 RBI. The center fielder had returned to the Giants after missing the 1953 campaign due to military service.

Johnny Antonelli, another newcomer who was acquired from Milwaukee in exchange for Bobby Thomson in the off-season, won 21 games to help New York to the N.L. flag.

1962 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(Yankees win series, 4 games to 3)

A matter of inches was the difference between the Giants bringing a World Championship to San Francisco for the first time or losing to the New York Yankees in the Fall Classic for the fifth time.

With the Giants trailing 1-0 with two outs and runners on second and third in the bottom of the ninth inning of Game #7, San Francisco's clean-up hitter Willie McCovey stepped in to face Ralph Terry. The Giants' Hall of Famer lined a one-ball, one-strike pitch toward right field, but Yankees' second baseman Bobby Richardson moved slightly to his left and threw up his glove to register the final out and the Yankees' 20th World Series crown.

San Francisco captured the National League flag by posting a late-season rally to catch Los Angeles and force a three-game playoff, which the Giants won 2-1.

The Giants carried a 2-2 tie into the seventh inning of Game #1 at Candlestick Park until Clete

Boyer drilled a solo home run to spur the Yankees onto a 6-2 triumph.

Jack Sanford fired a three-hit shutout to even the Series at one-game apiece in San Francisco's 2-0 Game #2 victory. In a see-saw World Series, the Yankees would log a 3-2 Game #3 win before Giants' second baseman Chuck Hiller drilled a grand slam in the seventh inning of the fourth game to propel San Francisco to a 7-3 victory. It was the first bases-loaded clout by a National League player in World Series history.

Despite Sanford's 10-strikeout effort in seven-and-a-third innings, the Yankees posted a 5-3 win in Game #5.

As the Series moved back to San Francisco, there was a five-day delay due to a travel day and three rainouts. Once play resumed, Billy Pierce pitched a three-hitter and Orlando Cepeda posted three hits and two RBI to force a seventh game with a 5-2 Game #6 win.

1989 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. OAKLAND ATHLETICS

(Athletics win series, 4 games to 0)

The Bay Bridge Series, which pitted the Giants against their local rival, the Oakland Athletics, will always be remembered more for the Loma Prieta earthquake than the four-game brooming by the American Leaguers.

That might be a good thing for the Giants, as they were outclassed in almost every phase of the game by the Athletics—as was evidenced by the 32-14 cumulative run total.

A's Game #1 starter Dave Stewart set the tone for this Fall Classic when he hurled a five-hit shutout at the Giants. He was backed by solo home runs from Dave Parker and Walt Weiss off San Francisco starter Scott Garrelts.

In much the same fashion, Oakland rolled to a 5-1 victory in Game #2 behind the pitching of Mike Moore.

Then it happened. Something that would make this four-game Series sweep stand out in history. At 5:04 p.m. on Oct. 17, an earthquake with a 7.1-Richter scale reading rocked the Bay Area and the 60,000 fans at Candlestick Park. With reports of damage throughout the Bay Area, the ballpark was evacuated and the game was cancelled.

Finally, 10 days later, the Athletics picked up where they had left off, as they drilled five home runs on their way to a 13-7 rout in the rescheduled Game #3. The five-homer effort, two by Dave Henderson along with single clouts from Jose Canseco, Carney Lansford and Tony Phillips, tied a Series record set by the 1928 Yankees.

The A's never trailed in the series as Rickey Henderson opened Game #4 with a home run off Giants' starter Don Robinson. The Giants would close it to 8-6 in the seventh, but that was as close they would get in the 9-6 finale.

2002 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ANAHEIM ANGELS

(Angels win series, 4 games to 3)

In the first World Series between two Wild Card teams, the Giants and Anaheim Angels lived up to the moniker, combining to set numerous offensive records in a memorable seven-game Fall Classic.

Anaheim emerged from the fireworks with its first World Championship in franchise history, while San Francisco was saddled with heartbreak after seeing a title slip away just five outs from the pinnacle.

The clubs split the first two contests in Anaheim, with Barry Bonds grabbing the spotlight in his first appearance on the World Series stage. San Francisco's left fielder clubbed a solo homer in his first at-bat to spark a 4-3 Giants win in Game #1, then connected for a mammoth ninth-inning shot in Game #2. Not to be outdone, the Angels' Tim Salmon homered twice as Anaheim won an 11-10 slugfest to even the series.

When the scene shifted north, the Angels seemed to take control with a convincing 10-4 win in Game #3. As they had all season, the Giants battled back in Game #4, rallying from a 3-0 deficit to earn a 4-3 victory on David Bell's two-out, RBI-single in the eighth inning.

Game #5 belonged to San Francisco, as the home club delighted the 42,713 fans at AT&T Park with a 16-4 rout. Jeff Kent tied Giants World Series records with four runs, two homers and four RBI, Rich Aurilia drove in three runs to establish a franchise playoff mark with 17 RBI overall, and J.T. Snow had two of his series-high 11 hits.

The Giants were eight outs from their first World Series title since 1954, as Shawon Dunston's two-run homer, Bonds' record eighth post season clout (fourth of Series), and Kent's RBI-single propelled SF to a 5-0 lead in Game #6. But the ultimate prize was wrested away as Scott Spezio's three-run, seventh-inning homer and series MVP Troy Glaus' two-run, eighth-inning double highlighted Anaheim's rally to a 6-5 victory.

San Francisco scored first in Game #7, but ultimately could not overcome the pitching of John Lackey and the bat of Garret Anderson, who delivered the deciding three-run, third-inning double in Anaheim's 4-1 triumph.

2010 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. TEXAS RANGERS

(Giants win series, 4 games to 1)

It was a different story for the San Francisco Giants during the World Series as the club was bolstered by their offense and pitching to win their 6th World Championship and 1st since they moved from New York to San Francisco in 1958 to capture the 106th Fall Classic, 4 games to 1 over the Texas Rangers. It marked the club's 1st World Series win since 1954, ending the Majors' 3rd-longest drought without a Championship at that time, behind the Cubs (102 years) and Indians (62 years) as the top 2 teams at the time.

The Giants' bats were on fire as they battered Cliff Lee and the Rangers' bullpen with an 11-7 victory in the opening game of the 2010 World Series. What was originally penned as a pitchers' duel between Lee and Tim Lincecum turned out to be an offensive outburst by both teams. Freddy Sanchez finished with 4 of the Giants' 14 hits as Aubrey Huff went 3-for-4 with an RBI and Juan Uribe capped a 6-run fifth inning with a 3-run home run, which set off the fog horn and blasts from water cannons out in right field. San Francisco took a commanding two game lead after Matt Cain held the Rangers' bats at bay in a 9-0 shutout in Game #2. Cain tossed 7.2-scoreless frames to extend his postseason scoreless innings total to 21.1 frames, while Edgar Renteria led the offense as he homered and drove in three runs.

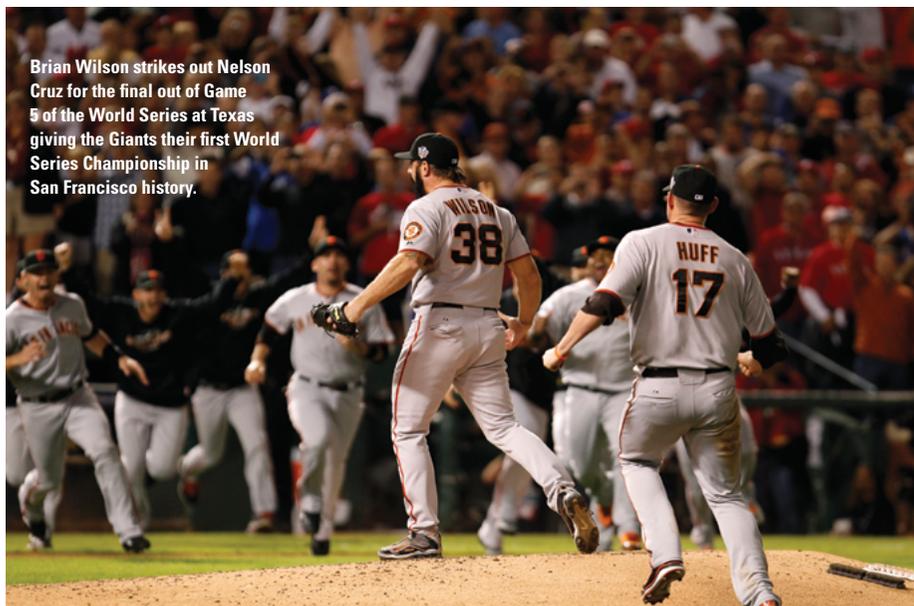

The only mishap for the Giants was during

Game #3 as they fell to the Rangers 2-4 at Texas. However, the team resorted back to their pitching heavy strategy in Game #4 as rookie Madison Bumgarner took to the mound and fired off 8.0-shutout innings as the Giants shut out the Rangers 4-0 on Halloween night. Aubrey Huff (2-run home run) and Buster Posey (solo home run) supplied the club with enough offense as the team was one game away from winning their 1st Championship in over 54 years.

Tim Lincecum and World Series MVP Edgar Renteria helped deliver the title in Game #5 as Lincecum outdueled Cliff Lee in a game that was scoreless until Renteria hit a 3-run home run with 2 outs in the seventh inning. Lincecum defeated Lee for the 2nd time in a week, allowing just 3 hits over 8.0 innings while recording 10 strikeouts. The game was scoreless until Cody Ross and Juan Uribe both singled to open the seventh inning before Aubrey Huff layed down the 1st sacrifice bunt of his career to move the runners. Renteria stepped to the plate and sent a 2-0 pitch over the left-center field wall silencing a sold out crowd of 52,045. Brian Wilson was summoned for the ninth and retired Josh Hamilton on a called 3rd strike, getting Vladimir Guerrero on a grounder to shortstop and then struck out Nelson Cruz to cap the best season in San Francisco Giants history.

Brian Wilson strikes out Nelson Cruz for the final out of Game 5 of the World Series at Texas giving the Giants their first World Series Championship in San Francisco history.

2012 — SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. DETROIT TIGERS

(Giants win series, 4 games to 0)

Playing in the World Series for the 19th time in franchise history and the fifth time since moving to San Francisco in 1958, the Giants were set to face the Detroit Tigers, the first time these two storied franchises had ever met in a postseason series.

Pablo Sandoval and Barry Zito both shined for the Giants in Game #1 as Sandoval hit three home runs, and joined Reggie Jackson, Babe Ruth and Albert Pujols as the only players to accomplish that in the Fall Classic, and Zito outdueled Justin Verlander, the reigning Cy Young winner, as the Giants won 8-3. Sandoval homered in his first three at-bats, hitting a solo shot in the first inning, a two-run blast in the third that set off the fog horns and capped it with yet another solo shot to center that sent the festive AT&T Park crowd into a frenzy.

