On November 7, the baseball world lost a beloved pitcher, devoted family man, and compassionate soul. Countless players have taken the field at Rogers Centre, but the elegance with which Roy "Doc" Halladay carried the Blue Jays logo on his chest is unmatched. Beneath his calm demeanour was a man who had an intense passion for the game he loved, the family he adored, and the community he supported.

On the baseball diamond, Halladay's pitching prowess and respected work ethic was known around the game. He was extremely focused on days he pitched with one simple goal in mind: to give his team the best possible chance of winning.

The strength, determination, and skillset that he worked so hard to develop made Halladay the complete package. He was drafted by the Blue Jays as the 17th overall pick in 1995 out of Denver, CO. In only his second big league start in 1998, he took a no-hitter into the ninth inning against the Tigers for a complete game win. When the 2000 season started, Roy began his year with the Dunedin Blue Jays, where his hard work, determination, and resilience resulted in him recreating himself as a pitcher, both physically and mentally. He returned to the Major Leagues with an overhauled approach and a mental toughness that defines his pitching career to this day.

Over the 11 seasons that followed, Halladay cemented his imprint on the game as one of the greatest pitchers of his generation. Among his accomplishments included eight All-Star appearances and two Cy Young awards - one of six pitchers to win the honour in both the American and National Leagues. At the time of his retirement, he was the active Major League leader in complete games with 67, including 20 shutouts.

Off the field, Halladay was a supportive father who was immensely proud of his two sons, Braden and Ryan. From bringing his boys into the Blue Jays clubhouse to coaching his son's high school baseball team, his family was his biggest passion.

Halladay also held a strong belief in giving back to others. He was involved in a number of community initiatives while playing in Toronto, including Doc's Box, where he and his wife, Brandy, hosted children who were fighting various illnesses to watch a Blue Jays game. These interactions created life-long memories for the children and for Halladay. As the father of one of the children recalls, "I think his true legacy is what he left for kids who are in dire need of an escape."

On Opening Day 2018, as his number is raised to the rafters at Rogers Centre, Roy "Doc" Halladay's legacy, influence, and contributions will forever be remembered and cherished by all Blue Jays fans.

BLUE JAYS BASEBALL ACADEMY

Jays Care Foundation, the charitable arm of the Toronto Blue Jays, uses baseball to teach life skills and create lasting social change for children and youth in marginalized communities across Canada. Jays Care works with like-minded organizations to design and implement best-in-class programs for children and youth that respond to the unique strengths and needs of each community. Our goal is to reduce the opportunity gap and level the playing field for all kids across Canada.

5 THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT JAYS CARE:

1. We use baseball to teach life skills

Baseball is a unique sport for many reasons; one such example is that even the best in the game fail more than they succeed. A career .300 hitter has a good chance of making the Hall of Fame despite the fact they failed to reach base in the majority of their at bats. Because of this, the game of baseball is a powerful tool to teach kids resilience – a skill that research has demonstrated to be incredibly important for youth facing barriers. Jays Care uses baseball to teach not only resiliency but also teamwork, leadership and how to handle pressure.

2. We work across Canada

In 2018, Jays Care will offer programming to kids in all ten Canadian provinces and two Canadian territories. From Victoria to Corner Brook, from London to Whitehorse, and hundreds of communities in between, Jays Care uses the power of baseball and the Blue Jays brand to inspire social change and create young leaders.

3. We work with children and youth facing barriers

Jays Care's efforts are focused on levelling the playing field for groups that face the most pronounced opportunity gaps: children living at or below the poverty line; girls without access to sport; children with physical and/or cognitive disabilities; and Indigenous children and youth.

4. Rogers Communications Inc. donates $1 million annually to Jays Care Foundation

Every year, Rogers Communications Inc. generously donates $1 million to Jays Care supporting our work and allowing thousands of Canadian kids to be positively impacted through programming.

5. We run eight programs and will invest over $6 million across Canada in 2018

In many marginalized communities across the country, children and youth have two strikes against them before they even step up to the plate. Facing greater challenges than most in life, their access to high-quality, results-driven programming is severely limited, creating an opportunity gap. Jays Care's programs are specifically designed to address this gap, providing kids with opportunities to grow and reach their full potential.

JAYS CARE PROGRAMS

ROOKIE LEAGUE:

Rookie League uses baseball to teach life skills to kids all across the country. The program supports vulnerable families by providing fun, high-quality, reliable, skill-building programs that children love. For some, Rookie League is a baseball-for-development club that meets weekly. For others, it is a robust summer day camp. For everyone, Rookie League is designed to be a best-in-class experience that enables parents and caregivers to feel confident that their children are safe, active, surrounded by well-trained local role models and engaging in activities that are specifically designed to help them learn essential life skills. In 2018, Rookie League will celebrate its 30th season continuing to break barriers to accessible organized sport for more than 8,500 kids in 107 communities from coast to coast.

CHALLENGER BASEBALL:

Challenger Baseball is an adaptive baseball program designed to empower children and youth living with physical and/or cognitive disabilities. The program teaches kids the core life skills inherent to baseball, including: teamwork, communication, determination, resiliency, inclusion, support and courage. Challenger Baseball doesn't just provide children with disabilities with access to baseball, but also helps them realize that they can and should regularly participate in sport and recreation. It connects players and families with other families and other players and develops a social network that is often lacking for children with disabilities. This unique partnership between Baseball Canada, Little League Canada and Jays Care Foundation is creating opportunities for more than 3,500 kids in 93 Canadian communities.

RBI (REVIVING BASEBALL IN INNER CITIES):

Launching in the spring of 2018, Jays Care's RBI program is a school-based baseball league for children aged 10-12. The program runs in partnership with schools in Toronto that are identified as priority schools, model schools and/or schools that have few existing sport programs available to their student population. In its first year, the program will run in partnership with sixteen schools in Toronto with plans of growing the program to include additional schools and cities in the coming years.

GIRLS AT BAT:

Girls At Bat is Jays Care's girls-only baseball program, designed for and by girls and young women with the goal of making playing and coaching baseball fun and safe for those who typically don't have the courage to get involved in team sports. By combining fun, challenging baseball skills with team-building exercises and healthy activities, Girls At Bat empowers girls with the confidence, self-esteem and the leadership capacity they need to succeed on and off the field.

FIELD OF DREAMS:

To play is to learn! Baseball diamonds can serve as classrooms where children and youth learn important life skills. The Field Of Dreams program grants funds for the design, building or refurbishment of safe spaces for children and youth to play baseball, develop life skills and learn from positive role models. In 2017, Jays Care proudly granted over $1 million to organizations across Canada bringing the total amount invested through the Field Of Dreams program to over $10 million.

PLAY BALL!

There are many dedicated youth workers and volunteers across Canada who organize and lead impactful programs for youth facing barriers. Play Ball! is for those who are interested in introducing baseball into their programming but are unable to afford the equipment. Aligned with an initiative launched in 2015 by Major League Baseball, Play Ball! increases access to the equipment and tools required to lead great baseball programs for children and youth facing multiple barriers.

HOME RUN SCHOLARS:

Research shows that the hours after school finishes can be a vulnerable time for children, especially those living in vulnerable communities. Home Run Scholars provides not just a place for children to go after school, but an exceptional four-hour program that works with children to improve academic performance, enhance physical health, enhance social and emotional well-being and improve student behaviour. The Home Run Scholars program operates in 21 Toronto Community Housing locations across the city and impacts over 2,800 kids annually.

- Earned three saves in three opportunities in 2014... Became the 4th youngest pitcher in club history to record a save after collecting his 1st on August 30 vs. NYY (2.0 IP, 0R, 0H, 3K).
- Earned his 1st win of the season and 1st victory as a starter on April 22, 2015 vs. BAL...Issued seven free passes, the first time since Sept. 8, 1995 that a Toronto starter walked 7+ batters and won the game (J. Ware, Sept. 8, 1995 – 8BB).
- On May 8, 2015 vs. BOS, marked the first time a Toronto starter tossed at least 7.0 scoreless IP while recording more walks (5) than strikeouts (3) in a start since May 6, 2010 at CWS (Dana Eveland – 7.0 IP, 4BB, 3K)...In fact, this was just the 2nd time it has happened for Toronto over the last 17 seasons (2001-2017).
- Tossed a then career-high 8.0 innings on June 5, 2015 vs. HOU while allowing just one earned run...Did not issue a walk for the 1st time in his career as a starter.

- His nine appearances through the ALDS and ALCS were most among all ML pitchers through the first two rounds of the 2015 playoffs.
- Did not allow a run over his final 11.2 innings pitched of the season (regular and postseason), dating back to September 26, 2015 vs. TB.
- Was the first rookie reliever to toss at least 7.1 innings in the playoffs without allowing an earned run in their postseason debut since Boston's Brandon Workman in 2013...Is one of 10 rookie relievers to post a 0.00 ERA in their postseason debut in MLB history (minimum 6.0 IP).
- Became the only rookie reliever in Blue Jays history to record an ERA of 0.00 in the playoffs.

- In his first start of the 2016 season, April 5 at TB, had a then career-high eight strikeouts which matched Roy Halladay in 2002 for the most by a Blue Jay without a walk in his first start of a season in club history.
- Went to at least six innings and allowed exactly one earned run in each of his first three starts in 2016...Only one other Blue Jays pitcher has thrown six or more innings while allowing one earned run or fewer in each of his first three starts of a season (Jeff Musselman in 1988).
- Won seven consecutive decisions from April 29-June 29, 2016, the most by any Jays starter 23 years of age or younger (turned 24 on July 1)...Garvin, Hentgen, Litsch and Cecil all had five-game streaks under 24 years of age.

- Had a career-high 10-game winning streak from April 29-July 25, 2016, which was the longest active streak in the Majors at the time and one of seven double-digit winning streaks by a starter in franchise history, joining Roy Halladay (15 in 2003), Roger Clemens (15 in 1998 and 11 in 1997), Dennis Lamp (11 in 1985), Juan Guzman (10 in 1991) and J.A. Happ (11 in 2016).

- Posted a 3.00 ERA, the lowest mark in the AL in 2016, becoming the 5th different pitcher in franchise history to win an ERA title...The last pitcher to lead his league in ERA at Sanchez's age or younger (24 years, 93 days at the end of the 2016 regular season) was Clayton Kershaw, who was 23 years, 193 days at the end of the 2011 regular season...The last AL pitcher was Roger Clemens, who was 24 years, 62days old at the end of the 1986 regular season.

TRIPLE TROUBLE:

- The Blue Jays hit just five triples last season, going their last 44 games without any...The 5-3B are the fewest by any team in MLB history in a season of 13+ games...Toronto hit one less than the previous low of six triples, which was set in 2016 by Baltimore.

RISP-Y RYAN:

- Ryan Goins drove in a career-high 62 runs, 5th most on the team and 17 more than his previous best from 2015...Also set a person best with nine home runs, including his first two career grand slams...Batted .237 for the year but went 33-for-100 with runners in scoring position...His .330 RISP average led the team and was the best by any Toronto batter since Josh Donaldson hit .353 in 2015...Goins also batted 10-for-14 (.714) with the bases loaded...The 10 bases-loaded hits ranked 1st in the Majors and tied a club record (Delgado – 2003).

RISP FACTOR:

- The Blue Jays hit .275 (70-for-255) with runners in scoring position over their final 33 games to avoid a last-place finish in the Majors in 2017...The team's .229 RISP average for the year was better than only Tampa Bay's .227, and was the 3rd lowest in club history (.227 in 1981 and .228 in 1997).

WHAT A RELIEF:

- Blue Jays relievers worked 7+ innings on 13 occasions last season, after doing so just twice in 2016...No other team used relievers for 7+ innings more than eight times in 2017 (CIN & BAL)...Toronto's bullpen threw a club-record 596.2 innings (2nd, 552.2 in 2013), the most in the AL...Also set a franchise high with 636 SO – 126 more than their highest previous total (2013) and 3rd most in the AL.

- The Jays' starting staff threw 868.1 innings last year, the 5th fewest in the Majors...Posted a 4.57 ERA (14th in MLB)...Toronto's seven starters led MLB in IP in 2016 (995.1) and ranked 4th in ERA (3.64).