In Game #2, Madison Bumgarner tossed 7.0-scoreless innings, then the Giants took advantage of a bunt that stayed fair to scratch out the go-ahead run in a 2-0 win for a 2-0 advantage in the Series.

The Giants took a commanding 3-0 lead in the Fall Classic with a 2-0 win on a chilly night in Detroit in Game #3. SF won their franchise-record sixth straight postseason game as Ryan Vogelsong blanked the Tigers for 5.2 innings and Gregor Blanco hit an RBI triple and Brandon Crawford drove him home with a single in the second inning. The Giants became the eighth team to post consecutive World Series shutouts and the first to accomplish the feat since the 1966 Baltimore Orioles.

Nearly knocked out in the playoffs time and time again, the Giants completed a four game sweep of the Tigers to win their second title in three seasons. Marco Scutaro's go-ahead single with two outs in the 10th inning lifted the Giants to a 4-3, 10-inning victory. Sergio Romo got Triple Crown winner Miguel Cabrera to look at strike three for the final out and the Giants finished the month of October with seven straight wins and their seventh World Series championship.

2014 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS VS. KANSAS CITY ROYALS

(Giants win series, 4 games to 3)

Backed by the eventual World Series MVP Madison Bumgarner, the Giants beat the Kansas City Royals in 7 games to capture their third championship in five years.

Kansas City hadn't lost in this postseason before the Series, but the Giants ended that streak at eight games with a 7-1 win in Game #1. SF scored three times in the first inning off James Shields; Pablo Sandoval hit an RBI double and Hunter Pence crushed a two-run homer to right-center. Madison Bumgarner carried a shutout into the seventh before Salvador Perez homered, ending Bumgarner's World Series scoreless-innings streak at 21 and his road postseason scoreless-innings streak at 32.2. His three-hit, seven-inning performance gave the Giants the jump in the Series.

Gregor Blanco opened Game #2 by jumping on a 3-2 pitch from Yordano Ventura and jolting it over the wall in right. That lead was short-lived as the Royals scored single runs in the first and second innings off Jake Peavy. The game was 2-2 in the sixth when the Royals put a five-spot on the board and finished it off with a 7-2 win.

Tim Hudson, made his first World Series appearance in Game #3 and retired 12 in a row in one stretch — but took the loss. The Royals scratched out a run in the first and added two in the sixth, the final run scoring on Eric Hosmer's single off Javier Lopez. Michael Morse's pinch-hit RBI double keyed the Giants' two-run sixth, but that would be the extent of SF's offense. Kansas City relievers Kelvin Herrera, Brandon Finnegan, Wade Davis and Greg Holland combined for four hitless innings.

Ineffective pitching by Ryan Vogelsong and bad defense by the Giants allowed the Royals to score four two-out runs in the third to grab a 4-1 edge in Game #4. However, another three shutout innings from Yusmeiro Petit, enabled the Giants to mount their comeback. The Giants scored one in the third and two in the fifth to tie the game. Joe Panik's two-run double highlighted a four-run seventh, and helped the Giants secure an 11-4 win.

The Giants' final home game of the postseason was highlighted by Madison Bumgarner, who threw another four-hit shutout to become the Giants' first pitcher since 1962 to throw a complete game (Billy Pierce) and shutout (Jack Sanford) in the World Series.

In Game #6, the Royals scored seven runs in the second inning to put the game away early. Yordano Ventura held the Giants to three hits in seven innings, setting up Game 7.

Pablo Sandoval went 3-for-3 and scored twice, Michael Morse drove in two runs and Jeremy Affeldt earned the win with 2.1 innings of shutout relief. However, it was Madison Bumgarner who stole the show for the Giants and helped the team win its eighth championship. On just two days' rest, he entered the game in the fifth inning. After allowing a single to Omar Infante, the first batter he faced, Bumgarner retired the next 14 hitters. With two outs in the ninth, Alex Gordon lifted a single into left-center that Gregor Blanco misplayed. Gordon wound up at third, 90 feet from tying the game. On a 2-2 pitch, Bumgarner got Salvador Perez on a foul pop clutched by Pablo Sandoval, who then collapsed in joy. Bumgarner, who had been the NLCS MVP, was the only choice for Series MVP. He went 2-0 with a save and gave up all of one run and nine hits in 21 innings.

AT&T Park Facts & Figures

Opening Date: April 11, 2000

Design: Classic urban ballpark with an old-time feel and all the amenities of modern ballparks. Inspired by Wrigley Field and Fenway Park and modeled after Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Jacobs Field and Coors Field.

Construction: Commenced on December 11, 1997. Construction lasted 28 months, with Opening Day on April 11, 2000.

Name Change: Ballpark originally opened as Pacific Bell Park; name was changed to SBC Park on January 1, 2004 and to AT&T Park on March 1, 2006.

Financing: AT&T Park, the first privately financed Major League ballpark to be built in 38 years, cost $357 million. The financing plan included $172 million from naming rights, other sponsorships, pouring rights, concession rights and the selling of charter seats; a $170 million bank loan; and $15 million in tax increment financing from the City's Redevelopment Agency.

Green Glove: In 2016, the Giants were recognized by Major League Baseball for having the highest recycling rate among the other 29 Clubs and were awarded the MLB Green Glove Award.

Giants Statue Dedications

Since the opening of AT&T Park in the 2000 season, the San Francisco Giants have dedicated five statues of their greatest players donning a Giants uniform. Sculptures of Hall of Famers Willie Mays, Willie McCovey, Juan Marichal, Orlando Cepeda and Gaylord Perry were created by well-known American sculptor William Behrends and have been placed outside of AT&T Park for everyone to enjoy.

Behrends' portrait sculptures have been widely praised for their likeness, quality of detail and sensitive evocation of character. Unlike many other sculptors, Mr. Behrends was personally involved in every phase of the creation of the four bronze sculptures, including research, molding and bronzing.

Behrends divides his time between home and studio in Tyrone, North Carolina, bronze foundries in Colorado and New York and a marble studio in Pietrasanta, Italy. He studied architecture at North Carolina State University and fine arts and sculpture at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, including anatomy training at the medical school. He has subsequently studied and worked in Italy, principally with Swietlan Kraczyzna and Enzo Pasquini. He is the twice recipient of the Richard Portrait Prize by the National Sculpture Society and is a fellow board member of the National Sculpture Society.

March 31, 2000 – The Giants unveiled a nine-foot bronze sculpture of Hall of Fame outfielder Willie Mays, located at the corner of Third and King Streets. The statue depicts Mays in the graceful conclusion of his powerful swing. The sculpture was developed over a 12-month period.

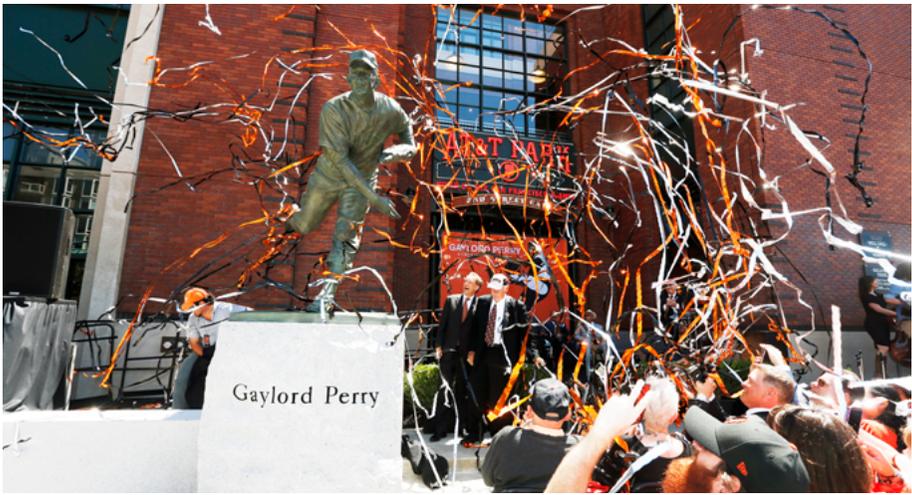

May 4, 2003 – A nine-foot tall bronze statue of Giants Hall of Fame first baseman Willie McCovey was unveiled. The statue is prominently featured at the northeast portion of AT&T Park, which was officially designated as McCovey Point by the San Francisco Port Commission. The statue of Willie McCovey pays tribute to a man who exemplifies the spirit and leadership shown by many of those who have worn the Giants uniform.

May 21, 2005 – Former Giants great and Hall of Fame pitcher Juan Marichal had his statue dedicated in 2005. The nine-foot bronze statue is located at AT&T Park's Lefty O'Doul Plaza and features Marichal's famous high-leg kick.

September 6, 2008 – The Giants dedicated a bronze statue in honor of Hall of Fame first baseman Orlando Cepeda. The statue, which stands at nine feet tall on a five foot base, is located at the Second Street entrance to AT&T Park. The sculpture portrays a youthful, smiling Cepeda.

August 13, 2016 – The Giants dedicated a bronze statue in honor of Hall of Fame pitcher Gaylord Perry. The statue, which stands at nine feet tall on a five foot base, is located at the Second and King Streets Entrance to AT&T Park. The sculpture portrays Perry's intensity and focus on the mound at the point of his follow through.

SPLASH HIT NOTES:

- Of the 76 home runs hit into the Bay by Giants players; 35 of those were by Barry Bonds. The only Giants other than Bonds to have reached the Cove more than once are Pablo Sandoval and Brandon Belt with seven each, Denard Span with five, and six players with two each: Felipe Crespo, Michael Tucker, Ryan Klesko, Aubrey Huff, Andres Torres and Brandon Crawford.
- Carlos Beltran's "splash hit" on Sept. 14, 2011 marked his 300th career home run.
- Ryan Klesko is the only player to have splash hits as both a Giant and as an opposing player.
- Tyler Colvin's "splash hit" on May 12, 2014 was also his first hit for the Giants and came on his first at-bat at AT&T Park since joining the team.
- No right-handed hitter has ever hit an opposite field home run into McCovey Cove.
- Of visiting players who have hit the cove, Carlos Delgado and Adam LaRoche have performed the feat the most, doing it three times each.
- David Ortiz, Mitch Moreland and Adam Dunn are the only American League players to hit the cove.

- 2017 attendance – 3,303,652, an average of 40,786 per date. Total attendance fell by 61,604 (1.8%), and average per date was down by 760 from 41,546 in 2016. Average per date ranked #3 among all MLB teams in 2017, behind the Dodgers and Cardinals. The Giants ranked #4 in average per date in 2016, #3 in 2015, #4 in 2014, #3 in 2013, and they were #4 in average per date in 2012
- In 2017, the Giants drew the highest percentage of their ballpark's seating capacity of any team (97.31%).
- 50 dates were sold out in 2017. The Giants' National League record sellout streak ended on July 17, 2017. 530 consecutive regular season dates, plus 25 dates in the post-season, for a total of 555, were sold out. It is the 2nd longest sellout streak in MLB history. The streak began with the last three regular season dates in 2010, starting on October 1, continued through the next six full seasons, through the game of July 9, 2017.
- The old National League sellout streak record was 257 regular season games, plus 16 in the post season, for a total of 273, by Philadelphia from 2009 to August, 2012. Boston holds the MLB record of 820 straight sellouts (794 regular season, 26 post-season) from 2003 through Opening Day 2013.
- AT&T Park (cost-$357 million), was the first privately financed MLB park since Dodger Stadium opened in 1962.
- AT&T Park opened on April 11, 2000. Its original name was Pacific Bell Park. The name was changed to SBC Park on January 1, 2004, and then changed to AT&T Park on March 1, 2006.
- 986 of the 1,458 (67.6%) regular season dates at AT&T Park have been sellouts.
- 1,441 of the 1,458 (98.8%) regular season dates have attracted at least 30,000.
- Of all teams that have moved into a new ballpark in the last 44 years, the Giants are the only team whose attendance has been higher every single year in their current park, than it ever was in their former park. Kansas City has drawn better at Kauffman Stadium each year than they ever did at Municipal Stadium. But the Royals only played 4 seasons (1969-1972) at Municipal Stadium before Kauffman Stadium opened in 1973.
- In 2015, the Giants surpassed 50 million in attendance at AT&T Park, reaching this level faster than at any ballpark in Major League history. This total was achieved in the park's 16th season, and on the 1,261st regular season date played there. The old record was held by Baltimore, who reached 50 million at Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1,311 dates, and in that park's 17th season. San Francisco, Baltimore, Colorado, and Toronto are the only teams to reach 50 million in attendance at a ballpark in less than 1,500 regular season dates.
- Largest regular season crowd at AT&T Park was 43,503 vs. the Yankees on June 24, 2007. The biggest post-season crowd was 44,046 on October 8, 2010 for a National League Division Series game with Atlanta.
- The smallest crowd was 23,934 on May 11, 2009 vs. Washington. The only games that drew less than 30,000 at AT&T Park have been in 2009 (12 dates) and in 2010 (5 dates).
- Highest season attendance at AT&T Park is 3,387,303 (41,819 per date – all sellouts) in 2011.
- Lowest total AT&T Park attendance is 2,862,111 (35,335 per date) in 2009. That AT&T Park low total is 255,757 higher than the best season attendance total at Candlestick Park, which was 2,606,354 in 1993.
- Attendance has topped three million in 16 of the 18 years at AT&T Park, including eight straight years from 2000 through 2007, and also in eight straight years from 2010 through 2017. The only teams with an equal or longer streak of three million seasons are the Dodgers (1996-2010), Yankees (2000-2017), Angels (2003-2017), Cardinals (2004-2017), Rockies (1993-2001), and Cubs (2004-2011).
- The Giants have topped three million in 16 seasons. The only teams to draw three million more often than the Giants are the Dodgers (31 times), the Cardinals (21), and the Yankees (19). All these teams play in ballparks with a higher capacity than AT&T Park.
- The Giants have outdrawn the A's in 33 of the 50 years these teams have shared the Bay Area, including every year starting in 1993.

Tony Siegle

SENIOR ADVISOR, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Longtime front office executive Tony Siegle is in his third stint with the Giants after rejoining the club in 2007 as a senior advisor in the baseball operations department. Siegle, who has worked in MLB for the last five decades, was previously with San Francisco during a five-year run from 1990-94 and again for a brief stay during the 2001 season. Originally tabbed as San Francisco's director of minor league operations in August, 1990, he was elevated to the role of vice president, baseball administration and operations in December, 1992. Prior to rejoining the Giants, Siegle spent five seasons (2002-06) as the assistant GM of the Washington Nationals franchise, first under G.M. Omar Minaya and then Jim Bowden. Appointed to the position in February, 2002, when the club was still the Montreal Expos, he helped oversee a myriad of personnel moves while navigating the unique circumstances of a franchise in transition. A former officer in the U.S. Navy, Siegle began his Major League Baseball career in 1965 as the scoreboard operator at the Astrodome in Houston, and spent the 1969 season as the Phillies' director of stadium operations. He moved to the baseball operations side with Milwaukee in 1970 and has since enjoyed a distinguished career in a variety of front office posts with the Brewers (1970-79), Astros (1979-82), Phillies (1982-88 and 2001), Padres (1989), Angels (1990), Giants (1990-94, 2001 and 2007-present), Rockies (1995-2000) and Expos/Nationals (2002-06). During his tenure, the University of Miami (FL) graduate has worked closely with or for 23 general managers and 22 managers - numbers believed to be unrivaled in baseball annals. Tony and his wife, Cynthia, reside in Scottsdale, Arizona and have four children (Andrew, Amy Beth, Zachary and Gregory) and 10 grandchildren.

Karen Sweeney

Dave Brundage

MANAGER

Dave Brundage will embark on his second season as manager for the Sacramento Rivercats in 2018 after spending the previous four seasons at the helm of the Lehigh Valley IronPigs in the Philadelphia Phillies' organization. Prior to joining Philadelphia in 2013, he worked for the Atlanta Braves and led triple-A Richmond to the International League championship in 2007 en route to being named the organization's Minor League Manager of the Year. He also managed the U.S. team at the 2007 Futures Game. Prior to his time with the Braves, Brundage spent 19 years with the Seattle Mariners as a minor league player, coach and manager. He managed triple-A Tacoma in 2006 after five years with double-A San Antonio. In 2003, he was named Baseball America's Minor League Manager of the Year and the Texas League Manager of the Year. In 2001, he managed the West Division in the Texas League All-Star Game. He was originally drafted by the Phillies in the fourth round in 1986 and played two years in their minor league system before being traded to Seattle. Brundage then spent eight seasons playing and pitching in Seattle's system, the final three as a player-coach.

Steve Kline

PITCHING COACH

Steve Kline, a former big league southpaw, will embark on his first season as pitching coach for the Rivercats. He spent the last three years with double-A Richmond and the previous six seasons as the pitching coach for the Augusta Greenjackets. Long regarded as one of game's most durable left-handed relief pitchers, Kline appeared in 89 games in 2001 for St. Louis, a Major League single-season record for left-handed pitchers at that time. He also logged a 1.80 ERA that year for the Redbirds, one of two career campaigns with sub-2.00 ERA (also 1.79 in 2004). The 11-year Major League veteran compiled a 34-39 lifetime ledger with 39 saves and a 3.51 ERA over 796 big league contests (one start) with the Indians (1997), Expos (1997-2000), Cardinals (2001-04), Orioles (2005) and Giants (2006-07). He was originally an eighth round selection by Cleveland in the 1993 draft. Kline resides in Winfield, PA.

Damon Minor

HITTING COACH

Damon Minor embarks on his third season as the hitting coach for triple-A Sacramento. He spent the previous five seasons as triple-A New Orleans' hitting instructor in the Marlins organization. Minor was drafted by the Giants in the 12th round of the 1996 First-Year Player Draft and made his Major League debut in 2000. He batted .232 in 136 games over parts of four seasons and established a career high by playing in 83 games and hitting 10 home runs in 2002, helping the Giants to the National League pennant. Minor played on the University of Oklahoma's national championship squad in 1994. Following his retirement in 2006, he returned to his alma mater as a volunteer hitting instructor for the Sooners and founded the Minor-Foral Baseball Academy. He and his wife, Allison, reside in Edmond, Oklahoma.

Nestor Rojas

FUNDAMENTALS COACH

Nestor Rojas embarks on his first campaign as fundamentals coach with Sacramento. He spent last season managing San Jose after spending two seasons as manager for Class A Augusta. He spent the previous two seasons managing the Giants' Arizona Rookie League and guided them to the championship in 2013, following a 41-14 regular season record. He also served two seasons as a hitting coach for Class A Augusta (2011-12) The Venezuelan native played in the Giants minor league system from 2003-2010, reaching as high as triple-A. He resides in Barrio Nuevo, Ciudad Ojeda, Zulia, VZ.

David Getsoff

ATHLETIC TRAINER

David Getsoff begins his ninth season with the Giants organization. Last season he served as the Latin American Coordinator and Assistant Minor League Medical Coordinator. He spent the previous three seasons with double-A Richmond and the previous two years with Class A Advanced San Jose (2012-2013), after working the 2010 and 2011 seasons with Class A Augusta. He served as Salem-Keizer's athletic trainer during 2009 season. Prior to joining the San Francisco organization, he spent the 2008 season with the Oakland A's in their minor league training operations department. He's also worked as an athletic trainer in the Boston Red Sox minor league system during the 2006 and 2007 seasons. He resides in Rockaway Park, NY.

Andy King

San Jose Giants

Class-A Advanced, California League

Lipso Nava

MANAGER

Lipso Nava returns for his 11th year with the Giants organization and his first as the manager for San Jose. He spent last season as the hitting coach with Richmond and prior to that was the manager of Class A Advanced San Jose. Prior to that was the hitting coach for three years with San Jose. Nava managed Class A Augusta in 2011 and 2012, leading the Green Jackets to a 70-68 record and a spot in the SAL playoffs in 2011. He spent three seasons (2008-2010) as a hitting coach for Augusta, where the club experienced success under his tutelage with their best overall record in both 2009 (76-43) and 2010 (77-61) in the South Atlantic League, however team did not capture first or second half crowns to qualify for playoffs either season. In 2016, Nava was named Manager of the Year in the Venezuelan Winter League after receiving 32 first place votes and 112 total points, becoming the first Venezuelan manager in Aguilas del Zulia organization with this award. The former infielder played seven seasons in the minors with the Seattle Mariners (1990-94), Boston Red Sox (1995) and Chicago Cubs (1997), advancing as high as triple-A. Nava was originally a 14th round draft pick by the Mariners in 1990. He resides in San Jose, CA.

Matt Yourkin

PITCHING COACH

Matt Yourkin begins his sixth campaign as an instructor or coach within the San Giants organization. In 2013, Yourkin served as a left-handed batting practice pitcher for the Major League squad during the first-half of the season and finished the year working for Salem-Keizer. The former minor league pitcher played nine seasons with the Marlins and Giants. He was selected by San Francisco from Florida in the Rule V Draft on Dec. 11, 2008. Yourkin graduated from Napa (CA) High School where he lettered three years in baseball and two years in football. He attended St. Mary's (CA) College and was later signed by the Marlins as a non-drafted free agent. He currently resides in Gilbert, AZ.

Wilfredo Romero

HITTING COACH

Romero was signed out of Maracay, Venezuela by the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1993 and remained a part of the organization from 1993 until 1998. Romero made it to triple-A in 1996, and totaled 127 games with 442 at-bats. He finished his career in affiliated ball with one season with the Arizona Diamondbacks and the Baltimore Orioles minor league affiliates. Romero continued his playing career in Mexico and Venezuela, playing 14 total seasons of ball in foreign leagues, totaling 1,285 games, 4,855 at bats, 143 home runs, 841 RBIs, 917 runs and 300 2Bs. He finished his playing career in 2012 as the player-manager for the Leones de Yucatán. Romero spent 2013 with Tigres de Quintana Roo, and returned to be the Leones' manager from 2014 until July 2017.