HISTORY OF THE TORONTO BLUE JAYS™

1977 – First Pitch: On April 7, 1977, 44,649 fans brave snow and freezing temperatures as the Blue Jays play their first ever regular season game, a 9-5 win over the Chicago White Sox at Exhibition Stadium.

1970s

The City of Toronto is awarded a franchise in the American League on March 26, 1976 and name Peter Bavasi Executive Vice-President and General Manager on June 18. On August 12, the "Blue Jays" are selected by Directors from over 4,000 names and 30,000 entries in a "Name the Team" contest. Roy Hartsfield becomes the first on-field manager and catcher Phil Roof is purchased from the Chicago White Sox becoming the first player in franchise history.

On March 11, 1977 the Blue Jays play in their first spring training game, defeating the New York Mets in Dunedin, Florida by a 3-1 score. On April 7, 1977, 44,649 fans brave snow and freezing temperatures as the Blue Jays win their first ever regular season game 9-5 over the Chicago White Sox. Doug Ault becomes an instant hero hitting two home runs in the contest. In their inaugural season, highlights include a 19-3 win over the Yankees, with Roy Howell collecting nine RBI, while the home attendance of 1,701,052 sets a record for attendance by a first year expansion club.

Bell/Moseby/Barfield: George Bell, Lloyd Moseby and Jesse Barfield played together in Toronto's outfield for six straight seasons from 1984-1989

Over the next two seasons in 1978-79 the Blue Jays see several firsts. Jim Clancy gets the 4-2 victory in front of 44,327 fans, which is marked by the pitcher starting the first Triple Play in franchise history. On June 26, 1978 the Blue Jays explode for a franchise high 24 runs. Bobby Mattick becomes the team's second manager on October 18, 1979. For his performance in 1979, SS Alfredo Griffin is named co-winner of the AL Rookie of the Year Award. From December 2-7 Toronto plays host to the Winter Meetings, the first held outside the United States.

1980s

The decade of the 1980's represented another birth for the franchise, as by the end of the decade the club rose from an expansion team to formidable AL East contender. Still in the early years in 1980 the club set a franchise record with 67 victories while pushing attendance past six million, an expansion record. Field manager Bobby Cox takes over the reins in 1982 and leads the club to new heights in his four years as manager. 1982 saw the club climb out of the basement for the first time in its history, winning 78 games finishing in a tie for 6th with Cleveland.

1983 marks a significant time as the Blue Jays finish over .500 for the first time in franchise history with an 89-73 record, good for 4th place only nine games out of first. Notable performances include the first 100 RBI season by a Blue Jay (Willie Upshaw) and first 100 run scored season (Lloyd Moseby). The Blue Jays become only the second team in league history to win Player of the Week honours in three consecutive weeks, when Luis Leal, Dave Stieb and Lloyd Moseby turned the trick in May. The enthusiasm for the club continues to build as a club record 9,104 season tickets are sold for the 1984 season. They see a club that marches up the standings for a second place finish at 89-73 solidifying their position as AL East contenders. Over the course of the season the Blue Jays would win 19 one-run contests in a row, while Cliff Johnson sets a then Major League record mark for pinch hit home runs with his 19th career shot. All of this is witnessed by 2,110,009 fans, which puts the Blue Jays in elite company as just the 18th franchise to top two million fans in a season.

PLAYOFF BOUND:

The ascent to AL East Champions is complete in 1985 as on the second to last day of the regular season the Blue Jays defeat the New York Yankees by a 5-1 score to secure their first post-season berth. During the 1985 season a Blue Jays ticket was a hot commodity. On July 27, the club sees average attendance top 30,000 per game for the first time. 47,686 fans show up for an October 4th contest vs. New York to set a single game mark, while final attendance reaches a new high of 2,468,925. Season ticket sales are capped at 11,500.

The Blue Jays first foray into the playoffs provides lots of drama and some solid learning experiences that may be valuable in future years. Jumping out to 2-0 and 3-1 series leads vs. the AL West

George Bell MVP: George Bell cements himself as the AL's best posting a .308 average with 47 home runs and 134 RBI to earn the honour as MVP. Is the only Blue Jay in franchise history to win this award.

Champion Kansas City Royals it appeared as though the Blue Jays would make their first World Series appearance inevitable. Unfortunately the Kansas City Royals had other ideas as they would come from behind becoming only the 5th club in Major League history to win a series after trailing 3-1. George Brett would lead the way collecting several key hits while Jim Sundberg would deliver the decisive blow off Blue Jays ace Dave Stieb, with a bases clearing wind assisted triple off the top of the right field fence in Game 7.

Heading into 1986 season tickets are capped at 14,000 as the club celebrates its 10th anniversary. On July 10 Damaso Garcia becomes the first Blue Jay to record 1,000 hits in a Blue Jays uniform, while RHP Jim Clancy becomes the first to win 100 games for the franchise. Tony Fernandez becomes the first to punch out 200 hits in a season and RF Jesse Barfield earns the franchise its first Gold Glove award. The Blue Jays drop to 4th place in the East with an 86-76 record as Jimmy Williams takes over as team manager.

MVP:

George Bell cements himself as the AL's best posting a .308 average with 47 home runs and 134 RBI to earn the honour as AL MVP in 1987. He became the first Blue Jay ever selected by fans to appear in an All-Star Game. The Blue Jays set several club marks, including a 10-home run game vs. Baltimore on September 14, with Ernie Whitt belting three. A franchise record 11-game winning streak begins on June 2, while attendance soars to 2,778,429. The attendance mark is an all-time high for any AL East club. On Canada Day a single game record 47,828 pack their way into Exhibition Stadium in a contest vs. the New York Yankees. The season ends in shocking fashion as a 3.5 game lead is lost in the final week with seven consecutive losses. Four of the losses came to eventual champions Detroit, with all of them being one-run losses, including two in extra innings. On the season's final day LHP Jimmy Key loses a 1-0 battle to Frank Tanana with the lone run coming from a wall scraping home run to left field by OF Larry Herndon in the 2nd inning. Key injuries to C Ernie Whitt and SS Tony Fernandez down the stretch proved to be too much to overcome.

A 3rd place finish in 1988 (87-75) is highlighted by some individual accomplishments. George Bell begins the season the same way he left off his 1987 MVP campaign. He becomes the first player in Major League history to hit three home runs on Opening Day and is the only player over the course of the season to earn two Player of the Week awards. Dave Stieb continues his dominance of AL hitters, flirting with no-hitters on three occasions, with three one-hitters, including back-to-back one-hitters on Sept. 24 and Sept. 30. Incredibly both games see him lose the no-hitter with two outs in the 9th inning.

A SIGNIFICANT CHANGE:

1989 begins with Paul Beeston being named team President on January 10. On May 15 with the team sitting with a 12-24 record manager Jimmy Williams is replaced by Cito Gaston on an interim basis. On May 28 the Blue Jays play their final game at Exhibition Stadium defeating the White Sox 7-5. The team moves into the SkyDome and cap season tickets at 26,000. They open the SkyDome on June 5 with a loss to the Milwaukee Brewers. 49,501 watch the Blue Jays on September 16 to set a new record for home attendance. The Blue Jays would go on to post a 77-49 record under Cito Gaston and clinch their second division title. Dave Stieb posts two more one-hitters, and comes within one out of a perfect game vs. New York on August 4, when Roberto Kelly broke up the bid with a double.

BEEEN HERE BEFORE:

For the second time in five seasons the Blue Jays were East Division Champions, and for the second time they would succumb in the Divisional Series, this time to the AL West Champ Oakland Athletics. The Blue Jays were no match for Rickey Henderson as he batted .400 in the series with a 1.609 OPS and a LCS record eight stolen bases in the five game series. They were outscored 31-16 with the Blue Jays only victory coming in Game 3 behind Jimmy Key.

1990s

The Toronto Blue Jays entered the 90's as an established contender, looking to build on regular season performances that had yet to yield playoff success. With a State of the Art building in the SkyDome now their home, it was time to see this vision become reality.

In the first full season at SkyDome and the first full season under Cito Gaston the club would come up just short of a post-season berth, finishing two games behind the Red Sox with an 86-76 record. Set a Major League attendance record by passing the Dodgers 1982 mark on Sept. 19. Dave Stewart tosses SkyDome's first no-hitter, pitching for the Oakland A's

AND THEN HE WAS PERFECT:

On September 2, 1990 Dave Stieb would accomplish what had appeared so elusive, by tossing his first and only no-hitter vs. the Cleveland Indians. Jerry Browne would line out to RF Junior Felix to end the contest.

1991 was a big year for the franchise in many ways. Chosen to host their first All-Star Game, 52,382 fans pack the SkyDome to see Jimmy Key pick up the win for the home side. In December of 1990 the Blue Jays cement a deal that would change the fortunes of the club by acquiring future Hall of Famer Roberto Alomar and OF Joe Carter from San Diego in exchange for SS Tony Fernandez and 1B Fred McGriff. Another attendance mark is set and the 4 million fan barrier is broken as 4,001,526 see the Blue Jays return to the post-season by winning the AL East with a 91-71 record. Tom Henke sets a then record for consecutive saves with 25. On May 1 in Texas, Nolan Ryan no-hits the Blue Jays for his 7th and final no-hitter.

Stieb No-Hitter: On Sept. 2, 1990 vs. Cleveland, Dave Stieb tosses the only no-hitter in Blue Jay history.

Joe Carter – '93: The Blue Jays win their 2nd consecutive World Series title after Joe Carter hits a walk-off home run in game #6 vs. the Phillies as Toronto captured the series in six games.

THIRD TIME A CHARM:

The AL Third Champion Minnesota Twins would await in the AL Championship Series. The Blue Jays would come home to Toronto with a 1-1 series split, primed to make their first World Series appearance. Unfortunately an 11-inning heartbreaker would see the series tide turn as Mike Pagliarulo would homer off Mike Timlin to put the Blue Jays down 2-1. In Game 5 the Twins would finish off the series by scoring three runs in the 8th inning, winning 8-5 and sending the Blue Jays home early once again.

Newly acquired RHP Jack Morris would lead the Blue Jays into the 1992 season by making his Major League record 13th consecutive Opening Day start. He tosses a complete game 4-2 win in Detroit. The Blue Jays would set a Major League attendance record again in 1992 with 4,028,318 fans. The Blue Jays would clinch their 4th playoff berth on October 3. Dave Winfield sets a Blue Jays mark with 23 home runs as a DH while becoming the oldest player to register 100 or more RBI in a season.

TIME TO CELEBRATE:

An old foe would await in the 1992 Championship series in the Oakland Athletics, a team very similar to the club that handled the Blue Jays just two seasons ago in the playoffs. The Blue Jays would split the first two games at home before heading to Oakland for Games 4, 5 and 6. Juan Guzman would give the Blue Jays a 2-1 series lead before the dramatic Game 4 would be the catalyst for the Blue Jays first ever World Series appearance. In Game 4 the Blue Jays found themselves down 5-1 after three and 6-1 heading into the 8th inning. They would come within striking distance with a three-run 8th inning before Dennis Eckersley, the games widely known "best closer," attempted to close out the game in the 9th. With a man on, Roberto Alomar would deliver the biggest hit in franchise history, belting a game-tying two-run home run to right field. They would go on to win in 11 and then the series in six games.

More drama would ensue in the Blue Jays first World Series appearance as perennial playoff club the Atlanta Braves provided the opposition. After dropping the first contest, Game 2 saw backup C/INF Ed Sprague propel the Blue Jays to their first ever World Series win with a pinch-hit two-run home run off Jeff Reardon in a 5-4 win. Game 3, the first World Series game played outside of the US, was noteworthy for "the catch" made by Devon White in the 4th inning. Resulting in a near triple play. It was key in keeping the score tied at 2-2 in the 9th inning. Candy Maldonado would drive in Roberto Alomar for the game-winner and a 3-1 series lead. Unable to close the series out in Game 5 the Blue Jays would need one more dramatic at-bat to bring the World Series to Canada. Tied in the 11th inning, Dave Winfield would double down the left field line to drive in two and when Mike Timlin tossed an Otis Nixon bunt to Joe Carter the long journey to World Series Champions had concluded.