Gary Davenport

FUNDAMENTALS COACH

Gary Davenport will begin his 15th season as a coach with the Giants' minor league system. Davenport managed the Salem-Keizer Volcanoes from 2013-2014 and guided the team to the playoffs after posting 47-29 regular season record in 2013. Prior to that, he spent five years as a hitting coach with single-A San Jose (2008-12) after spending his previous two campaigns at double-A Connecticut (2006-7). Davenport helped San Jose to a California League Championship in 2009 and 2010. He previously served as a roving instructor for both San Jose and short-season Salem-Keizer in 2004, while working as a full-time hitting coach for the 2005 San Jose team that won the California League championship. Davenport had a long history of playing and instructing overseas, working in both South Africa and Italy. The former infielder was originally selected by the Giants in the 27th round of the 1981 draft from Santa Clara University. He's the son of former Giants star, Jim Davenport. Gary resides in Half Moon Bay, CA with his wife Nancy. They have two sons, Christopher and Nicholas.

Ryo Watanabe

ATHLETIC TRAINER

Ryo Watanabe returns for his fifth season with the Giants organization, his first with San Jose. He graduated from San Jose State University in 2010 with a B.S. in Kinesiology. Watanabe is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainer's Association (NATA). He resides in Tochigi, Japan.

Mark Spadavecchia

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Mark Spadavecchia begins his first season as a strength and conditioning coach for the San Jose Giants. 2018 marks his first year in the San Francisco Giants organization. He served as a strength and conditioning coach in the Houston Astros organization the past 5 years. Spadavecchia spent the 2017 season with Class A Buies Creek, 2016 season with Short Season A Tri City, 2015 season with Double A Corpus Christi, and had a 2 year stint with Class A Lancaster from 2013-2014.

Salem-Keizer Volcanoes

Short Season, Northwest League

Hector Borg

MANAGER

Hector Borg will begin his first season as manager of the Salem-Keizer Volcanoes. He spent last season as the manager of the Arizona Giants after spending the previous four seasons as a coach for Class A Augusta and spent the 2012 season as an infield instructor with Salem-Keizer. He previously coached for four years with the Dominican Summer League Giants. After signing as a non-drafted free agent with San Francisco in 2004, he played four seasons in the minor league system (through 2007). Borg resides in La Romana, DR.

Dwight Bernard

PITCHING COACH

Dwight Bernard begins his fifth season as a pitching coach with the San Francisco organization. He served as the pitching coach with triple-A Sacramento his first four seasons with the Giants. The former right-handed pitcher spent his previous 10 seasons with Seattle Mariners as a coach in their minor league system. Prior to joining the Mariners he spent 2003 as Minor League Pitching Coordinator for Milwaukee and coached in the Brewers organization from 1998-2002. He's also coached for the Alaskan Summer League (1997), Minnesota Twins (1987-96) and Pittsburgh Pirates (1986). Bernard was drafted by the New York Mets in the second round of the 1974 draft. He spent most of his career pitching in the minor leagues for New York-NL (1974-79), Milwaukee (1980-82), Houston (1983-84) and Baltimore (1985). He posted a 4-8 record with a 4.14 ERA in 115 career Major League appearances (two starts) for the Mets (1978-79) and Brewers (1981-82). He pitched in the post-season in 1981 and 1982 with the Brewers (including '82 World Series), logging 4.1 hitless/scoreless innings in combined four relief appearances. He resides in Belle Rive, IL.

Jake Fox

HITTING COACH

Jake graduated from the University of Michigan earning All-American Honors in his final season as a Wolverine. He was selected in the 3rd round of the 2003 MLB Amateur Draft by the Chicago Cubs. He made his MLB debut with the Cubs on July 19, 2007. He played in 7 different Major League organizations and, also, played in the big leagues with the Oakland Athletics and Baltimore Orioles. In addition, Jake extended his experience with 6 seasons in the Dominican winter league, 2 seasons in the Mexican winter league, 1 season in the Mexican summer league, 2 seasons in the Atlantic League and 1 season in Korea. Since finishing his 15 year playing career, Jake has expanded his coaching experience as a hitting coach with the Philadelphia Phillies organization, a hitting coach with CaOeros de Los Mochis and an assistant coach with Chicago State University. 2018 will be his first year with the San Francisco Giants and he is excited to be the hitting coach for the Salem Keizer Volcanoes this season.

Mark Hallberg

FUNDAMENTALS COACH

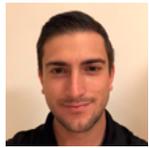

Hallberg was drafted in the 9th round (283rd overall) of 2007 amateur player draft by the Arizona Diamondbacks out of Florida State University. He played two years at the University of Illinois – Chicago and his junior year at Florida State University. He finished his minor league career with 1,774 at bats, 18 home runs, 220 RBI, 100 doubles and 258 runs over 509 games. After his playing days, he spent four years as an assistant coach with Orleans Firebirds of the Cape Cod League. He also worked two years as a Health and Physical Education teacher at the Dhahran High School in Dhahran, Saudi Arabia and most recently worked for the American School of Dubai (Dubai, UAE). Hallberg holds a Master's in Business Administration (MBA) degree and BS in Health and Human Performance.

Charlene Wichman

ATHLETIC TRAINER

Charlene Wichman enters her first season with the Salem Keizer Volcanoes and second in the San Francisco Giants organization. Prior to joining the Salem staff she spent one year in the Arizona Rookie League in addition to working with the Naranjeros in Hermosillo, Mexico. Char graduated from St. Edwards University with a B.A. in Kinesiology and earned a Masters degree in Athletic Training from Weber State University in 2016.

Joe Palazzolo

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Joe Palazzolo begins his first season as a Strength and Conditioning Coach for the Salem-Keizer Volcanoes. 2018 marks his first season with the San Francisco Giants organization. Joe has previously served as a Strength and Conditioning Coach in the Arizona Diamondbacks and Miami Marlins organizations. Before entering professional baseball, he served as an Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach at Aurora University in Illinois.

Arizona Giants #1

Arizona Rookie League

Carlos Valderrama

MANAGER

Carlos Valderrama will embark on his first season as manager for the Arizona Giants after managing Augusta last year and the Dominican Summer League Giants the previous three seasons. This marks his 11th season as a coach in organization, as the former Giants' outfielder served as a hitting coach for the summer team for six seasons prior to being manager. The Venezuela native was originally signed by San Francisco as a non-drafted free agent in 1995, playing 11 seasons with organization through 2005. He saw action in seven Major League contests in 2003, going 1-for-7. He finished his playing career in the Milwaukee Brewers farm system, playing at the double-A level in 2006. Valderrama resides in Bachaquero, Zulia, Venezuela.

Lee Smith

PITCHING COACH

Lee Smith begins his 19th season in the Giants organization and his first with the Arizona Giants. He spent the previous 16 seasons as a roving pitching instructor. In his initial campaign with the club in 2000, he assisted the double-A Shreveport (now Richmond) coaching staff. The former right-handed hurler ranks third on the all-time Major League saves list, having posted 478 during his career. The seven-time All-Star was three-time Rolands Relief Man of the Year (1991, 1992, 1994) and led the Majors in relief points for 14 consecutive seasons (1982-95). He logged 18 seasons in big leagues, pitching for Chicago Cubs (1980-87), Boston Red Sox (1988-90), St. Louis Cardinals (1990-93), New York Yankees (1993), Baltimore Orioles (1994), California Angels (1995-96), Cincinnati Reds (1996) and Montreal Expos (1997). He recorded 30 saves or more in nine different seasons, with his career best being 47 in 1991 with the Cardinals. Smith finished with a lifetime mark of 71-92 with a 3.03 ERA in 1,022 ML appearances. He currently resides in Castor, LA.

Mario Rodriguez

PITCHING COACH

Mario Rodriguez begins his sixth season as the pitching coach for the Arizona League Giants after spending seven seasons in the Giants minor league system as a left-handed pitcher. He originally signed as a non-drafted free agent in 2006 and spent two years pitching for the DSL Giants before coming to the States in 2008. He had his best year as a Giant in 2011, when he pitched for the Augusta GreenJackets, finishing with an 8-5 record and a 4.28 ERA in 90.1 innings.

Travis Ishikawa

HITTING COACH

Ishikawa rejoins the Giants for his first coaching position in professional baseball. The former 21st round pick played with the Giants from 2002-2011, and then spent 2011-2014 playing with the Brewers, Orioles, Yankees and Pirates. He re-signed by the Giants in April 2014 and will be remembered by fans for hitting a walk-off, three-run home run to defeat the St. Louis Cardinals in Game 5 of the NLCS. It was his first ever walk-off home run. Ishikawa was re-signed by the Giants in 2016 and played 76 games with triple-A Sacramento. Ishikawa finished his Major League career with a .255 batting average, 23 home runs, 49 doubles and 137 RBI.

Arizona Giants #2

Arizona Rookie League

Billy Horton

MANAGER

Billy Horton begins his first season as a manager after spending the last six seasons as a hitting coach for the Arizona Rookie League Giants. He started coaching full time in 2000 with an emphasis in hitting and catching instruction. His former employers include the Arizona Diamondbacks, Arizona State University and Chicago White Sox. He also founded youth baseball organizations, Cactus Athletic Camps, and the Arizona Baseball League. Horton was a minor league utility player with the White Sox, Angels and multiple Independent League teams. He resides in Scottsdale, AZ with his wife Taleen and two sons, Connor and Bryce.

Michael Couchee

PITCHING COACH

Michael Couchee will begin his seventh year with Giants organization and his first with the Arizona Giants. He has spent the last four seasons as the pitching coach with San Jose and also spent the 2012 season as the pitching coach for the rookie-level Giants. Couchee was with the Padres' organization for nine years, one as pitching coach at triple-A Portland (2003) and the next eight as their Minor League Pitching Coordinator (2004-11). He served as the California/Anaheim Angels Minor League Pitching Coordinator for 10 years from 1993-2002 following five years as pitching coach in their organization. Couchee began his coaching career with Texas' double-A Tulsa affiliate during the 1986-87 seasons. He was originally selected in the 19th round of the 1980 First-Year Player Draft by the Padres. He pitched briefly in the Majors with the Padres in 1983. He resides in Mesa, AZ with his wife, Lisa, and son, Tyler.

Doug Clark

HITTING COACH

Doug Clark enters his fourth season as a hitting coach with the Giants and second with the AZL Giants. The former Giants farmhand was drafted in the seventh round of the 1998 MLB Draft by San Francisco. Clark appeared in parts of two seasons at the Major League level with the Giants (2005) and Athletics (2006). Prior to the 2008 season Clark signed on with the Hanwha Eagles of the Korean Professional League and was an All-Star. After leaving the Korean league, Clark signed with the Tigres de Quintana Roo of the Mexican League in 2011. He attended the University of Massachusetts Amherst on a football scholarship as a wide receiver, but walked on to the baseball team and played three seasons.

Chris Gorosics

ATHLETIC TRAINER

Chris Gorosics begins his first season as an Athletic Trainer in the San Francisco Giants organization for the AZL Giants. He graduated from Kent State University with a Bachelor's Degree in Kinesiology and St Peter's College with a Master's Degree in Education. He previously worked as an Athletic Trainer for the Seattle Mariners(2000-2006 & 2011-2012) in Appleton, Wisconsin and San Antonio, Texas along with serving as Supervisor of Athletic Training and Minor League Rehab Coordinator. He also worked for the Texas Rangers(2007-2010) as Minor League Rehab Coordinator and Athletic Trainer in Spokane, Washington and Frisco, Texas. Chris also worked in the Los Angeles Dodgers organization(2013-14) in Ogden, Utah. Most recently, Chris worked at Sunrise Mountain High School in Peoria, Arizona teaching Sports Medicine and serving as the Athletic Trainer for the school.

Dominican Giants

Dominican Summer League

Jose Montilla

MANAGER

Jose Montilla enters his second season as manager of the DSL Giants. He spent the last six years working as an instructor in the Lara prospect league in the Dominican Republic. He previously ran his own baseball academy for six years in Venezuela. After signing as a non-drafted free agent with the Toronto Blue Jays in 1990, he played five seasons in the minors with the Blue Jays and the Minnesota Twins.

Marcos Aguasvivas

PITCHING COACH

Marcos Aguasvivas returns for his 10th season as a pitching coach with the Giants' Dominican team. Aguasvivas played for the Dominican national team when they won the Silver Medal in the 1979 Pan American Games and managed the 1992 Dominican Olympic team in Barcelona. He resides in Santo Domingo, DR.

Osiris Matos

PITCHING COACH

Osiris Matos enters his second season as a pitching coach with the Dominican Giants and second with the Giants' organization. Originally signed by the Giants in 2002, he spent 10 seasons playing in the organization. Appeared in parts of two seasons (2008-09) with the big league club, after making his major league debut on July 3, 2008, against the Chicago Cubs. Following his career with the Giants, Matos pitched in the Mexican League for four seasons.

Juan Parra

HITTING COACH

Juan Parra begins his fifth season as hitting coach with the Giants' Dominican team. The former outfielder was originally signed by the Texas Rangers in 1990 where he played until 1995, working his way from rookie-level to triple-A. He also played for the Mets' organization in 1997 and played for the Piratas De Campeche and Cafeteros De Córdoba in México in 1998 and in Taiwán in 1999. He and his wife, Yasmin, have a daughter and reside in Puerto Plata, DR.

Casey Chenoweth

HITTING COACH

Casey Chenoweth attended Sierra High School in California and was Offensive Player of the Year and Conference MVP. Chenoweth played for Compton JC at the MLB Urban Youth Academy in Compton, California. He also played 2 years for East Central University in Oklahoma and was offensive player of the month in April. While attending ECU, Chenoweth received his Degree in Kinesiology of Exercise Science with a study in Biomechanics of the kinetic chain and physiology of movement. In February 2017, Chenoweth was invited to a Spring Training workout with the Texas Rangers going 3-4 with a double and home run. In the Summer of 2017, Chenoweth was selected as an All-Star Third Baseman for an Independent Professional Baseball League. This is his first year with the San Francisco Giants Player Development as the 2018 DSL hitting coach.

Hector Ortiz

COACH

Hector Ortiz was signed by the Giants as a shortstop in 1999 and played three seasons in the Dominican Summer League. He's been working with the DSL team since 2003. Ortiz and his wife, Daisy Terma Gomez Matos, reside in Nizao, Bani, Dominican Republic.

Jose Medina

COACH

Jose Medina enters his fifth season as a coach for the Giants Dominican squad. The former outfielder spent five seasons in the Giants' minor league system, reaching as high as single-A. The Dominican Republic native signed as a non-drafted free agent with San Francisco in 2005. He resides in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic.

Lisandro King

COACH

Lisandro King enters his fourth season as a DSL Giants coach. Lisandro was originally signed by the Giants in 2003, playing two seasons in the DSL and three seasons between the AZL Giants and Salem Keizer Volcanoes. He resides in La Romana, DR with his wife Iris Violeta Mata Rijo and two children Lisoiris Violeta King Mota (6) and Lisandra Aimar King Mota (six months).

Aquiles Torrealba

ATHLETIC TRAINER

Aquiles Torrealba begins for his first season as the head athletic trainer with the DSL-Giants. The previous two seasons, he served as the assistant athletic trainer in Salem. Prior to the joining the Giants organization, Aquiles worked with numerous professional players and was the athletic trainer for a Venezuelan Winter Ball team in 2015. Aquiles, who grew up in Venezuela, played professionally in the Anaheim Angels organization from 1997-1999. He then received his degree at Barry University. Aquiles is certified by the NATA and currently resides in Sarasota, Florida.

Alfonso Tusent

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Alfonso Tusent will begin his ninth season in the Giants organization as the strength and conditioning coach for the Dominican Summer League Giants. He previously worked for the Seattle Mariners DSL team from 2001-2006 and worked for the DSL Cardinals in 2007.

ENGLISH BROADCASTERS

Jon Miller

Jon Miller, honored by the National Baseball Hall of Fame as the 2010 Ford C. Frick award winner for baseball broadcasting excellence, the “Voice of the Giants”, enters his 22nd season in the broadcast booth on KNBR Radio, NBC Bay Area and NBC Sports Bay Area. Miller was thrilled to broadcast his 16th World Series in 2014 as the Giants won it all for the third time in five years.

Miller was inducted into the National Radio Hall of Fame in 2014. In 1990 when ESPN TV first began its coverage of Major League Baseball, Miller was chosen as the first play-by-play commentator on the award-winning ESPN Sunday Night Baseball game of the week broadcast. Miller and his Hall of Fame partner, Joe Morgan, teamed up on the prime time telecast for 21 seasons. During his tenure at ESPN, he was nominated twice for a national Emmy Award, and broadcast 13 consecutive World Series on ESPN Radio. He has broadcast 16 World Series overall. He was also nominated six times for an “ACE” award, emblematic of cable television excellence, and won the award in 1991 - the first ESPN play-by-play announcer to win the award, and 1996. Miller was named National Sportscaster of the Year by the American Sportscasters Association (ASA) in 1998. That same year, Miller was inducted into the Hall of Fame of the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association of America (NSSAA). In 2016, Miller received a Northern California Emmy Award, the third local Emmy for his Giants television work. Prior to his work on ESPN, Miller broadcast an occasional game on NBC-TV with either Tony Kubek or Joe Garagiola. Miller spent 14 years with the Baltimore Orioles before coming to the Giants. Prior to joining Baltimore in 1983, the talented broadcaster spent two seasons with the Texas Rangers (1978-79) and three seasons with the Boston Red Sox (1980-82). Miller got his first baseball play-by-play job in 1974 at age 22 calling radio and TV for that year’s World Series Champion Oakland Athletics. The Bay Area native has also broadcast NHL hockey, NBA basketball and championship soccer games on national television in his distinguished career. In 2018, Miller was inducted into the College of San Mateo (CA) Hall of Fame. Miller began his broadcasting career as a student at CSM and broadcast baseball, football and basketball games on KCSM, the college’s radio and TV stations. Jon and his wife, Janine, reside in Moss Beach. They are parents to three daughters, Misha, Holly (married to Paul Gallagher) and Emilie, and a son, Alexander (married to Bre Enright).

Duane Kuiper

Duane Kuiper, a ten-time Emmy award-winning broadcaster, begins his 34th season as a Major League announcer. He embarks on his 25th consecutive year in the NBC Sports Bay Area, NBC Bay Area and KNBR Radio broadcast booths in 2018. Kuiper was one of 10 finalists for the 2014 Ford C. Frick Award for baseball broadcasting excellence. Kuiper emerged as one of the top three fan selections in online voting. The former 11-year big league infielder has received ten local Emmy awards for his distinguished broadcasting career: On-Camera talent (6); Sports Live Broadcast (2); and Sporting Event/Game-Live (2). He provided commentary for the Giants from 1987-92 and served a one-year stint with the expansion Colorado Rockies in 1993. The former infielder spent the last four years of his career with the Giants, following seven campaigns with the Cleveland Indians. In 2004 he was voted by Cleveland fans as one of the 100 greatest players in Tribe history. After retiring in 1985, Kuiper provided commentary on Giants radio and TV broadcasts through the end of that season, and had his own radio show on KNBR from 1982-85. Kuiper’s scorecards from Barry Bonds’ historic 756th home run game, Randy Johnson’s 300th career victory, Matt Cain’s perfect game in 2012 and the scorecard from Gaylord Perry Day (August 13, 2016 - BAL @ SF) are displayed at the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown. The Wisconsin native serves as a board member of the Giants Community Fund. A graduate of Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, IL, Kuiper and his wife, Michelle, reside in Danville. They are parents to two children, Cole (married to Rachel Jensen) and Dannon (married to Zack Rease).

Mike Krukow

Mike Krukow enters his 28th season in the television booth, and his 24th full season on the radio side. A nine-time Emmy award winner, Krukow is the broadcast team's color analyst on NBC Sports Bay Area and NBC Bay Area telecasts, and on KNBR Radio broadcasts. Krukow was one of eight finalists for the 2017 Ford C. Frick Award for baseball broadcasting excellence. He was named California's 2015 and 2017 Sportscaster of the Year, as selected by the National Sports Media Association Hall of Fame. The former big league pitcher has received nine local Emmy awards: On-Camera talent (6); Sports Live Broadcast (2); and Sporting Event/Game-Live (1). Krukow's playing career in the Major Leagues spanned 14 years and three teams: the Chicago Cubs (1976-81), Philadelphia Phillies (1982) and San Francisco Giants (1983-89), where his enthusiasm both on and off the field made him a fan favorite. "Kruk", named as the starting right-handed pitcher to the 1980's Giants All-Decade Team in a vote by Bay Area media in 1999, is noted for his deep knowledge of the game and tremendous sense of humor. A 20-game winner for the Giants in 1986, Krukow retired after the 1989 season with a 124-117 career record and a 3.90 ERA. In 2008, Kruk was honored as a member of the inaugural class of Giants alumni with a plaque in the Giants Wall of Fame which lines the wall outside of AT&T Park. Krukow's scorecard from Tim Lincecum's no hitter in 2014 is displayed at the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown. He has acted as a proxy for the annual Gamer Day at AT&T Park. Gamer is a term incepted by the Giants beloved broadcaster and has been formalized from the passion of Giants fans across the country. A portion of the ticket sales from the special event are donated to charity. Krukow also served as the spokesperson for The Myositis Association (TMA) Day at AT&T Park in 2015. TMA is a non-profit, patient based organization dedicated to improving the lives of people afflicted by myositis. Krukow resides in Reno, NV with his wife, Jennifer. The couple has five children, Jarek, Baker (married to Celina Roberge), Tessa, Chase and Weston, one grandson, Coen, and one granddaughter, Reagan.