In 1993 a record tying seven Blue Jays are selected to the All-Star team (Alomar, Carter, Hentgen, Molitor, Olerud, Ward, White). John Olerud would flirt with a .400 average, going as late as August 2 at the .400 mark and eventually becoming the first Blue Jay to win a batting title. In fact, the top three spots at season's end belonged to Blue Jays (Olerud – .363/ Molitor – .332/Alomar – .326), the first time in 100 years this had occurred. The Blue Jays would win the AL East again and on July 31 they would acquire OF Rickey Henderson to propel them into another post-season run.

In the 1993 AL Championship Series the Blue Jays and Chicago White Sox would both win two games on opposition soil before the Blue Jays reversed the trend and won Game 5 at SkyDome. In all six games the team that scored first won the contest. Roberto Alomar once again led the way with a .316 average, including reaching base in all five plate appearances in Game 5. Dave Stewart would close out the series moving to 8-0 in ALCS play with a 6-3 victory.

In a highly entertaining series the Blue Jays would bring back-to-back championships to Canada, defeating the Philadelphia Phillies in six games. The series was highlighted by a classic Game 4 contest in Philadelphia on October 20, that saw the Blue Jays overcome 12-7 and 14-9 deficits with a six-run 8th inning. 10 men would come to the plate in the 8th, with Devon White tying the contest with a 2-out RBI triple. Rickey Henderson provided the game-winning hit in a contest that took four hours and 14 minutes to play. In Game 6 in Toronto, the Blue Jays would trail the Phillies 6-5 entering the bottom of the 9th. Phillies closer LHP Mitch Williams allowed a walk to Henderson and a one-out single to Molitor before Joe Carter ended the series with a three-run home run to left field. The "You'll never hit a bigger home run in your life" quote was made famous by longtime Blue Jays announcer Tom Cheek.

1994 sees the season end prematurely on August 12 as a player strike begins. It does not end until late April of 1995. The Blue Jays would not return to the post-season during the balance of the 90's, finishing as high as 3rd place in 1998 and 1999. Paul Beeston is named Canada's Baseball Man of the Year in 1994, while Howard Starkman picks up the Robert O. Fishel award for Public Relations

EXCELLENCE IS MEASURED:

The Blue Jays honour OF George Bell and RHP Dave Stieb by unveiling their names as the first, on the Level of Excellence. Over the years only the most prominent Blue Jays will see their names on the outfield facade. Joe Carter and Cito Gaston would be added in 1999.

Cito Gaston would end a glorious run with the club after being relieved of his duties on September 24, 1997. During his tenure the club would win three divisional titles and two World Series. Interleague play begins in 1997 and the Blue Jays play the Montreal Expos in regular season play for the first time. The decade closes out with some significant accomplishments after Gord Ash assumes the role of General Manager in 1998. The same year Tony Fernandez becomes the all-time hits leader and Roger Clemens becomes just the 11th pitcher in MLB history to record 3,000 strikeouts. Shawn Green becomes the first Blue Jay to post 30 home runs and 30 stolen bases in 1998. Pat Hentgen is the 4th Blue Jay to win 100 games and Billy Koch posts his 31st save in 1999 to set a then AL Rookie record.

Jay and current broadcaster John Cerutti. Vernon Wells picks up a Gold Glove Award in 2004 and 2005. On April 4, Tom Cheek calls back-to-back home runs by Orlando Hudson and Vernon Wells in his last game as a Blue Jays broadcaster. He would later pass away on October 9, 2005.

After key signings of RHP A.J. Burnett and LHP B.J. Ryan in 2006, the team would go on to post its best finish of the decade, finishing in 2nd place with an 87-75 record. It marked the first time they would place higher than 3rd place since the World Series winning clubs in 1992 and 1993. They would see five players go to the All-Star Game (Halladay, Ryan, Wells, Glaus, Rios).

The Blue Jays would sign free agent Frank Thomas to a two-year contract in 2007 as he would pursue his run at 500 career home runs. On June 28 in Minnesota, he would become just the 21st player in MLB history to accomplish the feat hitting a 1st inning home run off Carlos Silva.

Roberto Alomar would take centre stage once again on April 4, 2008 as he would see his name honoured with many Blue Jay greats on the Level of Excellence. Cito Gaston makes his return to the dugout as he replaces John Gibbons as manager with the team sitting with a 35-39 record. Gaston would lead the club to a 10-game winning streak in September and finish with a 51-37 record the rest of the way in 2008. He would be rewarded with a two-year contract following the season.

GM, JP Ricciardi, was replaced following the season by assistant Alex Anthopoulos on October 3. Aaron Hill and Adam Lind have stellar offensive seasons earning both a Silver Slugger Award. Hill also is named Comeback Player of the Year, while Lind is recognized as the AL's best Designated Hitter, picking up the Edgar Martinez Award.

2010s:

Morrow would see his no-hitter lost with two outs in the 9th inning, however he would finish with a one-hitter and 17 strikeouts. Cito Gaston is honoured in the final home game with a pre-game ceremony on September 29, 2010.

GM Alex Anthopoulos made another big splash in the off-season by acquiring the 2012 NL Cy Young award winner, RHP R.A. Dickey, from the New York Mets on Dec. 17, 2012. For Bautista, it marked his 6th straight/overall All-Star selection (2010-2015), 1st time being chosen by the players. For the 5th straight year he was selected as a starter, only Jay to accomplish that feat. The six All-Star appearances also represent the most by any Blue Jay (Roberto Alomar-5, Joe Carter-5). Prior to the July, 2015 trade deadline, GM Alex Anthopoulos pulled off four separate deals as TOR acquired SS Troy Tulowitzki & RHP LaTroy Hawkins from the Rockies on July 28. Acquired LHP David Price from the Tigers on July 30 before adding OF Ben Revere from the Phillies & RHP Mark Lowe from the Mariners on July 31. It marked the 2nd time TOR led the Majors in lowest ERA on the road (last: 3.07 in 1981) – 3rd time to lead the AL (3.89 in 2008 & 3.16 in 1991). ## IN THE POST-SEASON

1985

AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

TORONTO VS KANSAS CITY (L, 3-4)

As the Blue Jays entered post season play for the first time, they would face the Kansas City Royals in the first ever best-of-seven American League Championship Series. The Blue Jays, who finished nine games ahead of the Royals in the loss column, were the favourites and would enjoy the extra home game.

GAME #1: Dave Stieb lived up to superstar billing, shutting out the Royals on three hits through eight innings with no base runner advancing past second base. The Blue Jays struck quickly with two runs in the second, three in the third and one in the fourth. The Blue Jays offense was sparked by 2-RBI performances from Ernie Whitt and Tony Fernandez.

GAME #2: A much more even affair with the Blue Jays eeking out a 6-5, 10-inning win. The Royals jumped into a quick 3-0 lead after 3 innings primarily on the strength of a 2-run HR by Willie Wilson in the 3rd inning. The Blue Jays took the lead on a George Bell sacrifice fly in the 8th. The Royals rallied, however, in the 9th on a pinch hit HR by Pat Sheridan with the go ahead run being delivered in the 10th on a Frank White single. The Blue Jays won it in the bottom of the 10th on a two-out 2-run single by Al Oliver. On to Kansas City, the Blue Jays were up 2 games to none.

GAME #3: George Brett put on a baseball clinic going 4-4 with 2 HR's, 3 RBI with 4 runs scored en route to a 6-5 Royals win. Leading 5-2 after 4 innings the Blue Jays squandered the lead for good in the 8th when Brett led off the inning with a single and eventually scored.

GAME #4: The Blue Jays came within one win of a World Series berth with a 3-1 come-from-behind victory. The Blue Jays won the game dramatically with 3 runs in the top of the ninth inning, the big blow being a 2-run pinch-hit double by Al Oliver.

GAME #5: LHP Danny Jackson went the distance checking Toronto on 8 hits and scoring a run in each of the first two innings. The Blue Jays still led the series 3 games to 2.

GAME #6: The Blue Jays and Royals returned to Exhibition Stadium. Entering the 5th inning tied at 2-2 George Brett once again delivered the decisive blow with a solo HR. With 3.2 shutout innings of relief from Buddy Black and Dan Quisenberry, the Royals pulled even in the series for the first time at three games apiece.

GAME #7: Dave Stieb, the ace of the Toronto staff vs. eventual Cy Young Award winner Bret Saberhagen. The Royals came out on top 6-2 shellacking Dave Stieb for six runs in 5.2 innings. The big blow being a wind-assisted, bases-clearing triple by Jim Sundberg to cap a four run 6th inning.

The Kansas City Royals became only the 5th club in Major League history to trail a series three games to one and come back to win the series. The Blue Jays? They slumped immediately after scoring five runs in the 5th inning of Game 3 scoring only eight runs in the last 40 innings.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

TORONTO VS OAKLAND (L, 1-4)

For the second time in five seasons, the Blue Jays were American League East Division Champions. The Blue Jays would face the Oakland Athletics who had the best record in the Major Leagues in 1989.

GAME #1: The Blue Jays surrendered 2-0 and 3-1 leads as the Athletics scored three times in the sixth and twice in the eighth to win, 7-3. In the sixth inning, Mark McGwire cracked a leadoff HR to tie the game and two runs scored when Carney Lansford's double play ball was botched. Dave Stewart allowed five hits over eight innings for the win.

GAME #2: The Athletics tallied twice in the fourth inning and three in the sixth en route to a 6-3 win. Rickey Henderson was a one-man wrecking crew going 2-for-2 with two runs scored and four stolen bases. Athletics' righthander Mike Moore allowed just three hits and an unearned run in seven innings.

GAME #3: The Blue Jays snapped a five game post-season losing streak dating back to 1985 with a convincing 7-3 win. The Blue Jays jumped on Athletics' starter Storm Davis for four runs on four hits in the fourth inning and salted the game away with another three runs in the seventh inning. Overcoming a 3-0 Athletics' lead, Mookie Wilson and Tony Fernandez paced the Blue Jays with two hits apiece, the latter with two doubles.

GAME #4: The Athletics took a commanding 3-1 lead in the series with a 6-5 win over the Blue Jays. Rickey Henderson was again a major catalyst with two home runs and four RBI. The Blue Jays collected 13 hits, 11 of which were singles and attempted to overcome a 5-2 deficit with one run in the sixth and seventh innings and two in the eighth.

GAME #5: The Blue Jays spotted the Athletics a 4-0 lead heading into the seventh inning before eventually losing the game 4-3 and the best-of-seven series in five games. Trailing 4-1 after eight innings the Blue Jays scored twice in the ninth inning on a leadoff HR by George Bell and a sacrifice fly by Kelly Gruber.

In essence it was Rickey Henderson defeating the Blue Jays four games to one. Henderson batted .400, slugged 1.000, had a .609 on-base percentage and swiped an LCS record eight stolen bases. The Blue Jays hit .242 as a team (compared to Oakland's .272) with only eight of their hits going for extra bases. They were outscored 8-3 in the first three innings and 12-7 in the middle three before outscoring the Athletics 11-6 in the final three innings. Unfortunately, it is virtually impossible to consistently battle back from an early inning deficit. Although anything can happen in a "short series," the best team of the regular season continued their charted course into post-season, winning eight of nine contests.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

TORONTO VS MINNESOTA (L, 1-4)

GAME #1: Toronto starter Tom Candiotti lasted just 2.2 innings and allowed five earned runs before being lifted in favour of David Wells. The Twins would not need to score another run. The Blue Jays rallied for a run in the fourth and three runs in the sixth in five consecutive hits off Twins starter Jack Morris. Those four runs would be all Toronto could muster as they lost 5-4 at the Metrodome.

GAME #2: Toronto took an early lead as they jumped on Twins starter Kevin Tapani, scoring three times in the first three innings. Rookie Toronto starter Juan Guzman lasted 5.2 innings allowing four hits and just two earned runs before the ball was handed to the bullpen. Tom Henke and Duane Ward combined for 2.1 innings of shutout relief and six strikeouts. Devon White scored three of the five Toronto runs as the Blue Jays won their only 1991 ALCS game, 5-2, in Minneapolis.