Dave Flemming

Dave Flemming begins his 15th year of broadcasting for the Giants. The 41-year-old will join Jon Miller and Duane Kuiper on the team's KNBR radio broadcasts and is involved in select games on television. In addition to his work with the Giants, he serves as a lead play-by-play voice for ESPN television, working college football, Major League Baseball and basketball, as well as MLB playoffs for ESPN Radio. He has also served as a primary voice of the Little League World Series on ESPN since 2013. Flemming has previously called Major League Baseball on FOX, and for six years was the play-by-play voice of Stanford football and basketball. In 2008, named Flemming "the best of the new generation of baseball announcers". He has won two Northern California Area Emmy Awards for his Giants play-by-play work. The Alexandria, VA native received a Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Stanford, and a Master's degree in Broadcast Journalism from Syracuse University. For more than a decade, Flemming has served on the board of the Good Tidings Foundation, a Bay Area charity that has worked closely with the Giants in building and refurbishing baseball fields and other athletic facilities across Northern California. Good Tidings also grants college scholarships for economically disadvantaged students who have demonstrated extraordinary community service, and builds art studios in underserved schools and neighborhoods. In 2017, Good Tidings presented Flemming with the Nate Thurmond Medal, in recognition of lifetime contributions to community service. Flemming and his wife, Jessica, reside in San Francisco with their twin daughters, Katie and Carter, and son, David Henry.

NBC Sports Bay Area

NBC Sports Bay Area, part of NBC Sports Regional Networks, has been the club's cable television rightsholder since 1990. In 2008, NBC Sports Bay Area (formerly CSN Bay Area) was formed as a partnership between NBC Sports Group and the San Francisco Giants and the network signed a 25-year agreement to broadcast Giants games through the 2033 baseball season. In 2018, the network will continue to present all Giants regular season games in HDTV and will feature Giants related programming all year long. NBC Sports Bay Area serves more than four million households in Northern California, Nevada, Southern Oregon and Hawaii. In addition to the Giants, NBC Sports Bay Area serves as the television home of the Golden State Warriors and is the official regional sports network of the San Francisco 49ers.

NBC Bay Area returns as the exclusive over the air tv rightsholder to broadcast Giants games.

KNBR-680 AM, the 50,000-watt Sports Leader, begins its 40th campaign with the orange and black. Giants fans can tune into 162 games during the baseball season.

Erwin R. Higueros

Erwin Higueros, a 30-year veteran of Bay Area sports broadcasting, begins his 20th full season, his 21st overall in the Giants' Spanish language radio booth. In addition to his broadcast responsibilities, Higueros is a member of the Giants front office, working in both the media relations and Hispanic marketing departments, and serves as the official Spanish language translator for the Club. In 2016, Higueros received a Northern California Area Emmy Award in the category of Outstanding Achievement Sporting Game Live for the first Giants game to be televised in Spanish on Telemundo/KSTS-Channel 48. A multi-talented announcer, Higueros hosts G-Cast En Español in season which features exclusive interviews with Giants uniformed personnel in Spanish and and four 30-minute television shows on Telemundo. Higueros began his broadcasting career with the Oakland A's (1988-97), and was the play-by-play announcer for games that were televised on Telemundo-Channel 48 from 1995-97. A versatile broadcaster, Higueros was the Spanish play-by-play voice for a number of Bay Area professional sports teams including the San Francisco 49ers in 2000 and 2012-2013 seasons, the San Jose Sharks in 1995, and the Oakland Raiders in 1995-96 and 2002-06. He also handled the radio play-by-play duties on Spanish radio for the Fresno State Bulldogs football team (2009-14). Higueros broadcast the League Division Series for FOX Sports International in 2004-06. In 2013, Higueros was the recipient of the Community Service Award from the Hispanic Heritage Baseball Museum. Born in Guatemala, he moved to the United States when he was 12 years old. A graduate of Fremont High School in Oakland, he attended Cal State Hayward and the Columbia School of Broadcasting. Higueros resides in Brentwood with his wife, Maria. The couple has two grown children, Claudia and Erwin, Jr., and two grandchildren, Alison and Erwin, III.

Tito Fuentes

Tito Fuentes returns to the Giants' Spanish language broadcast booth for his 15th straight season. Fuentes previously served as a member of the Spanish language broadcast team from 1981-92, and in 1996-2004 he broadcast for FOX Sports International which is aired in Latin America. An active participant in the Giants' marketing efforts, he is a regular participant in the Giants Fantasy Camps. A former Major League second baseman who played for the Giants from 1965-74, Fuentes saw big league action with San Diego, Detroit and Oakland. The Havana, Cuba native was initially signed as an 18-year-old amateur before the start of the 1962 season and was the last baseball player signed directly out of Cuba before the United States embargo against Cuba. A .268 hitter over his 13-year career, he was voted the starting second baseman on the Dream Team for the Giants 25th Anniversary team by San Francisco fans in 1982. In 1997, "23" was inducted into the Cuban Baseball Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Maritza, reside in Reno, Nevada.

Marvin Benard

Marvin Benard begins his third year in the Giants' Spanish language radio broadcast booth. Benard will broadcast road games and perform color duties alongside veteran Higueros. The former Major League outfielder was drafted by the Giants in the 50th round of the 1992 Amateur Draft and played with the Giants from 1995-2003. In 1999, he won the prestigious Willie Mac Award for his spirit and leadership. The Bluefields, Nicaragua native moved to Los Angeles with his parents when he was 12 years old. A .271 hitter over his Major League career, Benard hit the final Giants home run in the history of Candlestick Park. Benard was honored in 2011 with a bronze plaque on the Giants Wall of Fame, which lines the wall outside of AT&T Park. As a player, Benard was an active participant in the Giants community outreach programs especially with CARECEN (Central American Resource Center in San Francisco), a center that provides advocacy to help create a vibrant and thriving Latino immigrant community in San Francisco and the Bay Area. Benard currently volunteers his time with the Major League Alumni Association bringing baseball to the youth of developing countries. In 2015, Benard was the hitting coach for the Tri-Cities Dust Devils, the short season Single A team for the San Diego Padres. In March 2016, Benard managed the Nicaragua national team that participated in the World Baseball Classic qualifier. When his eldest son graduated from high school in 2014, Benard got serious about returning to college to complete the college degree he started before being drafted in 1992. In the Spring of 2017, Benard received his B.S. in Kinesiology from Lewis-Clark State College. He resides in Auburn, CA with his wife, Leslie. He has three children, Isaac, Haley, and Sophia.

PUBLIC ADDRESS ANNOUNCER

Renel Brooks-Moon

Born in Oakland, California, Renel was raised by her educator parents, Nathaniel and Juanita, throughout the Bay Area. She's a graduate of Woodside High School in Redwood City and Mills College in Oakland. Renel's early broadcasting experiences with KCBS and KFRC led to her breakthrough in 1986 as an on-air personality on 106 KMEL. She is best remembered as part of the popular "Morning Zoo" on 106 KMEL and for waking the San Francisco Bay Area up with her Renel In The Morning show as radio personality on 98.1 KISS-FM. Renel's television experience is diverse. She hosted her own music video program on the California Music Channel in the 80s. Renel's sports broadcasting journey began as host of "Sports In The Classroom", a weekly high school sports education show, and host of "A's Inside Pitch", a weekly magazine series during the Oakland A's 1995 Season. These shows featured Renel interviewing Oakland A's team leaders, including Mark McGwire, as well as numerous sports luminaries. From 2004 to 2007, Renel co-hosted the "San Francisco Giants Pre-Game Show" on Fox Sports Net Bay Area (now NBC Sports Bay Area), and served as host of "GMag", a monthly magazine show that takes fans behind the scenes of the San Francisco Giants. As an entertainment correspondent for CBS-5, Renel covered the Grammy Awards and interviewed such celebrities as John Travolta, Matthew Perry, Ann-Margaret, and Mario Lopez, and was a feature correspondent for "Evening Magazine" and "Eye on the Bay". In 2000, Renel was honored to be chosen as the Public Address Announcer for the San Francisco Giants at AT&T Park. Renel spends every home game surrounded by 40,000 baseball fans and an enthusiastic production crew. Renel has logged such memorable experiences as the Park's inaugural Opening Day, Barry Bonds' incredible batting and home run records, the Giants league and division championships, Matt Cain's perfect game on June 13, 2012, and the 2010, 2012, and 2014 World Series Championships. She recently represented the Giants in her role as a Team Ambassador by co-presenting the Sports Legend Award to the legendary Lou Brock at the nationally televised 23rd Annual Trumpet Awards in Atlanta, Georgia. Renel's work in the booth has been recognized by the Major League Baseball Hall of Fame as the first female announcer of a championship game in any major professional sport. Her scorecard from Game 3 of the 2002 World Series can be viewed in the Hall at Cooperstown! Renel continued to make history in July 2007, when she became the first woman ever to public address announce Major League Baseball's annual All-Star Game, hosted by the Giants at AT&T Park. She re-wrote history again in 2010 when she became the first woman to public address announce an MLB World Series Championship, and earned a World Series ring in the process! She earned two more rings following the 2012 and 2014 World Series Championships and joined the team on their visit to the White House to be congratulated by the President of the United States. In July 2014, Renel was profiled in The Oprah Magazine describing her as "The Woman Who's Changing Baseball" and in October 2014 by ESPNW in the article "How One Woman's Giant Voice Is Influencing Generations of Women." March 18, 2005 was proclaimed "Renel Brooks-Moon Day" in San Francisco by then-Mayor Gavin Newsom who honored Renel for her 20 years as a Bay Area media personality and for her community activism. On September, 15, 2006, Renel was honored to return to Mills College, her Alma Mater, to deliver the convocation address to incoming freshmen. In September of 2008, President Janet Holmgren and Mills College presented Renel with an honorary degree in Arts and Literature. In August 2013, Renel, along with other noted media personalities, had her portrait hung in San Francisco's legendary John's Grill by John Konstin, Wilkes Bashford, and The Honorable Willie Brown, Jr. as part of a ceremony honoring The Great Ladies of San Francisco Media. In January 2014, Renel received the Excellence in Media Award from Oakland's Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority. Later in May 2014, she was the Strong Award Honoree by Girls Inc. of Alameda County. Renel is a founding member of Friends of Faith, Inc., a non-profit organization dedicated to providing assistance to underserved and uninsured Bay Area breast cancer patients. Renel has also served on the board of the San Francisco Giants Community Fund. In 2006, Renel was enrolled as a lifetime member of the Little Sisters of the Poor Auxiliary, dedicated to caring for the elderly poor. Renel serves on the advisory board of the Oakland Interfaith Gospel Choir and is a supporter of Glide Memorial Methodist Church and the Glide Foundation, annually hosting its holiday gala. Renel's community and professional work has been honored by the Bay Area Black Journalists Association, 100 Black Women of the Bay Area, S.F. Chapter of American Women in Radio and Television, the Golden Gate Chapter of the National Council of Negro Women, 100 Black Men of the Bay Area, Bay Area Multi-Ethnic Sports Hall of Fame, and several others. In 2008, Renel was inducted into the Bay Area Radio Hall of Fame, receiving the most votes during the voting, having been named on more than 27% of all ballots cast!