GAME #3: Joe Carter's first inning home run and a Candy Maldonado double put the Blue Jays ahead 2-0 until the sixth inning when the Twins were able to put their second run across the plate and tie the game at two apiece. Toronto starter Jimmy Key scattered five hits over six innings and allowed two earned runs. The game went into extra-innings and ended in dramatic fashion as Mike Pagliarulo, pinch-hitting for Scott Leius, homered to right off of Blue Jays reliever Mike Timlin. Toronto was retired 1-2-3 in their half of the tenth as the Twins defeated Toronto, 3-2, at SkyDome.

GAME #4: Blue Jays starter Todd Stottlemire allowed seven hits in 3.2 innings before exiting with Toronto trailing 4-1. The Twins' Kirby Puckett hit his first home run of the series and Dan Gladden collected three RBI on three hits to pace Minnesota to a 9-3 win at SkyDome. It was Jack Morris' second win of the ALCS as he pitched eight innings allowing just two runs.

GAME #5: Kirby Puckett displayed his power once again as he homered in the first inning off Tom Candiotti to put the Twins ahead 1-0. Toronto put together three runs in the third and a pair in the fourth to go ahead 5-2. Minnesota was able to post three runs in their half of the sixth inning and tie the game at five. Duane Ward was handed the loss for Toronto as he allowed three runs in the eighth. Toronto was shutdown by five shutout innings of relief. Devon White, Roberto Alomar and Manuel Lee each collected a pair of hits in the losing effort as Minnesota took the American League crown with an 8-5 win.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

TORONTO VS OAKLAND (W, 4-2)

GAME #1: Home runs were the story of the game as Oakland used three of them to beat the Blue Jays 4-3. The A's scored three runs in the second inning off Toronto starter Jack Morris on back-to-back homers by Mark McGwire and Terry Steinbach. The 3-0 lead stood until Pat Borders homered off Dave Stewart in the Blue Jays' fifth followed by a Dave Winfield homer in the sixth, making the score 3-2. John Olerud tied the score at 3 in the bottom of the eighth with a two-out single off reliever Jeff Russell scoring Winfield who had doubled in the previous at-bat. Harold Baines broke the tie with a solo shot to lead off the ninth and Dennis Eckersley shut down the Blue Jays in the home half of the ninth inning to seal the 4-3 Oakland victory.

GAME #2: The Blue Jays were able to rebound from a Game 1 loss as David Cone held the A's to just one run over 8.0 innings en route to a 3-1 win. Cone, the Major League's strikeout leader in 1992, fanned six as he collected his second career post-season victory. Mike Moore lasted seven innings in the losing effort for Oakland. Kelly Gruber doubled and hit a 2-run homer in the fifth which would prove to be the winning runs. Closer Tom Henke came on for the save in the ninth, his first ever post-season save.

GAME #3: For the first time since 1985 vs. Kansas City, the Blue Jays put together a pair of wins in the post-season as they got past the A's, 7-5. Toronto starter Juan Guzman notched his second career LCS win in as many starts (1991 vs. Twins, lasting six inning before being lifted in favour of Duane Ward. Tom Henke earned his second save in as many games. Despite being outthit 13-9 by the A's, four of Toronto's hits went for extra-bases including homers from Alomar (solo) and Maldonado (solo). The A's collected just one extra-base hit.

GAME #4: In what appeared at first to be a certain Oakland victory, the Toronto Blue Jays fought back to erase a five-run deficit late in the contest, sending the game into extra-innings. Oakland batted around and earned five runs in the third inning as they jumped on Toronto starter Jack Morris. The A's added another run in the sixth making the score 6-1. Toronto began their comeback in the top of the eighth as they strung together five consecutive hits. By the end of the inning, the score was 6-4. The A's were held off the board in the bottom of the eighth, but in the top of the ninth Devon White led off with a single that was misplayed, allowing him to get to third base. Roberto Alomar then homered off Dennis Eckersley to tie the game at 6-6. Toronto eventually won the game in the eleventh as they scored a run off Kelly Downs to win, 7-6.

GAME #5: Oakland starter Dave Stewart held the Blue Jays in check for nine innings, scattering seven hits and allowing just 2 runs as Oakland sent the series back to SkyDome. The complete game win was Stewart's first win of the 1992 post-season. The 6-2 loss for the Blue Jays ended their three game win streak. David Cone took the loss for Toronto. He lasted just 4.0 innings before Jimmy Key made his first appearance of the 1992 playoffs. Ruben Sierra homered and drove in 3 runs for the A's. Devon White notched 3 hits on the day, including a double, in the losing effort.

GAME #6: Toronto scored a pair of runs in the first on a Joe Carter homer off A's starter Mike Moore. The Blue Jays then added four more runs in the third, including a Candy Maldonado 3-run homer to put Toronto ahead, 6-0. Blue Jays' starter Juan Guzman went seven innings, allowing just five hits and striking out eight before the ball was handed to Duane Ward in the eighth with the score Toronto 7, Oakland 1. The A's managed a run in the top of the eighth but the home town Blue Jays secured the win as Tom Henke tossed a perfect ninth, sending Toronto to its first ever World Series with a 9-2 win.

WORLD SERIES

TORONTO VS ATLANTA (W, 4-2)

GAME #1: In the first game of the 89th World Series, the Blue Jays suffered a 3-1 loss to the Atlanta Braves. Home runs were the story of the game as Toronto took an early 1-0 lead in the fourth on a Joe Carter solo homer off starter Tom Glavine. It would be the only run Toronto would score. Jack Morris continued his shutout innings streak vs. the Braves, extending it to 18.0 innings until a 3-run homer by catcher Damon Berryhill in the sixth inning ended the streak. Glavine went the distance for the Braves to become the first pitcher to toss a complete game in a World Series opener since Jack Morris accomplished the feat in 1984 vs. San Diego.

GAME #2: Reserve catcher Ed Sprague proved to be the hero for the Blue Jays on this night at Fulton County Stadium. David Cone lasted just 4.1 innings, allowing 4 runs over that span before exiting in favour of David Wells. Cone, however, contributed at the plate before being lifted with a pair of hits and an RBI. His two hits marked the first two-hit game by an AL pitcher in the World Series since Mickey Lolich went 2-for-4 on October 3, 1968. Heading into the eighth inning, the Blue Jays trailed, 4-2. Following a run in the top of the eighth, Toronto entered the ninth inning trailing by 1. After a Pat Borders fly out, rookie Derek Bell (pinch-hitting for Manuel Lee) walked. Ed Sprague, then pinch-hitting for the pitcher Duane Ward, knocked a first-pitch offering from Jeff Reardon over the left field fence to put the Blue Jays ahead, 5-4. Tom Henke was able to retire the Braves in the bottom of the ninth for the save.

GAME #3: The game marked the first time the World Series had been played outside of the United States as the series moved to SkyDome. In another pitching duel, Steve Avery and Juan Guzman both went 8.0 innings. Atlanta was kept off the board in the fourth with a splendid defensive effort by Devon White. White ran down a deep drive off the bat of David Justice that sent him into the wall to make the catch. White returned the ball to the infield where Terry Pendleton was doubled-up off first. The Blue Jays drew first blood in the fourth inning as Joe Carter connected for his second homer of the series, a solo shot putting Toronto ahead 1-0. In the sixth inning, the Braves rallied to tie things at 1-1. Each team traded runs in the eighth keeping the game knotted at 2-2. The Braves attempted a rally as Duane Ward came on to pitch the ninth. But after a key double play and a strikeout, the inning was over. In the home half of the ninth, Roberto Alomar led off with a single. After stealing second and a Dave Winfield sacrifice, Alomar stood at third with one out. Jeff Reardon came in to try to halt the Blue Jays' advance, but Candy Maldonado, with the bases loaded, hit a two-strike pitch to right-centre for a base hit, allowing Alomar to score the winning run.

GAME #4: In what was the third consecutive 1-run game of the 1992 World Series, the Blue Jays posted a 2-1 win behind a strong pitching effort from starter Jimmy Key. Key went 7.2 innings, allowing just 5 hits and 1 earned run while striking out six Braves batters. Toronto earned their first run in the third inning as catcher Pat Borders continued his post-season hit streak with a solo homer to left. Toronto made the score 2-0 in the seventh when Devon White drove in Kelly Gruber from second base. Atlanta managed to score a run in their half of the eighth as Ron Gant led off with a double and eventually scored on a Mark Lemke groundout. Tom Henke came in to pitch the ninth for Toronto and tacked up a 1-2-3 inning for his second save of the series.

GAME #5: The game began in similar fashion as the previous four. Entering the fifth inning, the game was tied at 2-2. The Braves had collected a run in the first and fourth innings while the Blue Jays captured runs in the second and fourth. The fifth proved to be Atlanta's inning as they crossed the plate five times to seal the victory and send the series back south for at least one more game. The fifth inning began for the Braves with two consecutive routine outs. An Otis Nixon single got the ball rolling and the Braves eventually loaded the bases on Toronto starter Jack Morris. Lonnie Smith stepped up to the plate and sent Morris' 1-2 offering over the right field wall for a grand slam, making the score 7-2. The score remained the same over the final four innings, making a winner out of John Smoltz.

GAME #6: The Toronto Blue Jays make history as they capture their first ever World Series and bring the Commissioner's Trophy outside of the United States for the first time. The 11-inning contest began with the Blue Jays scoring in the first inning. Devon White led off the game with a single off starter Steve Avery. After a stolen base and a ground out by Alomar, White stood on third. Carter then drove in White with a sacrifice fly. Atlanta answered the call in its half of the third as Deon Sanders scored his fourth run of the series. Toronto returned the favour immediately as it regained the lead with a run in the top of the fourth on a Maldonado leadoff homer. The score remained that way until the bottom of the ninth when Atlanta shortstop Jeff Blauser tied the game, sending it into extra-innings. The tenth inning proved to be uneventful. In the eleventh, the Blue Jays led off with Key popping up for out number 1. Devon White was hit by a Charlie Leibrandt offering. Alomar then singled to centre allowing White to move up to second. With two out, Dave Winfield stepped up to the plate and doubled down the left-field line allowing White and Alomar to score, making it 4-2 Toronto. In the Braves eleventh, Atlanta was able to score once with Jimmy Key on the mound. Mike Timlin then came in to pitch for the Blue Jays with pinch-runner Smoltz on third and two out. Otis Nixon attempted a drag-bunt up the first base line, which was fielded by Timlin who threw to Carter at first in time for the final out.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

TORONTO VS CHICAGO (W, 4-2)

GAME #1: The Blue Jays took a 2-0 lead in the fourth inning when third baseman Ed Sprague tripled to right field with Olerud and Molitor on base. Chicago then used its half of the fourth inning to produce three runs on two hits as they sent nine men to the plate. Toronto starting pitcher Juan Guzman managed to hold the White Sox in check for six innings but walked 8 batters and stranded 11 runners before exiting with a 5-3 lead. Jack McDowell lasted 6.2 innings allowing thirteen hits and all seven Toronto runs before the White Sox relief corps came on to hold Toronto for the remainder of the game. Danny Cox worked a shutout seventh and eighth allowing a single by Ozzie Guillen. Duane Ward came out for the ninth and walked the first two batters before striking out the side to end the Chicago threat.

GAME #2: Both clubs scored once in the first inning, but it was the Blue Jays who would prevail as their two-run fourth inning provided the edge. The 3-1 win saw Toronto take a two games to none lead in the best-of-seven games series. The fourth inning started with a pair of outs by Carter and Olerud. Paul Molitor then doubled off starter and loser Alex Fernandez. Next, Tony Fernandez singled to score Molitor and moved to second on the throw home. After an intentional walk to Ed Sprague, Pat Borders singled to second base but Joey Cora threw the ball away, allowing the third Toronto run to score. Dave Stewart worked six strong innings surrendering just four hits (all singles) and one run for his seventh career ALCS win against no losses. Al Leiter was credited with a hold as he pitched the seventh and eighth innings before closer Duane Ward came in to save the game in the ninth.