2017 Community Relations Highlights

The San Francisco Giants are dedicated to enriching
OUR COMMUNITY through innovation and excellence on and off the field.

In a collaborative effort, the Giants Community Fund, the club's 501(c)(3) non-profit, and the team's Community Relations Department, work to identify, develop, support and raise awareness for people, issues and programs that are important to our fans and communities throughout the Bay Area and Northern and Central California.

Giants fans are likely to recognize the work of the Giants Community Fund or the Giants Community Relations Department through a public awareness campaign, educational activity, fundraiser or grant giving program of either entity. These activities and programs focus on the following areas:

- Youth Recreation & Fitness
- Health
- Violence Prevention
- Education/Literacy

Each season, the Giants hold more than 375 community outreach and awareness programs and events, either at AT&T Park or throughout the community, which define the work they do in the afore-mentioned focus areas. Programs include: Girls Day, Jefferson Awards Students In Action, Team Not For Sale, Salute to the Military, Pediatric Cancer Awareness, Until There's A Cure, Cancer Awareness programs, Strike Out Violence Day, Autism Awareness, Family Safety, Giant Race, ALS Awareness, Junior Giants Glove Drive, Junior Giants Stretch Drive, Education Day, Donate Life Day, Challenger Clinic, AAA High School Championship, Bullying Prevention, Peanut Allergy Awareness, Step Up to the Plate for Homelessness, and many others.

In addition, thousands of community organizations and groups gather at AT&T Park each season to celebrate their shared culture, heritage, and diversity while raising funds to support their school, organization or non-profit.

The Giants Community Fund's flagship program, Junior Giants, serves nearly 25,000 boys and girls in 90 underserved communities throughout California, Nevada and Oregon. It is a free and non-competitive baseball program that has served as a model for MLB youth initiatives. Using baseball as the hook, Junior Giants provides opportunities for children to learn the meaning of leadership, teamwork, confidence and integrity, as well as the importance of education, health and bullying prevention. Over 5,000 coaches, team parents and representatives of community organizations, generously dedicate their time and efforts to improve the lives of Junior Giants in their communities. For more information about Junior Giants, please visit jrgiants.org.

The Giants, Airbnb and Hamilton Families partnered in 2017 to raise awareness and funds in support of the City of San Francisco's Heading Home Campaign – which is dedicated to ending family homelessness in San Francisco. For every Giants run scored at AT&T Park in 2017, Airbnb and the Giants donated $1,000 to the Heading Home

Throughout the season, Buster and Kristen Posey visited and hosted children who are battling pediatric cancer, and their families, at AT&T Park and at various hospitals around the Bay Area.

Campaign totaling $300,000 over the course of the season. Giants fans were also asked to participate in the Heading Home Campaign by making a donation to Hamilton Families by texting "HOME" to 91-999 or going to hamiltonfamilies.org.

The Giants continue to respond to and fulfill many special needs and requests in the community providing experiences to fans confronting illness, experiencing life's milestones and other special circumstances.

Giants employees, from the players to the front office staff are expected to give back to the community and our fans. Players and uniformed personnel do this through developing their own community programs or supporting existing programs in the form of visits and appearances, financial contributions and relaying important messages through videos, press conferences and media interviews. The front office staff supports many of the organization's community initiatives and actively volunteers their time throughout the year.

In 2017, nearly 50,000 game tickets were donated to more than 450 community groups through the Take Me Out to the Ballgame ticket donation program, which is funded by Giants players, MLB's Commissioner's Community Initiative and MLBPA's Players Give Back. Additionally, autographed items and special field experiences were donated to over 1,500 groups who used them for fundraising purposes.

THE GIANTS MEDIA RELATIONS OFFICE: Located on the second level at AT&T Park behind the press box, the Giants' media relations department can be reached via the media elevator or adjacent stairs from the Field Club (service) level walkway.

ENTRY TO AT&T PARK: Credentialed media must enter the ballpark through the Media Entrance near O'Doul Gate (next to the Giants Dugout Store) off Third Street, or at the Command Center at 2nd and King Streets.

CREDENTIALS: Credentials will be issued only to legitimate media. Season credentials will be issued only to those news agencies that cover the Giants on a daily basis. All requests for regular season media and photo credentials must be submitted on Major League Baseball's online credential site: <https://credentials.mlb.com>. Media that do not receive full-season Giants credentials may apply for single game credentials. Media will need to apply on the website 48 hours in advance of each game requested. Daily media credentials are subject to availability. All daily media credentials can be picked up at the Credential Distribution Center located at the Lefty O'Doul ticket windows (adjacent to the Dignity Health Center). Credentials must be visibly worn at all times.

BOB STEVENS PRESS BOX: The Bob Stevens Press Box is located on the Lower Box level of AT&T Park, directly above Sections 113-117 of the lower bowl seating in the ballpark. The entrance to the press box, situated one level above street level, can be accessed via the media elevator or adjacent stairwell from the Field Club (service) level walkway. The press box is a working area for the news media and no cheering or other distracting noise is permitted at any time. Anyone violating this policy will be asked to leave the premises. Persons without credentials will not be admitted.

HODGES-SIMMONS BROADCAST CENTER: All broadcast booths for live game coverage are located at the Hodges-Simmons Broadcast Center on the Club Level of AT&T Park (one level above the Press Box). From the Field (service) level walkway, take the media elevator or adjacent stairwell to the Club Level to access the broadcast booths. Persons without credentials will not be admitted.

CLUBHOUSES: Both clubhouses are located on the Field Club (service) level of AT&T Park. The Giants' clubhouse is on the third base side, while the visitor's clubhouse is on the first base side. Only credentialed media with clubhouse access will be admitted. Still photographers are not allowed in the clubhouse at any time (pre-game or post-game). TV cameras are permitted in the clubhouse pre-game and post-game. Training and weight rooms, as well as the club dining areas, are closed to everyone except players and club officials. The Giants clubhouse is open beginning three-and-a-half hours prior to game time, and will re-open 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game. Media may NOT return to the home or visitors clubhouse once the Clubs have taken batting practice. Please do not lounge in the manager's office or clubhouse during the pre-game period. If you have specific interview requests for a player or coach, we encourage you to contact a member of the Giants' media relations staff, who will try to accommodate your needs.

FIELD ACCESS: Only credentialed media with field access will be allowed onto the field prior to the game. Due to AT&T Park having the smallest foul territory behind home plate in Major League Baseball, we kindly ask all video and still photographers to stay on the warning track when shooting. All media must clear the field 45 minutes prior to game time. Access to the field is available on the Field Club (service) level only by one of three tunnels: the Giants' dugout, the visitors' dugout, or the media tunnel directly behind home plate.

NICK PETERS MEDIA INTERVIEW ROOM: The Nick Peters Media Interview Room is located adjacent to the Giants clubhouse on the Field Club (service) level of the ballpark. The room will be used for media conferences and other special interviews.

POST-GAME PROCEDURES: Manager Bruce Bochy will be available to the media immediately after the game in the Nick Peters Media Interview Room. Please ask any questions of the manager related to the game during this post-game session. Post-game interviews with the manager and players are conducted by media with deadlines and should be limited to game comments. Please do not lounge in the manager's office or clubhouse, or attempt to conduct feature-length interviews after a game.

SOCIAL MEDIA: In accordance with Major League Baseball guidelines, media are not permitted to use cellular phones, laptops, texting devices or similar portable equipment for Tweeting or transmitting via other social media networks in group settings in clubhouses, dugouts or manager's office at any time. Digital photography, without the permission of the club media relations director, is prohibited in the clubhouse at all times.

MEDIA DRESS GUIDELINES: MLB and the BBWAA agreed to a set of dress guidelines for members of the media. The guidelines, which emphasize professionalism, will be in effect for the 2018 season. The guidelines will be posted in all media areas.

DARKROOMS, STILL PHOTO LOCATIONS: The photo darkrooms and the Giants' team photographers' office are located on the Field Club (service) level of the ballpark between both clubhouses. In addition, an auxiliary photographers' work room for photo transmissions via telephone lines is available in the area adjacent to the umpires room on the service level. Limited photo locations are available at various field level areas, as well as in the TV basket situated on the third base side of the Club Level. All still photo locations are reserved by contacting Giants photography department. The Giants' media relations department requests that all season credentialed photographers use discretion in using their season pass, and ask that you only utilize your credential on a legitimate assignment.

TV PHOTO LOCATIONS: Due to limited photo space, no TV cameras are guaranteed locations on the field level. All still photographers will have priority in these locations. However, TV cameras are welcome if space permits.

LIVE SHOTS: Due to our downtown location, we do not have any ENG truck parking. If your organization plans to transmit ANY live shots from inside AT&T Park, please contact MediaOne Services, which serves as the official broadcast services provider for the Giants and AT&T Park. Please direct your inquiry to Michael Ciabattari via e-mail at michael@mediaonestudios.com or via telephone at (415) 939-1572.

SAM SKINNER MEDIA LOUNGE: The Sam Skinner Media Lounge is located directly behind the broadcast booths on Club Level. Those media members located in the press box that wish to dine can access the Sam Skinner Media Lounge by taking one flight of stairs up one level. The lounge is open for pre-game meal service beginning two hours prior to game time to accredited media members. Meal service concludes one hour after first pitch. There will be a nominal charge for meals.

LIVE GAME-IN-PROGRESS BROADCASTS: Please be advised that no radio entity is allowed to file live in-game reports from AT&T Park when the Giants host a game in which MLB's national radio rightsholder, ESPN Radio, is broadcasting. The ESPN Radio window of exclusivity begins 15 minutes prior to first pitch and concludes 15 minutes after the game or when ESPN Radio completes its broadcast, whichever comes first. Live broadcasts by non-rights holders during a game are permitted for the purpose of non play-by-play reporting of scores and game highlights, under the following guidelines: Reports must be confined to between-innings only, limited to 60 seconds in length, and limited to six per game. Radio and TV stringers must notify the Giants media relations department of their plans for such reports. A violation of the above Major League Baseball guidelines may result in the revocation of media credentials.