GAME #3: Nineteen game winner Pat Hentgen started for Toronto but could not collect a win on this day as Toronto suffered their worst defeat of the series, losing 6-1. The Blue Jays were able to hold off the White Sox attack until the third inning when they sent 10 players to the plate and combined for five runs on five singles. Hentgen lasted just three innings plus two batters before he was removed in favour of Danny Cox. Toronto scored their lone run in the bottom of the third as Rickey Henderson scored from third on a Devon White single. Wilson Alvarez, the Chicago starter, pitched a complete game for his first career ALCS victory. He allowed just seven hits while issuing two walks and striking out six. Tim Raines provided most of the offensive support for Chicago, going 4-for-5 with a run scored.

GAME #4: A two-run home run by centre fielder Lance Johnson in the second inning gave the White Sox a 2-0 lead over Toronto. The light hitting Johnson had not hit a home run since the 1992 regular season. Todd Stottlemyre, making his first start of the 1993 ALCS, lasted six innings for the home team but failed to hold onto a 3-2 lead that was handed to him in the third when Toronto batted around on rookie starter Jason Bere. The right hander lasted just 2.1 innings before being pulled in favour of Tim Belcher. Stottlemyre allowed three more Chicago runs in the sixth, including a Frank Thomas solo homer and a Lance Johnson triple before departing. Roberto Alomar doubled home Henderson in the bottom of the sixth to cut the Chicago lead to one (5-4), but the visiting White Sox notched a single run off Al Leiter in the seventh and another run off Mike Timlin in the ninth to seal the win by a 7-4 margin.

GAME #5: As was the case with each of the previous four games, the team that scored first emerged victorious. This time, Toronto scored first when Rickey Henderson crossed the plate in the first inning after leading off the game with a double and a stolen base. Starting pitcher Jack McDowell allowed a Toronto run in the second and third before being lifted following just 2.1 innings. Meanwhile, Blue Jays starter Juan Guzman cruised through the first 4.1 innings without allowing a hit or a walk until Ellis Burks went deep to left field for what would be the only blemish on Guzman's slate that afternoon. He lasted seven innings, permitting just two hits while walking one and striking out six. Roberto Alomar reached base in all five plate appearances (3 hits, 2 walks) to lead the Toronto attack. Tony Castillo worked a scoreless eighth, allowing a single and a base on balls. Duane Ward had some difficulty in the ninth. He struck out Joey Cora and Frank Thomas following a single to lead off the inning by Tim Raines. He then issued a two-run homer to Robin Ventura that brought Chicago within two. With the tying run at the plate, Ward struck out Bo Jackson to end the game and preserve the 5-3 Toronto win.

GAME #6: With his 7-0 record in ALCS play on the line, Blue Jays' starter Dave Stewart provided the win which put Toronto into their second consecutive World Series, as the Blue Jays won, 6-3, over Chicago. Toronto scored first with a pair of runs in the second inning as a two-out single by catcher Pat Borders off Alex Fernandez cashed in John Olerud and Paul Molitor. The White Sox tied the game in the third inning when a bases-loaded walk by Frank Thomas and a fielder's choice by Robin Ventura scored two runs. Stewart managed to restrict the White Sox to just 4 hits and 2 earned runs before handing Duane Ward a 3-2 lead after 7.1 innings. Ward struck out the final two batters to end the eighth. Toronto added to their lead as Devon White homered off reliever Scott Radinsky to make the score 4-2. Toronto added two more runs before the inning was over as Paul Molitor tripled to centre. Ward allowed his second home run of the series as Warren Newson hit a solo shot in the bottom of the ninth, but that was all the scoring that the Pale Hose could muster as the Blue Jays were crowned American League Champions for the second straight season.

TORONTO VS PHILADELPHIA (W, 4-2)

GAME #1: For the first time in baseball annals, the World Series began on Canadian soil. The Blue Jays fell behind 2-0 in the first inning as the Phillies' catcher Darren Daulton singled home a pair of runs off starting pitcher Juan Guzman. After holding Philadelphia in check in the top of the second, Toronto rallied with two runs of its own on four singles off Curt Schilling. Both teams traded solo runs in the third and fifth to keep the score knotted at 4-4. With one out in the bottom of the sixth, John Olerud took a first-pitch offering from Schilling over the right-field fence for a solo home run, putting Toronto ahead by one. Toronto scored what would prove to be the winning run in the bottom of the seventh as four consecutive hits by Borders, Henderson, White and Alomar produced an 8-4 lead heading into the eighth. Al Leiter, who would prove to be the winning pitcher, relieved Guzman to start the sixth and held the Phillies scoreless over 2.2 innings before turning the ball over to closer Duane Ward. Ward surrendered a run in the ninth inning as a Jim Eisenreich single scored John Kruk, who had led off the frame with a single and moved to second on an error. Ricky Jordan flied out to Joe Carter for the last out to put Toronto ahead, 1 game to 0, with the 8-5 win.

GAME #2: The big inning would prove to be the Philly advantage on this night as a Jim Eisenreich three-run homer in the top of the third capped a five-run inning that saw eight Philadelphia batters step up to the plate. Toronto starter and eventual loser, Dave Stewart, lasted six innings with all five earned runs coming in that third frame. Toronto answered the Philly onslaught with a pair of runs in the bottom of the fourth as Joe Carter connected for his first of two World Series home runs. Philadelphia starter Terry Mulholland would allow just three runs over 5.2 innings before handing the ball to the bullpen. Lenny Dykstra led off the seventh inning with a solo homer off reliever Tony Castillo to stretch the Philly lead to 3 as the visitors were now ahead, 6-3. Toronto scored one run in the eighth as Molitor led off with a double and eventually scored on an Olerud sac fly. Philly relievers Roger Mason (1.2 innings) and Mitch Williams (1.2 innings) closed out the game to preserve the 6-4 win and even the series.

GAME #3: The venue moved from SkyDome to Veteran's Stadium in Philadelphia for games three, four and five. This game featured solid pitching by the Blue Jays combined with a potent offense. The visiting Blue Jays jumped on Philly starter Danny Jackson in the top of the first as Paul Molitor drove home a pair of runs with a triple. He would later score on a Carter sacrifice fly to right field. Molitor added a solo homer in the third to make it 4-0. Starting pitcher Pat Hentgen pitched six innings allowing just one run, that coming in the sixth as a two-out single by Eisenreich scored John Kruk who had reached base via a walk. The Blue Jays added another run in the top of the sixth as Roberto Alomar scored on a sac fly after reaching base on a single and stealing second and third. Toronto continued to add to their lead as they scored three more runs in the seventh off reliever Ben Rivera. Alomar finished the night with four hits while Molitor had three hits along with three runs and three RBI. Duane Ward surrendered a solo homer to Milt Thompson in the ninth to make the final score Toronto 10, Philadelphia 3.

GAME #4: In a slugfest, the Blue Jays put together one of the wildest comebacks in World Series history to beat the Phillies, 15-14, and take a three games to one lead. Toronto opened the scoring with three in the first off Philly starter Tommy Greene. But the home team would take advantage of four first-inning walks by starter Todd Stottlenmyre as they scored four runs to move ahead, 4-3. Philadelphia added two more runs to their tally as Lenny Dykstra connected for his second homer of the series, a two-run shot in the second. The Blue Jays batted around in the third and collected four runs and sent Tommy Greene to the bench in favour of Roger Mason. Philadelphia then posted a five-run fifth that included home runs from Dykstra and Daulton to extend its lead to 12-7. Toronto countered with two runs in the top of the sixth as White and Alomar scored on a single and a ground out. The Phillies added a run in the sixth and one in the seventh to make the score 14-9. The Phillies relief corps could not hold Toronto from making a comeback. In the top of the eighth, the Blue Jays sent ten players to the plate. Devon White's triple with two out scored Pat Borders to tie the game and Rickey Henderson to put Toronto ahead, 15-14. Mike Timlin started the eighth and struck out the first two batters he faced before Duane Ward came on to strikeout Dykstra to end the inning. In the ninth, Ward hurled a 1-2-3 inning for his second save of the series in a game that took 4 hours and 14 minutes to play and was the highest scoring game in World Series history. Tony Fernandez had five RBI in the game and White had four.

GAME #5: Curt Schilling shutout Toronto 2-0 in what was the second ever shutout of Toronto in the postseason. Pitted against Blue Jays ace Juan Guzman, he allowed just five hits (all singles) and struck out six Toronto batters for his first World Series win. The Phillies scored the only run they would need in the first inning when Dykstra, who had walked to lead off the game, scored on a John Kruk groundout. They added a second run in the very next inning as a pair of doubles cashed in Daulton. In the eighth, the Blue Jays threatened with a pair of runners on base but a strikeout by White, followed by an Alomar ground out, ended their attempt. Guzman was equal to the challenge as he went seven innings, allowing both Philly runs while fanning six. The win sent the series back to Toronto with the Blue Jays holding a 3-2 edge.

GAME #6: Toronto started their quest for a second straight World Series Championship early as they notched three runs off Philly starter Terry Mulholland in the bottom of the first. A run in the fourth and a solo home run by Molitor in the fifth put Toronto up 5-1. Dave Stewart, the Toronto starter, held the Phillies to just one run over his first six innings. In the seventh, he surrendered a three-run homer to Lenny Dykstra, his fourth of the series. That led to Stewart being pulled from the game. Reliever Danny Cox came in with none out and surrendered two more runs before the Phillies were halted by Al Leiter. The damage had been done and Philadelphia was now leading, 6-5. After leaving the bases loaded in the eighth, Toronto made World Series history by erasing a one-run lead in the bottom of the ninth. Mitch Williams came in to start the inning and walked Rickey Henderson who led off. After a Devon White fly out, Molitor singled to centre to put runners at first and second. Right fielder Joe Carter then stepped up to the plate. On a 2-2 offering from Williams, Carter homered over the left-field wall for a three-run home run and propelled Toronto to its second consecutive World Series Championship with an 8-6 win.

DIVISION SERIES

TORONTO VS TEXAS (W, 3-2)

GAME #1: In Toronto's first postseason game since 1993, the team found itself down early as Texas got on the board first, scoring two runs in the third inning. The Rangers would open up a 4-1 lead after a two-run home run by Robinson Chirinos in the top of the fifth. Jose Bautista cut the lead to 4-3, hitting a solo home run in the sixth inning. That was as close as the Blue Jays would come as Rougned Odor added his own solo shot in the seventh to seal a 5-3 victory for Yovani Gallardo and the Rangers.

GAME #2: Both teams got on the board early as starters Cole Hamels and Marcus Stroman each allowed three runs over the first two innings. Toronto held a 4-3 lead entering the eighth inning until pinch-hitter Mike Napoli singled off of reliever Brett Cecil to score Delino DeShields to even the score at 4-4. The game remained tied until the 14th inning when the Blue Jays bullpen allowed two runs on four consecutive hits with two out in the inning. Toronto failed to respond in their half of the frame, giving the Rangers a commanding 2-0 series lead with the series heading to Texas.

GAME #3: With their team facing elimination, Troy Tulowitzki and Marco Estrada each put together remarkable performances to force a game four, after a Blue Jays 5-1 win over Texas. Tulowitzki collected four RBI in the contest, including a three-run home run in the sixth inning to put Toronto ahead 5-0. Starter Marco Estrada allowed just one run on five hits over his 6.1 innings pitched to record the win, the team's first in the postseason since game six of the 1993 World Series.

GAME #4: Toronto took charge early, building a 7-0 lead behind starter R. A. Dickey, hitting three home runs off of Texas starter Derek Holland before chasing him from the game in the third inning. With two on in the fifth, Dickey exited the game with a 7-1 lead and David Price entered the game in relief. Despite allowing three runs over his 3.0 innings pitched, Price secured the win for Toronto, with Kevin Pillar adding three RBI in the 8-4 victory to send the series back to Rogers Centre.

GAME #5: Facing their third straight elimination game, the Blue Jays found themselves down early after starter Marcus Stroman allowed two runs over the first three innings. Toronto cut into the lead after scoring one on a Jose Bautista RBI double in the second frame. The score would remain 2-1 until the sixth when Edwin Encarnacion connected for a solo blast to tie the game 2-2. The Rangers retook the lead in the next frame after the ball struck the bat of Shin Soo Choo during Russell Martin's throw back to pitcher Aaron Sanchez. The ball deflected up the third baseline, allowing Delino DeShields to score from third. Although initially sent back to third, after much deliberation between umpires and both managers, John Gibbons and Jeff Banister, the run stood, allowing the Rangers to take a 3-2 lead with the Blue Jays playing the game under protest. In the bottom of the seventh, Toronto's first three batters reached base following three consecutive errors by Rangers infielders. Josh Donaldson tied the game after hitting a sac fly to score Kevin Pillar. With two on and one out, Jose Bautista hit a three-run home run to put Toronto ahead, 6-3. Relievers Aaron Sanchez and Roberto Osuna held the Rangers scoreless over the next two innings to secure the team's third consecutive win and claim the series, 3-2.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

TORONTO VS KANSAS CITY (L, 2-4)

GAME #1: The Blue Jays opened the second round of the playoffs by being shutout by the Royals in Kansas City. Toronto starter Marco Estrada allowed three runs over his 5.1 innings, including a solo home run by Salvador Perez in the fourth inning. The Toronto offense was stymied by KC starter Edinson Volquez and the Royals bullpen, being held to just three hits in the game. Kansas City would add two more runs late in the game to secure a 5-0 victory and a 1-0 series lead.

GAME #2: Looking to tie the series at one game apiece, Toronto turned to David Price in game two. The Blue Jays starter cruised through the first six innings, retiring 18 consecutive batters at one point, setting a new club playoff record. With the Blue Jays leading 3-0 in the seventh, the Royals bats came alive, scoring five runs off of Price. Kansas City would tack on another run in the eighth inning to take a commanding 6-3 lead. The Blue Jays left nine men on base and were shutout over the final 3.2 innings by the Royals bullpen.

GAME #3: Trailing 1-0 after the first, Toronto rallied and tagged Kansas City starter Johnny Cueto for eight runs, chasing him from the game in the third inning. The Blue Jays took a 9-2 lead after a six-run third inning, highlighted by a Troy Tulowitzki three-run home run and a two-run shot by Josh Donaldson. Toronto would add two more runs, including a solo home run by Ryan Goins, joining Donaldson and Tulowitzki as the only trio of Blue Jays teammates to each record three RBI in a single playoffs game in club history. The Royals struck for four more runs in the ninth inning, but Toronto held on for an 11-8 victory.

GAME #4: Toronto starter R.A. Dickey lasted only 1.2 innings, the shortest start by any Blue Jays starter in franchise postseason history, after allowing five runs, including four in the opening frame. The Jays plated two in the fourth off of KC starter Chris Young, the only runs they would score in the contest. Kansas City would score nine times over the final three innings to trounce the Blue Jays, 14-2, in a game that saw Toronto infielder Cliff Pennington enter the game as a reliever to record the final out of the eighth inning, becoming the first position player to pitch in the MLB post-season.

GAME #5: Manager John Gibbons turned to Marco Estrada in hopes of keeping the season alive. Estrada did not disappoint, allowing just one run on three hits over 7.1 innings. Toronto held a one-run lead entering the sixth frame before breaking out for four runs in the inning, with three of those runs driven in by a Troy Tulowitzki double. Toronto would add two more runs in the game while the bullpen held the Royals to just one hit over the final 1.1 innings of the game to secure the victory and send the series back to Kansas City.

GAME #6: In their fifth elimination game of the postseason, Toronto found itself down 2-0 after two innings as starter David Price surrendered two solo home runs. A solo shot by Jose Bautista in fourth cut the lead to 2-1. The Royals added another in the seventh inning before Bautista answered back with a two-run home run to tie the game, 3-3, in the seventh inning, becoming the first Blue Jay in franchise history to record a multi-home run game in the postseason. Kansas City would retake the lead in the top of the eighth with Eric Hosmer singling off of Roberto Osuna to drive home Lorenzo Cain. In the top of the ninth, Toronto had runners on second and third with none out but failed to drive home either runner as Wade Davis struck out two before inducing a groundout by Josh Donaldson to end the series.

WILD CARD

TORONTO VS BALTIMORE (W, 1-0)

After clinching a playoff berth on the final day of the regular season, Toronto found itself hosting the club's first ever Wild Card game vs. the Orioles. The Blue Jays opened the scoring in the 2nd inning, courtesy of a Jose Bautista solo shot off of Baltimore starter Chris Tillman. The Orioles would take the lead in the 3rd frame on a two-run home run by Mark Trumbo off of Toronto starter Marcus Stroman. In the bottom of the 6th, Ezequiel Carrera singled to drive home Michael Saunders who doubled to open the frame. The game remained tied at two, forcing extra innings. In the bottom of the 11th inning, with two runners on and one out, Edwin Encarnacion hit a three-run walk-off home run off of Ubaldo Jimenez to send the Blue Jays to the ALDS.

DIVISION SERIES

TORONTO VS TEXAS (W, 3-0)

GAME #1: A rematch of the 2015 ALDS saw Toronto square-off at Texas. The game remained scoreless until the 3rd inning when the Blue Jays scored five runs with two outs, highlighted by a three-run triple by Troy Tulowitzki. Toronto would add two more runs in the 4th and another three in the 9th, courtesy of a Jose Bautista three-run home run. Blue Jays starter Marco Estrada tossed eight scoreless innings before allowing a run in the 9th (8.1 IP, 4H, 6K), leading the Jays to victory and to a 1-0 series lead.

GAME #2: Looking to go up 2-0 in the ALDS, the Blue Jays struck first, opening the scoring in the 2nd inning on a two-run home run by Troy Tulowitzki. The Rangers would get one run back in the 4th to cut Toronto's lead to one. The Blue Jays answered with three solo shots by Kevin Pillar, Ezequiel Carrera and Edwin Encarnacion, off of Rangers starter Yu Darvish in the 5th inning to take a four run lead. It marked the first time in club history to hit three home runs in a single inning in postseason play. Those five runs were all Toronto needed, winning the game, 5-3, to push Texas to the brink of elimination.

GAME #3: For the first time in the series the Blue Jays found themselves trailing in a game, after the Rangers opened the scoring by plating one run in the 1st inning. By the end of the inning Toronto would find themselves, once again, in the lead by a 3-1 score after a two-run home run by Edwin Encarnacion and a Russell Martin solo shot. The two teams would each strike again in the 3rd frame, with Texas adding another run, courtesy of an Elvis Andrus home run and the Blue Jays responding with another two of their own. The Rangers would take a 6-5 lead in the top of the 6th inning, scoring all six runs off of Toronto starter Aaron Sanchez. The Blue Jays would once again tie it up in their half of the inning, with Troy Tulowitzki scoring on a passed ball. Both teams failed to plate another run, forcing the game into extra innings. In the bottom of the 10th, Josh Donaldson led off with a double, followed by an Edwin Encarnacion intentional walk. The next batter, Russell Martin, grounded into a fielder's choice with Donaldson moving up to third base on the play. On the throwing error by Texas second baseman Rougned Odor, Donaldson scored to win the game in a walk-off to sweep the series, 3-0.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

TORONTO VS CLEVELAND (L, 1-4)

GAME #1: For the second consecutive season Toronto found itself in the ALCS, facing the Indians in a playoff series for the first time in club history. The game remained scoreless until the 6th inning when Francisco Lindor hit a two-run home run off of Marco Estrada. Those two runs would be the only ones scored in the game, with Toronto falling, 2-0, in the opening game. Estrada recorded his first career complete game in the loss, joining Jack Morris as the only Blue Jays pitchers to throw a complete game in the postseason in club history.

GAME #2: The Blue Jays once again found themselves trailing Cleveland after the Indians scored a run in the 2nd inning. Toronto would tie the game in the following inning before seeing the lead relinquished in the bottom of the 3rd. The Blue Jays could muster only three hits in the contest, falling 2-1 in the game and into an 0-2 hole in the ALCS for a second straight year.

GAME #3: For the third consecutive game, the Indians opened the scoring, taking a 1-0 lead after the 1st inning. The Blue Jays responded in the 2nd, scoring a run of their own against the Cleveland bullpen, as starter Trevor Bauer was removed from the game after throwing only 21 pitches due to a significant finger injury. After both teams exchanged runs, the Indians would take the lead for good, scoring two more runs in the 6th off of Toronto starter Marcus Stroman. It marked the first time in franchise history that the Blue Jays found themselves down 0-3 in a postseason series.

GAME #4: Facing elimination for the second time in the playoffs, Toronto turned to Aaron Sanchez to keep their playoff hopes alive. For the first time in the series, the Blue Jays scored first and took their first lead of the ALCS. Cleveland cut the lead to 2-1 after the 5th inning. That would be as close as they would get with Sanchez allowing only two hits over his 6.0 innings. Toronto would score another three runs to take the game, 5-1.

GAME #5: For the fourth time over the five games, Cleveland jumped out to an early lead after scoring an unearned run in the 1st inning. Rookie Ryan Merritt shut the Toronto offense down over 4.1 innings, allowing only two hits. The Indians would score two more runs, both solo home runs off of Marco Estrada. The Blue Jays failed to muster any sort of offense, falling 3-0 in the game and 4-1 in the series.

AWARDS

NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

Roberto Alomar

SECOND BASEMAN

On July 24, 2011, thousands of Blue Jays fans were on hand in the village of Cooperstown, New York, to officially welcome Roberto Alomar to the Baseball Hall of Fame. It was a proud moment for the star second basemen, who was just the third Puerto Rican inductee, and the first Hall of Famer to be inducted as a member of the Toronto Blue Jays.

"My time in Toronto was the best of my career. It was with Toronto that we won two World Series together. You guys embraced me from day one. You were with me through ups and downs and I am so proud to represent you here in Cooperstown as the first Toronto Blue Jay inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame."

ROBERTO ALOMAR

In five seasons with the Blue Jays from 1991 through 1995, Alomar displayed sparkling defense while winning five straight Gold Gloves. He never hit less than .295 and finished third in the American League behind teammates John Olerud and Paul Molitor with a .326 average in 1993. His five-year mark of .307 gives him the highest lifetime average of any player in Blue Jays history. Over the course of his 17-year career, he hit .300 with a .371 on-base percentage. He totaled 2,724 hits, 1,508 runs, 504 doubles, 80 triples, 210 home runs, 474 stolen bases, and 1,134 RBI.

Tom Cheek

BLUE JAYS RADIO BROADCASTER

On July 27, 2013, Tom Cheek was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame as the 2013 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award. This award is presented annually for excellence in broadcasting by the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum.

Cheek, who passed away on Oct. 9, 2005, called the first 4,306 regular-season and 41 postseason games in Toronto Blue Jays history, including the club's two World Series victories, from Toronto's first contest until June 2, 2004. His wife, Shirley Cheek, was on hand with her family to accept the 2013 Ford C. Frick award for broadcasting excellence on behalf of her husband.

"Tom Cheek was the voice of summer for generations of baseball fans in Canada and beyond," said Hall of Fame President Jeff Idelson. "He helped a nation understand the elements of the game and swoon for the summer excitement that the expansion franchise brought a hockey-crazed nation starting in the late 1970s. He then authored the vocal narrative of a team that evolved into one of the most consistent clubs of the 1980s and 1990s. We are thrilled to celebrate Tom's legacy with baseball broadcasting's highest honour."

His call of Joe Carter's World Series-winning home run in Game 6 of the 1993 Fall Classic – "Touch 'em all Joe! You'll never hit a bigger home run in your life." – quickly became embedded in the hearts of Blue Jays fans around the globe.