TELEPHONES: Media wishing to order temporary telephone lines must contact Lena Boswell, Giants telecommunications administrator at (415) 972-1711 or via e-mail at lboswell@sfgiants.com.

BLOGGERS, FREELANCE WRITERS AND PHOTOGRAPHERS: Bloggers, freelance writers and photographers may not request their own credentials. The sports editor or managing editor of a publication employing the blogger or freelancer must apply for credentials on the MLB credential website (see credentials).

WEBSITES: Due to the growth of on-line services and our limited number of press box seats, the Giants will only issue daily credentials to those website personnel affiliated with a major news gathering organization.

MEDIA INFORMATION SITE: All Giants' game day information (lineups, game notes, stats, releases, etc.) audio/video interviews (English and Spanish) and press box information will be available on GiantsPressbox.com

NO AUTOGRAPHS: Media are not allowed to ask for autographs of uniformed personnel at AT&T Park. Anyone violating this policy will be asked to leave the premises and will have their credential revoked.

Información a los Medios

Oficina de Relaciones Públicas de los Gigantes: Está localizada en el segundo piso en AT&T Park detrás del Palco de Prensa. Usted puede llegar al Departamento de Relaciones Públicas de los Gigantes para los Medios de Comunicación por el elevador o las escaleras que están ubicados cerca del túnel de servicio en el nivel Field Club.

Acceso a AT&T Park: Todos los miembros de prensa con acreditación autorizada deben entrar a AT&T Park por la puerta designada para Medios que está ubicada cerca a la taquilla Lefty O'Doul (a un lado de la tienda Giants Dugout) en la calle Third o en el centro de comando entre las calles 2nd y King.

Acreditación: Las Credenciales de Temporada le serán otorgadas solamente a medios informativos o agencias de noticias que reportan sobre el equipo a diario. Todos los medios informativos o agencias de noticias que deseen obtener acreditación tienen que someter su solicitud usando el sitio cibernético de Major League Baseball usando la siguiente dirección: <https://credentials.mlb.com>. Los Medios que no reciban acreditación de temporada pueden obtener una credencial para juegos individuales, sujetos a disponibilidad siempre y cuando sean pedidas con 48 horas de anticipación. Todas la credenciales de prensa diarias pueden ser recogidas en el Centro de Distribución de Credenciales situada en las taquillas Lefty O'Doul (adyacentes a Dignity Health Center).

Palco de Prensa Bob Stevens: El Palco de Prensa Bob Stevens está localizado en el nivel Lower Box en AT&T Park, directamente arriba de las secciones 113 a 117. Se puede llegar al Palco de Prensa Bob Stevens por el ascensor o las escaleras que están por el túnel de servicio en el nivel Field Club. El Palco de Prensa es un área de trabajo para los periodistas y no se permiten las porras, vítores, aplausos o cualquier otro ruido que distraiga o impida a los periodistas ejercer su trabajo. Los individuos que no respeten esta regla serán expulsados de inmediato del palco. De hecho, las personas sin credenciales no serán admitidas al palco.

Centro de Transmisión Hodges-Simmons: Todas las cabinas de radio y televisión para transmisiones en vivo están localizadas en el Centro de Transmisión Hodges-Simmons en el nivel Club Level en AT&T Park (un piso arriba del Palco de Prensa). Se puede llegar al Centro de Transmisión Hodges-Simmons por el ascensor o las escaleras que están por el túnel de servicio en el nivel Field Club. Las personas sin credenciales no serán admitidas a esta área del estadio.

Acceso a los Vestidores: Ambos vestidores están localizados en el nivel Field Club de AT&T Park. El vestidor de los Gigantes se encuentra en el lado de la tercera base y el del equipo visitante está en el lado de la primera base. El acceso a los vestidores será permitido sólo a periodistas con la acreditación apropiada. En ningún momento está permitida la entrada al clubhouse de fotógrafos (antes o después de los partidos). Cámaras de televisión si tienen el permiso de ingresar al clubhouse antes y después de los partidos. El cuarto médico y de entrenamiento así como el comedor de los jugadores son áreas que están cerradas para todos, excepto a los jugadores y empleados del club. El vestidor de los Gigantes estará abierto tres horas y media antes de cada partido y reabrirá 10 minutos después del juego. Los periodistas no pueden regresar al vestidor de los Gigantes o al del equipo visitante una vez que los equipos hayan salido a tomar práctica de bateo. Si no está autorizado para hacerlo, por favor no se quede en la oficina del manager o en el vestidor. Si desea hacer una entrevista específica con un pelotero o instructor le pedimos que se ponga en contacto con miembros de Relaciones para los Medios de los Gigantes, quienes harán todo lo posible para facilitar su necesidad.

Acceso al Campo/Terreno de Juego: El acceso al terreno de juego será permitido sólo a periodistas con la acreditación oficial antes de los partidos. Debido a que AT&T Park tiene la área más pequeña detrás del home en las Grandes Ligas, se le pide a las cámaras de televisión y fotógrafos que permanezcan en la pista de advertencia o zona de seguridad cuando estén filmando. Todos los miembros de los medios necesitan desalojar el campo 45 minutos antes del comienzo del partido. Se puede llegar al campo por el nivel Field Club solamente por uno de tres túneles: por el dugout de los Gigantes o el del equipo visitante y por el túnel que está directamente detrás del home.

Sala de Entrevistas Nick Peters: La Sala de Entrevistas Nick Peters está localizada en el nivel Field Club del estadio, entre home y el vestidor de los Gigantes. Esta Sala de Entrevistas será usada para Conferencias de Prensa y otras entrevistas especiales.

Procedimiento después del Partido: El piloto Bruce Bochy estará disponible inmediatamente después de cada partido en la Sala de Entrevistas Nick Peters. Esta es su oportunidad de hacer preguntas con respecto al juego de ese día o noche. Las entrevistas con el manager y los peloteros deben de ser llevadas a cabo por reporteros que tienen que respetar un plazo de tiempo para ejecutar sus funciones. Por favor no se quede en la oficina del manager o el vestidor y no trate de hacer entrevistas largas después del juego.

Medios Sociales: Conforme a las reglas de Major League Baseball, no se le permite el uso de teléfonos móviles, laptop, equipos para escribir texto o usar aparatos similares para enviar tweets o transmitir a otros medios sociales mientras esté el vestidor, clubhouse o en la oficina del manager. Las fotos digitales sin el permiso de un miembro de Relaciones para los Medios están completamente prohibidas en el Clubhouse o vestidor.

Código de Vestimenta: MLB y BBWAA se han puesto de acuerdo en un Código de Vestimenta para todos los miembros de prensa. La directriz, la cual enfatiza el profesionalismo, fue puesta en vigor desde la temporada 2018. Las reglas al respecto están delineadas y a la vista de todos en las áreas para los miembros de prensa.

Cuarto Oscuro, lugar para los Fotógrafos: El cuarto oscuro y la oficina del fotógrafo del equipo de los Gigantes está localizada en el Field Club en el nivel de servicio entre los vestidores de los equipos. Además, hay otro cuarto auxiliar de trabajo para enviar fotografías via teléfono que se encuentra a un lado del cuarto de los árbitros en el nivel de servicio. Hay espacio para un número limitado de áreas para fotógrafos en el terreno de juego, así como en la caseta de televisión que se encuentra en el lado de la tercera base en el Club Level. Todas las ubicaciones para fotógrafos están reservadas y si desea una de estas áreas comuníquese con el Departamento de Fotografía de los Gigantes. El Departamento de Relaciones para Medios de los Gigantes le pide a todos los fotógrafos con acreditación de temporada que respeten las reglas propias de su profesión cuando hagan uso de las mismas y se les pide que sólo la usen cuando estén ejerciendo el trabajo para un medio debidamente acreditado.

Lugar para TV/Fotos: Debido al espacio limitado, las cámaras de televisión no tienen garantizado un espacio en el campo. Todos los fotógrafos tendrán prioridad.

Tomas en Vivo: Debido a que el estadio se encuentra en el centro de la ciudad, no tenemos estacionamiento para los camiones con satélite. Si su organización tiene planes de hacer una transmisión en directo adentro de AT&T Park, por favor comuníquese con MediaOne Services, proveedor oficial para transmisiones en vivo de los Gigantes en AT&T Park. Diríjase a Michael Clabattari por email a michael@m1sf.com o por teléfono al (415) 939-1572.

Comedor de Prensa Sam Skinner: El comedor Sam Skinner está localizado directamente detrás de las cabinas de narración en el Club Level. Los periodistas que se encuentren en el Palco de Prensa y deseen ingerir alimentos pueden dirigirse al Comedor Sam Skinner por las escaleras al tercer piso. El comedor estará abierto dos horas antes de cada partido. El comedor cierra una hora después del primer lanzamiento. Hay un cobro mínimo especificado por la comida.

Transmisiones en Vivo: Se advierte que ninguna radio está permitida a hacer reportajes en vivo durante los juegos en AT&T Park cuando los Gigantes sean anfitriones y el partido sea transmitido nacionalmente por la cadena ESPN. La ventana de exclusividad para la cadena ESPN comienza 15 minutos antes del primer lanzamiento y concluye 15 minutos después que termine el juego o cuando ESPN concluya su transmisión. Reportes en vivo de estaciones de radio sin derechos de exclusividad están permitidos sólo para informar del marcador o jugadas relevantes y no para describir la acción bajo las siguientes reglas: los reportajes deben hacerse sólo entre innings, limitados a 60 segundos y seis por juego. Los reporteros de radio y televisión tienen que informarle de antemano al Departamento de Relaciones para Medios sobre sus planes para dichos reportes. La violación a esta regla de MLB puede resultar en la suspensión de la respectiva credencial.

Teléfonos: Los medios que quieran ordenar servicio de teléfono temporal tienen que ponerse en contacto con Lena Boswell, la administradora de telecomunicaciones para los Gigantes al (415) 972-1711 o por email al lboswell@sfgiants.com.

Reporteros y Fotógrafos Independientes: Los reporteros y fotógrafos independientes no pueden solicitar su propia acreditación. El Director de Deportes o el gerente de la publicación a la cual representan tienen que hacer la solicitud por escrito en papel membretado de la compañía para los juegos específicos con por lo menos 48 horas de anticipación.

Sitio Web: Debido al gran número de sitios cibernéticos y el espacio limitado en el Palco de Prensa los Gigantes sólo le otorgarán credenciales a aquellos sitios que estén asociados con una organización informativa legítima.

Lugar con Información para los Medios: Toda la información del juego (notas, alineaciones, estadísticas, comunicados de prensa, etc.), video y audio de entrevistas en inglés y español están disponibles en el sitio de la web de los Gigantes (GiantsPressBox.com).

Prohibida Absolutamente la Peticion de Autógrafos: Los miembros de la prensa tienen terminantemente prohibido pedir autógrafos en AT&T Park. Cualquiera que viole esta regla se le pedirá que desaloje el estadio y su credencial será suspendida.