Tom Cheek

BROADCASTER

TOM CHEEK, who called the first 4,306 regular-season and 41 postseason games in Toronto Blue Jays history, was selected as the 2013 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, presented annually for excellence in broadcasting by the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum. Cheek, who passed away after a lengthy and brave battle with brain cancer on Oct. 9, 2005, was honoured as part of Hall of Fame Weekend 2013, July 26-29 in Cooperstown, N.Y. He stood as the radio voice of the Blue Jays and, as one fan wrote, the "soundtrack of summer in Toronto" since the club's inception through 2004. He broadcast 4,306 consecutive regular season games (including 41 postseason contests) from 1977 through the midway point of the 2004 season when he was called away from the booth first by the sudden passing of his father and later by his own personal health problems. The banner in the Level of Excellence bearing his name, first unveiled in formal ceremonies held on August 29, 2004, is adorned with the number 4,306. That pays tribute to his longevity as the iron-man of baseball broadcasting. A veteran of the radio industry, he first joined the Blue Jays prior to the club's inaugural season after spending three seasons working on Montreal Expos broadcasts. Tom had been calling the balls, strikes and home runs starting with Doug Ault's big blasts on Opening Day in 1977. ### WORLD SERIES RINGS

The Toronto Blue Jays commissioned Tiffany & Co., the world-renowned purveyor of fine jewelry, timepieces, and arts of the table to design rings commemorating both their 1992 and 1993 World Series victories.

To commemorate the 1992 Blue Jays victory, the 14 karat gold ring's design features the team's logo: the head of a Blue Jay with a maple leaf on a baseball backdrop. The eye of the bird is set with a solitaire diamond. Sixteen diamonds representing each year of the club's history surround the bird and the maple leaf is enamelled in red to match the team's official colour. The inscription of World Champions 1992 wraps around the bezel. One side depicts the team's name – Toronto Blue Jays – set in two lines across the top. The 1992 World Series logo is set in a maple leaf with the inscription – Canada's 1st – positioned below the logo denoting the first Canadian World Series victory. The other side depicts the player's name and the jersey number, the American League logo and the team's 1992 season attendance record – 4,028,318 – positioned below the American League logo. Each side of the ring is accented with two rows representing the stitches of a baseball.

The 1993 World Series Championship ring features the symbols of the Toronto Blue Jays and Canada. A field of 45 diamonds in a pave style setting surrounds the Toronto Blue Jays' logo: the head of a Blue Jay enamelled in the team's official colours overlapping another Blue Jay in gold. The eye of the Blue Jay is set with a diamond solitaire stone. Two Maple Leafs, enamelled in red, symbolize Canada's back-to-back World Series victories. Two baseballs overlay each other in the background. Each ring is personalized with each player's name and jersey number, and incorporating the American League logo and the World Series logo with the inscription "Back to Back" and the years 92-93.

BOBBY MATTICK AND AL LAMACCHIA AWARDS

In 1996, the Blue Jays organization established two awards: the Bobby Mattick Player Development Award and the Al LaMacchia Scouting Award. The awards were created to acknowledge the dedication, success and work ethic of Blue Jays baseball operations personnel, attributes so aptly displayed by the awards' namesakes. The Bobby Mattick Award was named after the longtime baseball executive who had spent 25 years of his career with the Blue Jays. The late Bobby Mattick was responsible for the development of many of the young players who have gone through the Blue Jays system. As well as being Director of Player Development for many years he also managed the Major League Blue Jays for two seasons in 1980 and 1981. The Al LaMacchia Award was named after the veteran scout who spent 20 seasons with the Blue Jays. The late Al LaMacchia's scouting talents have been deeply etched in the Blue Jays short history. In 2003, the Blue Jays introduced a Community Service Award. In 2009, the Blue Jays began giving out an award for the Pro-Scout of the Year Award. On April 10, 2014, the Blue Jays created the Howard Starkman Award which will be presented annually to the Employee of the Year. It is granted annually to the Employee of the Year for the Toronto Blue Jays Baseball Club, who best exemplifies the values of integrity, innovation, accountability, team work and a passion for winning.

OPENING UP

Toronto's 16-inning contest at Cleveland to begin the 2012 season was the longest opening day game in Major League history...The Jays won 7-4 in 16 innings after J.P. Arencibia broke the tie with a three-run home run.

In fact, the Blue Jays started the 2012 season with consecutive extra-inning games for the first time in franchise history...It marked the 5th time in MLB history that a team started 2-0 with two extra innings wins on the road - others were the 1908 St. Louis Browns, 1910 Cleveland Naps, 1935 Indians and 2007 Braves.

STIEB'S NO-HITTER

SEPTEMBER 2, 1990 AT CLEVELAND - TORONTO 3, CLEVELAND 0

DAVE STIEB chalked up his first no-hitter and the first in BLUE JAYS history as he stopped the Cleveland Indians on a sunny Sunday afternoon at Cleveland Stadium before a crowd of 23,640.

The game ended as Cleveland's Jerry Browne whacked a fly to right field where JUNIOR FELIX put the squeeze on it.

Stieb had a season high nine strikeouts and walked four over his 122-pitch afternoon.

There were no tough plays and only a couple of well hit balls. Closest the Tribe came to a hit was KEN PHELPS pulling a liner about three feet foul to open the eighth inning.

The BLUE JAYS and Stieb got their offensive support from FRED McGRIFF who hit two solo home runs and from MANNY LEE who doubled home KENNY WILLIAMS in the fifth inning.

Stieb had previously gone 8.2 innings, three times, protecting no-hitters. He had back-to-back attempts in September 1988; on September 24, 1988 at Cleveland Stadium, JULIO FRANCO had a bad hop single over second baseman MANNY LEE's head. In his next start, against Baltimore at Exhibition Stadium, JIM TRABER looped a single over first baseman FRED McGRIFF's outstretched glove hand. Both no-hit bids were lost on 2-2 pitches. STIEB also had a perfect game for 8.2 innings on August 4, 1989 vs the Yankees at SkyDome. ROBERTO KELLY doubled to left to break it up.

10 CONSECUTIVE HITS

The Toronto Blue Jays tied an American League record September 4, 1992 at SkyDome by collecting 10 consecutive hits in an eight-run second inning against the Minnesota Twins.

The Blue Jays tied the mark set by the Boston Red Sox on June 2, 1901 and equalled by the Detroit Tigers on September 20, 1983.

The Major League record of 12 straight hits was set by the St. Louis Cardinals in 1920 and equalled by the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1930.

With one out in the second, Toronto's Kelly Gruber reached on an infield single against Twins' starter Kevin Tapani. Singles by Pat Borders and Manuel Lee scored Gruber to cut Minnesota's lead to 3-1.

Devon White doubled in a run and Roberto Alomar followed with a two-run single to give the Blue Jays a 4-3 lead. Joe Carter tripled home Alomar and scored on Dave Winfield's single off reliever Tom Edens. Winfield was thrown out at second for the inning's second out, but John Olerud singled and scored on Candy Maldonado's triple to open a 7-3 cushion. Gruber's bloop double to right-center scored Maldonado which snapped the string of 10 straight hits.

Borders fled to center to end the inning.

Toronto's previous club record was nine consecutive hits, set against California on July 3, 1992.

HOME RUN TRIVIA

PLAYER WHO HOMERED IN THEIR FINAL MAJOR LEAGUE AT BAT

WILLIE AIKENS, April 27, 1985. He came to bat for last time, pinch-hitting at Texas in the ninth inning. Batting for Tony Fernandez against Tommy Boggs, Aikens crushed a dramatic game-tying, two-run homer and Toronto went on to win 9-8. Three days later, Aikens was "designated for assignment" winding up in the minor leagues.

TWO IN ONE INNING, BATTER

JOE CARTER was the first Blue Jay to hit two home runs in one inning. He had his two on Oct. 3, 1993 at Baltimore in the 2nd inning.

EDWIN ENCARNACION became just the 2nd player in club history to hit two home runs in one inning. He had his two on July 26, 2013 vs. Houston in the 7th inning.

40 HOME RUN SEASONS

In 1999 CARLOS DELGADO with 44 home runs and SHAWN GREEN with 42 home runs, became the first Blue Jays tandem to each hit 40 or more home runs in the same season. In 2000, the Blue Jays again had two players, CARLOS DELGADO and TONY BATISTA, each hit 40 plus homers in a season. In 2015, JOSH DONALDSON hit 41 home runs while teammate JOSE BAUTISTA hit 40, marking the 3rd time in club history in which two teammates each hit 40. Overall the Blue Jays have had nine different players, done 12 times, hit 40 or more home runs in a season. JOSE BAUTISTA hit a club-record 54 HR in 2010 and became just the 2nd Jay to collect 40+ HR in back-to-back seasons, the first since CARLOS DELGADO (1999-2000). CARLOS DELGADO is the only Blue Jay player to hit 40 or more home runs in a season three times (1999, 2000, 2003).

HOME RUNS BY THE FIRST TWO BATTERS OF GAME

DEVON WHITE and ROBERTO ALOMAR on August 18, 1991 at Detroit accomplished this feat for the first time in Blue Jays history. The second time occurred on June 14, 2006 vs. Baltimore when ALEX RIOS and FRANK CATALANOTTO did so.

MOST PLAYERS WITH 30 OR MORE HOME RUNS

The 2000 Blue Jays had four players hit 30 or more home runs, which tied the ML record. It was just the second time the feat had been accomplished in the AL as the Anaheim Angels also had four players hit 30 plus homers in the 2000 season.

20 HOME RUNS AT THE ALL-STAR BREAK

The 2000 Blue Jays became the first team in ML history to have four players hit 20 or more home runs at the All-Star Break. CARLOS DELGADO hit 28, TONY BATISTA hit 24, RAUL MONDESI hit 22 and JOSE CRUZ Jr. hit 20.

2018 REGULAR SEASON CLUB/MEDIA REGULATIONS

The following are Major League Baseball's regulations for Club/Media Relations. They are to be observed by all parties:

1. All accredited press, radio and TV representatives shall have pre-game access to the clubhouse from three hours and 30 minutes prior to game time until one hour prior to game time, except that: (a) the media shall not have access to the clubhouse when the club is on the field for batting practice; and (b) the media may not return to the home clubhouse once the home club has taken batting practice. No Club may provide pre-game access prior to three hours and 30 minutes prior to game time. The media shall have access (outside of the clubhouse) to the home Club's manager, players or coaches after home batting practice to discuss developments (such as lineup changes, injuries, and workouts) that occur after the clubhouse closes.
2. Absent unusual circumstances that require a team meeting immediately following a game, the working media shall have access to both clubhouses no later than 10 minutes following the final out of each game (including doubleheaders and day/night split admission games). When such unusual circumstances exist, and such instances are expected to be rare, the working media shall have access to the clubhouse no later than 20 minutes following the final out of the game. The Commissioner's Office reserves the right to require access to the clubhouse 10 minutes following the final out of all games if the "team meeting" exception is abused.
3. The working media's access following a game shall be for a period no longer than one hour unless reasonable access to players is not provided during that time; provided, however, that card-carrying members of the Baseball Writers Association of America ("BBWAA") will have unlimited access after the post-game opening of the clubhouse. If reasonable access is not provided, the clubhouse must remain open. Members of the media, other than BBWAA members, may make arrangements with the club PR Director for extended access.
4. Media credentials are not transferable.
5. Clubhouses, the dugouts and the field are off-limits except to appropriate club, Commissioner's Office personnel and media bearing appropriate credentials. Club credentials are not to be issued to unauthorized personnel. The Commissioner's Office reserves the right to revoke inappropriately issued credentials.
6. Players will be available to the media before and after games for interviews. These periods should not be limited except for the pre-game period described in #1 above, and the post-game period described in #2 above. Upon request by the media, players who had key roles in the first game of a doubleheader are to be made available for a time between games.
7. The trainer's room and players' lounge may be off-limits to the media, but each club controls these areas, and it is vital these areas not be used as a sanctuary for players seeking to avoid the media. It is very important to our game that ALL players are available to the media for reasonable periods and it is the player's responsibility to cooperate.
8. Ropes or other restraining barriers are not permitted to bar the media.
9. A general code is to be observed by the media so uniformed personnel may do their work unimpeded. Media are to be allowed in foul territory, in an unrestricted manner, in an area that is to be not less than the territory between first and third bases, and which territory includes the area around the batting cage, except the dirt area around the batting cage.

10. Under no circumstances shall any club discriminate in any fashion against an accredited member of the media based upon race, creed, sex or national origin.

11. Physical abuse or threats directed to members of the media (and/or official scorers) by baseball personnel will not be tolerated. Disciplinary action, including fines and suspensions, will be considered in any cases that arise.

12. Visitors in the clubhouse, including accredited media members, should conduct themselves in a professional manner. There shall be no seeking of autographs, no touching or removing of equipment or personal items from lockers, and no sampling of players' food spreads. Clubhouses are work places. Clubhouse business should be conducted as expeditiously as possible with a minimum of disruption of regular game routines. Members of the media should not excessively linger in the clubhouse when not interviewing players. Members of the media who violate the code of conduct set forth in this paragraph shall be subject to sanctions, including the loss of their accreditation as provided for in paragraph 17 below.

While in the clubhouse, members of the media are expected to be doing business. Members of the media are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner and to respect the privileges and environment of restricted areas and working press areas at all times. Any media member in violation of this conduct policy is subject to revocation of his or her privileges and may be subject to immediate ejection.

13. Live TV and/or radio interviews with uniformed personnel during the course of a game are not authorized or permitted, nor is attaching a microphone to any uniformed personnel permitted without approval from the Commissioner's Office. Microphones may not be placed in or adjacent to dugouts and/or bullpens in a manner that will allow uniformed personnel's remarks or conversations to be overheard during the course of a game without the prior approval of the Commissioner's Office.

14. Live telephone interviews are not allowed from the clubhouse or the field without prior approval of the club. Mobile telephones with digital photography capabilities are prohibited.

15. Telephones from both dugouts to the press box are to be maintained in working order for the purpose of providing information regarding special circumstances to the media during the course of a game. Explanations of injuries should be made as soon as possible (to both the media and fans in the stadium).

16. Any club whose personnel violate these regulations will be disciplined. Any member of the media who violates these regulations will lose his or her accreditation.

17. BBWAA members are not required to sign in for clubhouse or other restricted area access but may be logged in by club personnel, subject to individual club policies. Other accredited media may be required to sign in for clubhouse access, subject to individual club policies.

As the only sports and entertainment venue of its size and design in Canada, Rogers Centre has hosted some of the greatest music, sport, trade and community events of our time.

Rock stars, entertainers, athletes, religious figures and inspirational leaders have all delighted audiences under the dome.

Rogers Centre is one of the most dynamic and versatile entertainment centres in the world. No other venue has the diversity of events that Rogers Centre hosts on an annual basis across over 200 event days. Since its spectacular opening on June 3, 1989, Rogers Centre has achieved the highest honours in the stadium entertainment industry and currently is a leader in the fight for corporate environmental responsibility. Formerly known as SkyDome, the venue was renamed Rogers Centre on February 2, 2005.

Structurally, Rogers Centre remains the same today as it was when it opened in 1989 with the exception of several key cosmetic changes over the last few years. Widened concourses, updated and upgraded suites, new video and broadcast technology were just some of the areas touched during an extensive $20 million rejuvenation project.

One of the unique features of Rogers Centre is that it can be transformed to meet the needs of any event by converting between two primary modes; baseball and football. The 100 level seats sit on a railway track system that allows them to rotate between each mode within hours.

In addition, Rogers Centre's fully retractable roof allows the venue to be an open-air facility with the ability to close pending weather conditions. This innovative roof function ensures that no event needs to be cancelled due to inclement weather. The roof system features a series of three moveable panels and one stationary panel which takes 25 minutes to open or close fully. The roof weighs 11,000 tons and covers an area of 339,343 square feet. The highest point stands 282 feet above field level.

Architects Rod Robbie and Michael Allen designed the building patenting its retractable roof system. Preparation of the site began in April 1986, with groundbreaking taking place in October of that same year. The last exterior concrete was poured in November 1988 and the first test of the moveable roof panels was performed in January 1989. More than 10,000 person-years of employment were created with the construction of Rogers Centre.

Rogers Centre is home to impressive technology including the video and ribbon boards located in the north end and around the circumference of the 300 Level. Purchased in 2005 from Daktronics, the screen is one of the industry's leading with PROSTAR® VIDEOPUS which uses state of the art LED technology. Measuring 110 feet wide by 33 feet high, the video board is capable of projecting 4.3 trillion colours.

The Toronto Blue Jays have seen significant changes to their playing surface for the start of the 2016 season. After extensive offseason research a decision was made to retrofit the field from its original state (four separate concrete pits filled with dirt forming Home, 1st, 2nd and 3rd base) to an all dirt infield.

The new dirt infield allows for greater material depth which ensures the best quality infield surface and one that is more consistent with the rest of Major League Baseball. The infield, now approximately 12,000 square feet in area, is made up of five distinct layers starting with the under fill, the existing sand and gravel base below the concrete floor. A 2" layer of pea gravel is above that which provides an area for excess water to go. Above the pea gravel is a 4" layer of sub-angular sand, which is an important part of the moisture management system. The remaining 6" is filled with baseball dirt which is a product that is processed specifically for baseball fields. This product contains a blend of 60% sand, 20% clay, and 20% silt. Sitting on top of the baseball dirt is the top layer, also known as top dressing which is a loose layer of material made up of calcined and vitrified clay.

The rest of the field remains the "roll up" synthetic turf system made up of the AstroTurf 3DXtreme 60 product, installed for the 2015 season. This product is a blend of monofilament and slit-film face fibres combined with a texturized thatch and reinforced backing that looks, feels and plays more like a natural grass field. The 3DXtreme product differs from past surfaces in the type of infill required between the turf fibres.

The field is comprised of 85 panels for the baseball configuration. The largest roll is 52 metres (170 feet) long by 4.5 metres (15 feet) wide with a roll diameter of 1.4 metres (4.5 feet).

With a symmetrical layout in baseball mode, the field measures 328' down the foul lines, 375' to the power alleys and 400' to dead centre field. The diamond is centred two degrees off perfect north with a 10 foot high outfield wall, fully padded for the protection of the players. The pitcher's mound is constructed on a fibreglass dish that is lowered and raised by a hydraulic system.

Aramark is proud to be the exclusive Food and Beverage supplier (Concessions and Premium Services) at the Rogers Centre and is committed to providing world-class cuisine and unsurpassed service. ## FLORIDA AUTO EXCHANGE STADIUM

Located at the corner of Douglas Avenue and Beltrées Street in Dunedin, Florida, Florida Auto Exchange Stadium (re-named in 2011) has been the training home for the Toronto Blue Jays since the Club's first season in 1977 and home of the Dunedin Blue Jays of the Florida State League (A).

From 1977 to 1989 the Blue Jays played at Grant Field in Dunedin, which had a seating capacity of 3,417. In 1990 the City of Dunedin, at a cost of approximately 2.4 million, built a new stadium for the Blue Jays, Dunedin Stadium at Grant Field. The stadium was designed by the architect firm of Johnston Dana Associates and was built by Case Contracting Company of Plant City, Florida. With the construction the stadium saw an increase in the seating capacity from 3,417 to 6,106.

On September 8, 2000 the City of Dunedin and the Toronto Blue Jays reached an agreement to keep the Blue Jays in Dunedin for a minimum of 15 years pending approvals. Under the agreement major renovations would be made to Dunedin Stadium and a new minor league facility would be constructed. The $12.5 million renovation was shared between the State of Florida, Pinellas County, the City of Dunedin and the Toronto Blue Jays.

The renovations to Dunedin Stadium in February 2002 were designed by the architectural firm HOK Sports + Venue + Event and were built by J.A. Jones Construction. The changes to Dunedin Stadium included a new two-story building beyond the right field wall, which holds the Blue Jays clubhouse, training room and weight room on the ground floor with office space for the major league club on the second floor. The visiting clubhouse is now located on the third-base line. As well, the bleacher seats along the right-field foul line were removed and permanent seating installed. The dimensions of the Stadium increased from 315 feet to 327 feet. The capacity of the Stadium is 5,509.

DIMENSIONS

Left-centre	375 ft/114.3 m
Centre field	400 ft/121.9 m
Right-centre	375 ft/114.3 m
Right-field line	327 ft/ 99.7 m

Fence - 16 feet high
Warning track - 20 ft/6.1 m
Capacity - 5,509

Construction on the minor league facility was completed for the 2003 season. The Bobby Mattick Training Center is located on the same grounds of the Englebert Complex. The facility features new clubhouses, offices, weight room, five full fields and a half field. Four of the fields are arranged in a cloverleaf pattern with an observation tower in the middle.

The largest ever spring exhibition game crowd was 6,218 on Tuesday March 27, 1990 for the game between the Blue Jays and the Kansas City Royals and on Wednesday March 13, 1985 for the Blue Jays and the New York Mets. The first ever Blue Jays game played at Grant Field was on March 11, 1977. The Blue Jays defeated the New York Mets by a score of 3-1.

MEDIA & MISC.

ABDUCT – Movement of any extremity away from the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an abductor muscle.

AC JOINT – Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

ADDUCT – Movement of any extremity towards the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an adductor muscle.

ANTERIOR – In front of; the front surface of.

ANTERIOR CRUCIATE LIGAMENT (ACL) – A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

ANTI-INFLAMMATORY – Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

ARTHROGRAM – X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

ARTHROSCOPY – A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

BONE SCAN – An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a “hot spot” on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

CARTILAGE – Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together.

CAT SCAN – Use of a computer to produce a cross-sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

CHARLEY HORSE – A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intramuscular bleeding.

CONCUSSION – Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

CONTUSION – An injury to muscle and tissues cause by a blow from a blunt object.

DEBRIDEMENT – Removal of non-healthy tissues and foreign material from a wound or burn to prevent infection and permit healing.

DELTOID MUSCLE – Muscles at the top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.

DISC – A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fibering which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion for the spinal column.

FEMUR – Thigh bone; largest bone in the body.

FIBULA – Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from the knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

FRACTURE – Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

GADOLINIUM MRI – The chemical gadolinium is injected into the joint being studied so as to enhance the diagnosis of the structure under investigation.

GLENOID – Cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to form the shoulder girdle.

GRADE ONE INJURY – A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or confused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

GRADE TWO INJURY – A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

GRADE THREE INJURY – A severe injury in which tissue has been significant, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

GROIN – Junction of the thigh and abdomen; location of muscles that rotate, flex and adduct the hip.

HEMATOMA – Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

HYPEREXTENSION – Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

IMPINGEMENT SYNDROME – Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder. The most common (throwing) arm injury, which represents many pathologies and general involves supraspinatus overuse.

INFLAMMATION – The body’s natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.

LABRUM (Labrum Glenoidale) – The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder. A lip-edge or lip-like structure.

LATERAL – To the outside of the body.

LIGAMENT – Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone, or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

MAGNETIC RESONANCE IMAGING (MRI) – Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.

MEDIAL – To the inside of the body.

MEDIAL COLLATERAL LIGAMENT (MCL) – Ligament of knee along the medial aspect that connects the femur to the joint.

MENISCUS – Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint, also known as “cartilage.” There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

METACARPALS – Five long bones of the hand running from the wrist to the fingers.

METATARSALS – Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

POSTERIOR – At the back part, or rear of the body.

POSTERIOR CRUCIATE LIGAMENT (PCL) – A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

QUADRICEP MUSCLES “QUADS” – A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

ROTATOR CUFF – Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.

ROTATOR CUFF IMPINGEMENT SYNDROME – A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress. The four stages are: 1) tendonitis with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff 2) fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation 3) a partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm and 4) a complete tear of 1 cm or more.

SHIN SPLINT – A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor, and cannot be defined otherwise.

SPRAIN – Injury resulting from the stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

STRAIN – Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

STRESS FRACTURE – A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

SYNOVITIS – Inflammation of the synovial lining of a joint.

TENDINITIS – Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

TENDON – Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

TIBIA – Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

ULNAR NERVE – Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

ULTRASOUND – An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

NOTE: This list is not meant to be all inclusive, nor should it be used as a substitute for a physician’s diagnosis and/or description of an injury or illness.
